'TODAY WAS HIS BEST': CLASSIC AHOY AS CITY OF TROY STORMS SOUTHWELL

City Of Troy and Ryan Moore were applauded down the Southwell straight | PA Media

By Emma Berry

SOUTHWELL, UK -- It is not often that the eyes of the racing world are on Southwell. The country track had been closed to the public for nine months until early August following extensive flooding, but on Friday it was the place to be as the top-rated horse in Europe, City Of Troy, descended on Nottinghamshire with an entourage akin to a Taylor Swift tour. He even brought his own American starting stalls.

And swift is how he looked as he eased clear of the five-strong working party from Ballydoyle, travelling straight and true toward the winning post to the applause of the 700-plus members of the public who had turned out to see the son of Justify (video). They wouldn't have been disappointed, and neither was City Of Troy's trainer Aidan O'Brien, who, along with Ryan Moore, was mobbed for autographs and selfies as they returned post-gallop.

"He is different and he knows it," was O'Brien's assessment of the four-time Group 1 winner who will attempt to become the first horse to win the Derby and the Breeders' Cup Classic. He will be his trainer's 15th challenger in the latter. Cont. p3

MILL REEF TEST FOR POWERFUL GLORY

by Tom Frary

Held in the highest regard by Richard Fahey, Sheikh Rashid Dalmook Al Maktoum's latest hot property Powerful Glory (Ire) (Cotai Glory {GB}) puts his reputation on the line in Saturday's G2 Dubai Duty Free Mill Reef Stakes at Newbury. Impressive enough to earn instant TDN Rising Star status on debut at Pontefract last month, the relative of the top-class sprinter Maarek (GB) (Pivotal {GB}) meets more experienced peers in the six-furlong feature, but possibly none with more upside at this juncture. Fahey is hopeful the bubble won't burst. "We have been very pleased with him since, his work has been very good. It is a big ask for him, don't get me wrong, but we are very much looking forward to seeing him run," he said.

"He's a hardy customer. I thought today was his best," O'Brien continued. "Ryan had his hands down on him and he travelled in a relaxed manner. He came into the straight very balanced and straight and when Ryan let him down, he was as straight as a gun barrel. Me, watching him here, that's the best I have ever seen him with Ryan."

He added, "He was happy to follow the other horses, he was happy to come through them, and he was happy to sit with them when he turned in. When they turned in, he didn't think that he had to charge away."

"I loved the way he galloped up the straight. And he galloped out around the bend."

The build-up to this 4pm workout had started some three hours earlier, with people queuing for the gates of Southwell to open. One racing fan had come all the way from Croatia. The racecourse's management team must be given full credit for creating a real sense of occasion. Bars and restaurants were open, a mini racecard had been printed with colours and pedigrees for the runners and riders in this special 'race', while the big screens showed racing from meetings around the country.

Not since Aidan O'Brien brought Giant's Causeway then Galileo to the track at the turn of the century has it been used as a primer for a dirt contender in the Breeders' Cup Classic. The surface at Southwell has changed since then, from its original deep Fibresand to Tapeta, but the clerk of the course John Holliday had arranged for the track to be harrowed deeper than usual for a more attritional workout, and perhaps to increase the kickback.

The four-year-old Congo River (Mendelssohn) and the No Nay Never three-year-olds Democracy (Ire), Master Of The Hunt (Ire) and Edwardian, ridden by Brett Doyle, Wayne Lordan, Rachel Richardson and Dean Gallagher respectively, accompanied City Of Troy, who, prior to this day, had made six trips to Britain for racing purposes and has raced only once in Ireland on his debut.

"They broke fast and we had two miler-type horses up front and we knew that they would have to go faster than him early," O'Brien said. "Ryan wanted to go forward but he didn't want to rev him up too much, but when he goes to America he doesn't want to have him in the habit of waiting. The lads purposely had the track slower than they normally would so it was always going to be more gruelling than impressive. We were only going to go a mile."

Asked about the relative lack of kickback from the Southwell surface compared to what City Of Troy is likely to face at Del Mar, he added, "Really, in America you prefer not to get kickback." Cont. p4

He said, "If you get kickback you get kickback but in an ideal world you don't want it. I think horses never really get used to kickback. Some horses will face it and some despise it. But it depends on the draw and the horses around you, where you're going to be."

What started out being mooted as a racecourse gallop when it was announced after City Of Troy's victory in the Juddmonte International turned into an occasion very closely resembling a raceday. Those who had made the trip had come for just one reason and they made the most of it, lining the paddock rails, running through to the stands as the horses made their way out to the track, and, most touchingly, giving City Of Troy a lengthy ovation as he floated along the home straight.

"It rapidly became obvious that we were going to have a decent crowd," said Holliday. "And it just shows that the horse is always the star of the show."

O'Brien said that he hadn't expected such a response from the public. "But we are very grateful to everybody," he added. "He was walking around the paddock for all that time before we got here and he will have felt the atmosphere. That is absolutely priceless for him. He felt he was racing. It was all lovely and he still worked, he blew off quick. He wasn't panicked. I don't think anyone could have done more."

"Everybody here was a big help to him. He went down fine, walked into the stalls like a man - there was no waiting. He has to come out of it: he has to be okay tomorrow. If he is, then his programme will start. In a racehorse's life, every day is a big one - and especially training for those big races, as really you have to train as if there is no tomorrow."

For City Of Troy, tomorrow is all about Del Mar, where the surf meets the turf, and where he will meet his date with destiny. Today, though, was a chance for the diehards to take a front-row seat and appreciate the special horse he is already. The day the Derby winner came to Southwell.

RACE PREVIEWS

Charlie Appleby said of the former, "This looks another competitive event but our horse appears to have come forward since York and, if the ground is on the slower side, it shouldn't be an inconvenience. We go into the race with plenty of confidence."

Symbol Of Strength's trainer Adrian Keatley is also in bullish mood. "He's in great nick and came out of his last race well. We're very happy with him at home, we think the track will suit him and hopefully the ground stays good," he said. "We're after having two practice runs at this level, we were beaten a length the first time in the Gimcrack and won the last day when things went against us, so we're very hopeful of a big run."

Saturday's six other pattern races include Chantilly's G3 Prix de Conde, where The Aga Khan's unbeaten filly Shandana (Ire) (Sea The Moon {Ger}) takes on the colts and another promising filly in Haras d'Etreham's Gezora (Fr) (Almanzor {Fr}), a Nicolas Le Roch-trained daughter of the G1 Prix Saint-Alary winner Germance (Silver Hawk).

CITY OF TROY TOPS BC CLASSIC RIVALS ON TIMEFORM RATINGS

City Of Troy | Bronwen Healy

City Of Troy (Justify), who bested older horses in the G1 International Stakes at York last out, now holds a rating of 130p by Timeform, three pounds clear of his closest rivals pointing to the GI Breeders' Cup Classic at Del Mar in November.

The Aidan O'Brien colt, who races for the Coolmore partners, participated in a racecourse gallop at Southwell on Friday. Next on ratings is GI Travers Stakes/GI Florida Derby winner Fierceness (City Of Light) at 127, five pounds better than GI Kentucky Derby third and second Forever Young (Jpn) (Real Steel {Jpn}) and Sierra Leone (Gun Runner), both tied at 122 pounds. Highland Falls (Curlin) is next at a mark of 120.

The O'Brien/Coolmore axis has never won the Classic, with their best finish a runner-up performance by the 'Iron Horse' Giant's Causeway when second in 2000. Incidentally, the son of Storm Cat was also rated at 130. Three-for-three at two including the G1 Dewhurst Stakes, the bay is three-for-four on the year, with an unplaced run in the G1 2000 Guineas followed by a trio of Group 1 triumphs--the Derby, Eclipse, and International Stakes.

Timeform handicapper Jake Price said, "With the home team lacking an outstanding runner in this year's Breeders' Cup Classic, this could be the golden opportunity Aidan O'Brien has been looking for to gain a first success in America's premier all-age dirt race with City Of Troy.

"Beaten just once from seven starts, his Timeform rating of 130p puts him ahead of his expected rivals for the race, headed by Travers Stakes winner Fierceness who is rated 127.

"Whilst we won't know how City of Troy will handle this very different test, there are reasons to be confident on that score. He's by US Triple Crown winner Justify, who's already making waves at stud including siring the winner of the Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies last year, he has proven battling qualities and can make the running – similar tactics will lessen the negative effect of 'kick back' on the dirt. The short straight at Del Mar will also prove an advantage should he be able to employ that running style once again."

IRELAND'S 2025 FIXTURE LIST REMAINS AT 395 MEETINGS

The 2025 Irish fixture list was published by Horse Racing Ireland on Friday. The number of fixtures is unchanged from 2024 at 395 after the Board of HRI approved the list in their meeting earlier this week.

Only four fixtures remain to be allocated, with the remainder retained as floating fixtures to be utilised during the year to deal with time periods when there is very high demand for opportunities to run from the horse population. There is also a contingency fixture list to reassign Tipperary's dates if needed while an all-weather track is installed. The alternative Tipperary fixtures are as follows:

- April 24 Tipperary (Flat) to Dundalk
- Tipperary (NH) to Listowel on May 6, with Cork moving from May 6 to May 8
- May 14 Tipperary (NH) to Punchestown
- May 27 Tipperary (Flat) to Dundalk
- July 1 Tipperary (NH) to Wexford
- July 2 Tipperary (Flat) to Fairyhouse
- July 3 Tipperary (NH) to Limerick
- August 8 Tipperary (Flat) to Gowran Park
- August 31 Tipperary (Flat) to Cork
- October 5 Tipperary (Mixed):

Listed Concorde Stakes to move to the Curragh and alternative fixtures found for remaining two flat races. Curragh to move to October 5 from October 4. G3 Tipperary Hurdle, G3 Joe Mac Novice Hurdle and G3 Like-A-Butterfly Novice Steeplechase to move to Gowran Park

- October 6 Tipperary (NH) to Galway

Jonathan Mullin, HRI's Director of Racing, said, "The number of horses in training in Ireland this year remain at similar levels to 2023 and therefore it was felt prudent not to increase the number of fixtures for 2025. The fixture list process for 2025 involved consultation with a wide variety of industry stakeholders and we acknowledge their strong engagement throughout." Cont. p6

He added, "In particular, given the need to produce a 'shadow' 2025 fixture list to accommodate the planned development of an All-Weather Track at Tipperary, we thank the racecourses for their considerable contributions."

COURSETRACK TRACKING DATA PROJECT COMPLETED AT ALL IRISH RACECOURSES

Coursetrack, the live, in-race timing information system, is now in place at all 26 Irish racecourses, Racecourse Media Group (RMG) announced on Friday. The final course to receive the system was Laytown.

Horses carry lightweight GPS trackers, designed to fit within the saddlecloth. In-race data for all races in Ireland—including race clock, leader's speed, leader's time per furlong and distance to finish—is supplied to networks, including RTE, Virgin Media, ITV and Racing TV, for live broadcasts.

The data has been published online for all races at all Irish racecourses from the beginning of 2024, with Horse Racing Ireland (HRI) and the Association of Irish Racecourses (AIR) working together. Sectional times are available the day after racing on Racing TV's results page and other affiliated websites.

Chris Murtagh, operations director at Coursetrack, said, "Laytown, by virtue of being staged on a beach for only one fixture a year, could have posed a challenge or two, but there were zero issues, and we were very grateful for all the support from Laytown Racecourse. Indeed, I'd like to thank the Irish racecourses, who have all supported us on the roll-out. It's been a pleasure working with HRI, AIR and the individual racecourses."

ITBA SEMINAR TO BE HELD ON HALLOWEEN

The seminar 'From Paddock To Parliament', examining the cross section of politics, bloodstock and agriculture, will be held by the Irish Thoroughbred Breeders' Association (ITBA) on Thursday, Oct. 31.

Set for Goffs, Kildare Paddocks, Kill in Co Kildare, the seminar will include female speakers from three different political parties: Minister Pippa Hackett, of the Department of Agriculture represents the Green party, Senator Fiona O'Loughlin of Fianna Fail, who will be contesting the General Election as their candidate in Kildare South, and Nina Carberry, MEP of Fine Gael who was recently elected to the European Parliament. Jane Mangan of Racing TV and RTE Racing will host the evening. This event will afford an unique opportunity for both members of the bloodstock industry and their political representatives to become acquainted with each other, with the political climate and with the issues facing the bloodstock industry. The seminar will also highlight the work done by politicians in the thoroughbred industry, and the panels journey through their respective careers with regards to agriculture and equestrian fields.

The seminar is free to attend, beginning at 6:30 p.m., with the panel discussion set for 7 p.m. For more information and to register for the event, please visit the ITBA website or email Hannah Marks.

DUBAWI HALF TO VICTOR LUDORUM STARTS AT NEWMARKET

13.35 Newmarket, Novice, £8,500, 2yo, f, 8ft
PEARL OF HOPE (GB) (Dubawi (Ire)) is a notable Godolphin newcomer, being a half-sister to Shamardal's G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains and G1 Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere-winning sire Victor Ludorum (GB). Charlie Appleby sticks to tried and trusted territory for her debut, where she meets Shadwell's Suhub (GB) (Mohaather (GB)), the William Haggas-trained first foal out of the G1 Falmouth Stakes and G1 Sun Chariot Stakes heroine Nazeef (GB) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) who was a well-beaten fourth at Newbury on debut.

15.50 Chantilly, Debutantes, €50,000, 2yo, f, 8ft

TAJLINA (GB) (Kingman (GB)) takes part in an intriguing affair and is one of the key members of the cast as a daughter of the G1 Prix Vermeille heroine Bateel (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}). Owned and trained like that talented soft-ground specialist by Al Asayl Bloodstock and Francis-Henri Graffard, she encounters another homebred of note in SARL Darpat France's Viento De Levante (Fr) (Le Havre (Ire)), a Carlos Laffon-Parias-trained half-sister to the sire Recoletos (Fr) and the Fabres' Aqua Mirabilis (Ire) (Churchill (Ire)), a half-sister to the G1 Tancred Stakes winner Arapaho (Fr) (Lope De Vega {Ire}).

5th-Newbury, £30,000, Novice, 9-20, 2yo, c/g, 8fT, 1:40.91, sf. REGAL ULIXES (GB) (c, 2, Ulysses {Ire}--Regal Realm {GB} {MGSW-Eng, $116,452}, by Medicean {GB}), a half-brother to the multiple group winner Regal Reality (GB) (Intello {Ger}), had been third on debut at Goodwood earlier this month and was sent off at 85-40 for this storied Haynes, Hanson & Clark Novice Stakes. Sitting second from the outset early, the second favourite hit the front approaching the final furlong and stayed on to secure a 1 3/4-length verdict over King Of Cities (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}). "He's a well-bred horse and a very good-looking horse and he's a horse we like a lot," trainer Andrew Balding said. "He shaped with a lot of promise on his first start, we've always liked what he did at home. It was a bit of a muddling race today, but all he could do was win it and he took a bit of pulling up, so he's a horse with a future. I think we'll leave him until next year." The aforementioned stalwart Regal Reality, who captured five group 3 contests and was third in the G1 Eclipse Stakes, is the best performer out of the G3 Oak Tree Stakes and G3 Prestige Stakes-winning dam, who is also responsible for the Listed Montrose Fillies Stakes scorer and G3 Fred Darling Stakes runner-up Regal Jubilee (GB) (Frankel {GB}). Also the second dam of this stable's G3 Zetland Stakes runner-up Recovery Run (GB) (Nathaniel {Ire}), she is a granddaughter of the G1 Cheveley Park Stakes heroine Regal Rose (GB) (Danehill). WORLDWIDE NEWS

'THERE ARE FAR TOO MANY GROUP 1S IN AUSTRALIA': INDUSTRY LEADERS CALL FOR A RETURN OF THE PATTERN by Josh Spasaro

Greg Nichols and Vin Cox have called for a more thorough classification process to Group and Listed races after reports on Friday revealed the Golden Eagle and The Shorts were soon set for Group 1 status.

Vin Cox | Ashlea Brennan

News began circulating on Friday that the Golden Eagle and G2 The Shorts would be lifted to Group 1 status after being reported on News Corp publication Racenet.

Other Sydney races mentioned to be boosted to Group 1 billing include The Everest and Victoria's The All-Star Mile, however it is understood the International Pattern Committee are yet to ratify any of these changes.

Yulong general manager Vin Cox, a member of the Australian Pattern Committee, has implored racing authorities not to make these calls "willy nilly", saying the tradition and integrity of the Pattern should be followed for these high-stakes features.

Over many years, the Pattern has been a valuable tool and key performance indicator in the programming of progressive horses, with options of upper and lower paths to Group 1 glory.

And Cox has called for an immediate return to this process.

"I don't know much about the history on what's gone on in this particular (Group 1 adjudgments) case," he told The Thoroughbred Report.

"But I think it's kind of sad that – from what I understand speaking to a couple of people – they're just going to apply Group 1 status to any race that rates 115.

"And having been on the former Pattern committee for 20 years, that's a very shortsighted, myopic approach."

There have been concerns – particularly among breeders – that the Australian Pattern has been frozen in recent years, and there is no Pattern committee applying guidelines to the programming of major races. The Australian Pattern Advisory Group (APAG), tasked with advising the Australian Pattern Committee, has met infrequently since its inception, resulting in stagnation in pattern development since May 2018.

As a result, Cox believes some horses are being left behind when elite races are run.

"So, a certain band of horses will prosper, whereas other bands of horses will suffer. Group and Listed racing have to be aspirational, and by definition you want to be aspiring to the elite races," he said.

"All of those races carrying Group 1, I think is a narrow approach."

The lack of evolution in the Pattern, along with perceived disregard for its principals in creating and placing new races, has been a concern for many in the racing industry.

Cox called for a revival of the Pattern processes when adjudging the status of feature races, for the benefit of the sport's integrity nationwide and overseas.

"The integrity of Pattern in Black Type racing is absolutely paramount, and Black Type racing is the international indicator. It creates an international language that can be acknowledged and recognised in any jurisdiction," he said.

"And therefore, it creates worth and equity in bloodstock. So, it's not something that you just want to apply willy-nilly. There has to be substance behind it, processes and protocols and discipline."

Cox did, however, find optimism after reports of ongoing tensions between Victoria and New South Wales racing jurisdictions eased at a recent Racing Australia meeting.

"If racing can move forward in the interest of racing nationally, instead of self-serving interests, I would applaud and support that wholeheartedly," he said.

A Pattern Revival Would Enhance Australia's International Reputation

Former Racing Victoria director and current Chairman of the Australian Racing Pattern, Greg Nichols also cautioned about issuing Group 1 status without going through a closely examined Pattern process.

That is particularly the case because he believes there is only a limited amount of elite talent in the middle-distance and staying ranks.

"I come from a position where there are far too many Group 1s in Australia, considering the quality of our horses," he told The Thoroughbred Report.

"We're universally acclaimed for our sprinters, so you can't knock anything up to 1400 metres. But beyond that it's threadbare."

Nichols said Australia's worldwide reputation would increase if it followed Pattern processes more closely.

"To me, we should be more dominant or a prominent player internationally. And part of that is a commitment to conform to standards that not only have integrity, but have excellence as a core value," he said.

"And I just don't think we do that at the moment." Cont. p14

John Messara | Longines

Cohesion a Positive Step Forward

Former member of the Australian Pattern Committee and past independent chairman of Racing Australia, John Messara, did not want to comment in-depth when asked about a decline in the use of the Pattern processes in recent years.

Messara was, however, optimistic about reports of increased cooperation between Racing Australia and state jurisdictions.

“That’s a positive. I think racing needs to have an Australia-wide position because, like any other sport, you don’t know where the next champion will come from, or the next best trainer or jockey,” he said.

“So having an Australia-wide coverage is very important. I think all the states getting together makes for a stronger industry, with consistent rules across the whole country.

EIGHTH CIRCUIT UPHOLDS LOWER COURT'S ORDER DENYING HORSEMEN'S REQUEST FOR HISA INJUNCTION

Sarah Andrew

by T.D. Thornton

The United States Court of Appeals for the Eighth Circuit on Friday affirmed a ruling out of a lower federal court in Arkansas that had denied a preliminary injunction sought by horsemen in Arkansas and Iowa to halt the Horseracing Integrity and Safety Act (HISA) and its Anti-Doping and Medication Control (ADMC) program.

Chief Judge Steven Colloton took the lead in authoring the opinion for the three-judge panel, writing that the plaintiffs/appellants have "not established a fair chance of success on the merits, so the district court did not abuse its discretion in denying the motion for a preliminary injunction. The order of the district court is affirmed."

The plaintiffs/appellants in the case are led by Bill Walmsley, the president of the Arkansas Horsemen's Benevolent and Protective Association (HBPA), and Jon Moss, the executive director of the Iowa HBPA.

The defendants/appellees are executives with the HISA Authority and the Federal Trade Commission (FTC). Cont. p3

THORPEDO ANNA THE STAR TURN ON PENNSYLVANIA'S BIGGEST DAY by Alan Carasso

With better than three months left on the racing calendar for 2024, 'TDN Rising Star' Thorpedo Anna (Fast Anna) has already locked up the 3-year-old filly championship, having dominated her peers in the GI Longines Kentucky Oaks, GI Acorn Stakes and GI Coaching Club American Oaks. She lost little in defeat when running fellow 'Rising Star' Fierceness (City of Light) to a head in the GI Travers Stakes, but she returns to her own sex for Saturday's $1-million GI Cotillion Stakes, the first half of a Grade I double in the Philadelphia suburb of Bensalem.

And when she loads the gate at about 20 past five Saturday afternoon, Thorpedo Anna will be looking to do enough to win her fourth Grade I of the season while leaving a little something in the locker for the GI Breeders' Cup Distaff at Del Mar some 42 days down the road.

The Eighth Circuit opinion only concerns the denial of the preliminary injunction to keep HISA from being enforced, and the plaintiffs are free to pursue other aspects of their underlying lawsuit over HISA's constitutionality in the lower court.

The three-judge panel in the Eighth Circuit established in their opinion that they were well aware that two other federal appeals courts, the Fifth and Sixth Circuits, currently conflict in their opinions over whether HISA is constitutional, a matter that seems increasingly likely to be taken up by the U.S. Supreme Court.

The Fifth Circuit panel opined July 5, 2024, that even though HISA's rulemaking structure is constitutional, HISA's enforcement provisions are unconstitutional. A Sixth Circuit Court of Appeals panel opined in a different case Mar. 3, 2023, that Congressional changes to the law in 2022 made all of HISA completely constitutional.

"We agree with the Sixth and Fifth Circuits that the Act's rulemaking structure does not violate the private nondelegation doctrine," Colloton wrote.

"As others have recognized, Congress modeled the Act as amended on a regulatory scheme in the securities industry that has been widely approved as constitutional," Colloton wrote. "We join the other two circuits in concluding that the Authority is subordinate to the [FTC] such that the rulemaking structure of the Act does not violate the private nondelegation doctrine."

The horsemen appellants also challenged the Authority's enforcement powers, contending that HISA unconstitutionally delegates executive power to the Authority, a private entity.

"The Fifth Circuit declared the enforcement provisions of the statute unconstitutional because it thought the [FTC's] power to modify and add to the rules of the Authority does not 'authorize basic and fundamental changes in the scheme designed by Congress,'" Colloton wrote.

But, he added, "Like the Sixth Circuit, we are satisfied that the statute's enforcement provisions are not unconstitutional on their face and in all of their applications."

The appellants further argued that HISA violates the public nondelegation doctrine.

"Congress may not delegate the legislative power of Article I to a federal agency," Colloton wrote. But, he added, "those who act under general provisions of a law may 'fill up the details.' When Congress sets forth 'an intelligible principle to guide the delegee's use of discretion,' there is no unconstitutional delegation."

Colloton continued: "Congress specified twelve elements that must be included in a horse racing safety program. Congress set forth several elements of rule violations and of a disciplinary process for the industry." Cont.

Colloton added, " These provisions meaningfully guide the [FTC's] exercise of discretion. The Supreme Court has upheld delegations made with comparable or lesser guidance."

The appellants also asserted that HISA violates the Appointments Clause of the Constitution because the members of the Authority's board of directors are allegedly officers of the United States who must be appointed by the President, a court of law, or the head of a department.

"We agree with the Fifth Circuit that the Act does not conflict with the Appointments Clause," Colloton wrote. "The requirements of the Clause apply only to officers of the United States [but] the Authority, however, is a 'private, independent, self-regulatory, nonprofit corporation.'

"A private corporation must be regarded as a governmental entity for constitutional purposes only in limited circumstances [and that] standard is not satisfied here," Colloton wrote. "The Act did not create the Authority; the Authority incorporated under Delaware law before the Act's passage. None of the board members are public officials, and the government plays no role in selecting or retaining them. The members of the Board are thus not officers of the United States, so their appointments are not governed by the Appointments Clause."

One judge on the panel, Raymond Gruender, concurred in part and dissented in part with the overall decision to affirm the lower court's denial of the injunction. As part of his explanation, he wrote:

"In a case such as this, where Congress has avoided the limitations of the Appointments Clause by vesting in a private entity the wholesale power to regulate doping, medication, and safety issues in the horse racing industry nationwide, it is imperative that the private nondelegation doctrine carry force to prevent broad delegation of governmental powers to unsupervised private parties.

"The court's opinion fails to reckon with the plain language of HISA, which grants to the Authority a broad enforcement power that is not subordinate to the FTC.

"Like the Fifth Circuit, I conclude that HISA's enforcement provisions facially violate the private nondelegation doctrine. I respectfully dissent from [that part] of the court's opinion," Gruender wrote.

Late in the day on Friday, TDN requested comment on the opinion from the HISA Authority and the lead attorney for the horsemen appellants, but those queries did not yield replies prior to deadline for this story.

Thorpedo Anna eyes a fourth Grade I success in Saturday's Cotillion Stakes at Parx | Tod Marks

The Cotillion/Distaff double has been accomplished before-- Ashado (Saint Ballado) won the 2004 renewal before taking care of her older rivals at Lone Star Park and Untapable (Tapit) followed suit at Santa Anita in 2014. In the form of Thorpedo Anna, trainer Ken McPeck looks to have his best chance at saddling his first Breeders' Cup winner, having been shut out in 37 attempts dating back to his first appearance at the championships with Tejano Run in 1994.

Two of the best horses McPeck has ever tacked up made three combined starts in the Distaff, but Take Charge Lady (Dehere) could do no better than sixth in 2002 and again in 2003, while Swiss Skydiver (Daredevil) was a low-odds seventh in 2020. In Thorpedo Anna, he may just have the one.

"This one might have jumped over both of them," McPeck said. "I am really proud of all of them. They all breathe rare air."

While Saturday's GI Pennsylvania Derby may lack a standout, it nevertheless offers a competitive field of 11 that are collectively a cut below the very best of the 3-year-old colt division but capable of rising to this challenge. Cont.

Trainer Brad Cox won his first Pennsylvania Derby last September with Saudi Crown (Always Dreaming) and Juddmonte homebred Dragoon Guard (Arrogate) will likely go favored to make it back-to-back wins for the barn. The gray son of Filimbi (Mizzen Mast) enters on a four-race winning streak, including a 2 1/2-length defeat of GI Santa Anita Derby hero Stronghold (Ghostzapper) in the GIII Indiana Derby July 6 followed by a facile success in the Aug. 4 GIII West Virginia Derby. Florent Geroux, in the irons for Saudi Crown last year, retains the call on Dragoon Guard.

“He’s done everything we’ve asked of him this year,” said Cox. “He’s taken a step forward every time and I think another step forward should put him in the winner’s circle. He’s a horse that looks like he can handle the distance. He proved that last time in West Virginia. He’s had plenty of time to recover from that, his works have been steady and he’s giving us a lot of confidence that he’s able to win a Grade I.”

'TDN Rising Star' Unmatched Wisdom (Cairo Prince) won his first three outings, including an all-the-way victory in the July 19 Curlin Stakes at Saratoga, but he never got near the front in the Travers and tailed off to beat just one home. He figures to go forward from gate nine, but he is likely to have company from GI Preakness Stakes hero Seize the Grey (Arrogate) from the two hole. Seventh in the GI Belmont Stakes, the $300,000 FTSAUG yearling exits a distant fourth in the GII Jim Dandy Stakes July 27.

America's top stayer Next (Not This Time) returns to greater Philly in defense of his title in the GIII Greenwood Cup Stakes at a mile and four furlongs on the dirt and by the looks of it, he may win by a margin greater than the 25 lengths he did last year. Since making a rained-off renewal of Delaware Park's Cape Henlopen Stakes his first win going this far, he has won eight of

No Lie: Fibber Figures In the Dogwood

Saturday's GIII Dogwood Stakes at Churchill Downs could offer up some clues into the Cotillion, which goes off a little less than an hour later.

New York-bred My Mane Squeeze (Audible), third to Ways and Means (Practical Joke) in the GI Test Stakes two back, faced Cotillion runners on either side of that effort, finishing a well-beaten fourth to Thorpedo Anna in the June 7 Acorn Stakes and a distant runner-up to Mystic Lake (Mo Town) in the Aug. 23 GII Charles Town Oaks.

An audacious $100,000 claim by trainer Chris Hartman out of a third-place effort in a May 25 optional claimer at Churchill, Fibber (Frosted) has already recouped that investment with a 3 1/2-length allowance success June 28 before saluting by 2 1/4 lengths in the Aug. 11 Audubon Oaks at Ellis Park. Cont.

F/M Sprint Berth Up For Grabs at Gulfstream

Saturday's GIII Princess Rooney Stakes at Gulfstream Park qualifies its winner for the GI Breeders' Cup Filly and Mare Sprint, and even though she tries seven-eighths of a mile for the first time at her 40th career run, Soul of an Angel (Atreides) looks to have her rivals over a barrel from a class perspective.

Having raced for $25,000 claiming early in her career, the dark bay caused a 24-1 upset in the one-mile GII Ruffian Stakes at Aqueduct May 4, besting Randomized (Nyquist), who bounced back to take the GI Ogden Phipps Stakes, with Soul of an Angel only fifth. A head second to Idiomatic (Curlin) in the GIII Molly Pitcher Stakes at Monmouth July 20, the 5-year-old cuts back off a distant third in the GI Personal Ensign Stakes at the Spa Aug. 23.

Saffie Joseph, Jr. also saddles the 3-year-old Haulin Ice (Coal Front), whose only finish outside of the top three in her eight career starts came when favoring in the Charles Town Oaks Aug. 23. Excuses can be made owing to night racing and/or the bullring configuration, and if she were to duplicate the effort that saw her defeat her peers by 9 1/2 lengths in the July 13 Azalea Stakes over this course and distance, she'd give them something to think about. Cont.

HIWU LIFTS JORGE DUARTE SUSPENSION

The Horseracing Integrity & Welfare Unit has lifted the suspension assessed to trainer Jorge Duarte, Jr. in the wake of one of his horses testing positive for methamphetamine after a race at Delaware Park in May. Duarte is the private trainer for Richard Santulli's Colts Neck Stables.

On June 26, Duarte was informed that a horse he trained named Happy Cat (Kitten's Joy) had tested positive for methamphetamine following a May 22nd race at Delaware Park. On Sept. 5, he was issued a provisional suspension of 60 days.

After presenting additional information to HIWU in the form of an affidavit on Sept. 18, Duarte's suspension was lifted by HIWU.

Jorge Duarte | Sarah Andrew

Happy Cat was walked by a freelance hotwalker on May 22 at Delaware. Duarte said that she was an older woman who walked a horse for trainer Bonnie Lucas the following day. That horse also tested positive for meth. Duarte drug tested his own employees, who were negative, and the freelance hotwalker, but said that he believed her negative test for meth was due to the fact that she had had seven days' notice before the test. On Sept. 11, he asked her to submit to a hair analysis, and she refused, saying that she was on a medication that would cause her to test positive. She then ceased communicating with Duarte.

HIWU's letter to Duarte's attorney, Howard L. Jacobs, reads:

"Pursuant to ADMC Program Rule 3247(a)(1), HIWU was required to impose a Provisional Suspension on Mr. Duarte as the Responsible Person for Covered Horse Happy Cat, as a result of the Adverse Analytical Finding ('AAF') for Methamphetamine. Initially, and in accordance with Proposed ADMC Program Rule 3226(e), HIWU imposed a Provisional Suspension of 60 days effective as of September 5, 2024, to run through and including November 3, 2024. Under ADMC Program Rule 3247(e), HIWU has the discretion to lift a Provisional Suspension '[i]f it considers it appropriate to do so on the specific facts of the case.' On September 18, 2024, you provided HIWU with (1) an affidavit from Mr. Duarte and (2) documentation supporting Mr. Duarte's affidavit. HIWU finds the September 18, 2024, submission to be relevant and meaningful information regarding the likely source of unintentional transfer or contamination.

"Based upon (1) proposed ADMC Program Rule 3226(e) and (2) the documentation provided on September 18, 2024, HIWU has determined that it will lift the Provisional Suspension imposed on Mr. Duarte as of today, September 20, 2024. Mr. Duarte has served 15 days of a Provisional Suspension. Pursuant to ADMC Program Rule 3247(j), Mr. Duarte shall receive a credit for 15 days against any period of Ineligibility that may ultimately be imposed. Pursuant to proposed ADMC Program Rule 3226(e), regarding Human Substances of Abuse, this matter is stayed effective today pending FTC approval of proposed ADMC Program Rules."

Under the current ADMC rules, methamphetamine is still classified as a banned substance for which a positive test requires a provisional suspension, and ultimately punishable by a two-year suspension. However, the ADMC committee agreed to carve out drugs of human-substance abuse, like meth, from the list of banned substances and have submitted a new set of rules to the FTC changing the maximum penalty for a first-time offender to 60 days, and instructing HIWU to treat these cases as an unintentional transfer, or environmental contamination, if, in fact, HIWU determines that was more than likely. Those rule changes are pending before the FTC.

During the 11th session of the 2021 Keeneland September Sale, Kazakhstan-based bloodstock agent Nadir Khassanov paid $12,000 for a colt by California Chrome--Little Emily (Castledale {Ire}). After nearly running the table in Kazakhstan and Russia, the colt that came to be called Kabirkhan took his show on the road to Dubai over the winter, where he won the G1 Al Maktoum Classic in his second start for trainer Doug Watson.

Khassanov was back in Lexington on the hunt for his next diamond in the rough during Friday's opening Book 6 session at the September Sale and accounted for the day's top-priced offering when giving $95,000 for a May-foaled colt by Upstart. He was easily the dearest of six purchases on the afternoon for Khassanov and the most expensive of his 26 acquisitions (for $593,500), all since day eight of the sale.

The dark bay is the second foal out of Amiens (Oxbow), a half-sister to the stakes-placed dam of Canadian multiple graded stakes winner Dragon Bay (Parading) and to the dam of GI Awesome Again Stakes hero Mongolian Groom (Hightail). The multiple Grade I-winning third dam Versailles Treaty (Danzig) produced GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf hero George Vancouver (Henrythenavigator) and Grade II winner Saarland (Unbridled).

Hip 3965 was bred in Kentucky by Wimbledon Farm, who acquired Amiens for $80,000 in foal to Violence at the 2020 Keeneland November Sale. The colt was consigned by Eaton Sales, agent.

Colts accounted for the session's top five priciest horses and nine of the top 11. The session's most expensive filly was hip 4002, who was hammered down to Royal Flush Racing for $70,000. The Jan. 21 foal, who was purchased for $18,000 at this year's Fasig-Tipton Digital April Sale, was consigned to the September sale by Hartwell Farm, agent, and is the first produce for her dam Brewster Flats (Mineshaft), whose stakes-winning granddam Yoursmineours (Belong to Me) produced GSW Shared Property (Scat Daddy) and MSW Whiskey Romeo (Forestry). This is also the female family of 1987 GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies and Eclipse Award winner Epitome.

During a session that also featured strong participation from Central American, Russian and Middle Eastern interests--so-called 'emerging markets' that Keeneland has taken pains down the years to pursue--the auction house reported sales on 206 head for $3,568,000, an average of $17,320 and median price of $11,500, representing gains of 5.8% and 4.6%, respectively. With one day of selling remaining, some 2532 horses have sold for record turnover of $409,087,500 (not including post-RNA sales), good for an average of $161,567 and a median of $80,000. The cumulative average price increased by 6.4%, while the median was up by 6.7%.

Are We In Australia?

The crowd gathered in the Keeneland Sales Pavilion must have been confused when they looked at their catalogue and saw that hip 3797 had been foaled on Aug. 19, 2023. Keeneland's Vice President of Sales Tony Lacy said that the unusual foaling date was flagged when the Montana-bred yearling--a daughter of first-crop stallion Wheresthemoneyjack (Union Rags) out of Nothinglikegold (More Than Ready)--was entered in the sale.

The filly was bred and consigned by Kairos Stables & Arena, Agent.

"That yearling came from Montana, and quite honestly it was one we flagged early on," said Lacy. "The sellers were adamant they wanted to do this. We spoke to them about the fact that this was probably going to be a challenge in this marketplace. They were very reasonable people and wonderful to talk to."

Bidding stalled out at $3,500 and the filly was an RNA.

“It didn’t work out but they were very grateful,” said Lacy. “We are here for everyone at all levels and sectors of the marketplace. We wanted to make sure they had the best experience possible. We welcomed them here and they are heading back to Montana. The horse was well cared for, but immature and obviously in this type of market, bred on a Southern Hemisphere timeline, didn’t fit in the marketplace. We try not to discriminate. The horse came in healthy and it’s not something we can eliminate from the sale.”

Nothinglikegold was one of 21 mares that was covered in the state of Montana in 2022, according to the state fact book on The Jockey Club website. Wheresthemoneyjack is the sire of four foals from his second crop. He has not been represented by a starter to date. --Sue Finley

DETTORI 'DAY-TO-DAY' AFTER SPILL AT AQUEDUCT by Bill Finley

Frankie Dettori | Benoit

Globe-trotting jockey Frankie Dettori dislocated his shoulder when he was unseated from his mount at the gate prior to the start of Thursday's ninth race at Aqueduct. While it is not considered a serious injury, agent Ron Anderson said he was not sure how long Dettori will be sidelined.

"He dislocated his shoulder and they put it back in," Anderson said. "We're going to see [orthopedist] Steve O'Brien as quick as we can get him in. It's a day-to-day thing. He is sore. We will see."

Anderson said the news could have been worse.

"It's the first time it happened to him. It doesn't seem like he'll need an operation, which is good," said Anderson. "But as far as today, tomorrow, the next day, I have no idea. Not a clue."

Following the accident, Dettori was taken to Jamaica Hospital and was released Thursday night. The internationally acclaimed rider was due to make his first appearance at Finger Lakes on Monday, Sept. 23.

NED TOFFEY NAMED KTFMC FARM MANAGER OF THE YEAR

Spendthrift Farm's Ned Toffey has been named the Kentucky Thoroughbred Farm Managers' Club (KTFMC) 2024 Ted Bates Farm Manager of the Year. Toffey has been at Spendthrift since 2004, when he worked with the late B. Wayne Hughes to rebuild the historic farm to a leading modern-day institution in the sport.

KTFMC will host its annual Dinner Dance to honor Toffey at the Carrick House in Lexington on Friday, Dec. 6. A silent auction will be held with proceeds benefitting a charity of Toffey's choosing.

"Ned's management of Spendthrift, their racing division, and their hugely successful stallion roster on behalf of the late B.

Wayne Hughes and now under Eric and Tamara Gustavson has been exemplary and a model for all to follow," said Adrian Mansergh-Wallace, president of KTFMC. "More than that though Ned is a great family man, admired by his peers, friends, and clients alike, and has mentored countless members of the Thoroughbred industry."

As General Manager of Spendthrift, Toffey has been responsible for the stallion career of reigning five-time leading sire Into Mischief, Hall of Famer Beholder, leading sire Malibu Moon, Horse of the Year Authentic, and many others. Toffey serves on the Board of Directors for the KTA/KTOB, Breeders' Cup, Gluck Center, and KTFMC.

In a release from the organization, officials from KTFMC said, "The committee felt Ned's dedication, success, loyalty, and kindness to those around him are unmatched, and under his leadership and guidance, Spendthrift has become a global powerhouse in the breeding industry."

Ned Toffey | Spendthrift

Eric Gustavson, current owner of Spendthrift with his wife, Tammy, added: "Wayne Hughes did a lot of great things for Spendthrift Farm. The first was hiring Ned Toffey to be our General Manager. Tammy and I are so thankful to have him running the show. Ned is dedicated to the farm, extremely knowledgeable in all aspects of our business, and has an amazing team approach in his leadership style. He's well respected in the industry, but even more so by us."

Toffey has been married to his wife, Katie, for 32 years. They have four children, all adults: Matthew (married to Natalie), Megan, Daniel, and Annie. They also have one grandson, Ellis.

Tickets for the Dec. 6 Dinner Dance, as well as sponsorship opportunities, will be available for purchase through KTFMC's website later this month.

EDGAR REVOLORIO, GROOM OF HIGHLAND FALLS, DEDICATED TO HIS TRADE

by Katie Petrunyak

For many lifelong racetrackers, it's a natural ascent to start out as a hot walker, move up to becoming a groom and perhaps eventually, work your way towards exercise riding. That wasn't the case for Edgar Revolorio, groom of GI Breeders' Cup Classic hopeful Highland Falls (Curlin).

Revolorio grew up around horses in his native Guatemala and when he moved to Texas to work with Quarter Horses, he started out there as an exercise rider. As he gained experience on the racetrack and learned more about the art of grooming, he decided that it was the job for him.

The lifelong horseman moved to Florida in 2004 to start his first job in the Thoroughbred industry as a groom. Fast forward 20 years and today, Revolorio loves the job as much as he did on the day he started.

Katie Petrunyak

“Since I quit galloping horses, I dedicate my time to taking care of and grooming horses,” explained Revolorio through a translator. “I like it better. It's a routine. It's about being responsible. I come here at 4 every morning and I start to work and clean the stables so when the horse goes to the racetrack, everything is clean and we are ready to work.”

Reading horses and understanding their body language comes naturally to Revolorio. He began working on a ranch in Guatemala when he was eight years old. There, they would start working with the ranch horses from the time they were weaned on through the breaking and training process.

Over his two decades in horse racing, Revolorio has worked for various trainers like Todd Pletcher, Nick Zito and Mike Maker. Two years ago, he landed a job with Brad Cox.

One of the first horses assigned to him was Saudi Crown (Always Dreaming), who claimed last year's GI Pennsylvania Derby and this year's GIII Louisiana Stakes with Revolorio as his groom. The dappled gray colt requires extra attention every day to keep his coat looking bright and clean, but Revolorio still smiles when he talks about one of his favorite charges.

Revolorio and Highland Falls ahead of the Blame | Coady Media

“He's a very serious horse and is very professional in what he does,” noted Revolorio.

Last year Revolorio was also assigned the Godolphin homebred Highland Falls. A son of 2006 GI Breeders' Cup Distaff victress Round Pound (Awesome Again), the chestnut won on debut at Ellis Park and claimed an allowance race at Churchill Downs. This year, Highland Falls stepped up to stakes company and won the GIII Blame Stakes with Revolorio on hand to cheer him on.

“I enjoy working with him,” said Revolorio. “He's a very noble horse. It's not a chore. It's very fun working with him.”

With a wife and a 12-year-old son at home, Revolorio spends the majority of his time in Kentucky so when Highland Falls went to Saratoga this summer, Revolorio stayed back in Louisville. He made sure to tune in to the GI Jockey Club Gold Cup Stakes on Sept. 1 as Highland Falls took on GI Whitney winner Arthur's Ride (Tapit). The two rivals battled down the backstretch, but when they reached the sixteenth pole Highland Falls drew away to win by four lengths. Cont.

“I was watching the race on TV and when he won I was very emotional,” recalled Revolorio.

The Jockey Club Gold Cup Stakes handed Highland Falls a free “Win and You're In” spot to the Breeders' Cup Classic at Del Mar on Nov. 2. After that breakout Grade I win in Saratoga, the 4-year-old colt returned to Churchill Downs and has reunited with his groom and his regular exercise rider Katie Tolbert as he prepares for a trip to the Breeders' Cup.

SECOND CHANCES: 'IT WAS A BIG DAY OF RACING AND THERE WERE A LOT OF PEOPLE TALKING ABOUT HIM' – SOVEREIGNTY ONE TO WATCH OUT OF TRAVERS DAY MAIDEN

by Steve Sherack

In this continuing series, TDN's Senior Racing Editor Steve Sherack catches up with the connections of promising maidens to keep on your radar.

How stacked exactly was this year's Travers day 2-year-old maiden? Even the fourth-place finisher should be on your radar.

In a race completely dominated on the front end, Godolphin homebred Sovereignty (c, 2, Into Mischief--Crowned, by Bernardini) kicked home impressively from last of 10 on debut for Hall of Fame trainer Bill Mott to stamp himself as one to watch.

The 11-1 chance broke on top from his outside draw and was quickly outsprinted to trail as Rookie Card (Adios Charlie) (entered in Saturday's opener at the Belmont at the Big A meeting and highlighted in these same pages Sept. 7) and Tip Top Thomas (Volatile) motored along with Keewaydin (Instagram) in hot pursuit in third through an opening quarter in :21.95.

Still with a ton left to do in seventh with the top three positions unchanged at the top of the stretch, Sovereignty leveled off beautifully beneath Junior Alvarado for the final furlong and flew home in a field-best :12 while finishing 3 1/4 lengths adrift as the top three hit the wire together in an absolute thriller.

The Todd Pletcher-trained Tip Top Thomas earned a 'TDN Rising Star' badge after fighting past an ultra-game Rookie Card to graduate by a head. It was another nose back to Keewaydin in third.

The final time for six furlongs was 1:10.46. The top three finishers all earned 85 Beyer Speed Figures; Sovereignty received a 79 rating.

“It got us excited,” Godolphin USA Director of Bloodstock Michael Banahan said. “We were delighted to see the way he finished up and it was as per usual a hot maiden on Travers day. It was a big day of racing and there were a lot of people talking about him, which is interesting, you know, for a horse that was fourth in a maiden.”

Banahan added, “To see him at the top of the stretch thinking we had no chance to finishing up like he did and running by everybody a couple of strides after the wire while galloping out strongly gave us a lot of encouragement.” Cont.

Sovereignty has posted two workouts since his unveiling at Mott's Saratoga base, most recently breezing four furlongs in :49 (10/71) over the Oklahoma training track Sept. 15. He could make his second career start later this month at the Belmont at the Big A meeting, Banahan said.

"He's training well and doing well and showed an enormous amount of potential," Banahan said. "He's a well-bred colt and we're looking forward to seeing him run again."

The son of leading sire Into Mischief was produced by the unraced Bernardini mare Crowned, a daughter of GISW Mushka (Empire Maker) and a $1.2-million Keeneland September yearling purchase by Sheikh Mohammed's operation. The Into Mischief x A.P. Indy cross has produced GISWs Atone (o/o an A.P. Indy mare) and Newgate (o/o a Majestic Warrior mare).

The 'Second Chances' Honor Roll is headed by Horse of the Year Cody's Wish (Curlin), fellow two-time Breeders' Cup winner Golden Pal (Uncle Mo) and GISWs A Mo Reay (Uncle Mo), Honor A. INGLIS DIGITAL USA SEPTEMBER SALE CATALOGUE NOW ONLINE

The catalogue for the 2024 Inglis Digital USA September Sale is now online, featuring a slate of 57 offerings, the auction company said in a release on Friday afternoon.

Bidding is currently open for the online auction, and lots will begin to close on Wednesday, Sept. 25 at 2 p.m. ET, with subsequent listings closing in three-minute increments.

The September Sale includes a selection of racing-age horses, yearlings, weanlings, broodmares, and broodmare prospects, which are available for inspection prior to the auction by contacting the sellers.

Among the horses offered is multiple New York-bred stakes winner My Shea D Lady (Solomini), who is offered as a racing or broodmare prospect. Owned by Shea D Boys Stable and trained by Carlos David, the 3-year-old is consigned by Vinery Sales, agent, and currently is the highest-earning runner by her sire at $489,000.

"My Shea D Lady has been a beautiful horse since arriving at the barn at Palm Meadows from the sale," David said. Cont.

My Shea D Lady | Sarah Andrew

“She is pleasant to be around, very classy to train, and her attitude when going into a race is top class.”

The draft of yearlings in the September catalogue includes offerings by stallions like Vino Rosso and Mendelsohn.

“This sale should have something for everyone,” said Inglis Digital USA Sr. Director of Sales and Recruitment Kyle Wilson. “We have a good cross section of horses with some very exciting prospects as well. We appreciate the support of our customers and look forward to a healthy market and some exciting results.”

Interested parties must register for an account on the Inglis Digital USA website, and request a bidding limit in order to start placing bids.

NYRA MOURNS THE LOSS OF MUTUELS CHIEF PAT MAHONY

The New York Racing Association, Inc. (NYRA) mourns the passing of Pat Mahony, who spent more than 50 years in the racing industry, many leading NYRA’s mutuels department, and was known nationally as a leading expert in wagering operations, protocols and rules, the track said in a Friday press release.

“New York’s racing community is deeply saddened by the passing of Pat Mahony, whose contributions to the fabric of NYRA and Thoroughbred racing will be long remembered,” said NYRA President & CEO David O’Rourke. “As Vice President of Mutuels, Pat’s love for the sport and unwavering commitment to integrity and excellence helped shape the industry. NYRA extends our thoughts and prayers to his family and loved ones during this difficult time.”

Mahony, who followed his grandfather and father into the pari-mutuel business, retired from NYRA in 2016. He died Thursday evening in Florida. He was 78. To honor Mahony’s long and distinguished career, NYRA launched the Mahony Stakes at Saratoga Race Course in 2019.

Mahony once estimated that he spent 14,000 days at the track, watched more than 130,000 races and was responsible for more than $20 billion that moved through the betting windows at the tracks he supervised. As a member of racing’s “First Family of Mutuels,” he followed his father Riggs and grandfather Mort into the mutuels business; together, the three generations worked at tracks across the country for more than a century.

“We were in the betting rings year in, year out through world wars and the Depression,” Mahony once said of his family. “That is something to be proud of.”

Pat Mahony | Coglianesse

The patriarch of the family, Mortimer Mahony [1874-1949] got his start in the late 19th century working in the betting ring with bookmakers at Morris Park, Brighton Beach, Sheepshead Bay and the rest of the New York racing circuit during that era, which included Saratoga Race Course. He would go on to become the pioneer of modern pari-mutuel wagering and totalisator operations throughout much of the U.S. and Canada.

Mort Mahony was in charge when the first totalisator system in America [the Australian Tote] made its debut at Hialeah Park in 1932, and he was the mutuels consultant to Harry L. Straus, founder of the American Totalisator Company, helping to install their first system at Arlington Park in 1933. Along the way, his “Mahony Pari-Mutuel College” trained scores of people who went on to manage mutuel departments at many of the country’s top tracks.

Shortly before his retirement, he reflected on why he had chosen to devote his life to racing and the pari-mutuel business. "I never wanted to do anything else," Mahony said. Plans for a memorial service have yet to be determined.

DERBY WINNER MYSTIK DAN RESUMES UNDER-TACK TRAINING AT MAGDALENA FARM

Mystik Dan | Sarah Andrew

Mystik Dan (Goldencents) has resumed under-tack training at Ken McPeek's Magdalena Farm in Lexington as the GI Kentucky Derby winner attempts to get back in form after he was last seen running eighth in the GI Belmont Stakes, according to a press release on Friday from Churchill Downs.

Mystik Dan was training over the summer at Saratoga, but his conditioner opted to give the colt time following his Triple Crown campaign.

"He looks fantastic. There's a whole lot of hind quarter back on him," McPeek said. "This is going to do him a lot of good."

Ridden at Magdalena by retired jockey Robby Albarado, who partnered with the colt when he was a 2-year-old, Mystik Dan has no immediate target, said McPeek.

It was a thriller Friday night in the GII Presque Isle Downs Masters Stakes, when 3-2 choice Roses for Debra got up in the final strides on the rail to both gut out a win and set a new track record of 1:13.92 for the 6 1/2 furlongs on the synthetic.

The Cheyenne Stable LLC and John O'Meara runner broke alertly and settled into a close-up third behind longshot She's Fire (Flameaway) through a first quarter in :22.51. As the tempo quickened slightly, Roses for Debra looked for a way through coming off the turn only to find a wall of horses blocking her way. She dove to the rail as Pandora's Gift--a stakes winner in May in England and third in Ireland's G3 Ballyogan Stakes last month--had the momentum and burst clear of the field. Roses for Debra fought back on the inside, just catching Pandora's Gift by a neck at the wire in a determined effort. Cont.

Gal in a Rush, this summer's GIII Hendrie Stakes winner on Woodbine's synthetic, was third.

"I think she loved the track," said winning jockey Irad Ortiz, Jr. of Roses for Debra after the race. "She used to run here and she loves it. She's undefeated here.

"I bided my time and sat right behind the speed. I had no where to go, so I just had to wait and try to find a hole. Turning for home I see the rail is open, so I go for it and she responded well. She was ready to run."

Unbeaten in her first four career starts at three--including in the Malvern Rose Stakes over track and trip--when trained by Michelle Brafford, Roses for Debra made her first start for Christophe Clement's barn in May, 2023. She's registered an additional four stakes wins, including in the GIII Giant's Causeway Stakes at Keeneland and in Saratoga's GIII Caress Stakes, as well as Beyer Speed Figures up to 102. Her only off-the-board finish for Clement, all on the turf until Friday, was in last year's GI Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint against males. She was last seen finishing third last month in the Spa's Smart N Fancy Stakes, a race she captured in 2023.

Pedigree Notes:

Lane's End Farm's Liam's Map is the sire of Roses for Debra and 10 other graded winners, as well as 26 black-type winners. Two of his four Grade I winners, Colonel Liam and Wicked Whisper, are out of Bernardini mares, as is Roses for Debra. Bernardini has 103 stakes winners out of his daughters.

The unraced Essential Rose has produced two other two black-type winners in addition to Roses for Debra. Her GSW dam, a half to the dam of MGSW Flameaway (Scat Daddy), hails from the same family as five-time G1SW Salsabil (Ire) (Sadler's Wells), who is also a three-time graded stakes producer. Essential Rose has a juvenile filly, Yesterday (American Pharoah), who finished off the board Thursday in a maiden at Belmont at the Big A while also ridden by Ortiz. She was a $190,000 OBS Spring purchase by Gatsas Stables. Essential Rose was bred to Curlin for 2025.

WOODBINE BOARD ADDS KREMBIL AND MUNGHAM AS DIRECTORS

Woodbine Entertainment has named Mark Krembil and Tom Mungham to its Board of Directors, the track said in a press release on Friday.

The appointments of Krembil, a principal of Chiefswood Stables, and Mungham, a former CEO and Registrar of the Alcohol and Gaming Commission of Ontario (AGCO), are subject to AGCO approval.

"We are excited to welcome Mark [Krembil] and Tom [Mungham] to our Board of Directors," said Jim Lawson, executive chair of Woodbine Entertainment. "Their extensive leadership, knowledge, and industry experience will be invaluable as we work to further our vision of growing the horse racing industry that supports upwards of 25,000 jobs throughout Ontario."

In their new roles, Krembil will serve on both the Thoroughbred Racing Committee and the Audit Committee, while Mungham will serve on the Standardbred Racing Committee and the Governance Committee.

DOZEN TERM SCHOLARSHIPS AWARDED BY HORSE FARM WORKERS' EDUCATIONAL ASSISTANCE FUND

Twelve students of full-time horse farm workers are pursuing higher education this year with help of the Horse Farm Workers' Educational Assistance Fund, the non-profit said in a Friday release.

Qualifying parents of scholars must be employed full-time for at least three years by one of the following central Kentucky Thoroughbred farms: Benson Farm, Betz Thoroughbreds, Godolphin, Hermitage, Shadwell Farm, Shawhan Place Farm and WinStar Farm.

Funding is provided for education or skill training after high school and is based upon financial need, merit, biographical essays and personal interviews. Scholarships are also available for full-time horse farm workers in the Bluegrass.

"In pursuit of their dreams, many of our scholars work 20 or more hours per week at one or two jobs while carrying a full course load," said President Tom Evans. "Our main goal is to award enough money so that they can focus on their studies and make school their number one priority without incurring a huge burden of long-term student loan debt. We consider their studies as their job."

This year's recipients are: Luis Garza-Galeas, Univ. of Kentucky; Gael Gonzalez, Univ. of Kentucky; Taylor Koch, Western Kentucky Univ.; Alexis Laytart, Georgetown College; Anna Martinez, Transylvania Univ.; Madison McMahon, Univ. of Cincinnati; Angel Perez, Univ. of Kentucky; Kathryn Reams, Eastern Kentucky Univ.; Alexander Rodriguez, Univ. of Kentucky; Katie Thurman, Bellarmine Univ.; Javier Torres-Pena, Midway Univ.; and Lupe Torres-Pena, Midway Univ.

SMARTY JONES DOC TO STREAM IN LATE FALL

Edited Press Release

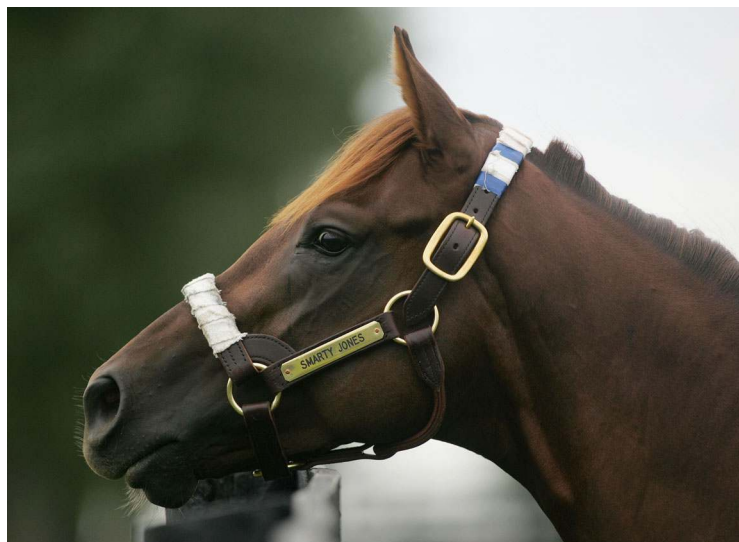

Jeff Matty was only 13 when Smarty Jones captured the collective heart of the horse racing world by coming within a length of winning the Triple Crown in 2004. (Queue Tom Durkin: "And Birdstone wins the Belmont Stakes.")

In his third year as executive director of the Pennsylvania Thoroughbred Horsemen's Association (PTHA), Matty came up with an idea to ensure that the legacy of the best Pennsylvania-bred ever would endure for generations to come.

The result is "The Ride of a Lifetime--The Smarty Jones Story," a documentary scheduled to be shown for the first time Friday night at a party celebrating Saturday's betPARX Grade I Pennsylvania Derby and Grade I Cotillion Stakes at Parx Racing. The documentary was funded by the PTHA, an initiative that was an easy sell, according to Matty.

"It was an easy pitch because of what he's meant to so many people. We saw this as an opportunity to continue his legacy forever," said Matty, who added that 100% of income earned by the PTHA from the movie will be returned to horsemen.

The documentary was produced by Philadelphia-based The WorkShop, which had not previously worked on a horse racing project. The main characters in the story appear, including Patricia Chapman of Someday Farm, who bred and owned the horse in partnership with her late husband, Roy, trainer John Servis, jockey Stewart Elliott, exercise rider Pete Van Trump, and veterinarian Dr. Patty Hogan, who treated the horse after he suffered a serious eye injury as a 2-year-old.

Smarty Jones | Horsephotos

"People were thrilled to participate," Matty said. "It's such a breath of fresh air. No one is more deserving than Mrs. Chapman. She's the first lady of Parx."

Matty said Bruce Casella, producer of Parx's "Let's Go Racing" show, Rich Romano, director of broadcast operations, and Rodney Eckenrode, of Equistar Farm in western Pennsylvania where Smarty Jones stands, helped make the film a success.

A son of Elusive Quality, Smarty Jones won his first eight starts, including the GI Kentucky Derby and GI Preakness Stakes, before being caught in the final strides of the GI Belmont Stakes, much to the chagrin of the vast majority of the 120,000 fans in attendance.

The documentary took nine months to produce and it will premiere on a major streaming platform by late fall, according to Matty. The documentary is also a finalist to be shown at the Philadelphia Film Festival, which runs Oct. 17-27.

"We wanted to make something that the older generation can re-live it, the younger generation can experience it, and hopefully bring new fans to the game," Matty said. "With racetracks and horsemen, we don't always agree on everything, but we can all agree on how special this chestnut colt was."

SHADWELL'S MUHIMMA STREAKS TO 'TDN RISING STAR' TAG IN CHURCHILL DEBUT

Muhimma | Coady Media

by Stefanie Grimm

A $700,000 daughter of Munnings, Muhimma ran to the billing Friday, streaking home the easiest of winners at Churchill Downs as the 4-5 favorite for Shadwell Stables and trainer Brad Cox.

Outrun only by one of the only runners in the field with prior experience in My Lil Punky (Outwork), Muhimma was content to let that rival handle the tempo up the backstretch, sitting second through fractions of :22.36 and :45.11. Moving under her own devices under a motionless Florent Geroux, the favorite cruised up along the outside of the leader and went right on by at the quarter pole, coming home with just hands and heels to win at first asking by 7 1/2 lengths in a good final time of 1:15.55.

The 12th 'TDN Rising Star' for Coolmore's Munnings, Muhimma is the second foal and second winner out of SW/GISP Princesa Carolina (Tapit) who saw her Gun Runner yearling bring $2.2m to Whisper Hill Farm just last week at KESEEP. Second dam MGISW Pure Clan sold herself for $4.5m to Borges Torrealba Holdings in 2012 at KEENOV. Muhimma is the second 'Rising Star' produced by the cross of Munnings over a Tapit mare, the first being GSP Sun Path. Princesa Carolina reported another Gun Runner this year and returned yet again to the Three Chimneys star for 2025.

TAPIT PROGENY ON DISPLAY IN NEW YORK

1st-BAQ, 90K, Msw, 2yo, 6 1/2f, 12:35 p.m.

A pair of debuting colts both by Tapit will break side by side to open the card at Belmont's Aqueduct meeting Saturday.

AU CONTRAIRE is a Stonestreet-bred son of MGISW Dream Rush (Wild Rush) who sold to Halsey Minor for $3.3m at FTKNOV in 2007. Her progeny include MGSW Dream Pauline (Tapit), SW and sire Atreides (Medaglia d'Oro) while her daughter, GISW Dreaming of Julia (A.P. Indy), has already produced a dual champion in Malathaat (Curlin) along with GSW Julia Shining (Curlin). Stonestreet has tabbed Jena Antonucci to train with Eric Cancel aboard for the debut.

Breaking to that rival's outside is Fun to Tap who was the fourth-highest price at last year's Fasig-Tipton Saratoga Sale when selling to Mandy Pope's Whisper Hill Farm for $1.2m. The colt is a half to MGSW/GISP Mr. Money (Goldencents) along with SP Tizplenty (Speightstown) and the family includes G1 Emirates Airline Dubai World Cup winner Well Armed (Tiznow). Kendrick Carmouche gets aboard for trainer Todd Pletcher.

Foxtastic, a homebred for LNJ Foxwoods, ran second as the favorite over this surface and distance at Woodbine Aug. 24. Still a maiden but a narrow second choice at 2-1 Friday, she checked in mid pack from fifth up the backstretch but was always running well and took minimal urging to come on even terms with frontrunner Perfect Figure at the head of the lane. The pair stayed together into the final furlong before Foxtastic put things away, coming home solidly ahead. One of 145 stakes winners for Speightstown, the winner is out of a daughter of champion older mare Fleet Indian. This is the family of champion 2-year-old colt and young sire Game Winner (Candy Ride {Arg}) and GISW Flagstaff (Speightstown). Fleet of Gold produced a Charlatan filly last year and a filly by Army Mule this season before visiting Gunite. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

Bucaro | Coady Media

A winner at first asking while sprinting 5 1/2 furlongs on the Colonial Downs grass Aug. 13, Bucaro jumped into stakes company Friday for the first time while also adding an extra furlong and switching to the Tapeta. The 4-1 shot trailed for much of the early running, sitting eighth against the rail through fractions of :22.56 and :45.55. Needing running room off the far turn, he found a seam along the inside and came roaring through, closing between runners to just pick up the narrow win over Speight the Snow. Bucaro is the fifth stakes winner for third-crop sire Bucchero. Bells of War has a yearling Mitole filly, a foal colt by Maximus Mischief and is due back to Tiz the Law. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

KINETIC (c, 3, Street Sense--Collective, by Bernardini) broke his maiden in his second try going 1 1/8 miles at Ellis Park as the even-money favorite Aug. 3. Trailing the field early in his first try against winners, the 6-1 shot was last of the 11 into the far turn but made a strong move to come wide around the entire field into the lane. Kept outside down the stretch, he just got up past Midnight Raid (Brody's Cause) to get the win by a neck. A claim of foul was lodged against the winner by Tyler Gaffalione aboard

Yellow Brick (Quality Road) for contact in the lane but the results were allowed to stand. Collective, herself a full-sister to GSW/MGISP Penwith and a half to MGISP Centring (A.P. Indy), has already produced this runner's full-siblings in Comparative, GSW, $429,995 and Shared Sense, MGSW, $577,435. Second dam Composure, a winner of both the GI Santa Anita Oaks and the GI Las Virgenes Stakes, was a $3.6m purchase for Godolphin out of KEENOV in 2003. The family includes Centring's daughter, GI Frizette Stakes runner up Central Avenue (Street Sense) and another of Collective's half-siblings in GISP Tranquil Manner (A.P. Indy). The dam has both a 2-year-old a yearling by Medaglia d'Oro and was reported barren to Street Sense and Medaglia d'Oro for 2025. BATTLE OF NORMANDY (c, 4, City of Light--Adorable Miss {MSW, $162,590}, by Kitten's Joy) has earned a graded stakes placing in each of his last two racing seasons and won two of his last three after trying the dirt in a rained-off spot at Churchill to start the year in April. Cutting back to 1 1/16 miles in his third start in New York, the 2-1 favorite tracked just off frontrunner Kubrick (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) up the backstretch and came with plenty of run once set down with a wide really off the turn. In driving finish, Battle of Normandy just gained the upper hand in the final jump to steal the win by a nose over Andthewinneris (Oscar Performance) with Kubrick a further neck back in third. The winner is a half to both Cugino (Twirling Candy), SW & GSP, $395,960 and Veronica Greene (Tapit), SP, $195,500. Adorable Miss, who sold for $280,000 at KEENOV carrying the Battle of

JUST KATHERINE (f, 4, Justify--Reve Enchante, by Medaglia d'Oro) spent much of late last year and early 2024 in stakes or graded stakes company, picking up placings in the GII Bed O' Roses Stakes to being her 4-year-old campaign in New York earlier this summer. Third in the Pink Ribbon Stakes last out at Charles Town Aug. 23, the 6-5 favorite stalked the pace from just off the rail up the backstretch behind Olga Isabel (Tiznow) and engaged the frontrunner off the turn. Closing gamely inside the final sixteenth, she just outlasted Braganza (Dialed In) to win by a half-length. Just Katherine is a half to Dream It Is (Shackelford), GSW-USA, SW-Can, $175,544, herself the dam of SW Otto the Conqueror (Street Sense). She is her dam's last reported foal. DONEGAL SURGES (c, 4, Candy Ride {Arg}--Solar Surge, by Bernardini) contested a pair of stakes races at Saratoga in his last two starts, picking up a placing in the Commentator Stakes two back over a muddy track June 9. Back at that distance after cutting back to the flat mile last out, the 4-1 shot broke on even terms and settled nicely mid pack around the clubhouse turn and into the backstretch as pacesetter Pentathlon (Speightstown) worked an opening half in :47.92. Put to a ride a ways from home, Donegal Surges tipped out past the eighth pole and took over with plenty of time to clear off by two lengths over Mama's Gold (Bolt d'Oro). A half to Surge of Pride (Kantharos), SW & GSP, $203,179, the winner has an un-raced 2-year-old half-brother by Gun Runner and a yearling half-sister by Into Mischiev.
