

'A DESTINATION SPOT': FASIG-TIPTON OCTOBER SALE STARTS MONDAY

Newtown Paddocks | Fasig-Tipton

by Jessica Martini

The Fasig-Tipton Kentucky October Yearlings Sale, with a catalogue of 1,614 head, brings the curtain down on what has been a record-setting yearling sales season with its four-day run beginning Monday in Lexington. Bidding for each session begins at 10 a.m.

Consignors are optimistic that the competitive market that has been prevalent from the season's beginning at the Fasig-Tipton July Sale, to the company's Saratoga sales, and to the Keeneland September Yearling Sale last month, will continue through its conclusion this week.

"Coming off the way the prices were and the stats from July, Saratoga, and September, and even the Tattersalls sales, I think the market is very strong," said Warrendale Sales' Hunter Simms. "I wouldn't see any particular reason for it to stop. In September, with 4,000 horses through the ring, we were busy the entire time. I don't think it will subside all from that."

For Simms, the competitive market is a pure case of supply and demand.

"I know the foal crop keeps declining, but with purses and everything the way they are, less supply is going to equal more demand," he said. Cont. Pg. 3

NEW YORK'S MARY BROMAN, LONGTIME OWNER/BREEDER, DIES AT 88

Longtime owner/breeder Mary Broman passed away October 16 at the age of 88. The following is an obituary provided by the New York Thoroughbred Breeders' Association:

Mary Rachel Broman, who with her husband Chester established New York's leading breeding and racing operations, passed away October 16 at the age of 88.

Born April 13, 1936, and a resident of Babylon Village, New York, and Wellington, Florida, Mary was devoted wife of Chester Sr., beloved mother of Chester Jr. and his wife Holly, son Christopher and his wife Tamera and the late Rachel Broman. Cherished grandmother of Sarah, Nicholas, Brandon and Hannah, and dear sister of Roseanne McWilliams and Paula Hoey. The Bromans own and operate Chestertown Farm in the tiny community of the same name in the heart of New York's Adirondack Mountains. Cont. Pg. 4

“I don’t think the foal crop can continue its downward trend, that’s obviously not good for the business, but right now, people are hungry for horses at all levels. We are running $100,000 maiden special weights with auction-restricted races for $50,000 and under. It gives those people an opportunity to buy horses at all levels and get their investment back. You win a nice race, and you get it back off of one run.”

Consignor Colin Brennan said the strength of the previous sales this season will likely set up a seller's market at the October auction.

“From a pinhooker's point of view, I've talked to plenty of people at Keeneland and earlier sales, they just weren't getting that stock bought,” Brennan said. “They have to have stock, so they are going to come and shop here and I'd imagine they will swing a little bit harder here just to fill their barns. It's good for a seller's market anyway.”

A year ago, 1,064 yearlings sold at the October sale for a gross of $51,120,000. The average was $48,045 and the median was $24,000. Five horses sold for $500,000 or over, led by a sale-topping son of Justify who brought a final bid of $725,000.

Brennan is looking for the auction's 2024 results to continue on from its strong 2023 renewal.

“Last year, there were 50-some horses who sold for over $200,000 up here,” he said. “If they can keep that up, then we should be in good shape. And from what I can tell, the buyers that were here spending big money last year, I've seen most of them already on Saturday alone. There is pretty good attendance and we are seeing all the right people. So I am expecting things to continue that way.”

An expanding resume of impressive graduates, led this year by GI Kentucky Oaks winner Thorpedo Anna (Fast Anna), has made the October auction a fixture on the sales calendar, according to Simms.

“They have great success coming out of Fasig October, especially with Thorpedo Anna doing as well as she is this year, a potential Horse of the Year coming out of the sale,” Simms said. “I think overall, it’s not just a sale for horses who were RNAs earlier on in the year. We target certain horses for this sale that might need the extra 30 days from September to develop. So it’s become a destination spot to send nice horses to and, judging by the catalogue, with the sire power that they have and the female side of families that they have, you can see that consignors are thinking the exact same way.” Cont.

Chris Shelli of Fort Christopher’s Thoroughbreds agreed there was plenty to recommend the October sale.

“We just enjoy being in Kentucky in the fall and the experience that Fasig-Tipton puts on through the sale,” Shelli said. “We think it’s a really good, positive atmosphere. And for the sellers, obviously, if you have a horse that is a little immature or has a later foaling date—we have a few May foals we felt were better suited for a later sale. And we’ve had a luck there. We have a lot of confidence in this sale.”

The October sale has grown beyond its old reputation as a fall-back plan for sellers, Brennan agreed.

“Just looking through the catalogue, you do see horses who were RNAs or pinhooks from earlier sales, but there is a fine mix of horses who this is the first sale they have been to and this was their target,” Brennan said. “I think it’s a little bit of both, but I think it’s less of a fall-back sale than it used to be.”

Fort Christopher’s will bring a consignment of eight New York-breds to the October sale and the strength of the state’s breeding program has made those horses popular to a wider range of buyers, according to Shelli.

“With the new increase in purses and breeders awards, and the new surfaces that will be coming on line soon at Belmont, we feel like we’ve got a really diverse, solid group to bring to the marketplace,” he said. “We have been selling fewer horses at the New York sale and more recently in the Kentucky October sale, purely because we had a lot of good luck and a good experience there. With our operations in New York and Kentucky, we are actually prepping 100% of the yearlings in Kentucky, so it made sense to just ship a few minutes down the road versus ship all the way back up to Saratoga.”

Of the appeal of New York-breds to buyers in the bluegrass, Shelli said, “Specifically by having Kentucky-sired New York-breds, the mare quality in New York has improved tremendously. So in the past, where we found we had a much smaller buyer base for those horses, we don’t feel that anymore. It’s been a diverse group of buyers between pinhookers, end-users, trainers, etc. We don’t feel that there is a difference anymore. We have had a lot of good luck selling our Kentucky-sired horses to everyone, so we felt that whether we sold in Saratoga or sold in Kentucky October, it didn’t make a difference. We feel there is a good buyer base at both sales.”

The couple were honored by the New York Thoroughbred Breeders Inc. with the state’s Breeder of the Year title eight times, the most recent crown in 2022.

“We are deeply saddened to learn of the passing of Mrs. Broman,” said Executive Director of New York Thoroughbred Breeders, Inc. Najja Thompson. “In addition to her tremendous accomplishments in the New York-bred program alongside her husband Chester, she was also a warm and welcome presence. We express our deepest condolences to Chester and the entire Broman family.”

The Bromans sit well atop the state’s list of leading breeders for 2024 with purse earnings of $2,256,979 through October 14, along with 42 wins from 227 starts. Stakes winners in 2024 bred by the Bromans include Bank Frenzy (Central Banker), Spirit of St Louis (Medaglia d’Oro) and Sweet Brown Sugar (Collected).

“Mrs. Broman will be missed by the entire New York breeding and racing community,” added Vice President of Government Affairs for the New York Racing Association and former executive director of the NYTB Jeffrey Cannizzo. “She was a personal friend and I sincerely enjoyed all our time spent together. I’d like to extend sincere and heartfelt condolences to Chester and the Broman family.”

New York Thoroughbred Horsemen’s Association President Tina Bond said, “We are so sorry to hear of Mary’s passing. She and Chester have been pillars of the New York breeding industry for so many years, and they set a standard of excellence that we all strive to meet. Mary was very much a partner in the Chestertown operations, and she was also a classy and lovely woman. Her passing is a real loss to our community.”

The Bromans also led the state’s breeders list in 2023 with earnings of $3,243,042. Hejazi, a son of Bernardini who brought $3.55 million at the Fasig-Tipton Midlantic May 2-year-olds in training sale, was a finalist for New York-bred champion 2-year-old male honors in 2022 and earned the New York-bred 3-year-old championship in 2023. The Bromans also bred 2023 champion older female New York-bred Classy Edition (Classic Empire). Spirit of St Louis also earned finalist consideration for champion male turf honors in 2023.

The Bromans racked up New York-bred earnings of $3,157,109 in 2022, nearly $1 million more than the state’s next closest breeder.

Hejazi and Classy Edition were the 11th and 12th New York-bred champions bred by the Bromans since 2000.

The group also includes 2017 Breeders’ Cup Filly and Mare Sprint winner Bar of Gold (Medaglia d’Oro) and Grade I winners Artemis Agrotera (Roman Ruler), Friends Lake (A.P. Indy) and $1,403,536-earner and multiple stakes winner Mr. Buff (Friend or Foe). Bar of Gold, who retired with earnings of more than $1.55 million, and Mr. Buff won multiple titles and rank in the top 30 among all-time New York-bred earners.

CHOP CHOP BACK WHERE SHE BELONGS ON THE KENTUCKY GRASS IN DOWAGER WIN

by Stefanie Grimm

When Chop Chop (City of Light) first broke her maiden as a 2-year-old at Ellis Park going one mile on the grass and then immediately took the Juvenile Fillies Stakes at Kentucky Downs, she seemed destined for a career on the turf course. But a shocking run to just lose by a nose to 2-year-old champion filly Wonder Wheel (Into Mischief) in the GI Darley Alcibiades had her connections thinking about the GI Kentucky Oaks and Chop Chop spent her next three races on the main track with limited results including a disappointing 13th as the favorite in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies. After a long 3-year-old span which saw her fail to really show the same talent she debuted with, Chop Chop began to stretch out and rewarded her connections with a win over this course and distance in the GIII Bewitch Stakes April 26. Shipped all around in her four starts since, the now 4-year-old has yet to find the winner's circle since that April day where she defeated Atomic Blonde (Ger) (The Grey Gatsby {Ire}), a rival she faced again Sunday in her triumphant return to Keeneland in the GIII Rood & Riddle Dowager Stakes in her last race before selling at FTKNOV.

With jockey Luan Machado in the irons (he also took Saturday's GIII Perryville Stakes in an upset), Chop Chop stepped back up to the 1 1/2 miles Sunday off a fifth in the 1 5/16 miles GIII Ladies Marathon Stakes at Kentucky Downs, a race she lost to another rival she again lined up against here in Necie Marie (Cross Traffic). Sitting a cozy stalking trip in second positioned just off the flank of pacesetter Surprisingly (Mastery), the 7-2 shot held ground just off the rail as the pair ran one two past the wire with one lap remaining and made the turn up into the backstretch. Cont.

Still under a comfortable hold past the half in :49.94 and the mile in 1:40.80, Chop Chop made her move around the far turn, coming alongside the leader, putting that fading rival to bed and gutting out a final-sixteenth duel to outlast 18-1 shot Forever After All (Connect) in victory.

“She was pretty comfortable all the way around,” said Machado. “She broke real good and got me in a perfect spot. She’s an old pro. She knows what to do. She knows when to go faster, and she actually did it on her own. I’ve got to congratulate the team--(trainer) Brad (Cox) and everybody else--and thank them for the opportunity.”

Cox admitted that trying something new at the marathon distance might have been the key to opening up new possibilities for his filly.

“I guess experimenting a little bit. We nominated her to the race in April here at Keeneland (the 1 1/2 mile Gill Bewitch, which she won) to see how it came up. We thought she had a shot, so we took a chance and (winning) opened up a lot of new avenues for her. I guess that’s the one thing I’ve learned from her: Sometimes when one’s not really moving forward or you think you’re out of options, try something new, and it worked out; she likes the marathon distances. She’s really good and physical--plenty of scope, plenty of leg. She looks like a mile-and-a-half filly. She’s steps up, very consistent--synthetic, dirt, turf. She’s a very nice filly.”

The win gave Cox a record-setting fifth graded stake of the meet after he took three during Keeneland's opening weekend and Saturday's Gill Lexus Raven Run with Emery.

Pedigree Note:

Chop Chop is one of 10 stakes winners from third-crop sire City of Light. She is out of Grand Sofia, an unraced half-sister to GI TVG/BETFAIR Hollywood Gold Cup Handicap winner Rail Trip (Jump Start) who RNA'd for $875,000 at FTKNOV last year. From three to race, Grand Sofia has produced a pair of winners including Chop Chop's year younger half-sister, Sweet Miss Maggie (Omaha Beach). She has a 2-year-old Constitution filly yet to race, produced a colt from the first crop of Horse of the Year Flightline this year and is due back to Constitution.

FEE DISPUTE BARS WAGERING ON PLEASANTON THROUGH XPRESSBET, NYRA BETS

by Dan Ross

Golden State Racing launched Saturday its inaugural 26-day Thoroughbred meet at Pleasanton. But punters hoping to wager on its product through two popular ADW platforms are currently shut out--a scenario stemming from a disagreement over the fees that form a key part of a track's purses and revenues.

Currently, neither The Stronach Group's (TSG) ADW platform Xpressbet nor the New York Racing Association's NYRA Bets include Pleasanton in their racing menus.

Similarly, Elite Turf Club players are also unable to play on the Pleasanton product. Owned by TSG and NYRA, Elite Turf Club is one of the primary platforms that Computer Assisted Wagering teams wager through in the U.S.

According to the San Francisco Chronicle, which first reported on the wagering blackout, total handle at Pleasanton Saturday was $807,416. The Chronicle reported that the now shuttered Golden Gate Fields handled $2,703,176 on the corresponding day in 2023.

GSR has hired Churchill Downs International (CDI) to handle their rate negotiations.

In a brief conversation Sunday with Larry Swartzlander, executive director of the California Authority of Racing Fairs (CARF) and Golden State Racing (GSR), he explained that Xpressbet and NYRA proposed rates that he deemed “substandard.”

In a follow-up email exchange with Swartzlander and Heather Haviland, deputy executive director of CARF, they further explained that XpressBet declined to accept the GSR signal at the same rate as the fairs, and seeks to pay “roughly 33% less” for the signal.

“CDI simply offered rates to all outlets that were identical to those paid for Pleasanton, Sacramento, Ferndale and Fresno content; rates which had been approved by the Thoroughbred Owners of California (TOC) in September,” Haviland wrote. “TVG, TwinSpires, Watch&Wager and all wagering outlets, other than those represented by Monarch or NYRA, signed the agreements without hesitation. Monarch declined to represent the fairs/CARF after the conclusion of the Fresno meet.”

The recent seven race-day Fresno meet ended Sept. 29.

An April 4 letter from the Thoroughbred Owners of California (TOC) to Swartzlander shows the fairs this summer charged Xpressbet, NYRA and other platforms a hub fee of 5% for ADW wagers accepted by California residents, and a host fee of no less than 7.5% of gross out-of-state handle wagered by out-of-state account holders.

“We hope that players wanting to wager on Golden State Racing at Pleasanton contact XpressBet,” wrote Haviland.

Scott Daruty is president of Monarch Content Management, the simulcast purchase and sales agent for a group of twelve Thoroughbred racetracks, mainly those under TSG banner.

Daruty said the simulcast sales representative for GSR has refused to sell the signal to Elite Turf Club. “That’s not our choice,” he said.

As for the negotiations over Xpressbet, Daruty said they proposed a counter to GSR’s original offer on Monday. “We never heard back from them until I received a phone call from Larry Swartzlander earlier today,” Daruty said, Sunday afternoon. “We’re working on trying to get a fair rate. But Churchill, their sales representative, never responded to our proposal.”

As to GSR’s original offer, “they wanted Xpressbet to pay more for Golden State Racing than it pays for Gulfstream Park or Aqueduct,” said Daruty. “We thought that was unreasonable.”

Gulfstream Park and Aqueduct are owned by TSG and NYRA respectively.

According to the Chronicle, the attendance at Pleasanton Saturday was 1,317, up from 1,003 at Golden Gate Fields last year.

SATURDAY WINNERS BRUNACINI AND EMERY EXIT IN GOOD ORDER, FUTURE PLANS PENDING

34-year-old trainer Matt Sims, who recorded his first stakes win Saturday with 28-1 longshot Brunacini (Dortmund) in the GIII Perryville Stakes at Keeneland, is already looking for a second with his upset runner before the winter season.

“He looks good this morning, and he wasn’t tired after the race,” said Sims, who will split the winter between racing at Turfway Park and Oaklawn Park. “[We’re] looking at the Cherokee Mile at Churchill Downs Dec. 1.”

Meanwhile, Perryville favorite Book'em Danno (Buccherò) had to settle for second Saturday after a tricky trip had the Grade I winner further back than usual for trainer Derek Ryan.

“He’s good this morning,” said Ryan. “He ran his race, but that’s just racing luck. I wish he could have gotten to the outside.”

Ryan noted that the son of Buccherò would target the GII Cigar Mile Dec. 7 as his final start of the year.

GII Lexus Raven Run winner Emery (More Than Ready) also rebounded well from her effort Saturday.

“She probably will go back to Churchill Downs today or tomorrow,” said Blake Cox, assistant to his father, trainer Brad Cox, on Sunday. “She ran up to expectations yesterday. She is a very good, consistent filly.”

Future plans are yet to be determined for the 3-year-old filly with Cox noting that whatever came next would be determined after talking with owner Stonestreet Stable.

BREEDERS' CUP UPDATES: FRIZETTE WINNER SCOTTISH LASSIE LEADS BUSY SUNDAY WORK TAB

Sportsmen Stable, Parkland Thoroughbreds, Photos Finish, Corms Racing Stable and trainer Jorge Abreu's Grade I-winner Scottish Lassie (McKinzie) worked Sunday at Belmont Park in preparation for the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Nov. 1 at Del Mar.

The 2-year-old filly was among the first to breeze after the training track reopened at 7:30 a.m., and was guided through her exercise by jockey Jose Lezcano, who piloted her to victory last out to the graduate in the GI Frizette Stakes Oct. 5.

Scottish Lassie worked outside of Jody's Pride (American Pharoah), runner-up in last year's GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies, and was about one length behind as they came to the wire to complete a half-mile in :49.50 seconds, according to NYRA clockers. Scottish Lassie ranged up to sweep past her workmate into the first turn and galloped out strongly in front.

Scottish Lassie | Sarah Andrew

Abreu said he wanted an easier work for Scottish Lassie in her first effort since winning the Frizette.

"Lezcano said they went pretty well and in the gallop out, she was full of herself," said Abreu. "I told Lezcano I didn't want her to get head-and-head right away. I was just trying to get her to relax. First breeze back, I didn't want her going in :47 or anything like that."

Scottish Lassie is the first graded stakes-winner for Abreu, who was a longtime assistant for Hall of Fame trainer Nick Zito and for four-time Eclipse Award-winning conditioner Chad Brown before going out on his own in 2016.

The veteran horseman said it has been a special experience to prepare a horse of Scottish Lassie's stature for an event like the Breeders' Cup.

“It’s nerve-wracking day by day. But she’s doing everything right. She’s feeling good and she came out of her race in pretty good shape. She’s got a pretty good head on her and has always been that way since Day One.”

Abreu added Scottish Lassie will work once more at Belmont on either Friday or Saturday before shipping to Del Mar.

Parkland Thoroughbreds and Sportsmen Stable’s sophomore filly Jody’s Pride was entered in the six-furlong Glen Cove Stakes that was originally slated for October 11, but did not re-enter when the race was rescheduled for the 18th.

Abreu said Jody’s Pride will instead target the GIII Pebbles Stakes Nov. 8.

“I didn’t want to go three-quarters against the filly for Brad Cox,” explained Abreu. “She’s been great. She’s ready to run a good race. I could have re-entered in the race, but the more I thought about it, I said, ‘we’ve been running her long, why do we want to cut her back to three-quarters?’”

At Saratoga, trainer Saffie Joseph, Jr. provided an update on Breeders’ Cup-bound Skippylongstocking (Exaggerator) who is under consideration for both the GI Breeders’ Cup Classic or the GI Dirt Mile.

“He’s doing good. He is going to work back again this week - one more work before the Breeders’ Cup,” said Joseph, Jr. “We haven’t decided yet, I would say right now we are probably leaning towards maybe the Mile, but no decision just yet. We are going to pre-enter both tomorrow. Most likely we are going to the Mile.”

Joseph, Jr. said the two-turn mile configuration at Del Mar could be to Skippylongstocking’s benefit.

“If the mile was one-turn, we definitely would not go. The two-turn mile, that definitely plays into the decision,” said Joseph, Jr. “It is not decided yet, but we are definitely leaning towards the mile right now.”

Out west, a busy Sunday morning at Santa Anita included more than a dozen prospects for the Breeders’ Cup registering timed workouts.

Trainer Bob Baffert worked Newgate (Into Mischief) (Classic), Citizen Bull (Into Mischief) (Juvenile), Gaming (Game Winner) (Juvenile), Fort Bragg (Tapit) (Sprint or Dirt Mile), Muth (Good Magic) (Dirt Mile) and Non Compliant (Tiz the Law) (Juvenile Fillies).

Newgate, most recently a narrow third in the GI California Crown, earned a bullet when drilling five furlongs in :59.20 (1/51). Citizen Bull, winner of the GI American Pharoah, went five furlongs in :59.80 (4/51). Gaming, the GI Del Mar Futurity winner, worked six furlongs from the gate in 1:12.40 (2/6).

Fort Bragg, most recently fourth in the GII Santa Anita Sprint Championship, worked five furlongs from the gate in :59.80 (4/51). Muth, who was last in the California Crown, also went five furlongs in :59.40 (3/51). Non Compliant, the GII Oak Leaf winner, completed her five-furlong drill also in :59.80 (4/51).

Trainer Phil D’Amato worked Gold Phoenix (Belardo {Ire}) (Turf), Hang the Moon (Uncle Mo) (Filly & Mare Turf) and Motorious (Muhaarar {GB}) (Turf Sprint), all on the synthetic training track. Grade I winner Gold Phoenix, most recently fifth in the GII John Henry, worked five furlongs in 1:00.20 (5/13). Hang the Moon, upset winner of the GII Rodeo Drive, clocked four furlongs in :49.40 (24/31). Motorious, winner of the GIII Green Flash at Del Mar on Aug. 31, fired a bullet when going five furlongs in :59 flat (1/13).

Trainer Doug O’Neill worked Mixto (Good Magic) (Classic), Katonah (Klimt) (Dirt Mile) and Pali Kitten (Vino Rosso) (Juvenile Turf Sprint). Mixto, winner of the GI Pacific Classic, worked five furlongs from the gate in 1:01.20 (24/51). Katonah, fourth in the California Crown, went five furlongs from the gate in 1:01.40 (26/51). Pali Kitten, winner of the Speakeasy Oct. 5 at Santa Anita, worked three furlongs in :39 flat (25/26).

Trainer John Sadler worked Dirt Mile prospect Full Serrano (Full Mast). Runner-up in the Pacific Classic, the South American import earned a bullet when completing six furlongs in 1:11.80 (1/6).

Margins: NO, 1 1/4, 4 1/4. Odds: 0.75, 1.75, 18.80.

Also Ran: Mangetsu, Grace and Grit. Scratched: Duboff, Fortuna Mia.

A well-bred daughter of Dubawi, Opulent Restraint donned cap and gown at second asking upstate Sept. 1. The gray was well-backed by the public here at 75 cents on the dollar.

Settling at the rear of the field into the first turn with Rare Art, the filly was on hold up the backstretch, but started to get underway before the top of the lane. Shifting into high gear in the three path, the juvenile took command with a furlong left and despite a challenge from her rival Rare Art was able to realize her first black-type score.

"We are very proud of her [Opulent Restraint]," said breeder Peter Brant, whose wife Stephanie Seymour Brant owns the horse. "She has a full-sister coming over here to Chad [Brown] for next year, a yearling that is really special as well, so we are very blessed to have these two fillies. She is by Dubawi as well."

About breeding Significant Form to Dubawi, Brant said: "He was when we bred to him, arguably one of the best stallions in the world. So, we thought that she [Significant Form] looked like she was a solid miler, mile and a sixteenth, seven-eighths, middle distance horse, and that maybe Dubawi would give her a little bit more distance, but kind of like-to-like in terms of distance. We've been lucky with her she's had some very nice foals, Significant Form. She's doing very well. She was bred to Justify last. We brought her over here to breed her to Justify, so she is in this country now."

The winner's is her dam's first registered foal. Opulent Restraint's yearling full-sister who Brant mentioned is Isadora Duncan (Ire). The breeder purchased Significant Form at the 2017 OBS 2-Year-Olds In Training Sale for $575,000. This dam foaled a filly by Kingman (GB) Feb. 29 and she was sent to Justify for next term. Her half-sister is GIII Commonwealth Turf Cup Stakes hero Hay Dakota (Haynesfield).

Margins: 4HF, HD, 2HF. Odds: 0.55, 5.70, 4.25.

Also Ran: Onejabtoomany, Silent Strike.

Brengungirl debuted a winner against maiden claimers at Woodbine Sept. 28 and was clearly well-supported by the betting public because she garnered favoritism at 55 cents on the dollar here. The juvenile exited the gate smoothly and was content to run second-last up the backstretch. Waiting to pounce around the far turn, the filly punched the accelerator in the three path at the top of the lane and she kicked backed to win comfortably.

The first registered foal for her dam, Brengungirl has a yearling half-sister by Ghostzapper and a weanling half-sister by Good Magic who arrived in late May. Not reported as bred for next season, Silent Sister is a half-sister to both SW Glamanation (Point of Entry) and SW Golden Glider (Ghostzapper).

FEDERALISM (f, 3, Constitution--Another Day of Sun, by Arch), making just her third career start, got back to her maiden-winning distance after trying 1 1/16 miles in her 3-year-old debut off nearly a year layoff at Ellis Park July 7. One of the longer shots on the board at 26-1, Federalism showed good early speed to sit just off the early speed in third. Still sitting comfortably midpack into the far turn, she came through an inside seam past the quarter pole and dueled eventual runner up Candy Bar (Constitution) to the line, winning by a head. Federalism has a 2-year-old unraced half-sister by Omaha Beach and a weanling half-sister by Good Magic while Another Day of Sun is due back to Munnings. MIGHTY MADISON (f, 4, Nyquist--Wedding Jitters, by Broken Vow) cut back to 6 1/2 furlongs after making all four starts at seven or greater this year including a last-out second by a head at Saratoga Sept. 1. The 3-5 favorite tucked in third up the backstretch while racing close to the pace, shifted out to make an outside run at the leaders off the turn and went clear from the furlong pole to the wire, winning by 3 1/4 lengths over Home Game (Street Sense). The half-sister to Risk It (Gun Runner), GSP, $196,938, Mighty Madison's youngest half-sibling is a 2-year-old half-sister by Laoban. CRUISE TO CATALINA (f, 3, Catalina Cruiser--Kaiserin, by Tiznow) broke her maiden third time out when romping by seven lengths going 6 1/2 furlongs against New York bred at Saratoga Aug. 29. Facing winners for the first time, the 1-5 favorite had to settle for second behind Maggie T (Destin) through the opening half in :45.23. Reeling that rival in around the far turn, Cruise to Catalina took over at the top of the lane and lasted over a closing Maggy's Palace (Palace Malice) to win by a length. A half to MSW Kloepatra (Cairo Prince), the winner is out of a half to GSP and freshman sire Aurelius Maximus (Pioneerof the Nile). Kaiserin foaled a Keepmeinmind colt this year who sold for $28,000 at the Fasig-Tipton July Digital Sale and she returned to both Keepmeinmind and Mullion for 2025. ALLA BREVE (f, 4, Mendelssohn--Split It, by Curlin) made her 4-year-old debut a winning -one against allowance types at Laurel June 14 and then took home the restricted Jameela Stakes over the same grass course July 14. Installed as the 3-1 third choice here, the chestnut was stuck towards the rear of the field in the initial stages up the backstretch, but she soon made up ground to be in the mix before the far turn. Skimming the rail, Alla Breve moved to the center of the course at the top of the lane and she unleashed a giant to kick to get the money by 3/4 length over coupled entry Visby (Midshipman). The winner's dam is responsible for 2-year-old filly Deem (Hoppertunity), who was sent to Saudi Arabia last year. She foaled Alla Breve a full-brother in 2023, produced a colt by Great Notion Apr. 22 and visited Engage for next term. GLEAN (f, 2, McKinzie--Harlan's Honor {SW, $110,350}, by Harlan's Holiday) began her career with a fifth-place finish at Kentucky Downs Sept. 7. Shedding the blinkers and at odds of 4-1 here, the filly was one of five runners across the track after the break up the backstretch. Dropping back to the second flight along the rail, the 2-year-old kept a close eye on the leader and favorite Lovely Emma (Twirling Candy). Glean looked for running room around the far turn and tipped to the three path at the quarter pole. Finding more down the lane, the bay took aim at the pacesetter and rolled past her with less than a sixteenth left to graduate by half a length.

SIDE STREET (g, 3, Kitten's Joy--Tara Street, by Street Cry {Ire}) only missed by a nose going 12 furlongs over the turf in what was his third attempt to break his maiden at Woodbine Sept. 2. The chestnut hit the board in the Breeders' Stakes in Toronto Sept. 29. As a 9-2 shot here, the gelding was eager to take the lead early, but dropped into tracking mode passing the grandstand for the first time behind Stop the Press (Uncle Mo). Ready to roll heading into the far turn, the homebred turned on the jets and got the jump on the rest of the field entering the lane. Side Street was able to find wire in time as a wall of horses were bearing down on him. The runner-up was favorite Vintage Vino (Vino Rosso). The winner's dam foaled a colt last year named Yorkstreet (Yorkton) and she was sent back to that same sire for 2025. GROOT (c, 2, Collected--Pachysandra {Ire}, by Dark Angel {Ire}) debuted a well-beaten fourth over the all-weather at Woodbine July 19 and lost the lead to run third over the same course Aug. 18. The dark bay finished ninth on the grass in the GI bet365 Summer Stakes in Toronto Sept. 14. As the 9-5 choice with first-time Lasix here, the favorite was a touch slow at the bell, but he made up ground by moving off the rail up the backstretch. Racing in the second flight around the far turn, the colt tipped to the outside at the top of the lane, found his best stride and the 2-year-old rolled home by four lengths over Yorkton's Honour (Yorkton). The winner is his unraced dam's first registered foal.

Pachysandra handed him a full-sister who is now yearling and she foaled a colt by Hard Spun May 2. She was sent back to that same sire for 2025. NATIONAL ARCHIVE (f, 2, Constitution--Lyn B, by Quality Road), fourth Aug. 30 in her only previous start, a maiden special weight over the same distance on Saratoga's lawn, left the stalls as the even-money favorite under Flavien Prat. The bay stalked from third through early fractions of :23.58 and :47.68, joined the front two on the turn while wide, and extended her stride down the lane with a host of challengers on her heels. National Treasure held sway to win by a length over 38-1 longshot Lady Wisdom (Solomini), who was also coming off a Saratoga maiden. A homebred for New York's Oak Bluff Stable, National Archive is the first foal out of a mare purchased by Don Robinson for $250,000 as a Keeneland September yearling in 2019 and who finished second at two in her only career start. Brought back with Lasix as the 1-5 favorite, she was well suited on the front end, put up fractions of :21.56 and :44.98 and drew off handily under Juan Hernandez to come home an easy winner by 5 3/4 lengths over stablemate Halone (Justify). Content to let the leaders fly through :23.20 and :45.81 fractions, Schilfied tipped out far on the turn and took her time changing to her proper lead, but sailed clear down the lane to best 17-1 longshot Cloudy Women (Cloud Computing) by daylight. The chestnut shipped to Hallandale for the Hollywood Beach Stakes and finished sixth Sept. 28. Hoping for a fresh start, but overlooked at 19-1 here, the colt settled towards the rear of the field into the first turn as the favorite Big Boy Jak (Thousand Words) carved out the fractions. SEVEN DAYS: A SECOND WAVE OF SUPERPOWERS?

Kia Joorabchian at Tattersalls | Laura Green

By Emma Berry

It's been tricky to focus on the racing of late with all the theatrics at Tattersalls, so let's call this fourteen days and attempt a catch-up in the brief period between the sales starting up again at Arqana on Tuesday.

The extraordinary prices of Books 1 and 2 at the October Yearling Sale tell only half the story, and we all know that in any sales season there are tales of the haves and the have-nots. Perhaps the most interesting element of the top end is what feels like a new wave of major investors, many from the Gulf nations, and seemingly intent on eventually establishing breeding operations based in Britain.

Depending on when you were born, you either lived through the 1980s emergence of the Godolphin, Shadwell and Juddmonte operations as Sheikh Mohammed, in particular, went toe to toe with Robert Sangster, MV O'Brien and the early Coolmore partners in those glory days in Kentucky, or you have read about it in Horse Trader.

This was the birth of the bloodstock superpower. Now comes a sort-of renaissance. It is not only now, of course. Sheikh Fahad Al Thani's Qatar Racing (initially Pearl Bloodstock) appeared on the scene around 2010 and has certainly been a force to be reckoned with in the intervening years, standing stallions and owning broodmares in various jurisdictions.

GOLIATH BREEZES THROUGH HIS JAPAN CUP PREP

by Tom Frary

Sunday's G2 Prix du Conseil de Paris at ParisLongchamp witnessed the return of the King George hero Goliath (Ger) (Adlerflug {Ger}--Gouache {Ger}, by Shamardal) and it was a case of plain sailing as he successfully went through the motions in his G1 Japan Cup warm-up. Always in cruise mode under Christophe Soumillon tracking the modest pace, the 6-5 favourite tanked his way to the front two out and was always holding Hamish (GB) (Motivator {GB}) comfortably at bay en route to a half-length success.

"After the minor setback he had in September we had no other choice than this race to give him a prep before the Japan Cup and it worked out really well," trainer Francis-Henri Graffard said of Goliath, who carried the colours of Resolute Bloodstock in partnership with Philip Baron Von Ullmann. Seven Days

Dunaden (Fr), Roaring Lion and Elm Park (GB) are among the operation's key successes on the track. It has been acknowledged that Sheikh Fahad's focus has shifted in recent years, though it must be said that Tweenhills, where the stallions have been based, looks to have a promising young sire on its books in the 2,000 Guineas winner Kameko.

The operation of Sheikh Fahad's cousin Sheikh Joaan Al Thani also flexed its muscles at a similar time and, based predominantly in France where its stallions stand at Haras de Bouquetot, has been associated with the dual Arc winner Treve (Fr) along with Group 1 winners Galileo Gold (GB), Shalaa (Ire) and Toronado (Ire) among others.

If it felt like Al Shaqab went a little quiet for a while that is no longer the case. In a notable new partnership, Al Shaqab's COO Mohammed Al Mansour was alongside the team from Amo Racing throughout much of the early books of the October Yearling Sale and together they signed for 10 yearlings through Books 1 and 2 for 4 million gns, while Al Shaqab Racing bought another nine in their own name for 2.5 million gns.

Notwithstanding that Godolphin remains a really major force in the sale ring and was the largest individual purchasing entity during Book 1, it was Kia Joorabchian's Amo Racing which really raised eyebrows at Tattersalls over the past fortnight. In addition to those bought in partnership, Amo Racing alone signed for 23 yearlings for more than 21 million gns.

"We were going for pedigrees of an outstanding nature and that's why we played hard at Book 1," said Joorabchian, who has been working in partnership with Nottingham Forest owner and shipping magnate Evangelos Marinakis.

While Joorabchian is no newcomer--he owned his first racehorse 20 years ago--this is obviously a serious change of focus in his bloodstock interests. On Friday, Amo Racing announced that its 2023 Champion Stakes winner King Of Steel would be joining its G2 July Stakes winner Persian Force (Ire) at Tally-Ho Stud. The operation also has a number of other stallion prospects on its books, including the G1 Phoenix Stakes winner Bucanero Fuerte (GB), who, like King Of Steel, is a son of Wootton Bassett (GB).

That same stallion was involved when Amo set a new European record price for a yearling colt in its purchase of Lodge Park Stud's son of Park Bloom (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) for 4.3 million gns. Joorabchian also bought the top-priced filly of the sale for 4.4 million gns. That daughter of Frankel (GB) is being sent into training with Ralph Beckett in a renewal of their association.

While Amo has been prominent in the sales headlines in recent weeks, one of the running stories of this season and last has been the steady acquisition of a serious team of horses--for presumably serious money--by Wathnan Racing, which is owned by Sheikh Tamim Al Thani, the emir of Qatar and the brother of Sheikh Joaan.

The team includes of course Saturday's G1 Qipco British Sprint Stakes winner Kind Of Blue (GB) (Blue Point {Ire}), who is plainly now a stallion prospect, though hopefully we will see plenty more of him on the track next year and perhaps beyond. Wathnan also has a number of broodmare prospects, including this year's G2 Queen Mary Stakes winner, Leovanni (Ire) (Kodi Bear {Ire}). Wathnan representative and agent Richard Brown insists that, for now, it is all about enjoying the action on the track, but it is not hard to see a time when Wathnan Racing will also incorporate a significant breeding operation.

Don't forget, either, the Bahraini racing teams of KHK Racing and Victorious Racing. They too have been significant spenders in recent years and each of them has at least one stallion heading to stud this year, including Vandeeek (GB) and Bradsell (GB).

From Saudi Arabia, too, is Mohammed Saleh Bin Laden's Salhia Stud. Bloodstock agent Richard Knight has been representing this owner at the sales in recent seasons and said after spending 2.2 million gns on four well-bred lots during Book 1 that it is the intention of Bin Laden, who is a major owner and breeder of Arab horses in his homeland, to establish a broodmare band in Britain.

The Buzz Abounds

Through its Qipco Holdings, members of the Qatari royal family, including Sheikh Fahad's brother Sheikh Hamad, have been major backers of British racing for 14 years through the British Champions Series, which has its finale on British Champions Day at Ascot.

Yes, soft ground took its toll to a degree on this year's Champions Day, as it has done in the past, but the sun made an appearance just at the right time, and there was no denying the buzz at Ascot on Saturday. The roar through the last few scrimmaging furlongs of an eventful Champion Stakes was on a par with any day at the royal meeting.

The day rightly kicked off with another stellar performance from the mighty Kyprios (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}). His tale of recovery from serious illness has been well told, but you would never know there's been a thing wrong with him as he cantered to post under Ryan Moore, those lovely chestnut ears rammed forward in anticipation, and later pogoed his way out of the winner's enclosure as if it say, 'Would you look at me--I've done it again!'

From stayers to sprinters the action jumped, and there was no sellers' remorse for Jan and Peter Hopper as they stood in the parade ring cheering in Kind Of Blue (GB) at Ascot on Sunday. The couple bred the son of Blue Point (GB) with Mike and Michelle Morris and, until his previous start when beaten a head in the G1 Haydock Sprint Cup, he raced in their colours.

The three-year-old, who is the third Group 1 winner from the first crop of Blue Point, was one of a number of high-profile purchases for Wathnan Racing this season, and he became their second Group 1 winner in Europe after Courage Mon Ami (GB) (Frankel {GB}).

"We really ought to let someone else win this race," said Peter Hopper with a smile as Kind Of Blue was led out triumphant.

"A lot of credit must go to the National Stud," added Jan. "They looked after him all the way through and the mare still lives there. She's in foal to Pinatubo and we hope to go back to Blue Point next year."

The mare in question is Blues Sister (GB) (Compton Place {GB}), well named in this case as she is indeed a sister to Deacon Blues (GB), who won the inaugural running of the Qipco British Champions Sprint in 2011 when it was still a Group 2. By the time his half-brother The Tin Man (GB) (Equiano {Fr}) won it five years later it had been promoted to Group 1 status. Remarkably, The Tin Man ran in the race in six consecutive years.

One of the key links in these three winners is the Bishop Of Cashel (Fr) mare Persario (GB), dam of the first two and granddam of Kind Of Blue, who was owned by the Hoppers in partnership with Ken and Elizabeth Grundy. Another important link is their trainer James Fanshawe, who also trained Bishop Of

Kind Of Blue's co-breeders Jan and Peter Hopper | Emma Berry

Cashel to win three group races for Cheveley Park Stud back in the mid-1990s, as well as his daughter Persario.

That tells you a little about Fanshawe's longevity, but his admirable career has never been just about training sprinters. He is one of the most versatile trainers in the business, with two Champion Hurdlers to his credit along with top-level runners across myriad distances on the Flat. It can get a little wearying to hear people banging on about Royal Ascot two-year-olds. A racehorse's career should be about much more than that, and owners looking for a trainer to get the best out of their horse could do worse than send their charge to Fanshawe's Pegasus Stables. Kind Of Blue, who only made his first appearance on a racecourse this April and is now a Group 1 winner, is merely the latest case in point.

Study In Excellence

"She's such a legend," said a beaming Tyla Macfarlane, the daily rider of Kalpana (GB), who was watching on with her friend as the Juddmonte filly returned following her first win in the big time. Moments later Tyla was whisked into the winner's circle by Annalisa Balding. "The prince wants to meet you," said the trainer's wife to the young rider.

Prince Ahmad Abdullah, the youngest son of the late Juddmonte founder Prince Khalid, was also beaming, and with good reason. It has been a terrific season for the Juddmonte fillies in particular, with Kalpana's Champions Day success following on from the win of Bluestocking (GB) (Camelot {GB}) in the Arc.

It is scarcely believable that Kalpana was once entered for Part II of the Tattersalls Ireland September Yearling Sale. Sensibly, she was withdrawn, and she is now the star performer for her sire Study Of Man (Ire), whose profile is rightly rising to the degree that members of his 57-strong crop of yearlings this year have been in demand at the sales over the last few weeks.

Prince Ahmad Abdullah leads in Kalpana | Emma Berry

Five of his nine yearlings in Book 2 returned six-figure sums, with Andrew Balding (unsurprisingly), Joseph O'Brien, Dylan Cunha, Tom Clover and Charlie Johnston among the trainers who have added a Study Of Man juvenile to their stable for next year.

Kirsten Rausing, who stands the stallion at Lanwades Stud, has lent considerable support to the Niarchos-bred son of Deep Impact (Jpn) and she was understandably another one to be thrilled with the result of the British Champions Fillies and Mares Stakes--a race she won herself 10 years ago with Madame Chiang (GB) (Archipenko). Indeed, that mare's current three-year-old Sinology (GB), a winner at Newbury in April, is another from Study Of Man's first crop. This spring he also covered the Arc winner Alpinista (GB) (Frankel {GB}) at Lanwades among what was his first three-figure book of mares.

By his percentage of black-type winners to runners, Study Of Man is ahead of his contemporaries Blue Point and Too Darn Hot (GB), and he is clearly a stallion to follow closely in the coming years.

Angel Rising

Charyn (Ire), the standout miler of the season in Europe, has been winning from March to October and he added a third Group 1 to his record in the Queen Elizabeth II Stakes on Saturday.

It won't just have been trainer Roger Varian and owner Nurlan Bizakov who delighted in that victory as Charyn's valuable win promoted his sire Dark Angel (Ire) to the top of the sires' table for Britain and Ireland.

Charyn was bred at Grangemore Stud by brothers Guy and David O'Callaghan, whose family has stood Dark Angel throughout this long and honourable career. There would be few people in the bloodstock industry who would not revel in the championship going to the Yeomanstown Stud resident, who has worked his way up through the ranks by siring sound and genuine horses, and is also becoming a notable broodmare sire.

If you are in any doubt as to what Dark Angel means to Yeomanstown's Gay O'Callaghan, then have a quick watch of this TDN video interview with the stallion master from earlier in the year.

Dukes Rules Caulfield

The superb season of Lope De Vega (Ire) continued in fine style on Saturday when his son Duke De Sessa (Ire) claimed a major international victory in the G1 Caulfield Cup. Homebred by Maurice Regan of Newtown Anner Stud, who still races the five-year-old with partners, the gelding started his racing career with Dermot Weld before switching to the stable of Ciaran Maher early last year. A dual Group 3 winner in Ireland and fifth in the Irish 2,000 Guineas, he has been a consistent campaigner in Australia, with several Group 1 placings prior to this major breakthrough victory.

It has already been quite the year for Lope De Vega around the world. Look De Vega (Fr) and Rouhiya (Fr) each won Classics in France, Program Trading (GB) and Carl Spackler (Ire) have won Grade 1s in America, and of the youngest generation, Goldolphin's Shadow Of Light (GB) is a standout with his victories in the Dewhurst and the Middle Park Stakes.

"Christophe knows how to handle him and he will come on a lot for that," Graffard added. "I am happy for his new part-owner Mr [John] Stewart, a very enthusiastic person who has a new vision about what racing should be. We look forward to the race in Japan with enthusiasm as a new step in the career of this horse who has great potential on the international circuit for older horses."

Pedigree Notes

Goliath is the second foal out of the Listed Hoppegartener Stutenpreis winner Gouache (Ger) (Shamardal), whose 3-year-old daughter Galaxy (Ger) (Cloth Of Stars {Ire}) broke her maiden on Sunday at Baden-Baden. She is kin to the triple group-winning Guardini (Fr) (Dalakhani {Ire}), while the second dam is the dual listed-winning Guantana (Ger) (Dynaformer) whose dam is the G1 Oaks d'Italia heroine Guadalupe (Ger) (Monsun {Ger}). Her progeny list is headed by the three-times group 1-winning Guignol (Ger) (Cape Cross {Ire}) and the G1 Grosser Dallmayr-Preis-winning sire Guiliani (Ire) (Tertullian). Gouache also has a 2-year-old full-sister to Goliath named Go Flying (Ire), a yearling filly by Magna Grecia \(Ire\) named Grande Merci (Ire) and a filly foal by Blackbeard \(Ire\).

FIRST GROUP WINNER FOR BRAMETOT AS NICORENI BLITZES WINTERKONIGIN RIVALS

by Sean Cronin

Gestut Ebbesloh's homebred Nicoreni (Ger) (Brametot {Ire}--Nouvelle Neige {Ger, by Big Shuffle) broke through over seven furlongs with an impressive debut triumph in an Aug. 24 Baden-Baden maiden and continued on the upgrade with an equally taking display in Sunday's G3 Carla Kellner Zukunftsrennen Preis der Winterkonigin back at the Iffezheim venue.

The 77-10 chance was swiftly into stride from the inside stall and occupied a position racing in a handy third through halfway in this one-mile contest. Looming large off the home turn, she was ridden along to seize control passing the quarter-mile pole and surged clear under mild urging in the latter stages to easily overpower French raider La Guapisima (Fr) (City Light {Fr}) by three lengths. The remainder came home at intervals with Bella Sinfonia (Ger) (Night Of Thunder {Ire}) finishing 2 1/2 lengths adrift of the runner-up in third.

The victory provided conditioner Peter Schiergen with a fifth renewal, but it was a first for Sibylle Vogt. "I have always wanted to win this race after placing so many times before and, now that it has happened, I am absolutely stunned," the winning rider commented. "We had the ideal trip and eased to the outside when we reached the straight. I possibly hit the front a bit too early, but I know her very well from her work in training. She is a tough and genuine filly."

Pedigree Notes

Nicoreni, who becomes the first pattern-race winner for her sire, is the seventh of eight foals and one of six scorers from as many runners produced by Listed Kolner Zweijahrigen Trophy victrix Nouvelle Neige (Ger) (Big Shuffle). The April-foaled homebred bay is a half-sister to the dual Group 3-placed New York City (Ger) (Sea The Moon {Ger}), who hit the board in this race last year, the dual stakes-placed Scandinavian champion Nouvelle Lune (Ger) (Sea The Moon {Ger}) and to the dam of the dual Group 3-placed New Emerald (Ger) (Protectionist {Ger}). Nouvelle Neige, who is the leading performer out of Listed Frankfurter Stutenpreis winner and G1 Preis der Diana (German Oaks) third Nouvelle Fortune (Ire) (Alzao), has a weanling colt by Sea The Moon (Ger) to come.

SANDTRAP TAKES RESERVOIRS TEST

3.53 Deauville, Group 3, €80,000, 2yo, f, 8fT
SANDTRAP (IRE) (Lope De Vega {Ire}) earned TDN Rising Star status with her impressive debut win at Salisbury last month and heads to Deauville to contest this G3 Darley Prix des Reservoirs for the in-form Ralph Beckett stable. Valmont and Ballylinch Stud's full-sister to Carl Spackler (Ire) encounters 10 rivals, with the standard being set by John Pearce's Ed Walker-trained Miss Tonnerre (Ire) (Night Of Thunder {Ire}) who was fourth in the G2 May Hill Stakes at Doncaster.

2.30 Gowran, Mdn, €18,000, 2yo, 8f 75yT
LIGHT AS AIR (IRE) (Wootton Bassett {GB}) bids to build on his debut third at Navan earlier this month for Masaaki Matsushima and the Coolmore partners in a maiden Ballydoyle have won six times in the last nine years. The half-brother to last year's G1 St Leger hero Continuous (Jpn) (Heart's Cry {Jpn}) from the family of Saxon Warrior (Jpn) is joined by stablemate Saints N Scholars (Ire) (Quality Road), a son of the G1 Nassau Stakes runner-up Wedding Vow (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) who was disappointing on debut at The Curragh last month.

6.15 Southwell, Novice, £6,300, 2yo, 7f 14y (AWT)
KAIZEN (GB) (Kingman {GB}) was a 425,000gns Tattersalls October Book 1 purchase who represents a partnership of Qatar and China Bloodstock, David Howden and Newsells Park and the John and Thady Gosden stable. A half-brother to last year's G1 Fillies' Mile heroine Ylang Ylang (GB) (Frankel {GB}), he encounters 11 rivals.

Elizabeth Jane | Racingfotos.com

Labelled a TDN Rising Star on her impressive debut here in October, Elizabeth Jane was finishing fourth in the G1 Irish Oaks two starts later but after a subsequent break managed only an eighth in The Curragh's G2 Blandford Stakes last month. Settled behind the leading group early, the homebred was delivered to gain the advantage a furlong from home and assert for a crucial black-type breakthrough.

"She deserved that win, she's a very talented filly," trainer Dermot Weld said. "Things didn't go right for her in the Blandford on the day, but since then she's been working very well and I was reasonably confident she'd win today. I nearly didn't run her today to wait for the Finale Stakes over a mile and a half, but she had been working nicely so we rightly decided to come today. We'll try and win a group 1 with her next year over a mile and a half."

One of Moyglare's bluebloods, the winner is a daughter of the G2 British Champions Fillies & Mares Stakes winner and G1 Pretty Polly Stakes runner-up Sapphire (Ire) (Medicean {GB}) who also produced the G2 Kilboy Estate Stakes runner-up Kiss For A Jewel (Ire) (Kingman {GB}) and the dual group-placed Federica Sophia (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}). The second dam is the Stud's stellar producer Polished Gem (Ire) (Danehill), whose progeny list is headed by the now eight-times group 1-winning champion stayer Kyprios (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), his dual G1 Irish St Leger-winning full-sister Search For A Song (Ire) and the G1 Prince of Wales's Stakes-winning sire Free Eagle (Ire) (High Chaparral {Ire}).

WORLDWIDE NEWS

URBAN CHIC CLAIMS LAST OF THE 3YO CLASSICS WITH STYLISH KIKUKA SHO RESULT

Keeping in line with his family's long-standing history with the G1 Kikuka Sho (Japanese St. Leger), Urban Chic (Jpn) (Suave Richard {Jpn}) posted an emphatic result in the final leg of the Japanese Triple Crown on Sunday in Kyoto.

Urban Chic | Horsephotos

Entering this race off claiming his first group title in the G2 Asahi Hai St. Lite Kinen on September 16, a trial race for the Kikuka Sho, Urban Chic was one of three to come from that contest, the others being Cosmo Kuranda (Jpn) (Al Ain {Jpn}) and Ecoro Walz (Jpn) (Black Tide {Jpn}).

Unbeaten as a juvenile, the Ryo Takei-trainee started his 3-year-old season running second to Danon Decile (Jpn) (Epiphaneia {Jpn}) in the G3 Keisei Hai, and that one would ultimately go on to win the G1 Tokyo Yushun (Japanese Derby) on May 26 after being a steward scratch in the G1 Satsuki Sho (Japanese 2000 Guineas)--Urban Chic would finish fourth in the latter and 11th in the former.

In no rush after a fine jump from the blocks, Urban Chic settled in mid-field for the first portion of the race behind a dawdling pace set by frontrunning Meisho Tabaru (Jpn) (Gold Ship {Jpn}) as favored Danon Decile tracked the pace from the rail. As the race changed shape entering the backstretch, Urban Chic had overtaken the betting choice, who at one point found himself with only two horses beaten, as they approached the final bend. With the pace increasing as Admire Terra (Jpn) (Rey de Oro {Jpn}) took over the lead passing the 800-metre pole, the eventual winner was called on to close the distance in the lane.

Relentlessly erasing the gap, he easily overtook that rival in the final 200 metres and pulled away to win by 2 1/2 lengths. Redentor (Jpn) (Rulership {Jpn}) closed well late to nose out Admire Terra for second in a photo. Danon Decile showed good foot in the straight, producing the second-fastest finishing speed, but it was too much too late to reach contention and he finished sixth.

The G1 Kikuka Sho is Ryo Takei's third group title and first at the highest level.

"The colt is never quick out of the gate and the race was 3,000 meters, so I let him take his time to find a good rhythm," commented Christophe Lemaire after the race. Cont. p14

"He was able to have a breather during the race and we were able to advance nicely to a good position near the end so, once he got into gear, I knew his ability and was confident that we could make it to the wire first," Lemaire continued.

"He has matured well and has increased his power towards this fall season. He has lots of potential and is well up to Group 1 standard in the future."

Pedigree Notes

Hailing from the immediate female line of the great Deep Impact (Jpn), a winner of this race when it was only a Listed contest, Urban Chic is the most recent of that family to claim the Kikuka Sho. His dam is a half-sister to the mare who produced G1 Oka Sho heroine and multiple Group 1-placed Stellenbosch (Jpn) (Epiphaneia {Jpn}), and those second dams are out of the Japanese blue hen mare, Group 1 winner Wind In Her Hair (Ire). Sent to Australia in 2022, Edgy Style was not bred that year and most recently reported a 2023 colt by Castelvechio (Aus).

Most famous for her aforementioned son--the two-time Japanese Horse of the Year; two-time champion as a 3-year-old colt and an older horse; and the Japanese Triple Crown winner--Wind In Her Hair can also lay claim to that one's full-brother, SW & GSP-Jpn Black Tide (Jpn), who enjoys a solid stallion career.

While still second-best when compared to his venerable younger brother, the sire throws his share of Group-quality progeny and became a sire of sires via his best son Kitanan Black (Jpn). In turn, Black Tide is most notably the grandsire of multiple Group 1 winner Equinox (Jpn) through that male line. He has also experienced some success as a broodmare sire.

Another sire line to rise from Wind In Her Hair through her daughters and granddaughters is that of Rey de Oro (Jpn) (King Kamehameha {Jpn}), himself a two-time champion and multiple Group 1 winner who claimed the Japanese Derby. Third place finisher Admire Terra carried his flag in this race.
