

ALL TO PLAY FOR IN SIRES' CHAMPIONSHIPS

Frankel: has a fight on his hands to retain the title of Britain and Ireland's champion sire | Juddmonte

By Adam Houghton

It's that time of year where most of the stories in the bloodstock world are being written in the sales ring, with the ink used to tell the tale of Book 1 of the Goffs Orby Sale still fresh on the page and the major plotlines ahead of next week's Tattersalls October Yearling Sale already starting to take shape.

But as the search continues for the Classic winners of 2026, it's worth also reminding ourselves of the many stories still waiting to be written on the racecourse in the closing chapter of 2024, arguably the most gripping and informative of all.

As Paul Hayward said in his TDN column of a couple of weeks ago, "Autumn brings a vast harvest of delights. Enjoy the feast."

One of the main dishes will be served up at Longchamp on Sunday with the running of the Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe, but the waiter's recommendation for bloodstock enthusiasts is not to skip Saturday's appetiser at Newmarket, the Sun Chariot Stakes, a Group 1 where the outcome could go some way to answering the first of our big questions heading into the autumn.

YEARLINGS BY ACCLAMATION AND SUPREMACY SHARE TOP LOT STATUS AT ORBY BOOK 2

By Brian Sheerin

Book 2 of the Goffs Orby Sale kicked off with joint top lots by Acclamation (GB) and Supremacy (Ire) at €80,000 with the gavel falling to trainer Johnny Murtagh and American buyers Legion Bloodstock respectively.

The Acclamation colt was consigned by Clare Manning of Bohergy Stud while the Supremacy filly was offered by Yeomanstown Stud and completed a strong spend from the overseas buyers throughout Book 1 and 2 at Kildare Paddocks this week.

Lot 611 represented a decent piece of business for Manning's client who sourced the colt out of black-type performer and proven producer Ascot Family (Ire) (Desert Style {Ire}) for €40,000 as a foal. Cont. p8

Can Frankel Retain his Title as Champion Sire in Britain and Ireland?

To call it a famine for Frankel (GB) during the first part of 2024 might be an exaggeration, but his hold on the crown he won in 2023, for the second time in three years, has certainly been jeopardised by a slow start to the campaign. For context, it wasn't until Lake Victoria (Ire) won last month's Moyglare Stud Stakes at the Curragh that he came up with a Group 1 winner in Europe this year, before the same filly doubled that tally with victory in last weekend's Cheveley Park Stakes at Newmarket.

Now, after The Euphrates (GB) won the extremely valuable Irish Cesarewitch, barely 24 hours on from Lake Victoria's Cheveley Park success, Frankel suddenly finds himself with at least a fighting chance of reeling in Dubawi (Ire), Galileo (Ire) and Dark Angel (Ire) in what is shaping up to be a tantalising championship race.

Dubawi, Britain and Ireland's champion sire in 2022, currently leads old sparring partner Galileo by around £120,000, with Dark Angel barely able to be separated from Coolmore's 12-time champion in third. Then there's Frankel, who trails the pacesetter Dubawi by around £280,000 and needs his flagbearers to show some hunger for the feast ahead.

The Sun Chariot, worth £155,953 to the winner, could be where it starts with Frankel responsible for two leading contenders in Inspiral (GB) and Nashwa (GB), both mares who made significant contributions to his championship win in 2023. It's been tougher going all round this year--Inspiral has essentially looked a shadow of her former self in three starts and Nashwa has been off the track since contesting March's Dubai Turf--but there would be no time like the present where their sire is concerned for them to rediscover their former glories.

Inspiral gained the first of her six career top-level victories when landing the Fillies' Mile in the year Frankel won his first title in 2021. That contest, offering £283,550 to the winner, could be the next port of call for Lake Victoria, with the aim of becoming the first horse in Europe to win three Group 1 races as a two-year-old since Air Force Blue in 2015.

The Ballydoyle filly already dominates the ante-post betting for next year's 1,000 Guineas and Oaks. That bodes well for Frankel's prospects of future championship success, so too what happened at Book 1 of the Orby Sale where he was responsible for the only two seven-figure lots and blew his rivals out of the water in terms of average (€730,000) and aggregate (€4,380,000).

On the racecourse, however, the Frankel story is far from the only one in town this autumn.

That of Dubawi just keeps on giving for Charlie Appleby and Godolphin, with the unbeaten two-year-old colt Ancient Truth (Ire) waiting to write another chapter when he lines up in the Dewhurst Stakes, while the late, great Galileo has the makings of a strong team for Champions Day with the likes of Kyprios (Ire) (Long Distance Cup), Content (Ire) (Fillies And Mares Stakes) and Prague (Ire) (likely to be supplemented for the Queen Elizabeth II Stakes) all right in the mix. What a fitting epilogue it would be if they could combine to deliver their sire a thirteenth title.

And then there's the O'Callaghan family's beloved homebred Dark Angel, who has perhaps the most heartwarming story of all to tell if he could become the first champion sire to stand at their Yeomanstown Stud. He has an ace card to play, too, in the shape of his Queen Anne Stakes and Prix Jacques le Marois hero Charyn (Ire), sure to be a warm order when he goes for the £623,810 on offer to the winner of the QEII.

Given that Dark Angel is already around £160,000 ahead of Frankel, Ascot glory for Charyn alone would push him to the sort of heights that makes Saturday's Sun Chariot must-win territory for the current title holder.

Could an Autumn of Firsts Await Sea The Stars?

Sea The Stars (Ire) currently sits just outside of the top five sires in Britain and Ireland this year, one place behind Kingman (GB), but there's still plenty to play for with the Giltown Stud resident, starting with the Arc, Europe's middle-distance championship in which he enjoyed his own crowning moment, 15 years ago on Friday.

Cloth Of Stars (Ire), runner-up to Enable (GB) (Nathaniel {Ire}) in 2017, and Sea Of Class (Ire), beaten just a short neck behind the same horse 12 months later, have gone closest to becoming Sea The Stars's first Arc winner as a sire, and now the task of trying to get him off the mark rests with a pair of Wertheimer homebreds, Sosie (Ire) and Aventure (Ire).

Prix de Pomone winner and Prix Vermeille runner-up Aventure is sure to have plenty of each-way supporters as a three-year-old filly getting all of the allowances, but it's the Andre Fabre-trained Sosie who heads the ante-post betting following his wins in the Grand Prix de Paris and Prix Niel.

Darley

Sosie might not have looked anything out of the ordinary in two starts as a juvenile--nor when finishing third in the Prix du Jockey Club on his second start this season--but he's really come into his own since being stepped up to a mile and a half, a familiar tale when it comes to progeny of Sea The Stars, following in the footsteps of Crystal Ocean (GB), Emily Upjohn (GB), Harzand (Ire), Hukum (Ire) and Taghrooda (GB), as well as his Arc silver medallists.

Of course, there are exceptions to every rule. See the outstanding Baaed (GB), a five-time Group 1 winner over a mile, or the other great hope for Sea The Stars this autumn, many people's idea of the champion juvenile-elect in The Lion In Winter (Ire).

Never before has Sea The Stars produced a Group 1-winning two-year-old, but The Lion In Winter will go to the Dewhurst with a favourite's chance judged on the form of his win in the Acomb Stakes at York, beating the subsequent Royal Lodge Stakes winner Wimbledon Hawkeye (GB) and Tattersalls Stakes scorer The Waco Kid (Ire) (Mehmas {Ire}).

Already at the head of the ante-post betting for next year's 2,000 Guineas and Derby, The Lion In Winter was purchased by MV Magnier for €375,000 at Book 1 of the Orby Sale when offered by the Castlebridge Consignment on behalf of the Tsui family, who bred him under the banner of their Sunderland Holdings.

Twelve months on and a colt from a similar background starred at Kildare Paddocks on Wednesday when selling to Godolphin for €900,000. Of the 15 yearlings by Sea The Stars offered, 13 sold at an average of €235,385.

Only time will tell whether there's a Classic contender of 2026 among them--or his 22 yearlings catalogued to sell at Book 1 of the October Yearling Sale--but we'll know soon enough whether Sea The Stars can succeed in adding an Arc winner and/or a champion two-year-old to his already glittering CV.

Can Economics Continue the Irresistible Rise of Night Of Thunder?

The catalogue for Book 1 of the October Yearling Sale also features no fewer than 25 yearlings by Darley's Night Of Thunder (Ire), the emerging force on the Kildangan Stud roster and sire of arguably the most exciting horse in training right now, Economics (GB).

Connections of the Derby, Eclipse and International winner City Of Troy (Justify) might have something to say about that, but it's a statement made with one eye on the future and what Economics might yet achieve, having left the impression we've only scratched the surface of his potential in winning all four of his starts as a three-year-old, culminating with a first top-level success in the Irish Champion Stakes at Leopardstown. Cont. p6

Physically, everything about Economics suggests he'll make an even better four-year-old, but first there's the small matter of the Champion Stakes at Ascot and a box office clash with French challenger Calandagan (Ire) (Gleneagles {Ire}), last seen filling the runner-up spot behind City Of Troy in the International at York.

Victory at Ascot would well and truly cement Economics's place in the very top bracket, so too that of a sire who has gone from strength to strength since his first crop of two-year-olds hit the track in 2019.

Night Of Thunder was already the sire of three individual top-level winners before Economics came along, including the high-class sprinting mare Highfield Princess (Fr), a four-time Group 1 scorer, but there can be no doubt that this colt is his standout runner to date, while a worthy supporting cast promises to take him to new heights, if not this year then almost certainly next.

Godolphin's Prix du Prince d'Orange winner Ombudsman (Ire) has looked another three-year-old of huge potential in winning his four starts to date, while the return of Fairy Godmother (Ire) in 2025 is eagerly anticipated, the juvenile filly who has been kept off the track since coming from what looked an impossible position to win the Albany Stakes at Royal Ascot.

Closer to hand, May Hill Stakes winner Desert Flower (Ire) will get the opportunity to prove herself a two-year-old out of the top drawer when she lines up in the Fillies' Mile, before attentions then turn to Economics and his bid for the £737,230 on offer to the winner of the Champion Stakes.

Night Of Thunder is yet to finish higher than twelfth on the leading sires' list in Britain and Ireland, but the Ascot bounty would all but guarantee him a place well inside the top ten. Cont. p7

That's already the sort of company Night Of Thunder is keeping when it comes to events in the sales ring. At the Arqana August Yearling Sale, for example, he had the highest average (€612,000) of any stallion with five selling for an aggregate of €3,060,000, while at Book 1 of the Orby Sale his six yearlings sold achieved an average of €333,333, behind only the dominant Frankel among the top ten sires.

Expect more of the same at the October Yearling Sale where Economics himself sold for 160,000gns at Book 2 in 2022.

Who will be Crowned Europe's Leading First-Season Sire?

The battle to be crowned champion sire in Britain and Ireland isn't the only one that looks destined to go right down to the wire this year.

Of the 2024 crop of first-season sires in Europe, the top six have all been represented by between 17 and 14 winners, with Sergei Prokofiev just about maintaining the advantage he's held more or less from the outset, having sired the winner of the first juvenile race of the season in Ireland, the subsequent Marble Hill Stakes scorer and Phoenix Stakes third Arizona Blaze (GB).

When colleague Emma Berry penned her Half-Term Sire Report towards the end of June, the week after Royal Ascot, Whitsbury Manor Stud's Sergei Prokofiev had sired nine individual winners, three more than his closest pursuer, Sands Of Mali (Fr), and four more than both Earthlight (Ire) and Hello Youmzain (Fr).

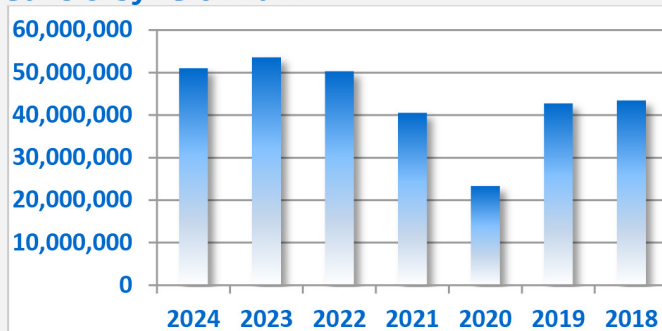

In the three months and change since, Sergei Prokofiev has added another eight winners to his tally, taking his overall tally to 17, while the three immediately behind him at the time of the last update have maintained their formation with nine winners apiece.

Instead, the biggest mover has been Beech House Stud resident Mohaather (GB), who was yet to get off the mark at the point when Sergei Prokofiev was fast approaching double digits. Now, he finds himself in a three-way tie for fourth with Earthlight and Hello Youmzain on 14 winners, including the Molecomb Stakes hero Big Mojo (Ire), Listed scorer Yah Mo Be There (GB) and Rockfel Stakes runner-up Serving With Style (GB).

The other new entry to the top six is Pinatubo (Ire), the Darley stallion of whom so much was expected at the start of this year given his own racecourse exploits. Timeform's highest-rated two-year-old for 25 years, he is yet to produce a juvenile of anything like his own calibre, and remains without a black-type winner, but numerically things are on the up with his 15 winners putting him in a share of second with Sands Of Mali. Cont. p8

That momentum could prove critical in a year like this when the bar seems likely to be relatively low in terms of the number of winners it takes to seal leading first-season sire status. There certainly isn't a Mehmas (Ire) (55 winners in 2020) or Blue Point (Ire) (49 in 2023), while you have to go back to 2018 and No Nay Never (29) for the last time it required less than 30 winners to come away with the crown.

Incidentally, the other thing No Nay Never did do that year to further distinguish himself from his contemporaries was to sire a Group 1-winning two-year-old, the Middle Park Stakes hero Ten Sovereigns (Ire), a feat that one of the class of 2024 has already achieved.

Kameko | Tweenhills

A tally of 10 winners will need improving upon to break into the top six, but Tweenhills stallion Kameko arguably made the biggest statement of all when his New Century (GB) won the Summer Stakes at Woodbine. The Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf is said to be next on his agenda, while it's far from out of the question that Kameko could end the season as the sire of two individual top-level winners should his Royal Lodge victor Wimbledon Hawkeye attempt to follow up in the Futurity Trophy.

Kristian Villante signed for the Supremacy co-topper | Goffs

Manning said, "Scarlett Mullion pinhooked him. She bought him off Alice Kavanagh for €40,000 so it's a good result. He came to me in June and has just thrived ever since. Scarlett pinhooked two foals last year. Unfortunately, one of the foals didn't meet her expectations in Orby Book 1 so he actually went into training with Johnny. Johnny has come back around and bought this one so hopefully he turns out to be lucky."

For Murtagh, he was simply returning to a source that had been lucky for him in the past.

He said, "I had a lot of luck over the years with Scarlett's granny Lady Clague. She was a pleasure to ride for [Winona, Key Change, Namid etc]. Scarlett gave a good report on the horse and he looks sharp and fast; a ready-made two-year-old. He could be one for the Goffs Bonuses and Million race. Hopefully after the weekend he'll look cheap."

The Legion Bloodstock team have certainly provided a bit of colour to Goffs all week. Rarely spotted without a smile, the American buyers have clearly made the most of their trip to Ireland and followed up their Book 1 spend by adding the Supremacy filly to the haul.

"We got three horses out of Book 2 last year so we said we'd stick around again," Kristian Villante explained. "We got a Starspangledbanner (Aus) colt for €300,000 in Book 1 and he is going to stay here. We also got a Sioux Nation filly that will stay here as well. We actually bought a couple of Advertisers between Book 1 and 2 and they will come back to the States. It's really about the physique, which is why we like Advertise (GB)."

On the Supremacy filly (lot 718), he added, "I'm very happy with what we got today. She's out of a More Than Ready mare and looked a lot like him. She will come home with us and is an easy sell. Looked like an American horse, actually. I think we got good value and we really love coming over here." Cont. p9

Thursday's co-topper, a Supremacy filly (lot 718) | Goffs

Of the 246 lots offered on day one, 175 were sold at a clearance rate of 70%. The median was down 23% to €15,000, the average fell 9% to €21,563 and the turnover also dipped 15% to €3,773,500.

Magic For Moanmore

The American flavour to the sale did not end there. Peter Vaughan of Moanmore Stables enjoyed a good result with a Tiz The Law colt (lot 662) bought in the States for just $8,000 selling to Eoin O'Sullivan for €60,000.

"We buy a few in Kentucky each year and liked this one as a model, so took a bit of a punt on him. We were just lucky that the sire has really taken off since," Vaughan said. "He's got a good chance of being champion freshman sire in America and he had a nice winner for Aidan O'Brien at Listowel just the other day. We wish the buyers every success with him."

Dods Does The Business

Henry Beeby implored buyers to shop the entirety of the sale rather than Book 1 and Michael Dods, who drew a blank in Book 1, made up for that by signing for three colts to the tune of €105,000 on Thursday. The spend was headed by a €70,000 Kodi Bear (Ire) from Railstown Stud with the British-based handler revealing that he would have one eye on the new Goffs-backed bonus races next year.

He said of lot 707, "It's a speedy pedigree. We didn't think we'd have to go to that far but it's a speedy pedigree and we're pleased to get him. This sale has been lucky for us so we like coming over here. We've got to look at the bonus races in Britain now and that definitely helps."

Pinhooking Fortunes On Thursday

Of the 260 horses catalogued during Thursday's session, 77 were pinhooks, and after a single withdrawal, 76 horses visited the ring. A total of 15 did not meet their reserves and were buy-backs, leaving 61 yearlings marked as sold. Of the latter group, 20 made a profit ranging from €700 to €43,700. Forty-one lots lost money.

We have multiplied the price of the foal by 1.1 and added a running cost of €12,000 for keep, feed, veterinary, shoeing, sales prep and sales entry fees. Depending on whether someone has their own farm, or where they choose to board a horse, will obviously mean that costs for each individual can vary significantly.

It is worth noting that sometimes a horse can appear to be bought and sold by different names but have actually not changed ownership at all.

Golden Touch

Hats off to Dan and Rory Maher of The Forge Stables in Templemore. The twin brothers won't be changing their address following the sale of their Twilight Son (GB) colt (lot 675) to Sean Grassick Bloodstock, but turning €1,500 into €30,000 in less than a year has to go down as a worthwhile exercise.

Dan said, "We loved his movement as a foal. Twilight Son is well able to get smart horses and hopefully he turns out to be lucky for the next man. It's a good day's work but we thought there was another few pound in him to be honest. In actual fact, I was disgusted he didn't make more because he's a belter!"

Buy of the Day

Donna Cowens and Nicky Souza de Oliveira of DNA Equine bought a nice horse on paper at least when snapping up a brother to Sylvester Kirk's smart two-year-old Brian (Ire) (Shaman {Ire}). Cont. p10

Michael Dods | Goffs

Being a January foal, there's no doubt that lot 589 should be up to the demands of breezing and could look well bought at €18,000 come the spring.

Thought for the Day

We can all agree that a clatter of €50,000 bonuses in Ireland and Britain for the horses bought at Goffs this week is a brilliant initiative. The Goffs Million will take place next year as well, which is another huge positive. But are these bonuses as accessible as everyone thinks? Having canvassed the opinion of a number of buyers—including some top trainers—at Goffs on Thursday, many shared that they decided against paying the €5,000 fee to be eligible for such incentives. The feedback from those buyers was that €5,000 is simply too much to ask owners to stump up on top of the purchase price. Goffs will argue that, if you're not in you can't win, and the carrot here is quite a lucrative one. But during a time when trainers are struggling enough as it is to get orders, it's hard to argue with the point being made about the entry fee being too high.

SOSIE AND LOOK DE VEGA HEAD ARC 16

by Tom Frary

A field of 16 will take part in Sunday's G1 Qatar Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe at ParisLongchamp, with Aidan O'Brien responsible for the only withdrawals on Thursday morning with the expected easy ground unsuitable for Auguste Rodin (Ire) (Deep Impact {Jpn}) and Luxembourg (Ire) (Camelot {GB}). That leaves the G1 Irish Derby hero Los Angeles (Ire) (Camelot {GB}) and Continuous (Jpn) (Heart's Cry {Jpn}) to represent Ballydoyle with the Wertheimers' G1 Grand Prix de Paris hero Sosie (Ire) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) currently shading favouritism for an open renewal of the mile-and-a-half monument.

Sosie, who bids to provide Andre Fabre with a record-extending ninth edition, has drawn favourably in five while Al Shaqab Racing and Ballylinch Stud's G1 Prix du Jockey Club winner Look De Vega (Fr) (Lope De Vega {Ire}) is in eight and Los Angeles will start from stall 10. Susumu Fujita's G1 Irish Champion Stakes third Shin Emperor (Fr) (Siyouni {Fr}) will attempt to bring Japan's long wait for an Arc hero to an end from stall 11, while Juddmonte's G1 Prix Vermeille and G1 Pretty Polly Stakes winner Bluestocking (GB) (Camelot {GB}) is in three. Drawn widest of all is Baron Edouard De Rothschild's multiple group 1 winner Mqse De Sevigne (Ire) (Siyouni {Fr}), while two other notables are the G1 Grosser Preis von Berlin winner Al Riffa (Fr) (Wootton Bassett {GB}) and Coolmore's Delius (GB) (Frankel {GB}) drawn in nine and seven respectively.

“It’s a real bonus I think,” he said at Salisbury. “I haven’t gone through it yet, but she’s tactically adaptable so we’ll ride our race to suit. She’s better at a mile and a half and whatever happens, she’s been a star.

To win two group 1s is as much or more than we had hoped for this year.”

One who could yet miss out is Liberty Racing’s Fantastic Moon (Ger) (Sea The Moon {Ger}), who was only 11th 12 months ago. The G1 Grosser Preis von Baden winner needs the ground to dry out according to the owners’ representative Lars-Wilhelm Baumgarten. “At this moment it is 50-50, we will wait for the ground on Sunday morning,” he said. “We hope for 3.5 on the French going stick, more than 3.6 is not good for him to bring his A-game so if the ground is more than 3.6, we will not run. We will decide on Sunday morning, if we get rain on Sunday we will wait to decide, perhaps after the first race or the second race. If not we will go to the Breeders’ Cup Turf, that’s our plan B.”

The Christophe Ferland-trained Vermeille runner-up Aventure (Ire) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) was confirmed for the main event in favour of the G1 Prix de l’Opera and the Wertheimer’s racing manager Pierre-Yves Bureau said, “I think she ran very well in the Vermeille and has won two group races this year over a mile and a half, so she loves the distance. We thought about the l’Opera, but we decided that might be a bit short for her and it was worth taking a chance against the colts in the big race. It is all related to the mile and a half that she needs.”

The Lead-Up...

Friday’s action at Saint-Cloud begins the long build-up to the ParisLongchamp showpiece, with the G3 Prix Thomas Bryon Club de Turquie looking at the mercy of Peter Maher, Carl Fitzgerald and John Baxter’s unbeaten TDN Rising Star Maranoa Charlie (Fr) (Wootton Bassett {GB}), rated the best he had trained by Christopher Head after his latest Chantilly romp. Ballydoyle’s star stayer Kyprios (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) faces four in Saturday’s G1 Qatar Prix du Cadran, while a field of 16 has been confirmed for a wide-open renewal of the same card’s G1 Qatar Prix de Royallieu and Newmarket’s G1 Sun Chariot Stakes features the soon-to-be-retired Inspir

(GB) (Frankel {GB}).

Inspir will be ridden by Robert Havlin on her probable swansong and he said on Thursday, “She’s won six group 1s, so I think anyone would be delighted to pick up the ride on her. I won on her first time out, I’ve ridden her out—I’ve lost count how many times I’ve ridden her work—and I also did some stalls work on her on Monday. Trying to get her out of the stalls a bit quicker, so just tweaking a few things.”

“Her last couple of pieces of work have been nice and she’s a filly that, apart from her 2-year-old career, has never actually been through the whole year without being beaten a couple of times before hitting a winning streak, so let’s hope. She’s never been beaten on the Rowley Mile, even though she’s only been there twice, but they were both group 1s so it’s a track she knows well and we are hoping for a big run.”

QUEEN OF THE HILL AT GULFSTREAM

Queen Olly | Ryan Thompson

In this series, the TDN takes a look at notable successes of European-based sires in North America. This week's column is highlighted by the victory of Queen Olly in Florida.

Queen Olly Reigns At Gulfstream

Amo Racing USA's Queen Olly (Ire) (No Nay Never) won her second straight start in the U.S. and first at Gulfstream Park on Sept. 27 (video). When in training in Britain with David Loughnane and then George Boughey, the 'TDN Rising Star' was placed in both the G2 Duchess of Cambridge Stakes and the Listed Bosra Sham Stakes for the former.

Now trained by Jorge Delgado, the 4-year-old was bred by Whitehall Stud. Consigned by her breeder to the Goffs Orby Sale, she was picked up for €300,000 by Alex Elliott and Ben McElroy on behalf of Amo Racing. The third foal and one of three winners out of the placed Galileo (Ire) mare Surprisingly (Ire), Queen Olly is a half-sister to Duchess of Cambridge Stakes heroine Persian Dreamer (Calyx {GB}), and a yearling colt by American Pharoah who made €300,000 when acquired by EBS from Whitehall Stud during Wednesday's Goffs Orby Sale. Her dam is a full-sister to G3 Kilternan Stakes hero Tiger Moth (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), who was second in both the G1 Irish Derby and the G1 Melbourne Cup, as well as a half-sister to the stakes winner and multiple group-placed Coach House (Ire) (Oasis Dream {GB}).

Coolmore's No Nay Never boasts a strike rate of 53 winners (55%) from 97 runners in the U.S. Nine of those are stakes winners (9%) with his trio of graded winners anchored by GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf heroine Meditate (Ire).

Repeat Winner

Now perfect in three trips to the post, Saint-Cloud maiden winner Zulu Kingdom (Ire) (Ten Sovereigns {Ire}) won his second graded stakes with a neck victory in the GII Pilgrim Stakes at Belmont at the Big A (video). The Madaket Stables, Michael Dubb, William Strauss and Michael Caruso silksbearer won the GIII With Anticipation Stakes on his American debut for Chad Brown in August. He is now a likely starter in the 1-mile GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf at Del Mar in November.

RACING FOUNDATION CONFERENCE HELD AT ASCOT

Over 300 delegates among the racing industry attended the Racing Foundation Conference at Ascot Racecourse on Wednesday, Oct. 2. The main themes of the conference were to build understanding and prompt collaboration around racing's social licence challenges.

Bob Langert, the former vice president of corporate social responsibility and sustainability at McDonald's, TedTalk speaker and author, delivered the keynote address.

Langert said, "During my time at McDonald's, we faced many detractors in the form of activist campaigns, books and movies and media coverage on multiple issues...One central reason for McDonald's not only surviving, but having continued success and growth, is that it took the importance of having public acceptance, protecting our brand and earning trust, very seriously.

"Horse racing faces similar challenges today in terms of public perception, specifically around whether the sport is safe, the treatment of its equine participants, and its place in society. For the sport not just to survive, but thrive in the future it must accept and engage with those challenges, as McDonald's did previously."

Jockey Club chief executive Nevin Truesdale was also among the speakers. There were several changes to the Grand National ahead of the 2024 edition of the race implemented by the Jockey Club, from reducing the maximum number of runners to moving the first fence 60 yards closer to the start. However, those changes met with a mixed reaction from those both in and outside of the sport.

Truesdale said of the Grand National, "It is a race we should all be extremely proud of. It's a race that is the main shop window of our sport and it's a race that we need to preserve and protect.

"But it's also a race for which we need to maintain its acceptability to society because it is one of racing's, and indeed Britain's, biggest sporting assets. It is our job to preserve it, look after it, evolve it and improve it."

Another issue discussed at the conference was youth engagement, as well as attracting the next generation of racegoers. Collaboration was also highlighted as vital, especially during the World Horse Welfare panel on public acceptance of horse sports, led by chief executive Roly Owens. Cont. p14

KEITH HAGGINS NAMED RACING WELFARE COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT OFFICER

Keith Haggins has been named the new Racing Welfare community engagement officer, the charity announced on Thursday.

Haggins will focus on the thoroughbred stud and breeding sector to raise awareness of and increase access to the charity's services. He has almost 30 years of experience in the thoroughbred breeding industry, and managed Waddesdon Stud for the late Lady Rothschild. His role is part of a three-year project made possible by funding from the Gerald Leigh Charitable Trust. Already, progress has been made in the project's first year, with a survey which gauged the current level of awareness of Racing Welfare services and the type of support required already completed.

Haggins said, "I'm incredibly excited to join Racing Welfare. I know the stud and breeding industry really well and am looking forward to capitalising on that for the benefit of others."

"I've already had some really positive meetings with many stakeholders including the Thoroughbred Breeders' Association and The National Stud and am looking forward to attending the upcoming sales at Tattersalls to meet those I'm trying to engage with and find out how we can improve understanding of, and access to, our vital services."

"I have a passion for all things surrounding mental health and have recently returned to education to become a Licenced Thrive programme coach; helping people with a wide range of issues including personal development."

Chloe Martin, Racing Welfare's head of community engagement, said, "We're delighted to welcome Keith to the team, and know that with his knowledge and passion for the sector, he will be an asset to the charity and to all those he supports."

"Through improved access to, and knowledge of, Racing Welfare's services, more people in the thoroughbred stud and breeding sector will be able to benefit from better physical and mental wellbeing."

The dam is a full-sister to the listed scorer Exhort (GB) and a half to the G1 Commonwealth Cup hero Golden Horde (Ire) and the Listed Cathedral Stakes winner Line Of Departure (Ire) (Mehmas {Ire}). The G3 Musidora Stakes-placed dam is a full-sister to the listed-placed Isabella (Ire) who in turn produced the GIII La Jolla Handicap scorer Maltese Falcon (Caravaggio). From the family of the G3 Bengough Stakes winner Lightning Moon (Ire) (Shamardal) and the GI Vanity Stakes heroine Love Theway Youare (Arch), Pandora's yearling filly by No Nay Never is named Cape Sounion (Ire) while she also has a colt foal by the same sire. Coaxed clear from there, the half-sister to No Nay Never's G1 July Cup and G1 Middle Park Stakes-winning sire Ten Sovereigns (Ire) had a comfortable 1 1/2-length margin to spare over Char (Ire) (New Bay {GB}) at the line. "She was very green and didn't really know what to do, which was what I expected as she's a big tall filly who I think will furnish significantly over the winter," Beckett said, before revealing that the winner would tread the same path as Remarquee. "There is much to look forward to I think and that'll be it for the year. Hopefully, we'll be able to get her ready for the [G3] Fred Darling or something like that, as she's potentially a Guineas filly. I wouldn't think she'll get more than a mile, being a half to Ten Sovereigns." The listed-placed dam is out of the G3 Derrinstown Stud 1,000 Guineas Trial Stakes runner-up Flamelet (Theatrical), who also produced the G2 Al Fahidi Fort runner-up Flash Fire (Ire) by Lope De Vega's sire Shamardal. Listed Prix de Bonneval Cont.

Second in the Listed Chelmer Fillies' Stakes at Chelmsford in May before unplaced efforts in Royal Ascot's Palace Of Holyrood House Handicap and the Listed Prix du Cercle at Deauville in August, Tazara showed that testing ground holds no fears as she registered a breakthrough black-type win. On the front end from the outset, she was tough and tenacious to see off her proven elder Le Cadeau and assert close home.

"I've always liked her and she was not well at Deauville, but had a good break on the farm and runs well fresh," trainer Christophe Ferland explained. "She'll go back to the farm now and either be sold or kept for next season when she will have lots of opportunities."

Taking the black-type tally of wins for her second-crop sire to a dozen, Tazara is the second foal out of the dam to make a mark in smart company alongside her G3 Molecomb Stakes-placed half-brother Mr Lightside (Ire) (Earthlight {Ire}). The second dam is the G1 Phoenix Stakes heroine Damson (Ire) (Entrepreneur {GB}), with the family featuring the multiple group 1 winner Dubai Honour (Ire) (Pride Of Dubai {Aus}). L'Explora's filly foal is by Dark Angel (Ire).

SPIRIT DANCER AIMS TO DEFEND BAHRAIN INTERNATIONAL TROPHY CROWN

Spirit Dancer (GB) (Frankel {GB}), who won the 2023 G2 Bahrain International Trophy, will attempt to add the 2024 edition to his haul as the first dual winner of the $1-million race, as the entry list was released on Thursday. The Richard Fahey trainee, who is owned by Sir Alex Ferguson, Ged Mason and Peter Done, will face rivals from seven countries outside the Kingdom of Bahrain.

Fahey said of his G2 Neom Turf Cup hero who has been off the course since a run in Dubai at the end of March, "Spirit Dancer is in great form. He will have a prep run at Newmarket in the Darley Stakes, following the same route that he took last year. We all had an amazing trip and experience in Bahrain and the team are really looking forward to going back this year."

The race will be held at the Rashid Equestrian & Horseracing Club in Bahrain on Nov. 15 and has attracted 61 entries, 45 of them black-type winners. There are 10 Group 1 winners signed on including Joseph O'Brien's Al Riffa (Fr) (Wootton Bassett {GB}), Aidan O'Brien's Luxembourg (Ire) (Camelot {GB}), Charlie Appleby's GI Arlington Million hero Nations Pride (Ire) (Teofilo {Ire}), a pair of German Group 1 winners in Fantastic Moon (Ger) (Sea The Moon {Ger}) and Calif (Ger) (Areion {Ger}), three-time Group 1 winner Nashwa (GB) (Frankel {GB}), Anmaat (Ire) (Awtaad {Ire}) for Owen Burrows and Jerome Reynier's Facteur Cheval (Ire) (Ribchester {Ire}). The race has also drawn a couple of high class former Classic runners in G1 Derby runner-up Ambiente Friendly (Ire) (Gleneagles {Ire}) and G1 Irish Derby runner-up and top-level winner Sunway (Fr) (Galiway {GB}).

Japan is represented for the first time among the Bahrain International Trophy entries by Group 1 scorer Killer Ability (Jpn) (Deep Impact {Jpn}) for trainer Takashi Saito, as well as Takeshi Okumura's Ho O Biscuits (Jpn) (Mind Your Biscuits), and Yoshito Yahagi charge Mr G T (Jpn) (Duramente {Jpn}).

Ed Veale, director of racing and international relations for the Bahrain Turf Club said, "We are delighted that the Bahrain International Trophy has attracted entries of such quality and it is great to see so many different countries represented. The event's status in the racing calendar is growing year on year and to have attracted Japanese based horses for the first time is testament to that."

"It is also exciting that Spirit Dancer and his connections are returning to Bahrain to defend their crown. He is part of a strong European team of entries that includes Group 1 performers from France, Germany, Ireland and the United Kingdom.

"To have a total of 61 entries representing eight different countries, featuring 45 stakes race winners, including 10 that have scored at the highest level, is fantastic and a reward for the sustained investment in the race by the Bahrain Turf Club."

GAMING SHOWS BENEFIT OF A POSITIVE VIEW

Joe and Courtney Pickerrell | Fasig-Tipton

by Chris McGrath

Some people only look for difficulties. Others seek solutions.

Between those categories, it's not hard to place Joe Pickerrell and his wife Courtney. Having attended a couple of family weddings in South Africa, and been blown away by the venue each time, they struggled to find anywhere remotely comparable when planning their own nuptials back in Florida. Well, they thought, that was not just frustrating. Might it also be a business opportunity? So they found this amazing 1850 barn in Canada, dismantled it, and had it shipped and reassembled, beam by beam, on their farm. They're now staging 60 services a year.

For a less positive approach to life, however, we might cite the people who crowded round their Pick View consignment at OBS back in March to check out the Game Winner colt they had found at Keeneland the previous September.

The Pickerrells are increasingly helping clients who race their stock, but at Keeneland they were purely on the pinhook trail. As usual, they split up the barns and made their preliminary picks. Luckily, they seem to use a common filter for a final list.

"I've looked at horses with a lot of folks in my life, and it's very seldom that their tastes are as similar as mine and hers," Pickerrell says. "Courtney's a very good judge of a horse, maybe even a little more critical than me. Anyway our list that day ended up being pretty short."

KEENELAND FALL OPENS WITH ALCIBIADES ON MASSIVE GRADED STAKES WEEKEND

by J.N. Campbell

Tickets, please! Keeneland's fall meet has the turnstiles primed Friday and that means the featured GI Darley Alcibiades Stakes will fill the apron on what promises to be massive weekend with some 30 graded races across North America—half of which have Breeders' Cup implications.

The signature top-level race at the site of the Old Keene Farm was named for a foundational mare who was bred at Hal Price Headley's Beaumont—where modern-day Mill Ridge resides. Alcibiades won the 1930 Kentucky Oaks for Headley, who was one the Keeneland Association's founders and its president from 1935 to 1951.

Looking to honor this mare's legacy, throw down around two turns for the first time and earn a "Win and You're In" spot for the GI NetJets Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies is a field of seven.

Really it was all about this son of Game Winner, bred by Mount Brilliant from a well-related Johannesburg mare.

"I found him in Book 4 at Lane's End," Pickerrell recalls. "He was in one of those express lanes, where they're showing a lot of horses to a lot of people for the first time. And he kind of ruined the rest of the day for me. I probably missed a lot of horses afterwards, but I just couldn't quit thinking about that guy."

The sire was making only a steady debut at the sales, but it had been similar for Palace Malice when the Pickerrells found Structor back in 2018. The subsequent GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf winner cost $160,000 and was turned round at OBS for $850,000, their biggest hit to date.

"So the freshman sire angle has been successful for us," Pickerrell says. "Game Winner might have been a little bit under the radar, at that point, but this one had everything we looked for in a horse. We've had a lot of luck with big, two-turn colts that look like they'll go a route of ground, while also having enough speed to complete the task of the 2-year-old sales--which is, of course, very challenging. We ask a lot of these horses, so they need a lot of substance and quality to get through the process. So he made my list and then later in the day he got by the tough list, which is my wife's. And we were lucky enough to get him bought for $40,000."

They took him down to Ocala and, their standard procedure, turned him out for a spell.

Game Winner | Lane's End

"Usually in groups," Pickerrell explains. "At least two, sometimes four, depending on the paddock. I like to get them out and socialized, just let them be a horse for a little, make sure they're not going to get sick or have any side effects from coming through the sale. And then we just go through the regular breaking process and go forward." Cont.

They broke around 100 last year, roughly half and half between those preparing for the sales and the track.

"They're all on the same program until about New Year, when the early sale horses start a little more speed work," Pickerrell says. "Every client's a little different in how they prefer their horses to leave my place. We have one guy who really doesn't care whether or not they run as 2-year-olds. Another guy, that will be his priority. So we kind of gear the program not only around the individual horse, but keep in mind which trainer they'll be joining, how far they'll want to go, things like that."

It doesn't take long to start sorting wheat from chaff.

"By about Thanksgiving, we tend to know if we made any mistakes or not," Pickerrell says. "Those will start to separate the wrong way. And meanwhile the cream starts to rise, and we can start to get excited about them."

The Game Winner colt was soon pushing his way to the front of the line.

"Yeah, he was always class," Pickerrell recalls. "The kind the riders fight over. He went through the stages just as easy as you can. I'll tell you how early we knew this was a special guy. We've got a very good client that's just getting started in the breeding game. And early in the spring they called and said, 'Who are you liking?' I told them Game Winner. Both their mares are now in foal to him."

And, as we'll see, this colt has meanwhile made them feel very satisfied with that counsel. But first came the auction, and those critical few seconds on which months of work turn.

"You can never expect a horse to breeze 20-and-two," Pickerrell reflects. "I mean, that's a fifth off the track record, and we're talking about a big, two-turn colt. So you never know what's going to happen. What I did know is that I had about 24 horses in that sale, and he was one of the best. And, yeah, he showed as much as any horse we've ever had."

But this is where we go back to what we were saying about people who look for difficulties. On the face of it, the Pickerrells were sitting on a seven-figure payday. Trouble was, the horse was straying to amber on his X-rays.

"I think it's about time these buyers start translating race results and performance instead of letting the veterinarians control these sales," Pickerrell declares. "We obviously need our vets, to assist us, but the pendulum has swung so far now. That horse had 20 vets at the March sale--and 19 failed him.

"But it just goes to show you: Bob Baffert, one of the best trainers in the world, and Donato Lanni were smart enough--after their first vet actually failed the horse--to get a second and third opinion. They had enough confidence not only in the horse, but in my program and my word. He was a sound horse. He was less than perfect, on his X-rays, but guess what? Still is, to this day." Cont.

He continued: "And he's one of the best 2-year-olds in the country."

That's because this colt is Gaming, who romped on debut for Michael E. Pegram, Karl Watson and Paul Weitman ("The Three Amigos") before following up in the GI Del Mar Futurity. With the Breeders' Cup coming to his backyard, this is perhaps the leading juvenile on the West Coast. Because of all that timid vetting, however, a sensational breeze converted to no more than $260,000.

Gaming | Benoit

"Obviously it cost us a lot of money," says Pickerrell with a shrug. "There are some veterinarians out there looking pretty silly. But I realize they're just doing what they're asked to do. I think it's more of an owner issue than a vet issue."

With horses, of course, things are seldom black or white. Pickerrell dislikes the whole idea that one should "pass" or "fail" the vet.

"I feel like it's up to the owners to have a little more courage when these horses look like they can run," he argues. "If they only buy the ones that are perfect on the vetting, well, they're going to end up with a lot of slow horses. Many of the best runners I've been around had some kind of issue. I mean, look at what Cogburn's doing."

Ah, yes--another stellar talent to have learned his trade at Pick View. Cogburn (Not This Time) was a successful pinhook for Clarmont Bloodstock Club ($52,000 KeeNov weanling to $310,000 Fasig July yearling) only to be returned with an eye issue. Josh Stevens, who works with Clarmont, sent the horse to Pickerrell but he still made no more than $150,000 after clocking 20:3/5 at OBS Spring.

"Fastest colt in the sale, and now the fastest horse in the world!" says Pickerrell with a smile. "Actually I found some videos the other day, from when I was breaking him, and he was always an amazing looking horse." Cont.

"Josh has bought a couple of good ones off us, and he's a good judge. These things all come full circle. At the end of the day, you need results. If good horses keep coming out of your barn, year after year, I think eventually people start taking your word a little more. I begged everybody that had a checkbook to buy Gaming. Nobody but Donato was strong enough [to beat the reserve]. Looks quite a bargain now."

Cogburn | Sarah Andrew

From the same crop as Cogburn, moreover, emerged another terrific sprinter in Skelly (Practical Joke). The $350,000 Saratoga yearling failed to meet his reserve, having come up with a minor X-ray issue, but has since stood up to a 10-for-18 career and banked $1.75 million.

"He was another fast breezer but we couldn't get him sold," Pickerrell says. "So he's actually still owned by the same guys that bought him as a yearling, Frank Alosa and his crew [Chris Hicks of Red Lane Thoroughbreds]. And now he'll probably go and make some noise at the Breeders' Cup, too."

Like Skelly, Gulfport (Uncle Mo) went from Pick View to Steve Asmussen--for whom he became one of the best juveniles of his crop.

"He came through the program, though was actually sold privately off the farm," Pickerrell explains. "But he was showing all the signs that he was going to breeze lights out. Steve has really helped us along, in terms of letting some of our kids shine on the racetrack. We owe him a lot."

But the Pickerrells themselves plainly deserve much credit, too, so many alert runners having graduated from their academy in barely a dozen years. Nor has all this happened by accident, both having put in long apprenticeships to get here. Courtney actually had a barrel racing background, while Joe's family raced "a lot of cheap claiming horses at the smaller tracks" round Ohio. They met at college in Florida, after which Joe learned the ropes with some of the best programs in the neighborhood, including Courtlandt and Mayberry.

"Eventually I ended up getting an opportunity to break some horses on my own," Pickerrell recalls. "We started off small, and had a little luck our first year. Actually, the first we sold for a nice price [$220,000 OBS Spring 2012] was to Three Amigos. So it's all come full circle."

Literally so, in fact, with the horse in question--Doctor Dempsey (Harlan's Holiday)--having returned to the farm on retirement.

"He won some races and then ended up workmate for Hoppertunity," Pickerrell explains. "A couple of nieces and nephews rode him until they went off to college, and now he's in about his fifth career. He's a pretty amazing horse, has done a lot of cool stuff: barrel racing, jumping, showing. He helped buy us our first farm, so we made sure he got a good landing at the end of it."

Pickerrell marvels at how Cortney transferred her skills from a different discipline to the Thoroughbred.

"She's a very talented horse person," he emphasizes. "Obviously racehorses weren't in her blood, but she took to it like a duck to water. I mean, you see her work the sales and you'll hear it from a lot of people: she's just a natural."

Nowadays, of course, the 2-year-old market depends pretty inflexibly on the stopwatch--but Pickerrell is not one of those consignors who resent that reality.

"I mean, there's arguments for, against, whatever," he says. "But there's a reason we clock these horses. Continuously, these fast horses are winning important races. And, last time I checked, horse racing is a competition--and the fastest horse wins. Cont.

"If it stops being a competition, okay, then I'd agree changes could be made that better suit the marketability of some horses. But if I were buying a bunch of 2-year-olds at a sale, I'd want to put on the clock. Because a lot of the graded stakes horses that came out of our program were fast breezers. And there's not very many fast breezers that came out of our program that do not become good racehorses."

Nonetheless this is not a game for the fainthearted. If you're left holding the baby, you have few salvage options beyond racing a horse yourself.

"So even the day you buy them, you're already thinking about which sale you'll be aiming at," Pickerrell says. "You might even have an idea of who could buy them. The most important day, in the whole time you have a horse, is the day you buy them. That's when you make your money--if you can find the right horse at the right price. But it's tough, because we have champagne taste on a beer budget. You're trying to hit a small target at a high speed. And if you miss, it's a lonely place."

The whole process demands resilience of a young horse, and duly a shrewd assessment of temperament through a fleeting window at the yearling sales.

Joe Pickerrell | Photos by Z

"Yeah, that's very important," Pickerrell says. "They've got to have a good mind. But if you're listening, they will talk to you. They'll tell you a lot of things you need to know. You only have a minute or two and, oftentimes, if the horse doesn't have the physical qualities that meet our protocol, you'll probably pass on pretty quickly. But if they do, then you spend a little bit more time, try to get a bit of a gauge on them. Put your hands on, just get a feel for what the horse is."

"And we're lucky enough to get advice from guys that have been doing it a long time, including some mentors of ours, besides being friendly with a lot of the consignors, the show people, the guys in the barns. You have to ask questions." Cont.

"There's a lot of information available if you just ask the right ones. Same as we recommend people buying horses from us to ask questions. Sometimes they do, but often they don't."

Ultimately, no less than anyone else in the business, you can only put yourself in a position to let luck find you. But you will need that luck.

"That's right," Pickerrell says. "That's the beauty about this game. There are twists and turns to every story. A lot of very successful folks started out with a little bit of nothing. We certainly started out with very little, and it's still a lot of work. But we've a lot to be thankful for, a lot going on. It's been a journey, but we're still just getting rolling."

The Queens M G (Thousand Words) elected to stay in New York for the GI Frizette Stakes on Saturday.

Godolphin homebred Immersive (Nyquist) makes a strong case for why she is the Alcibiades deserving favorite after the Brad Cox trainee won over the mud in the GI Spinaway Stakes at Saratoga on the last day of August. The runner-up that day was 'TDN Rising Star' Quietside (Malibu Moon). The Shortleaf homebred earned that badge of distinction with a maiden-breaking score by 6 1/4 lengths upstate Aug. 4.

The Keeneland apron during the fall meet | Keeneland

"We could tell she was special," said Quietside's trainer John Ortiz. "She just looked the part. We watched her train, and she had the right attitude. Sure enough when she started breezing, you could see all of her ability starting to shine through. I told [Shortleaf owner] Mr. John Ed Anthony 'this one might have it' and she has proven me right."

Immersive takes the Spinaway over Quietside | Sarah Andrew

As this pair renew their rivalry, the Spinaway's third-place finisher Sherbini (Cairo Prince) has also drawn. The rest of the field appears intriguing with second-out winner Quickkick (McKinzie), GIII Pocahontas Stakes runner-up Liam in the Dust (Liam's Map), undefeated Continuity (Speightster) and surface switcher Rich City Girl (City of Light).

The Keeneland card also includes the GIII Stoll Keenon Ogden Phoenix Stakes which offers entry into the newly sponsored GI Cygames Breeders' Cup Sprint.

On top of the morning-line odds is Nakatomi (Firling Line) who has enjoyed three wins over the local course. The gelding trained by Wesley Ward was the runner-up in the Phoenix last year and he comes back to Keeneland off a score in the GI Alfred G. Vanderbilt Handicap at Saratoga in late July.

Looking to net his first graded stakes is Federal Judge (Army Mule). The WinStar and Siena Farms 4-year-old ran up the score by six lengths against optional claimers at the Spa Aug. 31. Also, it would not be a Keeneland meet without some invaders from Gulfstream Park. Comedy Town (Speightstown) and Swirvin (Girvin) will represent the Sunshine State under trainer Saffie Joseph, Jr. Cont.

The Haggin Turf Course will once again host the GII Jessamine Stakes and up for grabs is a pass to GI John Deere Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf. The last time trainer Rusty Arnold celebrated a Jessamine win it was in 2018 with Concrete Rose (Twirling Candy). Six years on, Arnold rolls into Keeneland with Totally Justified (Justify) who won the P.G. Johnson Stakes at Saratoga Aug. 28.

The filly is up against a field which includes a trio of Kentucky Downs debut winners in Isle of Capri (Munnings), Destino d'Oro (Bolt d'Oro) and Correto (English Channel). May Day Ready (Tapit) won the bob over Ballerina d'Oro (Medaglia d'Oro) at Saratoga in early August, then the 2-year-old captured the Juvenile Fillies Stakes at Kentucky Downs. Both will see one another again in the Jessamine.

One More For Good Measure

Not to be left out of the 'Win and You're In' festivities on Friday is the GIII Futurity Stakes at the Big A. With passage to the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf Sprint at stake, the field sports a pair from Todd Pletcher's shedrow.

Gate to Wire (Munnings) did not quite live up to his name, but the colt did graduate at first asking for Donegal Racing at the Spa Aug. 30. Trying turf for the first time is stablemate Mentee (City of Light), a full-brother to last year's champion 2-year-old Fierceness. The Repole homebred was well-beaten in the GI Hopeful Stakes upstate as the meet closed.

Not to be overlooked are a pair with a bit of history. Under Who's Radar (Violence), who was taken down and placed second after he was disqualified in the Juvenile Sprint Stakes at Kentucky Downs Sept. 1, will get another crack at the horse who benefitted from his foul, Chasing Liberty (Constitution).

AFLEET EQUINE ON THE RISE AT OBS

by Jessica Martini

Brittany Updike has been consigning under her Afleet Equine Services banner for five years now, but will offer her biggest group to date when she brings an 18-horse consignment to next week's Ocala Breeders' Sales Company's October Yearling Sale.

A native Floridian, Updike is no stranger to major consignments. She's worked the 2-year-old sales for Torie and Jimbo Gladwell's Top Line Sales.

"I started doing MagnaWave therapy," Updike explained of her introduction to the sales scene. "I was working on Torie and Jimbo's horses and it turned into, 'Oh, you want to help us out at the sales?' 'Do you want to help us out at the farm?' To all of that over that years."

The opportunity to hang out her own shingle came up when Top Line stepped out of the yearling consignment business.

"I love working for Torie and Jimbo, so when they stopped doing the yearlings, I thought it was perfect," Updike said. "I decided that was something I wanted to do. But I could still do the 2-year-old consignment with them. They have taught me a lot and have helped me in a lot of ways. They have been super supportive and they have helped guide me over the years."

Afleet Equine Services made its first appearance at OBS in 2019, debuting with a three-horse consignment that October. It had its biggest consignment with 10 horses last year--and its first six-figure result with a $125,000 daughter of Vekoma--before nearly doubling in size this year.

"Over the years, I have had some nice horses sell pretty well and this year, I definitely have more than I have had," Updike said. "I have nice clients that have really helped me along the way and supported me, so I have a couple repeat customers, and then I have some clients that bought some in Kentucky in the September sale and their plan was to flip them here in October." Cont.

She continued: “So [the consignment] started smaller and then last minute, it just doubled.”

Updike said her experience working with Top Line’s 2-year-old consignments has prepared her for this year’s expanded October group.

“I am very hard on myself, in terms of I really want to make everybody happy,” she admitted. “I really want to do the best job, whether I have one horse or 100 horses. My goal is to give every horse—from a $1,000 horse to a $200,000 horse—the same care. So I do put a little stress on myself with that many because it’s just me. But luckily, I do have experience in handling 50 and 60 2-year-olds, so I don’t think it will be too hard.”

Updike, whose aunt is involved with Quarter Horse racing in Oklahoma, is just back from a stint with consignor Scott Mallory at the 12-day Keeneland September Yearling Sale. While she enjoyed the experience, she’s planning on keeping her consignment at home in Ocala. For now.

“I actually went to Kentucky for the first time this year,” Updike said. “I went to July and September and I worked for Scott Mallory. July was fine. July was easy. Keeneland is a different kind of sale. It really is. I don’t feel like I would be comfortable going up there on my own just yet. Maybe in the future, I would. Right now, I really love OBS. It’s home. I’m a small Florida breeder myself. I have a couple of mares. And I like selling in Florida. Obviously, the end goal is to be in Kentucky at some point. But I don’t see that for a few more years.”

Among the Afleet Equine consignment at the October sale are yearlings who have already been through the ring this summer. Supplemented to the OBS sale are: hip 274, a colt by Omaha Beach who was purchased for $20,000 at the Fasig-Tipton New York-bred sale in August; hip 288, a colt by Volatile purchased for $10,000 at Keeneland; and hip 591, a colt by Instagram who also sold for $10,000 at Keeneland.

“Sometimes when they come from Kentucky and there are a bunch of horses up there, the ones that are average up there get overlooked,” Updike said. “So they can come down here and do really well. I think that’s what is nice about OBS. You can take a horse that might be overlooked with thousands of horses and bring them here and they can do well.”

After witnessing first hand the competitive marketplace at Keeneland last month, Updike is hoping the demand continues in Ocala next week.

“What I am hoping is that people still need horses,” she said. “I have some nice horses and some very active families. A lot of my horses have updates already and I am getting calls back that X-rays are going great. I have a nice group of horses to offer at OBS and I feel like people who still need horses who got shut out a bunch in Kentucky will be able to come to OBS and find nice horses.”

The OBS October Yearling sale will be held next Tuesday and Wednesday. Sessions begin each day at 11:30 a.m.

Campaigned by Siena Farm and WinStar, the Brad Cox trainee was named a 'TDN Rising Star' following his second start where he won by 9 1/4 lengths at Ellis Park. After turning in a runner-up performance in the GI Hopeful Stakes at the Spa, the juvenile took home the GI Champagne Stakes at the Belmont at the Big A meet. Making his seasonal debut at three, the highlight of Timberlake's year came when he won the GII Rebel Stakes at Oaklawn Park. His career earnings currently sit at $1,303,100.

A $350,000 acquisition from the 2022 Keeneland September Sale, Timberlake, bred in Kentucky by Vincent and Teresa Viola's St. Elias Stables, is out of the stakes-placed Lookin At Lucky mare Pin Up (Ire), a half-sister to multiple English group stakes winner Thomas Chippendale (Ire) (Dansili {GB}).

Timberlake's second dam, All My Loving (Ire) (Sadler's Wells), was Group 1-placed in Ireland, and other members of this extended female family include Irish Group 1 winners Quarter Moon (Ire) (Sadler's Wells), Yesterday (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) and Diamondsandrubies (Ire) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}).

"Timberlake hails from a hugely productive European family that traces to Mumtaz Mahal (GB), the great foundation mare for the Aga Khan's breeding operation," Hanley said. "Her daughter, Mumtaz Begum (GB), is the dam of Nasrullah (GB) who Claiborne brought to America from England in 1950. From the Nasrullah sire line came Grey Sovereign (GB), Bold Ruler, Secretariat, Spectacular Bid, Seattle Slew, A.P. Indy, and Nashua, who is also the broodmare sire of Mr. Prospector and Roberto. Out of another daughter, Mah Mahal (GB), came Mahmoud (Fr), and Northern Dancer's dam, Natalma, is a granddaughter of Mahmoud."

CHRB ISSUES EIA ADVISORY AT LOS ALAMITOS, SEVEN POSITIVE HORSES EUTHANIZED

A Quarter Horse stabled at Los Alamitos, which will hold its next Thoroughbred meet in December, was discovered to be suffering from Equine Infectious Anemia (EIA) in late September and has been euthanized. An additional six horses, all Quarter Horses who also tested positive for EIA, were euthanized at the California track Wednesday and Thursday. Cont.

The California Horse Racing Board (CHRB) issued the following advisory late Thursday afternoon:

“The California Horse Racing Board was notified on September 24 that Equine Infectious Anemia (EIA) was identified in a Quarter Horse at Los Alamitos. The California Department of Food and Agriculture (CDFA) is currently overseeing the situation and monitoring the ongoing investigation.

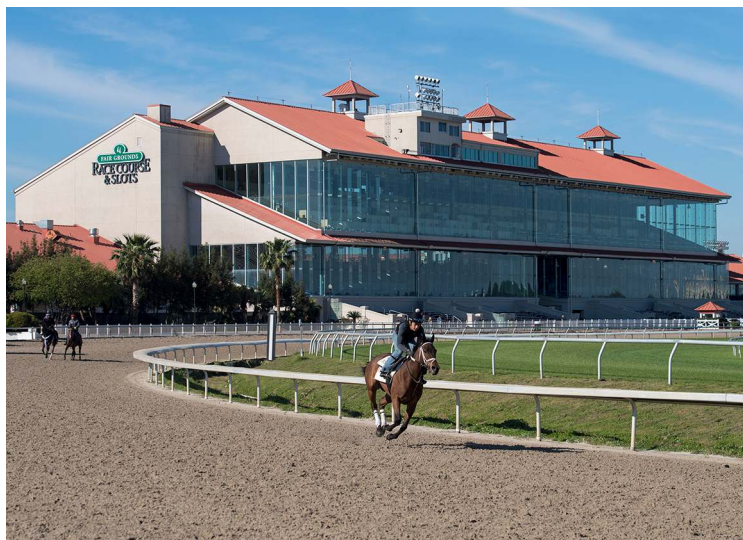

“Under the order of the CDFA and dictated by state and federal standards, that first infected horse was euthanized, and biosecurity measures were put in place. Nine additional horses were placed in a quarantined cohort group and subsequent testing identified six additional confirmed positives. Of the six additional confirmed positives, four horses were euthanized on October 2, and the remaining two were euthanized on October 3, again under the order of the CDFA and dictated by state and federal standards. The other three horses that tested negative will remain quarantined and retested in 60 days. Additional details of these deaths can be found on the CHRB website under the Veterinary tab.

“All fatalities are reported on the CHRB website on a weekly basis consistent with existing statutory requirements. More information about EIA is available at equinediseasecc.org.

FAIR GROUNDS UPS PURSES FOR TWO DERBY POINTS RACES

Fair Grounds has bumped purses for the GII Risen Star Stakes and the GIII Lecomte Stakes--both “Road to the Kentucky Derby” points races--in advance of the track's 153rd season. The Risen Star will be increased from $400,000 to $500,000 and the Lecomte upped from $200,000 to $250,000.

Fair Grounds | Sarah Andrew

With eight existing stakes getting a $25,000 boost, a total of $325,000 in increases is scheduled for the track's 63-race stakes program, totaling $8.875 million in purses during the 76-day Thoroughbred meet.

“The Louisiana Road to the Derby and Oaks has established itself as one of the most productive paths to Louisville and we hope bolstering these races helps to maintain its presence as the premiere series of Derby preps,” said Director of Racing Jason Boulet.

The New Orleans-area track will open Friday, Nov. 22 with six Louisiana-bred stakes slated for the first two racing programs.

The Road to the Derby Kickoff Day at Fair Grounds begins Dec. 21, followed by Road to the Derby Day Jan. 18, Louisiana Derby Preview Day Feb. 15, and Louisiana Derby Day Mar. 22. Each program will feature Kentucky Derby and Oaks preps, as well as additional graded stakes.

Closing day is Sunday, Mar. 23, with the first condition book available here.

EQUIBASE ADDS ENHANCED OPTION TO PREMIUM PAST PERFORMANCES

Equibase has enhanced its premium past performance product to include conditional formatting, the online source for horse racing data said in a release on Thursday.

In addition to traditional past performances, the new version includes key points such as the highest speed figure in the race, the highest win percentage in the race for the trainer and jockey, and the highest lifetime earnings.

"Traditional past performances can be overwhelming, especially for new handicappers," said Chris Dawahare, vice president of data operations and digital services for Equibase. "The new enhanced option removes some of the data overload by highlighting the most critical information in each past performance and providing a color legend with each race to easily reference every data element."

The enhanced option also includes a separate Equibase Speed, Class, and Pace figure analysis in a graphical format.

FRIDAY INSIGHTS: KEENELAND GETS ROLLING WITH TWO-TURN TURF MAIDEN

by Alan Carasso

The debuting Scorpius is a full-brother to MGISW Mandaloun
Sara Gordon

2nd-KEE, $100k, Msw, 2yo, 1mT, post time: 1:32 p.m. ET

One need look no further than the rail for the fanciest pedigree in this field of 12, as SCORPIUS (Into Mischief) is the full-brother to Mandaloun, who overcame an eventful trip on his six-furlong debut at this track to become a 'TDN Rising Star' during the fall meeting in 2020 and went on to win the GII Risen Star Stakes before going on to be promoted to the victory in both the GI Kentucky Derby and GI Haskell Stakes in 2021. The colts' dual group-winning dam Brooch (Empire Maker) is a half-sister to SW & MGSP Caponata (Selkirk), the dam of this year's G3 Prestige Fillies Stakes third-place finisher Merrily (No Nay Never). This is the female family of Group 1 winner Bluestocking (GB) (Camelot {GB}), who has been supplemented to Sunday's G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe. TJCIS PPs

3rd-KEE, $100k, Msw, 3yo/up, f/m, 7f, 2:04 p.m. ET

A $550,000 Keeneland September purchase by Belladonna Racing in 2022, PRODIGIEUX (Uncle Mo) makes a belated first trip to the races here. The Feb. 7 foal is one of two of racing age for her dam Splashy Kisses (Blame), runner-up in the GII Pocahontas Stakes at two in 2018 and later placed in the GIII Sweet Life Stakes on the grass. The collective braintrust surrounding Belladonna apparently liked this filly so much that they gave $220,000 for the now 2-year-old half-sister to Prodigieux, As You Wish (Volatile), at last year's KEESEP sale. The deeper female family includes champion and GI Breeders Cup Juvenile Fillies winner Tempera (A.P. Indy).

Thanksgiving (Uncle Mo) is a full-sister to 2020 Pocahontas heroine Girl Daddy and her dam is a half-sister to SW & GSP Abby's Angel (Touch Gold), who produced GSW & G1SP Comicas (Distorted Humor). Thanksgiving was a $625,000 Fasig-Tipton Saratoga yearling. TJCIS PPs

4th-KEE, $110k, AOC, 2yo, f, 6f, 2:36 p.m. ET

Stonestreet homebred ECLATANT (Into Mischief) could scarcely have been more impressive on her career debut, striking from close range to graduate by 1 3/4 lengths at Churchill Downs June 21 while earning a lofty 82 Beyer Speed Figure. The victory came at the expense of La Cara (Street Sense), an eight-length maiden winner at Saratoga Aug. 11 and subsequently the 3/4-length victress of this year's Pocahontas Sept. 14. The homebred filly is a full-sister to 'TDN Rising Star' Mutasaabeg, victorious in the GII Bourbon Stakes over the local grass course in 2020 and winner on dirt of the Mucho Macho Man Stakes. Her female family also includes GI Breeders' Cup Classic winner White Abarrio (Race Day). Winchell homebred Tapit First (Tapit), a nose winner of a 4 1/2-furlong maiden here back in April, is out of a half-sister to Fioretti (Bernardini), who took the GII Thoroughbred Club of America Stakes on opening weekend here in 2015. TJCIS PPs

6th-KEE, $110k, Alw, 3yo/up, 7f, 3:40 p.m. ET

AIR OF DEFIANCE (Quality Road) was the distant runner-up in the Saratoga maiden won by 'TDN Rising Star' Fierceness (City of Light) in the Saratoga mud last August and earned the same honor when drilling a field of local maidens by six lengths last Oct. 18. The $400,000 KEESEP yearling, a son of GSW/GISP Faypien (Ghostzapper), switches from the barn of Brad Cox to Chad Summers for this sophomore debut. He takes on Montalcino (Take Charge Indy), who Beyered 91 when taking out a Saratoga maiden by 1 1/2 lengths Sept. 1. TJCIS PPs

Donegal Racing's Donegal Momentum, who was named a 'TDN Rising Star' for a towering debut victory sprinting over a muddy local main track May 16, remained perfect in two tries since switching to turf routes and earned his first black-type success in Thursday's $135,000 Gio Ponti Stakes at Aqueduct.

Sent off at odds of 22-5 to build on a stalk-and-pounce allowance victory at Saratoga Aug. 24, the $375,000 Keeneland September yearling purchase was given a positive ride away from the gates by Kendrick Carmouche and he looked to be racing aggressively as he laid down fractions of :23.82 and :48.14. With race favorite Take Me To Church traveling well in his slipstream and poised to deliver his challenge when the real running began, Donegal Momentum had a good kick, pinched a break and stayed on nicely to record a comfortable score. Royal Majesty rallied inside to just touch Take Me To Church out of second.

"He's absolutely at least as good on the dirt as he is on turf," said Donegal Racing principal Jerry Donegal, while declining to commit to future objectives. "We'll probably keep entering on turf in big races and hope we get a little precipitation sometimes because not everybody can do what he can from a versatility standpoint."

Donegal Momentum improved on his 92 debut Beyer, but was upset going a mile over this main track June 27, and was never a true factor in the GII Amsterdam Stakes July 26, finishing a distant fourth. Better than a 5-1 shot for his turf debut last time, he was away awkwardly and was bumped a couple of times late, but managed to get his nose down on the line first.

Speedway Stable purchased Moon Dash for $650,000 at the 2017 OBS April Sale and raced her to a runner-up effort in the 2017 Surfer Girl Stakes at Santa Anita. A daughter of In the Slips, herself a stakes winner and twice graded-placed on the grass, Moon Dash is also represented by the 2-year-old filly Moonlight Dash (Maclean's Music), a $300,000 purchased by Rigney Racing at KEESEP last fall. The mare was bred to Speedway's champion juvenile Corniche (Quality Road) the last two years. Donegal Momentum is the 107th stakes winner for the outstanding Uncle Mo. To Much Coffee H. cont.

Demolisher made good on a promise of 1-2 favoritism to score his second black-type victory and remain unbeaten from five starts in Wednesday's To Much Coffee Handicap. Having overcome gate 12 of 12 to take the Governor's Handicap on the dirt July 31, he worked out a trip from the nine hole to take the non black-type Bucchero Handicap Aug. 21 and was back on the main for this. Sent straight to the front from the four, the homebred gelding set a solid pace, began to widen approaching the stretch and was never menaced. Demolisher is one of two winners from his dam, who has the yearling filly Cloudless Day (Cloud Computing) and was most recently bred to Maximum Security. Click for the Equibase.com chart.

Also Ran: Mondavila, Dr. Alex Is In, Monarch of Motion, Polar Drift, Special Creed, Ismybusiness. Scratched: Gimmel, Goldwyn.

Jazzole graduated by nearly eight lengths going five furlongs here Aug. 22 and defeated the reopposing Dr. Alex Is In (Shagaf) and Ismybusiness (Cloud Computing) in a first-level statebred allowance Sept. 10. The distant second choide to Large Pour, who beat Slam Dunk Justice by 17 3/4 lengths in a two-lifetime Indiana-bred allowance Aug. 21, Jazzole attended the sharp pace set by Slam Dunk Justice, who was off slowly, and came three wide into the stretch. That allowed Jazzole to sneak through and he outdueled the heavy chalk to the line. The eighth stakes winner for his sire, Jazzole has a yearling full-brother, a weanling half-brother by Rock Your World and his dam is due to Thousand Words for 2025. Click for the Equibase.com chart.

NOTSO MISCHIEVOUS (c, 3, Into Mischief--Ever So Clever {GSW, $522,830}, by Medaglia d'Oro), who earned a strong 86 Beyer Speed Figure when beaten a head in a second-level allowance over course and distance Sept. 19, was the 3-5 jolly despite racing over his conditions here. The full-brother to Everso Mischievous, GSW, $623,163, was away alertly from the outside stall and stalked the early pace before sweeping in front on the turn. Clinging to a tenuous advantage entering the final furlong, the bay boxed on gamely as Onasa (Always Dreaming) took a late run at him. One of two winners from the 2017 GIII Fantasy Stakes heroine, Notso Mischievous--purchased for just $4,500 at this year's Keeneland January sale--has a 2-year-old full-brother named Lion of Justice, who fetched $1.1 million from West Point at last year's Keeneland September sale. IN ORDER OF PURSE:

8th-Belmont The Big A, $90,000, Msw, 10-3, 2yo, f, 6fT, 1:09.68, fm, 2 lengths.

CANDY QUEST (f, 2, Connect--Candy Crush, by Candy Ride {Arg}), a $225,000 Keeneland September yearling who was the priciest of her sire's 31 yearlings reported as sold in 2023 (43 ring), set her sights on heavily favored Tam I Am (Authentic) entering the final eighth of a mile and kicked past with relative ease to graduate in very professional fashion at first asking Thursday afternoon. Cont. p4

Live on the board at 9-2 from a 5-1 morning line, the dark bay took a sit from off the pace as fellow firster So Darn Pretty (Ire) (Too Darn Hot {GB}) came across from her widest post and outsprinted the more experienced Tam I Am, who was wisely taken off the fence to do the chasing from second. Candy Quest—who worked a half-mile on the Belmont training track in :46 4/5 (2/151) Sept. 22--traveled in behind the leading duo into the stretch, but Tam I Am had first crack at the pacesetter and wrested command approaching the furlong pole. Candy Quest had the move covered, however, as she was switched out by Dylan Davis and motored home for a good-looking victory. A half-sister to Take a Stand (Will Take Charge), GSP, $365,313; and to Frosted Over (Frosted), Ch. 3yo Colt-Can, MGSW, $310,194, the winner is out of a half-sister to SW & MGSP Seruni (Saint Liam), GSW English Affair (English Channel), SW Roman Emperor (Empire Maker), MGSP Doc Cheney (Saint Ballado) and GSP Liberated (Curlin). Candy Crush delivered a Maxfield colt in 2023, a Flightline filly this year and was bred back to Authentic. Sales history: $225,000 Ylg '23 KEESEP. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $49,500. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV. --ALC

4th-Belmont The Big A, $70,000, Moc ($50,000), 10-3, 2yo, 1 1/16mT, 1:45.30, fm, 1/2 length.

MYTHICAL MAN (c, 2, Mucho Macho Man--Park Lane, by Ghostzapper) did no running whatsoever in his rained-off debut going a mile at Saratoga Aug. 21, but the wagering public were forgiving and made him the 13-4 second favorite to get it right this time around. Drawn favorably in gate three, the $25,000 Keeneland January purchase was close up while saving ground through the opening exchanges. Produced wide and asked to come after Reteko (Outwork) in upper stretch, the Ontario-bred had a 2 1/2-length gap to bridge entering the final furlong, but closed off with good energy to take it by a length. From the family of Point of Entry (Dynaformer), Mythical Man has a yearling half-sister by that stallion and his dam visited Mitole the past two breeding seasons. Sales history: $25,000 Ylg '23 KEEJAN. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, $38,980. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV. O-Reeves Thoroughbred Racing; B-Adena Springs (ON); T-Danny Gargan.

4th-Laurel, $48,175, Msw, 10-3, 2yo, f, 1m (off turf), 1:41.72, gd, 3/4 length.

GOTANOTHATHINGCOMM (f, 2, Twirling Candy--Walloon {SW}, by Alphabet Soup), a full-sister to Commander Khai, GSP, $185,919, was the 6-5 chalk on debut as the lone firster in a scratched-down field of five. Content to chase loose-on-the-lead Drink Deeply (Bucchero) down the backstretch, the $150,000 Keeneland September yearling purchase circled four wide into the stretch, still had plenty of work to do passing the eighth pole and wore down the pacesetter to prevail. Walloon is the dam of a yearling colt by Maxfield that sold to Oracle Bloodstock for $375,000 at last month's Keeneland September Sale and was most recently covered by American Pharoah. Sales history: $150,000 Ylg '23 KEESEP. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $28,200. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

6th-Hawthorne, $36,600, Msw, 10-3, 2yo, f, 5 1/2f, 1:05.01, ft, 7 3/4 lengths.

BLACK GINGER (f, 2, American Freedom--Perfect Prediction {SW}, by Majesticperfection) gave few clues as to any ability in her morning drills and was duly dismissed at debut odds of 26-1. A half-sister to Surly Furious (Upstart), MSW & MGSP, $585,186, the chestnut hit the ground running from the inside stall, set solid fraction and scampered away from her rivals to score by 7 3/4 lengths. Perfect Prediction is the dam of a yearling filly by Win Win Win, a weanling full-sister to Surly Furious and was most recently bred back to Upstart. Sales history: $25,000 Ylg '23 KEESEP. 6th-Remington, $34,000, Msw, 10-2, 2yo, f, 6f, 1:12.91, ft, 1 length.

SECURED (f, 2, Maximum Security--Crafty Lady, by Carpe Diem) became the seventh winner for her freshman sire (by New Year's Day) with this second-out victory. Sent off the 13-5 third choice after finishing well-beaten on her Ellis debut Aug. 25, the dark bay filly added blinkers here and put herself right into the race, setting the pace in advance of the debuting Missy Gurl (Cutting Humor), who raced wide. She repelled a bid from that rival on the swing for home and kept that one at bay for a one-length score. Favored Jet Pack (Practical Joke) was third. Secured is out of a daughter of GSW Crafty Oak (Crafty Prospector), the dam of MGISW Giant Oak (Giant's Causeway); MSW/GSP Apple Martini (Giant's Causeway); and SW & GSP Oak Brook (Giant's Causeway). Crafty Lady is represented by a yearling colt by Gift Box, a weanling Happy Saver filly and was most recently served by Frosted. Sales history: $30,000 Wlg '22 KEENOV; $62,000 Ylg '23 KEESEP. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, $20,787. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV. O-Barry & Carol Conrad; B-E H Beau Lane III (KY); T-W Bret Calhoun.

9th-Remington, $34,000, Msw, 10-2, 2yo, f, 5f, :58.24, ft, 1 length.

INNOCENCE (f, 2, Into Mischief--Treasure {SW-Can, SP-US, $175,797}, by Smart Strike) was a speed-and-fade third on her course-and-distance unveiling Sept. 7 but was nevertheless the 5-2 favorite to get it done second time out. The only member of the nine-strong field with that previous experience, the homebred alternated up front with 3-1 second pick Ninth Island (Constitution), braced for a mid-stretch challenge from 21-5 Naval Woman (Midshipman) and edged away from that one to take it by a length. Cinnamon Roll (Army Mule) rallied from midpack to round out the trifecta. The stakes-winning Treasuring is a full-sister to 2013 GI Hollywood Starlet Stakes winner Streaming; and a half-sister to SW Cascading (A.P. Indy) and to the dam of MGSW & GISP Sovereign Award winner Tyson (Tapit); and of GI Belmont Stakes and GI Travers Stakes hero Arcangelo (Arrogate). The filly's third dam Better Than Honour (Deputy Minister) needs no introduction as she accounted for Belmont Stakes winners Jazil (Seeking the Gold) and Rags to Riches (A.P. Indy) and the dam of MGSW/GISP Greatest Honour (Tapit). Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-1, $23,917. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV. O/B-Hill 'n' Dale Equine Holdings Inc (J G Sikura) & Stretch Run Ventures LLC (KY); T-Steven M Asmussen.

Here are the horses of interest for this Saturday running at Kyoto and Tokyo Racecourses. Sunday's runners will appear in Saturday's TDN

Saturday, October 5, 2024

4th-KYO, ¥13,720,000 ($93k), Newcomers, 2yo, 1400m

DRAGON WELDS (c, 2, Frosted--Little Dipper, by Eskendereya) fetched $72,000 as a Keeneland September yearling last fall and was hammered down to Japanese interests after breezing an eighth of a mile in :9 4/5 at this year's OBS March Sale. Produced by a multiple stakes-placed half-sister to Grade II-winning turf sprinter Bye Bye Bernie (Bernstein) and the Grade III-placed Joe Franklin (Bernstein), the gray colt looks to become his sire's ninth Japanese winner from 10 starters, a number that includes dual Group 3 winner Jasper Krone. B-Willow Oaks Stable LLC (KY)

JASPER NOVEL (f, 2, Vekoma--Flatter Me Owen, by Flatter) made no fewer than five trips through the ring between November 2022 and this past March, hammering for $47,000 at Keeneland November before selling for $60,000 at the January Sale two months later. Bought back on a bid of $45,000 at KEESEP, she changed hands for that same amount at the Fasig-Tipton October Sale and was purchased by Hideyuki Mori for $190,000 at OBS March after she breezed in :9 4/5. She was one of 10 horses secured by Mori at OBSMAR, a lot that includes GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile candidate and $800,000 seller Shin Believe (Constitution). B-James F Miller (WV)

4th-TOK, ¥13,720,000 ($93k), Newcomers, 2yo, 1600mT
ERIKA MAYURI (JPN) (f, 2, Quality Road--Brave Anna, by War Front), a $3-million in-utero purchase at the 2021 Fasig-Tipton November Sale, is out of the 2016 G1 Cheveley Park Stakes heroine, whose Group 3-winning dam Liscanna (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) is also responsible for Opera Singer (Justify), a Group 1 winner at two and three, as well as 2015 GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf hero Hit It A Bomb (War Front). Erika Mayuri is a half-sister to Angelsilica (Dark Angel {Ire}), a two-time winner in Japan. B-EM Planning LLC
