

WILL IT BE ARC NUMBER NINE FOR FABRE?

Sosie is one of three horses in the Arc for Fabre | Scoop Dyga

by Tom Frary

There was a time when projecting the winner of the G1 Qatar Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe was simple. Just look for the Andre Fabre-trained colt perfectly tuned for the ParisLongchamp monument and voila. Times change, of course, and the master of Chantilly no longer enjoys the same dominion over the great race he conquered on five occasions between his inaugural victory with Trempolino in 1987 and Sagamix (Fr) in 1998. Just a trio have managed to extend that tally subsequently, which interestingly features only two older horses.

This year, he enjoys the perfect scenario with an elite 3-year-old colt in the form of Sosie (Ire) (Sea The Stars {Ire}), who has steadily morphed into an ideal candidate for this autumnal overture. Those who witnessed his heavy defeat at the hands of the filly War Chimes (Fr) (Summer Front) as a fledgling in Chantilly's Listed Prix Isonomy would not have predicted he would be heading to post as near-favourite for the Arc, but this is a cast-in-stone mile-and-a-half specialist who has needed time and distance to thrive.

Third behind Look De Vega (Fr) (Lope De Vega {Ire}) when looking to find the 10 1/2-furlong trip of the G1 Prix du Jockey Club too sharp in June, the Wertheimer homebred came into his own when overpowering his peers in the course-and-distance G1 Grand Prix de Paris and G2 Prix Niel.

TAMFANA STRIKES IN THE SUN CHARIOT

by Tom Frary

Atoning for a luckless defeat in the G1 1,000 Guineas, Tamfana (Ger) (Soldier Hollow {GB}--Tres Magnifique {Fr}, by Zoffany {Ire}) returned to Newmarket's Rowley Mile to conquer a strong renewal of the G1 Sun Chariot Stakes on Saturday. Tried over different trips by David Menuisier following that Classic effort, she had proven that this trip is what she needs when winning Sandown's G3 Atalanta Stakes in August and faced an easier task from the break as Inspiral (GB) (Frankel {GB}) again surrendered ground.

Positioned close to the leader by Colin Keane, the 2-1 favourite had total control three out and despite the effort of Cheveley Park Stud's stellar homebred was never going to surrender her advantage. At the line, she had two lengths to spare over Inspiral, with a further length to See The Fire (GB) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) in third. "I said to Colin she travels well and quickens, just keep it simple," Menuisier said. "For once everything went smoothly and she really deserves this. It's a big sense of achievement this win today, especially when you feel you have missed out a few times. I'm just glad for the filly, before myself."

The former saw him close out the last three furlongs of this track in 33.66, which he didn't need to repeat in this race's traditional 3-year-old prep three weeks ago. While she was racing beyond her optimum, the Grand Prix de Paris fourth Tamfana (Ger) (Soldier Hollow {GB}) did her bit for the form in the G1 Sun Chariot Stakes at Newmarket on Saturday.

Alain and Gerard Wertheimer understand the significance of this event, a qualifier for the G1 Breeders' Cup Turf next month, more than most and with the sharp filly Aventure (Ire) (Sea The Stars (Ire)) in as able understudy, 2024 is a big year for the operation. "Not all horses are used to Longchamp, but he knows the track and it is definitely a plus for him," their racing manager Pierre-Yves

Los Angeles | Scoop Dyga

Bureau said. "In my mind he [Sosie] is the best 3-year-old French colt at this distance at the moment, so it will be very interesting to see if he can be competitive and be the best on Sunday. He's being called one of the favourites, but in my mind five or six horses could be favourite."

LA Dreaming...

Where Fabre was once the undisputed King of Europe, Aidan O'Brien now holds that unofficial title but this ultimate prize has been hard to conquer even though he saddled a remarkable one-two-three in 2016. In many ways, Los Angeles (Ire) (Camelot {GB}) fits the "Fabre mould" as an already high-class 3-year-old colt seemingly honed for the demands of this race. After an effort in the Derby that can be upgraded, he appeared to coast through a G1 Irish Derby and a G2 Great Voltigeur under a maximum penalty before putting up an eye-catching display over a trip short of his best in the G1 Irish Champion Stakes. Cont. p4

“We’ve yet to see the best of him,” warned Aidan O’Brien, who enjoyed such a stellar Saturday at the track. “He’s a very big horse, is making progress and has a very imposing physique. The trip suits him perfectly. He acts well on right-handed courses and this has been the plan since his victory in the Irish Derby.”

Worth A Second Look?

Having lost his unbeaten record in the Niel, Al Shaqab Racing and Ballylinch Stud’s G1 Prix du Jockey Club hero Look De Vega (Fr) (Lope De Vega {Ire}) faces the ultimate test of his stamina which is unproven beyond 10 1/2 furlongs. From the family of the fellow Chantilly Classic winners Lattice (Ire) (Inchinor {GB}) and Lawman (Fr) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}), there is a genuine doubt as to whether he can stretch out sufficiently to prove a force to be reckoned with in this company.

His tame finishing effort up the ligne droite here last time has been put down to being off his ideal racing weight, but equally it could hint at a fault line in his staying power. Defeat in the Niel is not the end, however, and his many supporters can take solace in the memory of both Peintre Celebre and Bago (Fr) (Nashwan) being overturned in it prior to making the leap forward the following month.

“I think it’s a wide-open race and it is nice to see he has a nice draw in eight which means Ronan [Thomas] will have options and will be able to see where the pace is early,” Al Shaqab’s French racing consultant Rupert Pritchard-Gordon said. “The most important thing is Yann and Carlos are very pleased with him, I spoke to Yann a couple of days ago and he feels he has got the horse in a good place now and ready to do himself justice in the big one.” Cont. p5

The Supporting Cast...

Whether Shin Emperor (Fr) (Siyouni {Fr}) will end the long period of hurt for Japan in this race remains to be seen, but as a full-brother to the 2019 winner Sottsass (Fr) he has better pedigree credentials than many of his compatriots who have tried and failed before. His full-sibling was a 4-year-old when succeeding, having come up short a year previously and it could be that Susumu Fujita's big hope is a touch on the tender side encountering such fierce competition. That doesn't apply to Juddmonte's hardened filly Bluestocking (GB) (Camelot {GB}) and Baron Edouard De Rothschild's admirable Mqse De Sevigne (Ire) (Siyouni {Fr}), but where the former needs this trip and has an ideal draw the latter faces the double whammy of unproven stamina and the outside post.

The grand talents in their different spheres Joseph O'Brien and Yutaka Take covet a first Arc and there is more than an outside chance that it could come via the Japanese-owned G1 Grosser Preis von Berlin winner Al Riffa (Fr) (Wootton Bassett {GB}). He still has untapped potential despite being towards the end of his 4-year-old career and has been specifically targeted at this even before his gallant second to City Of Troy (Justify) in the G1 Eclipse.

Coolmore's G3 Prix du Lys winner Delius (GB) (Frankel {GB}) was even faster than Sosie when finishing the Grand Prix de Paris in :33.57 and has the look of a colt whose aim this has always been. He could thrive off a stronger pace which is also the case for Aventure whose finishing kick has to be employed at the precise moment, while Guy Pariente Holding and Qatar Racing Ltd's Irish Derby runner-up Sunway (Fr) (Galiway {GB}) is one of the live outsiders due to his blue-collar aptitude.

Trainer David Menuisier thinks his temperament will take him a long way. "We've been mulling over with Guy Pariente whether to go for the Arc and it seems to be a case of now or never," he explained. "The horse is flying at the moment, having been in good form all year so there's no reason not to go for it. He's had no luck this year and we're waiting for the day it will turn. He is one of the toughest horses that I've ever trained and he never stops giving of his best."

"We've learned to understand him better over time," he added. "He can handle all types of ground, but the key with him is pace. He needs a strong pace and all the more so because he's endowed with genuine stamina."

The New Zarkava?

Sunday's ParisLongchamp card opens with something potentially very special, as it did in 2007 when Zarkava (Ire) (Zamindar) first served notice of her supreme athleticism in the G1 Prix Marcel Boussac. Cont. p6

So when her granddaughter Zarigana (GB) (Siyouni {Fr}) lit up the G3 Prix d'Aumale over this course and mile trip last month it was inevitable that the Aga Khan homebred would spurn comparison with her esteemed ancestress in this "Win and You're In" for the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf. If Ballydoyle's fellow TDN Rising Star Bedtime Story (Ire) (Frankel {GB}) is on her A-game, this renewal could be one of the very best in its history but her latest performance in the G1 Moyglare Stud Stakes suggests she is in danger of going the wrong way having looked such a world-beater in the Listed Chesham Stakes.

Francis-Henri Graffard is hoping that Zarigana can extend the stable's year-long purple patch. "She is very well, everything has gone smoothly and we're looking forward to Sunday," he said. "She won nicely in her two races and it's big step up in class now, hopefully she can show she is competitive against group 1 fillies. She won on soft ground the other day so we're not worried about that, she's a good-looking, well-bred filly with a lot of talent."

Aidan O'Brien said of Bedtime Story, "She just jumped smart and was then a little bit keen in the Moyglare and we think that was the reason for her little bit of a disappointing run."

He also has the progressive Moyglare third Exactly (Ire) (Frankel {GB}), who has to reverse a narrow margin with Simmering (GB) (Too Darn Hot {GB}) from that contest, and who will be forcing the pace from the outset as Ryan Moore tries to get Bedtime Story back on an even keel.

The Gold Standard?

John and Thady Gosden are convinced that Juddmonte's Field Of Gold (Ire) (Kingman {GB}) is capable of more than he showed when winning Sandown's G3 Solario Stakes in August and we may well find out in an ultra-competitive edition of the G1 Qatar Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere, a "Win and You're In" for the G1 Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf. Ballydoyle's G2 Futurity Stakes winner and G1 Vincent O'Brien National Stakes runner-up Henri Matisse (Ire) (Wootton Bassett {GB}), Manton Thoroughbreds' G2 Coventry Stakes winner and G1 Prix Morny runner-up Rashabar (Ire) (Holy Roman Emperor {Ire}) and Al Shaqab Racing, Haras d'Etreham and Mustapha Bekhti's G3 Prix des Chenes winner Misunderstood (Fr) (Hello Youmzain {Fr}) are sure to test him and they are just three of the cast of classy colts lining up.

"He's in good form and he's a very promising colt," Juddmonte's European racing manager Barry Mahon said of Field Of Gold. "I thought he did it very well in the Solario and the form of the race seems to be working out with Royal Playwright running so well in the Royal Lodge. John and Thady seem happy with him and it is all systems go."

Sam Sangster said of Rashabar, "I kind of felt that if the draw had been a little less biased towards the winner then we would have been a lot closer in the Morny. He's out of a Camelot mare and after looking at his pedigree and chatting to Billy [Loughnane] and Sean [Levey], neither were concerned about whatever the ground was going to turn up like on Sunday. We're coming into the race with a lot of confidence and he is working very well and whatever he does this weekend, he has a really big future next year ahead of him."

The Fast And The Furious...

Hard-luck stories are familiar in the five-furlong G1 Prix de l'Abbaye de Longchamp Longines, so it is fortunate for Victorious Racing's Bradsell (GB) (Tasleet {GB}) that he has such an uncomplicated style drawn out from the rail in nine. Better than ever after his serious injury when taking the G1 Nunthorpe Stakes and G1 Flying Five, the Archie Watson-trained TDN Rising Star may only have to repeat his defeats of compatriot Believing (Ire) (Mehmas {Ire}) to bring up a significant treble. Cont. p8

“It would have been better to have been two or three closer to the rail, but there are no excuses,” Victorious Racing’s racing manager Oliver St Lawrence said of this qualifier for the G1 Breeders’ Cup Turf Sprint. “Him and Believing have emerged as the top two around, the only other is Lazzat who won the Maurice de Gheest and he’s heading for the Golden Eagle in Australia, I believe. Hopefully all will be revealed and the rain stays away. I think next year will depend on how he runs over the next short while, but I think he will probably retire. Archie and the team have done an amazing job to get him back and it is testament to the horse himself.”

New Territory For Fallen Angel...

Of those engaged in the G1 Prix de l’Opera Longines, Wathnan Racing’s Fallen Angel (GB) (Too Darn Hot {GB}) is one who may have the most upside if the move to a mile and a quarter suits as much as connections believe. Having done all her best work overseas, the G1 Irish 1,000 Guineas and G1 Moyglare Stud Stakes winner was no match for the crack miler Porta Fortuna

(Ire) (Caravaggio) in Leopardstown’s G1 Matron Stakes last month, prompting this change in ploy.

“Going up in trip is going to be the big question, but everyone in the team feels that will really suit her,” Wathnan’s racing adviser Richard Brown said. “It was a great comeback run in the Matron and we were delighted with that having been off a fair while and we’re looking forward to seeing her up in trip. The ground will be on the soft side and she will enjoy that. James [Doyle] said you can do what you want with her, put her where you want in a race, she’s just a complete pro and that is going to stand her in good stead for a big day.”

Interestingly, Ryan Moore has opted to ride the Matron fourth Ylang Ylang (GB) (Frankel {GB}) over the G1 Yorkshire Oaks heroine Content (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), whose main priority is the G1 Breeders’ Cup Filly & Mare Turf, with the Opera a “Win and You’re In” for the Del Mar feature. The G1 Fillies’ Mile winner has yet to truly fire this season, but may be a fresher filly than the G1 Prix de Diane heroine Sparkling Plenty (Fr) (Kingman {GB}) who went to the energy-sapping G1 Prix Vermeille last month. Cont. p9

George Strawbridge’s G2 Prix Alec Head and G3 Valiant Stakes winner Friendly Soul (GB) (Kingman {GB}) is in deeper waters, but as a half-sister to the 2014 Opera heroine We Are (Ire) (Dansili {GB}) she has the pedigree to fit.

Can Kinross Do It Again?

Successful in the 2022 G1 Qatar Prix de la Foret, Marc Chan’s Kinross (GB) (Kingman {GB}) returns with an ideal low draw in a swollen edition taken on by the likes of Godolphin’s G1 Prix du Moulin hero Tribalist (GB) (Farhh {GB}) and Yeguada Centurion’s 2023 G1 Queen Elizabeth II Stakes hero Big Rock (Fr) (Rock Of Gibraltar {Ire}). With so many runners, the Ralph Beckett-trained stalwart should be able to tuck in and conserve energy and wait for the gaps to appear in the straight, which is his style.

Christopher Head puts Ramatuelle (Justify) back into action off a lengthy break having failed to truly stay the mile of the G1 Coronation Stakes at Royal Ascot and this seven-furlong trip could prove to be her forte. “Ramatuelle is really nice and she’s had a lot of advantage missing the summer, it’s really done her well,” he said. “She is really doing her job every morning and I am really happy with her. She is still as good as she was at the beginning of the season.”

Tamfana, who was successful in the G3 Prix Miesque at two, had also gone close in the G1 Prix de Diane where she was beaten less than a length into third before stretching out too far when fourth in the G1 Grand Prix de Paris. Her next target could be the G1 Queen Elizabeth II Stakes at Ascot in a fortnight, but her trainer was holding fire. “We will see how the filly she is. She goes on any ground, but at this time of year you just have to play it by ear,” he added.

Inspiral, who forfeited less ground than she had at Deauville last time, has run her last race according to Richard Thompson. “It’s been brilliant and what a journey with her. Six group 1s, a Breeders’ Cup, a couple of Jacques le Marois and a Coronation Stakes,” he said. “Chris [Richardson] and the team at the stud obviously bred her and she has been marvellous for my family and for my mother who will be at home watching.”

Pedigree Notes

The sixth top-level winner for her late sire, Tamfana is out of Tres Magnifique whose dam Ticana (Ger) (Sholokhov {Ire}) is a full-sister to the dual listed winner and G2 Grand Prix de Chantilly runner-up Timos (Ger) and half to the GI Beverly D. Stakes heroine Sea Calisi (Fr) (Youmzain {Ire}). Her 2-year-old filly by Areion (Ger) is named The Palace Girl (Ger).

LION ROCK BLOODSTOCK GIVES €1.5 MILLION FOR PRIX DANIEL WILDENSTEIN HERO RAMADAN

Saturday evening's Arqana Arc Sale is always a boutique affair, and Sumbe's Ramadan (Fr) (Le Havre {Ire}) went the way of Vin Cox signing for Lion Rock Bloodstock's Ben Kwok of Hong Kong for €1.5 million to top the sale at Saint-Cloud. He was one of four seven-figure lots to sell, among the 40 offered with the gross passing the €10-million mark for the first time.

Consigned by Christopher Head, the bay son of Raushan (Ire) (Dalakhani {Ire}) (lot 41) and half-brother to G3 Hoppings Stakes second Rasima (GB) (Iffraaj {GB}) is a homebred for Nurlan Bizakov's operation. Besides collecting the G2 Prix Daniel Wildenstein earlier in the day, Ramadan has also accrued victories in the G3 Prix Daphnis, G3 Prix de Fontainebleau and Listed Prix Omnium II throughout the year.

His dam is a full-sister to G1 Pretty Polly Stakes heroine Chinese White (Ire) (Dalakhani {Ire}) with the duo out of G3 Blandford Stakes winner Chiang Mai (Sadler's Wells), herself a half-sister to G1 Prix de Diane victress Rafha (GB) (Kris {GB}), who is the dam of influential stallions Invincible Spirit (Ire) (Green Desert) and Kodiak (GB) (Danehill).

At the close of trade 25 horses sold from the 40 offered for a gross of €10,380,000 (+5.8%). The clearance rate was 62.5%. Gains were also made in both the median, €280,000 (+14.3%) and average, €415,200 (+35.4%).

In 2023, 32 horses sold from 42 offered (76%) for a gross of €9,811,000. Last year's average and median were €306,594 and €245,000, respectively.

The seven-figure lots were closely clustered together, and the sale was just over halfway through when Highflyer Bloodstock signed the ticket at €1.4 million for G1 Deutsches Derby hero Palladium (Ger) (Gleneagles {Ire}) (lot 34). Part of the OH Consignment, the 3-year-old son of stakes winner and G1 Premio Lydia Tesio second Path Wind (Fr) (Anabaa) is a half-brother to Panjari (Ire) (Camelot {GB}), a stakes winner in both France and Germany.

Bred by Gestut Fahrhof, Palladium originally made €80,000 as a BBAG September yearling on the bid of Liberty Racing. Cont. p11

That entity, run by Lars-Wilhelm Baumgarten, won the 2023 edition of the German Derby with Sea The Moon (Ger)'s Fantastic Moon (Ger). Fantastic Moon runs in Sunday's G1 Qatar Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe, while Palladium is booked into the G2 Gran Premio del Jockey Club in Milan next weekend.

Just four lots after the sale of G1 German Derby hero Palladium, the Aga Khan Studs' Zarir (Ire) (Frankel {GB}) stepped into the Saint-Cloud ring. Offered by his breeder, lot 38 caught the eye of Vin Cox on behalf of Paulins Racing to the tune of €1.3 million. From the same female family as Arc heroine Zarkava (Ire) (Zamindar), the 4-year-old gelding has been placed in the G1 Prix Ganay, G3 La Coupe and G2 Prix Foy this season. He holds an entry in the G2 Bahrain International Trophy in mid-November, but his participation is doubtful with Australia firmly to the fore for his new connections.

"He'll go to Australia," said Cox. "He looks to have the potential to be a good stayer. We're delighted to have been able to get a horse of his quality and bred by the Aga Khan Studs, and we can't wait to see him run Down Under."

The penultimate lot in the ring at lot 54, Trafalgar Square (Fr) (Kendargent {Fr}) duly attracted plenty of attention and hammered at €1.15 million to Libyan owner Omar Ismil Sh Ghrghar as the fourth seven-figure horse of the night. The 3-year-old gelding, a listed winner in April, also sports a trio of group placings on his record prior to a win in the valuable Arqana Series des 3 Ans on Aug. 15. The Ecurie X-bred was two lengths adrift of Illinois (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) when second in the G2 Prix Chaudenay on Saturday. An €80,000 Arqana August yearling when purchased by Yellow Agency, he is a half-brother to the stakes-winning G1 Prix Marcel Boussac second and G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches third Times Square (Fr) (Zarak {Fr}).

Ghrghar also bought the Make Believe (GB) colt Believer (Fr) from Gianluca Bietolini for €150,000. The 2024 dual winner went through the ring as lot 12.

Arqana's president Olivier Delloye and executive director Freddy Powell said, "We would like to thank our vendors for the exceptional horses that they have entrusted us with this evening, as well as our buyers who have once again turned out in force. Some of them have been coming for decades. Their trust in us enables this sale to establish itself a little more as an unrivalled international event each year."

GRATEFUL BECOMES GALILEO'S 103RD GROUP 1 WINNER IN THE ROYALLIEU

by Sean Cronin

Coolmore and Westerberg's G3 Stanerra Stakes victrix Grateful (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}--Tepin, by Bernstein), who hit the board in last month's G2 Park Hill Stakes at Doncaster, made the necessary transition under an inspired ride from Christophe Soumillon to secure a career high in Saturday's G1 Qatar Prix de Royallieu at ParisLongchamp. She became the fourth winner on the card for a dominant Aidan O'Brien.

Employing patiently tactics and settled off the tempo for most of this 14-furlong marathon, the 207-10 chance made relentless headway out wide in the straight to join the front rank with 100 metres and had enough left in the tank to outlast River Of Stars (Ire) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) by 3/4-of-a-length.

"The lads bought her dam [for $8-million at Fasig-Tipton's 2017 November Mixed Sale] and she was an incredible racemare," said O'Brien. "It's an incredible day and the result of the team's work. Christophe [Soumillon] gave her a superb ride. When she won the Group 3 race in Ireland, we used waiting tactics and I told Christophe to bide his time today. Tepin has unfortunately died and I imagine that her daughter will eventually pick up the baton at stud sooner or later."

Woodford Thoroughbreds racing manager Lincoln Collins was satisfied with the performance of runner-up River Of Stars and commented, "River of Stars is a marvellous filly, who invariably produces her best. In 15 races, she has only ever once finished out of the first four. She is due to go through the ring at the Tattersalls December Sale, so a Group 1 placing is a great update to her catalogue page."

Cristian Demuro, rider of third home Mistral Star, added, "It was a brave effort and I thought that she might just get there,

Aidan O'Brien and Coolmore celebrated four wins on the day but she had to give best at the end. She was tackling this trip for the first time, so her performance was a very good one."

Pedigree Notes

Grateful, who becomes the 103rd elite-level winner for her late sire, is the third of four foals and one of two scorers from as many runners out of multiple Grade I-winning dual US champion Tepin (Bernstein), who also bagged Royal Ascot's G1 Queen Anne Stakes. Tepin, whose other winner is last month's G2 Golden Fleece Stakes runner-up Delacroix (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}), is a full-sister to GII Peter Pan Stakes and GIII Coolmore Lexington Stakes placegetter Prime Cut. She is also kin to three-time Grade II winner Vyjack (Into Mischief). Grateful's stakes-placed third dam Round It Off (Apalachee) is a half-sister to GII Ladies Handicap and dual GIII Carousel Stakes victrix Miss Slewpyp (Slewpyp).

KYPRIOS MAKES ALL FOR SECOND PRIX DU CADRAN TRIUMPH by Sean Cronin

Kyprios takes his second Cadran | Scoop Dyga

Ballydoyle's star stayer Kyprios (Ire) (Galileo {Ire})--Polished Gem {Ire}, by Danehill) went unbeaten through six contests in 2022 and completed an exact replica of that campaign with a pillar-to-post triumph in Saturday's G1 Qatar Prix du Cadran at ParisLongchamp. That 2022 season included an extravagant win in this marathon event, but it was a more straightforward affair this time around.

The 1-5 favourite, fresh off a second success in the G1 Irish St Leger, went straight to the front and sent an even tempo for the most part. Gearing up with three furlongs remaining, he was threatened by old foe Trueshan (Fr) (Planteur {Ire}) at the top of the straight and stayed on powerfully under continued urging inside the final quarter-mile to easily account for that rival by two lengths. The runner-up's fellow British challenger Coltrane (Ire) (Mastercraftsman {Ire}) stayed on to good effect and finished neck back in third.

"Kyprios is such a special horse and the team have done a fantastic job to get him back on track after his health problems," said Aidan O'Brien. "He has so much class and, for a stayer, he has a rare ability to quicken. He also has such a strong mindset and that was already apparent when he was a 2-year-old. This was his eighth Group 1 win, he's won the most Group 1 races for us and it's a great privilege to look after him every day. It would have been disrespectful to run him in the [G1] Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe over one-and-a-half miles as it's distance over which he hasn't raced for a long time. We can now look forward to returning to [Royal] Ascot for the [G1] Gold Cup next year."

Veteran campaigner Trueshan added another performance of merit to his resume and part-owner Andrew Gemmell was delighted with the eight-year-old gelding's display. "Trueshan ran a superb race," he said. "It's great that he's back to his best and that he was able to hunt up a horse like Kyprios. He was really brilliant if not magnificent today. We're really lucky to have a horse of this class and we're over the moon with his second place."

Anna-Lisa Balding echoed those sentiments with regard to third-place finisher Coltrane and added, "This is Coltrane's best performance of the season. We believed in him and he's a real battler. This is an excellent result."

Pedigree Notes

Kyprios is the latest of 10 foals, all winners, produced by dual Broodmare of the Year Polished Gem (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), herself out of G1 Irish 1000 Guineas heroine Trusted Partner (Affirmed). ST LEGER RUNNER-UP ILLINOIS ANNEXESARC WEEKEND OPENER by Sean Cronin

Coolmore's G1 St Leger runner-up Illinois (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}--Danedrop {Ire}), by Danehill), winner of Royal Ascot's G2 Queen's Vase back in June, fired the opening salvo of ParisLongchamp's Arc weekend and delivered a battling performance to prevail in the 15-furlong G2 Qatar Prix

Chaudenay.

The 2-5 favourite, who had also placed in the G1 Criterium de Saint-Cloud and G1 Grand Prix de Paris, went straight to the lead and held sway until turning for home. Under pressure when headed briefly by Trafalgar Square (Fr) (Kendargent {Fr}) with 300 metres remaining, he regained control entering the final furlong and kept on strongly to defeat that rival by an ultimately comfortable two lengths. Last month's Listed Prix Turenne victrix Strassia (Fr) (Kendargent {Fr}) fared best of the remainder and finished 3 1/2 lengths back in third.

"He's a lovely horse, he's straightforward and stays very well," said trainer Aidan O'Brien. "He's lazy, but finds plenty and Ryan [Moore] said he'd have no problem coming back in trip if he needs to. In an ideal world you'd prefer to get a lead, but we're very happy as it was a lovely race to come to after he got beat in the Leger. He should be a lovely four-year-old. I was obviously concerned when the other horse came to him, but he finds loads and Ryan gave him a great ride. That will probably be it for him for this year, I'd imagine. It's a nice, long winter and he'll be ready to start early in the spring. Ryan said he could start in Dubai or anywhere."

RAMADAN BOUNCES BACK TO FORM IN

PARIS by Sean Cronin

Nurlan Bizakov's G3 Prix de Fontainebleau and G3 Prix Daphnis victor Ramadan (Fr) (Le Havre {Ire}--Raushan {Ire}, by Dalakhani {Ire}), who trailed all six rivals home in last month's G1 Prix du Moulin, bounced back to form in style with a determined win in Saturday's G2 Qatar Prix Daniel Wildenstein at ParisLongchamp.

The 68-5 chance was positioned within range of the leaders in fourth through halfway in this one-mile test. Making headway once into the home straight, he inched ahead of Alcantor (Fr) (New Bay {GB}) with 300 metres remaining and was ridden out to hold the late bid of Andromede (Fr) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) by an ultimately snug 3/4-of-a-length for a career high. 'TDN Rising Star' Alcantor kept on well once headed to finish the same margin adrift in third.

"I love this horse and what a strong pace [set by Gladly Tiger] we had during the race," said trainer Christopher Head. "It's great to have a winner on Arc weekend for Nurlan Bizakov. He has faith in France and I hope that continues. Ramadan is entered in the Arc sale later, so we will see what happens."

At Saint-Cloud on Saturday evening, Ramadan would bring €1.5 million to top Arqana's Arc Sale. Lion Rock Bloodstock signed for the son of Le Havre.

Pedigree Notes

Ramadan is the sixth of seven foals and one of two scorers out of a winning full-sister to G1 Pretty Polly Stakes heroine Chinese White (Ire) (Dalakhani {Ire}) and G3 Royal Whip Stakes third Highly Toxic (Ire) (Dalakhani {Ire}). ZOFFANY'S JAYAREBE MAKES ALL FOR PRIX DOLLAR SUCCESS by Sean Cronin Iraj Parvizi's Arqana October graduate Jayarebe (Fr) (Zoffany {Ire}--Alakhana {Fr}, by Dalakhani {Ire}), who annexed Royal Ascot's Hampton Court Stakes in his penultimate start, was rewarded for his consistency with a pillar-to-post triumph in Saturday's G2 Qatar Prix Dollar at ParisLongchamp.

The April-foaled bay, a last-out second to subsequent G1 Irish Champion Stakes victor Economics (GB) (Night Of Thunder {Ire}) in Deauville's Aug. 15 G2 Prix Guillaume d'Ornano, was let go as the 29-10 second choice and broke well to seize an immediate advantage here. Untroubled on the lead until hustled along when threatened at the top of the straight, he came under stern urging inside the final quarter-mile and was driven out to just hold the late rattle of Almaqam (GB) (Lope De Vega {Ire}) by a head. The pair were four lengths clear of the remainder, headed by Birr Castle (Fr) (Cloth Of Stars {Ire}).

"Jayarebe is on an upward curve, he started in a Listed race at Newmarket in the spring and is going through each stage," said trainer Brian Meehan. "I was slightly concerned about the [soft] ground, but Sean [Levey] said he was fine. He's versatile, he's very exciting and he's got a great owner. It's great for the team at home as well. Maybe there's a horse out there that will give him a proper lead. He had to do it all himself today, but credit to Ed Walker's horse as he gave him a race inside the last 100 yards. He stays in training and there's so much more to come. It was a long journey here, so we'll get him home and take it from there. I'd have no worries about stepping up to a mile-and-a-half for the [GI Breeders' Cup] Turf."

Pedigree Notes

Jayarebe is the fourth of six foals and one of three scorers from as many runners produced by Listed Prix Joubert victrix and G3 Grand Prix des Provinces third Alakhana (Fr) (Dalakhani {Ire}), herself the leading performer out of Listed Henkel Trial third Dubai (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}). Dubai, in turn, is a half-sister to G2 Preis des Bankhaus Salem Oppenheim winner Denaro (Ger) (Dashing Blade {GB}), G3 Dr Busch-Memorial victor Davidoff (Ger) (Montjeu {Ire}) and multiple Group-placed Listed Mulheim Derby Trial winner Duellant (Ger) (Dashing Blade {GB}). The April-foaled bay, whose third dam is stakes-winning G2 German 1000 Guineas runner-up Dapprima (Ger) (Shareef Dancer), is kin to the unraced 2-year-old colt Persian Warrior (Fr) (Persian King {Ire}) and a yearling colt by Victor Ludorum (GB).

BLACK TYPE REVIEW

by Tom Frary

Aside from the action at ParisLongchamp and Newmarket, there were two pattern races at Ascot which saw Al Qareem (Ire) (Awtaad {Ire}) make all for back-to-back renewals of the G3 Cumberland Lodge Stakes. Nick Bradley Racing's strong-staying 5-year-old was too far beyond the reach of habitual group 3 winner Al Aasy (Ire) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) for it to become a meaningful contest.

Trainer Karl Burke is set to send the winner back over further. "He's got an entry at Ascot and we will keep an eye on that race, but he is more likely to go for the Prix Royal-Oak and take a shot at that," he said. "We will see what turns up at both meetings and make a decision closer to the time."

Trainer partners Peter Charalambous and James Clutterbuck were later celebrating at the Berkshire venue as the 6-year-old Apollo One (GB) (Equiano {Fr}) registered a breakthrough pattern win in the six-furlong G3 John Guest Racing Bengough Stakes, while another of the smaller stables in Johnny Portman was in the winner's spot after Rumstar (GB) (Havana Grey {GB}) took a strongly-run edition of the Listed Rous Stakes.

Rumstar's dam Stellarta (GB) (Sakhee's Secret {GB}) also has a yearling full-brother to the winner, who sold for 250,000gns to Rumstar Bloodstock at last year's Tattersalls December Foal Sale and who comes back under the hammer in next week's Tattersalls October Yearling Sale Book 1.

Purchased for 725,000gns at Tattersalls October Book 1, the John and Thady Gosden-trained chestnut was switched off in rear early by Hollie Doyle whose body language spoke volumes preparing for the downhill slide into the dip.

Picking up with an impressive flourish towards the far side, the 100-30 shot was in front a furlong out and only needed to be kept up to his work to secure a cosy half-length verdict over the experienced Wild Nature (GB) (Kingman {GB}), with the Shadwell newcomer Nakeeb (GB) (Night Of Thunder {Ire}) three lengths behind in third.

“That was a taking performance,” Doyle said. “He could have won that in the paddock. He went to sleep early and then really surprised me how quickly he put the race to bed. He has a great mind, but is big and raw and burly.”

Imad Al Sagar’s racing manager Teddy Grimthorpe said, “It was a very pleasing start and he has taken a while to come to himself. He went into training quite late and John has brought him on and he’s been very straightforward which is really encouraging. The nice thing was he was sort of half-asleep through the race and then picked up nicely as you would want him too.”

“You always hope, but first time you never know and it looked a smart race,” he added. “When the other horse came to him he then found a bit more and went on. We will see how he is and I think in John’s mind he would have liked to have given him another run, but I think he was thinking we might finish second or third and then slot in a maiden so we weren’t chasing one of those in the spring. Now I think we have to think about where we want to be and whether he needs it and how he comes out of it. Plans may have slightly changed.” Cont. p19

Nashwa, who is the winner of the G1 Prix de Diane, G1 Nassau Stakes, G1 Falmouth Stakes and whose four group 1 placings include a third in the Oaks, is so far the best progeny out of Princess Loulou who was a listed scorer who finished second in the G1 Prix Jean Romanet. The family includes the dual listed winner and multiple group-placed Watching (GB) (Indian Ridge {Ire}) and the group and graded-stakes placed Media Mogul (GB) (First Trump {GB}).

A handicap winner at Sandown and Haydock this term, Sunfall was a surprise winner of this contest as one of the lowest-rated in the line-up with her ability to handle the easy ground and her inherent toughness seeing her make the breakthrough. In front from the outset, the homebred was tackled and headed by Queen Of Mougins inside the final furlong but stayed on resolutely to get back in front close home.

The dam, who was sold for 35,000gns at last year's Tattersalls December, is also responsible for the Listed Empress Stakes-placed Undertake (GB) (Kodiac {GB}). A full-sister to the Listed Staffordstown Stud Stakes winner Fantasy Lady (Ire) and the G3 Prix du Pin-placed Dark Trooper (Ire), she hails from the family of the G1 Prix de l'Opera heroine Kinnaird (Ire) (Dr Devious {Ire}), the G2 July Stakes and G2 Richmond Stakes-winning sire Ivawood (Ire) (Zebedee) and the five-times group 1-winning Prix de Diane heroine Laurens (Fr) (Siyouni {Fr}). THE DRAGON KING (IRE) (c, 2, Invincible Army {Ire}--Dutch Monarch {GB}, by Dutch Art {GB}), a dual winner who had been hardened in nurseries, was cut adrift throughout the early stages of this £150,000 Tattersalls October Auction Stakes playing catch-up. Finding a head of steam passing halfway, the 5-1 shot finished with a rattle to overwhelm Brighton Boy (Ire) (Gregorian {Ire}) in the final yards and score by a length. Tom Palin of Middleham Park Racing said, "That's not the conventional way to win a race at Newmarket! He's a horse who always gives his all and he needed to give his all there, fair play to William [Buick] for keeping going. I need to speak to Clive and he is in the sale, but he might have given himself a stay of execution there. There's a group 2, Eddie's Boy was second in behind Charyn [the Criterium de Maisons-Laffitte at Chantilly] and we could supplement for that, that could be an option, but I will speak to Clive [Cox]." The winner, whose sales date is in the Tattersalls Autumn Horses-in-Training Sale at the end of the month, is out of a granddaughter of the G1 Cheveley Park Stakes heroine Regal Rose (GB) (Danehill) who is the second dam of the G3 Prestige Stakes and G3 Oak Tree Stakes winner Regal Realm (GB) (Medicean {GB}). Untroubled throughout, the 8-13 favourite geared up passing the two pole and surged clear to easily defeat Tawajjah (Ire) (Frankel {GB}) by an impressive three lengths. Sardinian Warrior, a full-brother to the unraced 2-year-old filly La Capriola (Ire), is the sixth of seven foals and one of five winners out of G1 Phoenix Stakes and G1 Matron Stakes heroine La Collina (Ire) (Strategic Prince {GB}). MAURICE COLTS ONE-TWO IN TOKYO

by Heather Anderson

Second choice Arte Veloce (Jpn) (Maurice {Jpn}) led home paternal half-brother Taisei Current (Jpn) (Maurice {Jpn}) en route to breaking his black-type duck in the G3 Saudi Arabia Royal Cup at Tokyo on Saturday. The Teruo Ono-raced colt was trying 1600 metres for the first time and remained unbeaten.

A July 27 maiden winner over 1500 metres at Sapporo at first asking, Saturday's 5-2 shot was not hindered by the rain and was taken under a firm hold when too eager down the backstretch by pilot Naosuke Sugai. Shin Forever (Complexity) loped along on the front end while shadowed by Food Man (Kingman {GB}), and Meinter Ticket (Jpn) (Danon Ballade {Jpn}) and favoured Arlecchino (Jpn) (Bricks And Mortar) maintained a close watch on the leading pair on the bend.

Switched to the outside for his bid, Arte Veloce was given his cue, and he began his trek toward the vanguard as the field entered the home straight. Sugai delivered an animated ride on his charge, and any one of five had a decent shot at the furlong grounds. The eventual winner kept gaining, eventually bursting past his rivals with five strides to spare and kept going to win by a length. It was a half-length between Taisei Current and Meinter Ticket in second and third. Pacesetter Shin Forever held on for fourth, another half-length back.

Pedigree Notes

Shadai Stallion Station resident Maurice now has 29 stakes winners and 20 group winners. Arte Veloce is his fifth stakes winner out of a Deep Impact (Jpn) mare after G1 Queen Elizabeth II Cup heroine Geraldina (Jpn), and fellow group winners Divina (Jpn), Al Naseem (Jpn) and Rooks Nest (Jpn).

The first foal out of Culminate (Jpn), the winner has a yearling half-brother by Lord Kanaloa (Jpn) and a half-sister by Poetic Flare (Ire) born this year. His granddam Cursorsa (Arg) (Candy Stripes) was a champion in Argentina with a pair of Group 1 victories to her name. Besides Culminate, she has stakes winner and G3 Sirius Stakes second Pionero (Jpn) (Neo Universe {Jpn}), the group-placed Seleccion (Jpn) (Heart's Cry {Jpn}) and the G1 Japanese 1000 Guineas/G1 Japanese Oaks-placed Culminar (Jpn) (Deep Impact {Jpn}) to her credit.

HISTORY REPEATS IN THE EPSOM WITH ANOTHER 4-YEAR-OLD WINNER

by Renee Geelen

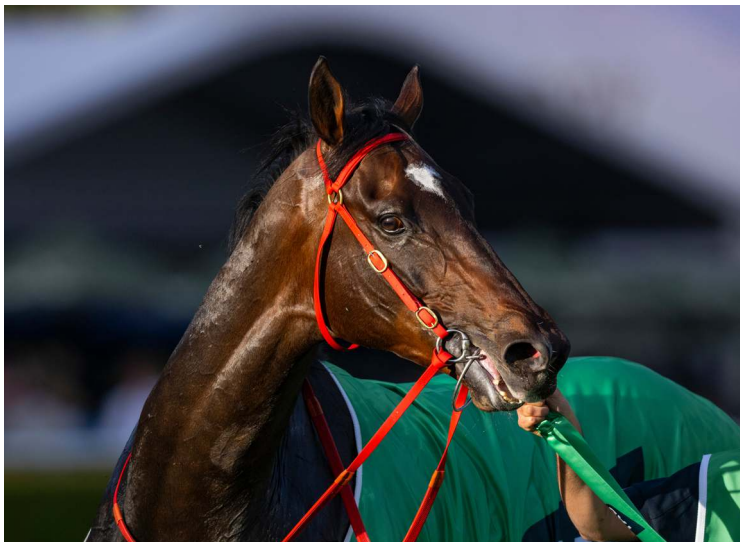

Seven of the last 10 G1 Epsom Handicap have been won by 4-year-olds and Ceowulf (NZ) (Tavistock {NZ}) added to that record on Saturday for trainer Joseph Pride. Ridden by Chad Schofield, he swooped down the outside and flew past the field to win by 1.17l to give punters one back as the A$4 favourite. In second was the strong finishing Tom Kitten (Aus) (Harry Angel {Ire}) for Godolphin, with Gai Waterhouse and Adrian Bott-trained Royal Patronage (Fr) (Wootton Bassett {GB}) third as part of a three way go for the third-place prizemoney.

“That was fantastic. We knew he had the right sort of profile coming into it and to see him let down like that, it's very, very satisfying. He's just a good horse on the rise. He's just going to keep getting better with age and he's so exciting. That was a real buzz,” said Pride.

Now the winner of three of his 13 starts, with earnings over A$1.6 million, Ceolwulf came into the race off a last-start second in the G3 Kingston Town Stakes over 2000 metres. Brought back to a mile did the trick giving him his first black type win, so he becomes the 51st stakes winner for his sire who now has 11 Group 1 winners. Ceolwulf is from Tavistock's (NZ) last crop.

Ceolwulf | Bronwen Healy

“He's got a great engine. I see it every time he runs, the way he recovers from races and track gallops. He's an amazing athlete, and as I say, the best is yet to come. He'll run a little bit further than that but no need to toy with that too much at the moment. We'll enjoy that one today and think about where we go next.

“Yet to discover that (what his best distance is). He could well back up in the Hill Stakes next week, but I haven't ruled out, you could come back here for the King Charles. There's a lot of options. Let's just sit on it for now and enjoy that.”

Pedigree Notes

Purchased by his trainer from the New Zealand Bloodstock Ready to Run Sale of 2-year-olds for NZ$170,000 from Riversley Park, Ceolwulf is out of imported unraced mare Las Brisas (GB) (Shamardal). He is her only runner to date, and she is a half-sister to Listed winner Nantyglo (GB) (Mark Of Esteem {Ire}). Ceolwulf's third dam, stakes-placed winner Solo De Lune (Ire) (Law Society), is responsible for Group 1 winner Cerulean Sky (Ire) (Darshaan {GB}) and G1 Irish Oaks winner Moonstone (GB) (Dalakhani {Ire}) and two other stakes winners. She is the ancestress of a multitude of stakes winners including champion Hong Kong sprinter Wellington (Aus) (All Too Hard {Aus}).

LEGEND LANDS THE METROPOLITAN HANDICAP AFTER SURVIVING PROTEST

by Renee Geelen

Jockey Reece Jones secured his first Group 1 victory in a dramatic G1 Metropolitan Handicap after surviving a protest. Riding Chris Waller-trained Land Legend (Fr) (Galileo {Ire}), Jones navigated the bend on the outside, with James Cummings's Zardozi (Aus) (Kingman {GB}) close on his inside.

Struggling to straighten his mount, Jones worked hard to keep Land Legend on track, and once he did, the pair surged ahead of the field. In a thrilling duel down the straight, Land Legend just edged out Zardozi, winning by a mere 0.05l.

Zac Lloyd immediately protested, telling Racing NSW stewards, "He has laid on my mare quite significantly and given me a good bump. My mare has pegged back that margin and unfortunately gone down in a head-bobber."

"He's had the whole straight to get in front of me... I've actually had to claw back that margin he had put on me over the concluding stages and I was able to do so," Jones said in his reply to the claim, and the stewards agreed with chief stipe Steve Railton saying, "The stewards aren't comfortably satisfied that's the case, so we dismiss the objection."

Land Legend (right) is the 102nd Group 1 winner for his late sire
Bronwen Healy

On his first Group 1, Jones said, "It's a little bit surreal. I've been waiting for this day for a while. I'm just really thankful to (owner) Bon Ho and the Waller team for keeping their faith in me and letting me ride him today. I've kind of waited my turn... I'm not the emotional type, but this is fantastic."

Waller-trained lightweight, and favourite, Unusual Legacy (NZ) (Unusual Suspect) was over 3l further back in third.

Waller reflected on the victory, stating, "We picked this race out, I guess six months ago and said, we'll do it third-up and make sure we've still got something left for the rest of the spring as well."

He added, "When it was a hard-fought finish, I just wondered whether his condition would hold out because he's actually quite a gross horse, he's a bit of a bulldog. And he was tough the last 100 metres."

Pedigree Notes

The 5-year-old gelding was a winner from eight starts in Europe and arrived in Australia last spring to win the ATC St Leger on his Australian debut in October 2023. After almost a year away from the track, he resumed this August running last, before a sixth in the G3 Kingston Town Stakes leading into Saturday's win. This was his first stakes win, giving super sire Galileo (Ire) his 102nd Group 1 winner and his 382nd lifetime stakes winner.

Only his third career win from 12 starts, Land Legend took his earnings over A$760,000. He is the third foal and third winner for the beautifully bred winning mare Landikusic (Ire) (Dansili {GB}), who is a full sister to Group 1 winner and sire Zoffany (Ire), and a half-sister to Group 2 winner and G1 Irish Derby-placed Rostropovich (Ire) (Frankel {GB}) and Group 3 winner Wilshire Boulevard (Ire) (Holy Roman Emperor {Ire}).

QUINELLA FOR WALLER AND FASTNET ROCK IN SOGGY G1 TURNBULL STAKES

by Renee Geelen

The rain came down at Flemington between race three and four, with the track downgraded to soft, and it was the perfect conditions for Chris Waller-trained mare Via Sistina (Ire) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}) to win her third Group 1 race for owners Yulong, and fourth career Group 1.

Ridden by Damian Lane, who made it 33 career Group 1 wins, Via Sistina sat near the rear of the field and peeled out wide for the run down the Flemington straight to chase down the leading pair of Duke De Sessa (Ire) (Lope De Vega {Ire}) and favourite Eliyass (Fr) (Le Havre {Ire}). Stablemate Buckaroo (GB) (Fastnet Rock), ridden by Joao Moreira, tracked alongside Via Sistina and the pair made steady in roads to the lead, hitting the line together with Via Sistina winning by 0.2l. Eliyass was 1.5l further back in third with Duke De Sessa holding on for fourth.

Fifth last start in the G1 Makybe Diva S. Via Sistina took her record to eight wins and six placings from 18 starts with earnings over A$3.7 million. This was her fourth Group 1 win, the others being the G1 Pretty Polly S., G1 Ranvet S. and G1 Winx S.

A 2.7 million gns (A$5.4 million) purchase by Evergreen Equine for current owner Yulong Investments at the 2023 Tattersalls December Mare Sale, Via Sistina reversed her lack of form from her last start.

“She was fantastic today. Her run last start was so far away from her true form that you could do nothing else other than put a pen through it,” said stable representative Charlie Duckworth.

“So, we were confident that she would bounce back today, and she was tough. Obviously, Buckaroo is the man on the scene at the moment. He was going for three wins in a row and he's dug deep and still been narrowly denied. So fantastic for the whole team. To perform like that, it's pretty special for everyone involved with her.

“Fantastic for Yulong because they really stump up every time and they've got an absolute diamond.”

When asked if they changed anything after her last start disappointment, Duckworth said, “We didn't really panic because we knew it was so out of the ordinary. Obviously, we did all the normal things with getting her checked out thoroughly to make sure that there is nothing amiss.

“But ultimately, we knew we had a happy and healthy horse leading into today and that was the difference. I know everyone was sort of worried about the track and blamed it potentially on the track last start. But I think the tempo of the race and the time in which the rain fell made it into a real shifty track rather than a genuine Soft track.”

On last start G1 Underwood S. winner Buckaroo, Duckworth was asked about the G1 Caulfield Cup. “It is a tricky one. Obviously, Ozzie Kheir and Qatar with Sheikh Fahad and David Redvers will make a decision whether they want to rematch around The Valley. He did make it pretty tough for her, or whether we step up to a mile and a half. We won't worry about that today. We'll just enjoy the win and enjoy the placings.”

Another Group 1 victory for Via Sistina | Bronwen Healy

Pedigree Notes

The quinella for Fastnet Rock came from his time shuttling to Coolmore in Ireland, and Via Sistina adds to the record Fastnet Rock has with Galileo (Ire) mares with the cross having produced Group 1 winners Age Of Fire (Aus), Intricately (Ire), Magicool (Aus), Personal (Aus), Pizza Bianca, Qualify (Ire), Rivet Delight (Ire), Unforgotten (Aus), Zhukova (Ire), and of course, Via Sistina.

A big price-tag comes with a big pedigree and Via Sistina's unraced dam Nigh (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) is a half-sister to English champion 3-year-old sprinter and dual Group 1 winner Kingsgate Native (Ire) (Mujadil {Ire}) who beat War Artist (Aus) (Orpen), Sir Gerry (Carson City), and Takeover Target (Aus) (Celtic Swing {GB}) in the G1 Royal Ascot Golden Jubilee S.

LADY SHENANDOAH SOARS TO G1 VICTORY AT RANDWICK by Kit Gow

Not many horses break their maidens at group level, but Lady Shenandoah (Aus) (Snitzel {Aus}) proved she is not most horses at the Randwick mile on Saturday. The filly was victorious for the first time last start in the G3 Ming Dynasty, soundly beating subsequent G1 Golden Rose placegetter Mayfair (Aus) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}), and she brought that same class to the G1 Flight S. Sitting mid-field until the 400-metre mark, Zac Lloyd let the Chris Waller-trained filly rip once straightening, flying home to score by 3.17l over Harlem Queen (Aus) (Brutal {NZ}), with favourite Snow In May (Aus) (The Autumn Sun {Aus}) unable to catch up in third.

Waller initially had the filly entered for yesterday's trials at Rosehill Gardens, but a change of plans came about after the 11th hour scratching of early favourite and unbeaten Autumn Glow (Aus) (The Autumn Sun {Aus}), who will miss the rest of the spring in order to recover from surgery to remove a bone chip in her right knee.

"It was a tough week but I'm not going to get emotional about it because I'm so blessed to have these types of horses in the stable," said Waller post race. "We won't get too carried away, she's still filling out and developing, but she's got a Group 1 next to her name."

Originally a start in the G1 Thousand Guineas in November had been on the cards, but Waller indicated that was unlikely to remain her goal now. "It is a long way to wait," he added. "I don't think it would be our normal path."

Jockey Zac Lloyd, after securing his second career Group 1 and first in Sydney, said, "What a filly, and obviously I'm very lucky to land on her. I'm very honoured to get the ride for Hermitage and Mr Waller, and hopefully I can get a couple more Group 1s as easy as that.

"It was scintillating. She travelled like the winner the whole way, and I just had to count to five before I let her go. But I don't think it mattered, she's very good."

It's a Flight Stakes score for Lady Shenandoah | Bronwen Healy

Pedigree Notes

The filly's dam Star Pupil (Aus) (Starcraft {NZ}) was a maiden winner for Paul Messara and breeders Arrowfield Stud 10 years ago but has already made an indelible mark in the breeding barn, producing stakes-placed Tiger Silk (Aus) (All American {Aus}) and G1 HKJC Centenary Sprint Cup-winning sire Stronger (Aus) in her first two foals. She is herself a daughter of triple stakes-winning Ain't Seen Nothin' (Aus) (Nothin' Leica Dane {Aus}), dam of stakes winners Bachman (Aus) (All American {Aus}), Stepitup (Aus) (Hussonet), and Star Pupil's successful full-sister Ain'tnofallenstar (Aus), herself the dam of Group 3-winning Ain'tnodeeldun (Aus) (Dundeel {NZ}).

Presented by breeders Arrowfield Stud at last year's Inglis Australian Easter Yearling Sale, Lady Shenandoah was purchased by Hermitage Thoroughbreds for A$525,000, returning to the well that gave them five-time Group 1-winning sire The Autumn Sun (Aus). Cont. p30

Star Pupil's only foal since Lady Shenandoah is a now a yearling by fellow Arrowfield Stud resident Maurice (Jpn), and she enters this spring empty after slipping to Snitzel. Tiger Silk made her way to the States, where she has so far produced three foals, the latest a colt by Lanes End Farm-based sire Twirling Candy who sold for US$200,000 (AU$294,300) to Joe Migliore as agent at last month's Keeneland September Yearling Sale.

Second placed Harlem Queen, trained by Nathan Doyle, is the fifth foal of juvenile Listed winner Harlem River (Aus) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}), and was taking her first swing at stakes level off of back-to-back wins at provincial level. Doyle also trains her half-brother, four-time winner Kipsbay (Aus) (Capitalist {Aus}).

CHANCER MCPATRICK GOES LAST TO FIRST IN CHAMPAGNE

Unbeaten 'TDN Rising Star' Provides Gainesway's McKinzie With Rolling Grade I Double

Chancer McPatrick | Sarah Andrew

by Steve Sherack

'TDN Rising Star' Chancer McPatrick (McKinzie) ran by them all to remain unbeaten and provide his freshman sire with a rolling Grade I double in Saturday's 'Win and You're In' GI Champagne Stakes at the Belmont at the Big A meeting.

McKinzie's Scottish Lassie, a debut third as the favorite at Saratoga, broke her maiden in style with a runaway success in the GI Frizette Stakes one race earlier on the card.

Favored at 1-2, Chancer McPatrick broke like a shot from his outside draw--not the case in either of his first two career starts, including his dramatic win in the GI Hopeful Stakes at Saratoga last time Sept. 2--but was quickly outfooted to caboose the field in ninth through fractions of :22.47 and :45.59.

The Flanagan Racing colorbearer began to catch the eye with a sweeping move beneath Flavien Prat on the far turn and set his sights on fellow 'Rising Star' Tip Top Thomas (Volatile), who took over from the longshot pacesetter at the five-sixteenths. Tip Top Thomas turned them in with a clear advantage and dug down bravely in the stretch, but Chancer McPatrick was just getting warmed up. Cont. p3

EASY STREET: UNBEATEN 'RISING STAR' EAST AVENUE ROMPS IN WIRE-TO-WIRE FASHION IN CLAIBORNE BREEDERS' FUTURITY

by Steve Sherack

Godolphin homebred East Avenue (Medaglia d'Oro), tabbed as a 'TDN Rising Star' following a runaway debut victory sprinting with an 86 Beyer Speed Figure at Ellis Park Aug. 24, romped in front-running fashion by a geared-down 5 1/2 lengths while making his two-turn debut in Saturday's 'Win and You're In' GI Claiborne Breeders' Futurity at Keeneland.

Favored 'Rising Star Ferocious (Flatter), a $1.3-million OBS March breezer and runner-up behind unbeaten GI Champagne Stakes winner Chancer McPatrick (McKinzie) in the GI Hopeful Stakes at Saratoga Sept. 2, was second-best after an eventful trip. Longshot Filoso (City of Light), a second-out maiden winner at the Spa, rounded out the trifecta. Cont. p6

IN TDN EUROPE TODAY

WILL IT BE ARC NUMBER NINE FOR FABRE?

Trainer Andre Fabre has three chances to make it G1 Qatar Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe number nine in Sunday's ParisLongchamp showpiece. Tom Frary has the preview on a busy day of racing.

ESS IS FOR... SENSATIONÄL!

Six of his yearlings have already sold for $500k or more.

Essential Quality: more yearlings selling now. Spectacular.

WOODFORD STAKES

Chancer McPatrick kept on rolling down the lane, hit the front with a sixteenth of a mile to run and powered clear from there to win going away by 2 3/4 lengths.

Tip Top Thomas, a narrow debut winner in the always loaded maiden special weight on the GI Travers Stakes undercard, was second. Previously unbeaten New York-bred Mo Plex (Complexity), winner of the GIII Sanford Stakes and Funny Cide Stakes at the Spa this summer, was third.

Chancer McPatrick was a visually impressive last-to-first debut winner at Saratoga July 27, then repeated that performance with a half-length decision over fellow 'Rising Star' Ferocious (Flatter) in the seven-furlong Hopeful. Ferocious was a distant runner-up in Saturday's GI Claiborne Breeders' Futurity at Keeneland.

Chancer McPatrick becomes the fifth Champagne winner for trainer Chad Brown. He also saddled subsequent GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile winner Good Magic (Curlin) to a second-place finish in the 2017 renewal.

Chancer McPatrick will make his first start around two turns in the Breeders' Cup Juvenile at Del Mar Nov. 1.

Chancer McPatrick's owner Sean Flanagan | Sarah Andrew

"I was a little surprised they ran away from him on the stretch out," Brown said. "They were going pretty fast, but still I thought on the stretch out he would put himself a little closer. He jumped good out of the gate--he might have veered out just a touch--but he jumped forward good and then they just ran away from him again. So, momentarily there I thought he was a little too far back but Flavien (Prat) rides him with so much confidence and he told me, 'Once I asked him to go, he made up a lot of ground really fast and in hand.' He felt he was always there for him whenever he wanted." Cont. p4

Brown continued, "He runs his races like he's a year older than he is. He runs like an experienced, fit 3-year-old. He's got a long, strong run. He showed it in all three of his starts. The way he finished up and the way he relaxes, I don't see going two turns as a problem.

"It was a real strong run. The horse that finished second (Tip Top Thomas)--he was a smart winner at Saratoga and the figure came back really fast. I was in the race with a horse that ran third (Keewaydin) that I hold in high regard, so I knew he was real that horse. Super race to set those fractions and still be there late in the race with this horse."

Sarah Andrew

East Avenue | Coady Media

East Avenue, sent off as the 5-2 second choice, cleared the field beneath Tyler Gaffalione heading into the first turn as Ferocious, who also acted up in the starting gate and tossed rider Luis Saez, raced in some early traffic and bounced off the rail. East Avenue cruised up front through fractions of :23.18 and :46.76 over a track playing very kindly to speed, hit the top of the short stretch in a race of his own and kept on rolling down the lane to punch his ticket to the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile with an exclamation point.

The result stood following an objection lodged by the rider of the runner-up claiming interference against the winner heading into the run to the clubhouse turn.

Godolphin and trainer Brendan Walsh won this same race in 2019 with Darley stallion Maxfield (Street Sense), who was a late scratch and forced to sit out that fall's Breeders' Cup Juvenile with a foot bruise.

"I've been lucky enough to have a couple of very good horses the last two years, especially with Godolphin, and he seemed like he was right up there," Walsh said. "I was just waiting for confirmation. I think he's a very special horse." Cont. p7

Godolphin also campaigns Friday's GI Darley Alcibiades Stakes heroine Immersive (Nyquist), who heads to the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies for Brad Cox with a perfect three-for-three record.

Pedigree Notes:

East Avenue becomes the 27th Grade I/Group 1 winner worldwide for leading sire Medaglia d'Oro. East Avenue was produced by the unraced Dance Music (Ghostzapper), a half-sister to Horse of the Year and Darley stallion Cody's Wish (Curlin). Dance Music is also responsible for a Hard Spun colt of 2023 and an Authentic filly of this year. She was bred back to Not This Time.

East Avenue's second dam Dance Card (Tapit), a $750,000 Fasig-Tipton Florida 2-year-old purchase by Sheikh Mohammed's global operation, won the 2012 GI Gazelle S. and was third behind two-time champion Groupie Doll (Bowman's Band) in the following year's GI Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Sprint in her career finale.

East Avenue becomes the seventh Grade I winner for broodmare sire Ghostzapper.

'RISING STAR' CARL SPACKLER MAKES ALL, GIVES BROWN FIRST COOLMORE TURF MILE

by Alan Carasso

Carl Spackler | Coady Media

Never before in his nine-race career had 'TDN Rising Star' Carl Spackler (Ire) (Lope de Vega {Ire}) led at the first or second call of any of his races.

Never before, even more remarkably, had Chad Brown unsaddled a winner of the GI Coolmore Turf Mile at Keeneland.

But, drawn widest in a field of nine for Saturday's 'Win and You're In' qualifier for the GI Breeders' Cup Mile the flashy chestnut was ridden for speed from out there by Tyler Gaffalione and found extra in the final furlong to earn an all-expenses-paid trip to Del Mar.

The blaze-faced chestnut had to do a bit of work to make the lead, but he was able to cross and clear his rivals through an opening quarter in :23.93 as Talk of the Nation (Quality Road) and Spirit of St Louis (Medaglia d'Oro) raced closest. He picked up the tempo through an internal quarter in :23.35 and was still going great guns for the run around the turn. He began to get away from them as they neared the stretch and was firmly in front with a furlong and a half to travel, but may have idled for a stride or two, allowing Spirit of St Louis to appear a threat. The chestnut colt rebroke, however, and was home a length to the good.

More Than Looks (More Than Ready), a first-up second to Carl Spackler in the GI Fourstardave Handicap on his seasonal return Aug. 11, cabooseed the field after an awkward dispatch and did not handle the run into the first turn especially well. Quietly ridden down the back of the track, he was clearly last to make the stretch, but steamed home once switched out to complete a chalky exacta. The sponsor's Mountain Bear (Ire) (No Nay Never) was third.

Coady Media

“My horse broke alertly (from the outside post),” Gaffalione explained. “I looked to the inside, and nobody was really in any hurry to get going forward. I didn’t want to take too much away from my horse, so I just put my hands down and let him get comfortable. He proved he was best today. He’s a tremendous athlete. All the credit goes to (trainer) Chad (Brown) and his team. They bring these horses over ready to run. (The horses are) so kind; they listen to the cues of the jockeys. He did everything I asked him, and he really turned it on.”

Hard-fought winner of the May 2 Opening Verse Stakes at Churchill, Carl Spackler was a flat fifth in the GIII Poker Stakes at Saratoga June 8, but outgamed Talk of the Nation next out in the GIII Kelso S. July 13 when reverting to handier tactics. Just off a moderate pace in the Fourstardave, he exhibited his trademark turn of foot when asked for it and had 3 1/2 lengths on More Than Looks—who was fresh first off the layoff—on the line.

Pedigree Notes:

On behalf of Bob Edwards's operation, Mike Ryan acquired Zindaya for $550,000 at the 2015 Keeneland November Sale and she was turned over to Chad Brown. A decision to keep the mare in training at five was rewarded when Zindaya won the Intercontinental Stakes and later the GII Goldikova Stakes at Santa Anita.

Edwards had Carl Spackler consigned through Ballylinch Stud to the 2021 Tattersalls October Sale, but elected to retain him when bidding stalled out at 350,000gns ($499,172), a choice that looks very wise in retrospect. Regal Gallery (Ire) (Frankel {GB}), the 3-year-old half-sister to Carl Spackler, cost Godolphin 450,000gns at Tattersalls in 2022, while the juvenile full-brother, Sandtrap (Ire), commanded the same price from A.C. Elliott at last year's October Sale and was the impressive winner of a 1400-meter Salisbury maiden on debut for Ralph Beckett Sept. 13.

Zindaya, a half-sister to American Grade I winner and top Indian stallion Western Aristocrat (Mr. Greeley), foaled a colt by Uncle Mo this past Feb. 15 and was bred to Justify for her 2025 foal.

KEENELAND-LOVING GINA ROMANTICA

REPEATS IN FIRST LADY by Alan Carasso

Returning to the site of her previous victories in the 2022 GI QE II Challenge Cup and last year's GI First Lady Stakes, Peter Brant's Gina Romantica (Into Mischief) sat an ideal trip from a close-up third in defense of her title in the latter over a fast turf course, came after pacesetting favorite Ag Bullet (Twirling Candy) just inside the eighth pole and easily held sway for the victory.

CANDY RIDE
Ride The Rails - Candy Girl (ARG), by Candy Stripes

NEW GRADED STAKES WINNER SENBEI
Earned his first graded win and fifth stakes win in the G3 BELMONT TURF SPRINT S.

Congratulations to
Owner: Reeves Thoroughbred Racing and Darlene Bilinski
Breeder: Dr. Jerry Bilinski

Sent off the 33-10 second choice behind Ag Bullet, the surprising 5-2 market leader off a potentially anomalous victory in the GII Ladies Turf Sprint at Kentucky Downs Aug. 31, Gina Romantica left there running and was guided back to hug the rail from third as her gifted dual GI Diana Stakes-winning stablemate Whitebeam (GB) (Caravaggio) kept close attendance to the pacesetter for the opening half-mile.

Gina Romantica | Coady Media

Traveling very kindly on the turn for Jose Ortiz, Gina Romantica benefitted notably when Whitebeam drifted out once heads were turned for home and she was pulled out to deliver her challenge, hit the front and was home comfortably best, as GI Just a Game Stakes heroine Chili Flag (Fr) (Cityscape {GB}) and Fluffy Socks (Slumber {GB}) rallied from far back to round out a Chad Brown trifecta.

The win was the seventh straight in the First Lady for Brown and fourth in a row for Peter Brant (Blowout {GB}, 2021, In Italian {GB}, 2022). Gina Romantica is the second back-to-back winner of the First Lady, joining former Brown champion Uni (GB) (More Than Ready) and could well get an opportunity to improve on her fourth-place effort in the 2023 GI Breeders' Cup Mile at Del Mar Nov. 2.

“It was beautiful. She loves it here,” the winning rider commented. “The break was key today. She broke very alert and put me into a great position going into the first turn. I was very happy throughout the backside, and when we hit the quarter pole, there was an opening between two horses and she exploded.”

Gina Romantica entered the First Lady in search of her first win of the season despite some good efforts. A comebacking seventh in the GI Jenny Wiley Stakes here Apr. 13, the bay was a fair fifth in the Just A Game and rounded out the triple at odds of 15-1 in the Diana, missing by three-parts of a length. She most recently was the victim of the pace--or lack thereof--in the GII Ballston Spa Stakes at Saratoga Aug. 22, but nevertheless attacked the line to be a neck second to Jenny Wiley upsetter Beaute Cachee (Fr) (Literato {Fr}), who enjoyed a soft time of things on the lead.

Pedigree Notes:

Machmer Hall paid $6,000 for the unplaced Special Me, a half-sister to G1 Dubai Golden Shaheen hero Our Special Recruit (Alphabet Soup) as a 3-year-old at the 2009 Keeneland January Sale and she has become one of the more consequential broodmares in recent times.

Special Me has produced seven winners from eight to race, four of which are graded winners, including--in chronological order--MGSW & GISP Stonetastic (Mizzen Mast); GISW and Lane's End sire Gift Box (Twirling Candy); and Special Forces (Candy Ride {Arg}), a dual graded winner over the Woodbine synthetic in addition to Gina Romantica.

One of 21 top-level winners for Into Mischief, Gina Romantica is bred on the cross over Unbridled-line dams that has been responsible for GI Kentucky Derby-winning 'TDN Rising Star' Mandaloun, dual champion and multiple Grade I winner Covfeve; and G1 Dubai World Cup hero Laurel River.

Special Me is the dam of Gina Romantica's 2-year-old full-brother Jousting, a $1.2-million KEESEP yearling purchase by M.V. Magnier; a yearling filly by Twirling Candy that was bought back for $525,000 at this year's September Sale; and a weanling filly by Flightline. She was most recently bred back to Into Mischief. Cont. p12

SLAINTE MHATH! MCKINZIE MAIDEN SCOTTISH LASSIE ROMPS IN 'WAYI' FRIZETTE, GIVES ABREU FIRST GRADE I

by Jill Williams

Scottish Lassie | Sarah Andrew

What a way to tally a first career graded stakes. Both trainer Jorge Abreu and his charge, who entered Saturday with only a third-place finish under her girth, broke their graded maiden with a runaway score in the GI Frizette Stakes at Belmont at the Big A. Now Abreu and Scottish Lassie (McKinzie) have earned a fees-paid berth to the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies in four weeks. Abreu, a former assistant to Chad Brown, brought a longshot filly to the Juvenile Fillies last year and nearly pulled off a 17-1 upset, finishing second with Jody's Pride (American Pharoah) by a neck. Cont. p13

The Frizette looked like a wide-open affair on paper after 3-5 morning-line choice and 'TDN Rising Star' Senza Parole (Gun Runner) scratched Thursday. Scottish Lassie settled into third early, ears pinned and under a hold, as previously unbeaten Social Fortress (Social Inclusion) led up front with a couple of lengths clear on the field through first fractions of :22.81 and :46.20. Entering the turn, Scottish Lassie moved up to engage the leader under her own power, looking relaxed and moving easily. She swept by Social Fortress, winner of Monmouth's Aug. 24 Sorority Stakes, under a hand ride, striding clear so smoothly and thoroughly that she found herself lengths clear in the blink of an eye. Jose Lezcano never touched the stick as the two sauntered under the wire nine lengths the best. Snowyte (Good Magic), featured in a recent 'Second Chances' column, ranged up for second, 6 1/2 lengths over Social Fortress. No one else ever factored significantly in the running Saturday.

"I had really high expectations of this filly since day one," said Abreu, who co-owns Scottish Lassie with Sportsmen Stable, Parkland Thoroughbreds, Photos Finish LLC, and Corms Racing Stable. "I was expecting a good race today. I know people didn't believe--not in her, in me--because this is the first time I've ever won a graded stakes. You need the quality to win those kinds of races, and I thought I had the horse."

Bred in Kentucky by Dr. Naoya and Marie Yoshida's Winchester Farm, Scottish Lassie sold for $50,000 at the 2023 Keeneland September sale to Lynwood Stable before going through the ring a second time in this year's OBS March sale. After working a quarter mile in :21, she hammered to the tune of $85,000 post sale to Parkland Thoroughbreds. Abreu debuted her Sept. 1 at seven furlongs at Saratoga, where she finished third behind Quickkick (McKinzie), Friday's GI Darley Alcibiades Stakes runner-up, and Snowyte (Good Magic), second here behind Scottish Lassie. Cont. p14

"Irad [Ortiz, Jr.] told me she didn't break as sharp that day and going from the one-hole going seven-eighths is a lot to ask," said Abreu. "She didn't run bad. Irad said he thought she was going to improve and get a lot out of it--and she did."

Scottish Lassie has registered three works since that maiden attempt, all over Belmont's training track, most recently going an easy :51 over four furlongs (80/112) Sept. 29. Parkland Thoroughbreds's Steve Weston shared, after the Frizette, the rationale behind trying a maiden in a Grade I event.

"If we don't win [the Frizette], then we can go back and win a maiden at any time," said Weston. "We have nothing to lose and everything to gain. The way she ran today, she could compete with any other 2-year-old in the country."

Pedigree Notes:

One of two North American freshman sires with a Grade I winner already this year, McKinzie shot to the top of the class with Scottish Lassie's victory, an addition of a second Grade I winner to his score sheet. The Gainesway stallion, a son of Street Sense, already had 'TDN Rising Star' and GI Hopeful Stakes winner Chancer McPatrick, who added Saturday's GI Champagne Stakes a little more than 30 minutes after Scottish Lassie's Frizette, as well as Friday's aforementioned Quickkick and GI Del Mar Futurity runner-up McKinzie Street, who finished third in the GI American Pharoah Stakes late Saturday.

The Frizette winner's dam, an $8,000 purchase by Ascot Health Farm at the Fasig-Tipton Winter Mixed Sale in 2018, is a daughter of Bodemeister, the former WinStar stallion who has stood in Turkey since the 2020 season. Scottish Lassie is the fifth stakes winner out of one of his daughters.

Bodebabe, whose yearling Tiz the Law filly sold at the recent Keeneland September sale for $50,000 to the Millard R. Seldin Revocable Trust, hails from the same family as GISWs Tara's Tango (Unbridled's Song), also a 'TDN Rising Star', and Visionaire (Grand Slam). She delivered a colt by Corniche in April.

INTO MISCHIEF'S CITIZEN BULL STAMPS TICKET TO BREEDERS' CUP IN AMERICAN PHAROAH by Jill Williams

Citizen Bull | Benoit

On a weekend of stellar 2-year-old racing with a plethora of Breeders' Cup 'Win and You're In' berths on the line, Citizen Bull (c, 2, Into Mischief--No Joke, by Distorted Humor) closed out Saturday's graded action with victory in the GI American Pharoah Stakes at Santa Anita. He earned a fees-paid entry to the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile and gave his trainer, Hall of Famer Bob Baffert, a 13th win in the American Pharoah, which had previously been branded both the Frontrunner Stakes and Norfolk Stakes at different times. Winning the race for the fourth consecutive year, Baffert already held the record number of wins going into the 8 1/2-furlong event and, for good measure, filled out this edition's exacta with 'TDN Rising Star' Getaway Car (Curlin). Both the one-two finishers are owned by a massive common ownership group consisting of SF Racing LLC, Starlight Racing, Madaket Stables LLC, Stonestreet Stables LLC, Dianne Bashor, Determined Stables, Robert E. Masterson, Tom J. Ryan, Waves Edge Capital LLC, and Catherine Donovan.

A debut maiden winner in August at Del Mar, Citizen Bull was sent as the favorite in last month's GI Del Mar Futurity but finished third. The $675,000 Keeneland September yearling posted just two workouts since, but both were sharp, including five panels in :59 1/5 (2/25) Sept. 27 over this surface. His debut Beyer Speed Figure, an 84, was second best in this field behind only Getaway Car's 85 in a Gill Best Pal Stakes win in August. Getaway Car finished one spot behind Citizen Bull in the Del Mar Futurity.

Third choice Saturday, Citizen Bull showed immediate speed leaving the stalls. Leading the field, he angled over to the rail with his ears flicking back and forth and maintained about a length on Getaway Car all the way around. Despite his stablemate chasing hot on his heels, Citizen Bull held sway, tossing up :23.85 and :47.78 fractions. As Getaway Car threatened to close the gap, Citizen Bull got a couple of reminders from rider Martin Garcia--who also rode him in his maiden win--and kept his mind on business. Despite swapping to his wrong lead in midstretch, he couldn't be caught. Two lengths back at the wire, Getaway Car held second, 5 3/4 lengths ahead of McKinzie Street (McKinzie), who was second, ahead of both his rivals, in the Del Mar Futurity.

"At Del Mar, [Citizen Bull] really needed that race. Mike [Smith] rode him and the colt was heavy, and he's still heavy," said Baffert. "This track is very demanding. It is very deep and slow. You could tell he was getting tired at the end, so I think he will get so much out of this race. He is a good doer, he's a good strong colt. He's bred really well. I'm proud of both my horses, I think Getaway Car, he was in a good spot, but Citizen Bull, you could tell it was going to be hard to get by him."

Pedigree Notes:

Into Mischief went all summer without adding any new Grade I winners to his tally, unusual territory for the reigning five-time leading sire. Lest anyone think he's losing his touch, Citizen Bull marked the Spendthrift stallion's 22nd career Grade I winner, fifth on the year, and second on the day following Gina Romantica's repeat win in Keeneland's First Lady Stakes. To no one's surprise, Into Mischief leads all North American sires on the 2024 tables by black-type winners (30), graded winners (15), and progeny earnings (over $29 million). Citizen Bull is his 78th career graded winner and 162nd black-type winner.

WinStar's pensioned Distorted Humor, perennially one of the best broodmare sires in the business, has been responsible for some of Into Mischief's best runners. Citizen Bull is the 11th stakes winner bred on the exact cross and joins other GISWs Life Is Good and Practical Joke. Distorted Humor has 156 black-type winners out of his daughters.

Robert and Lawana Low bred Citizen Bull in Kentucky out of their unraced mare No Joke, whom they purchased as a $750,000 yearling at Keeneland September in 2017. The mare is a half to MGISW Moonshine Memories (Malibu Moon), while her granddam is Evil Elaine, dam of 1997 Horse of the Year Favorite Trick (Phone Trick). No Joke delivered a Mandaloun colt in March and was bred back to Life Is Good. The 2025 foal will be inbred 3x2 to Distorted Humor.

ZEITLOS'S TIMELESS MOVE IN TCA AT KEENELAND EARNS BREEDERS' CUP BERTH

by J.N. Campbell

With a racing move as ageless as the racetrack itself, it was Zeitlos (Curlin--Thyme For Roses {Aus}, by Redoute's Choice {Aus}) who made a timeless move to the rail and got up for the win in the GII Thoroughbred Club of American Stakes at Keeneland on Saturday afternoon. The score meant that the 4-year-old not only earned her first graded stakes victory, but she took home a prized ticket to enter the starting gate in the GI PNC Bank Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Sprint at Del Mar next month.

Bred by Stonestreet, the chestnut's career began rather inauspiciously when she ducked in and lost rider Manny Franco in her juvenile debut at Churchill Downs that August. However, Zeitlos proceeded to be a mark of consistency by either winning or hitting the board over the course of nine races--the last being a win in her first black-type start in the Carousel Stakes at Oaklawn in late February. Her latest form cycle has included her lone graded start when the filly finished fifth in the Gill Caress Stakes at Saratoga July 25 and then she won the Open Mind Stakes under the TwinSpires Sept. 14.

As a 7-2 shot here, Zeitlos was last up the backstretch as stablemate Clearly Unhinged (Into Mischief) was busy fending off early challenges from favorite Brightwork (Outwork) and Spirit Wind (Bahamian Squall). Sticking close to the fence and with a full tank around the far turn, the filly began to make up ground and entering the lane the rail opened up wide for her. Past the eighth pole, the chestnut accelerated, and took advantage of the tiring Clearly Unhinged and Spirit Wind who were trying to summon the strength to rally. Zeitlos got the jump on them and cruised home to scoop up the prizes. Spirit Wind held on as the runner-up and Brightwork finished third.

Zeitlos | Coady Media

“It was remarkable,” said trainer Steve Asmussen. “I was hesitant to wheel her back off a big race the other day so quick [after winning the listed Open Mind Stakes at Churchill Downs Sept. 14]. She was beaten here in a maiden race [finishing second April 15, 2023, in her third start]. Keeneland can be unique to itself, but she ran as good as she ever has, and what a great day to do it.”

Pedigree Notes:

Zeitlos translates to “timeless or ageless” in German, and that certainly describes her impressive Stonestreet sire (by Smart Strike) whose graded winners now clock in at 62. The Australian-bred Thyme For Roses was acquired by the farm for A$800,000 at the 2017 Australian Magic Millions Gold Coast National Broodmare Sale. The winner's dam is responsible for 3-year-old filly Ms McWhinney (American Pharoah), who has a pair of wins to her credit this year, and claims unraced juvenile colt Natural Rights (Constitution). Her last registered foal is a current yearling filly by Speightstown.

HANG THE MOON WORST TO FIRST IN THE RODEO DRIVE

by Alan Carasso

Hang the Moon | Benoit

She looked to have it all to do entering the final three furlongs of Saturday's GII Rodeo Drive Stakes, a Breeders' Cup qualifier for the GI Filly and Mare Turf down at Del Mar in four weeks, but Hang the Moon (Uncle Mo) kicked it in approaching the stretch and outfinished the rail-skimming Aspen Grove (Ire) (Justify) to cause a 9-1 upset.

Iscreamuscream (Twirling Candy), last-out winner of the GI Del Mar Oaks and favored at 3-2 while facing her elders here, led them along after some wayward ways across the dirt and took the field into the first turn, but failed to corner, going in basically a straight line at the first corner and carrying 'TDN Rising Star' Be Your Best (Ire) (Muhaarar {GB}) well out into the track. Lucky Girl (Ire) (Exceed and Excel {Aus}) kicked up at the fence and took over at the head of affairs and pinched a sizable advantage down the backstretch, but Kazushi Kimura had the recent winner of the GII John C. Mabee Stakes nice and relaxed, saving his filly for a finish.

Lucky Girl led the Rodeo Drive field into the final two furlongs, but Kimura had gone for Hang The Moon at the five-sixteenths, and they closed fast on the grandstand side. Aspen Grove rallied nicely at the fence, but Hang The Moon had slightly the better finishing kick and was along for the upset. Beach Bomb (SAF) (Lancaster Bomber) rallied one path inside of the eventual winner and stayed on for third.

Hang the Moon was a two-time winner and stakes-placed while under the care of Mike Stidham and won her debut for this barn going a mile over this course June 9. A sound second to next-out GII Kentucky Downs Ladies' Turf winner Ag Bullet (Twirling Candy) in the restricted Osunitas Stakes at Del Mar July 21, she trailed the field into the final half-mile of the Sept. 7 GII John C. Mabee Stakes, but took a gap between horses en route to a half-length defeat of Lucky Girl.

"She did a great job coming from behind," Kimura said. "I really didn't change anything from last time (in the Mabee). I just took it easy and slow for the first part. She responded to me well. She finished up strong and I'm happy with that."

Pedigree Notes:

On behalf of Repole Stable, bloodstock agent Jacob West went to $340,000 for Moondance carrying to Mastery at the 2018 Keeneland November Sale and each of the mare's three foals of racing age is a winner. A half-sister to Red Hot Buddha (Buddha) and from the extended family of GISW Beach Patrol and MGSWs Hurricane Bertie and Allamerican Bertie. The current 2-year-old out of Moondance is Fat City (City of Light), a $155,000 purchase by Dan Blacker and Craig Rounsefell's Boomer Bloodstock at Keeneland September last fall, and the yearling full-brother to the latter was bought back on a bid of $120,000 at Keeneland last month.

Moondance produced a filly by Mo Donegal May 18 and was subsequently covered by Uncle Mo.

BAFFERT TRIFECTA AS NON COMPLIANT WINS 'WAYI' OAK LEAF, FIRST GRADED WINNER FOR TIZ THE LAW by Jill Williams

Non Compliant | Benoit

With four of the six who went to post in the GII Oak Leaf Stakes at Santa Anita Saturday, Hall of Famer Bob Baffert was guaranteed a placing or two in the 'Win and You're In' race for the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Nov. 1. He did better than that, saddling the first three home. Even-money favorite and maiden winner Non Compliant (Tiz the Law), the most modest auction purchase of the Baffert quartet, bested GIII Sorrento Stakes winner Nooni (Win Win Win) and GI Del Mar Debutante victress Tenma (Nyquist) to give Baffert his 13th win in the Oak Leaf, which was returning to its original name after previously labeled as the Chandelier Stakes for the last dozen years.

Floated wide into the first turn as the juvenile fillies jostled for position, Non Compliant settled into third behind Nooni and Tenma, who were both flashy OBS buys ($1.8-million for Nooni, $850,000 for Tenma). Non Compliant continued to track through fractions of :23.42 and :47.22 as Nooni showed the way. Ranging up on the turn, Non Compliant tackled Nooni and the two knocked heads for a few strides before Non Compliant pulled clear under Juan Hernandez in a decisive 2 1/4-length victory. Nooni was a clear second, 8 1/4 lengths over Tenma.

"She was really happy and a little aggressive, but this was her first time going the mile," said Hernandez. "So, of course, she's going to break a little sharp, but I like that. She relaxed around the turn. I was always really comfortable. Around the [second] turn, I was trying to pick it up, and she did that very well. She didn't want to stop."

Campaigned by Georgia Antley Hunt, Jeff Giglio, and John Rogitz, Non Compliant was a $150,000 Fasig-Tipton Midlantic 2-year-old after working a furlong in :10 1/5. She previously sold as a $15,000 Keeneland November weanling and a $35,000 Fasig-Tipton July yearling. The bay broke her maiden on debut at Del Mar Aug. 31 with her 82 Beyer Speed Figure that day tops among the Oak Leaf field.

Rogitz, one of the partners on the filly, signed the Fasig-Tipton sales ticket and was in attendance Saturday.

"My dad used to bring me to Santa Anita when I was a kid and I grew up in Temple City [just a few miles from the track]," said Rogitz. "Bob [Baffert] and his team, they have an amazing eye for horses. You never know until they try two turns if they are going to handle it, but I think we felt like she could."

Pedigree Notes:

Non Compliant's Oak Leaf win marked the first graded victory for freshman sire Tiz the Law, who went into Saturday as the leading first-crop sire by earnings. In addition to Non Compliant, the Ashford Stud/Coolmore stallion has two additional stakes winners in Tiztastic and Out on Bail, who each won their black-type races on the lawn on the extremely competitive circuits of Kentucky Downs and Saratoga, respectively. A son of Constitution, Tiz the Law himself won four Grade Is, including the Champagne Stakes at two.

Bred in Kentucky by Ashview Farm and Old Oak Farm, Non Compliant is out of 2017 GIII Adoration Stakes runner-up Sensitive. The mare was sold for $13,000 to Virginia Moore at the 2022 Keeneland November sale, delivering a colt by Independence Hall the next spring. Barren in 2024, she was bred to Tiz the Law's fellow Ashford stallion Epicenter for next term.

Tracing tail-female to the excellent and prolific broodmare Lea Lark, Sensitively is a daughter of Darley's Street Sense, whose grandsons and granddaughters had a stellar Saturday. In addition to Non Compliant becoming the 36th black-type winner out of one of his daughters, his young sire son, McKinzie, recorded two first-crop Grade I winners on the day.

Our Shot, a running-on second to Arzak in the 2023 GII Woodford Stakes at Keeneland, worked out a beautiful trip beneath Luis Saez to go one better and in the process snap a nine-race skid.

Sent off at a generous 29-5 exiting a second consecutive near-miss defeat in the Harvey Pack Stakes at Saratoga Sept. 2, Our Shot was alertly away from his low barrier and took up a forward position through the early exchanges in the slipstream of pacesetter Souper Quest (Munnings) through an opening quarter in :21.35. Down on the fence for the first part of the run around the turn, the 5-year-old angled out into the two path, spying a run between 2023 GI Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint hero Nobals (Noble Mission {GB}) and Foxtrot Anna (Fast Anna) nearing the stretch. When those two made runs in unison, Our Shot was steered off heels and into the clear, surged to the lead inside the final sixteenth of a mile and edged away for the victory. Cogburn closed well to finish a longshot second, while Arzak rallied for third in defense of his title.

"The plan with him was to try to take him out there, and everything came like we planned," said Saez. "We really liked him for this race. His last two races at Saratoga were a little tricky. We had a lot of trouble (beaten a nose in an allowance optional claiming race July 28 and a head in the listed Harvey Pack Stakes Sept. 2), but we couldn't wait to be here today and were pretty comfortable that he was going to do a pretty good race."

Our Shot | Coady Media

Our Shot, winless since taking out a Saratoga allowance last July, closed off nicely to finish fourth to Arzak in the GI Shakertown Stakes during the spring stand here Apr. 6 second off a November freshening. A troubled eighth in the May 4 Elusive Quality Stakes at Aqueduct, he was an even fourth in the Get Serious Stakes at Monmouth before rounding out the exacta underneath Souper Quest in Saratoga allowance company July 28 and behind the classy Big Invasion (Declaration of War) when last seen in the Harvey Pack.

Pedigree Notes:

Our Shot is the third Woodford winner by Hill 'n' Dale at Xalapa's Kantharos, whose son Bucchero won the race back-to-back in 2017 and 2018. He is the 42nd black-type winner and 10th graded winner for the 16-year-old son of Lion Heart.

The chestnut is one of four winners from five to race out of a full-sister to Afleet Angel, a dual stakes-winner on synthetic tracks and a half to SW Guardianofthegate (Gate Dancer) and three other stakes-placed performers. Fleetheart is also responsible for the 2-year-old filly Shiny Dime (The Factor), the mare's last-listed produce. --ALC

When Patches O'Houlihan shows up on race day, there is little chance that he'll give his rivals an easy one, and Saturday's GI Nearctic Stakes proved no different as last season's Canadian champion sprinter added his 10th career victory and his fifth at the graded stakes level at Woodbine Saturday.

Installed the 2-1 favorite in his first start on the turf since July of 2023, the bay gelding went straight to the front and was prompted by 9-2 chance Bring Theband Home (Into Mischief) through an initial quarter in :22.67. Head to head with Bring Theband Home turning for home, the champion dispensed of that rival in the stretch while drifting outward as second choice Outlaw Kid made his own bid along the inside. Despite his errant ways, the Ontario bred champ came back to overtake Outlaw Kid late and drew off in the final strides to post a 1 1/2-length victory over the closing duo of Dhabab and War Bomber, who got up for second and third, respectively.

"It's very nice to win for this team," said Sofia Vives, Canada's champion apprentice in 2023. "This horse was really something special today. It was his first time on the grass this year. He ran amazing. I mean, he just shows up every day and gives it his all. No matter what surface, he's very special."

Last year's Canadian champion sprinter Patches O'Houlihan remained undefeated in 2024 with a victory in Saturday's GII Nearctic Stakes | Michael Burns

"Every time I ride him, we think maybe we could sit off speed today, but he hears us in the mornings, and he knows he's faster than everybody, and he'll prove everybody wrong."

During his championship season, Patches O'Houlihan won six of seven starts, including victories in Woodbine's GIII Bold Venture Stakes and GIII Vigil Stakes in September. His sole defeat came in the GII Kennedy Road Stakes where he faded to fifth after attending to the early pace.

Shelved after that, the Frank Di Guilio Jr. homebred didn't reappear until the July 28 Pink Lloyd Stakes where he was facing Ontario-bred rivals. An easy six-length winner that day, he followed up with a successful defense of his title in the Aug. 23 Bold Venture and most recently added another renewal of the Vigil Sept. 14.

"He's a great horse," said winning trainer Robert Tiller, who also campaigned champion sprinter and Hall of Famer Pink Lloyd. "I love him. Today was a huge thrill and relief more than anything, and he's right up there with the rest of them. It's like saying, 'Which kid do you like better?' I'm not doing that. He's wonderful. He's been a blessing."

Pedigree Notes:

Patches O'Houlihan is out of Maythefourthwithu by Silent Name, whose daughters are responsible for seven stakes winners including 2023 Canadian champion juvenile colt My Boy Prince (Cairo Prince). Dance Smartly S. cont.

With storylines aplenty in the GIII bet365 Dance Smartly Stakes at Woodbine, such as Horse of the Year Fev Rover's final bow and the North American debut of South African champion Princess Calla (SAf) (Flower Alley), the race came up with a rather unlikely victress in Mouffy as she took home the first graded stakes win of her career.

The 5-year-old from Jonathan Thomas's shedrow has a pair of black-type wins to her credit in the Ellis Park Turf Stakes when she was four and the Perfect Sting Stakes during the Belmont at the Big A meet July 4. However over five graded attempts, Mouffy was unable to get her picture taken with the latest try coming when she was well-beaten in the GIII Ladies Turf Stakes at Kentucky Downs Aug. 31.

The Augustin homebred was overlooked at odds of 14-1, as Fev Rover garnered 2-1 favoritism and Princess Calla--who was acquired privately by Resolute Racing's John Stewart back in April and sent to trainer Chad Brown--went off as a 5-1 shot. At the break, the 2023 South African Horse of the Year stood motionless and spotted the Dance Smartly field what appeared to be several lengths. In the meantime, Mouffy settled towards the rear of the field as a pair of longshots showed the way up the backstretch.

With Princess Calla zooming up past her to mid-pack before the far turn, the Thomas trainee remained on hold, but at the top of the lane she tipped off the rail to five path and uncorked with a strong surge. The final push was enough to turn back Nadette (Fr) (Outstrip {GB}) who was mounting her own comeback from the clouds. After a claim of foul, Fev Rover was placed third and Tax Implications (Mehmas {Ire}) was downgraded to fourth.

"I thought there was a good pace, which she [Mouffy] needs to kind of relax," said trainer Jonathan Thomas. "And I thought Vincent [Cheminaux] did a great job of saving ground and then tipping out onto the part of the track that's probably a little firm, and it really helped accentuate her turn of foot."

A for Princess Calla, she finished a valiant seventh. Her owner John Stewart said via X after the race, "Very happy with Princess Calla's race today. Of course would want her to win, but that was a competitive race and to come as far as she has with 120 days of quarantine and make it back to the track coming from the Southern Hemisphere is a huge accomplishment.

In the same post he said, "She showed some nerves in the post parade and warm up, and then backed up in the gate at the start. But she showed good movement. We will evaluate if she will push on to the Breeders Cup."

Pedigree Notes:

This is the 54th graded black-type winner for the accomplished Uncle Mo (by Indian Charlie). The winner's dam is responsible for a yearling filly by Quality Road and she foaled a colt Constitution. She was bred to Justify for next season. Mouffy's second dam is champion grass mare Forever Together (Belong to Me).

CARSON'S RUN OUTSPRINTS STABLEMATE DETERMINISTIC IN JOCKEY CLUB DERBY

by Alan Carasso

The scratching of Godolphin's morning-line favorite Legend of Time (GB) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) deprived Saturday's GIII Jockey Club Derby Invitational Stakes of some of its luster, and Carson's Run (Cupid)--who was a strong winning chance Legend of Time or not--continued in his rich vein of form, rallying from sixth and last to lead home a 1-2 finish for the Christophe Clement stable over 'TDN Rising Star' Deterministic (Liam's Map).

Favored at 3-2 when all was said and done, the $170,000 OBS April breezer was taken back to the tail of the field by the in-form Dylan Davis and raced a fraction keen into the stretch for the first time as an even more headstrong Yo Daddy (Yoshida {Jpn}) was asked for speed by Jose Lezcano and opened up passing under the wire with a circuit to travel. Positions remained largely unchanged down the backstretch as Yo Daddy continued to bowl along while better settled, and the sprint went into the race entering the last of the three turns.

Davis sat against Carson's Run and asked his mount for his best with about 2 1/2 furlongs to race and was produced widest into the stretch. Accelerating sharply, the handsome chestnut overtook El Rezen (English Channel), who wrested command between calls, and outbattled his rail-rallying stablemate Deterministic to the line.

"They both ran great," said the winning conditioner. "One [Carson's Run] came from off the pace--the other, I told [Joel] Rosario, 'run him forward, if someone takes you on, stay in second or third. If not, make the lead.' Obviously, that horse of Linda [trainer Rice, Yo Daddy] wanted to be on the front, but they both ran well."

Winner of last year's GI Summer Stakes and ninth when done no favors by a double-digit draw in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf, Carson's Run proved easily best in the June 23 Tale of the Cat Stakes at Monmouth before narrowly defeating Legend of Time in the GI Saratoga Derby Invitational Aug. 11. Wheeled back on 20 days' rest for the $2.3-million GIII Nashville Derby, Carson's Run made a long run from last that carried him past all rivals bar the classy Bellum Justum (Ire) (Sea The Stars {Ire}).

Carson's Run | Sarah Andrew

If either or both Carson's Run and Deterministic run again this season, it'll be in Southern California at the end--not the beginning--of next month.

"We don't need to decide that now," the Frenchman said. "There's only one race on paper which is the [GI] Hollywood Derby [at Del Mar Nov. 30]. Let's see what happens the next few weeks and then we will give them a break and have a nice 4-year-old campaign."

Pedigree Notes:

One of four graded winners for his sire and his lone elite-level scorer, Carson's Run is the lone foal to race from a half-sister to the durable three-time graded winner and Grade I-placed Rated R Superstar (Kodiak Kowboy) and a half to the dam of SW Steph'fullasugar (Tapiture). The yearling relation to Carson's Run, a colt from the second crop of Volatile, was purchased by Brandon Rice for $100,000 at last month's Keeneland September Sale and Hot N Hectic foaled a Maxfield filly Jan. 24 prior to a date in the breeding shed with Flightline.

With only one win in five turf starts, the unlucky Senbei turned around his fortune by brandishing his late speed to get the first graded stakes of his career in the GIII Belmont Turf Sprint Stakes at Aqueduct on Saturday.

Part-owned by the same connections who campaign Christophe Clement trainee MGSW Big Invasion (Declaration of War), Senbei kicked off his 5-year-old campaign by finishing just off the board while sprinting over the turf against optional claimers upstate June 7. After clearing the condition by conquering the grass in Ozone Park July 6, the gelding was a close-third at Monmouth Aug. 17.

Poised to break through as a 4-1 shot here, the New York-bred settled comfortably mid-pack as the favorite Nothing Better (Munnings) was challenged for the lead by Determined Kingdom (Animal Kingdom) up the backstretch. The chestnut avoided traffic troubles by fanning three wide around the far turn and entering the lane he took aim at the chalk. Under confident handling, Senbei proved he could get over the turf hump and he won the day with a professional performance.

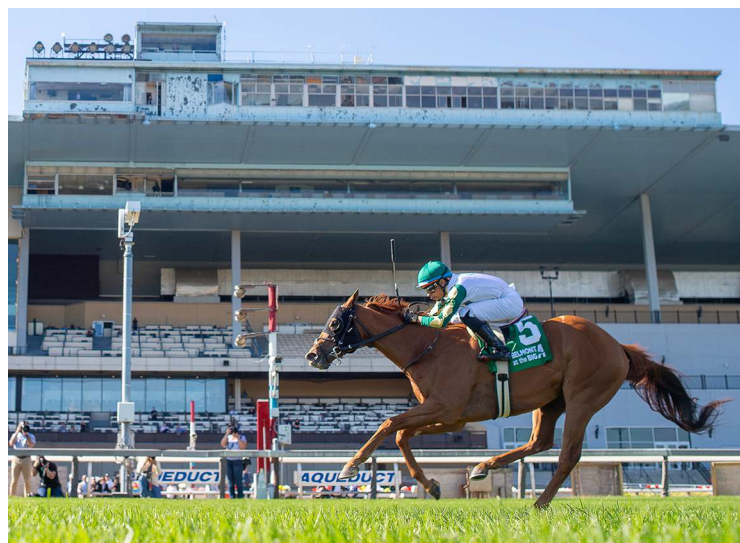

"It worked out perfect," said trainer Christophe Clement. "It was a great ride by Manny [Franco]-- patient, saved ground and exploded in the stretch. Manny rode him with a lot of confidence.

"He's a good horse. As a young horse, he was very good on dirt--he lost his form a bit on dirt and the grass brought him back. He's been running very well on grass - maybe more on firmer turf than softer turf. He's not always lucky. In turf racing, you need a bit of racing luck but today he was very impressive."

Pedigree Notes:

Senbei's venerable sire (by Ride the Rails) adds yet another graded winner--number 59--to his extensive resume. Sweet Aloha is responsible for unraced 2-year-old colt Tropical Candy (Twirling Candy) and she was bred to Fire At Will for next term. The winner's half-sister Filibustin herself produced SW Mr Phillip (Mitole).

Fresh off a career first black-type victory, Augustin Stables' Truly Quality took the next step up the ladder with a victory in Saturday's GIII Singspiel Stakes at Woodbine.

Breaking from post 14, the gelding was allowed to settle at the back as longshot Eyes On the King (Street Sense) led Lac Macaza and Highland Chief (Ire) (Gleneagles {Ire}) through an opening quarter in :24.97 and a half in :50.03. Still far back but starting to make some headway following three quarters in 1:15.28, the Jonathan Thomas trainee finally made contact with the back of the main field but still had a lot to do turning for home. With the pacesetter starting to weaken through the long Woodbine stretch, Truly Quality whittled away at the leaders' advantage down the center of the course, swung to the outside for his final drive and, despite the best efforts of Stone Age, who gained control briefly in the stretch and the closing English Conqueror, it was Truly who produced the greatest punch late to land his first graded stakes victory. English Conqueror was second while Stone Age held on for third.

Truly Quality rolls up the far outside to get his first graded win in Saturday's Singspiel Stakes | Michael Burns

"I had a bad draw today, so he was very lazy," said winning rider Vincent Cheminaud. "When I pushed him a little bit, he gave me a good answer and took the beat for the end. He's a nice horse. He was the best today."

Thomas added, "We threw out the game plan because, it depended on how he broke. But I will say I was concerned about 90% of the race, but Vincent did a good job of not panicking, breaking a little slow, letting him gather some steam. I thought the horse overcame a pretty, pretty tough situation."

The winner of a single race from five starts in 2023, the gelding hit the board in his initial three starts this season before breaking through with his first win in almost a year in an 11-furlong Big A allowance test May 27. A neck second behind

Battle of Normandy (City of Light) in a Spa optional claimer July 14, the 4-year-old was sent off the second choice in his latest while adding a furlong in the Sept. 7 Colonial Cup, and came home a 2 1/2-length winner over favored Webslinger (Constitution).

As for what's next with the homebred, Thomas explained, "I'd love to talk to the Strawbridges about maybe taking a real swing and going to Breeders' Cup and then giving him the winter off and really trying to make him a Grade I horse."

Pedigree Notes:

With the victory, Truly Quality becomes the 42nd graded winner for his sire, Quality Road. His GSP dam Truly Together is a daughter of George Strawbridge's champion grass mare and multiple Grade I winning Forever Together. Already responsible for Saturday's GII Dance Smartly Stakes winner Mouffy (Uncle Mo), the 12-year-old mare also has a yearling full sister to Saturday's winner in addition to a Constitution colt foaled this season. One Magic Philly | Horsephotos

One Magic Philly came into Saturday's GIII Chillingworth Stakes having displayed marked improvement with each of her last three races and her return to Santa Anita gave her yet another notch in her belt after she crossed the wire on top in the 6 1/2-furlong test, earning her first taste of black-type in the process.

Quickly up to press heavy favorite Sweet Azteca (Sharp Azteca), winner of the GI Beholder Mile last March, the 7-2 chance continued to put the screws to the favorite through :21.76 and :44.10 splits. Inching ahead of her grey rival leaving the quarter pole, the John Gallegos hombred spurred clear in the stretch and was a geared down 2 3/4 lengths ahead of 25-1 longshot Irish Wahine. Kirstenbosch rounded out the trifecta.

"We knew the horse to beat was on our inside [Sweet Azteca], and we had to take it to her if we broke well," explained winning trainer Phil d'Amato. "I knew if we could stick with Sweet Azteca for the first part of the race, we would have a chance. And it just worked out."

Runner-up to subsequent GIII Torrey Pines Stakes winner Hope Road (Quality Road) at Santa Anita in June, One Magic Philly broke her maiden going 6 1/2 furlongs at Del Mar Aug. 3 before winning by seven lengths in a first-level allowance going 6 1/2 furlongs at Del Mar Sept. 2.

"She's really improving race by race," added winning rider Antonio Fresu. "She showed a lot of talent in the last race at Del Mar when she won so easily. Today was a step forward. It was a really tough race against Sweet Azteca, but we prepared a lot for it. Even though today was a challenge, she ended up on top again."

Pedigree Notes:

One Magic Philly's Chillingworth win gives juvenile champion Good Magic his 20th black-type winner and his 12th victory at the graded stakes level. The winner's dam, My Philly Girl, also produced stakes winning My Philly Girl (Hard Spun). Additionally, the 15-year-old mare is responsible for a juvenile colt by Omaha Beach and foaled a Street Sense colt this season. The half-sister to SW and MGSP Loch Lein (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) was bred back to Jack Christopher. This represents the extended family of GISWs Bandini and Hail Atlantis in addition to the stakes-winning sire Stormy Atlantic.

DUAL HALL OF FAMER TEPIN DIED AT 12 LAST YEAR

Tepin winning the Queen Anne | Racingfotos.com

Champion and dual Hall of Famer Tepin (Bernstein--Life Happened, by Stravinsky), best known for winning the G1 Queen Anne Stakes at Royal Ascot, died at the age of 12 last year. The news was confirmed by trainer Aidan O'Brien after the mare's daughter Grateful (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) won the G1 Qatar Prix de Royallieu at ParisLongchamp on Saturday.

Bred by Machmer Hall in Kentucky, the bay was purchased by Robert Masterson for $140,000 out of the Fasig-Tipton New York Saratoga Select Yearling Sale. She would go on to be trained by Mark Casse and earn Eclipse Champion Grass Mare titles in 2015 and 2016. A winner of 13 of her 23 starts including 11 stakes, among them the GI Breeders' Cup Mile and the 2016 Queen Anne, Tepin would pass the post first in six top-level races. She is a member of the Canadian and U.S. Halls of Fame.

At her 2022 American Hall of Fame induction, Casse told Mike Kane, "To be honest with you I wasn't overjoyed about going to Royal Ascot simply because I thought we had maybe the best turf horse in the country, maybe in the world and I just felt like it was a big ask of her. If I knew what I know now, I don't know if I would have taken her because it's so tough. It just shows you really how great she was."

Second to Tonalist (Tiznow) defending her Breeders' Cup title in the autumn of 2016, Tepin was retired in April of 2017 with over $4.4 million in earnings and put in foal to Curlin. She would sell to Coolmore's MV Magnier for $8 million that autumn at the 2017 Fasig-Tipton Night of the Stars.

Her Curlin filly, later named Tepin Thru Life, never raced, nor did her Galileo filly of 2019, Swirl (Ire). Her third foal is Saturday's Group 1 winner Grateful, while Tepin's juvenile colt Delacroix (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) already has a win and a second-place finish to his name in the G2 KPMG Champions Juvenile Stakes this year. He was named a 'TDN Rising Star' earlier this season.

Tepin was a half-sister to MGSW and GI Wood Memorial Stakes and GI Forego Stakes third Vyjack (Into Mischief), as well as a full-sister to MGSP Prime Cut (Bernstein). Carrie and Craig Brogden and Carrie's mother Sandy Willwerth operate Machmer Hall, which picked up Tepin's dam for just $4,500 out of the Keeneland November Breeding Stock Sale in 2008. Life Happened would go on to subsequent sales ring accolades when selling to Solis/Litt at the 2014 Keeneland January Sale carrying to Harlan's Holiday for $750,000.

BOBBY FLAY PURCHASES PIZZA BIANCA FROM RESOLUTE BLOODSTOCK

by Katie Petrunyak

LEXINGTON, KY--International owner and breeder Bobby Flay has re-purchased his homebred Breeders' Cup champion Pizza Bianca (Fastnet Rock {Aus}--White Hot {Ire}), by Galileo {Ire}) from Resolute Bloodstock's John Stewart. Flay and Stewart finalized the private sale of Pizza Bianca and her first foal by Into Mischief on Saturday morning at Resolute Farm.

Pizza Bianca claimed the 2021 GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf. Also a stakes winner at three, she was offered at the 2022 Fasig-Tipton Night of the Stars Sale, but Flay ultimately decided to retain her. She made one start at four before she retired and was bred to Into Mischief. At last year's Fasig-Tipton November Sale, she sold for $3 million to John Stewart. Pizza Bianca's Into Mischief filly arrived on April 8 at Resolute Farm and the mare was bred back to Justify.

Saturday morning at Resolute Farm | Katie Petrunyak

Flay said the conversation about potentially buying back his star homebred started earlier this year at the Keeneland September Sale.

“I certainly had some seller's remorse after I sold her in terms of just emotionally, you don't breed Breeders' Cup winners every single day,” he explained. “I'd been thinking about Pizza Bianca for the past year and then when John said that he might be interested in selling her back to me, I started having conversations with him.”

Flay acquired Pizza Bianca's dam White Hot for 1.25 million guineas at the 2014 Tattersalls October Yearling Sale. The daughter of Galileo is out of Gwynn (Ire) (Darshaan {GB}), also the dam of 2011 Epsom Derby winner Pour Moi (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}) and other graded stakes winners. While White Hot never raced, her first foal was Pizza Bianca.

At last year's Keeneland November Sale, Flay sold White Hot to BBA Ireland for $2.1 million. Also at last year's fall breeding stock sales, he sold many of his other top broodmares like graded stakes winner and producer Dame Dorothy (Bernardini); Veronique (Mizzen Mast), the dam of stakes winner and sire Nashville (Speightstown); and Ruby Lips (Hard Spun), the dam of MGSWs Lone Rock (Majestic Warrior) and Gerrymander (Into Mischief), sparking rumors that the celebrity chef and restaurateur was getting out of the horse business.

Flay acknowledged that he did take a temporary step back from racing in 2023, but was quick to note that he was still active as an owner and breeder both in the U.S. and abroad.

“I was in a place in my horse business life where I wasn't sure what I was going to do in terms of the future,” Flay explained. “I wanted to take a pause in racing in the U.S. because I wanted to see how the industry was going to react to some of the not-so-great news and events that we had. I have to say that the industry, with HISA at the helm, has done a lot of great work in a very short period of time. As somebody who cares about the horses first and foremost, I want to have the confidence that we're doing everything we can to ensure the best possible results that we can get. Nothing is 100% and never will be, but I want everybody on the same page.”

Flay said that he did not know Stewart prior to their conversations surrounding Pizza Bianca.

“I don't know what his business plan is in terms of the horse business--obviously he's making a lot of noise buying all kinds of horses-- but my sense of it is that his desire to sell her back to me is not all business. It's more like a 'I think Bobby should have her' kind of thing and I really appreciate that. From where I sit, I feel like he thinks it's a good thing to do for everybody involved.”

Prior to Saturday's sale for an undisclosed sum, Pizza Bianca was slated to go through the ring at Fasig-Tipton's upcoming Night of the Stars Sale on Nov. 4.

“I can totally understand Bobby's point of view,” said John Stewart. “She was a Breeders' Cup winner for him and you sell them and get a good price but then you're having reservations, especially when the foals come out looking like this. So when we were approached about this opportunity I thought this was the right thing to do at the end of the day. I'd want someone to do that for me if I made that decision. It was the right thing to do.”

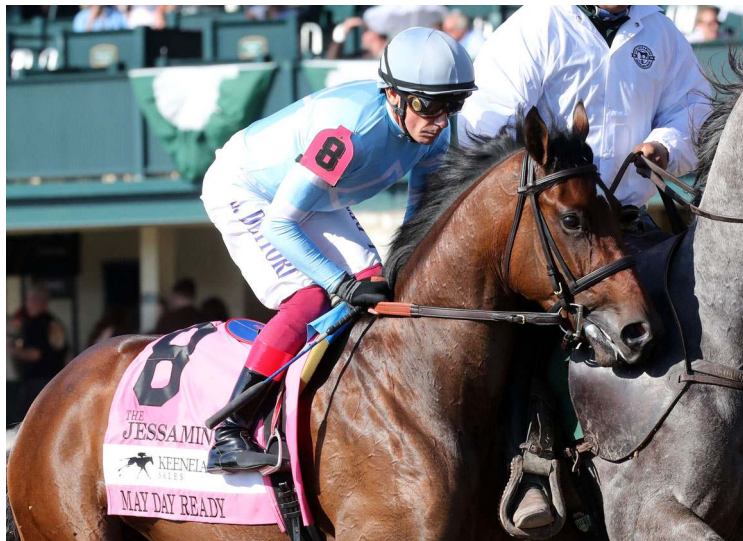

Flay and Pizza Bianca's Into Mischief filly | Katie Petrunyak

Flay said that Pizza Bianca's Into Mischief filly will likely join his racing stable in the future.

“In my conventional business model, which there is really no such thing when it comes to this business but especially with these big pedigrees that I own, it's to sell the colts and race the fillies,” he said. “If you ask me today what I'm going to do with the Into Mischief, it's to race her. It's the first foal and she's beautiful. If she does something good, she could really solidify the mare's place in the world.”

MAY DAY READY TO PREP FOR BREEDERS' CUP IN NEW YORK

May Day Ready | Coady Media

KatieRich Stables LLC's May Day Ready (Tapit), who proved narrowly best in a three-way photo in Friday's 'Win and You're In' GII Jessamine Stakes at Keeneland, will return to the Belmont Park base of trainer Joe Lee to prepare for the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf.

"I guess we will go back to New York; she trains well over that track," Lee said. "Probably ship in the next few days. She lost the right front shoe, so we are going to take a good look at it here. She seems fine--the shoe came off cleanly. Not sure when it happened."

Lee said he hopes he can find the missing shoe as a keepsake.

"I know my kids would want a set of four instead of three," he joked.

Lee trains fewer than 10 horses out of his barn at Belmont and has a long history of galloping and assisting with top-class gallopers. After working for D. Wayne Lukas for a time, Lee in 1993 began a long association with Sheikh Mohammed bin Rashid al Maktoum with several trainers, including Kiaran McLaughlin.

Lee, his wife Susie and his four children celebrated Friday's victory at Don Jockey restaurant in nearby Midway, Kentucky, with KatieRich principles Larry and Karen Doyle. Doyle also brought the traditional box of donuts to the barn Saturday morning.

May Day Ready is now perfect in three starts, having won her maiden at first asking at Saratoga Aug. 4 and the Kentucky Downs Juvenile Fillies' Stakes on Sept. 8.

IDIOMATIC SEEKS REDEMPTION ON SUNDAY'S TASTY GRADED MENU

by Christina Bossinakis

Continuing an important weekend as next month's Breeders' Cup World Championships rapidly approach, Keeneland's GI Juddmonte Spinster Stakes headlines Sunday's graded stakes action spanning from coast to coast.

A 'Win and You're In' for the GI Longines Breeders' Cup Distaff, the Spinster has six contenders signed on, including last season's champion older mare Idiomatic (Curlin), who draws the rail under regular pilot Florent Geroux. The winner of a trio of Grade I stakes in 2023--capped off by the Breeders' Cup Distaff at Santa Anita--the Juddmonte homebred has proven consistent at five, while showing a couple of chinks in the armor.

An impressive 3 3/4-length winner in a sloppy renewal of Churchill's GI La Troienne Stakes May 3, the bay found Randomized (Nyquist) a head too good in the GI Ogden Phipps Stakes at Saratoga June 8. Earning a hard-fought win over Soul of an Angel (Atrides) in Monmouth's GIII Matchmaker Stakes July 20, the Brad Cox trainee again had to play second fiddle--this time to the closing Raging Sea (Curlin)--after enduring a contested early pace in the nine-furlong GI Personal Ensign Stakes at the Spa Aug. 23.

Idiomatic (inside) will attempt to return to the winner's circle following a runner-up effort to Raging Sea (outside) last time out in the GI Personal Ensign | Sarah Andrew

The only other top-level winner in the field is Eclipse Thoroughbred Partners' Candied (Candy Ride {Arg}). Trained by Todd Pletcher, the 3-year-old is reunited with Luis Saez, who was aboard for her victory in last season's GI Alcibiades Stakes over this track. Fourth in the GI Ashland Stakes in April, the bay took Monmouth's Lady's Secret Stakes June 8 before finishing second to GI Kentucky Oaks heroine Thorpedo Anna (Fast Anna) in the July 20 GI CCA Oaks over nine furlongs.

Favored in the 1 1/4-mile GI Alabama at the Spa Aug. 17, she finished a head second behind Power Squeeze (Union Rags).

Also tabbed for fillies and mares, three and up, the Big A's GII Beldame Stakes is headed by returning Grade I winner Raging Sea, who is three for four this season, having also annexed the nine-furlong GII Shuvee Stakes at the Spa July 21 and the 1 1/16-mile GIII Doubledogdare at Keeneland in April. The Alpha Delta hombraed will be ridden by her regular partner Flavien Prat.

Several key juveniles races also highlight Sunday's graded action, led by the GII Miss Grillo Stakes, a 'Win and You're In' for the John Deere Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf. Pushed back a week due to excessive rainfall, the 1 1/16-mile turf event features several of the continent's most recognizable trainers, headed by Chad Brown, who is represented by a trio here. Leading the fray is first out winners Lavender Disaster (Into Mischief), victorious at the Big A Sept. 15 and Marvelous Madison (Caravaggio), who closed from off the pace to score at the Spa Sept. 2. Brown also saddles Virgin Colada (More Than Ready), who took her Spa debut July 21 before finishing a close-up second as the favorite in the Aug. 28 P.G. Johnson Stakes.

Trainer Mark Casse offers up a pair--DJ Stables Shifty (Medaglia d'Oro) and Gary Barber's She's Got Will (War of Will). The former was a last-out winner of Woodbine's 6 1/2-furlong Catch a Glimpse Stakes Aug. 23, while the latter took her Aug. 15 bow at Saratoga before finishing third most recently in the Juvenile Fillies Stakes at Kentucky Downs Sept. 8.

Also lining up off a last-out victory, Calumet Farm's Correto (English Channel), winner at Kentucky Downs Sept. 1 for trainer by Graham Motion and Lawrence Goichman's Scythian (Tiz the Law). Trained by Bill Mott, the New York bred took her route and turf debut at Saratoga Aug. 30.

Also highlighting the supporting juvenile graded stakes action Sunday, Keeneland features the 1 1/16-mile GII Castle & Key Bourbon Stakes, while Belmont at the Big A hosts the six-furlong GIII Matron Stakes. On the West Coast, Santa Anita offers the Surfer Girl Stakes and the Zuma Beach Stakes, both contested over a mile on the turf course.

SPEIGHTSTOWN'S IMPULSE BUY ROMPS TO 'RISING STAR' HONORS AT KEENELAND

Impulse Buy | Coady Media

by Steve Sherack

WinStar Farm homebred Impulse Buy (f, 2, Speightstown--Jojo Warrior, by Pioneerof the Nile), a debut second behind her Rodolphe Brisset-trained stablemate Liam in the Dust (Liam's Map) at Ellis Park Aug. 11, graduated in style with a 'TDN Rising Star' performance at second asking at Keeneland Saturday.

The 5-2 chance shot out to the front and sped through an opening quarter in :22.11. She traveled nicely around the far turn, kicked for home as the one to catch and dropped the hammer from there to win by an eye-catching 11 lengths. Quantum Burst (Munnings) was second.

Impulse Buy becomes the 26th 'Rising Star' for the late leading sire Speightstown, who was euthanized late last year.

The aforementioned Liam in the Dust was a game second in the GIII Pocahontas Stakes Sept. 14 and finished off the board in Friday's opening day feature GI Darley Alcibiades Stakes.

The winner's dam Jojo Warrior, a half-sister to GISW A Z Warrior (Bernardini) and winner of the 2014 GII Summertime Oaks and GIII Torrey Pines Stakes, had a colt by Nashville this year and was bred back to Americanrevolution.

BUSCADOR'S HALF-SISTER HITS THE TRACK FOR PEACOCK AND FINCHER IN ARCADIA

3rd-SA, $54K, Msw, 2yo, f, 6f, 5:00 p.m. ET.

Joey Peacock's productive New Mexico mare Rose's Desert (Desert God) can already claim several stakes winners, including G1 Saudi Cup champ Senor Buscador (Mineshaft). Her latest homebred to hit the track is ROSE A (Desert God) and just like all the others she is trained by Todd Fincher. Rose's Desert, who is also responsible for GIII Sunland Derby hero Runaway Ghost (Ghostzapper), has a current yearling colt named The Hell We Did (Authentic) and a weanling filly by Into Mischief. Cont.

Set for her unveiling is Mawu (Blame). A $500,000 purchase by Baoma at the Fasig-Tipton Saratoga Select Yearling Sale, the filly is trained by Bob Baffert. TJCIS PPS 5th-BAQ, $90K, Msw, 2yo, f, 1 1/16mT, 2:44 p.m. ET.

Making her first start is Walmac homebred Jenn (Justify). Conditioned by Graham Motion, the chestnut is first registered foal for Prose (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}). A full-sister to French group stakes winner First Minister (Ire), this dam was acquired by the farm for $350,000 during Keeneland November while Jenn was in-utero. The first-time starter hails from an extended female family which includes sire Medaglia d'Oro (El Prado {Ire}) and MGSW Buchu (Justify). TJCIS PPS

7th-KEE, $100K, Msw, 2yo, 7f, 4:12 p.m. ET.

Tuscaloosa (Candy Ride {Arg}) brought $700,000 at Keeneland September. Owned by partners CHC, Siena and WinStar, the gelding is trained by Rodolphe Brisset. The dark bay is out of MGISP Maya Malibu (Malibu Moon)--a $575,000 2018 Keeneland November buy for Sea Horse Breeders--who is a half-sister to the dam of current stallion Mo Donegal (Uncle Mo). TJCIS PPS

New York-bred Mi Bago, who was sold privately by trainer Carlos Munoz's CM Thoroughbreds to Gary Barber after wiring a field of maidens in his Aug. 1 Colonial Downs main track debut, made his first turf try and local debut a successful one under Sahin Civaci. Racing between rivals Sharedashenanigans (Into Mischief) and French Horn (Complexity) in the early going, the 5-1 third choice in a field of eight chased a contested pace before edging closer on the turn. Responding well to Civaci's urging in the stretch, he found plenty to reel in a stubborn Dare to Breeze and gain a neck victory.

Mi Bago joined GIII winner Jonathan's Way and Louisiana Jess as his stallion's first-crop stakes winners. Mi Bago is the fifth winner for his unraced dam who was bred to Highly Motivated for this term. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV .

Having just broken her maiden in a $100,000 claimer at Del Mar in August, Pali Kitten lined up in her stakes debut facing a scratched-down field that included 1-5 favorite and the lone filly Dreamaway who had already won the Colleen Stakes at Monmouth in July. The longest shot in the four-horse field at 13-1, Pali Kitten got squeezed back early and found herself last as the favorite headed out to lead. Riding the rail around the far turn while staving all the ground, Pali Kitten then dove out at the quarter pole, quickly reeled in both Dreamaway and Smash It and gamely fought off a last-minute bid from the runner up to last on the wire.

"Everybody in these races ultimately wants to get the lead," said winning rider Kazushi Kimura. "So, I just focused on taking it easy and finishing up strong. Thankfully, everything worked out well and we were able to do just that."

The fifth stakes winner for Vino Rosso, Pali Kitten is out MSW/MGSP Artemus Kitten who has a yearling Tonalist filly and was bred to Idol for 2025. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

BRAMITO (g, 4, Gun Runner--R Gypsy Gold {MSW & GISP, $271,417}, by Bernardini) was claimed by Norm Casse from Steve Asmussen after running fifth over the grass at the Spa July 24. Entered against starter company under the care of new trainer Linda Rice, the gelding won by 3/4 of a length upstate Aug. 30. Overlooked as a 10-1 shot here, the dark bay trailed and looked out of it up the backstretch. However, the 4-year-old got into gear around the far turn and began to motor down the center of the course. Like a second-half team, Bramito stormed home by a length over Quick to Accuse (Accelerate). The winner has a pair of full-sisters in unraced 3-year-old Streona and one who is currently a yearling. R Gypsy Gold was sent to Cody's Wish for 2025. Bramito's second dam produced current sire Golden Lad (Medaglia d'Oro) and the dam of new stallion Elite Power (Curlin). She grabbed an early lead under Luis Rivera, Jr. and set fractions of :22.77 and :46.59 before entering the stretch with a clear advantage. The 10-1 longshot responded to her rider's urging thereafter and was all out to prevail by a 1/2 length over 3-5 favorite Off Script (Instagram). MIZZYAAN (f, 3, Justify--Vale Dori {Arg} {MGISW-USA, G1SW-Arg, GSP-UAE, $1,365,567}, by Asiatic Boy {Arg}) debuted a well-beaten fourth to Manama Gold (Star Guitar) in the Cocoa Beach Stakes at Meydan in Dubai to start the year. The homebred improved to be the runner-up against that same filly in the G3 Longines UAE Oaks over the same surface in mid-February. Sent from Doug Watson's shedrow to Michael McCarthy's California base to start her work tab in early June, the 3-year-old made her first start at Del Mar and was a well-beaten ninth Aug. 2. Switching to route on the grass at the seaside oval Sept. 7, Mizzyaan was the runner-up before she was installed as the 9-5 choice here. The favorite angled over from the outside after the break to settle at the rear of the field into the first turn. Gaining a couple of places up the backstretch, the chestnut was given her cue around the far turn and ranged up on the leaders to set herself up for a run down the center of the course. Powering to the front, Mizzyaan was ready for graduation day as she scored by 3 1/4 lengths over Sophisticate (Liam's Map). The winner is her dam's first registered foal.

Vale Dori is responsible for unraced 2-year-old filly Al Durry (GB) (American Pharoah) and a yearling filly by Frankel (GB). Lifetime Record: GSP-UAE, 5-1-2-0, $91,107. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV. O/B-Sheik Mohammed bin Khalifa al Maktoum (KY); T-Michael W. UNCLE DUDE (c, 2, Volatile--Super Allison {SW, $157,043}, by Super Saver) debuted a well-beaten fourth on the main track at Del Mar July 28, then ran a close-third over the seaside oval's grass Aug. 18. The OBS April grad was sent from the extreme outside gate as a 9-1 shot here. The grey ran at the back of the pack heading into the first turn, but steadily the 2-year-old began to make progress up the backstretch. Tipping to the outside around the far turn, Uncle Dude began to unwind and entered the lane full of run down the center of the course. Once the colt switched leads with a furlong left, he found his best stride and was up in time to nip at the wire Curvino (Vino Rosso). Favorite King's Road (Quality Road) finished fourth. The winner is a half-brother to SP Bernabreezy (Bernardini), and Super Allison foaled a colt by Bolt d'Oro Apr. 24. Uncle Dude was the 14th winner for his freshman sire (by Violence). SEA RUNNER (f, 2, Gun Runner--Cuyathy {SP, $107,923}, by Congrats) wound up third in her stakes debut while still a maiden in the Juvenile Fillies Turf Stakes at Del Mar Sept. 7. Favored here, she had to sit behind the leader in second while clearly keen, came alongside past the quarter pole and just was able to reel that pacesetter in to get the half-length win over Lee's Baby Girl (Malibu Moon). The half-sister to Johannes (Nyquist), GISW, $693,859, Sea Runner has a yearling half-sister by Knicks Go with her dam due back to Maxfield next year. Sales History: $300,000 RNA Ylg '23 KEESEP. SUPER SAILOR (c, 2, McKinzie--Iwantthat, by Hard Spun) finished runner up in his debut going 7 1/2 furlongs on the Gulfstream turf before coming home fifth last time while stretching to 1 mile 70 yards over that oval's synthetic surface Sept. 1. Installed the 1-2 choice this time, he stalked an honest early pace, was four wide turning for home, took over at the top of the stretch and drew off to win by 6 1/4 lengths over Wordonthestreet (Street Sense). Super Sailor is the 12th winner for freshman sire (by Street Sense). This is the family of Re Toss (Arg) (Egg Toss), a Grade 1 winner in both the U.S. and her native Argentina.
