

BIG RESULT FOR PINATUBO WITH 125K FILLY AS HOME BUYERS DOMINATE AT ARQANA

Emeric Guétin signs for the topper | Zuzanna Lupa

By Brian Sheerin

Domestic buyers dominated the concluding Part 2 session of this year's October Yearling Sale at Arqana on Thursday where a Pinatubo (Ire) filly offered by the La Motteraye Consignment sold to Emeric Guétin on behalf of Ecurie des Charmes for €125,000.

Pinatubo is just three winners off Sergei Prokofiev—who has 21—in a wide-open first-season sires' championship in Britain and Ireland. From just seven runners in France, he has sent out four individual winners, including some highly-touted performers.

Thursday's top lot hails from a family Lucien Urano of Ecurie des Charmes knows well. Along with Ballylinch Stud, he bred Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf winner Aunt Pearl (Ire) (Lope De Vega (Ire)), and he returned to that family to secure the already-named Matauri Queen (Fr).

That result headlined another strong day in the ring at Arqana where the average, aggregate and median was up on last year.

"HORSE OF A LIFETIME" BIG EVS READY FOR BREEDERS' CUP RETURN

Owner Paul Teasdale of RP Racing has described Big Evs (Ire) as "a horse of a lifetime" as the Mick Appleby-trained colt prepares for his career swansong in the GI Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint at Del Mar on Saturday, November 2.

Named after Paul Evans, a friend of Teasdale who died of lung cancer in 2022, Big Evs won four of his six starts in a memorable two-year-old campaign, including at Royal Ascot where he shed his maiden tag with victory in the Listed Windsor Castle Stakes.

Group-race successes followed in the G3 Molecomb Stakes at Goodwood and G2 Flying Childers Stakes at Doncaster, before Big Evs signed off for the year with Breeders' Cup glory in the Juvenile Turf Sprint at Santa Anita.

"He had an amazing season at two, culminating at the Breeders' Cup which was just incredible," Teasdale said of that experience. "I guess we should have expected him to win, but we never expected anything like that.

"He travelled over there well, took all the proceedings well, and then just acquitted himself in a fantastic way. Turning for home there was only one horse in the race and [jockey] Tom Marquand's view was he just wasn't getting beat. We were all delighted with him." Cont. p7

“She’s a lovely looking filly and I’ve bought her for Ecurie des Charmes,” Guetin said. “She ticks a lot of boxes, walks well and comes from a good family. We’ll decide on her trainer later on and we hope that she will be successful on the racecourse and then as a broodmare.”

The aggregate was up almost 10% on this corresponding day of trade last year to €4,514,500 while the average climbed 23% to €32,953 and the median jumped by €6,000 to €28,000.

Just three yearlings managed to break the six-figure mark on the day, with the threesome completed by a pair of Toronado (Ire) fillies at €120,000 and €100,000 respectively. Lot 474 was consigned by Castillon and she went the way to Peretti Bloodstock at €120,000 while Arcadia Élevage's offering [lot 363] was knocked down to Pauline Chehboub [Yellow Agency]. Chehboub said, "She’s a filly that has a lot of qualities--she’s lovely looking and walks well. She’s well-bred and her brother [Mouillage] is a good horse. We’ve bought her for a partnership of family friends--it’s the first time that they have been to the sales and we wanted to show them our world. This filly stood out and we weren’t the only ones who thought so! We’re very happy.”

Lot 404, Thursday's top lot | Zuzanna Lupa

Breeze-Up Buyers On The Back Foot

One of the main talking points heading into Arqana this week was the fact many breeze-up handlers are down on numbers compared to this time last year and, while many big names managed to get on the scoresheet, legend of the game Willie Browne suggests there will be a major dip in the amount of horses offered in that sector next spring.

The Mocklershill boss revealed that he is down on numbers by roughly a third and described the trade at Arqana this week as extremely strong for the stock that was on offer. Cont. p4

He said, "I am well down on numbers compared to last year. I'd say I'm down by a third. Now, I am trying to buy quality, which is never that easy, but I'm way down and so are a lot of other breeze-up handlers. I don't have to have the numbers like I used to, so I'm not panicking, but the quality horses that I target have gone very expensive."

The big reason behind breeze-up handlers finding themselves on the back foot this year, according to Browne, is down to the fact the European yearling sale market in particular hit a major upsurge halfway during the season.

He explained, "Anything that had a bit of quality at the Goffs Orby Part 1 Sale, the vendors got very well paid, and the September Yearling Sale at Tattersalls Ireland was a very good sale as well. But then things went to a different level at Book 1 at Tattersalls and that carried over into Book 2 because people didn't have a chance to spend their money at Book 1. Now we come to France, where the stock is probably a little bit inferior to what we had at Newmarket, but I wouldn't say this lightly, this October Yearling Sale at Arqana has probably been the strongest sale of them all. You go in to buy a horse here and you need double to what you value them at. For what was on offer here, it was very, very strong."

But Browne's trip to Deauville was not in vain as he came back home to Ireland with a Siyouni (Fr) colt and a Hello Youmzain (Fr) filly for €290,000 and €70,000 respectively.

He continued, "I bought two so far--a Siyouni for €290,000, which is huge money for us, and everything will need to work out for us to make money on him.

But he's a nice horse. Then we bought a sharp-looking Hello Youmzain filly on Wednesday night for €70,000. Again, would we have to have given it at Donny earlier in the year? Probably not. It's a big gamble." Cont. p5

Browne added, “Everyone I have spoken to in France is down on numbers. A lot of people couldn't get horses into breeze-up sales this year but I would be amazed if we could fill all of the breeze-up sales next year. Listen, I hope I'm wrong but I can't see where the horses are to fill all of these sales for next year.”

TDN RISING STAR DELACROIX HEADS FIELD OF EIGHT FOR DONCASTER'S G1 FUTURITY TROPHY By Sean Cronin

There were 11 defectors from an overnight entry of 19 and a field of eight will line up for Saturday's £215,500 G1 William Hill Futurity Trophy at Doncaster, Britain's final Group 1 event of the year, after final declarations were confirmed Thursday morning.

Aidan O'Brien last won in 2022 with Auguste Rodin (Ire) (Deep Impact {Jpn}) and he is in the mix for a record-extending 12th success in the one-mile contest. O'Brien has trimmed his team from six down to one and relies solely on G3 Autumn Stakes and 'TDN Rising Star' Delacroix (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}).

Last year's winning combination of Godolphin, Charlie Appleby and William Buick will join forces with the hitherto undefeated Anno Domini (GB) (New Bay {GB}) while Team Gosden, yet to win this prestigious heat, will send out Juddmonte's similarly unbeaten dual Kempton winner Detain (Ire) (Wootton Bassett {GB}). Cont. p6

Group-winning entries also include G2 Beresford Stakes winner Hotazhell (GB) (Too Darn Hot {GB}) and G2 Royal Lodge Stakes victor Wimbledon Hawkeye (GB) (Kameko). The list of nominees is completed by Royal Lodge second Royal Playwright (GB) (Lope De Vega {Ire}), Detain's stablemate and 'TDN Rising Star' Nebras (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}), who was supplemented for a fee of £17,500 earlier this week, and Newmarket maiden scorer Seaplane (GB) (Golden Horn {GB}).

EURO STAKES WINNER SHINES IN KENTUCKY

In this series, the TDN takes a look at notable successes of European-based sires in North America. This week's column is highlighted by the victory of Aussie Girl in Lexington.

Aussie Flair At Keeneland

Woodford Thoroughbreds' Aussie Girl (Ire) (Starspangledbanner {Aus}) triumphed in her second American start for trainer Will Walden at Keeneland on Oct. 17 (video). Bred by Airlie Stud, the chestnut won the Listed Brigids Pastures Stakes and was placed in the G3 Ballyogan Stakes last year.

Sold for €35,000 by her breeder at Goffs Orby to De Burgh Equine and subsequent trainer James 'Fozzy' Stack, she made 14 starts for Peter Piller in Ireland, and also was placed in the Listed Yeomanstown Stud Stakes. Woodford picked her up for 380,000gns out of the Tattersalls December Mares Sale in 2023. The last known foal of her dam, the winning Galileo (Ire) mare Ravissante (Ire), Aussie Girl counts stakes winner and multiple group-placed Stunning (Nureyev) as her granddam, while GI Vanity Invitational Handicap, GI Ashland Stakes, and GI Hollywood Oaks victress Gorgeous (Slew o'Gold) was her great granddam.

Coolmore's reverse shuttle stallion Starspangledbanner has accrued 15 winners from 28 runners (53%) in the U.S. Seven of them are stakes winners, with GI American Oaks heroine Rhea Moon (Ire) and GI Saratoga Derby victor State Of Rest (Ire) the best of the bunch.

Wootton Bassett Filly Wins For Klaravich

Klaravich Stables' Catalyzed (Fr) (Wootton Bassett {GB}) graduated at fourth asking during the Belmont at the Big A meet on Oct. 17 (video). Trained by Chad Brown, the dark bay is the second foal out of French listed heroine Red Line (Fr) (Sageburg {Ire}).

Lisa Lemiere Dubois bred the €255,000 Arqana August yearling, who went to Oceanic Bloodstock. Her yearling half-brother by Galiway (GB) was purchased by MV Magnier and Charles Shanahan for €125,000 at the 2024 Arqana August Yearling Sale. This is the extended family of multiple stakes winner Red Cat (Storm Cat), who was third in the GIII Jenny Wiley Stakes, herself a half-sister to graded/group winners Lady Blessington (Fr) (Baillamont) and Lowell (General Holme).

Coolmore's Wootton Bassett is responsible for 18 winners from 37 runners (48%) in North America. Breeders' Cup winners Audarya (Fr) and Unquestionable (Fr) are two of his seven stakes winners in that jurisdiction, as is Tamahere (Fr), who won the GII Sands Point Stakes and was second in the GI Jenny Wiley Stakes.

Repeat Winners:

Stephanie Seymour Brant's Opulent Restraint (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) won for the second time in three starts when taking the Chelsey Flower Stakes during the Belmont at the Big A meeting (video). Trained by Chad Brown, she won by a nose over Rare Art (Munnings).

Another stakes at that meeting, the Athenia Stakes, also went to a Making Waves alum in Child Of The Moon (Fr) (The Grey Gatsby {Ire}) (video). The Chad Brown charge carries the colours of Madaket Stables LLC, Michael Dubb and Louis Lazzinano LLC.

Graham Motion saddled The Grey Wizard (Ire) (Caravaggio) to win the John Forbes Memorial Stakes at Far Hills last week. The grey gelding races for Eclipse Thoroughbred Partners and the Estate of Albert Frassetto.

Trainer George Arnold's Just A Care (Ire) (Australia {GB}) first featured here after taking a Gulfstream maiden in February of 2023. The 4-year-old filly added a Keeneland contest for Ashbrook Farm, Matthew O'Connor, Upland Flats Racing and Amy Dunne on Oct. 18 (video).

EUROPEAN NEWS

He added, "There was a lot of temptation to retire him last year. We had some huge offers to retire him, but we really wanted him to have a three-year-old career."

This year Big Evs has justified the decision to keep him in training in no uncertain terms, proving himself one of Europe's top sprinters in finishing third in the G1 King Charles III Stakes at Royal Ascot and winning the G2 King George Stakes at Goodwood.

Now, all roads lead back to the Breeders' Cup with the son of Blue Point (Ire), who will bid to bounce back from a rare poor effort in the G1 Nunthorpe Stakes when he lines up in the Turf Sprint, with this year's Molecomb winner Big Mojo (Ire) (Mohaather {GB}) also set to represent the same connections in the latest edition of the Juvenile Turf Sprint.

"He's absolutely a horse of a lifetime for us," Teasdale said of Big Evs. "We've had a fantastic run of success and he means the world to us. It would mean everything for him to go back there and win again. It would be a fantastic way for him to sign off and say 'look who I am and how good I am'.

"I think he is a very well followed horse and someone described him to me as being the 'people's horse'. Everyone always asks about him and it would be great and synonymous with how he's been in his career to just finish off in style.

"He's proved everyone wrong and has trained on really well this year. He won a nice Group 2 at Goodwood and was third in the King Charles at Royal Ascot. We look forward to going back to the Breeders' Cup, which will hopefully suit him."

Those sentiments were echoed by Appleby, who said, "He's so quick and he's not the biggest, so he can nip round that bend. With his natural speed, America just seems to suit him. It will be nice to go back and it would be great if he could win.

"He's a once in a lifetime horse and a lot of trainers dream of having a horse like this. All credit has to go to Paul for bringing horses to us and putting his faith in us. You have to savour days like last year because they are far and few between."

GOSDENS TO TAKE CHARGE OF NIGHTWALKER'S CLASSIC CAMPAIGN

John and Thady Gosden will be the new trainers of Nightwalker (GB) when he returns to the track in 2025, following a third-place finish in the G3 Autumn Stakes at Newmarket on his final start for Sir Michael Stoute, who is due to retire at the end of the year.

The son of Frankel (GB) opened his account at the second attempt at Yarmouth in September, before running an encouraging race when thrown into deeper waters at Newmarket, staying on gradually to pass the post around four lengths behind Saturday's G1 Futurity Trophy contender Delacroix (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}).

The homebred Nightwalker, a half-brother to the dual GI Diana Stakes winner Whitebeam (GB) (Caravaggio), is one of several smart two-year-olds assembled by Juddmonte this season, with the others including the Gosden trainees Field Of Gold (Ire) (Kingman {GB}), the winner of the G3 Solario Stakes at Sandown, and Detain (Ire) (Wootton Bassett {GB}), who features among Delacroix's seven rivals at Doncaster on Saturday. "With Sir Michael retiring at the end of year, he has switched to John and Thady Gosden," Juddmonte's European racing manager Barry Mahon said of the change of scenery for Nightwalker. "They are going to get a feel for him now over the winter and we'll be guided by them in the spring and how he fits into their regime. But you would like to think he is a horse who will start off in a Derby trial next year."

He added, "It was a lovely performance at Newmarket and Oisín [Murphy, jockey] was very complimentary about him. Oisín just felt he was caught for a bit of room and the race developed ahead of him and away from him, so he just gave him an easy ride and he hit the line really strong--his last furlong was his best furlong. He's definitely a horse with a nice bit of potential for next year."

LAURA COLLETT MBE NAMED GUEST OF HONOUR AT 2025 TIEA CEREMONY

Dual Olympic gold medallist Laura Collett MBE has today been announced as the guest of honour at the ceremony for the 2025 Thoroughbred Industry Employee Awards, sponsored by Godolphin.

The annual celebration of British racing's workforce, which takes place at York Racecourse on Monday, February 24, will be hosted by ITV Racing and Racing TV presenter Rishi Persad.

Nominations for the Thoroughbred Industry Employee Awards are open until Tuesday, November 5 and should be made online by following this link. There are six award categories to choose from and £128,500 in prize-money available to be won.

"I am delighted to be part of the 2025 Thoroughbred Industry Employee Awards, which is a wonderful opportunity for horseracing to pay tribute to the people who contribute so much to this incredible sport," said Collett, who has represented Great Britain at two Olympic Games, winning team event gold medals at Tokyo 2020 and Paris earlier this year.

Her lifelong dedication to horses and their welfare, as well as to mental health awareness within the equestrian community, saw Collett awarded an MBE in the 2022 New Year Honours for services to equestrianism.

She continued, "Having worked closely with horses all my life and through running my own yard, I know the importance of having a strong team, with skilled, passionate and dedicated people that provide our horses with world-class care. It will be a privilege to meet the 2025 finalists and hear their stories.

"With nominations open until November 5, I hope everyone across the industry will nominate their colleagues and friends and give them the recognition they deserve."

Persad added, "I'm a big supporter of the awards and I know how much they mean to all those involved, whether they reach the final, make the shortlist or even the pride in being nominated.

"You never know, the 2025 Employee of the Year could be at your yard or stud right now, so please do get your nominations in by November 5!"

GOFFS CONFIRM CORAL GOLD CUP SALE AT NEWBURY RACECOURSE

The second edition of the Coral Gold Cup Sale will take place during Newbury's feature meeting on Saturday, November 30, Goffs announced in partnership with the racecourse on Thursday.

Of the 18 horses sold at the inaugural sale, 13 achieved a six-figure sum and the average was £119,167. Cont. p9

Staged on the same day as the £250,000 Coral Gold Cup, the sale will see changes this year with plans in place to hold it in the pre-parade ring, right opposite the owners and trainers' facility. The horses will also be stabled in the racecourse stables.

Goffs UK managing director Tim Kent said, "Last year's sale saw us return to Newbury after a 10-year absence and it was a resounding success. The feedback we received from vendors and buyers was overwhelmingly positive so we are thrilled to be returning again next month.

"Once again, the Newbury team have been enthusiastic and proactive partners and have worked with us to deliver what we hope will be an even better experience for vendors and buyers alike. We will be canvassing for entries at the upcoming UK and Irish point-to-points and the catalogue will be released in the build-up to the sale."

Shaun Hinds, chief executive of Newbury Racecourse, added, "The Coral Gold Cup meeting is an iconic weekend and the highlight of our jumps season here at Newbury. Following the success of last year's Goffs Coral Gold Cup Sale, we are delighted to be able to support Goffs once again this year following the conclusion of what is set to be a fantastic two days' racing."

'RACE TO HISTORY' HORSE RACING MEMORABILIA AUCTION TO BE HELD ON NOV. 13

A unique collection of hair trophies from famous racehorses is one of the highlights of the 'Race To History' horse racing memorabilia auction to be held by Graham Budd Auctions at 1 p.m. on Nov. 13. Held in partnership with Weatherbys, the auction will be located at the National Horseracing Museum in Newmarket. The Bob Champion Cancer Fund, The Injured Jockeys Fund and Racing Welfare all set to benefit from specially donated lots.

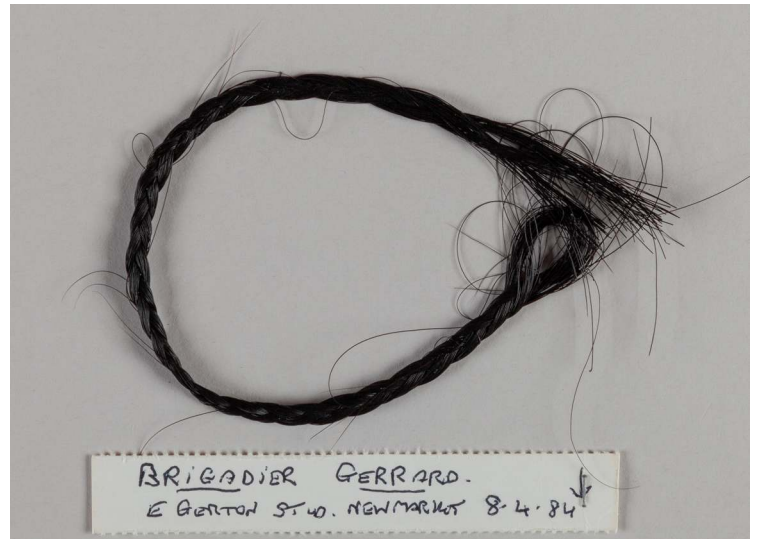

"Collecting locks of horse hair might seem like an unusual pastime, but it's provided us with an incredible archive, featuring some of the most famous horses the racing world has seen," said Graham Budd, auctioneer and owner of Graham Budd Auctions, of the hair trophy lot, which features hairs cut from some of the world's most famous racehorses from 1948-2004. "It tells a wonderful story of half a century of racing history."

Other lots include a collection of items from Shergar (GB) (Great Nephew {GB})'s work rider, Cliff Lines, including a bronze statue of the horse, privately commissioned by His Highness The Aga Khan and given to Lines, as well as a shoe worn by the legendary horse in the 1981 Derby. In addition, the rights to a set of purple and scarlet racing silks once registered by the Prince Of Wales, later King George IV are available.

Budd added, "It's great to be working alongside Weatherbys again on this auction. The quality and provenance of the items in this sale is unprecedented, and we're fortunate to be selling several lots in aid of some great charities, which have a huge impact in the racing world and beyond. We've had plenty of interest from around the world, so we're in a good position to raise a lot of money for these good causes."

OBSERVATIONS

on the European racing scene

CRACKSMAN'S SISTER DEBUTS ON TOWN MOOR

2.08 Doncaster, Mdn, £40,000, 2yo, f, 8fT

QUEEN OF THIEVES (GB) (Frankel {GB}) is a big-deal runner for Anthony Oppenheimer and the Gosdens in a maiden the stable won two years ago with Frankel's eventual Oaks heroine Soul Sister (Ire). A full-sister to the owner-breeder's brilliant dual Champion Stakes-winning sire Cracksman (GB), the homebred meets seven rivals including Paul and Sally Flatt and Childwickbury Stud's fellow newcomer Wonder Star (GB) (Sea The Stars {Ire}), a William Haggas-trained relative of Montjeu's G1 St Leger hero Masked Marvel (GB) and the Arc hero Waldgeist (GB) (Galileo {Ire}).

3.51 Doncaster, Mdn, £6,800, 2yo, 7f 6yT

KALEIDO (GB) (Make Believe {GB}) is another big prospect from Clarehaven Stables on the card, being a full-brother to the high-class globetrotter and multiple group 1 winner Mishriff (Ire). Prince Faisal's homebred encounters the similarly-unraced Padam (GB) (Showcasing {GB}), Andrew Tinkler's Richard Hannon-trained half-brother to last year's G1 Melbourne Cup hero Without A Fight (Ire) (Teofilo {Ire}).

3rd-Wolverhampton, £7,300, Novice, 10-24, 3yo/up, f/m, 9f 104y (AWT), 1:59.53, st.

MORROPHORE (FR) (f, 3, Kingman {GB})--Fugitive Angel {GSW-US, $382,661}, by Alphabet Soup), off the track since a disappointing effort on her second start at Yarmouth in July, was held up out of the early scrimmaging and settled in a perfect rhythm. Having the pace to dart to the rail in early straight, the 3-1 second favourite soon had the measure of Magic Dream (Ire) (Shamardal) inside the last half furlong and was hand ridden to the line to score comfortably by 2 1/4 lengths. The winner is the sixth foal out of the talented dam, who was successful in the GIII Pin Oak Valley View Stakes and four other stakes races as well as being placed in the GII Mrs. Revere Stakes. Her first was the GII Sky Classic winner Utmost (Giant's Causeway) and her third was the GI Joe Hirsch Turf Classic Stakes third So High (GB) (Nathaniel {Ire}). A half to the GII Robert B. Lewis Stakes winner Anthony's Cross (Indian Charlie) from the family of the GII Mac Diarmida Stakes winner Starting Over (Liam's Map), She has the unraced 2-year-old filly Jittier Girl (Le Havre {Ire}) who was a $300,000 purchase by Tommy Town Thoroughbreds at last year's Keeneland September. Her yearling colt is by Not This Time, while she also has a filly foal by Omaha Beach and was bred to Constitution this year. Lifetime Record: 3-1-0-1, $6,647.

LOVE DYNASTY (FR) (f, 3, Dubawi {Ire})--Geisha Girl {Ire}, by Galileo {Ire}), not seen since making a smart winning debut at Newmarket in November, was nevertheless sent off the 11-10 favourite despite the lay-off and having a seven-pound penalty to carry and raced understandably keenly through freshness initially towards the fore. Sending out warning signals halfway up the straight, the well-regarded filly stuck to her task to reel in the long-time leader Groovy Baby (GB) (Kingman {GB}) inside the final furlong before showing marked greenness en route to a snug neck success. The unraced dam, a half to the G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches heroine Elusive Wave (Ire) (Elusive City) from the family of the G2 Queen Mary Stakes winner Langs Lash (Ire) (Noverre), also has the unraced 2-year-old filly Niminy Piminy (Fr) (Siyouni {Fr}) and a colt foal by Invincible Army (Ire). WEST ACRE (IRE) (g, 2, Mehmas {Ire}--Lady Aria {GB} {GSP-Eng}, by Kodiak {GB}), runner-up under a penalty over six furlongs at Kempton earlier this month having opened his account first time at Newcastle in September, raced towards the fore from the outset. In command approaching the final furlong, the 11-8 favourite drew clear to record an emphatic six-length success from Nahi (GB) (Blue Point {Ire}). The G3 Dick Poole Stakes-placed dam, whose daughter of Starman (GB) was a £185,000 purchase by Creighton Schwartz Bloodstock at the recent Goffs UK Premier Yearling Sale, is a half to the Listed Windsor Castle Stakes runner-up Union Rose (GB) (Stimulation {Ire}). Also connected to the G2 Gimcrack Stakes runner-up Taajub (Ire) (Exceed And Excel {Aus}), her colt foal is by Persian Force (Ire). Sales history: £95,000 Ylg '23 GOFFUK. FRANCESCOLI (GB) (g, 2, Hello Youmzain {Fr}--Vikala {Fr}, by Dark Angel {Ire}) was swiftly into stride from stall two and raced along the fence in a handy fifth after the initial exchanges of this first go. Pulling his way into third on the home turn, the 5-2 chalk eased to the front with 350 metres remaining and surged clear under urging in the closing stages to easily account for Luffy (Fr) (Wooded {Ire}) by 3 1/2 lengths, becoming the 16th winner for his freshman sire (by Kodiak {GB}). Francescoli, half to a yearling filly by Territories (Ire), is the first of two foals produced by a winning daughter of the dual Group 3-placed Listed Prix la Sorellina victrix Visoriyna (Fr) (Dansili {GB}). The March-foaled grey's second dam is a half-sister to three-time Group 1 winner Vazirabad (Fr) (Manduro {Ger}). Sales history: €53,000 Wlg '22 ARQDEC; £70,000 RNA Ylg '23 GOUKPR.

WORLDWIDE NEWS

PAIR OF GROUP 1 WINNERS ADDED TO ENTRIES FOR HONG KONG INTERNATIONAL RACES

The number of horses nominated to run at the 2024 edition of the Longines Hong Kong International Races has been boosted to 193 after the Hong Kong Jockey Club (HKJC) announced Celestial Legend (Aus) (Dundeel {NZ}) and Sol Oriens (Jpn) (Kitsan Black {Jpn}), trained in Australia and Japan, respectively, as supplementary entries on Thursday.

Celestial Legend and Sol Oriens join the all-star cast of nominations revealed on Wednesday ahead of the flagship meeting which takes place at Sha Tin on Sunday, December 8, with elite performers such as Romantic Warrior (Ire) (Acclamation {GB}), Goliath (Ger) (Adlerflug {Ger}) and Liberty Island (Jpn) (Duramente {Jpn}) also featuring among the 60 Group/Grade 1 winners entered.

Trained by Les Bridge for owners Legend Racing, Celestial Legend registered back-to-back Group 1 wins earlier this year in the Randwick Guineas and Doncaster Mile. Cont. p13

Sol Oriens | Japan Racing Association

Last seen finishing seventh in the G1 King Charles III Stakes, he could seek further riches at the top level in the HK$36-million Longines Hong Kong Mile (1600m).

Meanwhile, Sol Oriens has been entered for both the HK$40-million Longines Hong Kong Cup (2000m) and HK$24-million Longines Hong Kong Vase (2400m). Runner-up to Blow The Horn (Jpn) (Epiphaneia {Jpn}) in the G1 Takarazuka Kinen on his most recent outing, he was among the leading three-year-olds in Japan last year when he won the G1 Satsuki Sho (Japanese 2,000 Guineas) and was runner-up in the G1 Tokyo Yushun (Japanese Derby). Sol Oriens is trained by Takahisa Tezuka, who won the 2022 edition of the Hong Kong Vase with Win Marilyn (Jpn) (Screen Hero {Jpn}).

Supplementary entries for the Longines Hong Kong International Races close at 6pm (HKT) on Monday, November 18, with a selection announcement for the four Group 1 features to be made on Wednesday, November 20.

TERRITORIES TO STAND AT POONAWALLA STUD FARMS

Group 1 winner and sire Territories (Ire) has been sold to continue his stallion career at Poonawalla Stud Farms in India next year, according to published reports. The deal was brokered by bloodstock agent Ajay Anne.

The Godolphin runner and son of Invincible Spirit (Ire), who stood for £10,000 this year at Darley's Dalham Hall Stud, won the Prix Jean Prat at the highest level for Andre Fabre.

At stud, he has sired 17 stakes winners, nine of them Pattern scorers. His current flagbearer is G1 Prix Maurice de Gheest winner Lazzat (Fr), while Territories has also sired Group 1 winners Rougir (Fr) and Regional (GB).

From his current crop of yearlings, he has a 750,000gns son out of Never Change (Ire) (New Approach {Ire}) at the recently concluded Tattersalls October Yearling Sale Book 2. The son of Taranto (GB) (Machiavellian) went to stud in 2017.

'BETWEEN THRILLED AND ECSTATIC:' RECORD-BREAKING FASIG-TIPTON OCTOBER SALE CONCLUDES WITH A PAIR OF $500K COLTS ON TOP THURSDAY

by Jessica Martini

LEXINGTON, KY - The Fasig-Tipton October Yearlings Sale smashed its previous records for gross and average and produced its lowest buy-back rate in 11 years when it concluded its four-day run in Lexington Thursday.

“All in all, I am somewhere between thrilled and ecstatic with the results of these four days,” Fasig-Tipton President Boyd Browning, Jr. said at the close of business Thursday evening. “The consignors continue to bring us higher quality horses each and every year and it is reflected in these results and these statistics.”

Through four sessions, 1,122 yearlings grossed $58,575,500, surpassing the auction's previous record gross of $55,426,400 set in 2022. The average of $52,206 was another highwater mark for the auction, breaking the previous record of $50,388, also set in 2022. The median price of $20,000 was fourth highest in sale history. Cont. Pg. 3

NEXT CONFIRMED FOR BREEDERS' CUP CLASSIC

Long-distance specialist Next (Not This Time) has been confirmed for next week's GI Longines Breeders' Cup Classic by his trainer Doug Cowans in a story first reported by the Daily Racing Form's Dave Grening. The 6-year-old gelding was listed on the pre-entry list for the Classic with second preference given to the GI Breeders' Cup Turf.

“I had to choose one or the other, the Turf or the Classic,” Cowans told the TDN. “The jock and I have sat down and talked after the breezes he's had since winning the Greenwood Cup and we feel like the dirt will give us more answers at this moment in time. If we would have gone turf, we might have walked away not knowing much. This will tell us to stay in our own lane or we can learn that he can run in some mile-and-a-quarter dirt races next year.” Cont. Pg. 9

With just 230 horses failing to meet their reserves, the buy-back rate was 17%, the lowest at the October sale since 2013 when it was 16.2%.

A year ago, 1,064 yearlings grossed $51,120,000 for an average of $48,045 and a median of $24,000. The 2023 buy-back rate was 21.5%.

“On Monday morning, we saw really great activity on the sales grounds and it literally continued through the last horse through the ring tonight,” Browning said. “There was very broad participation, as you can see by reading the sheets. There was strong American participation and strong participation on an international basis with buyers from all over the world. It's encouraging from a sales company perspective and also an industry perspective that, as a country, we continue to produce quality horses that are desirable around the world.”

A pair of colts topped Thursday's final session of the October sale when bringing matching $500,000 final bids. Megan Jones, bidding alongside trainer Danny Gargan, made that bid to acquire a colt by Curlin from the Eaton Sales consignment, just eight hips after Case Clay, bidding on behalf of Wathnan Racing, paid that amount for a Not This Time colt consigned by Hunter Valley Farm.

Throughout the four-day auction, four horses sold for $500,000 or over and three were by Hill 'n' Dale stallion Curlin. Bloodstock agent Alistair Roden made the week's highest bid when purchasing a colt by that sire for $550,000 on behalf of Mark Breen.

In all, 69 yearlings sold for $200,000 or over, up from 53 at the 2023 auction.

Bloodstock agent Mike Ryan remained active throughout the week, signing for nine horses for a total of $1,630,000. He made his highest purchase of the auction when going to $400,000 for a daughter of Practical Joke Thursday. Cont.

“It’s still solid for the quality horses,” Ryan said of the October market. “I feel like we have bought some nice horses through the week at reasonable prices and by proven sires. It’s always nice when you can lower the average a little bit when you’ve spent so much at the previous sales. But quality sells. That’s what it’s about.”

'Couldn't Be Happier:' Profitable Few Minutes for Pugh

As the yearling sales season was winding down in Lexington, pinhooker Peter Pugh of Cherry Knoll Farm sent a pair of yearlings through the sales ring within hips of each other at Fasig-Tipton Thursday. The first, a filly by Practical Joke (hip 1276) who had been purchased for $190,000 at Keeneland last November, sold for $400,000 to bloodstock agent Mike Ryan and the second, a colt by Not This Time (hip 1280), acquired for $200,000 at this year's Keeneland January sale, sold for $500,000 to agent Case Clay. Both were consigned by Hunter Valley Farm.

"I couldn't be happier," Pugh said of the results.

Asked if he had any concerns about selling this late in the season, Pugh said, "You are always a little concerned about that. But I think at the end of the day, if the horses are nice enough, they will find a way to get them."

Hip 1280 is out of Aureum (Medaglia d'Oro), a half-sister to group winner and multiple Grade I placed Nemoralia (More Than Ready), whose 2-year-old daughter May Day Ready (Tapit) won the GII Jessamine Stakes earlier in the month and is expected to go postward in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf at Del Mar next week.

"He was in this sale because he took a little longer to come around," Pugh said of the colt. "But he always had an athletic way about him."

Clay purchased the yearling on behalf of Sheikh Tamin bin Hamad Al Thani's Wathnan Racing.

"We really liked the colt," Clay said. "He's from an active family with a great sire and a great broodmare sire. We are very excited to get him."

Hip 1276 is out of Atlantic Dream (Stormy Atlantic), a full-sister to multiple graded winner Icy Atlantic.

"She actually was in September in Book 2 and she had a little setback and we had to scratch her," Pugh said. "Thank God she came around well enough and she ended up here."

Ryan, who purchased the filly on behalf of Seth Klarman's Klaravich Stables, said the yearling reminded him of another daughter of Practical Joke in Grade I winner Ways and Means.

"She is a serious filly," Ryan said. "She will get two turns. She's a big stretchy filly with great depth and great strength, with a lot of quality and class about her. She was one we really wanted to get."

Pugh, rating his sales season, said, "So far, so good. We had a couple glitches along the way, but we are good."

Looking ahead to the start of his buying season a couple weeks away with the November breeding stock sales, Pugh admitted he enjoyed the selling side more than the buying.

"Buying is tough," he said. "Let's face it. There are a lot of good people doing it. It is so competitive. But having said all that, we will be back again."

Jones Goes to $500k for Curlin Colt

Bloodstock agent Megan Jones, alongside trainer Danny Gargan, has been shopping the yearling sales on behalf of some of the partners in this year's Classic-winning Dornoch (Good Magic) and made her biggest purchase of the Fasig-Tipton October sale when going to $500,000 for a son of Curlin (hip 1288) Thursday. Cont.

“I thought he was a faster-looking Curlin,” Jones said. “We loved the Curlin over the Carson City. It’s a very reliable family and page, but we just thought he was a very athletic, quicker-looking Curlin. He did everything right. We had loved him since Keeneland, so we were always on him here.”

The colt, consigned by Eaton Sales, is out of Grade I winner A Z Warrior (Bernardini) and is a half-brother to stakes winners Justa Warrior (Justify) and Key to My Heart (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}). He was bred by Cypress Creek Equine, which purchased A Z Warrior, in foal to Uncle Mo, for $550,000 at the 2021 Keeneland November sale.

The yearling sold to Milan Bloodstock for $375,000 at this year’s Keeneland January sale before RNA’ing for $575,000 at the Keeneland September sale last month.

A Z Warrior’s dam Carson Jen, who produced multiple graded winner Jojo Warrior (Pioneerof the Nile) and graded winner E Z Warrior (Exploit), is a daughter of the speedy Carson City.

As for plans for the colt, Jones said, “He will go to Raul Reyes at King’s Equine [in Ocala] for the winter and then will be trained by Danny Gargan.”

Jones purchased three yearlings at the October sale. In addition to hip 1288, she purchased a colt by Charlatan (hip 490) and a filly by Tiz the Law (hip 1326) for $240,000.

On behalf of various groups, Jones purchased seven yearlings at the Keeneland September sale, led by a $850,000 son of Curlin (hip 875).

'The Good Ones, You have to Pay for:' Charlatan Filly to Legacy Ranch for $400k

A first-crop daughter of Grade I Charlatan (hip 1231) will be heading to the West Coast after selling for $400,000 to Pete and Evelyn Parrella's Legacy Ranch early in Thursday's final session of the Fasig-Tipton October sale.

“I just loved her presence. I loved everything about her,” said Legacy manager Terry Knight after signing the ticket on the yearling. “She is a lovely filly and a great mover. Obviously, we are taking a little chance on a young stallion, but she had all the parts that I like.”

The yearling is the first foal out of the unraced American Life (Medaglia d'Oro), a daughter of multiple graded stakes winner Paid Up Subscriber (Candy Ride {Arg}). The mare was purchased, with the filly in utero, for $320,000 at the 2022 Keeneland November sale. The yearling was bred by Magic Cap Stables and was consigned by Indian Creek.

“She will ship to California and we will decide what we are going to do with her from there,” Knight said of plans for the yearling.

Knight said he had waited all week for the chestnut filly to walk into the sales ring at Fasig-Tipton.

“She was the one I wanted,” he said. “It’s hard to sit and wait for three days. We have passed on a few and I was prepared to walk home empty if we had to. The good ones, you have to pay for. The ones that looked like they were going to bring the money, brought the money, and the other ones, they brought what they brought.”

- The four-day Fasig-Tipton October sale concluded Thursday with a record-breaking gross and average and an RNA rate at its lowest level since the 2013 auction. Through the four sessions, 1,122 yearlings grossed $58,575,500 for an average of $52,206. The buy-back rate was 17%.
- Trainer Mac Robertson, who purchased Monday's co-session topping son of Quality Road for $350,000 on behalf of Joe Novogratz's Novogratz Racing Stables, was busy buying for the owner all week. Robertson ultimately signed for six yearlings for $1,525,000. Leading the way was a $400,000 colt by Speightstown purchased Thursday from the Eaton Sales consignment.

- Four horses sold for $500,000 or more during the four-day auction and three of them were by Curlin. Leading the way was a $550,000 son of the Hill 'n' Dale stallion purchased Tuesday by Alistair Roden on behalf of Mark Breen.
- The $550,000 sale topper, as well as two of the auction's top four lots, were consigned by Taylor Made Sales. The auction's top 17 lots were all purchased by unique buyers.

• Kia Joorabchian's Amo Racing, which counted a pair of seven-figure yearlings in its nine-horse haul at the September sale before going on an epic buying spree at Tattersalls last week, was on the results sheets at Fasig-Tipton October as well. The operation purchased a colt by Complexity for $320,000 from the Airdrie Stud consignment Thursday.

Gabriel Duignan and Ted Campion famously buy weanlings on behalf of their pinhooking partnerships in the names of their dogs. The canines had a good day Thursday in Lexington when a filly by Medaglia d'Oro, purchased in the name of Duignan's Big Bear for $225,000 at Keeneland last November, sold for $385,000. Not to be outdone, a colt by Yaupon, purchased in the name of Campion's late dog Rexy for $80,000 at the same sale, sold for $300,000.

“Unfortunately, we had to scratch her from [Keeneland September] Book 1,” Duignan said of hip 1387. “She got cast the night before, but she came in here great. She's a beautiful filly. Everything about her is nice. I am glad [Pick View's] Joe [Pickerrell] got her and I think he's in with a shot to make a lot of money.”

“The Yaupon, again, was a beautiful horse and that was a good result,” Duignan added.

Of Big Bear, Duignan said with a laugh, “He is my good dog that I got out of the pound. He's a mutt.”

Duignan promised Big Bear would get “a steak dinner” following Thursday's pinhooking score.

Rexy, according to Campion, was “a little mutt.”

Next worked five furlongs Thursday over the Tapeta at Turfway Park, going in 1:01.00 (2/6) with jockey Luan Machado aboard. He rides a seven-race win streak of distances from 1 3/8 to 1 3/4 miles dating back to June 2023 into the Classic which is contested at 1 1/4 miles.

Cowans continued: “I think the pace will be a much faster tempo than the races he has been in but my game plan is to play the same game I do when he runs at a mile and a half. That is not worry about where he is positioned. More so, I'll worry about getting him in his rhythm, and once gets into his rhythm, let him do his thing. We'll hope for the best and hope this plays into his hands. I am sure excited about it. I took the process whereby we let the horse tell us what to do. We've looked for every answer not to go. He's given us no signals that not going is the thing to do. He's on top of his game right now.”

SALE REJECT RETURNS ON THE CREST OF A WAVE

by Chris McGrath

It has always been a small farm, and nowadays they're down to no more than half a dozen mares. Some of the more strenuous duties, moreover, have lately been contracted out. After all, Alfonso Mazzetti is not as young as he was. It's been a long and winding road since he used to ride a motorcycle, aged just 11, to the racetrack in Lima where he would shoot pool with the jockeys; never mind the many years in Colorado in between. Such a long and winding road, in fact, that he expects to be selling up his farm outside Paris, Kentucky, sooner rather than later.

But the sale of its principal asset is being expedited to just a few days from now, when a mare owned by Mazzetti and longstanding partner R.J. Winkler goes to the Keeneland November Sale. It's a poignant prospect for Mazzetti, especially when he recalls a snowy Sunday in February 2021.

"She was waxed, but acting normal," he recalls. "I thought, 'Well, we're going to have a baby tonight.' We'd had a really big snowstorm. But I believe that a horse is better off outside than in, and decided to turn her out. So she's all by herself, in a field covered with snow. And about 11 o'clock in the morning I look out the window--and she's going to have the baby right there."

In principle, that was okay. No matter how hard you work on your barns, Mazzetti reckons it will always be cleaner outdoors.

"But when you have a foaling in the middle of the day, it's usually not good news," he says. "And we never have any help on Sundays. So there's nobody to help me. I had heart surgery 17 years ago and my wife thought I was going to die, trying to pull this colt. My heart rate was 184 per minute. But the mare knew me, she was calm. It was a big first foal, huge really, so she needed plenty of help. But we got him out. And then I did get my neighbor to help bring him into the barn, I didn't want him to lie in the cold snow. They brought their Gator and we threw the baby in there."

He gives a self-deprecating smile. "I know people won't think that's scientific enough," he resumes. "But I think horses do great things in spite of us. We just need to get out of their way. And it was a wonderful baby."

As the three protagonists--mare, foal and farmer--recovered from their trauma, Mazzetti thought back to 2000, when he and Winkler had bought a Dixieland Band mare named Coastal Wave for $32,000 at the OBS Fall Sale. She hadn't made the track until she was four but then won her first two starts, and she was in foal to Distorted Humor.

Mazzetti and Winkler took her back to Colorado to deliver her colt. They cut him, named him The Nth Degree. And in 2008, aged six, he became the first Colorado-bred to win a graded stakes in the GIII Shakertown Stakes.

"He was not very sound, but big and strong," Mazzetti recalls. "I think he ended up around 17 hands. That was a great day at Keeneland. We'd realized a dream we never thought possible, and were getting so many calls from Colorado. I started breeding horses there in 1990, and we were used to running for, like, $3,000."

Coastal Wave bred a few other winners, albeit none of the same caliber, and was already 22 when producing a filly by Violence. In fact, already the previous year a consignor had rebuked Mazzetti that the mare was too old to be commercial. "Doesn't matter," he answered with a shrug. "Genes are genes."

"And then this Violence filly was so beautiful they wanted to sell her for us," Mazzetti recalls. "They weren't mad with me anymore! But she'd been too old for them the year before, so that was the end of that."

She made $150,000 at the September Sale, and her purchasers named her Violent Wave. But after winning a maiden claimer she was thrown into a stake, and ran so poorly that she was next entered under a tag of just $6,250. Mazzetti got straight onto the phone to Winkler.

"Hey, she's worth a lot more than that," he said. "And besides, we get to keep the $143,750!"

They tried her with the ageing Distorted Humor, who had clicked so well with her dam, but she did not conceive and in 2020 they went to the other end of the spectrum, to the commercial rookie Maximus Mischief.

"Because I'd been one of the few people that always believed Into Mischief was going to make it," Mazzetti recalls. "I bought into the Share The Upside program when nobody was using him. And while I think we were the last to sell our share, it was probably my biggest mistake in the industry to sell at all! But it's a horse. A horse can always colic, anything can happen. Anyway we started working again, tried to find an Into Mischief that would fit. And Maximus Mischief really fit her well. My only concern was that they're both a little big, but their baby was always very light-footed."

Starting that day in the snow. He was such an impressive specimen that his breeders now felt mightily relieved that nobody had met their reserve when they offered Violent Wave for sale, Winkler having decided that it was time to wrap up his bloodstock interests. She was led out unsold at $27,000 at Keeneland in January 2021, carrying the Maximus Mischief, and again at $145,000 last November. There will be rather more interest, you may be sure, when she returns to the same ring (in foal to Up to The Mark) as Hip 100 in the forthcoming November Sale.

For the colt who reddened the snow that morning is none other than Raging Torrent, whose breakout success in the Gil Pat O'Brien Stakes in August produced one of the hottest numbers of any horse heading back to Del Mar for the Breeders' Cup.

"They wouldn't give us the money when we tried to sell her," Mazzetti remarks. "But that is my story in the horse business. Even with her son, the same. At the September Sale he was a gorgeous colt, big and scopey, a lot like Maximus Mischief. A couple of little things on the X-rays, but nothing significant.

Nobody paid him any attention: $27,000 RNA. So I said, 'Okay, let's fix him up, take that little flake off his ankle, and send him to the 2-year-old sales. We'll get our money there.'"

Randy Bradshaw breezed him at OBS the following April.

"Al," he said, "I don't know what we'll get for this colt-but he's the best Maximus Mischief I've seen."

"Well, I feel that way too," Mazzetti replied. "But I'm not a lucky man at the sales. Or rather I'm lucky when I buy, but not when I sell."

Sure enough, though he breezed like he could make a couple of hundred, he ended up scraping his reserve at $75,000 to Mark Davis.

That has proved a rare bargain.

"That last race was a big ask for a 3-year-old," Mazzetti says. "I believe he's only the third one to have won that race in a 59-year history. Even before, he had the best numbers of any horse on Derby Day, when he wasn't even running in a stake."

And if nobody wanted him before, nor his dam either, then Mazzetti and Winkler can now hope to bring their odyssey together to a suitably rewarding conclusion.

"Rodney is 10 years older than me, to the day," Mazzetti says. "I don't know, this might be his last horse. We have one more homebred between us. It's special because he has been my customer and friend since I started in Colorado."

He had swapped the Andes for the Rockies when his father, an engineer, was transferred by his employers away from turmoil in their homeland in 1971. Within a couple of years Mazzetti was at Colorado State, a freshman at just 17, but he always missed the racetrack--an environment he had explored even more precociously.

"My father hated horseracing and gambling," he recalls. "But my best friend's father would take us to the Jockey Club all the time, and I made friends with the doorman there. So I could go in and out, and he'd watch my motorcycle, and I'd hang around with the jockeys. I was already much taller than they were, tall enough to bet as well! It was a great youth."

Having become a partner in his father's business, Mazzetti needed little persuasion when a customer approached him about partnering in a racehorse.

"We bought a 9-year-old Nebraska-bred gelding for $700 or $500, I can't remember," Mazzetti recalls. "And the first weekend we had him, he made 700 bucks." Cont.

Arapahoe Park | Coady Photography

That old horse made a total 181 starts--but the ones that meant most were at Arapahoe Park. Bringing the sport he loved to Colorado was Mazzetti's proudest achievement as president of the local breeders' association, the campaign having started "with four or five of us round a kitchen table."

But in 1997, having sold his automobile transmission franchise, it was time to match an upgrade in his bloodstock with a farm in the Bluegrass. During Mazzetti's 27 years at Old Shadowlawn, Into Mischief has by no means been his only alert discovery. Curlin had only just got started, for instance, when Danette (co-bred with Alexandra and Peter Gross) was Grade I-placed as a juvenile in 2014.

"Then she was beaten under two lengths at the Breeders' Cup," Mazzetti says. "Whenever I see Keith Desormeaux we agree that if they don't close the hole, she wins."

At its peak, the farm had maybe 35 head of horse, including a dozen mares. But only two or three of those would typically be Mazzetti's. Of those still keeping Violent Wave company, Alta's Award (Tonalist) was co-bred with Ed and Susie Orr.

"She had enough points to go to the [GI Kentucky] Oaks," Mazzetti recalls. "But then Covid hit, they changed the date and she wasn't ready in September. But this industry will give you blessings or take them away. You just thank God for those blessings, and make sure you enjoy every moment. Because it takes a lot. Ruins your fingers and your toes, you get run over every once in a while. Actually, it was Covid that made me realize how isolated my life was: lockdowns didn't make any difference!"

Nobody meeting this unassuming gentleman would guess all he has seen and done. But what he has achieved with this mare, even as he approaches the end of his career as a horse farmer, means he can no longer elude our attention.

"It's hard work," he says. "Especially the way I've done it. If we get the farm sold, I might participate in the sales a little more, do some buying and selling. But they'll board somewhere else. When that alarm goes off, and a baby's coming, my wife follows me around thinking my heart's not going to make it through another one."

"This is one of the few industries where no matter how hard you work, there's no guarantee of success. Which is fine. It is what it is. The one certainty is that you will have to work hard, whatever the outcome. But I think I can pick good horses. My mares aren't expensive, but they could all run, and have good physiques. I can't always pick what people want. But I try to make the best racehorse I can."

Accuracy | Benoit

SHE WON BY 15 LENGTHS, AND THAT'S ACCURATE

by Bill Finley

Some of the best fillies and mares in the world will soon descend on Southern California for the Breeders' Cup. But one of the fastest fillies in the sport will spend the afternoon in a stall for the GI Longines Breeders' Cup Distaff, while her trainer, Michael McCarthy, figures out path he wants to take with 3-year-old filly Accuracy (Arrogate). She's certainly not ready for the Breeders' Cup after maiden win, but a phenomenal performance in an Oct. 19 race at Santa Anita suggest the Mike Repole owned 3-year-old could develop into a star.

Not an overnight success, she ran third in both of her first races and received modest speed figures. Still a maiden and stretching out to a mile-and-a-sixteenth, she put it all together and then some in the Oct. 19 maiden. Taking the lead from the start, she was tracked by the filly Nafisa (Quality Road). It seems that horse and jockey (Umberto Rispoli) were just playing around while sticking close to Nafisa. Finally, at the three-sixteenths poll, Rispoli called on his mount and she kicked into another gear while her pursuers seemed to be running in quicksand.

She won by 15 lengths and covered the mile-and-a-sixteenth in 1:42.44. But the real story was the figure. The Beyer team gave her a 108. Eclipse Award candidate Thorpedo Anna (Fast Anna) is the only filly to have posted a better number all year. That was the 111 she earned when finishing second against the boys in the GI DK Travers Stakes.

"I knew she had been training well," McCarthy said "Her second start was a little bit of a muddled trip. She was boxed in between horses and forced out the middle of the racetrack on the first turn. Then she sort of got into drive to maintain her position up the backside. She made a couple of different moves that day. She came back and trained a little better for that race than she did going into it, which was odd. I was expecting a solid effort for sure, but I never expected to see something like that. She kind of ran away from them again coming to the quarter poll and that kind of surprised me."

With Mike Repole spreading his horses around and not relying totally on Todd Pletcher, McCarthy--a former assistant to the Hall of Famer--said he had eight or nine horses owned by Repole.

Accuracy | Benoit

But McCarthy did not have her from the outset and said that's why he doesn't know what prevented Accuracy from getting to the races until August of her 3-year-old year.

It's going to take some time and a few races to figure out how good the filly is, but her first big test may come in the Dec. 26 GI La Brea Stakes at Santa Anita.

"I'd like to find one more race," McCarthy said. "We may have to back her up for the seven-eighths in something like the La Brea for 3-year-old fillies. That seems like the most likely spot."

"We will get together with everyone at Team Repole. There are a lot of moving parts."

And what does he expect from Accuracy next year as a 4-year-old?

"You hope she's able to go ahead and maybe not replicate that performance and the margin of victory the other day. but replicate the same kind of number," McCarthy said. "It's always nice to have a fresh 4-year-old filly heading into the new year. If she is lucky enough to find her way into the La Brea that would be terrific.

And if things go according to plan there's no reason why she couldn't make it to the 2025 Breeders' Cup as a contender for the Distaff or, perhaps, the GI Maker's Mark Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Sprint. She certainly seems fast enough.

FOUR-YEAR SERIES OF FRONTSIDE/INFIELD PROJECTS TO BE CHURCHILL'S 'LARGEST EXPANSION TO DATE'

by T.D. Thornton

Bill Carstanjen, the chief executive officer of Churchill Downs, Inc. (CDI), said during a quarterly earnings conference call Thursday that the gaming company will embark upon a series of frontside and infield projects at Churchill Downs that will increase premium seating by 20% at the corporation's flagship racetrack in Louisville, representing "the largest expansion we have done to date."

The frontside redevelopment will be centered on the area starting 180 feet past the finish line through to the First Turn Club, and will require the demolition of the existing Skye Terrace structure, Carstanjen said.

CDI is considering building a new tunnel to give access to the new infield amenities, although that part of the plan is not fully fleshed out yet, Carstanjen said.

Carstanjen did not disclose the costs for the projects. He added that CDI would provide additional details at the corporation's next quarterly earnings call in early 2025.

"The finish line/first turn projects, on the one hand, and the infield projects on the other, will be worked on simultaneously in stages, with some areas ready for the [GI] Kentucky Derby in 2026, and the remaining areas opening for the Derby in 2027 and 2028," Carstanjen said.

Regarding the frontside development, Carstanjen said, "The scope of this project covers approximately 500 feet of racetrack frontage, starting with the Skye Terrace structure, which we will take down and replace with a new building, and extending through the box seats adjacent to the First Turn Club.

To put this further into perspective, the First Turn Club has approximately 330 feet of track frontage.

"These projects will replace over 10,000 existing seats that currently consist of uncovered box seats and dated dining areas with approximately 16,000 seats representing a variety of premium hospitality experiences. This is a considerable undertaking, and will meaningfully increase the number of reserved seats and experiential options at various price points on the frontside of the racetrack," Carstanjen said.

"We are also designing a series of new infield experiences that will, in part, convert the current temporary infield structures, where we seat approximately 800 guests, with permanent premium structures providing hospitality for approximately 7,000," Carstanjen said.

"Accomplishing this requires a new ingress and egress option for our guests to reach the infield," Carstanjen said. "Hence, we are exploring a novel additional tunnel between the frontside and infield that will be part of the overall experience as guests arrive to a reimagined [GI Kentucky] Oaks and Derby infield."

VALLEY VIEW TOPS KEENELAND'S FRIDAY CARD

3-year-old fillies will go one mile on the turf for Friday's $350,000 GII Bank of America Valley View Stakes at Keeneland in the penultimate weekend before the Breeders' Cup. Last year, in its first rendition run at one mile (the race was previously held going 1 1/16 miles), Chad Brown's Surge Capacity (Flintshire {GB}) spring-boarded from victory into becoming a next-out Grade I winner in the Dec. 3 GI Matriarch Stakes. A full field of 12 (along with four also-eligibles) will look to do the same.

Morning-line favoritism lies with the Christophe Clement-trained Les Reys (Fr) (Penny's Picnic {Ire}), a French invader who impressed in her first North American start when upsetting the Winter Memories Stakes at Belmont's Aqueduct meet over this same one-mile distance Sept. 13. She'll be going for three straight wins (all three at one mile) and the 90 Beyer Speed Figure she earned in New York puts her at the top of the field by a clear margin. Her main rival to come close (bar one of the AE's) is Buttercream Babe (Twirling Candy) who has comfortably been in the high 80s during her best efforts at the mile earlier in the season but was last sixth, beaten three lengths, over the tricky course going 6 1/2 furlongs at Kentucky Downs in the GII Music City Stakes Sept. 7 for trainer Michael Maker. That Music City winner, Simply in Front (Summer Front) also appears here drawn widest of the 12. She goes back up to the mile having cut back off four straight efforts at the distance posting one win in allowance company at Churchill in June and one second two starts back in the GIII Ontario Colleen Stakes in late July.

Memorialize (Karakontie {Jpn}) comes in off nearly a year on the sidelines, having last won the Tepin Stakes at Aqueduct Nov. 17 of last year. The Graham Motion runner came fifth behind last year's GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf winner Hard to Justify (Justify) in her last graded start, the GII Miss Grillo Stakes last October. Drawn against the rail is another French runner, Opera Mundi (Ire) (Kingman {GB}), a juvenile stakes winner at Deauville who was off the board in the G1 French 1000 Guineas and will make her first North American start Friday for trainer Brendan Walsh.

The GII Valley View runs as race nine on a 10-race card at Keeneland with post time scheduled for 5:16 p.m. EST.

COLONIAL AIMS FOR 50 DATES IN '26; 'WOULD LOVE MORE' IF VIRGINIA RAISES GAMING CAP

by T. D. Thornton

In an era when most racetracks in the mid-Atlantic region are paring race dates from their yearly schedules to reflect the declining number of available horses to fill races, Colonial Downs is an outlier.

Under the ownership of the gaming company Churchill Downs, Inc. (CDI), the Virginia track announced in August that it plans to increase its race dates to 44 in 2025 after racing 27 programs this year.

On Thursday, by Bill Carstanjen, CDI's chief executive officer, said during a quarterly earnings conference call that he expects the number of race dates at turf-centric Colonial to rise to 50 in 2026.

The reasoning behind the drastic increase in race dates on a circuit that has long struggled with scheduling conflicts has more to do with CDI maximizing its gaming-revenue opportunities than a purely bullish outlook on hosting live racing.

By Virginia law, CDI, which acquired Colonial in 2022, is required to run one race date for every 100 historical horse racing machines (HRMs) that it operates in the state, up to a statutory cap of 5,000 HRMs.

During the Oct. 24 call with investors, Carstanjen said during prepared opening remarks that CDI plans to hit that max cap number by the end of next year, thus the anticipated increase to 50 race dates by 2026.

"By the end of 2025, after we have completed this expansion, we will have 5,000 HRMs deployed, the maximum permitted under the law of Virginia, up from approximately 4,450 machines that we have deployed today," Carstanjen said.

But it was only at the very end of Thursday's earnings call, when prompted by a question from an investment analyst, that Carstanjen hinted CDI might have an appetite for adding even more race dates—tied to even more HRMs—if the state's legislators saw fit to rewrite the law that caps the gaming machines.

"We do think it's a model that works, and if the state has interest and willingness, we hope to talk to them about more," Carstanjen said.

"We think from a racing perspective we'd love to see more days run in Virginia over time, and consequently we'd like to see more HRMs deployed over time in order to support that," Carstanjen said.

"We serve at the discretion of the state," Carstanjen continued. "Our franchise is a discretionary right given to us by the state and we hope to talk to them about it.

"But right now our focus is on delivering on the promises we've made them so far, and delivering for the people of Virginia and for the state," Carstanjen said.

"And hopefully, if we prove the value of that model, they'll be willing listeners to talking about improving and doing more in the state. But it's hard to talk about things we don't control, and I don't want to make promises we can't keep," Carstanjen said.

Colonial's potential increase to 50 dates by 2026 shouldn't come as a sudden surprise.

Carstanjen had disclosed that move in July 2022, also during a quarterly earnings call, when he first outlined publicly that it would be CDI's intent to nearly double its racing dates in Virginia by 2026.

KEENELAND ADDS 10 HORSES TO NOVEMBER HORSES OF RACING AGE SALE

Delightful Flame | Coady Media

Keeneland has supplemented 10 horses, including two-time winning juvenile Delightful Flame (Flameaway), to its Horses of Racing Age Sale which begins at noon ET on Thursday, Nov. 14, the auction company said in a release Thursday.

A total of 221 horses have been catalogued to the single-session auction and most will be stabled at Keeneland in Barns 18-26 with some being offered remotely from their training locations. Additional supplements will be considered until the day of the sale. Internet and phone bidding will be available.

Delightful Flame is a 2-year-old daughter of Flameaway out of Canadian juvenile champion Delightful Mary (Limehouse). Consigned by Grovendale Sales, agent, she captured a maiden special weight race during the Belmont At The Big A meet by nine lengths then turned in a 1 1/2-length victory in an allowance race at Ellis Park. Delightful Flame is from the family of MGISW The Chosen Vron (Vronsky) and MGSW Delightful Kiss (Kissin Kris).

Also supplemented are these winners:

- Eglise is a 3-year-old colt by Frosted who won an Oct. 5 maiden special weight race at Keeneland by a length. Out of GII Ahh Chocolate (Candy Ride {Arg}), he is consigned by Highgate Sales, agent.
- Hopper in 2023 won the GIII Oaklawn Mile Stakes and was the runner-up in the GIII San Pasqual Stakes. A 5-year-old son of Declaration of War out of South African champion Iridescence (SAF) (Caesour), he is consigned by Grovendale Sales, agent.

The remaining supplements are by Awesome Slew, Catholic Boy, City of Light, Into Mischief, Mitole, Quality Road and Speightstown.

The online catalogue for the sale features Daily Racing Form and Equibase past performances along with Thoro-graph and Ragozin sheets, race replays and more.

A print edition for the auction with Equibase past performances for the entrants will be available for pickup at Keeneland as early as Oct. 31.

FASIG-TIPTON DIGITAL FLASH SALE OPENS FOR MSW E J WON THE CUP

E J Won the Cup | Coady Media

Bidding opened Thursday for MSW E J Won the Cup (Omaha Beach), who is being offered in a one-horse flash sale on Fasig-Tipton Digital, which will close Monday, Oct. 28 at 2 p.m. ET, according to a press release from the company midday on Thursday.

As a 3-year-old this year, E J Won the Cup is a multiple stakes winner, two-time graded stakes placed and his latest Beyer Speed Figures are the highest of his career.

In his most recent start in the GIII Oklahoma Derby, the colt was the runner-up, and two starts back he won the St. Louis Derby. His 2024 campaign also includes victories in the Texas Derby and Turf Paradise Derby, and he was third in the GI Santa Anita Derby.

“E J Won the Cup is a horse on the rise,” said Leif Aaron, Fasig-Tipton Director of Digital Sales. “He is on the improve at the right time, with several important and lucrative races in the handicap division on the horizon this fall and early next year. He’s a ready-to-run prospect for some of the sport’s most valuable races.”

The son of Omaha Beach is out of Firsthand Report, a multiple stakes winner and multiple stakes-producing daughter of Blame.

He has current earnings of $620,580.

E J Won the Cup is consigned by his trainer, Doug O’Neill, and is available for inspection at Santa Anita Park.

CHURCHILL DOWNS BACKSIDE LEARNING CENTER'S ANNUAL FUNDRAISER SET FOR NOV. 22

The Backside Learning Center (BLC)--an independent non-profit organization providing support and resources for the diverse community of racetrack workers and their families at Churchill Downs--will hold its annual fundraiser, "Benefit for the Backside: A Day at the Races Celebrating the BLC's 20th Anniversary", at noon ET on Friday, Nov. 22 at the track's First Turn Club, the organization said via a Thursday release.

All money raised through this annual event goes directly toward programming, resources and costs associated with the work of the BLC.

Over its 20-year history, the BLC staff has grown from 2 to 18 with an annual budget over $1 million. With programs centered around educational support for both adults and youth, the BLC serves as a "home away from home" for the backside community.

BREEDERS' CUP LAUNCHES TEXT-TO-DONATE PROGRAM TO SUPPORT TAA

Breeders' Cup Limited has launched a text-to-donate program ahead of next weekend's races to benefit Thoroughbred aftercare in the lead-up to the 2024 Breeders' Cup World Championships Nov. 1-2 at the Del Mar Thoroughbred Club, the program announced Thursday. The Breeders' Cup will match up to $10,000 to support the program.

Beginning Oct. 24, patrons can donate directly to the 501(c)(3) nonprofit Thoroughbred Aftercare Alliance, the official aftercare partner of the Breeders' Cup World Championships by texting BC4TAA to 56651. The Thoroughbred Aftercare Alliance accredits, inspects and awards grants to approved aftercare organizations to retrain, retire, and rehome Thoroughbreds using industry-wide funding. Since 2012, Thoroughbred Aftercare Alliance has granted more than $31.9 million to accredited aftercare organizations and 16,500 Thoroughbreds have been retrained, rehomed, or retired by accredited organizations. Currently, 84 organizations with approximately 172 facilities hold Thoroughbred Aftercare Alliance accreditation.

"Breeders' Cup is very pleased to launch this program to support Thoroughbred aftercare during this year's World Championships," said Vice President of Events for Breeders' Cup Limited Stefanie Palmieri. "By inspiring others to give, this campaign will support the Thoroughbred Aftercare Alliance in the vital work they do for our equine athletes."

TAA President Jeffrey Bloom added: "As the official aftercare partner of the Breeders' Cup, Thoroughbred Aftercare Alliance is thrilled to be the beneficiary of their new Text-to-Give fundraising campaign this year. This campaign offers a terrific opportunity for race fans and participants to actively support aftercare and our mission of facilitating new careers and homes for Thoroughbreds after racing."

GERRY DILGER EQUINE FOUNDATION AWARDS PAIR OF SCHOLARSHIPS

The board of the Gerry Dilger Equine Scholarship Foundation awarded two recipients the Kentucky Thoroughbred Farm Experience Scholarship, the program announced Thursday.

The award, open to graduates of Irish equine programs, grants one-year placements at leading Kentucky farms to provide the next generation of young people with an opportunity to further develop their horse skills.

For 2025, the board selected Ciaran Phelan who will work with Springhouse Farm in Lexington and Lola Queck who will work with Hunter Valley Farm in Versailles.

Ciaran worked at Coolmore Stud and Lodge Park Stud, graduated from the Irish National Stud and was previously awarded the Jonathan Fitzpatrick Business Internship in the nominations office at the stud where he benefitted from exposure to the business side of a commercial stallion farm.

"Ultimately my goal is to breed horses capable of competing at the highest echelons of racing," said Phelan.

Lola Queck earned one of two scholarships | Courtesy Lola Queck

Lola is also a graduate of the Irish National Stud program and gained experience having left her native Germany to travel to Australia and work for Brett Cavanaugh and Vinery Stud. She has also worked on the advertising and social media side of the business and recognizes their importance to sustain the bloodstock industry. Lola would like to start pinhooking in the future and has enjoyed yearling prep, an area which she would like to further develop into a career.

"It is essential to truly love what you are doing and always treat [the horses] with good intentions," said Queck. "There is always more to learn and it is very important to experience as many different cultures and ways of doing things--especially in this industry"

HALF-SISTER TO 'TDN RISING STAR' LESLIE'S ROSE MAKES FIRST START AT AQUEDUCT

6th-BAQ, $90K, Msw, 2yo, f, 1 1/16mT, 3:16 p.m. ET.

DIVINE ROSE (Good Magic) has reached her unveiling under the watchful eye of trainer Cherie DeVaux. The John Gunther and Eurowest homebred is a half-sister to GI Central Bank Ashland Stakes heroine and 'TDN Rising Star' Leslie's Rose (Into Mischief). Both are out of unraced Wildwood Rose (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), who herself is a half-sister to GI Kentucky Oaks runner-up My Miss Sophia (Unbridled's Song)--the dam of 'TDN Rising Star' and current sire Annapolis (War Front).

Also set for a first start is Cabaletta (Maclean's Music). The Godolphin homebred trained by Bill Mott is out of GI Frizette Stakes victress Balletto (UAE) (Timebrer Country), who is also responsible for GISP Villanesca (Distorted Humor) and GSW Frost Point (Frosted). The debuting filly claims as her third dam the foundational mare Althea (Alydar). TJCIS PPS

ALL I WANT IS YOU (f, 4, The Factor--Candy Sioux, by Indian Charlie), a winner at this venue in April, finished sixth at Churchill in June before coming home a narrow winner in a $50,000 optional claimer at Colonial Aug. 1. Third last out extending to 6 1/2 furlongs in a Kentucky Downs optional claimer Aug. 29, she was given a 6-1 chance to return to the winner's circle this time. Far back through crisp early splits, she found a lane down on the inside in the stretch and was up in time to score by a half-length over Off Ramp (We Miss Artie). Out of a half-sister to sprint champion Midnight Lute, All I Want Is You also has a juvenile brother by Liam's Map and a filly foal sister by Mandaloun. Lifetime Record: 11-4-1-1, $273,740.

EL GRANDE O (c, 3, Take Charge Indy--Rainbow's Song {SP, $135,253}, by Unbridled's Song) collected a trio of statebred stakes victories in 2023, including off-going wins in the Bertram F. Bongard and the Sleepy Hollow along the way. After launching his sophomore year with a second in the mile Jerome Stakes at the Big A Jan. 6, the dark bay came up a desperate nose short behind winner Uncle Heavy in a muddy renewal of the 9-furlong GIII Withers Stakes Feb. 3. In his latest start, he showed some early speed and couldn't sustain the pace, tiring to finish third in the GIII Gotham Stakes at eight furlongs Mar. 2. Sent off the 6-5 choice while getting first-time Lasix this time, El Grande O settled in a rail-skimming fourth as 18-1 shot Toxic Gray (Verrazano) led through a :22.33 opening quarter. Swinging off the rail in the stretch, the colt caught the hard-trying grey in the final strides en route to his first win of the season. The half to GSP Meal Ticket (Malibu Moon, $305,989) is also a half to the unraced 2-year-old Phonecalltoheaven (Dialed In). Rainbow's Song produced a colt by Mendelssohn last year and a filly by Game Winner this term. She was bred back to Mage. Lifetime Record: 12-4-5-2, $485,600. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

3rd-Keeneland, $99,588, Msw, 10-24, 3yo/up, f/m, 1 1/16m, 1:46.04, ft, 2 1/2 lengths.

VIABLE (f, 3, Curlin--Relevant, by War Front) finished a flat sixth in her career debut going seven panels at Churchill Downs in November before rounding out the season with a third stretching to a mile over Turfway's synthetic surface later in the month. Fourth while navigating that track and trip in January, the Claiborne/Adele Dilschneider hombred was vanned off during the course of a one-mile maiden at Ellis in July. Returning to Louisville for her latest, the chestnut was second in the 8 1/2-furlong test and was installed the 8-5 second choice to go one better here. Content to stalk the speed through a modest opening pace as favored Save Time (Into Michief) settled near the back of the field, Viable made her move exiting the far turn, turned back the challenge of Vino Frizzante (Vino Rosso) turning for home and despite the favorite's closing kick late, it was Viable on top by 2 1/2 lengths at the wire. Relevant, carrying a filly by Catholic Bow, sold for $30,000 at Keeneland November in 2022. She is also responsible for an unraced 2-year-old Flatter filly and earlier this term, she dropped a colt by First Samurai. She was bred back to My Prankster.

CHATTER (f, 2, Vekoma--Flutterby {MSW & GSP, $350,633}, by Congrats), seventh in the slop in a 5 1/2-furlong maiden at Churchill Downs Sept. 27, was given a 5-1 chance to turn things around here. Sent to the front early, the chestnut led throughout and had enough left in the tank to score by a half-length over the dead-heating pair of Sycamore Shoals (Street Sense) and Tickin Time Blonde (Not This Time). Chatter represents the 28th winner for freshman sire (by Candy Ride {Arg}). MSW and GSP Flutterby's latest registered foal is a filly by Authentic from last year and was bred to Mo Forza this season. Sales history: $125,000 Ylg '23 KEESEP. SAIL THESEVEN SEAS (f, 2, Street Sense--In the Navy Now {SW, $253,020}, by Midshipman) finished runner-up in three consecutive starts, including Colonial's Keswick Stakes going 5 1/2 furlongs against fellow Virginia bred Aug. 3 and the restricted Jamestown Stakes over that oval's turf course Aug. 31. Third in the off-the-turf Selima Stakes over a mile at this venue Sept. 28, the bay was backed down to 4-5 favoritism in this return to the sod here. Content to survey things from fifth through initial fractions of :24.32 and :50.44, the Virginia bred swung out four paths wide in early stretch and drew clear late to score by four lengths over Juice (Lookin At Lucky). The winner is a half to Naval Empire (Empire Maker), SP, $174,755. Sales history: $130,000 RNA Ylg '23 KEESEP. U.S.-BRED/SIRED RUNNERS IN JAPAN

In this continuing series, Alan Carasso takes a look ahead at US-bred and/or conceived runners entered for the upcoming weekend at the tracks on the Japan Racing Association circuit, with a focus on pedigree and/or performance in the sales ring. Here are the horses of interest for this weekend running at Tokyo and Niigata Racecourses:

Nyquist is the sire of the debuting Angel Ladder | Sarah Andrew

Saturday, October 26, 2024

5th-TOK, ¥13,720,000 ($90k), Newcomers, 2yo, 1600mT
TOSEN PENELOPE (f, 2, Maximum Security--Hassenah {Brz}, by Red Runner) becomes the first Japanese starter for her first-crop sire (by the now Japan-based New Year's Day) and is the first produce from her dam, a four-time winner at group level in her native Brazil and that country's champion older mare of 2019. Hassenah, whose sire is a Storm Cat half-brother to French champion Gold Away (Ire) (Goldneyev), foaled a filly by Highland Reel (Ire) this past January. B-Takaya Shimakawa (KY)

Sunday, October 27, 2024

4th-TOK, ¥13,720,000 ($90k), Newcomers, 2yo, 1600m
ANGEL LADDER (f, 2, Nyquist--Tiz Miz Sue, by Tiznow) was purchased for $725,000 at last year's Keeneland September Sale by North Hills's Koji Maeda, who campaigned this filly's close relative an $500,000 KEESEP grad Serein (Uncle Mo) to a pair of victories--including a debut success at two--and a third placing in the G3 UAE Oaks. The Grade I-winning dam, a daughter of Grade III winner Sue's Good News (Woodman), is a half-sister to eight winners, including Bulletin (City Zip), victorious in the inaugural running of the Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf Sprint six years ago. Christophe Lemaire sees fit to take the call. B-Cres Ran LLC (KY)

BERITA BAGUS (c, 2, Kantharos--Private Jet, by Smart Strike) is a half-brother to Japanese listed winner Paraiba Tourmaline (Malibu Moon) and was acquired for $35,000 in utero at the 2022 Keeneland January Sale. Private Jet, who fetched $125,000 when offered in foal to Munnings at KEEJAN in 2023, is a full-sister to two-time Eclipse Award winner Lookin At Lucky and a half-sister to MGSW Kensei (Mr. Greeley) and Group 3-winning 'TDN Rising Star' Shahama (Munnings).

12th-NII, ¥15,200,000 ($100k), Allowance, 3yo/up, 1800m
JAMILA NOOR (f, 3, Uncle Mo--Layla Noor, by Midnight Lute) was a respectable fourth on career debut going this distance at Kyoto last January and was last seen overcoming gate 14 of 16 to break her maiden at Nakayama Mar. 17 (video). Shadai Farm acquired 2018 GII Demoiselle Stakes third Layla Noor--a daughter of SW & MGSP Senada (Pulpit)--for $660,000 carrying this filly at the 2020 Keeneland November Sale. The filly's third dam is the talented four-time graded winner Owsley (Harlan).
