

‘DREAM OF DREAMS’ - BLUE POINT SISTER TO BAY CITY ROLLER STARS AT GOFFS ORBY

By Brian Sheerin

Joseph O'Brien was the big winner on day one of the Goffs Orby Sale with the trainer coming away with a number of six-figure yearlings, including the €850,000 Blue Point (Ire) half-sister to Classic contender Bay City Roller (Ire) (New Bay {GB}).

Billed as one of the highlights of the sale, the sister (lot 114) to the unbeaten G2 Champagne Stakes winner was bought by European clients Agrolexica International Trading BV, who confirmed that the filly would be on her way to Owning Hill.

The sale-topping figure almost brought Tom Whelan to his knees. Like Bay City Roller, the Blue Point filly was consigned by his Church View Stables on behalf of breeder John Connaughton, and there was little doubting what the result meant to those closest to the filly.

Whelan said, "Ah sure I'm over the moon. I'd say I was half relaxed up until €500,000. After that, sure I lost the power in my legs! My legs started to go from under me. As the fella says, I came from a terraced house and worked hard all my life. To produce a horse like that--it's the dream of dreams." Cont. p3

LOS ANGELES THE TIP OF THE BALLYDOYLE SPEAR IN THE ARC

The likely Ballydoyle runners for Arc weekend, led by G1 Irish Derby hero Los Angeles (Ire) (Camelot {GB}), were unveiled by Aidan O'Brien on Tuesday.

Fourth in the G1 Irish Champion Stakes, Los Angeles is one of two probable runners for O'Brien in the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe, where he will be joined by 2023 G1 St Leger hero and G2 Prix Foy third Continuous (Jpn) (Heart's Cry {Jpn}).

"We think the most likely two are Los Angeles and Continuous," he said. "We think the ground probably isn't going to be lively enough for the other two, Auguste Rodin and Luxembourg, and the filly [Opera Singer] might go to the l'Opera instead," said O'Brien.

"We don't think we've seen the best of Los Angeles yet. He's a very big horse, he's improving physically and there's no doubt a mile and a half is right up his alley." Cont. p9

He added, "It's not a one-man job and I have two fellas at home. It's a big team effort to get these horses to the sales. Like Bay City Roller, this filly was bred by Mr Connaughton, who sends them to me for prepping. Bay City Roller has made the pedigree and, for the filly to get here in the shape that she did, everything just came together perfectly."

He added, "This is one of my biggest days in the game. I sold a horse of my own once for €220,000 while, on the track, I'll never forget a horse called Sea The Lion finishing third in the Ebor. He was bred by Mr Connaughton and, after the horse broke down, we essentially nursed him back to life. The advice was to put him down but we got him back and he won close to €200,000 in prize-money. That was a great story to be associated with but I think this would have to rival it. We are living the dream."

So, too is O'Brien. Along with the day one top lot, O'Brien will train the €500,000 Sea The Stars (Ire) colt [lot 145] on behalf of an unnamed major owner-breeder while the trainer also signed for a Starspangledbanner (Aus) filly [95] for €225,000. In total, O'Brien signed for just shy of €1 million worth of yearlings in his own name alone.

Confirming that the Blue Point was on her way to O'Brien,

Ananias Antoniadis said, "She has been bought by a central European client and will be trained by Joseph O'Brien. She has a very good pedigree and has good conformation also."

Of the 246 lots offered on Tuesday, 210 were sold at a clearance rate of 85%. The turnover was up 1% to €25,028,500 while the average climbed 8% to €119,184 but the median fell by 2% to €80,000. Cont. p4

Juddmonte Lands Half-Brother To Saffron Beach

Juddmonte may have earned a reputation for being one of the world's best owner-breeders but the outfit's recruitment at public auction has led to big-race success on the track, most notably in the case of 2,000 Guineas winner Chaldean (GB).

The team added a Lope De Vega (Ire) half-brother to dual Group 1 winner Saffron Beach (Ire) (New Bay {GB}) (lot 219) to the squad for €750,000 with general manager Simon Mockridge explaining why the Ballylinch Stud-drafted colt was a good fit.

He said, "At the end of the day, he's a half-brother to a very good mare and Lope De Vega has had a tremendous season. All the right reasons; good individual, very nice horse, we need colts. He was an obvious one for us. You've got to pay for a nice horse."

Mockridge added, "What's important is that you've got to look for a horse with a stallion's pedigree and that's certainly what he's got. Lope De Vega has had a fantastic season and had two new Classic winners this year. He is without a doubt a horse we have to look to, as we saw with the Middle Park winner [Shadow Of Light (GB)] at the weekend. This horse looks as though he would fit into the programme quite well for us."

All told, Juddmonte spent €1.64 million on three colts after adding a Kingman (GB) [226] and a Frankel (GB) [243] to the team later in the session.

Father And Son Team In Clover With 550k Lope De Vega Filly

The big results for Lope De Vega just kept on coming and John and Peter Fagan of Deerpark Stud enjoyed a moment to remember when the father and son team sold their filly (lot 112) by the stallion to Godolphin for €550,000.

Out of the Group 2-placed Bletchley (GB), who Deerpark Stud sourced for 200,000gns through Suzanne Roberts at the Tattersalls December Mares Sale, the result on Tuesday proved to be well worth the wait. Cont. p5

Peter said, "We're absolutely delighted. She is a gorgeous filly and hasn't put a foot wrong since she has been here. All credit has to go to the team at home. From my father John, our manager Patrick Kirwin, Rachel Harvey and Suzanne Roberts, who bought the mare for us. Lope De Vega is a fantastic stallion and he has danced every dance this year.

"He's one of the best stallions in the world and is a fantastic broodmare sire on top of everything else. The mare cost us €200,000 and we had a few issues getting her in foal but this filly was worth waiting for."

Delight For Doherty As Night Of Thunder Colt Clears 500k

Caoimhe Doherty | Goffs

Forenaghts Stud manager Caoimhe Doherty could scarcely hide her emotions after the farm's Night Of Thunder (Ire) colt (lot 79) out of Group performer American Apples (Fr) (American Post (GB) sold to Billy Jackson-Stops and George Scott for €500,000.

Shrewdly bought at Arqana in 2021 for €130,000, American Apples has already repaid that outlay and there was no denying what the result meant to Doherty.

She said, "We work so hard and there's just so much pressure. When you come here with a really nice horse you hope you are going to get paid. Like, we are a really small team; we've only 15 mares and 10 yearlings this year. This is the highest-priced horse I've ever sold. Tony Smurfit gave me a massive job and I don't know why he gave it to me!"

Doherty added, "This is an amazing result and I just can't believe it. Tony and I loved the horse from day one. We love Night Of Thunder and are massively invested in him. This is the first foal out of the mare who we bought on one bid in France. She is the most beautiful mare and it's just so exciting." Cont. p6

Bay City Roller
Unbeaten 2 Year Old - OR III

It was at this sale last year where, alongside Jackson-Stops, Scott stuck his chest out on Bay City Roller. Victorious Racing has now become an increasingly important backer to Scott's Newmarket stable and the trainer shared why the Night Of Thunder colt topped his wishlist on Tuesday.

The trainer said, "He showed himself better and better over the last couple of days," said Scott. "Night Of Thunder has done phenomenally well and he's a really strong, forward-going sort of horse, just the type we try to buy. Obviously we had a lot of luck at this sale last year so we were keen to come back and find the standout horse in this year's sale. We felt he was the right horse.

"He's been bought for Victorious Racing, who we've had nine stakes winners for this year. It's been an exciting year and we're looking to build on that, if possible. He was the only horse we were concentrating on today and it doesn't often work out that you manage to get the only one you want. It's a relief and we were very much stretched at that point. We got the horse though and we're really excited about him."

Top Owner Harris Finds Potential Suitor For Top-Class Sprinter Mill Stream

Former breeder and owner of high-class sprinter Mill Stream (Ire) (Gleneagles {Ire}) Peter Harris marked his first trip to Goffs in over a decade by snapping up a Blue Point filly from a family he knows well for €580,000. Consigned by Castlebridge, lot 166 hails from Sea The Stars filly Copplestone (Ire), herself a sister to Irish Derby third Stellar Mass (Ire).

Too Darn Hot

NEWS YOU CAN USE

High-class two-year-old colt Hotazhell takes the G2 Beresford, giving his sire a landmark tenth juvenile Group victory in Europe. Since the Pattern began in 1970, no stallion has sired more at this stage of their career – and only Habitat, foaled way back in 1966, can match him.

Also this weekend: star Australian three-year-old Broadsiding wins the stallion-making G1 Golden Rose. He'd already won two of the five Australian G1s for juveniles.

Darley

"I bred all of the family much earlier on, that's really why I wanted her," Harris explained. "She is a really nice filly and is well-related. You've got to keep it going. She'll probably go to Adam Kirby to be broken in and then she'll go to Jane Chapple-Hyam. It is more than I expected to pay but not dramatically so."

Asked if his new recruit might one day visit Mill Stream when he retires to stud, Harris, who bought the filly through Anthony Stroud, replied, "It would depend on distance because we'll have to see what distance she will turn out to be best over. But at least it would be free if I did decide to do that! I could save myself some money. When I was training, I used to come here and buy 12 yearlings every year. That was a good number because you would fill the lorry with 12 horses which meant they didn't have to go anywhere else on the way home. The last time I was here was in 2008. I don't think there's any chance of us buying 12 but we have a list for tomorrow so who knows."

Talking Points

- Oliver St Lawrence was quick off the mark to snap up lot 10, one of six Frankels in the sale, for €780,000. The well-related Frankel colt was offered by Imad Al Sagar's Blue Diamond Stud. "He's by Frankel, who needs no introduction to any of us," St Lawrence said. "He's a big, strong, good-moving horse; the type that one can't help but like. I don't really know where he'll go but he'll head back to England for a client I don't often buy for." St Lawrence added, "I wouldn't have bid too much more than that, I think that's about what he was worth. There's some really nice stock here generally and I think it's an improvement on last year. There's some nice, solid horses out there and I think Goffs have done a good job."
- Lope De Vega enjoyed a sale to remember with Juddmonte and Godolphin, two of the powerhouse operations, signing for a colt and a filly by the stallion for €750,000 and €550,000 respectively. The Ballylinch Stud-based stallion ended the session with a €2,097,000 aggregate for eight yearlings sold.
- Bloodstock agent Richard Knight struck for a St Mark's Basilica (Fr) half-sister (lot 187) to recent St Leger winner Jan Brueghel (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) on behalf of Salthia Stud for €460,000. The filly was consigned by Barronstown Stud.

Pinhooking Fortunes On Tuesday

Of the 262 horses catalogued during Tuesday's session, 68 were pinhooks, and after two withdrawals, 66 horses passed through the ring. A total of six did not meet their reserves and were buy-backs, leaving 60 yearlings marked as sold. Of the latter group, 43 made a profit, and 17 lots lost money.

We have multiplied the price of the foal by 1.1 and added a running cost of €12,000 for keep, feed, veterinary, shoeing, sales prep and sales entry fees. Depending on whether someone has their own farm, or where they choose to board a horse, will obviously mean that costs for each individual can vary significantly.

It is worth noting that sometimes a horse can appear to be bought and sold by different names but have actually not changed ownership at all.

Golden Touch

A lot of pinhookers have been swimming against the tide this year. Not Peter Nolan. Following on from a successful Premier Yearling Sale at Doncaster, where, along with his wife Katy, Nolan turned €22,000 into £100,000, he hit the back of the net again.

Australian Grown

Australian-bred foals receive the best start in life, setting them up to become world class athletes. With warmer climates and natural births that mirror the wild, our foals hit the ground running - literally.

Lot 91 is a colt by Twilight Son | Alison Murphy

He may be better associated with his endeavors over jumps, but Nolan proved that his first forays with pinhooking foals on the level was by no means a fluke and followed up his Donny exploits by selling a Twilight Son filly for €100,000 on Tuesday. Sold to Kilbride Equine for €100,000, lot 91 had been sourced by the Nolans for just 19,000gns at the Tattersalls December Foal Sale last year.

Peter said, "There's times you happen on a bunch like we did this year. We concentrated solely on buying foals last and it was probably the first year in a long time where we didn't consign foals. That meant we had more time and approached the whole thing a bit more professionally, really."

Katy added, "We worked hard. I'd say there wasn't a single foal we didn't see at the sales. Neither of us are overly fussed stallion-wise, hence why we bought a Twilight Son, but we are sticklers for conformation."

Nolan has become an increasingly important wheel in Noel Meade's operation. The pair have bought countless good horses together for a song, including this year's Oaks fifth Caught U Looking (Ire) (Harzand {Ire}).

Outside of the bigger outfits, few pinhookers have had much to shout about in Europe over the past few weeks, but Nolan proves that, even in a difficult market, it is possible to turn a few quid.

He said, "The two fillies that we really wanted last year were the Churchill and the Twilight Son. My father always said, 'if you like a horse that much, generally the next man will, too.' The Twilight Son was a lovely foal. She was quite toed out as a foal and we did a lot of work with her but most of it came naturally. We sold a Lucky Vega (Ire) filly as well today for €90,000. She cost us €42,000 so it has been a good few weeks for us. Touch wood, it continues.

"I'm probably more of a jumps man but I have always liked the Flat side of things. Katy is more into the Flat and, since we have gotten married, it's been a good auld team. My father was a very, very good judge of a horse. He probably never had enough money to really make a go of it. But he was very good. And this one [Katy] is not too bad, either!"

The trainer added, “He won the Irish Derby which is right-handed like Longchamp and we’ve been very happy. He’s had two preps really, he won the race at York [G2 Great Voltigeur Stakes] and then when he went back to a mile and a quarter at Leopardstown. Hopefully we’ve done as much as we can for him to run as good a race as he can.”

He added of this terms G3 Royal Whip Stakes-winning son of Heart’s Cry, “We were very happy with his run in the trial, he finished third, it didn’t suit him to make the running but obviously it was going to be a slow pace. We think he’ll be much better in a strongly-run race and we’ve been very happy with him since.

“We think both horses will handle an ease in the ground. Christophe [Soumillon] rode him the last day so it’s very possible he could ride him again.”

Of the aforementioned trio more likely to go elsewhere than the Arc, the G1 Japan Cup is still the target for Auguste Rodin (Ire) (Deep Impact {Jpn}), while Opera Singer (Justify) is more likely for the G1 Prix de l’Opera. Luxembourg (Ire) (Camelot [GB]) also holds an entry for the 10-furlong G1 QIPCO Champion Stakes.

“Auguste Rodin is still in at the moment but unless the ground is very nice he won’t run,” said the master of Rosegreen. “He’ll probably go straight to the Japan Cup.” Cont. p10

Said O’Brien, “Opera Singer will do a bit of work in the morning and we’ll see how she is. The intention of running her in the trial [fifth in the G1 Prix Vermeille] was to go back for the Arc, but we weren’t sure really what happened.

“We could go back for the Opera as that is the easier option. We also think she wouldn’t want bad ground, so we’re debating whether to run in the Arc or the Opera.”

SYMBOL OF STRENGTH SOLD TO CONTINUE HIS CAREER IN HONG KONG

Symbol Of Strength | Racingfotos.com

Group winner Symbol Of Strength (Ire) (Kodiac {GB}) has been sold to race in Hong Kong, trainer Adrian Keatley confirmed on Tuesday. The juvenile colt was originally raced by Keatley Owners Group, Finneran and Moore.

A winner at second asking at Ayr in July, the son of Symbol Of Love (GB) (Shamardal) ran third in the G2 Gimcrack Stakes a month later, before a half-length triumph in the G3 Sirenia Stakes over six furlongs at Kempton on Sept. 7.

“Symbol Of Strength has been sold,” said Keatley. “There was always a possibility and now he’s been sold to Hong Kong, we wish them well.”

Bred by Tally-Ho Stud, the bay brought £100,000 from Keatley Racing out of the Goffs UK Premier Yearling Sale. He has earned $39,442 from four starts. His placed dam is a granddaughter of G3 Prix de Barbeville heroine Magna Graecia (Ire) (Warning {GB}). This is the family of G1 Prix Jean Prat winner, G1 2000 Guineas runner-up and sire Territories (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}).

CHARYN AND ECONOMICS HIGHLIGHTS OF LATEST QIPCO BRITISH CHAMPIONS DAY ENTRIES

A total of 151 horses remain in the five QIPCO British Champions Day races after the second entry stage, the highest number in the past six years. The event will be staged at Ascot on Saturday, Oct. 19.

The G1 QIPCO Champion Stakes sees G1 Irish Champion Stakes hero Economics (GB) (Night Of Thunder {Ire}) square off with Franci-Henri Graffard’s G1 International Stakes runner-up Calandagan (Ire) (Gleneagles {Ire}), and Jean-Pierre Gauvin’s Iresine (Fr) (Manduro {Ger}). Joseph O’Brien’s Group 1 winner Al Riffa (Fr) (Wootton Bassett {GB}) remains in the entries, as does Ambiente Friendly (Ire) (Gleneagles {Ire}) for James Fanshawe. The G1 Japan Cup-bound Auguste Rodin (Ire) (Deep Impact {Jpn}) and GI Breeders’ Cup Classic hopeful City Of Troy (Justify) are also still included by Aidan O’Brien.

Star miler Charyn (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}) is the leading fancy in the G1 Queen Elizabeth II Stakes sponsored by QIPCO. He will be challenged by Group 1-winning milers Big Rock (Fr) (Rock Of Gibraltar {Ire}) for Maurizio Guarnieri, Mario Baratti’s Metropolitan (Fr) (Zarak {Fr}), Sussex Stakes scorer Notable Speech (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) for Charlie Appleby, and Inspirial (GB) (Frankel {GB}) for John and Thady Gosden.

Said Charyn’s trainer Roger Varian, “He’s in great form and Ascot, where he was very good in the Queen Anne, is the plan. He’s had a terrific season and it might have been even better, as he was arguably a bit unlucky at Longchamp in the Moulin, but at the start of the year we’d have been very happy to settle for what he’s already achieved.”

In a wide open G1 QIPCO Champions Sprint, G1 July Cup hero Mill Stream (Ire) (Gleneagles {Ire}) hopes to double his top-tier tally for Jane Chapple-Hyam. Others signed on are: Audience (GB) (Iffraaj {GB}) for the Gosdens, William Haggas’s G1 Sprint Cup hero Montassib (GB) (Exceed And Excel {Aus}), G1 Commonwealth Cup victor Inisherin (GB) (Shamardal) for Kevin Ryan and James Fanshawe’s Kind Of Blue (GB) (Blue Point {Ire}).

“Kind of Blue has been in good form since his second in the Betfair Sprint Cup and James Doyle came and had a sit on him on Saturday as he’s now owned by Wathnan Racing,” said Fanshawe. “The Champions Sprint at Ascot is the plan for him and it’s a race we’ve won before with both Deacon Blues (GB) (Compton Place {GB}) and The Tin Man (GB) (Equiano {Fr}).

“Kind of Blue is out of a sister to Deacon Blues and a half-sister to The Tin Man, so he’s their nephew if you like. They were both 4-year-olds when they won on Champions Day and Kind of Blue is only three, but he’s by Blue Point and a big, strong colt. He hopefully has a bright future.”

The four Group 1 on the card is the QIPCO Champions Fillies & Mares Stakes with 29 names still in the running. Some of the headline names include Ralph Beckett’s Bluestocking (GB) (Camelot {GB}), Aidan O’Brien’s Opera Singer (Justify) and Content (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), the Gosdens’ Emily Upjohn (GB) (Sea The Stars {Ire}), and Andrew Balding’s Kalpana (GB) (Study Of Man {Ire}). Adding some international flare is Quantanamera (Ger) (Lope De Vega {Ire}) for Andreas Suborics and Germany.

Stayer supreme Kyprios (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) anchors the G2 QIPCO Champions Long Distance Cup, with all of the usual suspects remaining in the race barring Courage Mon Ami (GB) (Frankel {GB}) for Wathnan Racing. The Aidan O’Brien runner will lock horns with 2023 winner Trawlerman (Ire) (Golden Horn {GB}) for Charlie Appleby, the Gosdens’ Sweet William (Ire) (Sea The Stars {Ire}), Alan King’s Trueshan (Fr) (Planteur {Ire}) and Al Nayyir (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) for Tom Clover.

The unraced dam, a full-sister to the G1 Racing Post Trophy hero Marcel (Ire) (Lawman {Fr}), also has a yearling filly by Make Believe (GB) due to sell at the upcoming Goffs Orby Book 2 and a colt foal by Bayside Boy (Ire). The 37-5 chance was settled off the tempo in fifth for most of this first attempt at the one-mile trip. Coaxed forward rounding the home turn, he went third passing the furlong pole and kept on relentlessly under continued urging to deny 14-5 pick Afentiko by a half-length in the dying strides.

WORLDWIDE NEWS

AUSTRALIAN OAKS WINNER AUTUMN ANGEL SOLD BY INGLIS DIGITAL FOR A$1.225 MILLION

Walnut Farm secured the G1 Australian Oaks winner Autumn Angel (Aus) (The Autumn Sun {Aus}) for A$1.225 million (€762,599) in a boutique Inglis Digital Online Sale which concluded on Tuesday.

Trained by Peter Moody and Katherine Coleman, Autumn Angel won four of her 11 starts and earned over A$1.1 million in prize-money during her illustrious career, with her biggest success coming in April this year when she defeated high-class performers such as Zardozi (Aus) (Kingman {GB}) and Orchestral (NZ) (Savabeel {Aus}) to win the Australian Oaks at Randwick.

Last week it was announced that Autumn Angel had suffered a tendon injury, bringing her racing career to a premature end. She was offered by Dalziel Bloodstock as a breeding prospect, with Walnut Farm beating multiple interested parties in the closing minutes of the online auction.

Autumn Angel | Bronwen Healy

"Autumn Angel won an elite edition of the Australian Oaks," said Vin Cox on behalf of the winning bidder. "She has a great pedigree and is by a stallion that is well on his way as a highly commercial stallion of the future.

"There are no plans as to her future at this early stage. We will get her home and into the system."

Autumn Angel was purchased by Moody and managing owner Wylie Dalziel for A$230,000 at the 2022 Inglis Australian Easter Yearling Sale. She is one of four winners out of the Group 3 winner Angel Of Mercy (Aus) (Hussonet), who was also runner-up in the G1 Tattersalls Tiara.

"It's all happened very fast," said Dalziel. "The ownership group are rapt with the result, although understandably we didn't envisage selling her so soon.

"This time last week we were disappointed and in shock when we received the news from the stable about her injury. But as the manager I had to move quickly and I must thank Sebastian [Hutch], James [Price] and the team at Inglis for facilitating such a quick turnaround."

He added, "We've had a great run with Autumn Angel and we will never know what might have been on the racetrack. All the signs were there that the best was yet to come.

"There are nine owners including some long-time clients and they all were quick to back the decision to offer her as a breeding prospect and she was put in front of all the right people with Inglis Digital."

"Wylie and his owners were obviously disappointed that Autumn Angel's racing career was brought to a premature end, but it's pleasing to have been able to help them find a sale solution in a short space of time," said Inglis Digital's Nick Melmeth.

He added, "We learnt of her injury less than a week ago, so to be where we are today, with multiple major breeding operations having competed to buy her for a seven figure sum, is a testament to the efficiency of the system."

COMPUTER ASSISTED WAGERING: DIFFERENT WORLDS, DIFFERENT FIXES

by Dan Ross

Calling extreme odds changes the “Achilles heel of pari-mutuel wagering,” Michael Fitzsimons, the Hong Kong Jockey Club’s executive director of racing products, recently sold the audience at the Asian Racing Conference on a plan to standardize global access to the World Pool by sophisticated computer teams.

“For the first time, we are proposing this year to work on the World Pool professional hubs, where we come together with operators to agree to the rules and through our smart contracts technology, we will enforce these rules no matter where the professional enters the pool,” Fitzsimons said, noting how the technologies these teams employ have shortened the gap by 45% in the difference between bet placement and odds update.

“We won’t rest until we have this down to mere seconds,” he added.

The primary culprit for these late odds changes are Computer Assisted Wagering (CAW) players. These are well-resourced teams of eggheads given a major edge over regular gamblers thanks to their use of sophisticated and lightning fast computer technologies, along with attractive rates and rebates not available to the average punter.

Fitzsimons’s idea is indeed novel--one easier to conceptualize than to realize. For one, it would require the right technologies being in place, Fitzsimons told the TDN in a series of written responses. However, “we believe that a centralised approach can create more efficient outcomes, more incentive to commingle and create a more sustainable environment for all involved,” he added.

It is perhaps one of the most sweeping proposals publicly floated for managing CAW play. Less invasive ones are already in effect. Think restrictions to pools before the off, and penalties for win-margins above a certain threshold.

But if there’s a common gripe among critics of how it’s handled in the U.S., it’s that measures here largely fail to adequately restrict these teams of players from the pools that are often most attractive to them--in other words, the high-takeout bets.

“The issue is allowing them to have an advantage,” said Jerry Brown, professional gambler and president of Thoro-Graph Inc., publisher of data used by professional horseplayers and horsemen. He has called the rapid growth of CAW play an “existential crisis” for the game.

“Right now, they’re being given too much of an advantage,” said Brown. “That advantage is taking money away short term from the regular players--it’s a pari-mutuel game--and long-term, it’s taking away from the stakeholders in the industry.”

The HKJC is a wagering goliath--during the 2023-2024 fiscal year, the equivalent of $17.3 billion was wagered on its horse racing--and offers an interesting case study in how a leading horse racing jurisdiction manages CAW play.

The HKJC’s approach cuts through the obfuscatory fuzz denoting many end of meet reports, headlined with broad handle numbers--that handle is much less a useful barometer of fiscal health than the revenues generated.

“Our approach is much more about maximizing income than maximizing turnover which unfortunately seems to still be the measurement of success in many jurisdictions,” Fitzsimons wrote, using the Hong Kong equivalent of “handle.”

According to Fitzsimons, as the HKJC has incrementally increased the rates it charges its CAW customers, overall turnover might have declined among these players, but its revenues have increased.

“In the 2023/24 season, the income earned from professionals grew YoY [year-over-year] by 10% more than the turnover, indicating we are hitting the inelastic part of the demand curve and creating a healthy ecosystem. In actual terms last season, turnover from professionals actually dropped by around 8%, but income increased by 2%,” wrote Fitzsimons.

When “rates” are mentioned, what is meant are “host fees.” This is a charge wagering outlets pay to track operators for the contractual right to import a simulcast signal. A wagering outlet could be another racetrack, an ADW platform (like FanDuel), or a CAW platform (like Elite Turf Club).

Experts say that CAW host fees for the premium tracks in the U.S. typically vary between 6% and 8%. This is important to know for the horsemen and women plying their trades--in California, for example, this fee is split roughly 50/50 between purses and the track.

What kind of rates does the HKJC charge? Fitzsimons declined to mention specifics, bar one example.

“The harder the pool to win--or put another way, the greater the number of possible permutations of a particular bet type--the greater the advantage the professionals have. And as such, we charge more in those circumstances,” Fitzsimons wrote.

“For instance the Triple Trio, we charge a 19% host track fee on a 25% takeout for the CAWs to play,” he added. “This allows for a moderation of turnover as any rebate is likely zero or maybe 2 or 3% at the most, plus the ability to earn decent income from this segment which can be reinvested in various ways back into the industry and wagering ecosystem.”

(Note: A general rule of thumb is that rebate = takeout minus host fee. In short, as wagering operators compete aggressively on price to attract these deep-pocketed players, rebates increase and pools can grow sicker)

Which brings the conversation around to late odds fluctuations.

Some venues have sought to manage this by cutting off the CAW teams’ access to certain pools before post. The New York Racing Association (NYRA) requires CAW players to place win bets on its races no later than two minutes to post (more on this in a bit).

CHAMPIONSHIP CONTENDERS...

◀ Mufasa roars into G1 Breeders' Cup Sprint and G1 Breeders' Cup Mile contention following the demolition of his rivals in the G3 Vosburgh Stakes at Belmont At The Big A on Saturday.

“The 4¼-length victory in the “Win and You're In” Breeders' Cup Challenge race was the first North American graded score for the Chilean star since arriving in the U.S. While Mufasa has a fees-paid berth into the G1 Breeders' Cup Sprint, Correas has said that the G1 Big Ass Fans Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile is also under consideration.”

TDN 9/29/2024

◀ Chad Brown's G1 Test Stakes winner Ways And Means also had the perfect prep for the Breeders' Cup in cruising to victory by 4-lengths in the G2 Gallant Bloom in Belmont At The Big A on Sunday.

◀ Both will join Domestic Product, the G1 H. Allen Jerkens winner, and leading Breeders' Cup Mile chance at Del Mar in November.

PRACTICAL JOKE

A M E R I C A

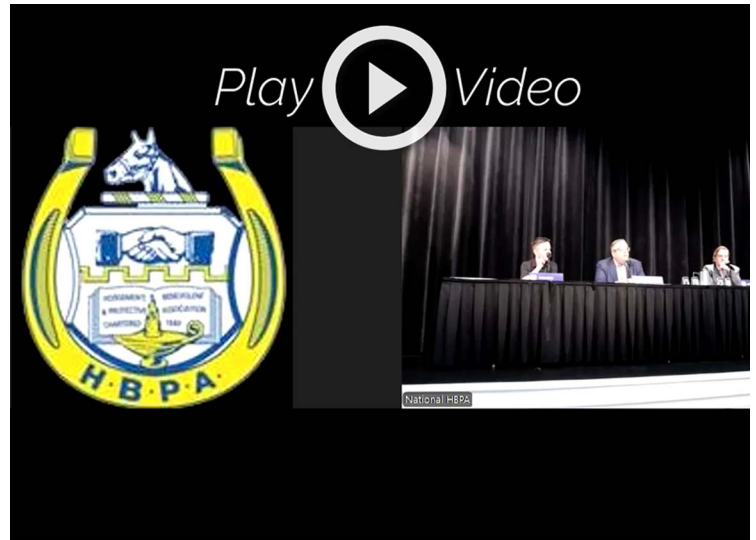

The HKJC cuts off its CAW customers from the pools around 15 seconds before post time. When asked why it's not more restrictive, Fitzsimons explained that time is related to "transaction processing times," and the overall liquidity of their pools.

"Given the size of our pools and the relationship with the professionals, this is the most efficient time for us. But in different jurisdictions with different pool sizes this will vary. We are currently working hard on modernizing our technology to ensure the time from bet placement to odds update is as short as possible," Fitzsimons added.

There is a rough threshold when the percentage share from CAW play on overall handle becomes so large that it begins, essentially, to cannibalize the pools.

Thoroughbred Owners of California (TOC) executive director, Bill Nader, places that tipping point around the 25% marker. In recent years at some California tracks, CAW players have constituted a larger margin than that in certain pools. In other U.S. jurisdictions, the situation is even more lop-sided.

At the National Horsemen's Benevolent and Protective Association (HBPA) conference at Prairie Meadows in July, Dave Basler, executive director of the Ohio HBPA, said that CAW players make up "close to" 40% of the overall handle in the state.

Because of differing takeout rates, the percentage of overall turnover CAW players make up in individual pools differs depending on the bet type. In Hong Kong's Quinella, for example, they make up about 15% of the pools. Across the board, it averages out at around 13%.

According to Fitzsimons, these numbers represent what he considers a "good balance" between CAW and mass market play.

“Professionals make the prices of the pools more accurate which is good for everyone, but at the same time we need to protect the local customer and maintain a healthy ecosystem, so ‘healthy’ will vary depending on the size of the underlying pool and the bet type,” Fitzsimons wrote.

“When we operated the World Pool on the Cox Plate last year, the final dividend for Romantic Warrior was $2.80, but had it been a local pool only without the participation of international syndicates via commingling there is little doubt that he would have been $1.70 or $1.80 at the most,” Fitzsimons added.

OTHER JURISDICTIONS

France’s Pari Mutuel Urbain (PMU) is reportedly Europe’s leading betting operator and the “third largest player in horse racing pari-mutuel betting.”

In a July Q&A with Jour du Galop, Emmanuelle Malecaze-Doulet, PMU general director, explained that major international bettors (given the acronym GPIs) would soon be barred from playing on the Quinte+, a flagship super high-five-style bet in France, with consolation pay-offs.

As of the beginning of August, that bet had a 37.85% takeout rate. The change went into effect on Aug. 1 this year.

The reason, said Malecaze-Doulet, was that allowing the powerful international players into this pool was ultimately siphoning profits out of French punters’ pockets.

“An example: during the last Prix d’Amerique, the [winning] punters ... won around €640,000; tomorrow, with the eviction of the GPIs, these same punters will get €1.2 million. Another example: a punter won €1 million in the Quinte+ in the spring; without the GPIs, this same punter would have won €2 million. All the payout ranks will be positively impacted, with an accentuated effect on the big wins,” said Malecaze-Doulet in the Q&A.

According to background sources consulted for this story, the PMU also requires large international players whose win-rates are over 100% to forfeit their winnings back to the PMU. This essentially makes their profit margins incumbent upon the rebates they receive through the betting platforms.

Closer to home, NYRA is widely regarded as having among the most aggressive approaches among U.S. operators to curbing CAW play. It bars CAW play in the Pick 6, Late Pick 5, and Cross Country Pick 5 pools.

The TDN has detailed what The Stronach Group (TSG) and Del Mar have done in California in recent years.

Los Alamitos racecourse introduced an interesting new measure involving projected odds. Starting with the third race, projected odds--based on will-pays in pick 3s--are shown on simulcast screens roughly 20 minutes before post time, then after horses parade onto the track.

“Look, no one is necessarily doing a great job here,” said Marshall Gramm, economics professor and professional gambler, about the U.S.

“The U.S. market is really ripe for CAWs almost more so than any other market, maybe with the exception of Hong Kong. But with Hong Kong, it doesn’t matter so much because the pools are so big,” he added.

The primary problem is that the measures introduced in the U.S. by and large fail to adequately restrict CAW play from the bets with the biggest takeout. Why these pools?

The equation is simple, though seemingly paradoxical: The bigger the takeout, the larger the rebate for the CAW player, the higher the profits for the player and their teams.

“The pools that are priced the worst--the Superfecta, the Trifecta--those are pools that are dominated by the teams," said Gramm. "The gap in the price between the casual player and the teams are the largest in the pools where the teams are just destroying the casual player. Right? The more complicated the bet, the more efficient their teams are."

NYRA has a 24% takeout rate on the Superfecta. Some tracks are even higher. "And that's where the teams destroy players. And teams are often getting 17% rebate on top of that," he added.

If tracks lowered their takeout without lowering the host fee--or maybe even by increasing the host fee--that would effectively lower the rebate for the teams, said Gramm. In short, casual players would see more of their monies returned, leading them to churn more.

"And if they churn more, they like it. They invest more. Handle should theoretically go up. And [CAW] teams would love this, right? Everyone could win under this scenario," said Gramm.

In the short term, tracks might lose some of the revenues garnered on-track, he admitted. "But for many of them, that's not much to begin with anyway," said Gramm.

Furthermore, the takeout rate should be relatively flat across the board, said Gramm. "There's no reason we should have a tiered takeout. There's no reason it shouldn't 18% or 16% across the board. The gaps between the haves and have nots is too large," he said.

Such a move would require "a leap of faith" for the racetracks, admitted Gramm. Smaller racetracks are unlikely to lead the charge. If they lower their takeout rates, the big ADWs owned by Churchill Downs and The Stronach Group (TSG) would likely reduce their host fees in response, said Gramm.

"Twin Spires doesn't want to lose their large margins on their customers," Gramm said.

That's why it would take a powerful independent track--a Del Mar or a Keeneland--to take the plunge, said Gramm. "I think they could have their cake and eat it, too," he said.

"They can make the announcement to their customers. The only place they might be losing money is in on-track and their California customer," he said. "But if handle went up, teams would bet more. I think it would be a win, win, win for everyone."

Brown narrows his suggested fixes into two main camps. The first would be to drastically reduce the generous rebates CAW teams receive. The second would be to restrict their access to their pools in a more wholesale manner.

"You have to shut them out electronically with three or four minutes to post--if they want to continue playing, they can do so, just not electronically," adding that this needs to be deployed across all pools, not just the win pool.

"It needs to go much further than that," said Brown, about the

BREEDING DIGEST: THE ENDURING MERIT UNITING MUFASA AND HIS TRAINER

Mufasa | Sarah Andrew

by Chris McGrath

Class: an elusive concept, in horses as in people. That's because it refers to something inherent, something beyond external trappings. In this business, most of us will have observed how someone can be wealthy and still have no class; and also, more pleasingly, how material poverty need not diminish those human qualities that elevate a person from the mean (in every sense of that word).

To whatever extent it may be heritable, then, one core indicator of class is perhaps durability itself. For that is the very opposite of the superficial ways by which shallow people fake a deeper distinction.

And that's an analogy that can be extended to our horses. Just as the old timers used to disparage "the fast set" who squandered their privileges in self-indulgence, so we must deplore breeding for speed without the means to carry it.

In the commercial era, when a horse bred to run has bafflingly become somehow different from the horse bred to sell, we should prize more than ever the robustness that has always been a trademark of the South American Thoroughbred.

That differential may have been eroded in the shuttling era. But a weekend headlined by two 5-year-old imports, Subsanador (Arg) (Fortify) and Mufasa (Chi) (Practical Joke), reiterates the connection between constitution and class.

Now Mufasa is certainly a fast horse, even if his Vosburgh success felt demeaned by the relegation of this storied prize to Grade III status. (A mystifying development, given that the restoration of a seventh furlong and increased purse money had just yielded wins for Cody's Wish and Elite Power.)

But the point is that Mufasa is only here because of the resilience of South American blood--on two legs, as well as four.

That's because he's trained by Ignacio Correas IV, who has spent one-third of his life rebuilding a career in the U.S. after lawlessness in his homeland threatened the success he had enjoyed until the turn of the century. He took all kind of dead-end jobs, after emigrating, but he won through in the end. Importing the likes of Blue Prize (Arg) (Pure Prize) and more recently Didia (Arg) (Orpen) has been a great help. But if you want proof that the Correas clan know all about lasting the course, you need only look at the pedigree of his latest star.

Mufasa was sired by Practical Joke (whose fine year continued when Ways and Means won the GII Gallant Bloom Stakes next day) during his early days shuttling to Chile, much as we owe his own dam to the young Scat Daddy. And she was actually out of a Florida-bred mare. But the latter, as a daughter of the exported Argentinian champion 2-year-old filly Mi Quimera (Arg), opens a seamless Argentinian line extending 11 generations to one of the local breed's foundation mares, Tears (GB).

Tears was a daughter of Blair Athol, a cornerstone of the modern breed as it was emerging in Victorian Britain. (Himself winner of the 1864 Derby and St Leger, Blair Athol was by the 1852 St Leger winner Stockwell out of the great Blink Bonny, who won both the Derby and Oaks in 1857.)

Tears was imported in 1882, alongside a stallion named Zanoni, and their 1885 foal Mendiga was acquired by the founder of Haras las Ortigas. This was a gentleman named... Ignacio Correas!

The great-grandfather of Mufasa's trainer developed a family through five generations from Mendiga to a mare named Malquerida, who was then acquired by another great farm in Haras Ojo de Agua. Malquerida was out of a mare by Diamond Jubilee, the Triple Crown winner famously sold in 1906 by King Edward VII to Haras les Ortigas, where he became a four-time champion sire. And Malquerida is the fifth dam of Mi Quimera, the mare who came to the U.S. in 1981--where she was graded stakes-placed on turf, and eventually delivered the granddam of Mufasa.

Subsanador (middle) | Benoit

It must be extremely fulfilling for Mufasa's trainer to resume supervision of a bloodline curated by his own family between mares respectively foaled in 1885 and 1933. In the process, he is showing how mutual regeneration between the Americas, South and North, extends from the breed itself to the skills of its stewards.

Though Mufasa's page has been fairly dormant for a couple of generations, there is prolific black-type production underneath Mi Quimera, mostly resulting from the family's repatriation to Argentina. The most conspicuous contributor has been My Swinger, Mi Quimera's 1989 foal (by another Vosburgh winner, Groovy), who won at a modest level in the U.S. before becoming a Group winner in Argentina. She began her breeding career down there, too, before eventually returning to the U.S. As in his first career, however, she proved more productive in the Pampas: her six foals by Southern Halo included two local Group 1 winners.

Southern Halo, of course, did so well when exported to stand in Argentina that he ended up reverse-shuttling to his native land. But his presence in the pedigree of GI Californian Crown winner Subsanador--he gives us the third dam, as a multiple Group winner much the best loitering near the top of this page--does not introduce any truly South American flavor. While Subsanador's first three dams were all bred in Argentina, each was by a migrant son of a top Kentucky stallion (Storm Cat/Deputy Minister/Halo). His sire Fortify, equally, blends very familiar lines: he's by Distorted Humor out of a daughter of A.P. Indy and Flagbird (Nureyev). Both Flagbird and Subsanador's dam, in fact, ultimately trace to La Troienne (Fr) through her granddaughter Striking (War Admiral).

In other words, Subsanador is circling back into the environment that produced his blood. Of course, it may be that even the way his first three dams were raised, in Argentina, itself contributes to his substance. Be that as it may, however, Musafa draws on a deeper South American well--whether in his own blood, or that of his trainer.

WESTS AND CANDY RIDE SHARE DOUBLE

Perhaps the most important recent example of a horse that straddled the hemispheres by combining the best is Candy Ride (Arg). His sire Ride the Rails was bought as a yearling at Keeneland and, in the influential mare Alablue (Blue Larkspur), actually shared a third dam with his own sire Cryptoclearance. His damsire, moreover, is Blushing Groom's son Candy Stripes, who was Classic-placed in France. But his second and third dams both concentrate Argentinian blood, and who can say how far this may now be percolating to particular effect through Candy Ride's phenomenal son Gun Runner?

Regardless, it was another notable weekend for the veteran Lane's End sire. At 25, he may be entering the evening of his career, but his legacy continues to grow. On Saturday his 4-year-old son Hit Show reached a new peak in the GII Lukas Classic, while the next day Most Wanted sustained his rise through the sophomore ranks in the GIII Oklahoma Derby.

Both these colts graduated from the same program, bred as they were by Gary and Mary West. Hit Show, however, had been sold to Wathnan Racing (also proprietors of Subsanador) since his previous start, a graded stakes success at Mountaineer that suggested him to be one of those that just need a little maturity to regroup from the Triple Crown (ran fifth in the Derby last year).

The Wests also bred his dam, GII Black-Eyed Susan winner Actress (Tapit), from Milwaukee Appeal (Milwaukee Brew), a champion Canadian 3-year-old filly later beaten just half a length in the GI Spinster Stakes. Acquired privately by the Wests on her retirement, Milwaukee Appeal only produced five named foals, but the investment has now presumably paid off—not least with Actress having already produced three daughters to exploit the success of her son.

The dam of Most Wanted, meanwhile, is one of the gems of the Wests' broodmare band. Beach Walk (Distorted Humor) was acquired by their longstanding advisor Ben Glass as a $435,000 yearling at the 2014 September Sale—a price that reflected two elite podiums for her dam Bonnie Blue Flag (Mineshaft), a half-sister to dual Grade I scorer Diamondrella (GB) (Rock Of Gibraltar {Ire}). While she could not break her maiden in five attempts, she has already produced four-time Grade I scorer Life Is Good (Into Mischief). That dasher made himself worth rather more than the $525,000 he brought as a yearling, but his full brother has been retained and is breezing with promise at Churchill.

A CHANNEL BRIDGE NOT YET BEYOND REACH

While plenty of Americans will be spending serious dough on European yearlings over the coming days, they have tended to prove less enthused when a turf horse is standing on their own doorstep—no matter how accomplished. With his stock's propensity to dourness, in fact, I suspect Frankel (GB) himself might struggle to achieve commercial traction in the Bluegrass.

It's been wonderful, then, to see Oscar Performance seize his opportunity, not just stepping up as the outstanding American heir to his late sire Kitten's Joy but even nailing the sales. From his latest crop of yearlings, he has this year sold 18 of 21 offered at an average tipping $150,000, off a $12,500 conception fee. That yield will doubtless be eroded with a few blue-collar auctions still to come, but Roscar will have done trade no harm as his latest black-type scorer, in the $400,000 Breeders' Stakes at Woodbine (capping off a remarkable 1-2-3 for Chiefswood Stables).

The one sadness is that no equivalent breakout has been achieved by a son of English Channel, who died, nine months before Kitten's Joy, in November 2021. But perhaps that vacancy might yet be filled by Far Bridge, who last weekend thwarted that wonderful racemare, War Like Goddess, in her bid to surpass their mutual sire with a third consecutive GI Joe Hirsch Turf Classic.

The market never really forgave English Channel for staying this trip so well. But Far Bridge last year registered the first of his three Grade I wins over 10 furlongs, while if you rewind you'll find he beat no less a horse than Carl Spackler (Ire) (Lope De Vega {Ire}) over an extended mile on debut.

In terms of producing runners, of course, English Channel ended up absolutely on a par with Kitten's Joy, who routinely stood at multiples of his $25,000 fee. Aptly, Far Bridge is out of a mare by his old rival. Homebred by Calumet, Fitpitcher (Kitten's Joy) unfortunately managed only two other foals, but she was out of an A.P. Indy half-sister to the mother of the admirable Long Range Toddy (Take Charge Indy), while the next dam Pleasant Temper was a dual graded stakes winner by Storm Cat.

A little farther back, moreover, this line tapers to Shama (Bold Ruler) and her dam Lea Lark (Bull Lea), names that tie together some very illustrious pedigrees. Shama has been particularly significant in South America, duly appearing in the ancestry of two horses mentioned above, as third dam of Southern Halo and sixth of Blue Prize (Arg). Other daughters of Lea Lark have been no less influential, at every point of the compass.

Given how well sown this branch of that dynasty has been, perhaps a posthumous legacy for English Channel is not yet a bridge too far.

'SOLID DAY OF WORK': CITY OF LIGHT FILLY TOPS FASIG-TIPTON MIDLANTIC SALE

by Jessica Martini

TIMONIUM, MD - Despite a smaller catalogue, the Fasig-Tipton Midlantic Fall Yearling Sale produced an average and median in line with its 2023 edition Tuesday at the Maryland State Fairgrounds in Timonium.

City of Light filly (Hip 49) | Fasig-Tipton

“It was fine. It wasn't exceptional, it wasn't terrible. It was a solid day of work,” said Fasig-Tipton President Boyd Browning, Jr. at the close of business Tuesday. “There was significant demand for what were perceived to be the better horses. The lower end, the horses that were either considered conformationally lacking or were lacking in terms of commercial pedigrees, were difficult to sell. It was the same trends that we have seen in recent years and that I think we will continue to see. It was a satisfactory exercise.”

A total of 180 yearlings sold Tuesday for a gross of $4,267,700. The average of $23,709 dipped 2.9% from a year ago, while the median rose 25% to $15,000.

In 2023, 290 horses grossed $7,082,000 for an average of $24,421 and a median of $12,000.

A filly by City of Light, one of six yearlings to bring six figures Tuesday, topped the auction when selling for $165,000 to the bid of trainer Butch Reid on behalf of LC Racing.

For the third straight year, the Midlantic Fall catalogue size decreased. There were 412 yearlings catalogued last year and 284 this year.

“The catalogue size is down a little bit, which I think is reflective of the regional markets right now,” Browning said. “They are not easy.”

Plans for the redevelopment of Pimlico Racecourse and the consolidation of racing under the umbrella of the Maryland Thoroughbred Racetrack Operating Authority, may have encouraged more local participation in the auction this year, Browning speculated.

“There was a good crowd here today,” Browning said. “I was a little concerned, honestly, coming in with the smaller catalogue about what kind of attendance and participation we would have. It seemed to me that there might have been a little uptick in local participation from the Marylanders, which might be a ray of sunshine. The sentiment might be a little more of a sense of optimism and hope with the changes which are taking place here which would be a good sign for the industry.”

Browning said the survival of the regional marketplace in Maryland might hinge on the cooperation of the neighboring racing districts which face stiff competition from strong racing structures in Kentucky and New York.

“Hopefully there is some opportunity and hope in the Maryland racing industry,” Browning said. “We see some good things that are happening in Virginia. There are some things happening in the Delaware program. Let's hope that we continue to see increased strength in the racing product in the region.

“Frankly, it is incumbent on the racetracks and the breeding organizations to help create more of a regional perspective than an individual state perspective,” Browning continued. “It needs to happen in those areas. The Kentucky program is so strong right now and the New York program is really successful. It's hard to compete with those two areas, particularly east of the Mississippi. And in order to do that, you are going to need to have cooperation with Virginia, Delaware, Maryland, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, to say how can we be competitive on a racing and breeding perspective with our competition. There are only so many wagering and racing dollars out there and so many mares that are going to get bred, so you are going to hopefully begin to see some higher level of cooperation and collaboration among them from both a racing and breeding perspective.”

City of Light Filly Tops Midlantic Sale

A filly by City of Light (hip 49) was the first to breach the six-figure mark at the Fasig-Tipton Midlantic Fall Yearling Sale Tuesday when bringing a sale-topping final bid of $165,000 from trainer Butch Reid, bidding on behalf of Glenn Bennett' LC Racing LLC.

Bred by Bowman and Higgins Stable and consigned by Becky Davis, the yearling is a half-sister to Monday Morning QB (Imagining), who was a two-time stakes winner for Bennett and Reid. She is also a half to last year's Midlantic sale-topping colt by Nyquist, who sold for $205,000 in Timonium before reselling for $550,000 at OBS this April.

“We had her big brother Monday Morning QB and we have

her next brother, too, his name is Papa Lapa," Reid said. "So we know the family very well."

LC Racing and Cash Is King purchased Papa Lapa (Arrogate) for $180,000 at the Midlantic sale in October 2022. That colt was a runner-up on debut at Parx in July.

Of similarities he sees in the family, Reid said, "This filly is a little smaller. Monday Morning QB was a huge horse. He was 17 hands. She's a little smaller. Very typey. I loved her frame. She is really deep through the chest and has a big butt on her. So we liked a lot about her."

Reid had to see off an internet bidder to secure the filly and momentarily thought he had lost out on the youngster when bidding skipped ahead.

"The bidding got a little messed up and they went by me and we were done," Reid said. "And then we got a reprieve. So we were very lucky to get her."

Earlier in the session, Reid went to $40,000 to acquire a filly by Tapwrit (hip 11) for LC Racing.

"You have to be selective, I think," Reid said of the market. "We might even be done. We got two, spent $200,000, and it's been a nice day so far."

LC Racing added a third yearling to its Midlantic haul late in the session when going to $27,000 to acquire a colt by Maximus Mischief (hip 282), a graded-stakes winner the operation campaigned in partnership with Cash is King.

Gatsas Stables Strikes in Timonium

Bloodstock agent Marette Farrell secured a pair of six-figure yearlings for the Gatsas family's Gatsas Stables during Tuesday's Midlantic sale, going to $125,000 for a colt by Vekoma (hip 87) from the Marshall Silverman consignment and securing a filly by McKinzie (hip 105) for $120,000 from Becky Davis's consignment.

"We got beaten up in September," Farrell admitted. "We weren't going to do this sale, but I said why don't we go and see. It's a small sale and it had some pedigrees that I targeted."

Hip 87 is out of Mamasan (First Samurai), a half-sister to stakes winner and graded-placed P.S.U. Grad (Harlan's Holiday) and from the family of Grade I winner Richter Scale.

"We really like this Vekoma colt," Farrell said. "He needed a little bit of time. He is out of a First Samurai mare and he's all First Samurai. He is a beautiful, big easy mover with a great brain. I loved him every time I saw him. They were excited to get him."

Mike and Matt Gatsas were already familiar with the colt's sire, having campaigned multiple Grade I winner Vekoma in partnership with R. A. Hill Stable.

"I had a list of pedigrees that I looked for, but they also liked the Vekoma," Farrell said.

By hot-starting freshman sire McKinzie, hip 105 is out of multiple stakes-placed Moon Virginia (Jump Start).

"The filly was just beautiful," Farrell said. "Her sire is on the up and up and she's stunningly gorgeous. She's a deep shouldered, beautiful filly. She goes directly back to My Dear Girl, the dam of In Reality. It's a beautiful pedigree that's not on the page. If she can run to her pedigree, they are going to have a lot of fun."

Farrell said she sees all the ingredients lining up for a potentially vibrant marketplace in Maryland.

"I love coming up here and I have gotten to know a lot of breeders over the years," Farrell said. "There are serious breeders here who are really good at what they do. They breed good horses on a national scale. They know their pedigrees, they know their horses and they bring a good product to market. I think they just need to get a few things in place to help these breeders to continue to support the Maryland program. And the number one thing, in my opinion, is purses. I think there are a lot of positive things in the works with [interim CEO of the Maryland Thoroughbred Racetrack Operating Authority] Corey Johnson heading this new redevelopment initiative. I think he can change things for the good in Maryland given his track record with Kentucky Downs and Lone Star."

CISSELL PROMOTED TO CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER AT THREE CHIMNEYS, BAKER LAUNCHES THOROUGHBRED ADVISORY

Tony Cissell has been promoted to Chief Operating Officer and General Manager at Three Chimneys, the farm announced

Tony Cissell

Tuesday. Cissell, who has managed the likes Crescent Farm, Calumet Farm and WinStar Farm, has been at Three Chimneys running the Big Sink division for the last five years.

“I’ve known Tony for over a decade and have always admired his high level of horsemanship and his excellent people skills,” said Chairman and Three Chimneys owner Goncalo Torrealba. “He has done an outstanding job running our yearling division for five years, and has the proven background to take on the added operational responsibilities across the entire farm. He is supported by a tremendous divisional manager team, and I look forward to the future because I am confident they will continue to produce Grade I winners.”

Cissell said, “It is an honor to accept this position at Three Chimneys, and I am grateful to the Torrealba family, my co-workers, and our clients for all of their support in this transition. I have had many great jobs and a lot of experience at all levels, starting with my first job working for Lee Eaton who was a pioneer at consigning and preparing future racehorses. I have learned something from every job I’ve had, and I look forward to taking on the operational reins at Three Chimneys. It is an exciting time to be at Three Chimneys, particularly with the rise of Gun Runner and the outstanding broodmare band to support him and our other stallions. The team at Three Chimneys is outstanding, and I am excited to work with them to get Grade I results.”

Previous COO Chris Baker is resigning from his position after more than a decade at Three Chimneys.

Baker stated, “First and foremost, I want to thank the Torrealba Family for all the outstanding opportunities they have given me over the past 11 years. From Champions and Classic winners like Gun Runner, Wonder Wheel and Early Voting to Grade I winners like Carina Mia, Guarana, Volatile and Gun Pilot, it has been my privilege to work alongside such a great family, great team, and great horses operating at the highest level of our sport. The passion, guidance, resources and trust bestowed on the Three Chimneys team by Goncalo and his siblings has provided all of us the chance to do meaningful things--the connection to Gun Runner being the opportunity of a lifetime.”

“I am at a career stage where I want to use my skills, knowledge and experience in a different way,” Baker continued. “As a result, I’ve made the hard decision to step away from an everyday role as COO to start my own venture as an advisor where I will help people reach their goals in all facets of the industry. Under Tony’s leadership, I anticipate continued if not greater success at the highest level for Three Chimneys. I am equally optimistic for the future of Baker Thoroughbred Advisory, working with clients to reach their Grade I goals in breeding, racing and sales.”

OFF CA CROWN WIN, SUBSANADOR JUMPS INTO TOP FIVE OF NTRA POLL

Fresh off his gutsy win in the inaugural GI California Crown Stakes Saturday, Subsanador (Arg) (Fortify) jumped into the fourth slot of the NTRA Top Thoroughbred Poll. Last year’s champion juvenile colt Fierceness (City of Light) sits at the top just 7 points ahead of top filly Thorpedo Anna (Fast Anna). THOROUGHBRED RETIREMENT FOUNDATION PARTNERS WITH STABLE RECOVERY FOR SPECIAL AUCTION

The Thoroughbred Retirement Foundation has announced a special collaboration with Stable Recovery for the upcoming John Hall Memorial Golf Tournament. A Constitution halter, donated by WinStar Farm, will be shared with Stable Recovery and auctioned at the event to raise funds to support their mission.

Originally intended for the TRF’s Stallions for Second Chances Halter Auction, the halter has become a symbol of the relationship between the organizations.

“We felt that sharing this halter with Stable Recovery would be a meaningful way to honor the close ties we’ve built and to mark the beginning of an impactful partnership,” said Maggie Sweet, Executive Director of the TRF.

The third annual John Hall Memorial Golf tournament, presented by Heider Family Stables, is being held on Monday, Oct. 14 at Thoroughbred Golf Club in Nicholasville, KY. All proceeds, including those from the silent auction, will go to help Stable Recovery. Cont. p16

GRADED STAKES WINNER BEATBOX RETIRED, ENTERED IN KEENELAND NOVEMBER SALE

Graded stakes winner Beatbox (Pioneerof the Nile--Magical World, by Distorted Humor), winner of the 2024 GIII Fair Grounds S. and a half-brother to MGISW Guarana (Ghostzapper), has been retired from racing. The 6-year-old will be offered as a stallion prospect at the 2024 Keeneland November Breeding Stock Sale.

Consigned by Lane's End as Hip 3083, the dual-surface winner will be available for pre-sale inspection in Barn 6. He enters the auction ring Nov. 12.

Bred in Kentucky by Three Chimneys Farm and originally sold for $2.1 million as a Keeneland September yearling, Beatbox won six of 20 career starts and earned $427,248. He was campaigned by owners Jeff Ganje and Rob Comestro.

"Beatbox is the type of horse you love to train," trainer Cherie DeVaux said. "He was solid and consistent in his races, and a joy around the barn."

Ganje added, "Beatbox had a little setback in training, so our team collectively felt it was time to retire him We believe he is an outstanding and well-rounded stallion prospect, and we are excited to point him toward this next stage of his progression."

IN ORDER OF PURSE:

7th-Horseshoe Ind., $32K, Msw, 10-1, 2yo, 1m, 1:40.36, ft, nose
BLAMEITONBOURBON (c, 2, Authentic--Beyond Blame {GSW, $238,630}, by Blame) has sporting consistent works, including a recent four-furlong move (:48 4/5, 3/9) in the slop here Sept. 27. Sent off at 5-1 to get going, the homebred sat back at the break, spotting the field several lengths heading into the first turn. Well behind as 9-5 choice Marshal (Justify) led through an opening quarter in :24.07, the bay--running very greenly--caught the trailing rank as the leaders cut out a half in :48.99. Closing ground on the outside approaching the quarter pole, Blameitonbourbon swept into the stretch five wide as Marshal held on to a short advantage over Truth Bomb (Tapit) straightening for home. With the favorite wilting in the final sixteenth, Blameitonbourbon hooked Truth Bomb late and it was the Brad Cox trainee that won the bob at the wire. The favorite was a clear third. With the victory, Blameitonbourbon becomes the 11th winner for his freshman sire (by Into Mischief). His graded-stakes winning dam Beyond Blame, who brought $800,000 at Keeneland last November while in foal to Life Is Good, is already responsible for GISP Loggins (Ghostzapper, $175,500). Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $19,200.

LAKE CUMBERLAND (c, 2, Bernardini--Waterside, by Medaglia d'Oro), fourth last time over this track and trip Aug. 27, was installed the 6-5 choice to get off the mark here. Sent to the front early, the Godolphin homebred led throughout en route to a 6-length score over Grand Morning (Instagrاند). Waterside, out of SP Dubai Belle (Mr. Prosector), is a half sister to GI Ashland winner Little Belle (A.P. Indy), who went on to produce Grade I turf mare Dickinson (Medaglia d'Oro), in addition to Dubai Dancer (A.P. Indy), dam of Canadian Champion 3-year-old Filly Munnyfor Ro (Munnings). The first foal to race for the 7-year-old mare, Lake Cumberland also has a year-younger brother by Nyquist and a foal sister by Essential Quality. This represents the extended family of GISW Prospectors Delite (Mr. Prosector), dam of Horse of the Year Mineshaft (A.P. Indy). Lifetime Record: 3-1-0-0, $20,250.
