BREEDING BRADSELL: 'HE HAS UNDOUBTEDLY CHANGED MY LIFE'

Deborah O'Brien, third from right, with her fellow breeders of Royal Ascot winners in 2022 | Emma Berry

By Emma Berry

The reputation of Yorkshire as the cradle of the Thoroughbred was reinforced through some of the key results of the Irish Champions Festival last weekend. Economics (GB) (Night Of Thunder {Ire}) provided a reminder of the importance of his birthplace, the Reed family's Copgrove Hall Stud, where his broodmare sire, the Arc winner Peintre Celebre, had grazed as a youngster. His dam, the dual Group 2 winner La Pomme d'Amour (GB), a third-generation Guy Reed homebred, resides there still.

Just a little farther south from Copgrove lives Deborah O'Brien, the breeder of treble Group 1 winner and star of the sprinting ranks, Bradsell (GB) (Tasleet {GB}). She may not keep her broodmares at home but as a resident of Goldsborough in North Yorkshire, O'Brien could hardly be closer to the roots of the Thoroughbred breed.

It was at Goldsborough Hall that Captain Byerley stood his old war horse, The Byerley Turk, one of the three acknowledged foundation stallions. The Byerley Turk's male-line has all but petered out but he has nevertheless played an immensely significant role over the last three centuries in the development of the breed as we know it. KINGMAN'S COSMIC YEAR POWERS TO TDN RISING STARDOM AT SANDOWN

by Sean Cronin

Juddmonte's hitherto untested Cosmic Year (GB) (Kingman {GB}--Passage Of Time {GB}, by Dansili {GB}) was scratched from a fast-ground maiden at Newbury last month and rewarded connections' patience with a stunning debut display to attain 'TDN Rising Star' status in Wednesday's Sir Michael Stoute Farewell And Thank You Novice Stakes.

The Harry Charlton trainee was usurped in the betting market by Amo Racing's Rock D'Oro (Bolt D'Oro), who had chased home subsequent G2 Champagne Stakes victor Bay City Roller (Ire) (New Bay {GB}) on debut, and stalked that rival in second for most of this seven-furlong contest. Looming large on the bridle with a quarter-mile remaining, the 5-2 second favourite seized control entering the final furlong and powered clear in emphatic style to register a hugely impressive 6 1/2-length success. Deborah O'Brien Cont. from p1

O'Brien has now written her own chapter in the breeding history books, and it was one which she has carefully researched and painstakingly developed over four generations of Bradsell's female family.

Members of that clan, including Bradsell's dam Russian Punch (GB) (Archipenko) and his young sister by Oasis Dream (GB), are based at Bearstone Stud in Shropshire.

"I must admit, the Byerley Turk's descendants haven't tended to mix well with my mares, despite the fact I would like to help out," says O'Brien, who says that she "can hardly believe" that she is now associated with a horse such as Bradsell, whose roll of honour includes the King's Stand, Nunthorpe and Flying Five Stakes at the top level, plus the G2 Coventry Stakes.

"Isn't he astonishing? He's absolutely marvellous. I love him to bits," she adds.

It was the Nunthorpe, in her home county, which gave the breeder the most pleasure, especially as she was invited into the parade ring beforehand by Oliver St Lawrence, who manages Victorious Racing for owner Shaikh Nasser Al Khalifa.

"Oliver was just so absolutely lovely," she continues. "He said that we would be welcome to join them in the ring. And then of course, it was the celebrations afterwards, so it made it absolutely amazing. I actually got to touch Bradsell again. You know what it's like when you sell them young."

Bradsell had left O'Brien's ownership as a yearling, when sold through Bearstone for 12,000gns at Tattersalls. The following spring he was back in the ring, this time up at Doncaster, where he fetched £47,000 and joined the stable of Archie Watson. After his extraordinary nine-length win on debut at York a month later he changed hands again and, on his next start, became an important first Royal Ascot winner for his Bahraini owner.

"It is a feature of the family that they all want to win, they all want to run. Some of them in a very limited way, but they all still try," says O'Brien, and she would know, having bred his first three dams and raced them in her own colours, having first become involved in racehorse ownership through his fourth dam, Champenoise (GB) (Forzando {GB}).

"He was bred to be quick. I've come to the conclusion, with the mare, that she's usually better with something speedy. She's got quite a lot of stamina in her own family. Archipenko was a mile-and-a-quarter horse, and she's got stamina back in the pedigree," she says.

Trained by James Given, Russian Punch, now 12, showed plenty of precocity herself, winning on debut at two in May and then twice more in her juvenile season, which ended with victory in the Listed Radley Stakes at Newbury.

"I absolutely adore Russian Punch, because I lost her mother carrying the next foal. She'd only had two foals, and only one filly. So she was, and is, incredibly special," she adds. "I got into the family originally as just a small partner in a share in Champenoise. Then she went to the sales, Michael Bell bought her, and we rolled in and joined into that partnership as well."

She adds, "And then she was sold for more than I could afford, went up to Ron Barr, who trained her, and I'd always said to them, 'If anything goes wrong, I'd love to have her back.' She got injured and I bought her back for the princely sum of a thousand pounds.

"She bred me seven or eight winners, all very quick, but I wanted to improve each generation, if I could, within a reasonable budget. And, thank the Lord, I have managed to do exactly that. And, of course, every breeder's dream is to breed a stallion, isn't it?"

That dream is doubtless close to being fulfilled as there are reportedly several offers in play for Bradsell when he graduates to his second career, which is hardly a surprise given his achievements to date. It hasn't all been plain sailing since Bradsell left the fold. His half-brother by Ulysses (Ire) fetched £150,000 at the yearling sales, but then Russian Punch lost her Twilight Son (GB) filly the following year and then had to be rested for a season. O'Brien does however have a special filly from the mare to spark a new dream.

"She was conceived on Valentine's Day and born on our ruby wedding anniversary, so she's going nowhere, except to race of course, and she's already called Ruby Punch. Oasis Dream is a very good broodmare sire and she's a lovely specimen."

With Tasleet having been sold to stand in India, the mare is now in foal to another son of Showcasing (GB) in Soldier's Call (GB). It is a mating which has the Juddmonte full-sisters Hope (Ire) and Wemyss Bight (GB) on the top and bottom of the pedigree, a pattern which pleases the mathematician's eye of the breeder.

"That was why I was doing it with Tasleet, to get that," she says. "So I thought the closest thing I can do is use Soldier's Call. It's in the same place in the pedigree, and fingers crossed that might turn out to be good."

O'Brien admits that her broodmare band has "crept up to seven", all of whom board at Bearstone, which she first visited when looking for a mate for Champenoise and decided upon Nureyev's son Tragic Role.

"When I had spare time I'd go to the TBA library, which was my only resource at the time," she says. "I think my interest in pedigrees grew a little from that, but also because I'm a mathematician by degree, and I just like the patterns and the thought process behind it. I don't follow any specific theories, but I just have a sort of gut feeling, looking at things, whether they're right or wrong, and I do go back about 10 or 12 generations. I don't use somebody to help me, I do it myself."

O'Brien continues, "I'm not hands-on with the horses, so that's really my big input. The plan: where they go, and why they go.

"I believe in all of the mares. I believe they can all produce good horses, if I get it right. Sometimes, like with Champenoise, you have to develop the family before what's in the history comes out again. I thought the world of Archipenko and I was really upset when he died, because I had grand plans. I think, again, blood will out. It doesn't always do it for that individual, but it will come out somewhere else."

The careful planning has certainly been rewarding for the breeder, if not in the most obvious commercial sense.

She says, "I am actually still slightly unbelieving of it, and completely overwhelmed, but he has undoubtedly changed my life. My social calendar suddenly erupted when Bradsell won the Coventry. Ascot do the breeders' lunch, which was absolutely amazing. For breeders to get acknowledged like that is fantastic. And then all the big studs invite you to all sorts of occasions, and I've never really thought about anything like that at all. I just bumbled along quietly, and bred lots of winners, but not so that anybody really noticed me."

The horse who made sure people did sit up and take notice was named after the "cocktail king" and inventor of the Russian Punch, Dick Bradsell. There was no particular fizz to the young colt, however, who is described by O'Brien as "uncomplicated".

She says, "He didn't stand out from the crowd but he had a lovely physique, and he got in the Somerville Sale that year. I thought he should net me 20,000, which would have been a profit, and he made 12,000, which wasn't. I still joke that I'm the only one that never made any money out of him. I think a lot of people passed over him because he wasn't big."

She has three yearlings heading to Book 3 of the October Sale in a few weeks, including a Mohaather (GB) filly out of Tawaasul (GB), a Ulysses half-sister to the Listed Rockingham Stakes winner Vintage Brut (GB), and a Mattmu (GB) colt from the same family.

"The way the market is at the moment this year doesn't give huge confidence, but I hope they find good homes and go to good trainers. That's all I can really ask," she says.

"I owe a lot to Archie and Hollie [Doyle], because Bradsell ended up in the right place to be a good horse. I love seeing him and Hollie together. They're a pair of pocket rockets.

"I always thought he'd make a nice sprinter, but I'm bowled over by how good he is. I'd been trying to breed a good horse, obviously, as we all do, and trying to find the pedigrees to do it, but you never know which way the genetic dice will roll."

Cosmic Year becomes the 35th Rising Star for his sire, whose roll of honour include this year's graduates Chancellor (GB) and Field Of Gold (Ire).

"The ground was too quick for him at Newbury and, considering the opposition, I didn't want him to have a hard race today," explained Charlton. "It looked like they hacked round, he picked up well and, more importantly, he behaved beautifully. He stood out the back of the stalls nicely, he stood in the stalls nicely and did everything well. He doesn't have to run again this year and we'll get him home and see what [Juddmonte's] Barry [Mahon] wants to do."

Cosmic Year is the 12th of 13 live foals and eighth scorer out of G1 Criterium de Saint-Cloud heroine Passage Of Time (GB) (Dansili {GB}), herself a full-sister to G2 King Edward VII Stakes-winning sire Father Time (GB) and a half to G1 Falmouth Stakes victrix Timepiece (GB) (Zamindar). The February-foaled homebred is kin to dual Group 2-winning sire Time Test (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}), who placed three times at the highest level, dual Group 3 winner Tempus (GB) (Kingman {GB}) and to the dam of G3 Princess Royal Stakes victrix Time Lock (GB) (Frankel {GB}). Passage Of Time has a yearling filly by Dubawi (Ire) to come.

LATE-SEASON TARGET FOR ANMAAT AFTER PRIX DOLLAR

Group 1 winner Anmaat (Ire) (Awtaad {Ire}), who won the G2 Prix Dollar in the autumn of 2022, is targeting the race again prior to a crack at the G1 Champion Stakes at Ascot, trainer Owen Burrows revealed.

The Shadwell runner, who was second in the G3 Gordon Richards Stakes and a winner of the G1 Prix d'Ispahan both in 2023, went missing for 439 days afterwards. He resumed with a victory in the G3 Rose Of Lancaster Stakes at Haydock on Aug. 10, and had been a potential candidate for the G1 Irish Champion Stakes, but did not participate.

"Anmaat's going to go to the Prix Dollar on Arc weekend," he said. "That's the plan for him, and then if all went well he could go for the Champion Stakes a few weeks later. We'll get France out of the way first and keep our fingers crossed.

"We felt the Irish Champion would have been throwing him to the wolves a little bit, he's a Group 1 winner already but we liked the idea of giving him the Group 2 race and then, all being well, he could back it up two weeks later.

"We're really pleased with how he is, he's in a really good place so fingers crossed he can stay there for the next two weeks and go in the form he's in at the minute."

CALL FOR COMPETITION ENTRIES FOR BUDDING YOUNG HORSERACING WRITERS

Last year's finalists at the Awards for Young Writers on Horseracing
NHRM

The second year of the Awards for Young Writers on Horseracing, open to people aged between 11 and 25 living in the UK, was launched by the National Horseracing Museum (NHM) on Wednesday.

The Awards are sponsored by the Wilmington Trust and separated into two age categories:

- 16-25 - up to 1,200 words
- 11-15 - up to 700 words

The winner of the under 16s category will receive £250 in prize money, while £500 will be awarded to the winner of the under 26s section. The winning entries will be published in full by the Racing Post and all finalists receive a Certificate of Participation.

Last year's winner in the under 16s category was 11-year-old Charlotte Cornish, whose piece A Second Chance covered the retraining of racehorses and met with wide acclaim.

Submitted essays will be judged by specialists from the media and horseracing industry, including David Milnes from the Racing Post, Oli Bell and Rishi Persad from ITV Racing, and Josie Reed from the Wilmington Trust.

A prize ceremony for shortlisted entries and winners will be held at the National Horseracing Museum in Newmarket in spring 2025, with invitees being given a complimentary family pass to the museum.

The closing date for entries is midnight on January 14, 2025. To enter or to find out more, email essayprize@nhrm.co.uk or visit the National Horseracing Museum website.

BALLYDOYLE'S 2MILLION FRANKEL BOOK 1 TOPPER STARTS AT NAAS

17.40 Naas, Debutantes, €18,000, 2yo, 7fT
GALVESTON (GB) (Frankel {GB}) is a big deal debuting at a track that Aidan O'Brien favours, being the Coolmore partners and Peter Brant's 2million gns Tattersalls October Book 1 topper. Out of a full-sister to Lemon Drop Kid's class acts Cannock Chase and Pisco Sour and half to the G1 Irish Oaks, G1 Prix Vermeille and G1 British Champions Fillies & Mares Stakes heroine Star Catcher (GB) (Sea The Stars {Ire}), he encounters Mark Dobbin's Washington Street (Ire) (Earthlight {Ire}), the Ger Lyons-trained €300,000 top-priced colt at the Tattersalls Ireland Breeze Up, and the Niarchos Family's Edge Of Seventeen (Ire) (Circus Maximus {Ire}), a Jessica Harrington-trained half-sister to the same connections' G1 Prix Marcel Boussac heroine Albigna (Ire) (Zoffany {Ire}).

14.55 Naas, Mdn, €18,000, 2yo, c/g, 5f 205yT
MISSISSIPPI RIVER (IRE) (Lope De Vega {Ire}) is another significant runner for Ballydoyle on this informative card, being their 850,000gns Tattersalls October Book 1 investment owned by the Coolmore partners and Peter Brant. He is the sixth foal out of the G1 Moyglare Stud Stakes winner Cursory Glance (Distorted Humor) whose two black-type performers so far include the listed-winning and group-placed filly Voodoo Queen (GB) (Frankel {GB}).

HOW THEY FARED

14.30 Great Yarmouth, Nov, £9,950, 2yo, f, 6f 3yT
Michael Appleby trainee Queen Of The Roses (Ire) (Ribchester {Ire}), a half-sister to GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf Sprint-winning stablemate Big Evs (Ire) (Blue Point {Ire}), was scratched from this intended debut.

14.50 Sandown, Nov, £10,000, 2yo, 7fT
Juddmonte homebred Cosmic Year (GB) (Kingman {GB}), a Harry Charlton-conditioned son of G1 Criterium de Saint-Cloud victrix Passage Of Time (GB) (Dansili {GB}), attained 'TDN Rising Star' status with an emphatic 6 1/2-length debut triumph.

Also Ran: Crown Board (Ire), Elnajmm (GB), Sean (Ger), Beshtani (Fr), Imperial Quarter (Ire).

TDN Rising Star Skellet, unsuccessful in four black-type starts since attaining that elevated status at Salsbury last year, went postward for this coming back off a second in Chantilly's July 14 G3 Prix Chloe and regained the winning thread with a narrow victory here. Positioned under cover in seventh after the initial exchanges, she was angled to the outside for a clear passage soon after passing the three-furlong pole and kept on strongly once shaken up approaching the final furlong to make a black-type breakthrough by a neck from Checkandchallenge.

"Ralph [Beckett] was satisfied with her all year, but he just didn't feel she was glowing," said Juddmonte's Barry Mahon. "I sensed, in the last few weeks, she was really coming forward and was in a good place after her break. She showed today that she remains a filly with potential." Cont. p10

He added, "Whether she remains in training or not, I don't know, but I wouldn't be surprised if she's a filly that could progress a bit more at four. She's a big filly, she's very angular and I think there's a little bit more to come. She likes cut in the ground, she ran in France the last day and ran well so we know she handles the travelling so it would be no surprise if there was something back out there for her. Off the top of my head I couldn't nominate a race, but I'm sure there'll be one and we'll probably get another run out of her before making plans."

Skellet is the seventh of eight foals and one of four black-type performers produced by a winning half-sister to G1 Dewhurst Stakes-winning sire Intense Focus (Giant's Causeway) and G2 Premio Roma third Angel's Trumpet (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}). The March-foaled homebred bay is a half-sister to G1 Moyglare Stud Stakes heroine Skitter Scatter (Scat Daddy), the dual Group-placed Listed Denford Stakes scorer Victory Dance (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) and GIII Jimmy Durante Stakes runner-up Data Dependent (More Than Ready). Data Dependent, in turn, is the dam of last year's GI Belmont Oaks Invitational heroine Aspen Grove (Ire) (Justify). Skellet's dam Dane Street (Street Cry {Ire}) has a weanling colt by Too Darn Hot (GB) to come.

Placed on five occasions at this level prior to Wednesday, Sound Angela offered the prospect that she had improved for wind surgery on her belated return in a York handicap last month and confirmed that impression with a black-type breakthrough. Buried in mid-pack early, she was delivered to overhaul the long-time leader High Spirited approaching the furlong pole and hold off Naomi Lapaglia in the drive to the line.

The G3 Oak Tree Stakes-placed dam, whose filly foal is by Showcasing (GB), is a half to the G1 British Champions Fillies & Mares Stakes heroine Seal Of Approval (GB) (Authorized {Ire}) and to the dam of the G1 St Leger, G1 Irish Derby and G1 Grand Prix de Paris winner Hurricane Lane (Ire) (Frankel {GB}) and last week's G2 Doncaster Cup scorer Sweet William (Ire) (Sea The Stars {Ire}).

2nd-Great Yarmouth, £9,950, Nov, 9-18, 2yo, f, 6f 3yT, 1:09.03, g/f. HOLD A DREAM (IRE) (f, 2, Bated Breath {GB}--Kaprice {Ire}, by Charm Spirit {Ire}), second in outings at Sandown and Newbury last month, broke sharply and seized an immediate lead in this third start. Holding sway throughout, the 5-2 second favourite came under pressure when threatened approaching the final furlong and was ridden out to defeat Dash Of Azure (GB) (Blue Point {Ire}) by 1 1/2 lengths. Hold A Dream is the first of three foals out of a winning half-sister to stakes-winning G1 Queen Anne Stakes third Dream Eater (Ire) (Night Shift), G3 St Simon Stakes third Dreamspeed (Ire) (Barathea {Ire}) and Listed Grand Cup third Gulf Of Naples (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}). The February-foaled bay, whose second dam is G3 Prix Penelope third Kapria (Fr) (Simon Du Desert {Fr}), is kin to a yearling colt by Advertise (GB) and a weanling filly by Cotai Glory (GB). 4th-Beverley Cont.

Coaxed forward with three furlongs remaining, the 5-2 favourite came under sterner urging approaching the final furlong and ran on well out wide to defeat Maywedance (Ire) (Mehmas {Ire}) by an ultimately comfortable 2 3/4 lengths. Surprised, whose second dam Preference (GB) (Efisio {GB}) is a full-sister to G3 Beewsing Stakes-winning sire Casteddu (GB) and the stakes-winning Barbaroja (GB), is the fourth of six foals and third scorer for her dam. The March-foaled bay is kin to a yearling colt by Expert Eye (GB) and a weanling filly by Stradivarius (Ire). Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, $5,918.

O-Sigsworth Partners; B-L C & A E Sigsworth (GB); T-Ed Bethell.

3rd-Yarmouth, £20,000, Mdn, 9-18, 2yo, 7f 3yT, 1:22.40, g/f. NIGHTWALKER (GB) (c, 2, Frankel {GB})--Sleep Walk {GB}, by Oasis Dream {GB}, a half-brother to the dual GI Diana Stakes heroine Whitebeam (GB) (Caravaggio), had been third on debut behind the subsequent G3 Solario Stakes runner-up Matauri Bay (Ire) (Lope De Vega {Ire}) at Leicester last month and exhibited the same tendencies of his half-sibling by taking up the running and enjoying himself on the lead. Kept up to his work in the closing stages, the 6-5 second favourite held on to beat Ultrasoul (Ire) (Kingman {GB}) a shade cosily by 3/4 of a length. The dam, who also has a yearling son of No Nay Never and a foal full-sister to the winner, is a half to Frankel's G1 St Leger hero Logician (GB) and the triple grade III winner and GI E. P. Taylor Stakes runner-up Suffused (GB) (Champs Elysees {GB}). Also a half to Frankel's stakes winner Collide (GB) and a full-sister to the unraced dam of his G2 Park Hill Stakes-placed Lmay (Ire), the family includes the sires Cityscape (GB) and Bated Breath (GB) and the top-level sprinter Equilateral (GB) (Equiano {Fr}). PRINCE OF THE SEAS (IRE) (c, 2, Sea The Stars {Ire})--Sweet Firebird {Ire} {GSP-Ire}, by Sadler's Wells, runner-up over a mile at Kempton last month, raced behind the leading trip throughout the early stages. Earning the lead two out, the 5-4 favourite tended to hang right towards the rail but stayed on to secure a 1 1/2-length verdict over Sword Of Wessex (Ire) (Wootton Bassett {GB}). The winner is currently the last known foal out of G3 Blue Wind Stakes-placed dam, who has already produced the dual listed scorer and multiple group-placed Ayrad (Ire) (Dalakhani {Ire}) and the fellow listed winner Dawn Of Hope (Ire) (Mastercraftsman {Ire}) who was third in the G3 Snow Fairy Stakes. Also the second dam of the G2 Autumn Classic winner Immediacy (NZ) (Tarzino {NZ}), she is a half to Nureyev's high-class sprinter Stravinsky. Sales history: 130,000gns Ylg '23

BREEDING DIGEST: TWIN TRAILS LEAD TO CHURCHILL GOLD

Jonathan's Way | Coady Media

by Chris McGrath

To many, no doubt, her genetic contribution is by now too attenuated to merit attention. At the very least, however, it must be acknowledged an impressive coincidence that the winners of both the GIII Iroquois Stakes and GIII Pocahontas Stakes--whose shared value, as reconnaissance for the Classics over the same track next May, is recognized by allocation of the first starting points--should share as sixth dam the Darby Dan foundation mare Golden Trail.

The Golden Trail dynasty entwines such productive lines as those branded by Memories of Silver, Sunshine Forever and Brian's Time. Foaled in 1958, Golden Trail had completed a modest racing career when acquired by John W. Galbreath from the Isabel Dodge Sloane dispersal in 1962. Sloane had bred Golden Trail by sending a half-sister to her 1958 Acorn Stakes winner Big Effort to Hasty Road--a sire who ultimately recycled his tremendous constitution primarily through his daughters, none more so than the one who produced Forego. Golden Trail would prove another luminous example.

Galbreath eventually "married" Golden Trail to Graustark, who sired 11 of her last 12 foals (from 17 overall).

LOCKED GEARING UP AT SARATOGA, KEENELAND'S PERRYVILLE A POTENTIAL COMEBACK TARGET by Steve Sherack

Eclipse Thoroughbred Partners and Walmac Farm's 'TDN Rising Star' Locked (Gun Runner--Luna Rosa, by Malibu Moon), one of the early-book favorites for this spring's GI Kentucky Derby following an impressive win in the GI Claiborne Breeders' Futurity and third-place finish as the favorite in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile last fall, could return to action in the GIII Perryville Stakes at Keeneland Oct. 19.

Locked missed a pair of intended starts earlier this spring, including the GII Coolmore Fountain of Youth Stakes at Gulfstream Park Mar. 2, and was subsequently taken out of training by Hall of Famer Todd Pletcher due to a knee injury.

But that charismatic horse was only born the same spring that Golden Trail was mated with Olympia to produce her second foal, On the Trail. While the latter never made the racetrack, she opened an early conduit for the Golden Trail blood as dam of Darby Creek Road (whose 1:20.40 over 7f at Saratoga has now survived a 46th summer) and second dam of that splendid influence, Dynaformer. Though On the Trail herself remained an eligible date for Graustark, they only had a single foal together. That was Regal Road, who has already achieved distinction as third dam of Monarchos--and now comes to notice as fourth dam of Jonathan's Way (Vekoma).

The Iroquois winner is the latest discovery for Rigney Racing by John Moynihan, who emboldened his clients to go to $290,000 for an Ohio-bred weanling when discovering him in the Brookdale consignment at the 2022 Keeneland November Sale. He was bred by Turfway trainer Susan Anderson from Female Drama (Indian Charlie), one of just three broodmares at her lay-up farm near Milford, Ohio.

This branch of the dynasty had seemed to go fairly cold by 1998, when Darby Dan culled a dual winner by Dixieland Band out of Regal Road's daughter by Roberto. But she promptly produced a dual Group 1 winner in Argentina and subsequently Female Drama, who won both her juvenile starts at Belmont (a maiden and a sprint stakes) before failing to consolidate at three. Female Drama has entertained a fairly mixed range of suitors and, while all six of her starters have won, it is to Vekoma's credit that she has now produced a much brighter talent. We'll give him some consideration in the next item.

As for Pocahontas winner La Cara (Street Sense), she traces to Golden Trail's second foal by Graustark, Java Moon. Herself winner of the GIII Comely Stakes, Java Moon has become celebrated as the link between Golden Trail and one of the most cherished families in the Darby Dan story: she recurs as granddam of Memories of Silver (Silver Hawk); third dam of Winter Memories (El Prado {Ire}); and fourth of To Honor and Serve and Angela Renee, both by Bernardini, Grade I winners all.

The latter pair were out of the stakes-winning Deputy Minister mare Pilfer, whose Grade II-placed dam Misty Hour (by Miswaki out of Java Moon's unraced daughter by Nijinsky) had been sold by Darby Dan as a yearling. Pilfer was cashed out to Three Chimneys for $1.95 million after the rise of To Honor and Serve, but his two most accomplished siblings turned out to be already on the ground: Angela Renee, then a weanling, went on to win the GI Chandelier Stakes before herself being sold for $3 million; while Elnaawi (Street Sense) had run a promising third on his sole juvenile start, later becoming a Grade I-placed stakes winner. Nonetheless Three Chimneys could retrieve their investment in Pilfer by selling the colt (naturally by Bernardini) she had been carrying in utero for $750,000 as a yearling, plus two subsequent full-sisters for $1.5 million and $500,000.

The latter transaction was made by Tracy Farmer. While his filly, named Cara Caterina, could not eke out a win from eight maiden starts, Farmer sent her to Street Sense for her first cover. Her dam, remember, had given the Darley stallion Elnaawi, while the same cross with a Bernardini mare had just produced Maxfield. The result is La Cara.

It was Cara Caterina's sire who prompted our recent reflections on broodmare sires, after daughters of Bernardini produced the winners of both the juvenile Grade Is closing out the Saratoga meet. The subject could be seamlessly resumed after this race, both La Cara and runner-up Liam in the Dust (Liam's Map) being out of Bernardini mares. La Cara, indeed, is an absolute poster girl for the whole phenomenon: her second and third dams by Deputy Minister and Miswaki. Whatever she may yet achieve on the track, La Cara will surely make a broodmare.

Vekoma on His Way

It's a nice problem to have, for sure. But the astounding purses at Kentucky Downs are such that we have now seen the freshman standings skewed by a single performance.

Of course, we've become used to similar distortions of the general sires' list when earnings are bloated by desert plunder in the first weeks of the year. Admittedly Into Mischief is so dominant that he has absorbed that challenge very comfortably. This year, in fact, he took the additional precaution of himself siring the G1 Dubai World Cup winner, and as a result will soon break his own record on his way to a sixth consecutive title. (He's up to $27 million already in 2024, closing on the $28.5 million he banked two years ago.) But for now the venerable Mineshaft still clings to second, his three black-type scorers happening to include the G1 Saudi Cup winner, who accounts for 80 percent of his bank.

The situation is nothing like so extreme with Tiz The Law, whose son Tiztastic has catapulted him to the top of the freshman table by winning the Kentucky Downs Juvenile Mile, a listed race carrying a first prize 3.5 larger than the GI Hopeful Stakes a few days previously. Having already pocketed $150,000 in an allowance at Kentucky Downs, Tiztastic has contributed half the earnings so far accumulated by the first crop of Tiz The Law.

To be fair, in working from a somewhat narrower base than some peers with 82 named foals, the Ashford stallion has made a perfectly respectable start overall. Besides his premier earner, nine of his other 29 starters are off the mark, including Out On Bail, winner of the Skidmore Stakes at Saratoga.

But while Complexity is the one still punching above weight, alone boasting two graded stakes and three stakes scorers, last weekend was unmistakably a landmark one for the horse who has for now inserted himself between him and Tiz The Law.

While Vekoma has the biggest armada of the class, with 140 named foals, he need not seek too far beyond his own stall for evidence that sheer weight of numbers won't always guarantee a flying start. And his 19 winners from 47 so far through the gate now include Jonathan's Way, the GIII Iroquois Stakes winner whose antecedents are discussed above. The same day, moreover, Vekoma only just missed the GI Natalma Stakes when Vixen was foiled by a neck.

The son of Candy Ride (Arg) retired with a highly commercial profile, as a GI Met Mile/GI Carter Handicap winner, out of a single-turn Grade I scorer from the family of Street Sense and Mr. Greeley. His rather eccentric action did not discourage a staggering debut book of 222 mares, with another 408 through the revolving door across the next two seasons. Nor did the consequent congestion of the market prevent him converting a $20,000 opening fee into a $60,000 median for 102 sold from 120 yearlings offered last year. His positive start on the track has been reflected in the prices so far commanded by his second crop, headlined by $625,000 and $600,000 transactions at Keeneland last week.

Vekoma is making the familiar farm model function well, then, with breeders trading potential catalogue inundation for an accessible fee, and has been kept in the game at $15,000 the last couple of years. It's still early days, of course. But that's just as well for one or two of his peers, and you'd certainly rather be where this horse is right now. His own template, having excelled at four after a long post-Derby layoff, suggests that his stock should thrive with maturity. Even as it is, with six stakes performers to date, he's matching all his quantity with strong hints of quality.

Taking the Blame One More Time

Returning to broodmare sires, Saturday was another day of precocious achievement in that sphere for Blame when his daughter Complicated produced And One More Time (Omaha Beach) to win the GI Natalma Stakes at Woodbine.

Claiborne could duly celebrate a further upgrade for the $300,000 War Front filly out of Complicated they purchased at

And One More Time | Michael Burns

Saratoga in August. Even since the sale, the page had been decorated by a first graded success (a valuable Grade II at Kentucky Downs) for the mare's sophomore Simply In Front (Summer Front), who had finished runner-up in the Natalma last year. With their 4-year-old sibling Honor D Lady (Honor Code) having already done her bit, romping in the GII Delaware Handicap in July, Complicated can be credited with a pretty extraordinary achievement: graded stakes wins from three consecutive foals within barely two months. Of her two previous foals, incidentally, one was unraced and the other, Churchtown (Air Force Blue), is a stakes winner who missed a Grade II podium by a nose last summer. All these have been bred by William Harrigan and Mike Pietrangelo.

We can't attribute all this success exclusively to Blame, for whom Complicated's trio are among 14 graded stakes winners already as damsire. For she extends a distinguished Phipps line, having left that program on retirement from the racetrack for $110,000 at the Keeneland November Sale of 2016.

Her dam Consequence (El Prado {Ire}) was a Grade II-placed stakes winner on turf out of millionaire Educated Risk (Mr. Prospector), herself half-sister to a still more accomplished racemare in champion Inside Information (Private Account). Live Oak Plantation will duly have factored her residual value into the $750,000 they gave for And One More Time at Saratoga last year.

Whatever help he has received from Complicated, of course, Omaha Beach can gratefully incorporate And One More Time into a snowballing second campaign, not least at Woodbine where he recently provided King's Plate winner Caitlinhergrtness. Omaha Beach finished behind three cheaper neighbors in Spendthrift's private race for the freshman title last year, but the cream has risen with their first sophomores and he now tops the second-season sires' table, whether cumulatively or this year, on most indices. This class has admittedly fallen short of historic standards, in their aggregate of graded stakes winners, but Omaha Beach is consolidating with 21 black-type performers overall at 15 percent of named foals.

In terms of his synergy with Blame, there's a striking echo between the pair. For a start, both are out of Seeking the Gold mares. But Omaha Beach is additionally by Danzig's son War

Front, while Blame's sire Arch is out of a Danzig mare.

Running from the Law

Not that War Front himself is done just yet, the noble veteran notching his 25th elite scorer last weekend through Full Count Felicia's runaway exhibition in the GI E.P. Taylor Stakes.

Fast as she went, she wasn't ever going to stop with so much elite European staying blood to draw upon. Her dam is a Galileo (Ire) half-sister to three female nuggets in Moonstone (GB) (Dalakhani {Ire}), L'Ancrese (Ire) (Darshaan {GB}), and her sister Cerulean Sky (Ire), runner-up in this same race 25 years ago.

Their dam Solo de Lune (Ire) was by one of the dourest influences in the modern breed, Law Society. He would today be treated as commercial poison, but other stars out of his daughters include Classic winner/producer Love Divine (GB) (Diesis {GB}); champion Japanese sire Manhattan Café (Jpn) (Sunday Silence); and dual French Classic winner Brametot (Ire) (Rajsaman {Fr}).

“Locked was sidelined prior to the Fountain of Youth with a rare injury to a ligament at the back of his left knee,” Eclipse Thoroughbred Partners President & Founder Aron Wellman said.

“Some of the most renowned vets had never seen this type of injury before, and thanks to Todd Pletcher and his staff for catching some ever so subtle occasional missteps Locked took intermittently, along with modern medical technology, we were able to identify the issue before it became a more serious problem.

“We gave Locked ample time to heal and Ian Brennan and his team did their usual first-class job rehabbing Locked at Stonestreet Farm in Ocala before he returned to Todd at Saratoga in early August.”

Locked has posted six workouts at Pletcher's Saratoga base, including a pair of four-furlong breezes in :50 (9/23) and :49.49 (19/71) over the Oklahoma training track Sept. 8 and Sept. 15, respectively.

“He most recently really stepped up his game with a pretty serious half-mile move with a big-time gallop-out,” Wellman said.

“We never want to get too far ahead of ourselves, but we're on the brink of circling a comeback race target. Locked is a Grade I winner, but he's still eligible for a 2x allowance. Unfortunately, unless there's an extra put up in New York or Kentucky, none of the current allowance races are at the right time or the right distance, so we may have to get a bit creative.

“Although we know he wants two turns and then some, a race like the Perryville going seven furlongs against 3-year-olds is on our radar. We’d love to have Locked primed for the Pegasus World Cup in January, so if we use the Perryville to get him going it puts the Cigar Mile or the Harlan’s Holiday in play as next steps to accomplishing our goal of the Pegasus.”

Wellman concluded, “Naturally, this all hinges on Locked’s cooperation. We know he has the talent, so it will all boil down to executing the game plan, but for now, we’re very pleased with his condition and progress.”

Hailing from the third crop of leading young sire Gun Runner, Locked was produced by a winning half-sister to MGISW Gabby’s Golden Gal (Medaglia d’Oro) and MGSW & GISP Always a Princess (Leroidesanimaux {Brz}). The Gun Runner/Malibu Moon cross is already responsible for GISW Sierra Leone and GSWs Shotgun Hottie and Runninsonofagun. Locked, a $425,000 Keeneland September yearling, is also bred similarly to MGISW and ‘TDN Rising Star’ Taiba (Gun Runner), who is out of a Flatter mare.

CASSE LANDS $350K NOT THIS TIME COLT IN BOOK 5 OPENER AT KEENELAND

Wednesday’s topper, a colt by Not This Time | Keeneland

by Christina Bossinakis

A colt by Not This Time led the initial Book 5 session of the Keeneland September Sale in Lexington Wednesday. Consigned by his breeder Woods Edge Farm, Hip 3027 was purchased for $350,000 by bloodstock agent Justin Casse, purchasing on behalf of an undisclosed client.

“He is a lovely colt,” said Casse. “He was spotted well in the latter part of the sale by one of the best consignors out there, Peter O’Callaghan. His pedigree stood out. You weren’t going to run into many pedigree like that at this stage and the physical held its own. We were happy to give it a whirl.”

As for the price, he added, “When you talk about a stallion whose last stud fee was $150,000, I think the price makes sense.”

The Apr. 13 foal is out of the unraced Cape Town mare Running Creek, a half-sister to Grade III winner He Loves Me (Not For Love) and MSW and GSP For Kisses (Not For Love). The 20-year-old mare is already responsible for full-sibling Grade III winner Easy Time, dual stakes winner Softly Lit (Latent Heat), in addition to multiple stakes placed Venice Queen (Latent Heat).

“Sometimes when you run into pedigrees like that this late in the sale, there are problems with vetting or physical,” explained Casse. “But this one was right on target with what we’d hope.”

Through nine sessions of the September sale, three yearlings by Not This Time brought seven figures--Hip 286 ($1.3 million), Hip 324 ($1,150,000) and Hip 238 ($1 million).

“Not This Time has always been on my radar,” said Casse. “I bought a few of them over the years and we’ve had a little bit of success with them. I was really happy with what I saw here. I thought he held is own in regards to what I saw in earlier books.”

Late in the sale, a colt by Daredevil brought $200,000 from Pin Oak Stud. Consigned by Gainesway, Hip 3213 is out of unraced Come Follow Me (Eskendereya), a half-sister to Grade I winners Majestic Harbor (Rockport Harbor) and Danza (Street Boss).

A pair of colts brought $190,000, the third highest price of the session. Hip 2833, by Jimmy Creed out of El Haseena, went to FMQ Stables, while Hip 3060, by Violence out of Starlite Starbrite, was purchased by agent Barry Berkelhammer. The former was consigned by Taylor Made Sales Agency, while the latter was offered by Hill 'n' Dale at Xalapa.

“I think it's tough,” remarked Casse when asked about the yearling market. “If you're a buyer it's hard to get the ones you want. I brought three and sold all of them, but I think as a buyer, coveting the higher end stuff, or what I perceive to be the higher end, it's been a difficult task. But I think for what's left to sell, I think you'd feel good if you had something nice to sell.”

On Wednesday's opening Book 5 session, a total of 308 yearlings were sold through the ring for gross receipts of $13,744,000, up 2.34% from 2023. Average dipped 1% to $44,623, while median ticked up 4.48% to $35,000 over one year ago.

Gross through nine sessions rose 4.44% to $396,213,500 for 2048 sold, with average rising 7.24% to $193,464. Median increased 10% to $110,000.

RNAs for Wednesday's session dropped significantly, down from 60 last year to 49 this term, while showing an 11.41% increase (674) from 2023 (605).

The sale continues Thursday, with bidding commencing at 10 a.m.

RICHARD RIGNEY JOINS TDN WRITERS' ROOM PODCAST

It's early, but maybe not too early to start dreaming of the GI Kentucky Derby. At least it's not for owner Richard Rigney. Rigney is the owner of 'TDN Rising Star' Jonathan's Way (Vekoma), the winner of last Saturday's GIII Iroquois Stakes at Churchill Downs, the first of many races that award Derby points to the top five finishers. Making his second career start after overcoming trouble to win a maiden at Saratoga, Jonathan's Way was an impressive winner, suggesting there could be bigger and better triumphs in his future.

To discuss Jonathan's Way and the recent success his stable has had, Rigney was this week's guest on the TDN Writers' Room Podcast presented by Keeneland.

So does he already have a case of Derby Fever?

"Absolutely," he said. "I had Derby Fever about a year ago with this horse. So I'm real excited about him. He's quite a horse. The horse was purchased as a weanling by John Moynihan in the November sale at Keeneland. While we've always liked the horse, we were at one time considering maybe doing some pinhooking, selling him as a yearling or maybe at a 2-year-old sale. But this was such a nice physical for us that we decided that there was no way that we were going to put the horse up for sale, which is actually kind of unusual for us."

Rigney did not get off to a good start in this business. With Phil Bauer as his private trainer, he launched Rigney Racing LLC in 2013. In the first four years of its existence Rigney won only 17 races. In 2023, Rigney won 33 races with earnings of $3,924,319, and now the stable includes one of the most highly-regarded 2-year-olds in the game. Rigney said the turnaround came when he hired bloodstock agent John Moynihan to pick out his horses at the sales.

"John's made a world of a difference," Rigney said. "When I was starting in this business and when Phil and I went out together, I figured I was a successful business man, with a successful business. I make flavors [for liquor] and I've done well. I've been doing this for 30-some-odd-years and I've never had a salesperson working for my business. I figured I could do just as well in the racing business. But Phil and I were just miserable about picking horses. We were terrible.

"When it comes to adding John to the team, I felt a little bit bad about it at first because I was a little concerned that it was going to diminish my value as part of the Rigney Racing. Here's this guy who's going to take over and be in charge of picking out our yearlings. But it was the best thing that ever happened. John can really pick out an athlete."

Bauer, of course deserves credit, as well. A former assistant to Kenny McPeck, he has blossomed as Rigney's private trainer.

"Phil and I, we have very similar personalities," Rigney said. "So it was easy for us to be close friends. I thought that I wouldn't mind growing this business, but if I'm going to grow this business I would like to do it with you, Phil. So he agreed to come to work for me. We had some rough years at first. This business can be really difficult. Our first five years we were doing terrible and I was getting phone calls from other trainers asking if I'd let Phil go and hire them. I never would have done that. I will always be with Phil."

In our breeding spotlight section, we looked at the WinStar stallion Independence Hall.

HERNANDEZ ENJOYING THE RIDE WITH COTILLION FAVORITE THORPEDO ANNA

by Tim Wilkin, courtesy Wednesday's Pennsylvania Derby & Cotillion News

The echoes that bounced off the rafters at Saratoga Race Course last month are still fresh in the mind of Brian Hernandez, Jr. The 38-year-old jockey can still hear the noise as he rode Thorpedo Anna (Fast Anna) to a heart-pounding second--beaten by a head--behind Fierceness (City of Light) in the GI Travers Stakes.

Thorpedo Anna's bid to become the first filly to win the Travers in 109 years came up just short.

Now, the page has turned to Parx Racing and Thorpedo Anna will be the headliner in the $1-million GI Cotillion Stakes for 3-year-old fillies. Hernandez is more than happy to be along for the ride again.

"She gave me a lot (in the Travers)" Hernandez said, "but I don't think we got to the bottom of her. She wasn't tired after that race. She still thinks she won. That's encouraging."

Thorpedo Anna, trained by Kenny McPeek and owned by Nader Alaali, Mark Edwards, Judy Hicks and Sherri McPeek's Magdalena Racing was made the 4-5 morning-line favorite in the Cotillion by Parx Director of Racing and Racing Secretary David Osojnak.

She is undefeated in four starts this year against fillies, winning those by a combined 18 3/4 lengths. Hernandez has been aboard for all of them, three of the races being Grade 1s.

Earlier this year, Hernandez became the ninth jockey in history to win the GI Kentucky Derby and GI Kentucky Oaks in the same year. He won the Derby with Mystik Dan (Goldencents), who is also trained by McPeek.

"She has gotten so popular after her summer at Saratoga," Hernandez said. "The crazy thing about this year is that I rode the Kentucky Derby winner, and no one is talking about him. It's all about Thorpedo Anna. She has taken the spotlight."

She will certainly have the spotlight at Parx.

Hernandez, who rides regularly in Kentucky, won the 2004 Eclipse Award for outstanding apprentice jockey. He is the all-time leading rider at Kentucky Downs and is annually near the top of the list at Churchill Downs.

In 2012, he won the GI Breeders' Cup Classic with Fort Larned, but it wasn't until this spring that he was vaulted into the national spotlight. And he has embraced that.

"Winning the Breeders' Cup is a huge, huge accomplishment," he said. "And we have had some good years, but it goes to a different stratosphere when you win the Kentucky Derby. It definitely puts you on the radar."

Having the best filly in the land as a partner sure doesn't hurt, either.

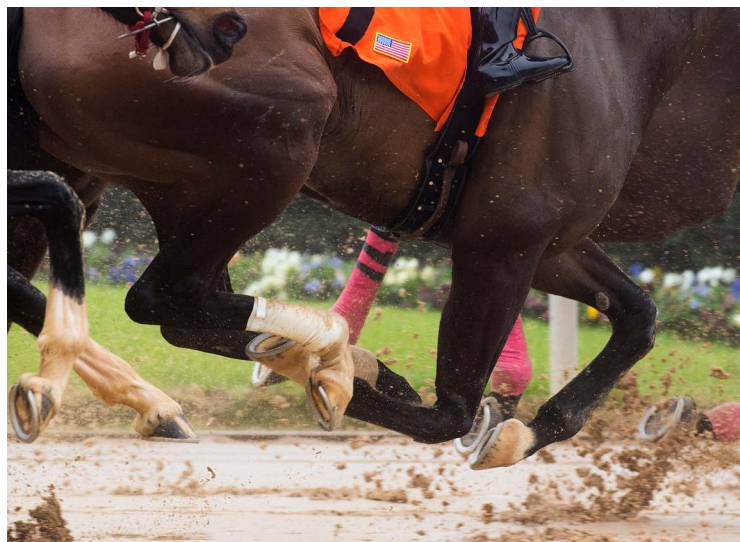

Hernandez expects that Thorpedo Anna will be just as regaled at Parx as she was in Saratoga this summer and Kentucky this spring.

"That has made this so much more fun," Hernandez said. "Over the summer, she had the fan base and there were hats and posters. She knows she is special. She is the big horse in the barn. When horses get good like she has, they understand how good they are. She doesn't know she's a filly. She just knows she is all racehorse. We are really looking forward to the rest of the year."

GSW ZOZOS HEADED FOR KEYSTONE STUD DUTY AT EQUESTAR

by J.N. Campbell

In a deal that came about unexpectedly for Rodney Eckenrode's Equistar--the training and breeding operation east of Harrisburg, Pennsylvania that stands Smarty Jones and Brody's Cause--GSW Zozos (Munnings) will join the farm's stallion roster for 2025 with a stud fee of $2,500 in the offing.

The dark bay, who was bred and campaigned by Minnesotans Barry and Joni Butzow, recently retired from trainer Brad Cox's shedrow after a career which began at three.

Zozos's career highlights include a runner-up finish in the GII Twinpires.com Louisiana Derby at Fair Grounds and a 10th-place showing in the 2022 GI Kentucky Derby. The next season, the homebred won the Knicks Go Stakes and later the GIII Ack Ack Stakes--both at Churchill Downs.

In May of this year, Zozos was third in the GI Churchill Downs Stakes, and finished his career over the summer with 15 starts, seven wins and over $1 million in earnings.

Eckenrode, who has been on the hunt for a new stallion, heard from an agent friend of his that the 5-year-old was coming on the market.

"It normally can take a couple of years to find the right fit," said Eckenrode. "This horse is really going to get people excited here in Pennsylvania and what he is going to do is really help the breed. That is always my focus regionally. The depth of the pedigree here and the Munnings connection were just a few of the reasons that we jumped at the chance."

The breeder acknowledged that with over 70% of races in the state drawn up as sprints, Zozos will make a fine addition because of the types of runners who Munnings already claims.

Eckenrode believes that the Ashford Stud stallion also has versatility in his blood to handle different surfaces.

"I've already spoken to a number of folks and they are really interested," he said. "The number was right for us and setting the fee where we have will entice folks once the season starts."

The Butzows will retain a piece of Zozos's stallion rights, according to Eckenrode.

TAA TO ATTEND SANTA ANITA PARK'S CALIFORNIA CROWN

Thoroughbred Aftercare Alliance (TAA) will be in attendance to present awards and promote horse care at Santa Anita Park on Saturday, Sept. 28, for the inaugural California Crown Day, the non-profit said in a release Wednesday.

Following the running of the Unzip Me Stakes presented by the TAA, winning connections will be presented with a branded blanket and gift bag in the winner's circle, and a check presentation will be made from 1/ST to the aftercare organization.

"This event spotlights the best of California racing, and collaborating with Thoroughbred Aftercare Alliance provides a great opportunity for race fans and participants to learn more about the mission to support Thoroughbreds after racing," said Nate Newby, general manager, Santa Anita Park.

TAA will also present the Best Turned-Out awards, which are sponsored by LRF Cares, for the entire card.

"Thoroughbred Aftercare Alliance is thrilled to be part of the inaugural California Crown," said Emily Dresen, director of funding & events. "Presenting the Best Turned Out awards with LRF Cares is a great way to showcase the importance of horse care both before and after the track."

GUN BARREL CITY (Frankel {GB}), whose world-class sire needs no introduction, is set to become the latest starter from Mrs McDougal (Medaglia d'Oro), twice a winner at the graded level and third in the GI Just A Game Stakes on the grass when conditioned by Chad Brown for Mr. & Mrs. William Warren. Steve Young went to a sales-topping $1.6 million on behalf of the Basses at the 2018 Keeneland January Sale and the mare has excelled in her second career, producing last year's GII Twilight Derby hero Seal Team to the cover of War Front. Second dam Distorted Passion (Distorted Humor) was a three-time stakes winner and two-times graded-stakes placed, while her dam Arianna's Passion (Unbridled's Song) was also a black-type winner. TJCS PPs

9th-BAQ, $90k, Msw, 2yo, 6fT, 5:15 p.m. ET

Celestine (Scat Daddy) defeated the aforementioned Mrs McDougal into third in the 2016 Just A Game and she is represented by the debuting SILENT DREAMER (Into Mischief) in the BAQ finale. Trainer to her elite-level score by Bill Mott, Celestine was knocked down to Moyglare Stud for $2.55 million at the 2016 Keeneland November Sale, the third-dearest price behind Unrivaled Belle and Secret Gesture (GB). Celestine is a half-sister to MSW Haunted Heroine (Ghostzapper), the dam of the versatile GSW Law Professor (Constitution); and to MSW Silent Sting (Silent Name {Jpn}). TJCS PPs

5th-CD, $120k, Msw, 2yo, 6 1/2f, 6:56 p.m. ET

ADMIRAL DENNIS (Constitution), a son of SW Gulf Coast (Union Rags), was purchased by Albaugh Family Stable for $425,000 at last year's Keeneland September Sale. A grandson of GIII Bourbonette Oaks third Sweet Success (Candy Ride {Arg}), the Mar. 1 foal is a full-brother to a yearling colt that was purchased by Spendthrift Farm and Bregman Family Racing for $500,000 during the opening week at this year's KEESEP sale.

BILLAL (c, 3, Street Sense--Bambalina, by Bernardini), third in a June 8 Saratoga allowance that produced three next-out winners, filled the same spot, but was well-beaten behind future GI H. Allen Jerkens Stakes hero Domestic Product (Practical Joke) in the July 6 GIII Dwyer Stakes. Most recently runner-up in Spa allowance company Aug. 4, Billal was nominated to this Saturday's GII Gallant Bob Stakes, but connections opted for this softer test and he was sent off as the 9-5 pick to snap a four-race skid. One of the first away, the $725,000 Keeneland September yearling was content to drift back through the field to sit in the second flight of horses into the turn. Traveling sweetly on the back of the leaders nearing the stretch, he muscled his way into daylight about three-sixteenths from home, opened a clear advantage and held off 25-1 Banjo Chris (Constitution) by three-parts of a length. Save the Trees (Preservationist), fourth in the Dwyer and an Ellis allowance winner Aug. 19, rounded out the triple. A daughter of Eclipse Award winner Perfect Sting (Red Ransom)--dam of GSW Smart Sting (Smart Strike)--Bambalina was purchased by Repole Stable for $270,000 with this colt in utero at the 2020 Keeneland November Sale and visited Repole's Uncle Mo on three straight occasions. The mare produced a colt in 2022, while her yearling colt just sold to Harold Lerner for $160,000 at KEESEP.

She delivered yet another colt this term and was sent to Curlin for her 2025 produce. The cross of Street Sense over Bernardini is responsible for 32 winners from 41 starters, including the fifth stakes winner bred on the cross, GIII Pocahontas Stakes heroine La Cara. IN ORDER OF PURSE:

9th-Churchill Downs, $94,094, Msw, 9-18, 2yo, (R), 1m, 1:35.65, ft, 14 lengths.

OPTICAL (c, 2, City of Light--Espressoandacheck, by Medaglia d'Oro) was fourth in a main-track sprint on June 22 debut versus auction-restricted company at this track and made his two most recent appearances on the grass, fading to eighth going a mile at Ellis Aug. 19 and fourth against restricted rivals at Kentucky Downs Sept. 5. Off at 6-1 here while trying a dirt route for the first time, the $40,000 KESEEP purchase was ridden forward from an outside gate by James Graham and went along through a solid half-mile in :46.84. Very much in control approaching the stretch, he went through his gears in the final eighth of a mile to win by a pole. Produced by a daughter of MGSW turf distaffer Daring Dancer (Empire Maker), Optical has a foal half-sister by Charlatan and his dam was covered by Authentic this year. Sales TOUCHDOWN ROCKET (c, 3, Arrogate--Sensitively {GSP, $190,415}, by Street Sense) gave a good account of himself on Ellis debut Aug. 10, finishing fourth and earning a 72 Beyer that none of his five rivals had reached in their 25 combined starts. Duly crunched into 2-5 at the windows while trying two turns for the first time, the gray colt was not the quickest away, but recovered from between rivals to poke his head in front with six furlongs to race. Narrowly in front for the backstretch run, Touchdown Rocket opened a clear advantage into the stretch and half off a rally from 2-1 second choice Shallus (Constitution), who was hitting the top three for the sixth time in his eight career starts. A $50,000 Fasig-Tipton July yearlings, Touchdown Rocket breezed a furlong in :9 4/5 and improved into a $525,000 OBS March breeder. The Grade III-placed Sensitively is also the dam of the juvenile filly Non Compliant (Tiz the Law), a debut winner for Bob Baffert at Del Mar Aug. 31, and a yearling colt by Independence Hall that was acquired in utero for $13,000 at KEENOV in 2022. Sensitively was most recently bred to Epicenter. Sales history: $50,000 Ylg '22 FTKJUL; $525,000 2yo '23 OBSMAR. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, $22,701. Click for the Equibase.com chart.
