

AUGUSTE RODIN TO RETIRE TO COOLMORE AFTER JAPAN CUP

Auguste Rodin will have one last run before retirement | PA Media

The dual Derby winner Auguste Rodin (Ire) will make one final appearance in the Japan Cup on November 24 before retiring to stand at Coolmore Stud in Ireland.

The four-year-old son of Japan's breed-shaping stallion Deep Impact (Jpn) has won at the highest level in each of his seasons in training, landing the Vertem Futurity after his initial black-type success in the G2 KPMG Champions Juvenile Stakes.

At three, despite disappointing in the Qipco 2,000 Guineas on his seasonal debut, he put together a formidable CV of four Group/Grade 1 wins, beginning with the Derby and Irish Derby, and then bouncing back from a flop in the King George to win the Irish Champion Stakes before ending the year with victory in the Breeders' Cup Turf at Santa Anita.

This season, Auguste Rodin has added the Prince of Wales's Stakes at Royal Ascot to his list of wins, and he has also finished runner-up in the Tattersalls Gold Cup and, most recently, behind Economics (GB) in the Irish Champion Stakes.

"Auguste Rodin is an exceptional racehorse and stallion prospect with the blend of class, speed and pedigree that only the best possess," said Coolmore's MV Magnier. "He is a very special horse for us, and I truly believe he ranks up there with the best middle-distance racehorses and sires that we have stood here before him like Sadler's Wells, Galileo, Montjeu, Caerleon and Camelot." IS PRIZE-MONEY IN BRITAIN REALLY THAT BAD? By Emma Berry

It's a familiar lament: prize-money in Britain is terrible. But is it actually true?

The answer is different depending on where and at which level you are racing. At Class 5 and 6 level, where a significant portion of the horse population plies its trade, prize-money levels are poor and that is giving the rest of British racing an unfair reputation.

But for those fortunate enough to race a top horse in Britain, the fact is that owners are better rewarded than those in Ireland or France. In 2024, 18 of the 24 most valuable Group 1 races in Europe have been or will be run in Britain. Drop to Group 2 level and there are 43 races worth at least £115,000 in Britain, compared to six in France and four in Ireland. In fact, 19 of the most valuable Group 2 races in those three countries are staged in Britain, headed by the £500,000 City of York Stakes, whose prize fund has been boosted with the aim of Group 1 promotion at heart.

For Group 3 races, there are 59 in Britain run at £70,000 or more, while just three Irish Group 3s reach that mark and none in France. Cont. p4

He added, "Physically, he fills the eye so well as he has extra quality and movement, so I can't wait to see his first crop in Ballydoyle in 2028. We are going to do all we can to give him the best possible opportunity to follow in his illustrious predecessors' footsteps."

One of those predecessors, Galileo (Ire), appears as the damsire of Auguste Rodin, who was the first foal of the treble Group 1 winner Rhododendron (Ire), herself a sister to the brilliant mare Magical (Ire). Their dam Halfway To Heaven (Ire) (Pivotal {GB}) was bred by Trevor Stewart and was also a three-time Group 1 winner. Moreover, she in turn is out of Stewart's influential matriarch and top-class sprinter Cassandra Go (Ire) (Indian Ridge {Ire}).

Auguste Rodin is from the final small crop of Deep Impact, who was the 11-time champion sire in Japan, a reign which continued beyond his untimely death in 2019 at the age of 17. His Japanese-Derby winning son Kizuna (Jpn) was leading first-season sire in Japan in 2019 and currently heads the country's general sires' list.

Ryan Moore, who has been in the saddle for all bar one of Auguste Rodin's 15 races, said, "He's been an unbelievable horse for us. We have always thought the world of him. He has everything you'd want. He has so much pace. He could kill horses for speed, and he was able to stretch that out over 12 furlongs. Horses like him are so hard to find. An incredible horse."

Reflecting on a racing career that has so far netted a prize-money haul just shy of €6m, his trainer Aidan O'Brien added, "Auguste Rodin is out of Rhododendron, one of the best Galileo mares, and by Deep Impact, Japan's best stallion. He connects two of the most powerful breeding lines in the world. He has been a pleasure and a privilege to train. He is just a very unique horse and we're very excited to see what he will achieve at stud. We will be supporting him with our own mares."

Kanichi Kusano, manager of the Japan Racing Association's London office, is charged with attracting runners for the Japan Cup. The country's major international race was named Longines World's Best Horserace in 2023 following the victory of superstar Equinox (Jpn).

Kusano said that Tokyo racegoers will be extra pleased to welcome a son of Deep Impact from overseas, making it a homecoming of sorts for Auguste Rodin.

"I think that is the reason that it is most special to the Japanese fans," he noted. "To have one of his last progeny coming to race in Japan and then retiring to stud is a great joy for the Japanese racing industry as well." Cont. p4

He added, "With all his career, his performance and his popularity as a great racehorse, but again the fact that Auguste Rodin is from the last crop of Deep Impact, we are really excited to have him for the Japan Cup and just hope that he travels safely and runs safely and then has a good retirement at stud."

The 23 most valuable Group 3 races in Europe are all in Britain including the £200,000 Bahrain Trophy at Newmarket and Goodwood's £200,000 Gordon Stakes.

In the black-type programme, a further 99 Listed races are run at £50,000 or more in Britain this year, and again this compares favourably to its two nearest neighbours, with France hosting 28 at that level and Ireland three. Again, the most valuable Listed race in Europe is in Britain: the £150,000 Redcar Two Year Old Trophy.

With the Tattersalls October Yearling Sale just around the corner, this is a message that the company's marketing director, Jimmy George, is keen to share with potential buyers at the sales. Indeed, it is incumbent on all those involved in British racing to refresh the narrative.

"Often the [Group prize-money] is competitive with America. For example, the G3 Tattersalls Acomb Stakes is worth £165,000, which is approximately $215,000, and there is not one Grade II or Grade III two-year-old race at the forthcoming Belmont/Aqueduct meeting worth more than $200,000."

Indeed, the Acomb, run at York's Ebor meeting, is part of a four-day festival at which not a single race is run for less than £100,000. York racecourse has long been a leader in its field, and the advent of Premier Racing, which has not been met with unanimous approval, has meant that some courses have been forced into significantly improving purses at their Premier fixtures. What goes up also usually comes down, however, and plenty of 'Core fixtures' have offered reduced prize-money at the lower tiers of racing.

George also points to the programme of maiden and novice races in Britain, which has been enhanced in the last two seasons by a series of 84 high-value development races backed by Juddmonte, Darley, Tattersalls and the British EBF.

"I think there are around 100 maiden or novice races in Britain worth £25,000 or more, and at least 85 of those are worth £30,000 or more, with the Convivial Maiden at York worth £100,000," he adds.

"We have had an average of 44 £25,000 Tattersalls October

Book 1 Bonus winners each year since the scheme began eight years ago, so that's an extra £1 million-plus in two-year-old win prize-money in each of those years.

"Great British Bonus figures can be added as well, and as an example, the Victorious Racing filly Duty First won £49,320 when she won her maiden at Ayr last month, comprising the feeble £4,320 of prize-money, £20,000 GBB and £25,000 Tattersalls October Book 1 Bonus, and the Salhia Stud filly Bintjeddah won £50,400 for winning her maiden at Haydock last week – £5,400 prize-money, £20,000 GBB and £25,000 Tattersalls October Book 1 Bonus." Cont. p6

George says that he would like to see these bonuses acknowledged alongside the official prize-money figures in a horse's career overview, similar to the way French premiums are shown on the France Galop website.

He continues, "Sadly, when you look up those horses, and obviously any other bonus winners, all you see is that they won £4,320 or £5,400, so the perceived wisdom that there is no prize-money in British racing is perpetuated. We do our best to highlight all Book 1 Bonus winners, and the GBB winners are all on their website, but there is precious little dialogue about this and no official, centralised way of this money being recognised in statistics.

"It is also worth bearing in mind the winners of a JRA two-year-old maiden win ¥7,200,000, which is about £39,000. As an industry, we need to raise the level of awareness amongst ourselves as to the prize-money opportunities that are out there. The Tattersalls' perspective is that winning your maiden is almost the most important point in your prize-money journey. And if you get a big payday the day you win your first-ever race, that gives you a warm and tingly feeling going forward. Hence, we've committed so much money over the last eight years to the Book 1 Bonus scheme, and it's distributed £9 million in extra prize-money directly to owners in Britain and in Ireland as well."

Of course, only a selection of the racing population emanates from Book 1, and the GBB scheme is only open to fillies bred in Britain or by British stallions, so there are restrictions in these extra funds available, but the high-value maidens are increasingly prevalent.

"There's more than two a week of these that trainers can target and there's plenty more in that £15,000 to £25,000 bracket," says George. "So constantly beating ourselves up to the detriment of the overall industry makes it difficult to sell the sport to new owners or even retain others, and to my mind, runs the risk of them migrating to places like France where, again, the perceived wisdom is not always matched by the reality. One absolute fact is that Group and Listed races in this country are worth significantly more than they are anywhere else in Europe across the board.

"If you are lucky enough to have a good horse, Britain is the best place in Europe to have it by a country mile. That is not necessarily a narrative that is widely disseminated or trumpeted by, dare I say it, the vast majority of the racing media or even the people paid to promote British racing. And, therefore, a huge number of racing professionals get battered into thinking that they're clinging on without a life jacket to a sinking ship. It's time to sell the sport a little bit better." 'it doesn't take Sherlock Holmes'

There was a stampede of buyers at Tattersalls Ireland's September Sale all wanting to enlist in the Sioux Nation army, writes Aisling Crowe.

One of Europe's leading third season sires, the son of Scat Daddy seems to have avoided the curse of the dreaded fourth crop at the sales with his yearlings running one of the best averages of any stallion represented, and at a figure that was approximately four times his 2022 advertised covering fee...

At €95,000 Katie Walsh's purchase of Kilbride House Stud's Sioux Nation colt as a pinhooking prospect for the expanded 2025 breeze-up season could be bold but her Greenhills Farm has a track record of success with progeny of the Phoenix and Norfolk Stakes winner.

Walsh has topped the last two editions of the Tattersalls Ireland Breeze-Up Sale with juveniles by Sioux Nation so she knows exactly what is called for...

"He is a lovely individual, a lovely walking colt, the sire has been good to me over the years and this lad was a bit of a stand-out for me today," said Walsh.

She has prepared and consigned the Group 3 Round Tower Stakes winner Letsbefrankaboutit and the €370,000 Sioux Nation filly who was, by a significant margin, the most expensive sold at the 2024 sale in this ring back in May.

Bought by Mark McStay and Paddy Twomey, she has been named City Of Memphis but has yet to race.

Two of the three most expensive horses sold at that event were by Sioux Nation so it doesn't take Sherlock Holmes to work out why his yearlings are in demand with breeze-up consignors.

That is something that George has been doing from the perspective of Tattersalls for more than three decades. On Thursday, he made the surprise announcement of his imminent departure to the International Racing Bureau. That is not until January, however, and before then he is looking forward to welcoming the major players of the bloodstock world to Park Paddocks for the fortnight-long October Yearling Sale, which begins on Tuesday, October 8.

"We're very fortunate to have so many of the world's biggest and most committed racehorse owners and breeders focusing their operations and their attention on Britain, racing all or most of their best stock here, maybe breeding all or most of their best stock over here, but also focusing on Book 1 of the Tattersalls October yearlings to source the best stock that is available," he says.

"And that, I think, is the key element of Book 1 of the Tattersalls October Yearling Sale. It is recognised throughout the world as being the single biggest collection of elite turf yearlings, probably to be found anywhere in the world, which reflects not only the quality of the stock that the breeders are sending to the sale, but also the quality of the stallions that we currently have in Britain, Ireland and France, even without Galileo now."

George and his colleagues spend plenty of time in the air on their way to recruit potential buyers for the sale.

"It's obviously a very important part of what we do at Tattersalls, spreading the word as far and wide as we possibly can every year," he says. "The process begins very early in the year, the regular trips to North America, Japan, Hong Kong, Australia, throughout the Gulf region. We like to think there are very few stones that remain unturned in the course of us scouring the globe to push the message out.

A total of 1,873 yearlings have been catalogued across the four books of the October Sale, which has been deliberately reduced in number by 273 this year to ease the pressure on both vendors and buyers. At the sale's end comes Qipco British Champions Day at Ascot on October 19 with prize-money totalling £4.5 million across six races, headed by the £1.3-million G1 Champion Stakes.

"Almost by definition, there will be something for everyone and it's very important that we don't just attract the elite buyers, but those whose budgets are more suited to the latter part of the October yearling sale know that they can come here confident that they also have a chance of finding superior race horses," says George.

"It's a very busy fortnight and we have made a conscious effort this year to try and tighten it a little bit to make the two weeks more manageable, and particularly in week two, spanning Books 2, 3 and 4. I think everybody working that second week will hopefully benefit from that and notice the difference, that it won't be quite as attritional as sometimes it can feel."

As George reflects on his time at Tattersalls, clearly one of the things of which he feels most proud is the launch of the Book 1 Bonus back in 2015.

"They are putting a lot of prize-money directly into the hands of owners, significant prize-money, which we strongly believe makes a difference to these owners. We want people to win these bonuses because it keeps them engaged in the sport," he says. "It makes a difference, particularly at the slightly lower sector of the October Book 1 market, that at 100,000gns and below. Thirty-five per cent of the 383 Book 1 bonus winners that we've had to date since the scheme's inception have been purchased for a 100,000gns or less."

Over those years, around £9 million has been paid out in Book 1 Bonuses, while the Thoroughbred Breeders' Association's GBB Scheme, funded by the Levy Board and with contributions from breeders and owners, has dished out around £16.5 million (£14 million from the Levy Board) since its inception in 2020.

George adds, "I'm sure with a bit of joined-up thinking and getting a few people around a table, we can make sure the Book 1 Bonus and GBB figures are reflected in prize-money statistics. It's amazing how much difference a few million pounds in prize-money carefully directed can make to the ownership experience."

The upcoming October sales will see over 1870 yearlings be offered at Park Paddocks in Newmarket | Tattersalls

'HE'S A ONCE-IN-A-LIFETIME HORSE': CUNHA REVELS IN FAIRYTALE JOEL WIN FOR PRAGUE by Tom Frary

Especially here, on Newmarket's hallowed turf, results the like of which occurred on Friday in the G2 Al Basti Equiworld, Dubai Joel Stakes aren't meant to happen. And yet, against all probable odds of circumstance, the unwanted unraced colt acquired from the Coolmore draft by Amedeo Dal Pos for just 10,000gns at the Tattersalls Autumn Sale less than a year ago came back to the town at which he was sold to light up the Friday card of the Cambridgeshire meeting.

Unlucky when second in Haydock's G3 Superior Mile last month, Prague (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) whose dam Princess Noor (Ire) (Holy Roman Emperor {Ire}) was second in this meeting's G1 Cheveley Park Stakes in 2013 had no traffic issues in this depleted renewal racing keenly early for Danny Tudhope. Moved away from the 2-1 joint-favourites Poker Face (Ire) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}) and Task Force (GB) (Frankel {GB}) and into isolation before halfway, the Dylan Cunha-trained bargain was in command inside the last two furlongs and turned it on from there to beat those rivals by 3 3/4 lengths and 1 3/4 lengths, respectively.

"We now have to think about Ascot [the QEII], because he is improving all the time, race by race," commented Dal Pos, who is a work rider for Cunha, led up his winner and also won the prize for best turned out. "At the moment I'm so excited I can't think!"

Cunha was similarly moved by the experience. "To win this race today means absolutely everything to me," he said. "We'll have to seriously think about supplementing him for the QEII now. He clearly goes on soft ground, but the interesting thing is the jockey says he's better on better ground, he's just that good, he's still improving. We got him for 10 grand out of Ballydoyle, he had a leg fracture but since we've had him we've never missed a day."

"He's still a big baby, that's the exciting thing," he added. "Danny says when he finally matures he'll be a really nice horse. We've had lots of offers for him, even after he won his first race at Sandown by six lengths, I had six or seven phone calls but he's not for sale unless it's life-changing money. He's a once-in-a-lifetime horse." Cont. p9

Prague's aforementioned dam Princess Noor, who was bought for 675,000gns at 2018 Tattersalls December, also captured the G3 Princess Margaret Stakes and is a granddaughter of the G3 Molecomb Stakes winner Sahara Star (GB) (Green Desert). Topically, her G2 Flying Childers Stakes and G3 King George Stakes-winning daughter Land Of Dreams (GB) (Cadeaux Genereux {GB}) was responsible for Diktat's dual European champion Dream Ahead whose impressive career tally included a win in this meeting's G1 Middle Park Stakes while she is also the ancestress of another who starred during this particular racing festival in the G1 Cheveley Park Stakes heroine Fairyland (Ire) (Kodiac {GB}). Princess Noor's yearling filly Glyfada (Ire) (Camelot {GB}) is due to sell at the upcoming Tattersalls October Book 1, while she also has a filly foal by No Nay Never.

BUBBLING TAKES THE ROCKFEL

by Tom Frary

Abundant rain turned Newmarket's ground to heavy before Friday's action and while it sunk the much-vaunted Formal (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) in the G2 Al Basti Equiworld, Dubai Rockfel Stakes, it proved no hindrance to fellow TDN Rising Star Bubbling (Ire) (No Nay Never--Lumiere Noire {Fr}, by Dashing Blade {GB}) as she became the latest Ballydoyle juvenile filly to register a black-type win in 2024. Partnered by Ryan Moore after the stable's Ecstatic (Jpn) (Lord Kanaloa {Jpn}) was taken out due to the going, the impressive Galway maiden winner and Listed Ingabelle Stakes third was asked to stay relatively close to the early pace set by Serving With Style (GB) (Mohaather {GB}).

Working her way by that rival passing the furlong pole, the well-supported 11-8 favourite stayed on strongly to score by 2 1/4 lengths, with the G3 Prestige Stakes runner-up Duty First (GB) (Showcasing {GB}) another 2 1/2 lengths away in third and Formal finishing a well-beaten fourth. In the event, it was not the soon-to-be-retired Sir Michael Stoute who was joining Barry Hills with the joint-record of four successes in this seven-furlong contest, but Aidan O'Brien whose 2-year-old fillies have now won a total of 10 black-type events this term.

"She ran a very good race the last day, but things just didn't work out for her, it was a bit messy," Aidan O'Brien said. "She's definitely a filly to look forward to for next year. She could be a middle-distance filly, but she'll be fine over a mile also. I'm not sure if she'll run again this year, possibly not, but we'll see. She obviously handled the soft ground very well anyway, I don't think any ground is going to bother her."

Pedigree Notes

Bubbling is a full-sister to the stable's talented Wichita (Ire), who was successful in the G2 Park Stakes and G3 Tattersalls Somerville Stakes and was runner-up in the G1 2,000 Guineas and third in the G1 Dewhurst Stakes and G1 St James's Palace Stakes. The listed-winning dam Lumiere Noire, who also has a yearling filly by Starspangledbanner (Aus), is a half-sister to the GI Manhattan Handicap winner Desert Blanc (GB) (Desert Style {Ire}) from the family of the G2 Duke of Cambridge Stakes runner-up Agincourt (Ire) (Declaration Of War).

TIME LOCK REPEATS IN THE PRINCESS

ROYAL by Tom Frary

Highly tried since her success in the 2023 G3 Princess Royal Al Basti Equiworld, Dubai Stakes, Juddmonte's Time Lock (GB) (Frankel {GB}) was back in her safe place on Friday returning to the same contest that she had dominated a year previously. Unable to land a blow in the G1 British Champions Fillies & Mares Stakes and G1 Coronation Cup in the interim, the homebred was always comfortable under Ryan Moore en route to registering back-to-back successes in this mile-and-a-half contest to potentially set up a high-profile swansong.

Settled third early, the 13-8 favourite moved to Comic Book (GB) (Frankel {GB}) and Place Of Safety (Ire) (Night Of Thunder {Ire}) approaching two out before being sent clear for a straightforward five-length verdict over the former. "We had half an idea about whether or not to go to Hong Kong for the mile-and-a-half race or not in December, Ryan just said that could be a good option for her depending on what's in it," Juddmonte's racing manager Barry Mahon explained. "She'll retire either way at the end of this year and she's a nice broodmare prospect."

Pedigree Notes

Time Lock is the first foal out of Time Chaser (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}), a daughter of the G1 Criterium de Saint-Cloud heroine Passage Of Time (GB) (Dansili {GB}) who was also placed in the GI Breeders' Cup Filly and Mare Turf, G1 Prix Vermeille and G1 Nassau Stakes. She is a half-sister to the G1 Falmouth Stakes heroine Timepiece (GB) (Zamindar) and the G2 King Edward VII Stakes scorer Father Time (GB) (Dansili {GB}) from the family of the champion Twice Over (GB) (Observatory) and the GI Matriarch Stakes winner Viadera (GB) (Bated Breath {GB}).

Passage Of Time is responsible Dubawi's sire Time Test (GB), whose four group successes included this card's G2 Joel Stakes and who was also placed in the G1 Manhattan Stakes and G1 Fourstardave Handicap, and the dual group 3 scorer Tempus (GB) (Kingman {GB}) whose 2-year-old full-brother Cosmic Year (GB) is a new TDN Rising Star for this stable. Time Chaser's 2-year-old filly Continuete (GB) also by Frankel looks a smart prospect for Ger Lyons, while she also has a yearling filly by Sea The Stars (Ire) and a filly foal by Tempus and Cosmic Year's sire Kingman.

Cambridgeshire meeting affecting and afflicting the key races. Dynamic on good ground or quicker and unraced on anything softer than good-to-yielding, the sponsors' Babouche (GB) (Kodiac {GB}) has a new examination to sit on her first foray overseas and connections are in the dark as to how she will fare.

Her dam Pavlosk (Arch) was impressive on soft when recording her career-best success at listed level and her full-sister Zarinsk (GB) also proved adept at handling these conditions when registering three of her set of black-type wins on easy going, but there is always a question mark with one who has demonstrated such speed on top-of-the-ground.

Reassuringly, the participation of Ireland's hottest property among its clutch of high-class juvenile fillies is not in doubt regardless of the dramatic shift in the surface. "She will definitely run, whether she'll go on it we won't know until she does," the operation's Barry Mahon said of the G1 Phoenix Stakes heroine. "We'll all find out together whether she likes it or not, that's the best way."

"Ger [Lyons] is very happy with her and Colin [Keane] rode her on Thursday morning and thought she was in good form," he added. "She's got a little bit heavier and a little bit stronger from her last race, which is good to see. I wouldn't swap her for anything else. She's been rock-solid, she's beaten the colts, the form has worked out in the Morny and she's been a pillar of consistency all year."

Babouche | Racingfotos.com

Heavy ground is hardly any more suitable for Ballydoyle's Lake Victoria (Ire) (Frankel {GB}), who steps back to six furlongs having collected The Curragh's G1 Moyglare Stud Stakes over seven last time. Her previous win in the G3 Sweet Solera Stakes on the July Course here came on quick ground, so the daughter of Quiet Reflection (GB) (Showcasing {GB}) is also entering unknown territory. Ryan Moore is unfazed, however. Cont. p12

RACE PREVIEWS

'WE'LL FIND OUT': MAHON PONDER'S BABOUCHE'S CHEVELEY PARK BID AFTER NEWMARKET DOWNPOUR by Tom Frary

Saturday's G1 Juddmonte Cheveley Park Stakes has a very different feel to it than at the 48-hour declaration stage, with the heavy rain that fell before the middle part of the three-day

“She drops down to six furlongs here, which shouldn’t be a problem, and I am not fearing that the slow ground will affect her either,” he confidently stated. “Babouche is obviously our main danger, also being an unbeaten group 1 winner, and it is set up to be a good match.”

Looking to upset the idea of a “match” is The Aga Khan’s impressive Chantilly conditions scorer Rayevka (Ire) (Blue Point {Ire}), who recorded impressive sectionals 12 days ago and who has prompted normally-conservative connections into the surprisingly bold action of supplementing her for this tough test. “She’s in very good form, she’s very well and we are looking forward to running her,” commented trainer Francis-Henri Graffard, who is looking to add to his already-stellar 2024 campaign.

“It was the way she did it when she won last time and the way she has come out of the race, she’s come on a lot, so we are going to give it a go before she winters,” he added. “Obviously it’s a big challenge, I just hope the ground will not be too heavy, as that is my main worry. She would be happy on good-to-soft, we don’t know how she will take to the track at Newmarket but that is the same for nearly all the fillies and we will find out.”

This looks a strong renewal, with Gousserie Racing and Sandrine Gavrois’s G3 Prix de Cabourg winner and G1 Prix Morny third Daylight (Fr) (Earthlight {Ire}), Rockcliffe Stud’s G2 Lowther Stakes winner Celandine (GB) (Kingman {GB}) and Wathnan Racing’s G2 Queen Mary Stakes scorer Leovanni (Ire) (Kodi Bear {Ire}) all with claims. The latter needs to up her game after her latest third behind Celandine in the Lowther, but Wathnan’s racing adviser Richard Brown gave cause for optimism on Friday.

Daylight | Scoop Dyga

Whistlejacket | Scoop Dyga

“It looks like one of the hottest Cheveley Parks we’ve seen for a very long time, but she owes us nothing,” he said of the Karl Burke trainee. “There were a few things at York that probably didn’t go her way. James [Doyle] was keen to ride her with a view to getting her to stay, but he felt afterwards that she saw the trip out well. We can probably ride her with a bit more confidence this time. It was hard carrying the three-pound penalty and she was beaten under two lengths.”

A Middle Park Quandary...

If the ground is an unknown for Babouche, it also raises question marks over the G1 Juddmonte Middle Park Stakes favourite Whistlejacket (Ire) (No Nay Never). While he has won the G1 Prix Morny and the G2 July Stakes on good-to-soft, he was readily brushed aside by Cowardofthecounty (Ire) (Kodi Bear {Ire}) on this going on debut at The Curragh back in April and it could be that a test at this six-furlong trip stretches him. Stablemate Ides Of March (Ire) (Wootton Bassett {GB}) is unraced on ground slower than good and is probably even more likely to be compromised, suggesting this won’t be the Ballydoyle bonanza it appears on paper.

Godolphin’s G2 Gimcrack Stakes runner-up Shadow Of Light (GB) (Lope De Vega {Ire}) and Wathnan Racing’s unbeaten Defence Minister (GB) (Too Darn Hot {GB}) were both taken out of last Saturday’s G2 Mill Reef Stakes after similarly heavy rain came to Newbury, while Eleanora Kennedy’s G2 Richmond Stakes winner Black Forza (Complexity) captured that Goodwood contest on quick summer going. With so many unknowns, Nurlan Bizakov’s Kempton novice winner Dash Dizzy (Ire) (Wootton Bassett {GB}) could sneak into the picture as a half-brother to Sioux Nation who was sixth in this in 2017.

Ready For Early Blue Riband Clues...

There are two other important juvenile contests on Saturday which given the deterioration in ground conditions and the fact that they are staged at a mile both incline more towards the 2025 Derby than 2,000 Guineas. Newmarket's G2 Juddmonte Royal Lodge Stakes sees the Charlie Fellowes-trained Listed Ascendant Stakes winner Luther (GB) (Frankel {GB}) tackle Ballydoyle's Galway maiden winner Puppet Master (Ire) (Camelot {GB}), while at The Curragh the G2 Beresford Stakes, the Silverton Hill Partnership's G3 Tyros Stakes winner, and G2 Futurity Stakes runner-up Hotazhell (GB) (Too Darn Hot {GB}) is taken on by Ballydoyle's 12-length Galway maiden-winning TDN Rising Star Trinity College (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) and ultra-green Listed Criterium de l'Ouest scorer Lambourn (Ire) (Australia {GB}).

Also at The Curragh is the Goffs Million, where the Joseph O'Brien-trained Listed Criterium du FEE winner Apples And Bananas (Ire) (Wootton Bassett {GB}) encounters Ballydoyle's Naas maiden scorer Antelope Canyon (Ire) (No Nay Never) and a dozen others chasing the bonanza.

including the Poule d'Essai des Pouliches and Prix de Diane.

Trained through her first 12 starts by Christopher Head, the bay won four of her six appearances at two en route to being named the top filly of her year in France. She landed the G3 Prix d'Aumale and G1 Prix Marcel Boussac in her final starts of 2022. At three, she rattled off victories in the G3 Prix de la Grotte, the French 1000 Guineas, and the French Oaks. Later in the season, Blue Rose Cen was back to her best with a neck victory in the G1 Prix de l'Opera. Switched to trainer Maurizio Guarnieri earlier this year, the filly went winless from five starts in Group 1 company and ended her career with a fifth-place effort in the G1 E. P. Taylor Stakes at Woodbine. Her record stands at 17-8-1-0, and $1,734,081 in earnings.

"It is the decision of the filly's owner," Guarnieri told Paris Turf on Friday morning. "She will therefore go to stud with two other fillies: Icon Cen (Ire) (Siyouni {Fr}) and Sandy Cen (Fr) (Siyouni {Fr}). These have just left my stable at the same time as Blue Rose Cen."

ITBA NEXT GENERATION ANNOUNCES NEW COMMITTEE FOR 2024/25

The ITBA Next Generation have updated their committee for 2024/25 as they prepare to kick off their calendar of events for the new season.

Ross O'Mahony of Tattersalls Ireland steps up to the role of chair and Luke Bleahen of Lakefield Farm will be vice chair. The rest of the committee will comprise of Aoife Boland (Goffs, Piercetown Stud), Luke Coen (Tattersalls Ireland, Q-Cross Stables), Jack Fitzgerald (UCD Vet Student), Sarah Gayer (ALEH), Timmy Love (Coolderry Farm), Paul Moloney (Irish National Stud), Brigitte Murphy (Tally-Ho Stud), Edmond Ryan (Weir View Stud), Niall Scott (Coolmore Stud) and Conor Wixted (Goffs).

The interns for 2024/25 have also been named, with Emma Hunter, Ciara Russell, Dana Jones and Emma Dillon all having started their placements this month.

"Following on from the accomplishments of the ITBA Next Generation since its resurgence two years ago, I'm delighted to take on the role as chairman for the coming year with the help of Luke Bleahen as vice chair," said O'Mahony.

"The committee over the last two years led by Orla Donworth and Conor Wixted was very successful and we are looking forward to continuing and building on this momentum with a mostly new committee."

It was also announced that first-time buyers and paid members of ITBA Next Generation will be able to benefit from a lower threshold of €10,000 to access loyalty schemes at Goffs and Tattersalls Ireland.

GAMESTOP TO STAND AT HARAS DU TAILLIS

Group 1-placed Gamestop (Ire) (Lope De Vega {Ire}) will stand at Haras du Taillis next season, Jour de Galop reported on Friday. A fee will be announced at a later date.

The Wertheimer et Frere homebred won his debut for Christophe Ferland and was third in the G3 Prix La Rochette and second in the G1 Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere at two. A winner from two through four, the son of Your Game (Fr) (Montjeu {Ire})'s current record is 11-2-1-2 and he has $138,608 in earnings. He is a half-brother to the stakes-placed Parafection (Ire) (Mastercraftsman {Ire}) and the Listed Prix Lyphard hero Yoozuna (Ire) (Kizuna {Jpn}). Second dam is the stakes winner and GIII Monrovia Handicap second Polygreen (Fr) (Green Tune), herself the dam of Group 1 winner Polydream (Ire) (Oasis Dream {GB}).

FULL-SISTER TO G1 AUSTRALIAN CUP HERO FIFTY STARS SET FOR HQ INTRODUCTION

16.15 Newmarket, Mdn, £20,000, 2yo, f, 7fT

The Thoroughbred Racing Corporation's famed green-and-white silks will be carried by DIGUB (IRE) (Sea The Stars {Ire}), who is a 360,000gns Tattersalls October Book 1 full-sister to G1 Australian Cup hero Fifty Stars (Ire). The William Haggas-trained debutante encounters nine rivals headed by Godolphin's once-raced Wild Angel (GB) (Too Darn Hot {GB}), who is a three-parts sister to connections' multiple Group 1-winning sire Space Blues (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}).

HOW THEY FARED

16.10 Newmarket, Mdn, £20,000, 2yo, c/g, 7fT

Godolphin's Secret Theory (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}), a half-brother to elite-level winners Mysterious Night (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}) and Althiqa (GB) (Dark Angel {Ire}), was scratched from this intended debut.

17.45 Dundalk, Mdn, €18,000, 2yo, f, 7f (AWT)

Aidan O'Brien trainee Dramatic (Medaglia d'Oro), a $1.5-million Keeneland November sibling of dual Grade I-winning sire Honor Code (A.P. Indy), was scratched from this intended debut.

Adding to her previous listed success for the Johnstons in Cologne's Koln-Winterkonigin Trial as a 2-year-old, Sirona has undergone a transformation switched to David Menuisier this season with placings in Lingfield's G3 Chartwell Fillies' Stakes, Haydock's G3 John Of Gaunt Stakes and ParisLongchamp's Listed Prix de la Cochere suggesting another black-type win was on the cards.

Anchored in last early by Ryan Moore, she was able to claw back the leader Spiritual 150 yards from the line and stuck to her task as Fair Point emerged to threaten late.

"The ground was a bit of an unknown, to be honest. I didn't train the filly until this year and she had been handling fast ground well," her trainer said. "She really deserves this, she's been knocking on the door all year, so it was important to win this one. I have no plan, but she stays in training next year."

Sirona is the second foal out of the G3 Prix de Flore-winning dam, who was also a triple listed scorer in her native Germany. From the family of the G2 German 1000 Guineas runner-up S'll Vous Plait (Ger) (Dashing Blade {GB}), she has an unraced 3-year-old full-brother to the winner named Si Solus (Ire) and the yearling filly Si Grass (Ire) (Churchill {Ire}) who was a €43,000 purchase by Johnston Racing at last month's BBAG September.

Bellezza, a Leopardstown maiden winner in her only juvenile outing last year, hit the board in three stakes contests earlier in this campaign and lined up for this synthetic bow returning off a last-of-nine effort, beaten just over seven lengths, in the recent G2 Blandford Stakes at the Curragh. Settled off a modest tempo in seventh until taking closer order on the home turn, she made continued headway under pressure in the straight to challenge approaching the furlong marker and kept on in game fashion to deny stablemate Madam Celeste by a neck for a career high.

"She's a filly that we have always thought a lot of and we're delighted," said Shane Lyons. "She's had a few hard-luck stories in races, but she's put it together there and showed what we thought we had. She's a fine big filly that will only thrive with another year under her belt as well. We told Chris [Hayes] to throw the reins at her and ride her as you find her. He was able to switch her off, he thought they weren't going a gallop and he kicked on up the straight. She kind of pricked her ears a little bit so there is plenty left. It's disappointing that Maurice [Regan] had to finish second, but Madam Celeste's ran an absolute blinder as well. They are two fillies that we're very much looking forward to, over that trip and further, next year."

Bellezza is the fifth of seven foals and one of four winners from as many runners out of Listed Salsabil Stakes third Terrific (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), herself a full-sister to G1 Queen Elizabeth II Challenge Cup heroine Together (Ire) and kin to G1 Criterion International victor Jan Vermeer (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}). Together, in turn, produced G2 Kilboy Estate Stakes and GIII Long Island Handicap placegetter Earring (Dansili {GB}) and Listed Star Appeal Stakes runner-up Battle Of Jericho (War Front). She is also the second dam of last year's G3 Hankyu Hai victor Aguri (Jpn) (Caravaggio). The April-foaled bay is a half to G3 Marble Hill Stakes second Tough Talk (Ire) (Kingman {GB}), the unraced 2-year-old filly Favolosa (Ire) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) and a weanling filly by Palace Pier (GB).

HOLLYS GRACES (IRE) (f, 2, Australia {GB}--Potion {GB}, by Pivotal {GB}), who ran fourth in an Aug. 28 Leopardstown barrier trial, broke among the backmarkers and moved forward to track the leaders in sixth after the initial exchanges of this debut proper. Making headway under pressure in the home straight, the 9-2 chance launched her challenge passing the furlong pole and was ridden out in the latter stages to assert by 1 1/2 lengths from Head To Head (Ire) (Wootton Bassett {GB}). "I rode her in the barrier and really liked her that day," said winning rider Billy Lee.

He added, “She was a bit slow into her stride today, I had to get after her and let her know she was in a race. When she got up and travelling she travelled beautifully in my hands. She has a lovely, long-flowing stride and when she hit the straight and really opened up I knew I was always going to win from a furlong-and-a-half down. It was just a matter of bidding my time to get there. She hit the line well and is just a lovely filly to go forward with.” Hollys Graces is the latest of eight foals and seventh scorer from as many runners produced by a dual-winning granddaughter of G1 Phoenix Stakes runner-up and G3 Ballyogan Stakes-winning matriarch Monroe (Sir Ivor). Monroe is the dam of four black-type winners, headed by dual Group 1-winning sire Xaar (GB) (Zafonic), and her descendants include top-level winners Cityscape (GB) (Selkirk), Siskin (First Defence), Prosperous Voyage (Ire) (Zoffany {Ire}), Idiomatic (Curlin), Senure (Nureyev), Close Hatches (First Defence) and Circle Of Fire (GB) (Almanzor {Fr}). MAMA COCHA AIMING TO DEFEND

SPRINTERS STAKES TITLE by Heather Anderson

Japanese Group 1 racing resumes on Sunday with the 1200-metre Sprinters Stakes, and last year's winner, Mama Cocha (Jpn) (Kurofuno), is ready to defend her title.

Receiving four pounds versus the majority of the field, the mare finished her season with a fifth to Win Marvel (Jpn) () in the G2 Hanshin Cup upped to 1400 metres in December. Unable to land a telling blow when eighth to Mad Cool (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}) in the 1200-metre G1 Takamatsunomiya Kinen in soft going at Chukyo in her 5-year-old bow, Mama Cocha was an encouraging second in the G2 Centaur Stakes there behind Toshin Macau (Jpn) (Big Arthur {Jpn}) on Sept. 8.

Assistant trainer Yuki Iwasaki said of the stall six-drawn mare, “She fought out the finish well in her last race, and she hasn't shown any tiredness since that run. With little change in her condition, we've been able to work her sufficiently, and with just a short time between races, some fast work shortly before this next race should be enough. It's been very hot recently, but she seems to be fine with the heat. Having won the race last year, she's suited to the Nakayama course.”

Attempting to become the sixth horse to complete the Takamatsunomiya Kinen/Sprinters Stakes double in the same year, Mad Cool was second here to Mama Cocha last term, and was unplaced when tried over a firm Sha Tin strip in the G1 Hong Kong Sprint in December. After defeating several of these, including Takamatsunomiya Kinen runner-up Namura Clair (Jpn) (Mikki Isle {Jpn}) in March, the 5-year-old entire was 11th in the G1 Chairman's Sprint Prize back in Hong Kong when last seen at the end of April. He has drawn one to Mama Cocha's outside in seven.

Trainer Manabu Ikezoe said, “The jockey [Ryusei Sakai] says the horse is moving well as usual and can still improve more.”

Mama Cocha | Japan Racing Association

He added, “I also think the horse is in good condition and that things are going well with him. His reactions are good. He’s a big horse, so his footwork isn’t always so smooth. We’ve tried to vary things with his training a bit, so he’s been in the pool to strengthen his heart and lungs.”

Despite a career littered with strong performances--14 of 18 in the money--Namura Clair has yet to find the winner’s circle at the highest level. The four-time group winner is versatile enough to run third in the G1 Oka Sho (Japanese 1000 Guineas) over a mile at three, and she has hit the Group 1 crossbars thrice more throughout her career--second in the 2023 Takamatsunomiya Kinen, third behind Mama Cocha and Mad Cool in last year’s Sprinters Stakes, and second to the latter in the 2024 Takamatsunomiya Kinen. She enters this contest as a very live chance with a fifth in the G3 Keeneland Cup at Sapporo in the wake of Sunday’s antepost favourite Satono Reve (Jpn) (Lord Kanaloa {Jpn}) on Aug. 25. Like Mama Cocha, she bears only 123 pounds, the same weight as Mozu Meimei (Jpn) (Real Impact {Jpn}), with only 3-year-old filly Puro Magic (Jpn) (Asia Express {Jpn}) less burdened at 119 pounds.

“She’s been working well on the uphill since her last race, and her condition’s good,” said trainer Kodai Hasegawa. “She’s been running with a lot of power despite the hot weather, and jockey Takeshi Yokoyama has made sure the horse has trained well. His record with rides at Nakayama is also good.”

SOUTHPORT TYCOON THRILLS IN MANIKATO STAKES

by Josh Spasaro

Southport Tycoon (Aus) (Written Tycoon {Aus}) produced an astonishing and dramatic surge in the final 100 metres to clinch the G1 Manikato Stakes by a mere bob of a head, capping off an unforgettable night for the Ciaron Maher stable.

Star jockey Mark Zahra somehow made up 2.5l inside the final 75 metres of the Group 1 sprint over 1,200 metres to run down stablemate Growing Empire (Aus) (Zoustar {Aus}). It rounded out a sensational evening for the top Victorian stable, with Maher’s brilliant mare Pride Of Jenni (Aus) (Pride Of Dubai {Aus}) saluting by a comprehensive 1.5l in the G2 Feehan Stakes.

Bennett Racing purchased Southport Tycoon for A$300,000 from Daandine Stud at the 2022 Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale, and a jubilant Maher spoke about the shrewd purchase after the race. “A month between runs, trial, he put the writing on the board in the trial--his sectionals were phenomenal late,” said Maher. “I thought Mark [Zahra] was the perfect jockey for him because you had to have that nice waiting ride.”

Written Tycoon’s four-year-old son, still an entire, showcased brilliance on Friday night, with Zahra once again demonstrating his outstanding horsemanship. “I just rode him for luck and he gave such a good chase,” said Zahra. “Me and Ciaron were quietly confident--he was going really well and I didn’t even have a chance to pull the whip I was coming through that quick. I just got the shine at the right time.”

Widden Stud announced in late August that they had bought into Southport Tycoon.

Pedigree Notes

Southport Tycoon is one of two winners from as many runners out of the More Than Ready mare Ready To Rule, a full-sister to the G1 Hollywood Starlet Stakes runner-up Grace And Power, who is in turn the dam of the G1 Darley Classic winner Delectation (Aus) (Shamardal). Grace And Power’s other offspring include the unraced Gracie’s Lass (Aus) (Redoute’s Choice {Aus}), the dam of the G1 Blue Diamond Stakes and G1 Canterbury Stakes winner Artorius (Aus) (Flying Artie {Aus}).

BSA CAPE YEARLING SALE TO BE HELD AT NEW VENUE

The 2025 Bloodstock South Africa Cape Yearling Sale will be held at the South African Riding for the Disabled Association

(SARDA) Centre on Feb. 23, the sales company announced on Friday.

Previously, the sale was held at Hollywoodbets Kenilworth Racecourse. This venue reflects the new partnership between BSA, SARDA and the Constantia Valley Riding Club. The latter is based at the SARDA Centre in Brommersvlei Road, Constantia Heights, approximately six kilometres from the old site.

“Bloodstock South Africa are excited to be partnering with such a giving organisation and will be supporting SARDA where possible in upgrading their facilities and expanding their programmes,” said Michael Holmes, chief executive officer of BSA. “All the existing sale related facilities will be easily accommodated at the SARDA Centre and Bloodstock South Africa look forward to hosting vendors and buyers at their Cape Yearling Sale on the 23 of February 2025.”

BREEDERS' CUP CONNECTIONS: "ZURDO" ESTRADA HAPPIEST WITH HIS HORSES

by Katie Petrunyak

"Zurdo" Estrada earned his nickname back when he was a kid in Mexico running up and down the soccer field. He would always kick the ball with his left foot so everyone called him Zurdo, the Spanish term for left-handed. The nickname stuck and even still today, it's what everyone knows him as on the Santa Anita backside.

Estrada began working as a hot walker at Bay Meadows Racetrack in San Mateo, California in 1989. Cont. Pg. 3

INAUGURAL CALIFORNIA CROWN HIGHLIGHTS MASSIVE WEEKEND OF RACING

by Steve Sherack

With just a neck separating National Treasure (Quality Road) and Senor Buscador (Mineshaft) in a thrilling renewal of the G1 Pegasus World Cup Invitational Stakes back in January, the two will meet for the third time this season in Saturday's inaugural G1 California Crown Stakes at Santa Anita.

Senor Buscador turned the tables on National Treasure and delivered a come-from-behind head victory in the $20-million G1 Saudi Cup Feb. 24, then was a well-beaten third in the $12-million G1 Dubai World Cup. Given plenty of time to bounce back following his trip to the desert, the popular 6-year-old resurfaced with a useful fourth in the seven-furlong GII Pat O'Brien Stakes at Del Mar Aug. 24. In four starts this year, Senor Buscador has bankrolled more than $11.7 million.

"It's been fun," trainer Todd Fincher said of Senor Buscador's 2024 campaign. "I just don't think the race is going to set up. I know he'll run a good race, but I'm probably going to be on the losing end. Still, this should set him up great for the Breeders' Cup, which will likely be loaded with a lot more speed."

CONNECTIONS

He instantly fell in love with the sport and after a few short months, made his way up to becoming a groom. Over the years since, he has taken on a handful of jobs outside of the industry only to catch a glimpse of a horse race on television and quickly return to racing.

"I love the horses," Estrada said with a smile and a shrug. "When I stay with the horses, I feel relaxed. Now it has been 30 years. All my life, I've loved horses."

Estrada has worked for trainers like Mark Glatt, James Cassidy and Bobby Frankel. During his time with Frankel, he became a Breeders' Cup-winning groom when Intercontinental (GB) (Danehill) claimed the 2005 GI Breeders' Cup Filly and Mare Turf.

Celebrating a win in the GIII Rancho Bernardo Handicap | Benoit

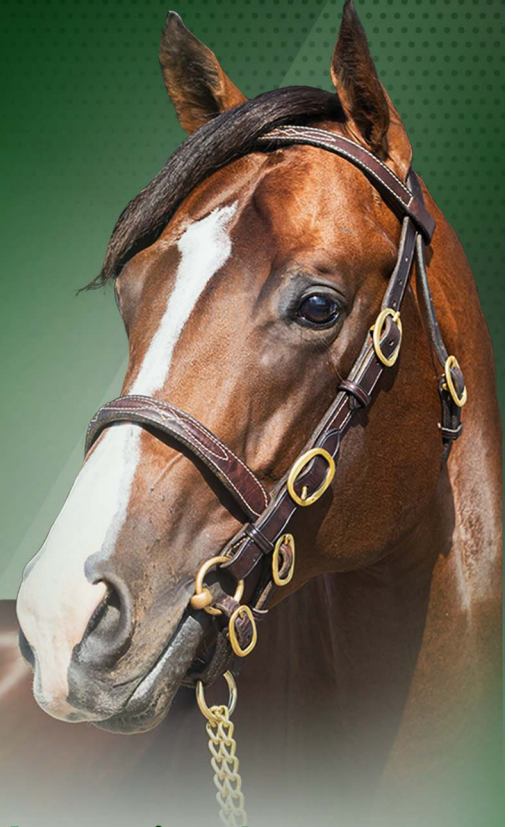

About 10 years ago, Estrada was forced to step away from the track when he had to have back surgery. He went back to his home in Mexico, but was miserable being away from the animals he loved.

"When I was there, there was no work for me because I needed to keep my back relaxed and stay strong so I could come back," Estrada recalled. "The doctor told me I needed a couple of years to relax."

After three years, Estrada returned to California and took a job as a hot walker for Doug O'Neill. Cont.

The first horse assigned to him was Nyquist (Uncle Mo), a 3-year-old colt who had won the 2015 GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile the year prior. One of Estrada's fondest memories came just after his return to racing when Nyquist won the GI Kentucky Derby.

"When you have a horse in a big race like that, you feel your blood rushing and your heart beating," said Estrada. "It's exciting."

Also during his time with O'Neill, Estrada was the groom of 2017 GII Blue Grass Stakes winner Irap (Tiznow).

Last year, Estrada began working for trainer Michael McCarthy. He quickly developed a soft spot for one of his first charges, a big, grey filly named Sweet Azteca (Sharp Azteca).

Estrada said that for the most part, the filly's personality matches her name, but she still has a bit of a sassy side.

"If you are going to work with her all day, you need a little piece of carrot to give her and she's happy," Estrada shared with a smile. "If you don't give her anything, she'll try to push you away. But I still love her."

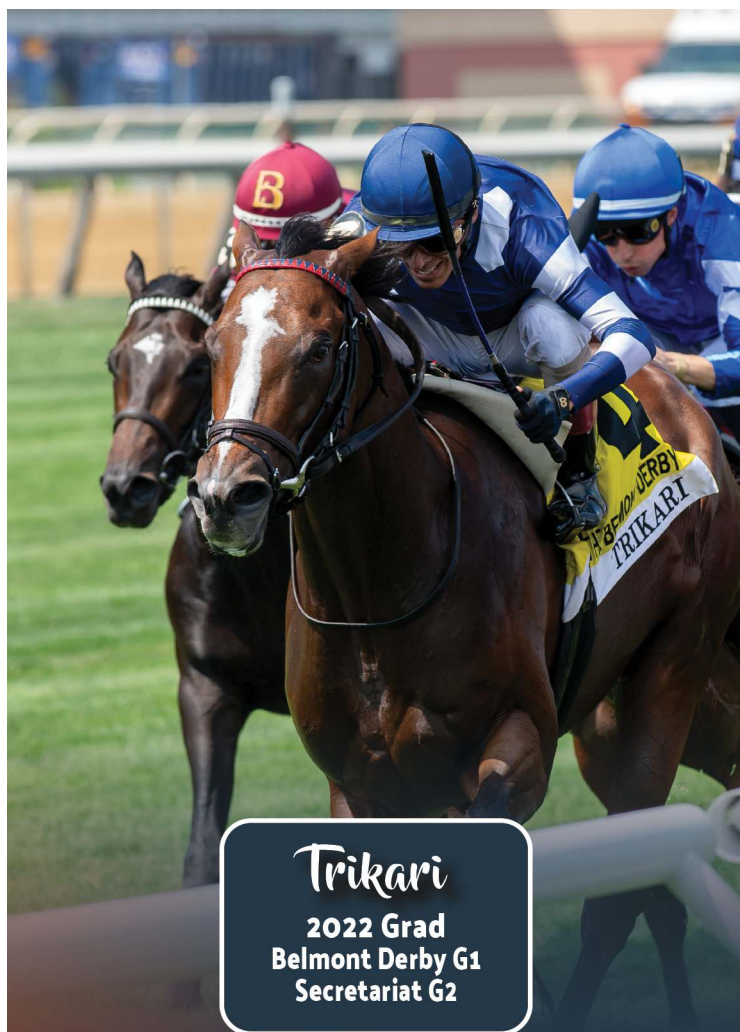

Zurdo Estrada spends time with Sweet Azteca after morning training | Katie Petrunyak

Sweet Azteca broke her maiden on debut as a 3-year-old last year. This year, after a third-place placing in the GIII Las Flores S., the homebred for Pamela Ziebarth has dominated throughout California. Her win in the GI Beholder Mile Stakes over MGISW Adare Manor (Uncle Mo) has been Estrada's favorite victory to date, but she has also reeled off wins in the GII Great Lady M Stakes, where she set a new track record, and in her most recent start, the GIII Rancho Bernardo Handicap.

Estrada said that with every win, the speedy filly's competitiveness seems to grow.

"In the morning she always goes in the first set," he explained. "She used to go in the second or third set but would start getting nervous. If she goes early, she is relaxed for the day." Cont.

Sweet Azteca is now pointing toward the GIII Chillingworth Stakes on Oct. 5. going 6 1/2 furlongs. Trainer Michael McCarthy has an eye toward the GI Breeders' Cup Filly and Mare Sprint for his star trainee.

“When he told me she was going to the Breeders' Cup, I started working a little bit more with her, putting more attention into every piece of her,” said Estrada proudly.

Estrada lives above the stable at Santa Anita and quite literally lives and breathes racing. Throughout his life, the horseman has learned that he is most content when he is around horses, so he plans to continue his role as a groom for as long as he can. He said the best part of his day is when he spends time with each of his horses after training has wrapped up for the morning. All is quiet and he can enjoy an afternoon spent in good company.

“I try to finish a little late because I don't want to stay in my room or go outside,” he said. “I want to stay with the horses. I take like 25 or 30 minutes with each horse inside the stall, working and massaging and playing with them. I might work all day, but it's much better for me.”

After passing on the Dubai World Cup, National Treasure delivered a blowout, front-running win in the stallion-making GI Hill 'n' Dale Metropolitan Handicap at Saratoga June 8. He failed to fire as the 4-5 favorite over the off going--he's been off the board in all three of his attempts on wet tracks--in the GI Whitney Stakes at the Spa last time Aug. 3.

In addition to the aforementioned 8-5 morning-line favorite, Hall of Fame trainer Bob Baffert will also saddle second-choice 'TDN Rising Star' Muth (Good Magic), a perfect three for three this season, led by a win in the GI Arkansas Derby, and the rail-drawn GI Santa Anita Handicap winner 'TDN Rising Star' Newgate (Into Mischief), off since a ninth-place finish in the Dubai World Cup.

Any pre-race instructions for jockeys Flavien Prat (National Treasure), John Velazquez (Newgate) and Juan Hernandez (Muth)?

“They all know these horses already,” Baffert said. “Those guys are professionals. I don't want to get in their way. I think they'll just play the break and go from there.”

With the connections of Indispensable (Constitution) opting instead for Sunday's GIII Oklahoma Derby at Remington, a scratched-down field of six will line up for the $1-million 'Win and You're In' for the GI Breeders' Cup Classic. The 1 1/8-mile California Crown replaced the Awesome Again Stakes on the Santa Anita stakes calendar.

National Treasure holds off Senior Buscador in the Pegasus World Cup | Coglianes

The California Crown is part of a blockbuster day of racing at the Great Race Place, featuring five stakes races, VIP area trackside performances by Gryffin, Lil Yachty, Shaboozey, Frank Walker and Zack Bia and high-end dining experiences featuring the world's leading chefs.

The 10-race program also includes the GII California Crown John Henry Turf Championship Stakes, the GII California Crown Eddie D Stakes and the GII City of Hope Mile Stakes, a 'Win and You're In' for the GI Breeders' Cup Mile.

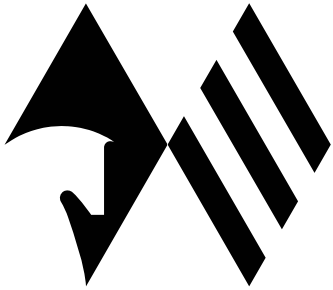

The California Crown, John Henry and Eddie D will all be aired nationally on CNBC and streamed on Peacock starting at 3 p.m. PT.

Zulu Kingdom won the GIII With Anticipation Stakes for Chad Brown in his U.S. debut Aug. 29 | Sarah Andrew

A Pair of Breeders' Cup Berths on the Line at the Big A

A quartet of graded events, including a pair of Breeders' Cup Challenge races, will be on tap Saturday at the Belmont at the Big A meeting.

The two-for-two Zulu Kingdom (Ire) (Ten Sovereigns {Ire}), a narrow winner while making his U.S. debut for Chad Brown in the GIII With Anticipation Stakes at Saratoga Aug. 29, will look to punch his ticket to the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf in the 'Win and You're In' GII Pilgrim Stakes.

Comedy Town (Speightstown), claimed by trainer and co-owner Saffie Joseph, Jr. for $25,000 earlier this season and currently riding a three-race winning streak at Gulfstream, is the 5-2 morning-line favorite for the GIII Vosburgh Stakes, a 'Win and You're In' for the GI Breeders' Cup Sprint.

The 7-year-old mare War Like Goddess (English Channel) will attempt to defeat males for the third straight year and become the first three-time winner of the GI Joe Hirsch Turf Classic. The 2022 and 2023 winner will meet GI Resorts World Casino Sword Dancer Stakes upsetter 'TDN Rising Star' Far Bridge (English Channel) and Sword Dancer third Silver Knott (GB) (Lope de Vega {Ire}).

They'll have to catch two-time GII Charles Town Classic Stakes winner Skippylongstocking (Exaggerator), who is the controlling speed in the GII Woodward Stakes. Only four remain following the defection of the 10-for-10 South American sensation Kay Army (Chi) (Katmai {Chi}).

Pair of Graded Beneath the Lights at Churchill Downs

Saudi Crown (Always Dreaming) will be heavily favored in Saturday evening's GIII Ack Ack Stakes at Churchill Downs, a 'Win and You're In' for the GI Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile. The speedy gray held on for third in the G1 Saudi Cup, but could do no better than 12th in the G2 Godolphin Mile. He fired fresh off the bench with a wire-to-wire success in the R.A. "Cowboy" Jones Stakes at Ellis Park last time Aug. 11.

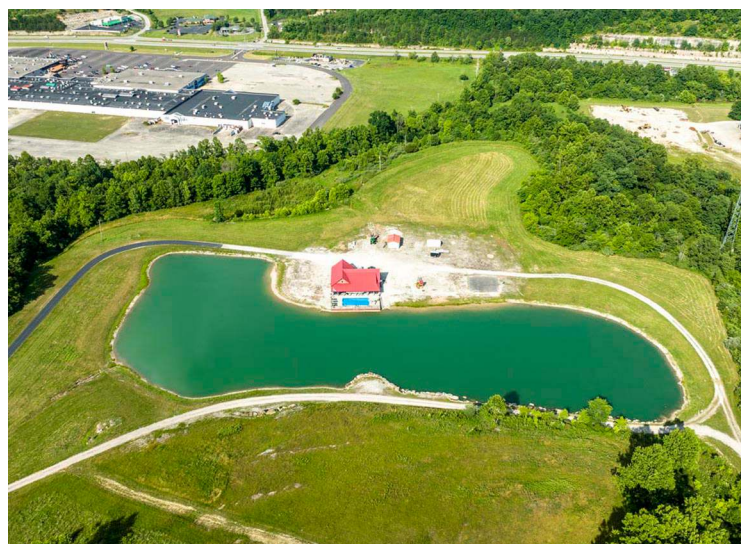

The GII Lukas Classic, scheduled to jump at 10:40 p.m., features leading contenders Hit Show (Candy Ride {Arg}), 'TDN Rising Star' Disarm (Gun Runner) and Rattle N Roll (Connect).

Full results for both will appear in Monday's TDN.

CONSTRUCTION BEGINS ON KENTUCKY'S NEWEST RACETRACK AT SANDY RIDGE

Breaking ground at Sandy Ridge | courtesy of Sandy Ridge

Slated to be Kentucky's only Quarter Horse venue, Revolutionary Racing is pouring $10 million into Sandy Ridge Racetrack which is currently under construction in Ashland, the investor said via a Friday press release.

Built on 182 acres behind Sandy's Racing & Gaming--a $75 million entertainment facility that Revolutionary opened 11 months ago--the developer plans to request 2026 race dates from the Kentucky Horse Racing and Gaming Corporation.

"We are excited to begin this phase of our project, which will be unlike anything else in the state," said Larry Lucas, chairman of Revolutionary Racing. Cont.

“We envision this to be much more than just a racetrack--we expect it to become an entertainment destination for families, whether it's for racing, concerts, farmer's markets or youth sports. Thanks to our partnerships with state and local officials, it will be another shot in the arm for continued economic development in Eastern Kentucky.”

Mt. Sterling-based Walker Construction and Materials is leading track construction. The company has spent the last three years working near Sandy Ridge, as they were awarded a $45.7 million contract to rebuild four miles of U.S. 60.

Much like that project, there is undeveloped land, which Revolutionary says has taken months of infrastructure planning to address. In addition, the gaming company recently agreed to sell 50 acres to Boyd County for future development.

“The Kentucky Quarter Horse Racing Association is thrilled to see this announcement by Revolutionary Racing that a first class oval track is being built in Ashland,” said Christina Sowders, the association's president. “We thank Revolutionary Racing for their hard work and perseverance to get here. This has been a long time coming for Quarter Horse racing in Kentucky.”

Two years ago, Revolutionary Racing received approval from the Kentucky Horse Racing Commission for a license to operate a Quarter Horse track and also the opportunity to bring in historical horse racing (HHR) to Sandy's Racing & Gaming.

REAL RIDER CUP AT FAIR HILL NETS $80,000 FOR TB AFTERCARE, PLANS TO EXPAND TO CA

The Fair Hill leg of the Real Rider Cup welcomed 36 horse and rider combinations along with hundreds of spectators to Fair Hill Thoroughbred Horse Show Sept. 13th. The charity show jumping competition brought together personalities from across the breeding and racing industry to increase awareness and raise funds for Thoroughbred aftercare, with each rider pledging to raise at least $1,000.

Riders, mounted on off-track Thoroughbreds and wearing the silks of their employers, colleagues, and clients, contended a course of fences with the fastest clear rounds taking home top honors.

Team SMACC Down produced both the overall champion and highest earning riders: Gabrelle Nguyen, last year's second-placed rider, took top honors as individual champion aboard Pet Me Pet Me, and last year's highest earner Sandi Norris smashed her previous total, personally raising $8,439. Team Pastured Place won the team competition.

The evening concluded with non-competitive rounds showcasing three horses from Team Thoroughbred Retirement Foundation who collectively raised over $13,000 for the RRC's beneficiaries.

Founded by Anita Motion in 2017, the original Real Rider Cup was hosted at the Unionville CCI 4* event with the Retired Racehorse Project as the sole beneficiary. It has since moved to Fair Hill, adding the Fair Hill Thoroughbred Show as beneficiary, as well as added a Kentucky leg of competition held at New Vocations' Lexington facility. Since its beginning, the event has raised over $600,000 for Thoroughbred aftercare and Motion has a vision to expand the event model to benefit more aftercare entities. To that end, the California Retirement Management Account (CARMA) will join the list of RRC beneficiaries, with a Los Angeles leg of the competition in the works for spring 2025.

“We are thrilled with the opportunity to bring the Real Rider Cup to the West Coast and to add CARMA to our group of beneficiaries,” said Motion. “Not only does it raise much-needed funds for retraining and aftercare, but it demonstrates that we can all work together towards a unanimous goal.”

“We are excited to welcome Real Rider Cup to California. This event has become a staple in the mid-west and east coast, and I know our equestrian community has been waiting for the opportunity to enjoy the event in their own backyard,” said Lucinda Lovitt, Executive Director of CARMA. “By bringing regional events like RRC to California, we continue to elevate Thoroughbred aftercare and the good work so many organizations do for the horses.”

APPRENTICE MICAH HUSBANDS NOTCHES FIRST U.S. WIN AT GULFSTREAM

Apprentice jockey Micah Husbands guided The Dove Rules (Bucchero) to victory in Friday's Race 8 feature at Gulfstream Park to earn his first career win in the U.S.

A winner of 11 races in Canada, the 21-year-old native of Barbados is the nephew of eight-time Sovereign Award-winning jockey Patrick Husbands.

"It's a thrill, a dream come true. I grew up watching races here, watching Joel Rosario, Mike Smith, Johnny Velazquez," said Husbands, who closed from well off the pace to prevail over favored American of Course aboard the Saffie Joseph Jr.-trained The Dove Rules.

Joseph, also from Barbados, provided Husbands with his first U.S. mount, Clay Soldier (Bucchero), who finished third in the previous race.

The seven-pound apprentice, whose late father Fazal Razack rode in Trinidad, ventured to Canada when he was 15 and was eventually adopted by his uncle Patrick to hasten the process of becoming a Canadian citizen. He rode in only 22 races between July 3, 2022 and July 28, 2022, winning aboard his first and final mounts, before his student visa expired and he was not allowed on the grounds of Woodbine until the citizenship process was completed.

Husbands, who galloped horses on trainer Kevin Attard's farm during that period, returned to race-riding at Woodbine this August following a two-year hiatus. He rode seven winners from 47 mounts between Woodbine and Fort Erie.

WELL-CONNECTED NOT THIS TIME COLT CLOCKS IN AT CHURCHILL DOWNS

4th-CD, $120K, Msw, 2yo, 6f, 7:26 p.m. ET.

Well-bred MISCHIEVOUS TIME (Not This Time) makes his first start for trainer Steve Asmussen. The Whisper Hill homebred is from unraced dam Daisy Mason (Orientate), who Mandy Pope and Gainesway acquired for $475,000 during the Keeneland November Sale while Mischievous Time was in-utero. This dam is herself out of Broodmare of the Year Leslie's Lady (Tricky Creek) who prolifically produced all-conquering sire Into Mischief (Harlan's Holiday), current sire Mendelssohn (Scat Daddy) and the multiple Eclipse winning Beholder (Henny Hughes).

Also set for his unveiling is Vermelho (Constitution), who was bred by Bobby Flay and taken home for $450,000 at Keeneland September by Belladonna Racing. Sent to Cherie DeVaux, the colt is a half-brother to MGSW Lone Rock (Majestic Warrior) and GSW Gerrymander (Into Mischief), while his extended female family includes Hard Not to Like (Hard Spun).

Trained by Bill Mott, Juddmonte homebred Atlal (Quality Road) is the first registered foal for his unraced dam Atheer (Maibu Moon). She is part of the line from champion older mare Close Hatches (First Defence). TJCS PPS

Claimed for $45,000 from owner/trainer William Morey out of a victory against state-bred allowance/optional claiming company at Saratoga July 21, Hush of a Storm paid that bill and then some when arriving late to take Friday's Ashley T. Cole Stakes at Aqueduct.

Void of early speed and allowed to drift back to sit last but one, the 13-4 chance tugged away against some light restraint from Flavien Prat behind a moderate tempo down the backstretch. Saving all the ground into and around the turn, he was steered out widest of all into the lane, closed good ground and was along in the final strides, all despite switching his leads about eight times in the final two furlongs.

Hush of the Storm's win upstate was his seventh for Morey and in his first run for this barn, the veteran was a good third in defense of his title in the Avery Whisman Memorial Stakes over the Presque Isle Tapeta Aug. 12. The form of that race was flattered when the victorious Forever Souper (American Pharoah) returned to win the Presque Isle Mile. Hush of a Storm is six-for-15 overall on synthetic tracks.

"We were looking for a good one to claim," said winning owner Sandy Goldfarb. "I thought he could run here or take him to Turfway if we had to. I thought he was worth the money at that level. The day we claimed him, he won like, 'wow.'" Cont.

Hush of a Storm | Susie Raisher

"Since we've had him, they've done nothing but rave about him."

Hush of a Storm is out of a winning full-sister to Brigand, a $925,000 OBS April purchase in 2009 who became a two-time stakes winner and was second in the 2012 GII Jerome Stakes. Hush Now is also the dam of the 2-year-old filly Hush Munnings (Munnings), a weanling filly by Maclean's Music and was most recently bred to Arabian Lion. Click for the Equibase.com chart and VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

BANGO (h, 7, Congrats--Josaka, by Smart Strike) had not visited the winner's circle at his home track since the Louisville Thoroughbred Society Stakes over a year ago. On the hunt for his 12th victory which would give him the all-time Churchill record over Ready's Rocket (More Than Ready), the 7-year-old was last seen finishing off the board over this surface in the Kelly's Landing Stakes June 29.

Facing three others and as the 9-5 second choice, the venerable homebred chased his three rivals initially up the backstretch. Locked in along the rail around the far turn, Bango splashed along looking for a way through. The Greg Foley trainee split horses at the top of the lane, dove to the inside once again and rolled home to capture the Twin Spires mark by 2 1/4 lengths over favorite Angkor (Anchor Down).

Bango sets the record at Churchill | Coady Media

"It's a really special day for all of us," Foley said. "I can't congratulate owners Fred and Debbie Schwartz enough for accomplishing this feat with Bango. He's got the all-time winningest record here at Churchill Downs and that's such a special meaning. He loves it here, as we all know. He really wasn't himself this spring but the past three or four weeks he's been phenomenal. He's back."

The winner is a half-brother to Eton Ridge (Stephen Got Even), SW-PR, $274,962. Josaka is responsible for a 2-year-old colt by Flatter, a weanling filly by Jack Christopher who was foaled Apr. 10 and she visited Arabian Lion for next season. Bango hails from an extended female family which includes GII Louisiana Derby hero Revolutionary (War Pass). MISS HARRIETT (f, 3, Blofeld--Tejano Sea, by Sea of Secrets) has spent all but two races in her career at the stakes level, and the 9-5 shot picked up her second victory in a row here after last being seen July 21 winning the local restricted Miss Disco Stakes. Quick to the lead here, she set a pressured pace but ultimately drew away from all comers in the lane to win by 3 3/4 lengths over Bella Bettina (Midshipman). The grey is a half-sister to a fleet of black-type runners, including the likes of Hemp (Super Ninety Nine), GSP, $166,457; In Arrears (Scipion), SP, $287,735; and Keep Momma Happy (Scipion), SW, $129,100. Cont.

QUEEN OLLY (IRE) (f, 4, No Nay Never--Surprisingly {Ire}, by Galileo {Ire}), Group-placed in England as a juvenile and finding the winner's circle last out July 7 at Monmouth Park after coming a neck shy two back May 18 at that venue, claimed her second victory here since joining the Jorge Delgado barn and third overall. Sent away a 5-1 chance, she was in no hurry near the rear of the field in this off-turf contest as :20.94 and :44.86 splits flashed up. Steadied at the five-sixteenths and forced off the inside to make a five wide move entering the lane, she had Talkin Topsy (Greenpointcrusader) in her sights as the distance between them closed, eventually nailing that one late to win by 1 1/2 lengths. The victress is a half-sister to G2 Duchess of Cambridge heroine Persian Dreamer (Calyx {GB}), $114,221 as well as a pair of American-bred siblings--a 2022 half-brother by Into Mischief who died in 2023 and a yearling half-brother by American Pharoah who was exported to Ireland last year. EXTRADITION (c, 2, Gun Runner--If Not For Her {SP, $123,590}, by Not For Love) has steadily improving since making his debut July 5 at Ellis Park, running seventh over a sloppy track in a maiden dash. He stretched out to a mile last out Aug. 3 at that venue over a fast track, and ran second to long-gone winner Maximum Promise (Maximum Security).

Back here in the driving rain, the 17-1 longshot pulled the shocker after dueling with the early leaders into deep stretch and putting away from Shogun (Blame) to win by 1 1/2 lengths late. 'Insights' runners Burning Glory (Into Mischief) and Buzz Rocket (Curlin) ran fifth and fourth, respectively. The winner is the most recent to the races for If Not For Her, who has produced four offspring by Gun Runner. Including Extradition, she also has a winning 4-year-old filly Riley Jean as well as a yearling and 2024 colt by the stallion. She went to Gunite for 2025. As a scramble ensured up front, the juvenile launched her bid to the extreme outside around the far turn and shifted into high gear down the lane. The filly passed the favorite Going Steady (Constitution) at the eighth pole, and she donned cap and gown by 3 1/2 lengths. The winner is her dam's last registered foal. UNO LE (f, 3, Klimt--My Blue Sky {SP}, by Sky Mesa), not seen at the races since she ran third at first asking under the Twin Spires in November, made the barn switch last year from Climaco Galindo-Torres to Roddina Barrett. The filly began to regularly drill at Ellis Park in August. Set to restart her career as the 5-2 second choice here, the 3-year-old dueled with Flat Stormin (Flatter) early, but soon backed off to run second up the backstretch. The chestnut went on the attack around the far turn and took over the top spot fully in control for the stretch drive. Looking for the wire, Uno Le got her picture taken by 1 1/4 lengths over High Shot (Hightail), while 87 cents on the dollar favorite Sweet Trouble finished last. The winner's dam produced filly Beths Vengeance (Vino Rosso) who is currently an unraced 2-year-old, and she was sent to Creative Cause for 2025. MANSETTI (c, 2, Collected--Gidget Girl, by Sky Mesa) was sent away here at 9-2 and immediately locked horns with Temple Hall (Temple City) in the opening stages. Dueling through :22.86 and :45.91 fractions, he took command no long after as that rival threw out the white flag. Riding a 5 1/2-length margin into the stretch, Souper Tuscan (Vino Rosso) tried valiantly to close the gap, but ultimately came 1 1/4 lengths short. A half-brother to Straight Up G (Straight Fire), MSW, $209,660, Mansetti is the most recent of racing age for his dam, who has also produced a yearling colt by Maxfield since this winner.

PRAEATOR (c, 2, Into Mischief--Curlin's Approval {MGSW, $654,725}, by Curlin) turned in a third-place finish on debut in the mud at Saratoga Aug. 3. Rewarded at the windows with 6-5 favoritism here, the colt efficiently established his lead from the bell and carved out the fractions through the far turn. Cruising along under Flavien Prat, the 2-year-old began to tire with a sixteenth left, but had just enough left in the tank to win by a neck over Sovereignty (Into Mischief). Curlin's Approval foaled the winner a full-brother Feb. 22 and she was entered in Justify's book for next term. MY MAGIC WAND (f, 3, Gun Runner--Gun Club, by Trappe Shot) debuted a well-beaten fifth against New York-breds upstate Aug. 2. Backed as the 3-2 choice here, the favorite made the lead shortly after the bell as TDN Insight runner Fashion Victim (Tapit) loomed on the outside up the backstretch. Keen to make every pole a winning one, the 3-year-old spurted away with a furlong left and sealed the deal by 5 3/4 lengths over Fashion Victim. CALIFORNIA BURRITO (c, 2, Army Mule--Bluegrass Sunset, by Hard Spun), sent off at 4-1 here in this pricy Churchill maiden claimer, thrived in the driving rain of Hurricane Helene and bounded home in the slop after making a bold move to overtake Instant Replay (Maximum Security) turning into the lane. He drew away by six lengths over that rival in a stretched out field. This was his second start, but first under these conditions, after he debuted July 20 at Ellis Park sprinting on the fast main track at this distance, finishing a long way sixth. California Burrito is the most recent to the races for his dam, who has since produced two fillies--a yearling by By My Standards and a 2024 foal by Vino Rosso. PORTRAIT OF ADDIE (f, 2, Caravaggio--My Adeline, by Girolamo) was cold on the board at 17-1 for this unveiling, and broke slowly to find herself amongst some traffic issues in the early stages. Three off the fence in the rear of the field, she came under a ride passing the five-sixteenths marker and was swung eight wide into the stretch for a rally. Closing relentlessly as the gap to Acousticat (Maclean's Music) and Katerina Ristova (Catalina Cruiser) rapidly decreased in the lane, she overtook the former in the final sixteenth to win by a neck on the line. The victress is the third to the races, but first to get her picture taken, for My Adeline. ACQUITTED (f, 2, Into Mischief--Perfect Alibi {GISW, $600,988}, by Sky Mesa), only fifth when well-backed behind 'TDN Rising Star' Casalu (Caracaro) on Del Mar debut July 21, beat just one home in a similar spot Aug. 10 and was switching to the grass for this opening-day lidlifter at the Great Race Place.

Favored at 12-5, the homebred broke running, but was ultimately outsprinted and settled in a clear third. Gradually zeroing in on the top two rounding the turn, Acquitted was popped the question three wide approaching the stretch, confronted pacesetter What About Q (Tiz the Law) with less than an eighth of a mile to travel and inched clear to take it by three-parts of a length.

Acquitted is the first foal from her dam, winner of the 2019 GI Spinaway Stakes who was purchased by Spendthrift for $2 million with this filly in utero at the 2021 Fasig-Tipton November Sale. From the Pin Oak family of GI Test Stakes winner Missed the Storm (Storm Cat) and the accomplished MGSW turf horse Green Means Go (Green Dancer), Acquitted has a weanling full-brother and Perfect Alibi went back to Into Mischief this past breeding season. Lifetime Record: 3-1-0-0, $35,400. Click for the Equibase.com chart and VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

U.S.-BRED/SIRED RUNNERS IN JAPAN

In this continuing series, Alan Carasso takes a look ahead at US-bred and/or conceived runners entered for the upcoming weekend at the tracks on the Japan Racing Association circuit, with a focus on pedigree and/or performance in the sales ring. Here are the horses of interest for this Sunday running at Chukyo and Nakayama Racecourses:

Sunday, September 29, 2024

3rd-CKO, ¥13,720,000 ($96k), Newcomers, 2yo, 1400m

AMERICAN BEACH (c, 2, American Pharoah--American Song {Arg}, by Stripes Song {Arg}) is the second foal from his dam, winner in Argentina of the G1 GP Gilberto Lerena who is also the dam of the US-bred Otanisan (Justify), a maiden winner at third asking at Tokyo this past June. American Beach, who was purchased for the equivalent of $509,384 as a foal at the 2022 JRHA Select Sale, is out of a half-sister to Mystery Train (Arg) (Not For Sale {Arg}), a dual Group 1 winner at home and SW & GSP in this country; and to G1 Polla de Potrillos heroine American Tattoo (Arg) (Not For Sale {Arg}). B-Grand Stud

American Pharoah | Sarah Andrew

3rd-NKY, ¥13,720,000 ($96k), Newcomers, 2yo, 1200mT
ECORO WEISS (c, 2, Unified--Second Fiddle, by Paynter) fetched $65,000 after breezing a furlong in :10 1/5 at this year's OBS March Sale and is the second foal to race out of a half-sister to 2015 GII Woody Stephens Stakes winner and GI Hollywood Derby runner-up March (Blame) and to Grade III winner Eightyfiveinafifty (Forest Camp). The visiting Joao Moreira takes the call for owner Masatoshi Haramura and trainer Hideyuki Mori, who look set to be represented by fellow OBS March graduate Ecoro Sieg (Twirling Candy) in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf Sprint. B-Sequel Thoroughbreds LLC & Lakland Farm (NY)
