BELLAVININO FIRST TAYLOR MADE OFFERING THROUGH INGLIS DIGITAL USA

Bellavinino, second in Kentucky Downs Juvenile Fillies | Coady Media

by Katie Petrunyak

Bellavinino (Get Stormy), who was a fast-closing second in the Kentucky Downs Juvenile Fillies Stakes in her most recent start, will be the first horse offered by Taylor Made Sales through Inglis Digital USA.

Bidding is currently open for the online auction's September Sale and lots will close on Wednesday, Sept. 25 starting at 2 p.m. ET. Bellavinino will sell as Hip 18.

Taylor Made's Steve Castagnola said their team is excited about making their Inglis Digital USA debut.

"This is the first time Taylor Made has consigned on the Inglis platform and we have been impressed," he said. "We're excited to see how Bellavinino sells on Wednesday. The buyers have really caught on to the concept of these digital sales and they are having a huge impact on the industry right now."

Campaigned by C2 Racing Stable and trained by Saffie Joseph Jr., Bellavinino broke her maiden on debut by 3 1/4 lengths over the Gulfstream Park turf on July 28. After finishing fourth against allowance company at Kentucky Downs in her next start, she returned to the same track for the one-mile Kentucky Downs Juvenile Fillies Stakes. After breaking alertly, the filly raced off the pace in third but was boxed in coming into the stretch and had to angle out to get up for second. Cont. p3

CHILEAN SUPERSTAR KAY ARMY WILL NOT GO IN THE WOODWARD by Bill Finley

The long-awaited U.S. debut of Chilean superstar Kay Army (Chi) (Katmai {Chi}) will have to wait. His current trainer Bill Mott confirmed Monday that the 4-year-old colt will be scratched from Saturday's GII Woodward Stakes at the Belmont at the Big A meet.

When asked where the horse may start next, Mott said he did not know. He also declined to elaborate when asked why he was passing the Woodward, which will now have only four starters.

Mott revealed his plans on the same day that Kay Army worked five furlongs from the gate at Saratoga in 1:02.75.

Owned by Ignacio Hurtado and Ignacio Hurtado, Jr., the colt won all nine of his starts last year, including five Group 1 races. He has started just once this year, in the G1 El Derby Mar. 17, which he won by 6 1/4 lengths and concluded his sweep of the Chilean Triple Crown. He had his first of seven workouts for Mott at Saratoga Aug. 8, going five furlongs in 1:02.75.

Kay Army is 10-for-10 lifetime with $421,708 in earnings.

Bellavinino First Taylor Made Offering Through Inglis Digital USA (cont. from p1)

“She did not get a very clean trip down the lane, but she showed that she is game and she is tough,” said Castagnola. “She is a very exciting opportunity because she's a lightly raced 2-year-old and has already shown that she has a ton of class. She's extremely good-looking. She has a great, clean neck, a huge shoulder and a deep heart girth. She looks the part.”

Castagnola said that he believes the best is yet to come for the juvenile not only because her numbers have improved in each of her three starts according to Ragozin and Thoro-Graph figures, but also because the filly's sire Get Stormy performed at his best as an older horse.

“Get Stormy won his first Grade I as a 5-year-old in the Maker's Mark Mile Stakes and then he won the GI Woodford Reserve Turf Classic Stakes at Churchill Downs,” Castagnola recalled. “He also won a Grade I as a 6-year-old. His best daughter, Got Stormy, won two Grade I races at four and another at six. For me, the fact that this filly has shown so much precocity is somewhat of an anomaly and I would think that she would do nothing but get better with time.”

Castagnola pointed out that Bellavinino is eligible for a $110,000 non-winners of two turf allowance at Keeneland on Oct. 11. She is also nominated for the GIII Surfer Girl Stakes at Santa Anita on Oct. 6.

“Should she win that, it would all but guarantee her a spot in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf,” he said. “And than with an eye to the future, she has already proven than she likes Kentucky Downs, which not everybody does. That would give me hope that she would figure prominently in some of those big-money races next year.”

In her first three career starts, Bellavinino has amassed earnings of $224,800.

“Being stakes-placed as a 2-year-old gives her some residual value,” said Castagnola. “Given her looks and the fact that she's already blacktype, she'd make a nice addition to a lot of broodmare bands. But being just a 2-year-old and with the way that she is bred, I think the best is still yet to come on the racetrack.”

Castagnola said the Taylor Made team has seen the growth of the digital sales arena benefit buyers and sellers alike.

“I think the evolving presence of the digital sales in the marketplace, along with the quality of the offerings being consigned, is ensuring that any serious buyer of bloodstock must look through the catalogs as these sales happen,” he said. “For us to be in a position to consign quality horses like Bellavinino at an opportune time like now gives the seller the opportunity for liquidity and a buyer the opportunity to buy a turn-key, race-ready 2-year-old with two logical spots to run in.”

U.S. SUPREME COURT INTERVENES IN HBP VS. HISA LAWSUIT

by T.D. Thornton

The Supreme Court of the United States Monday officially intervened in the 3 1/2-year legal odyssey in which the National Horsemen's Benevolent and Protective Association (NHBPA) and 12 of its affiliates are trying to wipe out the Horseracing and Safety Integrity Act (HISA) as an allegedly unconstitutional law.

That intervention took the form of a Sept. 23 Supreme Court order signed by Justice Samuel Alito, Jr. directing the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit not to issue its pending mandate stemming from a recent Fifth Circuit opinion that HISA's enforcement mechanism is unconstitutional.

The Supreme Court order stated that the Fifth Circuit's mandate "is hereby administratively stayed pending further order of Justice Alito or of the [Supreme] Court."

Alito additionally ordered that the NHBPA and other plaintiffs in the lawsuit file a response to the HISA Authority's application for a stay on or before Monday, Sept. 30.

The HISA Authority defendants had made that application for a stay last Thursday.

An administrative stay is used to freeze legal proceedings until a court can more fully consider and then rule on a party's request for expedited relief.

An administrative stay is not the same thing as a court issuing an injunction or making a broader ruling in an overall case, a point raised by Eric Hamelback, the chief executive officer of the NHBPA, when TDN contacted him Monday for comment on the Supreme Court order.

"The administrative stay does not reflect any opinion about the merits of an argument," Hamelback wrote in an email. "This is simply a mechanism to give the Court time to gather and read briefing from all sides [and] our team will be ready to forcefully press our arguments within our response."

The HISA Authority, through a spokesperson, emailed a comment to TDN that stated, "This is a good first step to ensure that the HISA Authority can continue to do everything in its power to protect the safety and integrity of Thoroughbred racing."

Although the NHBPA and the HISA Authority are at odds over whether the federal law that regulates the sport is constitutional, they both agree--and have indicated for months now in court filings and media interviews--that the Supreme Court needs to be the entity that resolves the current "circuit split" in which different U.S. appeals courts have issued conflicting opinions about whether or not HISA is constitutional.

"We now have our case in front of the Supreme Court, and all parties agree that the SCOTUS should hear the case," Hamelback wrote. "We also all believe that it should do so on an expedited basis to secure a final decision for horsemen and the horse racing industry by the end of this term [in June 2025]."

In a different case, a Sixth Circuit Court of Appeals panel opined Mar. 3, 2023, that Congressional changes to the law in 2022 made HISA completely constitutional.

In the HBPA vs. HISA case in the Fifth Circuit, a panel there opined July 5, 2024, that HISA's enforcement provisions are unconstitutional (even though the Fifth Circuit agreed with the Sixth that HISA's rulemaking methods were constitutional).

Then last Friday, Sept. 20, the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Eighth Circuit affirmed a ruling out of a lower federal court in Arkansas that had denied a preliminary injunction sought by horsemen in Arkansas and Iowa to halt HISA and its Anti-Doping and Medication Control (ADMC) program.

That three-judge Eighth Circuit panel opined that, "The Fifth Circuit declared the enforcement provisions of the statute unconstitutional because it thought the [FTC's] power to modify and add to the rules of the Authority does not 'authorize basic and fundamental changes in the scheme designed by Congress.'" But, the Eighth Circuit opinion continued, "Like the Sixth Circuit, we are satisfied that the statute's enforcement provisions are not unconstitutional on their face and in all of their applications."

Here's how the HISA Authority summarized its points in the Sept. 19 application for a stay of the Fifth Circuit mandate pending the filing and disposition of a "writ of certiorari," which is the term for a formal request for the Supreme Court to take a case.

"Three federal courts [including the Sixth Circuit] have now resolved materially identical challenges to the amended Act and reached the same conclusion: HISA is constitutional. But the Fifth Circuit recently contradicted that consensus, holding that HISA's enforcement provisions facially violate the private-nondelegation doctrine...

"The Fifth Circuit's outlier decision should not be permitted to trample other courts' considered judgments pending disposition of the Authority's forthcoming petition for a writ of certiorari. But Respondents--including a national association whose members race across the country--brazenly seek to leverage the Fifth Circuit's facial judgment to bar HISA's enforcement in other circuits nationwide," the filing continued.

"For that reason (among others), each factor that guides this Court's stay consideration is easily satisfied here," the filing stated.

"First, given the acknowledged circuit split on a question of undisputed legal and practical importance, all agree that review by [the Supreme Court] is necessary and likely...

"Second, there is at least a 'fair prospect' that a majority of [the Supreme Court] will concur with the Sixth Circuit's view...

"Third, maintaining the status quo is necessary to prevent irreparable harm," the filing stated.

"Allowing the Fifth Circuit's decision to take effect nationwide (as Respondents openly seek), wherever [NHBPA] members race across the country, would inflict a serious blow to separation-of-powers and comity principles..." the filing stated. "The data are clear: more horses would die and more cheaters would prosper."

FASIG-TIPTON CALIFORNIA FALL YEARLINGS SALE TUESDAY by Jessica Martini

Bidding returns to Fairplex for the one-session Fasig-Tipton California Fall Yearlings Sale, which begins in Pomona at 11 a.m. PT Tuesday.

"It got pretty busy throughout the day yesterday and it's really busy this morning," Fasig-Tipton California representative Mike Machowsky said from the sales grounds Monday morning. "We have a bunch of trainers and owners out here looking this morning, so that's a good sign.

"I would expect anyone who races in California to be here. This is where you go to buy your premium Cal-breds, most likely, and if you race here, it's a luxury to have them."

A total of 279 yearlings--dominated largely by California-breds--have been catalogued for the auction.

“It’s strong,” Machowsky said of the catalogue. “The breeders out here have done a big-time job, stepping up and buying mares. We have a lot of Kentucky-sired Cal-breds in the sale, which always brings people out looking. We have both pedigree and sire power in a lot of these horses.”

2023 California Fall Yearlings Sale topper | Fasig-Tipton

The catalogue includes a supplemental offering from Harris Farm. The filly (hip 278) is a full-sister to six-time stakes winner Kings River Knight (Acclamation) and she is a half-sister to last year’s sale-topping son of Vronsky, who sold for $250,000 to West Point Thoroughbreds.

“I think it will be a good, solid sale,” Machowsky said. “We will have some horses bring some pretty good money. And so far, it seems like all the right people are here looking.”

During last year’s auction, which included a section of horses of racing age, 185 horses grossed $5,751,500 for an average of $31,089 and a median of $15,000. Twelve yearlings sold for six figures, with four bringing at least $200,000.

CHAMPION BLIND LUCK DEAD

Blind Luck (Pollard's Vision--Lucky One, by Best of Luck), champion 3-year-old filly of 2010 and a finalist for the Eclipse Award during her freshman campaign, passed away in April in Japan two days after foaling a colt by Kitanasan Black (Jpn), according to Japanese studbook records.

Bred in Kentucky by Bill and Terry Baker's Fairlawn Farm, the chestnut filly with a white blaze was consigned by that operation to the 2008 Fasig-Tipton July Sale, where she was hammered down to Juvenal Diaz's Omega Farm for $11,000 and was bought back on a bid of $10,000 at the OBS April Sale the following spring. Acquired privately by a team headed up by trainer Jerry Hollendorfer after breaking her maiden for Diaz by better than 13 lengths for a $40,000 tag at first asking, Blind Luck headed west and was runner-up in the GI Del Mar Debutante before taking the GI Oak Leaf Stakes in her two-turn debut. A troubled third in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies, she walloped her rivals by seven lengths in the GI Hollywood Starlet Stakes on the synthetic track to enter the Eclipse discussion (video).

Blind Luck kicked off her sophomore season in the GI Las Virgenes Stakes, just getting the better of Evening Jewel (Northern Afleet) and won her first graded stakes on the dirt in the GII Fantasy Stakes. The 13-10 favorite in the GI Kentucky Oaks, Blind Luck trailed the field, but came with her trademark flying finish to once again nose out Evening Jewel (video).

The 2010 GII Delaware Oaks marked the first of four straight meetings with an upstart filly named Havre de Grace (Saint Liam), where the unexposed Fox Hill runner got first run, but Blind Luck came running late and was on the winning end of the photo. A neck separated the two in a slow-paced renewal of the GI Alabama Stakes, but Havre de Grace turned the tables in the GII Cotillion Stakes, scoring by a neck while in receipt of 10 pounds. Blind Luck was upset at 3-2 in the GI Breeders' Cup Ladies' Classic, with Havre de Grace one spot back in third.

Blind Luck dropped her first three starts as a 4-year-old, including a runner-up effort to Havre de Grace in the GIII Azeri Stakes, but she bounced back to avenge her loss in the Ladies' Classic with a half-length defeat of Unrivaled Belle (Unbridled's Song) in the GI La Troienne Stakes. Late-running winner of the GI Vanity Stakes back on the Hollywood synth, she squared off one last time with Havre de Grace in a gripping renewal of the 2011 GII Delaware Handicap. Relying on her closing kick, she ranged up to Havre de Grace at midstretch and the two exchanged blows to the wire, with Blind Luck prevailing narrowly (video). She retired with 12 wins from 22 starts and earnings of $3,279,520.

Part-owner Mark DeDomenico paid $2.5 million to buy out his partners in Blind Luck at the 2011 Keeneland November Sale and she was offered again at the 2015 Keeneland January Sale, where she was led out unsold on a bid of $1.4 million in foal to Midnight Lute. She is the dam of four winners from six to race, including the DeDomenico-bred Kafoo (Curlin), Group 3-placed in Dubai. Acquired privately and sent to Japan in 2019, the mare has been represented by G1 Racing Co. Ltd.'s 3-year-old filly Proven Winner (Jpn) (Kizuna {Jpn}), a maiden winner at Hakodate June 30. She did not produce a foal in 2022 and her yearling full-brother to Proven Winner made $335,839 at this year's JRHA Select Sale.

Shadai Farm purchased Lucky One for $1.85 million at KEENOV in 2010 carrying a full-sibling to Blind Luck, but that foal passed away at an early age. Lucky One produced two additional foals, but she also died after foaling a Deep Impact (Jpn) filly in 2014.

Blind Luck has been a candidate for induction into the Hall of Fame since 2018.

USHBA TESORO, DERMA SOTOGAKE PREP FOR BC CLASSIC AT FUNABASHI by Alan Carasso

Ushba Tesoro | Dubai Racing Club/Liesl King

Ushba Tesoro (Jpn) (Orfevre {Jpn}) and Derma Sotogake (Jpn) (Mind Your Biscuits), in the eyes of most the two premier older dirt horses in Japan, are set to face each other for the fourth time in Wednesday's ¥68 million ($473,620) Listed Nippon TV Hai at Funabashi Racecourse located about 20 miles east of Central Tokyo.

Ushba Tesoro is the defending champion in the 1800-meter contest, having scored by a comfortable 1 1/2 lengths (video) before running on fairly to finish fifth in the G1 Breeders' Cup Classic at Santa Anita about 5 1/2 weeks later. Since then, the bay has added a second consecutive victory in the G1 Tokyo

Daishoten, a head second to Senor Buscador (Mineshaft) after looking home in the G1 Saudi Cup Feb. 24 and a latest distant runner-up effort behind Laurel River (Into Mischief) in defense of the G1 Dubai World Cup at Meydan Mar. 30. Yuga Kawada climbs back aboard from post four Wednesday.

Derma Sotogake was forced to miss a critical Breeders' Cup Classic prep last year, but turned in a brilliant effort off a six-month layoff to be a close second to White Abarrio (Race Day). A first-up fifth, beaten just 2 1/2 lengths in the Saudi Cup, the chestnut was soundly defeated sixth in Dubai. Christophe Lemaire, who guided Derma Sotogake to his G2 UAE Derby success and in last year's Classic, has the riding assignment once again on Wednesday from the seven hole.

The Nippon TV Hai goes as race 11 of a 12-race program Wednesday, with post time set for 8:05 p.m. local time (7:05 a.m. ET). Click here for the full field.

Bostontonian made his afternoon debut facing auction-restricted rivals at Churchill Downs in June, taking the field nearly gate to wire in the win. Unraced since then and returning Monday at the same distance, the 3-5 favorite again showed early speed from the gate and opened up an easy advantage into the turn. Soontobeking, who led home a 2-3 finish for freshman sire King for a Day, tried to reel in the leader but was ultimately second best as Bostontonian kept safely away to the line. A half to another New York-bred stakes winner in Curly Girl (Nyquist), the winner is out of a half to GSW Spice Island (Tabasco Cat), the dam of GISW and GI Kentucky Derby runner up Ice Box (Pulpit). This is also the family of Horse of the Year Spend a Buck (Buckaroo). Falconess saw her yearling Nyquist filly sell for $350,000 at Keeneland September this year and she has a weanling Mo Donegal colt. She is due to Vekoma next year. Click for the Equibase.com chart.

Margins: 3HF, 2, NK. Odds: 1.05, 3.90, 2.40.

Just 24 hours after picking up his first stakes winner, Honest Mischief (by Into Mischief) netted his second stakes winner (and overall third winner) when Stone Smuggler topped an exacta for her sire Monday in the Lady Finger Stakes. The best of the rest when second to 'TDN Rising Star' and Sunday's Joseph A. Gimma Stakes winner With the Angels (Omaha Beach) in her Saratoga debut Aug. 22, Monday's even-money favorite jumped right into stakes company despite being a maiden. The frontrunner right from the jump with her inside gate, Stone Smuggler led easily into the turn and came home largely unchallenged, widening at will to top Mischief Lady by 3 1/2 lengths. Cont.

YUTO THE YUTO (c, 2, Preservationist--Officer Leah, by Officer) struggled home 11th over a muddy strip going this track and distance on Aug. 31 debut, but had some support in the market as a distant fifth betting favorite in a field of 16 at odds of 13-1. Allowed to drift back through the field after being outsprinted in the early stages, Yuto the Yuto was shuffled back in heavy traffic approaching the turn. The nose-banded chestnut was under urging approaching the stretch and looked to have it all to do as 6-5 American Stage (Into Mischief) went clear, but he turned in a powerful final furlong and scampered clear to graduate by four lengths despite failing to change his leads. Yuto the Yuto became the fifth winner from six to the races for his dam and is the only Japanese starter for his promising young sire. Officer Leah was most recently bred to Fulsome. Capturing the moment: City Of Troy at Southwell | Emma Berry

By Emma Berry

Respect. It really is that simple. If we want to be involved with horses in sport we must treat those animals who give us either our pleasure or livelihood--or both--with decency and dignity.

There are rogue elements, of course, but it is how the majority of people involved in horseracing feel and act, be they breeders, owners, trainers, jockeys or fans. Perhaps the most touching embodiment of this was witnessed during a recent visit to Sapporo racecourse in Japan, where there is a shrine alongside the parade ring.

I watched as various racegoers dropped a coin in the box by the shrine and stood solemnly, bowing their heads in apparent prayer. I asked my friend Mariko whether the shrine was for a particular horse. "It is for all the racehorses," she said. "To pray for the horses' safety and health."

I didn't grow up in a racing family but ended up drifting to this job eventually with a combined love of horses and writing. I appreciate that not everyone loves racing for the same reason. For some it starts with a 50p bet with a grandparent, and that's great, because racing needs everyone to play their part.

For me, though, it started with the horses and it will end with the horses, and in between I will never tire of seeing as many of the good ones as often as it is possible. In that regard, the trip to Southwell on Friday was hugely enjoyable, and in some ways even better than an actual race day.

POLISH-REARED YEARLING TO SELL AT TATTERSALLS IRELAND ADDS INTERNATIONAL FEEL

By Brian Sheerin

You cannot guarantee much when it comes to the yearling sales. But one thing is for sure, lot 206 will be the only horse offered at Part 1 of the Tattersalls September Yearling Sale that was raised on Polish grass.

Bartek Radzikowski admits that consigning the first Polish-reared yearlings at Tattersalls Ireland this week under the banner of Baroda Stud will help him fulfil a lifelong ambition and said that he hopes a good result in the ring could provide a springboard for his unorthodox pinhooking programme to grow.

The 30-year-old explained, "This was always a dream of mine to do this. I have worked for a really long time in Ireland and always wanted to have my own farm. We have land in Poland and I was lucky a few years ago with a mare I bought for five grand. We sold her for 25 grand and then I built a little barn back home in Poland with the money I got from that. The plan was to buy two foals to bring back home to Poland and I was so thrilled to get them." Cont. p7

We may have learnt almost nothing of how well suited City Of Troy will be to a dirt track, or more crucially to the kickback on that surface. But we do at least know that he is fit and well and has continued to develop physically--as one would expect of a three-year-old--as the season has progressed and he has continued to train and race.

It is fortunate for those of us in England that he has made all bar one of his racing starts here, but not everyone who has wanted to has had the chance to see him in racing action. A couple of people I got chatting to at Southwell on Friday were seeing him in the flesh for the first time, and for free. How fantastic.

City Of Troy won't be everyone's favourite, but if you follow the sport and can't appreciate a colt who has won four Group 1s including, crucially, the Derby, then perhaps it's not the game for you after all.

Those who did turn out in Nottinghamshire on Friday afternoon clapped City Of Troy all the way down the straight, and that kind of response--that respect--towards horses always brings a bit of a tear to my eye. Sure, it may have been nothing much more than a show gallop in the company of lesser stable-mates but I know I won't forget that elevation in his stride, and the joy his presence gave the onlookers, including this one. Just as I won't forget him proving me wrong after feeling a bit ho-hum when watching him in the parade ring for the Dewhurst last year. But he somehow manages to turn from the ordinary to the extraordinary when let loose with Ryan Moore, and his exuberant flying change half a furlong from the line that day is also burned into memory.

While Twitter used to be fun for racing fans, its Musk rebranding now puts the X into toxic, as exemplified by the reaction from some to the City Of Troy public gallop. My mum would have been 80 today and she used to say, 'If you can't say anything nice, better not to say anything at all.' She wouldn't have enjoyed social media. Cont. p4

The cribbing of the day as a glorified PR stunt rather misses the point. What this sport needs is positive PR, and one of the best horses in the world appearing on a quiet Friday afternoon, with the gates of the racecourse thrown open to all comers for free is as almost as good as it gets. Then there was the bonus of Ryan Moore and Aidan O'Brien taking plenty of time after the exercise to fulfil autograph and photograph requests for all those lining the paddock rails. This gallop day was hugely successful PR, not just for Coolmore, but for the accommodating team at Southwell and for racing itself. Can you imagine something similar happening in football, the only sport in Britain with a higher attendance rate than racing?

There have been many wonderful opportunities for people who follow the sport in Britain to get close to the stars beyond the racecourse in recent weeks. National Racehorse Week, the brainchild of trainer Richard Phillips, is now in its sixth year and in 2024 more than 100 racing yards and studs took part in open days, welcoming thousands through their gates.

This last weekend was the Henry Cecil Open Weekend in Newmarket, which had the extra attraction of John and Thady Gosden's Clarehaven Stables being open for the first time. The early birds could catch another of this season's top three-year-olds, Economics (GB), in action on Warren Hill before the stables opened on Sunday morning for a three-hour stretch. But that was only one aspect of a weekend-long programme of events which included Stradivarius (Ire) and Battaash (Ire) being on show at the National Stud and National Horseracing Museum respectively, a showjumping competition featuring racing personalities, a hotly-contested dog show won once again by William Jarvis's labrador, and showing classes for retrained racehorses. Cont. p5

All these types of events offer a golden opportunity for fans to get close to the stars of the show and for racing to showcase what is generally the norm in the day-to-day lives of racehorses: top-class care. It should go without saying that you'll get the best out of a horse by putting the best into a horse, and that starts with how they are treated by those charged with looking after them. We need to show people how well we do that.

Ho, Ho, Ho

It is unusual to find Con Marnane as the breeder rather than the consignor of a group-winning breeze-up horse, but that was the role 'King Con' played in Powerful Glory (Ire). The winner of the G2 Mill Reef Stakes represents that familiar triumvirate of Richard Fahey, Sheikh Rashid Dalmook Al Maktoum and agent Richard Brown, who were all previously involved in the treble Group 1 winner Perfect Power (Ire) (Ardad {Ire}).

The latter was bred by Tally-Ho Stud, who also bred his Overbury-based sire, and the Tally-Ho team played a significant role in the first three home in Saturday's Mill Reef. Powerful Glory's sire Cotai Glory (GB) stands at the stud, as does his damsire Kodiak (GB). The O'Callaghan family pinhooked the colt as a foal and offered him at the Goffs UK Breeze-up in April.

The John Ryan-trained runner-up La Bellota (Ire) is by another Tally-Ho stallion, Mehmas (Ire), and was bred at the farm and later sold at the Tattersalls Guineas Breeze-up. Meanwhile the third horse home, Billboard Star (GB) (Advertise {GB}), may have been a loss-maker for Tally-Ho when pinhooked from foal to yearling, but he has vindicated their judgement nonetheless by winning and twice finishing placed at Group 2 level for Eve Johnson Houghton.

Roheryn's Gone Global

The 13-year-old Galileo (Ire) mare Roheryn (Ire) is putting in a bold bid for broodmare of the year honours while compiling quite an international reputation. No fewer than four of her offspring have won already this season, in four different countries, with five-year-old Buckaroo (GB) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}) leading the pack following his victory in Saturday's G1 Underwood Stakes.

The longevity of the mare's runners is noteworthy. Her first foal, Kihavah (GB) (Harbour Watch {Ire}), is now seven and he too won on Saturday, in Scotland, beating another old warrior in Euchen Glen (GB) (Authorized {Ire}) by three and a half lengths when claiming his eighth in the Millar Callaghan 25th Anniversary Handicap at Ayr.

The four-year-old Middle Earth (GB) (Roaring Lion) won the G3 Aston Park Stakes in May and was third in the G2 Hardwicke Stakes at Royal Ascot before leaving the Gosdens to join his co-owner Ciaran Maher's stable in Australia in a planned raid on the Melbourne Cup.

Meanwhile the three-year-old filly Siege Of Troy (GB) (Siyouni {Fr}) won a Curragh maiden in June for Johnny Murtagh and picked up some black type in America when third in the Dueling Grounds Oaks Invitational at Kentucky Downs.

Some of the sires represented in Roheryn's matings drop a big hint that the mare, whose offspring are bred under the name of The Roheryn Partnership, is owned by a group involving Qatar Bloodstock, for whom she herself won the Listed King George V Cup, and is based at Tweenhills. The mare is a daughter of the 2005 G3 Albany Stakes winner La Chunga (More Than Ready).

Signing Off

This column can't sign off this week without acknowledging two retiring heroes: Franny Norton and Not So Sleepy (GB). That Norton, 54, was able to hang up his saddle after a winning treble at his beloved Chester was a proper Hollywood ending to a 36-year riding career.

We don't see many horses of Not So Sleepy's ilk these days. The son of Beat Hollow (GB), bred by his owners Lord and Lady Blyth, has been a force to be reckoned with, on the Flat and over hurdles, and indeed for the riders who had to curb his enthusiasm on the gallops each morning.

In 69 starts, from a winning debut at two to a successful swansong at 12, he won a dozen races, including the G1 Fighting Fifth Hurdle twice and the Listed Dee Stakes, with a haul of more than £600,000 in prize-money. He will be missed, as will Franny Norton.

He added, “This is the first [lot 206], a Lucky Vega (Ire) colt who cost €30,000, and the other is an Inns Of Court (Ire) colt who cost €10,000 as a foal and sells at Part 2. I own 60 per cent of both horses and friends of mine own the rest. I always felt that, if I wanted to start pinhooking, I’d have to start with a younger sire as they would be easier to buy and also easier to sell. I saw every single colt foal at the sales last year. I followed in a lot of foals that I couldn’t afford. But every time I saw this Lucky Vega colt, he gave me the same show. That’s why I bought him. He is a rock solid colt and has been that way since day one.”

The Eastern European flavour to Tattersalls Ireland, be it at the yearling or breeze-up sales, is something that has been celebrated in recent years. The Polish market is certainly one that is growing but it’s the horses that have been for export that usually grab the headlines. That’s what makes Radzikowski’s role at this week’s sale so interesting.

He said, “There are massive nerves. It’s really hard to buy a nice foal and I can remember I tried so hard but I just couldn’t seem to get one over the line. The Lucky Vega colt was the second-last lot into the ring at Goffs and I can remember hiding under the stairs so nobody could see me. I was bidding very fast so that some of the buyers would think that maybe the bidder was a big man with a big budget and maybe not to take me on. Little did they know that I was not a big man and I had a limit. I was very lucky to get him and, like I said, it has been my dream to do this.”

Radzikowski added, “I worked for Guy O’Callaghan at Grangemore Stud for four years and learned a lot over there. I also worked for Yeomanstown Stud with the stallions as well. I started coming to Ireland when I was 12. My father, who is known as Billy, has worked for Rathasker Stud for most of his life and I used to come and visit him in Ireland before eventually moving here myself. I couldn’t dream of doing anything else with my life other than working with horses. I just love it. Prepping horses is one of the best aspects of the business for me and I have really enjoyed seeing these horses grow and develop back home in Poland.”

While the cost effective thing might have been for Radzikowski to get his colts prepped for the sales in Ireland, that would defeat the purpose of this venture. Yes, there is a bottom line to pinhooking foals, but in this case, it’s a love of the animal and the process involved in readying horses for the sales that proved more of an allure to the Polish native who spends half his time in Ireland and the rest in his native land.

He explained, “These horses look good. We have very different weather in Poland compared to Ireland. We have very warm summers but also very cold winters. Where I am based in Poland, we have a lot of forests and these horses go walking for 45 minutes through the woods every evening. Okay, I could have gotten these horses prepped by somebody else in Ireland and it would have saved me some money but then I would not have been able to see them every day. I don’t do this for money. Yes, money is important, but I just love horses and I hope to be able to do this every year and for a long time. Not just once.”

Indeed, Radzikowski is not the only native of Eastern Europe who has commanded attention on the sales ground as Lithuanian native Ausra Bargary who, along with her husband Colin, bought the Tattersalls Ireland Super Auction Sales Stakes winner Spirit D’Or (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) from the Irish National Stud last year.

Under the banner of Drummona House Stud, the talented breeze-up handlers paid €55,000 for the first foal out of Dubawi (Ire) mare Across The Sea (GB), before turning a healthy profit when the filly rocked into €145,000 at the Arqana Breeze-Up Sale. She is now two from four for trainer Gavin Hernon including that €135,500 prize for winning the sales race.

“I had a baby only a few weeks before this sale last year,”

Bargary recalled. “That’s why I came for only one day last year. Spirit D’Or was one of the first fillies that I saw and, when I saw her, I said to Colin that we needed to buy her. No matter what she was making, I wanted to get her. There was so much class about her and she just looked a good one. She has a lovely page, being the first foal out of a Dubawi mare, and there was an Invincible Spirit under the second dam who was a good filly as well.”

She added, “When we bought her, we entered her in the sales race and said that, if she didn’t make good money at the breeze-up sales, we could always race her ourselves. Thankfully she made money at the sales and then went on to prove how good she is on the track. I am just so thrilled for the Irish National Stud and it’s a nice pedigree update for them to have as well. Her brother [417] is in the sale this week and he is lovely as well.”

It shouldn't go unnoticed the amount of work that goes on behind the scenes at Tattersalls Ireland to make this sale ground the international hub that it is. Not a week has gone by this year where the sales company's social media hasn't been updated by a representative at a big meeting abroad and the fruits of that labour are reaping just rewards.

Tattersalls Ireland chief Simon Kerins commented, "I think the quality is certainly on a par if not better than last year, which was a brilliant sale. We have a huge number of people who deserve credit in attracting the buyers here. Niamh Flynn does a huge amount of work on the ground while Mary Lanigan, John McDonnell and all of our marketing team and agents do some incredible work behind the scenes."

He added, "The international buyers have always enjoyed coming here and they feel that they get value. As soon as the hammer drops on this year's sale, we'll be trying to get them all back--England, Ireland and broader Europe--for next year. The vibes are good and there are a lot of people here so it's fingers crossed for a good sale."

EUROPEAN NEWS

WATHNAN RACING'S DEFENCE MINISTER SUPPLEMENTED FOR MIDDLE PARK

The unbeaten Defence Minister (GB) (Too Darn Hot {GB}) could become a first Group 1 runner in Britain for Qatar's champion trainer Hamad Al-Jehani in this Saturday's Juddmonte Middle Park Stakes.

The winner of both of his starts for Wathnan Racing, Defence Minister also holds an entry for the G3 Somerville Tattersall Stakes on Thursday, but has now been supplemented for the Group 1 contest.

Wathnan Racing's advisor Richard Brown said, "With all the rain and a very changeable forecast we want to have a range of possible targets for Defence Minister. He's a very promising colt but we know he wants decent ground, so we are keeping all our options open at this stage."

Defence Minister was bought by Brown on his owner's behalf for €210,000 at the Tattersalls Ireland Breeze-up Sale in May from Hyde Park Stud. He won on debut at Newmarket in August and followed that up with success at Haydock earlier this month.

Hamad Al-Jehani | Neville Hopwood

The potential opposition to Defence Minister in the Middle Park is headed by Aidan O'Brien's G1 Prix Morny winner Whistlejacket (Ire) (No Nay Never). Altogether O'Brien is responsible for five of the 12 entries at the five-day stage, with his others including the G3 Round Tower Stakes scorer Ides Of March (Ire) (Wootton Bassett {GB}), while Godolphin's Shadow Of Light (GB) (Lope De Vega {Ire}) and the G2 Richmond Stakes winner Black Forza (Complexity) are others who feature prominently in the ante-post betting.

Meanwhile, Wathnan Racing are also responsible for one of 14 potential runners in the G1 Juddmonte Cheveley Park Stakes on the same card, namely the G2 Queen Mary Stakes winner Leovanni (Ire) (Kodi Bear {Ire}).

Leovanni was last seen finishing third in the G2 Lowther Stakes at York won by Celandine (GB) (Kingman {GB}), who could reoppose on Saturday in a race where Ger Lyons's G1 Phoenix Stakes heroine Babouche (GB) (Kodiac {GB}) promises to take plenty of beating for the sponsors.

There could be a strong French challenge with the Prix Morny third Daylight (Fr) (Earthlight {Ire}) and the supplemented Rayevka (Ire) (Blue Point {Ire}) both in contention, while the G1 Moyglare Stud Stakes winner Lake Victoria (Ire) (Frankel {GB}) heads a possible five-strong team from Ballydoyle.

Fairy Godmother (Ire) (Night Of Thunder {Ire}) was a notable absentee, however, with a return to the track in 2025 now on the cards for a filly who was last seen winning the G3 Albany Stakes at Royal Ascot in June.

"Fairy Godmother is finished for the season," said O'Brien. "We just decided to leave her off for the rest of the year.

"As for Lake Victoria, we were thinking we might bring her back to six furlongs for this going to the Moyglare."

GOODWOOD ANNOUNCES APPOINTMENT OF ADAM WATERWORTH AS NEW CEO

The Goodwood Estate has appointed Adam Waterworth as the Group's new CEO, it was announced on Monday.

Waterworth has served in senior roles at Goodwood since joining in 2010, most recently as the events managing director, where he broadened his remit from horseracing to include all of the estate's headline events in 2020. Prior to Goodwood, he held various positions across a number of UK racecourses.

The appointment is effective from Tuesday, October 1 as Waterworth takes over from Chris Woodgate, who has held the position for seven years.

"It is an honour to become Goodwood's CEO and lead the organisation into its next chapter," said Waterworth. "As we plan for the future, we can draw from over 300 years of heritage and history, and I'm proud to have such a strong team with me as we continue to develop and host amazing experiences for our customers, fans and partners."

The Duke of Richmond CBE DL, executive chairman of the Goodwood Estate, added, "I am delighted that Adam will become our new CEO in October, bringing his assured leadership and track record of performance and delivery to the role. We have an exciting future ahead of us at Goodwood and I look forward to working closely with Adam as we affirm our long-term plans and opportunities in the coming months."

Off the mark at the fifth attempt at Naas last month, the hard-grafting Rebel Diamond had shown he was thriving on his busy campaign when following up in an Irish EBF Auction Series Race at Cork only 12 days prior to this black-type breakthrough. Settled with two behind early, he was delivered to lead with a furlong remaining and proved genuine and professional as he asserted on the run to the line.

"He's progressing well, he won very well in Cork and quick ground is the key to him," trainer Natalia Lupini's partner Craig Bryson explained. "It was a nice race here today and he seemed to win easy. He has a good attitude, travels well and quickens well. Billy said he won as he liked there today and we're happy that there is more to come from him. He's probably had plenty of racing this year and we'll see how he is after that. He's probably for sale, so that's a nice one to pick up."

The winner is the first foal out of the unraced dam, whose half-brother by Shaman (Ire) is in Tuesday's session at the Tattersalls Ireland September Sale. A daughter of the listed scorer Royal Blue Star (Ire) (Dalakhani {Ire}) from the family of Danehill Dancer's G3 Gallinule Stakes-winning sire Grand Ducal (Ire), her filly foal is by Soldier's Call (GB).

RIGHT AND TRUE (IRE) (c, 2, Arizona {Ire}--Princess Theodora, by Quality Road) ran third over 6 1/2 furlongs at the Curragh, in the Sept. 15 Tattersalls Ireland Super Auction Sales Stakes, last time and broke well to stalk the pace in second after the initial exchanges here. Looming large with a quarter-mile remaining, the 11-4 joint-favourite was shaken up to lead approaching the furlong pole and lengthened clear under late urging to defeat Nobler (Ger) (Amaron {GB}) by 3 3/4 lengths, becoming the sixth winner for his freshman sire (by No Nay Never). "Wayne Lordan, who rode him the last day, told me that he would stay this trip well, so I was confident enough coming here," said rider Jack Cleary. "He bounced out smartly, got into a good rhythm and got a nice tow into the race by the frontrunner. He put his head down and galloped to the line." Right And True, full-brother to a yearling colt, is the fourth foal and scorer produced by a half-sister to Listed Tom Ridge Stakes third Saint Arbor (Forestry). Descendants of the March-foaled bay's third dam Misty Dancer (Lyphard), who is a half-sister to multiple Group 1-winning Irish champion Ministrella (The Minstrel), include multiple Grade I-winning sires Saint Liam (Saint Ballado) and Gun Runner (Candy Ride {Arg}). Sales history: €35,000 Wlg '22 GOFNO1; €68,000 Ylg '23 TATIRY. Lifetime Record: 5-1-0-3, $44,324. O-Michael Tabor, Derrick Smith & Mrs John Magnier; B-T Boylan (IRE); T-Aidan O'Brien.

3rd-Listowel, €14,000, Mdn, 9-23, 3yo/up, 8fT, 1:39.67, gd.

DUBLIN (IRE) (c, 3, Dubawi {Ire}--Marvellous {Ire} {G1SW-Ire, $262,665}, by Galileo {Ire}), who sported first-time blinkers for this debut, was well away from the inside stall and raced in a handy third through halfway. Tanking forward on the home turn, the 15-8 favourite seized control entering the final furlong and was ridden clear to easily outpoint Finsceal Luas (Ire) (Camelot {GB}) by four lengths. "I ride him quite a bit at home, so know him well and he is a very straightforward horse," revealed rider Jack Cleary. "I was confident he would run a huge race today, so I'm happy. He has taken time, but has come into himself recently and is going well now." Dublin is the fifth of seven foals and second scorer produced by G1 Irish 1000 Guineas heroine Marvellous (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), herself a full-sister to seven black-type performers including multiple Group 1-winning sire Gleneagles (Ire) and the dual Classic-placed Group 1 victrix Happily (Ire). The February-foaled bay is a full-brother to the hitherto unraced 2-year-old filly Reminiscing (Ire). He is also kin to multiple Group-placed dual Listed winner Fort Myers (War Front) and a yearling colt by Wootton Bassett (GB). Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $9,093.
