KATIE TOLBERT, BUILDING THE FOUNDATION FOR CHAMPIONS

Click here for our visit with Highland Falls and exercise rider Katie Tolbert | Sara Gordon

by Sara Gordon

There are people that work with horses and there are people that love horses. In the case of Katie Tolbert, there is no better example of a person that works with horses because of how much she loves them.

You see the devotion on a quiet morning on the backside of Churchill Downs as she sits in the saddle, stroking the neck of the horse she is astride or is ponying alongside her. You hear it in the echo of a nicker from an excited trainee, eager for her company, as she makes her way down the shedrow. But you feel it most when she talks about the horses, from the Grade I winners to the young ones still finding their way, as a smile alights her face and excitement sparkles in her eyes.

Tolbert's love of animals fueled her from a young age. In spite of not having a horse of her own while growing up in Seneca, South Carolina, she used every opportunity she could through friends and family to be near them. Tolbert eventually pursued a degree in animal science and equine business at Clemson University, graduating in 2006.

'UNFORTUNATELY, I COULDN'T SPLIT MYSELF' - THORPEDO ANNA POSTS FINAL BREEZE FOR DISTAFF FOR MCPEEK AT SARATOGA; DERBY-WINNING STABLEMATE MYSTIK DAN BACK ON WORKTAB AT KEENELAND by Steve Sherack

Tuning up for next Saturday's GI Breeders' Cup Distaff at Del Mar, four-time Grade I winner and 'TDN Rising Star' Thorpedo Anna (Fast Anna) breezed five furlongs beneath regular exercise rider Danny Ramsey in 1:01.24 (1/3) over Saratoga's Oklahoma training track Saturday morning. The move was recorded in company with her Ken McPeek-trained multiple stakes-placed stablemate and 4-year-old gelding Denington (Gun Runner).

After graduation, Tolbert relocated to Lexington, Kentucky after being accepted into the Kentucky Equine Management Internship (KEMI) program, which placed her at Juddmonte Farm for the fall.

“It was amazing because they have a wonderful farm, the people are wonderful, and [they have] incredible horses. I did a fall semester there breaking yearlings. They let you help with anything else you wanted to help with, so I worked on the breeding shed, I went and helped turn out babies at night, whatever they needed,” said Tolbert. “They set me up to go to Gulfstream one winter to work at the track, because they knew I was interested in it, so I went with Bobby Frankel, who trained all of their horses in the U.S. at the time. I loved it. I rode the pony, helped feed, walked horses, helped groom, and I might have gotten to jog a horse or two.”

Tolbert pays a visit to Cyberknife at Spendthrift Farm | Sara Gordon

She remained with Juddmonte for a few years before moving to Maryland to work for Sagamore Farm, where she stayed for nearly a decade. It was during that time that she made her way back to Kentucky to work for Stanley Hough, who was training for Sagamore, until owner Kevin Plank announced that Sagamore would cease its racing operation in November of 2020.

Following that, Hough retired, Sagamore began to sell their horses and Tolbert made the decision to head up to New York to work for Horacio DePaz, who she had worked for while at Sagamore. It was there she met Dustin Dugas, an assistant trainer for Brad Cox, who recruited her to join the stable as they ventured to Florida for the winter.

“And I’ve been here ever since,” she said.

In the nearly four years she has been a member of the Cox team, she has worked her way up to her current position as assistant trainer and exercise rider. Tolbert has been hands-on with a multitude of top-class horses that many only dream of. A clear standout, and a personal favorite, was none other than dual champion Essential Quality (Tapit).

“I started riding him in Saratoga [in 2021] and he was such a cool horse. He was so smart; he was so easy to deal with. That was unbelievable for me. Those are the kind of horses you see on TV and I’d never gotten a chance to [work with anyone like him before]. I rode him all summer and he won the GII Jim Dandy, then the GI Travers, and ended up running great in the GI Longines Breeders’ Cup Classic [at Del Mar]. That was exciting to be part of,” said Tolbert.

And then came Cyberknife (Gun Runner).

“We got a 2-year-old that came with a lot of warnings about his behavior. He was rowdy, rambunctious, and kind of hard to deal with. When we got back to [Churchill Downs] in the fall, none of the guys liked him all that much and 'Essential' had gone back to his regular rider, so I thought maybe if I start riding one that nobody likes, I’d get to ‘keep him,’” said Tolbert. “I tried hard to make friends with him and I got along with him pretty good here. Over time he grew up and he got to train more, breeze more, and got some of his energy out. I got to ride him with all the [GI Kentucky] Derby leadup and go over to the Derby with him, which was really exciting.”

Though the GI Arkansas Derby winner didn’t run particularly well in the first leg of the Triple Crown, he’d go on to win the GIII Matt Winn Stakes and GI Haskell Stakes, later following up with a near score in the GI Travers Stakes and a third-place finish in the GI Pennsylvania Derby. And when it came to the 2022 GI Breeders’ Cup Dirt Mile, he was one horse that many people had eyes on in the weeks leading up to the race.

But tragedy struck Tolbert in the early hours of Friday, Oct. 28, 2022, the weekend prior to the Breeders’ Cup at Keeneland. Tolbert, who was meant to be aboard Cyberknife in his final prep before the Dirt Mile, suffered a serious injury to her left leg when the unraced 2-year-old she was on reared up and threw her into a grandstand box-seat railing at Churchill. The final diagnosis was a broken femur, which required surgery to insert a metal rod to stabilize the bone.

This type of injury would keep most people down for the count for months, if not longer, but not Tolbert. Despite having her

Tolbert and Idiomatic, who recently retired to Juddmonte Farm
Sara Gordon

It's quite fitting that friends have coined Tolbert the "Rider of Champions," as it seems many of the horses that she develops a deep-rooted bond with seem to pay it back handsomely on some of racing's biggest days. And when that happens, Tolbert is always there to greet them in the winner's circle, bestowing a few pats on the head followed immediately by a kiss on the nose.

One of the most fulfilling experiences for Tolbert has been the opportunity to work with Juddmonte-owned horses in training with Cox, bringing her full circle with the operation that laid the foundation for her career in the industry. A notable member of that group was Idiomatic (Curlin), the 2023 Eclipse Award champion older dirt female and five-time Grade I winner. Though the winner of last year's GI Longines Breeders' Cup Distaff was set to return to defend her title in this year's running at Del Mar, it was announced Friday morning that she was found to be lame in her left knee and has subsequently been retired to stud.

"You could tell she was special," said Tolbert. "She was so sweet, everybody loved her. She would stand in her stall and want you to snuggle her giant head. She turned out really great for us."

Along with the stars already mentioned, one would be remiss to leave out Set Piece (GB) (Dansili {GB}), another Juddmonte homebred, who was a member of the Cox barn for over four years and a personal favorite of Tolbert's. A multiple graded stakes winner, the hard-knocking gelding finally captured a Grade I in his last season on the track, winning the 2023 GI

Arlington Million Stakes at Colonial Downs as a 7-year-old.

“He was probably one of the first ones that I got to gallop consistently, [one] that was sort of mine, and he was so easy to ride, which made it fun. He loved to stand in, he loved attention and he loved training, so I got to travel a lot with him. It was always exciting going places with him, especially when you could tell that he was going to do well, and running in the Arlington Million was really cool. He was a barn favorite, kind of quirky also, but classy. We all just loved him, so it was fun to have him for Juddmonte,” said Tolbert.

“It’s special to have started off at Juddmonte. Some of the babies that we get, or even grandbabies, [are out of] ones that I knew when I was there. Obviously [Juddmonte has] an excellent breeding program, but it’s been fun to find a new connection with them here and still be involved with them.”

It’s now full steam ahead for Breeders’ Cup preparations, with the Cox team set to have an exciting group shipping out that includes Godolphin’s GI Jockey Club Gold Cup Stakes winner Highland Falls (Curlin). A contender for the GI Longines Breeders’ Cup Classic, he is another on the list of esteemed horses that Katie has worked with consistently.

“I’ve been riding Highland Falls for the better part of two years. He was another one that took time and as he’s gotten older, really developed,” said Tolbert. “Over the past year he’s just gotten so much stronger and more mature. Sometimes you just have to wait on them a little bit. He ran awesome in Saratoga and he’s been training really good. He’s not super flashy, and he never really does anything wrong, he’s just classy. He stands, trains and does his job, so I don’t think he gets a whole lot of attention but he’s a super cool horse.

“It’s fun being part of an operation like this where we do have some older horses and we have horses that we get as babies and we can see their careers develop. It's rewarding, especially when you see them when they're young and you know there's something in there, to be able to see them find it over the next few years."

With most of her time spent on the track, it's in the rare free time that Tolbert gets she often makes the trip from Louisville to Lexington to visit with some of her retired favorites, many of which are now stallions or broodmares. And despite the time that passes, it's evident in their reaction to seeing her again that she remains their 'person.'

"I've been really lucky. I've worked for great people and been around a lot of nice horses, but nothing like the ones that we've had over the past few years. It's not something I ever thought that I could be part of, so it's exciting," said Tolbert. "I love racing and I love everything about what we do, but I just love horses. It's the only reason I do it. I mean, there are plenty of jobs where you can make more money or have a better schedule, but this is the only thing I want to do."

After purchasing a total of 21 yearlings earlier this month--five at the Tattersalls October Yearling sale and 16 at the Fasig-Tipton October Yearling sale--McPeek was back in town at his Saratoga base to watch the GI Kentucky Oaks winner train this weekend.

"Nice maintenance workout," McPeek said. "Just let her sit off the outside of Denington--who's a nice horse in his own right--and let her cruise along, then stretch out down the lane. Nice long gallop out. It wasn't complicated."

McPeek added, "She's in a really good routine up here and she's been very happy."

Thorpedo Anna, a narrow winner of the GI Cotillion Stakes at Parx last out Sept. 21, figures to be one of the heaviest favorites of Breeders' Cup weekend in the Distaff following Friday's defection of the race's defending winner Idiomatic (Curlin).

Mystik Dan (Goldencents), meanwhile, returned to the worktab for McPeek with a three-furlong breeze in :36.20 (1/15) at Keeneland Saturday morning. The GI Kentucky Derby winner and GI Preakness Stakes runner-up was freshened after finishing a disappointing eighth in the GI Belmont Stakes at Saratoga June

"Unfortunately, I couldn't split myself," McPeek said with a laugh.

"Robby Albarado got on him and we just let him run a quarter, out an eighth. He went :36 1/5. Robby says it's the best he's ever felt. He's bigger and stronger. I think we did the right thing there and we're gonna get rewarded for it in time. He's just a lovely horse--it's one step of many. He leaves for the Fair Grounds on Monday. We'll put him in that division down there and get him in a good routine. Probably four to six weeks until I pick a race. Gonna let him progress before we start thinking about that."

His turf contingent at the Breeders' Cup will include 'TDN Rising Star' Virgin Colada (More Than Ready) (Juvenile Fillies Turf), Zulu Kingdom (Ire) (Ten Sovereigns {Ire}) (Juvenile Turf), Carl Spackler (Ire) (Lope de Vega {Ire}) (Mile), Chili Flag (Fr) (Cityscape {GB}) (Mile), and Gina Romantica (Into Mischief) (Mile).

"We have some chances in many of the races we're participating in," Brown said. "These are tough races and with each race it's hard to get the horses there and healthy and in good condition all the way across the country. It's a very solid group."

Domestic Product worked a sharp solo half-mile in :48.31 (16/189) as he prepares for the two-turn Dirt Mile after impressive scores in the one-turn mile GIII Dwyer in July at Belmont at the Big A and a last-out neck win traveling seven furlongs in the Grade I H. Allen Jerkens Memorial on Aug. 24.

"He worked good," Brown said. We plan on running in the Dirt Mile."

Chancer McPatrick worked a solo half-mile in :49.01 (57/189). He is undefeated in three starts each completed in breathtaking rallying style, including the GI Champagne traveling a one-turn mile Oct. 5.

"He worked great and galloped out super," Brown said. "He's always been a classy, intelligent young horse and he's continued to develop. I've been very impressed with him."

Sierra Leone, winner of this spring's GI Toyota Blue Grass Stakes and third in the GI Travers last time, went a solo half-mile in :49.81 (110/189), galloping out strongly through the turn. This work followed a half-mile breeze in :49.25 last week here.

"He had a monster work last week and I wanted him to work just a tick easier," Brown said. "It went perfect, and he galloped out super. He's ready to go."

Tapit Trice working at Belmont Saturday | Sarah Andrew

Ways and Means, winner of this summer's GI Test Stakes, worked a half-mile in :48.63 (32/189). "She's done super. The work went great. I'm really happy with Ways and Means," Brown said.

Raging Sea, winner of the GII Beldame last out, worked :49 (50/189) in company. Undefeated GII Pilgrim winner Zulu Kingdom worked a half-mile in :48.63 (32/189) in company. Virgin Colada, runner-up in the GII Miss Grillo, worked a half-mile in :50.11 (135/189).

Other Breeders' Cup workers at Belmont Park included: last-out GII Woodward winner Tapit Trice (Tapit) (Classic) breezed a half-mile for Todd Pletcher in :49.21 (72/189); and the Jorge Abreu-trained runaway GI Frizette winner Scottish Lassie (McKinzie) (Juvenile Fillies) worked a half-mile in :49.61 (97/189).

According to Keeneland clockers, their final quarter mile went in :22.80.

"I thought it was a great work, very straightforward," said jockey Tyler Gaffalione, who rode Carl Spackler to a win in Keeneland's GI Coolmore Turf Mile Stakes Oct. 5. "He's really feeling good out there. He's a very forward horse, even in the afternoons. He's just wanting to do it."

He's been putting himself in the game a bit more. We probably won't change anything up, but we'll let him get out there, run his race and see if we're good enough."

Chili Flag was second in Keeneland's GI First Lady Stakes Oct. 5.

Seven others pre-entered in the Breeders' Cup recorded their final works for the event over the dirt Saturday morning at Keeneland.

Trainer Cherie DeVaux's five Breeders' Cup pre-entrants--Cagliostro (Upstart) (Dirt Mile), More Than Looks (More Than Ready) (Mile), Pipeline (Speightstown) (Dirt Mile), Pyrenees (Into Mischief) (Classic) and Vahva (Gun Runner) (Filly and Mare Sprint)--turned in half-mile maintenance works on the dirt track labeled fast.

"This morning, we were just working, looking for maintenance moves out here," DeVaux said. "There's nothing going to be too flashy, just trying to make sure they're on task and doing as well as they can be. All of them looked great. This week, not looking for too much out of them is the objective."

Cagliostro, third as the favorite in the GIII Ack Ack Stakes Sept. 28, went in company with GI Jockey Club Gold Cup Stakes runner-up Pyrenees and were clocked in :49.00 (27/86).

"If you take them solo, they'll have a tendency to be a bit lazy," DeVaux said. "You just want to make sure they keep to task. They're easy enough to ride (so) they're not going to do too much out there."

More Than Looks turned in a solo work in :49.60 (56/86). He was second in Keeneland's Coolmore Turf Mile. Pipeline, a last-out optional claiming winner at Churchill Downs Sept. 19, breezed the distance in :48.20 (3/86). Vahva, third as the favorite in the GI Ballerina Handicap Aug. 24, worked by herself in :48.00 (2/86).

Also working on the Keeneland dirt:

For trainer Gustavo Delgado, GI Claiborne Breeders' Futurity runner-up and 'TDN Rising Star' Ferocious (Flatter) (Juvenile): five furlongs in 1:01.80 (8/18) with a final quarter-mile in :23.20.

For trainer Wesley Ward, last-out GII Phoenix Stakes runner-up Nakatomi (Firing Line) (Sprint) went five furlongs in company with Grade I winner Chi Town Lady (Verrazano) in 1:01 (3/18).

Churchill-Based Breeders' Cup Contenders Log Final Works

Several Breeders' Cup contenders are set to ship out early Monday morning to Del Mar following their final works Saturday at Churchill Downs. Among those completing their final preparations were Federal Judge (Army Mule) (Sprint) (four furlongs in :48.40 27/157); Highland Falls (Curlin) (Classic) (five furlongs in 1:00.20 6/39); Rattle N Roll (Connect) (Classic) (five furlongs in :59.60 (1/39); Saudi Crown (Always Dreaming) (Dirt Mile) (five furlongs in 1:00 3/39) and Tumbarumba (Oscar Performance) (Dirt Mile) (four furlongs in :49.20 74/157).

Trainer Brad Cox worked 15 horses Saturday morning with last-out Phoenix winner Federal Judge and last-out R.A. Cowboy Jones Stakes winner Saudi Crown leading off his group at 5:30 a.m. working by themselves.

"Saudi Crown had a great work this morning," jockey Florent Geroux said. "He's been off a little bit, so we wanted to make sure he got a lot out of his training. He showed that today and last week. He worked in company last week, which went well, and I thought today was even better--a good sign going into a race."

A few minutes later, Federal Judge, worked under exercise rider Joel Osorio. At 7:15 a.m., Cox's final Breeders' Cup contender of the morning Highland Falls, worked with jockey Luis Saez on board, breezing outside stablemate Liberal Arts (Arrogate).

"He worked well this morning and is coming into the race in great form," Saez said. "I think he's improving even more at the mile-and-a-quarter distance. He ran huge last time in the Jockey Club Gold Cup at that distance."

BAFFERT, D'AMATO BREEDERS' CUP RUNNERS HIGHLIGHT SANTA ANITA WORKTAB

A bevy of horses pre-entered in next weekend's Breeders' Cup at Del Mar worked Saturday at Santa Anita. Out in force were horses trained by Bob Baffert and Phil D'Amato, who combined pre-entered 18 horses to the 41st Breeders' Cup.

D'Amato worked all eight of his Breeders' Cup pre-entrants.

One Magic Philly (Good Magic) (Filly & Mare Sprint), winner of the GIII Chillingworth Stakes last out, and Vodka With a Twist (Thousand Words) (Juvenile Fillies), second in the GI Del Mar Debutante, worked in company. One Magic Philly was clocked in 1:00.60 (17/50) and Vodka With a Twist went in 1:00.80 (20/50). Hang the Moon (Uncle Mo) (Filly & Mare Turf), upset winner of the GII Rodeo Drive Stakes, worked five furlongs in 1:00.40 (3/7). Che Evasora (Arg) (Greenspring) (Distaff), most recently last in the GII Zenyatta Stakes at Santa Anita, went five furlongs in 1:00.00 (6/50). Thought Process (Collected) (Juvenile Fillies Turf), winner of the GIII Surfer Girl Stakes, went five furlongs in 1:00.40 (13/50).

As for D'Amato's colts and geldings, Gold Phoenix (Ire) (Belardo {Ire}) (Turf), fifth in the GII John Henry, went five furlongs in 1:00.40 (3/7). Iron Man Cal (Collected) (Juvenile Turf), winner of the GIII Zuma Beach via disqualification, went five furlongs in 1:00.20 (9/50). Motorious (GB) (Muhaarar {GB}) (Turf Sprint), winner of the GIII Green Flash at Del Mar last out, went four furlongs in :48.80 (9/23).

Baffert worked four of his 10 pre-entrants. Citizen Bull (Into Mischief) (Juvenile), winner of the GI American Pharoah, earned a bullet when going five furlongs in :58.80 (1/50). Gaming (Game Winner) (Juvenile), unbeaten winner of the GI Del Mar Futurity, went five furlongs in 1:00.20 (9/50). Non Compliant (Tiz the Law) (Juvenile Fillies), winner of the GII Oak Leaf Stakes, went five furlongs in 1:00.20 (9/50). 'TDN Rising Star' Muth (Good Magic) (Dirt Mile), last in the GI California Crown last out, went five furlongs in :59.00 (3/50).

Working for trainer John Sadler were Kirstenbosch (Midnight Lute) (Filly & Mare Sprint) and Supa Speed (Justify) (Juvenile Fillies Turf). Kirstenbosch, third in the Chillingworth off an eight-month layoff, went five furlongs in 1:01.20 (23/50). Supa Speed, second in the Del Mar Juvenile Fillies Turf, went five furlongs in 1:02.80 (42/50).

Trainer Michael McCarthy worked There Goes Harvard (Will Take Charge) (Turf) and Sunset Glory (Ire) (Cotai Glory {GB}) (Filly & Mare Turf). There Goes Harvard, second in the GII John Henry, went four furlongs in :48.60 (31/66). Sunset Glory, fifth in the Rodeo Drive, went five furlongs in 1:01.80 (38/50).

Johannes (Nyquist) (Mile), last-out winner of the GII City of Hope Mile, worked five furlongs in 1:00.60 (17/50) for trainer Tim Yakteen. Anisette (GB) (Awtaad {Ire}) (Filly & Mare Turf), worked four furlongs in :48.20 (6/23) for trainer Leonard Powell. Sugar Fish (Accelerate) (Distaff), who won the Zenyatta, went five furlongs in :59.80 (5/50) for trainer Jeff Mullins. Dr. Venkman (Ghostzapper), pre-entered in both the Sprint and Dirt Mile with the Sprint being first preference and most recently fourth in the GI Pacific Classic, worked five furlongs in 1:00.20 (9/50) for trainer Mark Glatt. Finally, El Encinal (Arg) (II Campione {Chi}) (Turf), last in the John Henry, worked four furlongs in :48.80 (37/66) for trainer Francisco Garcia.

MAIDEN STATUS ASIDE, SOVEREIGNTY COULD PROVE A HANDFUL IN STREET SENSE

by Alan Carasso

Sovereignty | Sarah Andrew

Winless in two starts though he is, Godolphin homebred Sovereignty (Into Mischief) will have his fair share of backers from the outside stall in a field of 10 in Sunday's GIII Street Sense Stakes on opening day of the fall meet at Churchill Downs.

A maternal grandson of GSW & GI Breeders' Cup Ladies' Classic runner-up Mushka (Empire Maker), Sovereignty debuted as an 11-1 chance in the Travers Day maiden Aug. 24 won by 'TDN Rising Star' Tip Top Thomas (Volatile). Last of the 10-strong field after the opening quarter-mile, Sovereignty found his best stride late to finish fourth and galloped out strongly. Tried over a mile in his latest in New York Sept. 27, the bay settled midpack and closed his final quarter in a race-best :24.38, but found the promising Praetor (Into Mischief) a neck too strong.

The form of the Aug. 24 maiden has worked out nicely, as Tip Top Thomas was second in the GI Champagne Stakes, runner-up Rookie Card (Adios Charlie) graduated impressively on Saturday and third home Keewaydin (Instagrاند) scored impressively Oct. 12.

Dapper Moon (Malibu Moon) was pre-entered for Saturday's GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile, but takes in this softer assignment. A five-length maiden winner going seven panels at the Spa Aug. 31, the Louisiana-bred forced the pace from a wide gate in the GI Claiborne Breeders' Futurity Oct. 5 and retreated to fourth.

Tiztastic (Tiz the Law), a debut fifth to possible Juvenile favorite and 'TDN Rising Star' Chancer McPatrick (McKinzie) July 27, has since won two in a row on grass, including the Kentucky Downs Juvenile Mile Sept. 8. Comes a Time (Not This Time) was up in the final few strides to defeat Rookie Card last time and should be suited by this two-turn trip.

The other graded event on a calm-before-the-storm Sunday afternoon is the GIII Autumn Miss Stakes for sophomore turf fillies at Santa Anita. Medoro (Honor Code) won the first four starts of her career, including the GIII Providencia Stakes here in April, but looks to return to winning ways after finishing third in the GII San Clemente Handicap July 20 and second in the GI Del Mar Oaks Aug. 17. Asean (Ire) (Ten Sovereigns {Ire}) beat the boys twice in eight starts--all over five furlongs--for Donnacha O'Brien last season and was last seen finishing 11th in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf Sprint. She faces her own sex for just the third time in her career going two turns for the first time, but if any trainer can excel with a horse of this variety, it's Phil D'Amato.

TODAY'S FEATURED REPLAY

TARIFA (Bernardini) wins GII Mother Goose S.

GAME 'RISING STAR' TARIFA TURNS TABLES ON GUN SONG IN MOTHER GOOSE

by Jill Williams

Tarifa, on the inside and missing a shoe, wins over Gun Song and Pretty Ana | Coglianesse

There was a time, not that long ago, when the Mother Goose Stakes was one of the most prestigious Grade I summer targets for sophomore fillies in North America. It may be a Grade II now late in the season while the division leaders wait another week for the GI Breeders' Cup Distaff, but Godolphin homebred and 'TDN Rising Star' Tarifa (Bernardini) did her part to honor that former glory at the Belmont at Aqueduct meet with an extremely game and tenacious victory as she turned back Gun Song (Gun Runner), who bested her when the two filled out the trifecta behind 3-year-old filly champion-elect Thorpedo Anna (Fast Anna) in the Sept. 21 GI Cotillion Stakes at Parx.

Tarifa stumbled slightly a few strides out of the gate Saturday at the Belmont at Aqueduct meet, causing jockey Flavien Prat to sit down in the saddle briefly, but the duo quickly regained their poise and gunned to the front. Meanwhile, John Velazquez parked Gun Song, winner of the GII Black-Eyed Susan Stakes in May and the Cathryn Sophia Stakes in August, immediately off Tarifa's flank as the latter set a steady :24.08 and :48.86 pace. With the tempo quickening entering the final turn, Gun Song drew on even terms with Tarifa and looked to have the upper hand as she was doing it easily. A ding-dong battle down the stretch ensued with Gun Song poking her blinkered head in front, but Tarifa wasn't done. She fought back stride by stride on sheer heart, not only besting Gun Song by a head, but also holding off a late-closing Pretty Ana (Quality Road), who was just another head back.

"She jumped very well, and I don't know, I think I clipped somebody's heel on the outside so I lost a bit of momentum," said Prat. "She was still fast enough to make the lead. After that,

I thought she was traveling well. Top of the lane, it looked like I'm beaten, and she showed some good fight.

"It felt like she did not want to give up. But in the meantime, it looked like [Gun Song] had more than me. Like I said, she fought hard. It was good."

Trainer Brad Cox's assistant Dustin Dugas said Tarifa lost her right front shoe and told the NYRA notes team he believes it happened when she stumbled just after the start.

Named a 'Rising Star' with a visually impressive six-length debut during this week exactly one year ago at Keeneland, Tarifa won three in a row at Fair Grounds, including the GII Fair Grounds Oaks and GII Rachel Alexandra Stakes, this winter and spring. After not factoring in the GI Kentucky Oaks, she got a freshening and returned with a second in the Audubon Oaks at Ellis in August and the third behind Thorpedo Anna and Gun Song in the Cotillion last month.

Pedigree Notes:

Tarifa is one of 53 graded winners and 20 'TDN Rising Stars' for the much-missed Bernardini, himself a champion, 'Rising Star', and Darley/Godolphin homebred. Until his death at 18 in 2021, he stood at Darley, where he sired 88 black-type winners to date. His final crop is currently juveniles. While Tarifa is Bernardini's only graded stakes winner out of a daughter of Awesome Again, whose daughters have produced 108 black-type winners, he has three graded winners out of mares by Awesome Again's sire Deputy Minister, including GISWs To Honor and Serve and Angela Renee.

Tarifa's female family is responsible for Horse of the Year Tiznow, GI Preakness Stakes winner Oxbow, and other GISWs Paynter and Sweet Azteca, with the Godolphin team joining the party in 2001 when John Ferguson Bloodstock purchased Tizdubai--a full-sister to Tiznow and granddam of Tarifa--as a weanling for $950,000 on behalf of Godolphin. Winner of the 2003 GII Sorrento Stakes, Tizdubai didn't produce a stakes performer herself, but her daughters have already produced seven, including MGSW Cabo Spirit (Pioneer of the Nile), who most recently won the GII California Crown John Henry Turf Championship Stakes Sept. 28.

Darley sold Kite Beach, dam of Tarifa, for $100,000 at the 2021 Keeneland November sale, when Tarifa was a weanling, to M T Stable. Kite Beach was sold again a few months later at the Fasig-Tipton Kentucky Winter Mixed sale for $115,000 to Calumet Farm with a two-day-old full-sister to Tarifa at her side. Since named Josie's Girl, that now-juvenile filly debuted with an off-the-board finish Sept. 24 at Horseshoe Indianapolis for MNM Racing LLC and trainer Eddie Kenneally. Kite Beach has a yearling colt by Knicks Go, didn't produce a foal in 2024, and was bred to Darley's Cody's Wish for next term.

DEVAUX RUNNERS COMPLETE 150-1 EXACTA IN BRYAN STATION

Two weeks after saddling She Feels Pretty (Karakontie {Jpn}) to a victory in the GI QE II Challenge Cup--the premier race for 3-year-old fillies during the Keeneland Fall Meet--trainer Cherie DeVaux sent out Klein Racing's Brilliant Berti (Noble Mission {GB}), the 3-1 second betting selection, and 44-1 outsider Depiction (More Than Ready) to a one-two finish in Saturday's $600,000 GIII Bryan Station Stakes, the richest event on the calendar for the sophomore male set.

The duo caboosed the field through the early exchanges, Brilliant Berti leading Depiction, as My Boy Prince (Cairo Prince) carved out slick early fractions of :22.49 and :44.95. The Canadian raider opened an imposing advantage approaching the stretch, but predictably began to weaken, setting things up for the swoopers. Having followed the move of favored Trikari

Brilliant Berti and Depiction | Coady Media

(Oscar Performance) into the lane, Brilliant Berti was switched off heels, quickly descended on the leaders with about a furlong to travel and got home first as Depiction leveled off beautifully to miss by a head. The lightly raced Herchee (Twirling Candy) ran well to be third ahead of Evade (Fr) (Wootton Bassett {GB}) in fourth.

“He’s shown us all year long what a talented horse he is,” said winning rider Brian Hernandez, Jr., who will call the shots aboard 'TDN Rising Star' Thorpedo Anna (Fast Anna) in next weekend's GI Breeders' Cup Distaff. “We’re just proud of him, especially for the Klein family (owner/breeder Klein Racing), for them to keep breeding these good horses like they do. It’s a proud moment for them. The only time I got nervous today was when we were in the Paddock and Richard (Klein) told me, ‘We’ve won stakes at Keeneland before but I’ve never gotten to come out in the infield for a winner circle picture,’ so I hoping like, ‘Man, I hope we can get it done for him today.’”

A debut fifth over the sometimes-quirky Stall-Wilson turf course at the Fair Grounds in February, Brilliant Berti rattled off three straight at Churchill in the space of 58 days--a maiden-breaking success May 2, a June 7 allowance and the American Derby on June 29. Heavily favored when relegated to second by Trikari in the GII Secretariat Stakes at Colonial Aug. 13, he picked a good time to bounce back, taking the $1.5-million Gun Runner Stakes by a length over Herchee Sept. 8, with Depiction beaten 2 1/4 lengths into fifth.

DeVaux will be busy at the Breeders' Cup as well, where her leading chances include Vahva (Gun Runner) in the GI Filly & Mare Sprint and GI Coolmore Turf Mile runner-up More Than Looks (More Than Ready) in the GI Mile.

Pedigree Notes:

The Berti(e) horses are synonymous with various iterations of the Klein Family--and vice versa, really--and Bertram Klein purchased Brilliant Berti's fourth dam, Clever Bertie (Timeless Native), for $14,000 during the back books of the 1992 Keeneland September Sale. Though she failed to make the races, Clever Bertie--a half-sister to Grade I winner Traitor and to Grade II winner Sun King--nevertheless became a valuable asset, producing six winners from eight to race, including her first foal Hurricane Bertie (Storm Boot), a three-time graded and Grade I-placed winner of over $940,000; and later Brilliant Berti's third dam Allamerican Bertie.

Winner of the GII Delaware Oaks and a narrow second to Farda Amiga (Broad Brush) in the GI Alabama Stakes in 2002, she was a two-time graded winner the following season and retired with earnings just shy of $800,000. Her seven winners as a broodmare included her second produce, the stakes-winning Homerun Bertie (Forestry).

Saint Bertie, the fourth foal out of Allamerican Bertie, was also unraced and bred just one horse to make the races, the Louisiana-bred Believe in Bertie, four times a winner at stakes level and twice placed in graded events at Churchill Downs.

The dam of the 2-year-old filly Hey Bertie (Kantharos), Believe in Bertie sold for $8,000 at last year's Keeneland November Sale while not in foal and was bred to Goldencents for her 2025 produce.

Brilliant Berti is the ninth graded winner for Noble Mission, who was sold to Japan in 2020 and who has six winners from his first crop of Japanese-breds this term.

Wathnan Racing hasn't had Hit Show for very long, but what they lack in longevity, the partnership has more than made for with success when the grey collected his second graded race for his latest connections in Saturday's GII Hagyard Fayette Stakes at Keeneland.

Victorious for breeder Gary and Mary West in his 4-year-old debut in a nine-furlong optional claimer at Churchill Downs on May 11, he was a non-factoring seventh as the favorite in the GIII Cornhusker Handicap at Prairie Meadows July 6. A half-length winner over Heroic Move (Quality Road) in the 8 1/2-furlong GIII West Virginia Governor's Stakes at Mountaineer Aug. 4, Hit Show was acquired privately by Wathnan prior to the Sept. 28 GII Lukas Classic Stakes. Closing from off the pace that day, the 3-1 shot posted the narrow victory while collecting his sixth lifetime victory.

Favored to make it three straight in Lexington, he was eased off the pace as longshot Bolzy took them through an opening quarter mile in :23.49. Nestled in between rivals in sixth as the leader cut out a :47.46 half, the Brad Cox runner was hustled into contention leaving the backstretch. Fanned four wide turning for home, the grey was muscled to the front by Florent Geroux midstretch and dug down deep to fend off the game Bolzy at the wire.

Hit Show | Coady Media/John Gallagher

Hit Show was victorious in two of three start at two--led by a 5 1/4-length debut win at Keeneland prior to a season-ending score at Oaklawn while facing optional claiming company. A runaway winner in the nine-furlong GIII Withers Stakes in his sophomore opener, he was only a nose back in second in the GII Wood Memorial prior to a fifth-place finish in the GI Kentucky Derby. Fourth in the GI Belmont Stakes, he rounded out the season with off-the-board finishes in the GII Jim Dandy Stakes and the GIII Oklahoma Derby.

Pedigree Notes:

Hit Show is out of Actress, winner of the GII Black-Eyed Susan Stakes and GIII Comely Stakes and an earner of $545,150. A daughter of Canadian Champion 3-year-old Filly Milwaukee Appeal (Milwaukee Brew), Actress produced her last registered foal in 2022, a Medaglia d'Oro filly named Blind Faith. She was bred to Curlin this term.

GSW Stay Hot may have been the 6-5 choice in the GII Twilight Derby after finishing in front of Atitlan in both a La Jolla Handicap win and a GII Del Mar Derby placing, but it was the latter who is an improving sort and inverted the results Saturday at Santa Anita to secure his first stakes win. Cathal (Ire) finished third in his first stakes try.

With Curlin's Kaos (Clubhouse Ride) speeding to the front early with his ears pricked, John M. B. O'Connor's Atitlan settled nicely along the rail in a covered-up fourth as Stay Hot lingered last. Jockey Hector Berrios had a loaded horse under him as Atitlan kept in touch with the first flight of his own accord while under a hold. As the field bunched up swinging into the final turn, Atitlan tipped out around the pacesetter, made a hole, and collared Curlin's Kaos with ease. Berrios encouraged him, but the race was over as he strode home powerfully and left the result in no doubt. Despite Stay Hot unwinding from the back of the pack, there was no catching Atitlan and he had to settle for runner-up honors.

"He's had a little bit of traffic problems in prior races, but today he seemed to relax really well and Hector [Berrios] was able to just wait and make one big move," said winning trainer John Shirreffs. "Hector, all month long, has come over to work him and every time he's come in [with a time] of 1:02 and we wonder if that is good enough. He said, 'Don't worry John, he's doing really well.' It worked out great."

Atitlan's seventh-place finish in his career debut this past May was a highly watched event due to the presence of winner Eagles Flight (Curlin), a half-brother to Horse of the Year Flightline (Tapit). Eagles Flight hasn't raced again, but Atitlan moved to the grass and has steadily progressed, resulting in a Del Mar win July 20, a pair of thirds in the aforementioned Del Mar Derby and La Jolla Handicap, and now his first stakes score in the graded Twilight Derby.

Pedigree Notes:

The Factor, a Lane's End stallion, is the sire of 43 black-type winners. Himself a multiple Grade I winner on dirt, the son of War Front has his own stakes winners balanced between dirt and turf, with even the two Grade I winners found among his 11 graded winners split right down the middle with one on each surface. Two of The Factor's stakes winners are out of Acatenango (Ger) mares, with Atitlan joining SW & MGSP Semper Sententiae (Sulamith {Ger}). Armanda (Ger), Atitlan's dam, is herself responsible for two of the 75 stakes winners out of daughters of Acatenango, as MGSW & GISP Astronaut (Quality Road) is also hers. Armanda, purchased by Anastasia Christiansen-Croy--breeder of Atitlan--at the 2012 Arqana

December sale for just under USD$50,000, has a yearling colt by West Coast named Airliner, didn't produce a foal in 2024, and was covered by both Maclean's Music and Charlatan for next term.

West Virginia-bred Coastal Mission has enjoyed plenty of success in his career, winning 13 of 24 starts, most of which came in the midst of a six-race win streak at Charles Town last year. Stepped up in class as a 5-year-old, the gelding has run with plenty of top-class older horses who will contest the Breeders' Cup next weekend including Sprint contender Mullikin (Violence) and Dirt Mile contender Skippylongstocking (Exaggerator). The last-out winner of the Parx Dirt Mile Sept. 21 in which he edged Repo Rocks (Tapiture) by three-quarters of a length, Coastal Mission jumped back into graded stakes company Saturday, taking the GIII Forty Niner Stakes.

Drawn outside at odds of 9-2, the Jeff Runco homebred planned to do his best running late, falling back ahead of only the slow-starting longshot Winit and racing widest of the bunch up the backstretch as Nelson Avenue handled the tempo. Sixth but still well in range into the far turn, Coastal Mission began to pick up the pieces while still four wide past the quarter pole. A determined Nelson Avenue was gutting it out along the rail but Coastal Mission had all the momentum up the outside and drove right on by in the final sixteenth, leaving the pacesetter to fight off a charging Winit who kept on for third. Race favorite Jefferson Street (Street Sense) never factored in fifth while second choice Messier (Empire Maker) was on the pace early but bled and was vanned off after fading at the top of the stretch.

"He's been very solid soundness wise," said Runco. "He loves to train - five weeks between races is perfect for him. It looked good on paper, and it looked good on the track. I wasn't sure he'd be quite that far back, but they went :45.70 for the half which was nice for us. 'Boca' [Arnaldo Bocachica] let him settle and waited - didn't rush him and was very patient with the horse. The horse wants to finish at the end, and he had a great trip."

Runco indicated that a next start in the GII Cigar Mile Stakes was likely.

"We skipped a race three weeks ago back home to come here. We wanted to give him a shot up here at the flat mile so we can look forward to the Cigar Mile in December."

Winning rider Arnaldo Bocachica, who earned a second career graded stakes win Saturday, added: "He broke sharp today. Usually he doesn't, but today he broke sharp. I saw three or four horses sending, so I just put him behind horses and he relaxed perfectly. He really relaxed good. I was just waiting for the moment to let him go, and every time I asked him a little bit, he gave me whatever I asked him for. He means a lot. He is the best horse that I've ever rode. He's taken me on a nice ride, I've been different places and he always tries hard. He is special to me, this horse."

Pedigree Notes:

Coastal Mission, one of 42 stakes winner for Great Notion, is a full-brother to MSW/GSP Lewisfield and a half to SP Sail On Breeze (Street Boss) as three of their dam's six winners from seven to race. Smart Crowd last produced a yearling Unified colt after missing to that sire for 2022. She was not reported bred this year or for 2025.

Two years ago, the GIII Bold Ruler Stakes propelled Runninsonofagun from maiden claimer to graded stakes winner as the 5-2 favorite just two starts after coming third to Jack Christopher (Munnings) in the GI H. Allen Jerkens Memorial Stakes. Fast forward to 2024 and times have changed as the 5-year-old gelded son of Gun Runner, winless since that Oct. 29, 2022 afternoon, found himself on the outside looking in on the wagering at 16-1. Raced exclusively in New York this season after missing nearly the entirety of his 4-year-old campaign, the John Toscano runner had been well beaten in each of his five starts all against optional claiming horses at Aqueduct and Saratoga including a last-out third behind a familiar foe in Little Vic (Practical Joke) over course and near distance Sept. 19.

Facing a compact field Saturday in his first graded stakes try since March 2023, Runninsonofagun drew outside with only race favorite Scotland (Good Magic) further out. A touch slow from the gate, he was outrun by all but the slower-starting Surveillance (Constitution) but was quickly into stride to make up the gap and race just inside the favorite while two wide into the far turn. The field bunched up behind the aforementioned Little Vic and Runninsonofagun had a wall of three horses in front of him to contend with off the turn. Switched out past the quarter pole, he put in a late charge which was met by late leader My Buddy B who came out to engage from inside. The pair exchanged a bump at the sixteenth pole and, while My Buddy B won the initial photo finish by a nose, a subsequent stewards' inquiry into the stretch contact reversed the order to award Runninsonofagun the win.

"He was injured and I had to lay him up," said Toscano. "It took him a while to get back into gear. His first couple of starts he was a little flat, but he progressed and got better and better. Hopefully, he's now back where he was. He was surging past [No. 5, My Buddy B] and that other horse came out and bumped him and knocked him off stride - but he didn't give up because after the wire he was by him again."

Toscano noted that Runninsonofagun would continue to frequent the New York circuit through the winter, saying: "We'll keep him here for the winter. There's a lot of winter stakes and we can pick our spots."

Pedigree Notes:

One of 33 stakes winners for top sire Gun Runner,

Runninsonofagun is out of the MSP mare Golden Artemis who last sold for $110,000 to Kilora Stud out of KEENOV in 2020 but sold twice previously for seven figures, having already produced the likes of GISW My Conquestadory (Artie Schiller), herself a $1.5m KEENOV broodmare buy in 2016. That half-sister is already the dam of Australian MSP runner Russian Conquest (Aus) (Russian Revolution {Aus}) and, closer to home, Gil Xpressbet Fountain of Youth Stakes runner up Bourbon War (Tapit). Yet another half-sister, Conquest Lil Miss (Horse Greeley), is responsible for GSP Salvator Mundi (Artie Schiller), SP Tapit's Conquest (Tapit) and GSP Manorelli (Outwork). Golden Artemis passed last year after foaling a Nyquist filly. Her 2-year-old, Sir Kingsley (Curlin), brought $500,000 at OBSMAR this year from On The Run Racing.

All-sources wagering (not including whole-card simulcasting at Keeneland) this fall totaled a record $210,165,945, besting the previous record of $208,907,655 set during the 2022 Fall Meet and marking an increase of 4.06% over last fall's $201,966,111.

All-sources wagering for opening Fall Stars Weekend, Oct. 4-6, was $49.5 million, just shy of the record $49.9 million handled during the 2022 Fall Stars Weekend. Wagering on opening Saturday's 11-race card, headlined by five graded stakes, was $22,356,693 which set a single-day Fall Meet record.

Additionally, the Pick 5 pool broke Keeneland records twice during the Fall Meet: Wednesday, Oct. 9, when the early Pick 5 pool of $2,427,483 bested the previous Keeneland record of $1,696,981 set on Toyota Blue Grass Day during the 2024 Spring Meet and again Wednesday, Oct. 23 when the late Pick 5 pool of $2,801,055 established both a Keeneland record and a national record for a Wednesday Pick 5, exceeding the $2,549,098 handled at Del Mar on Aug. 15, 2012. The Pick 5 carryover going into Oct. 23 also was a record $301,895.

On-track wagering of $16,597,162 increased 2.01% from last year's $16,270,885.

"The racing this Fall was just phenomenal really," added Keeneland Vice President of Racing Gatewood Bell. "It all starts with the quality stock that our horsemen bring to race here. The world's best owners, trainers and jockeys competing day in and day out under beautiful skies makes for a fantastic product that we are privileged to help showcase to our loyal fans and horseplayers alike. A big thank you to each of them and all those behind the scenes who have worked so hard to make this Fall Meet one to remember and celebrate."

KEENELAND CLOSES RECORD-BREAKING FALL MEET

Saturday marked the final day of Keeneland's 2024 Fall Meet which saw a season-record all-sources wagering total of $210 million boosted by record purse money that attracted full fields featuring the nation's top trainers, jockeys and horses.

Jockey Tyler Gaffalione earned the leading rider title, his eighth overall, with 24 total wins while trainer Brad Cox led all trainers with 14 wins including a record six stakes wins during the meet. Godolphin was the meet's leading owner with four wins.

"The Fall Meet was exceptional," said Keeneland President and CEO Shannon Arvin. "The class and quality of the horses and riders competing here are truly special, and we appreciate the tremendous support from our owners and trainers who make the choice to race with us. Blue skies and sunshine on each and every race day added to the atmosphere, showcasing all that is special about the Bluegrass. We thank our horsemen and our fans for their loyal support and are excited to share the new Paddock Building with everyone this time next year."

OCT. 27 INSIGHTS: MIDNIGHT BISOU'S FIRST FOAL DEBUTS AT CHURCHILL DOWNS

by Patrycja Szpyra

Midnight Bisou's only US-based offspring, Bisou, will debut at Churchill Downs Sunday | Sarah Andrew

7th-CD, $120k, Msw, 2yo, 6f, 3:55p.m. ET

RESTLESS RENEGADE (Into Mischief), a homebred for Three Chimneys Farm and Fern Circle Stables, debuts here on for Kenny McPeck a busy Sunday coast to coast for well-bred juveniles. Out of GI Darley Alcibiades Stakes victress and GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies runner-up--among three placings at the highest level--Restless Rider (Distorted Humor), the colt has three works over the Churchill Downs track since moving there in early October from Saratoga. This is the immediate female family of MGSW Private Vow (Broken Vow).

TJCIS PPs

11th-CD, $120k, Msw, 2yo, 1 1/16m, 5:55p.m. ET

Bisou (Curlin) is likely to be the most high-profile debuter on Sunday as the first foal of champion Midnight Bisou (Midnight Lute). His dam enjoyed a career which saw her retire as the wealthiest female racehorse in North America, and she brought $5-million in 2020 at the Fasig-Tipton 'Night of the Stars' in Kentucky from Chuck Allen, who was buying out his partners. Two years later, Japan swooped in--as largely expected in many circles--and bought her for a sales-topping $5.5-million at KEENOV while in foal to Tapit with Katsumi Yoshida signing the ticket. His dam's lone flagbearer in the States, with her delivering that Tapit filly in Japan in 2023 and producing a Kitanas Black (Jpn) filly in 2024, Bisou will race for Allen Racing and Bloom Racing Stable. This is the family of GSW & MGISP Verifying (Justify) as well as MGSP Stage Left. TJCIS PPs

4th-SA, $54k, Msw, 2yo, 6f, 5:30p.m. ET

Journalism (Curlin), the first foal of GSW & MGISP Mopotism (Uncle Mo) will make the races here for the partnership of Bridlewood Farm, Don Alberto Stable, Eclipse Thoroughbred Partners, Elayne Stables 5 LLC and Robert LaPenta after being purchased last year at the Fasig-Tipton Saratoga Yearling sale for $825,000. The bay comes into this race with an Oct. 19 work where he clocked four furlongs on the main track in :47.40 (3/71). Trainer Michael McCarthy will send him to post. To that one's inside is Mellencamp (Constitution), debuting for SF Racing LLC, Starlight Racing, Madaket Stables LLC, Dianne Bashor, Determined Stables, Robert E. Masterson, Tom Ryan, Waves Edge Capital LLC and Catherine Donovan. His unplaced dam American Model (Bayern) was a $600,000 yearling at the 2018 FTSAUG auction while her son brought $775,000 at KESEEP last year. The mare is a half-sister to MGISW American Gal (Concord Point) and that one's full-sibling SW & MGSP Americanize as well as GSP Magic Tap (Tapit). This is the immediate female family of Group 1 winner Reynaldothewizard (Speightstown); MGISW Seventh Street (Street Cry {Ire}); GSW & GISP Lake Avenue (Tapit); and GISP Marking (Bernardini).

TJCIS PPs

6th-SA, $54k, Msw, 2yo, f, 6 1/2f, 6:33p.m. ET

Cipriani (Bernardini) comes into this debut with a sparkling $875,000 OBSMAR price tag from early this spring, changing hands to Speedway Stables LLC. Sent to the barn of Bob Baffert, this daughter of the late Bernardini is the most recent offspring to the races for SW & GSP Salamera, who also produced $850,000 OBSSPR juvenile in-training grad Flying Drummer (Gun Runner). The mare is a half-sister to SP Adore You (Tactical Cat), whose claim to fame is as the dam of MSW Outadore (Outwork); MSW Piedi Bianchi (Overanalyze) and SW Mind Reader (Gemologist). The morning line tabs Cipriani at 2-5 odds with three of her last six works being bullets. TJCIS PPs

'TDN Rising Star' Long Neck Paula was pitched in against the boys by trainer Wesley Ward--as he is wont to do--in Saturday's $197,500 Bowman Mill Stakes at Keeneland and the calculated gamble paid off, as she held a late charge from Tough Magic to record the second black-type success of her young career.

Sent away the 11-4 second favorite exiting a 7 1/2-length victory in the Prairie Meadows Debutante Aug. 23, the $325,000 Keeneland September yearling turned $500,000 OBS March graduate hit the ground running and led early, but she was displaced on the front end by favored Macho Music (Maclean's Music), who zipped through an opening quarter in :21.59. Working hard to maintain the lead as they raced into the final three furlongs, Macho Music took his four rivals into the lane, but he began to feel the pinch, and Junior Alvarado sent Long Neck Paula to the front just inside the eighth pole. Cont.

Long Neck Paula | Coady Media

Tough Catch was pulled off the fence and into the clear to deliver his challenge, but the wire came first for Long Charge Paula. Terrapin Station took a photo for third over Macho Music, who was steadied for a couple of strides after jumping a shadow and re-rally for the show spot.

“She broke very sharp, then I used her a little bit just to get my position going forward,” the winning jockey commented. “I saw that (jockey) Luis Saez (aboard Macho Music) was intending to get the lead. He had to rush a little more at that point, so I was very happy where I was sitting with my filly. She was very good. By the time we hit the five-sixteenths pole, I knew she was ready and we started picking it up little by little. I knew I had enough horse, and she held on all the way to the wire.”

Named a 'Rising Star' on Churchill debut May 2, Long Neck Paula was a well-beaten third in the July 11 Schuylerville Stakes at Saratoga ahead of her demolition job in Iowa. She was scratched from Friday's Myrtlewood Stakes in favor of this colts' equivalent.

Winner of the 2018 GIII Forward Gal Stakes and third in this track's GII Lexus Raven Run Stakes that season, Take Charge Paula was acquired by WinStar for $475,000 at the Fasig-Tipton November Sale the following month. After selling the mare's first two foals for a combined $310,000, they struck gold with Long Neck Paula at Keeneland September last fall. Take Charge Paula is also responsible for a yearling Nyquist colt, a weanling colt by Cyberknife and was bred to Gunita for her 2025 produce. Click for the Equibase.com chart and VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

Quick to the front much like she'd done on three prior occasions, she put up all the fractions on an uncontested lead and rolled into the lane on a widening advantage against an overmatched field. It was 11 lengths back to Parlay and over nine lengths behind that one to third-place finisher Perfect Date. The victress has won all four of her career starts by a total of 23 3/4 lengths. A half-sister to stakes-placed Poker Partner (Weigelia), Silver Kiss is her dam's second to the races. Their 2023 half-sibling by Air Strike died and the 2024 Dominus was stillborne. Who Dey stepped back up into stakes company after getting some class relief at Belterra Park last out facing allowance runners Sept. 18. This year's GIII Matt Winn Stakes runner up, the 1-5 favorite in his return to Ohio-bred company, had a rough beginning from the middle of the gate and was outrun by the entire field early. Racing wide but with plenty of run into the far turn, he circled the field, loomed a threat to the leaders into the stretch and had to put away a gritty challenge from Fair and Square to just win by a neck. Special Aviator (center, blinkers) | Ryan Thompson

Settled in a ground-saving sixth as longshot Obliging (Munnings) closely pursued by It's Witchcraft showed the way through a :23.67 quarter, Special Aviator continued to bide her time through a :48.86 half-mile. Inching her way up to the front as the leader began to weaken and It's Witchcraft took aim at the top spot passing the quarter pole, the 10-1 chance drove between rivals turning for home, forged to the front in deep stretch and had enough left to fend off the closing Bellavinino by a neck at the wire. It's Witchcraft held third with Obliging hanging on for fourth.

Jolly Samurai kept his perfect record in tact with a game victory Friday night in the Clever Trevor Stakes at Remington Park.

A 2 1/2-length winner at first-asking Aug. 17 at this venue, his next step out was in the Sept. 29 Kip Deville Stakes, where he won by a neck over MSW Ring Seeker (Too Much Bling) and GSP Three Echoes (Echo Town). Bringing an 84 Beyer figure into this race off of that effort, Jolly Samurai found himself near the rear of the field after the jump as Dominant Spirit stepped forward to keep pacesetter company. Called on to rally as they swung for home, Jolly Samurai had to come six deep into the overland route, but was closing fast on the leaders, nailing Dominant Spirit late to win by a half-length. Medicine Dog kept on to maintain his third spot.

"I have to give a tip of the hat to this horse," trainer Danny Pish said. "What a nice horse. He just does his job with ease. He is a confident gelding who just likes his job. I never expect to win and I was sweating it as I watched the slower early fractions. They were moderate, but he showed his versatility in closing ground to get up for the win."

Pish added that the next likely step for Jolly Samurai would be a start in the Springboard Mile, which carries points for the 2025 Kentucky Derby.

The victor is the third from as many to the races for his dam Jolly Good, who has since produce a yearling filly named Jolly Good Time (Ride the Times) as well as a 2024 Caracaro filly.

Setting the pace through :22.88 and :46.59 fractions, she repelled a challenge from City Scene (Dominus) as they went through the turn, and left that one in her wake by 7 1/2 lengths late to pick up her fourth win in a row. She was last seen taking a pair of local stakes races at Thistledown, with her effort two back Sept. 5 in the Michael G. Mackey Angenora Stakes earning her a 90 Beyer for a three-length victory. EL JOURY (f, 2, Medaglia d'Oro--Up {Ire} {MGSW-Ire, G1SP-Fr, $379,468}, by Galileo {Ire}), placed sixth on debut Aug. 19 at Ellis Park and sixth Sept. 11 at Kentucky Downs, both races going a mile, found her footing at third-asking with blinkers on for the first time here. Sent off a chilly 13-1 carrying the Shadwell colors for her 1 1/8-mile journey, the Brendan Walsh-trainee did not allow the pacesetter too far from her sight as she tracked that one from second. The tight racing began around the far turn as she was stuck between rivals and floated three wide entering the final stretch. On a narrow lead entering the final furlong and with challenges looming on both sides, she dug in gamely as a pack of four hit the wire together in a blanket finish.

ROOKIE CARD (c, 2, Adios Charlie--Glamalert, by Vindication) atoned for a pair of tough-luck losses in his first two trips to the post to take the Saturday opener at Aqueduct with a fair bit of authority. Drawn the fence as the 1-2 jolly, the $165,000 OBS June breeder was soon in front for Dylan Davis and had company to his outside in the form of the once-raced Atlal (Quality Road) through an opening couple of furlongs in :22.35. Always appearing to be traveling the better of the two despite failing to build any sort of lead around the turn, the Florida-bred responded when set down in upper stretch, opened an unassailable advantage into the final furlong and won it by a good five lengths despite jumping the shadow cast by the winning post.

He was tenderly handled on the gallop out, but returned to the winner's enclosure with his neck bowed and apparently none the worse for the incident.

Rookie Card was beaten a neck into second behind 'TDN Rising Star' and subsequent GI Champagne Stakes runner-up Tip Top Thomas (Volatile) on the Travers Day undercard at Saratoga Aug. 24 and finished ahead of Keewaydin (Instagrand), who returned to carry Davis to 1 3/4-length maiden score two weeks ago, good for a 90 Beyer. Fourth home in the Aug. 24 contest was Sovereignty (Into Mischief), who will be one of the favorites for Sunday's GIII Street Sense Stakes at Churchill Downs despite finishing runner-up to Praetor (Into Mischief) going a mile here on Sept. 27. Rookie Card was second by a half-length at 2-5 in a 6 1/2-furlong maiden Sept. 21.

Rookie Card is the last live produce for his dam, a half-sister to GI Ruffian Handicap winner Swift Temper (Giant's Causeway) and German listed winner Croisiere (Capote). The colt's third dam is three-time Grade I-winner Gorgeous (Slew o' Gold), a half-sister to 1990 GI Kentucky Oaks winner Seaside Attraction (Seattle Slew).

HANDS OF TIME (c, 2, Liam's Map--Rolexa, by Bernardini), who had tried to come from off the pace in his previous three tries, showed a new dimension when sent to the front and led every step of the way. Sent off as the 9-5 favorite, Hands of Time broke sharply and set fractions :23.94, :48.83 and 1:13.73 before Freedom Glider (American Pharoah) challenged him in the stretch. Changing barns to Brittany Russell and adding blinkers for his first-time out in his new state, the 7-2 chance stalked 3-5 favorite King's Road (Quality Road) as that one stepped out to set the tempo through :23.74 and :48.04 splits. Closing ranks into the far turn, he launched a bid which sailed him into the lead passing the quarter pole and steadily expanded his advantage over the longtime leader to win by 8 3/4 lengths. HOTAZHELL BATTLES TO FUTURITY SUCCESS

by Tom Frary

It was as tight as it gets between the two Irish colts at the end of Saturday's G1 William Hill Futurity Trophy, with Silverton Hill's G2 Beresford Stakes and G3 Tyros Stakes winner Hotazhell (GB) (Too Darn Hot {GB}--Azenzar {GB}, by Danehill Dancer {Ire}) nosing out Delacroix (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) for the Doncaster feature. Positioned close to the early pace by Shane Foley, the 11-1 shot moved to Ballydoyle's 15-8 favourite passing two out and the two colts with the most pattern-race experience soon had it between them.

There was some leaning and bumping after battle commenced, but it was a case of six of one and half a dozen of the other with Hotazhell having his nose marginally ahead in the bobber. There was a 4 3/4-length margin back to Wimbledon Hawkeye (GB) (Kameko) in third as the unexposed contenders struggled to make an impact.

"He's a very tough horse and he gave everything and dug in deep there," winning trainer Jessie Harrington said. "He loves a battle, I don't think he'll ever win by a large margin--he loves just looking at the other horse and saying 'I'm better than you'. He's a little bit feisty, he isn't called Hotazhell for nothing!"

Hotazhell, whose sole defeats came when fourth on debut behind Scorthy Champ (Ire) (Mehmas {Ire}) at Leopardstown and at the hands of Henri Matisse (Ire) (Wootton Bassett (GB)) in The Curragh's G2 Futurity Stakes, is being aimed at one of the 2,000 Guineas according to his trainer. Cont. p3

FEED THE FLAME WILL STAND AT HARAS DE LA HETRAIE NEXT YEAR

Group 1 winner Feed The Flame (GB) (Kingman {GB}) will stand at Haras de la Hetraie in 2025, the stud announced on Saturday. The G1 Grand Prix de Paris victor's fee will be €4,500.

Retired in September, the bay was bred by Monceaux, Lordship Stud and Clear Light SAS. Offered by Ecurie des Monceaux at the 2021 Arqana August Sale, he brought €270,000 from SAS Larrieu Gerard, and would go on to run for Jean-Louis Bouchard. The 'TDN Rising Star' was kept in training at four, and he placed three times at the highest level in 2024--third-place finishes in the Prix Ganay, and Coronation Cup--and a runner-up effort in the Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud in June.

The half-brother to multiple group winner Sacred Life (Fr) (Siyouni (Fr)) is out of Knyazhna (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}).

"We are delighted to welcome Feed The Flame at La Hêtraie," said Pascal Noue. "He made a strong impression to me with his finish in the Grand Prix de Paris, going from last to first in 250m demonstrating an uncommon capacity to accelerate. It is often the stamp of great stallions." Cont. p10

“I think he might get 10 furlongs next year, but we’ll start off over a mile,” she added. “I’m not sure he’ll get a mile and a half, but he is a very relaxed horse. He’s in the Irish and he’ll be in the English Guineas, so we’ll see how the spring unfolds.”

Aidan O’Brien said of Delacroix, “He’s run a stormer. We hope that bodes well for next year.”

James Owen said of Wimbledon Hawkeye, “He was lost in the ground. He showed his heart and how good he is in the way he battled on to finish third. James [Doyle] said it’s a lot softer here today than it was at Newmarket. He was struggling in it, but he’s a lovely horse for next year. I’m thrilled to be here mixing it at the top and he’s done us proud.”

Pedigree Notes

Hotazhell, who becomes the third group 1 winner for his second-crop sire, is out of Azenzar (GB) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}) who was sold for just 16,000gns at last year’s Tattersalls December Mares Sale and whose yearling colt by No Nay Never was a 380,000gns purchase by M V Magnier and White Birch Farm at this month’s Tattersalls Book 2. She is a granddaughter of the listed winner and G3 Prix Vanteaux-placed Renashaan (Fr) (Darshaan {GB}) whose daughter Alexander Goldrun (Ire) (Goldaway {Ire}) captured five of these. She was also responsible for the G1 Poule d’Essai des Poulains runner-up Medecis (GB) (Machiavelian), while this is also the family of the dual G1 Gold Cup hero Royal Rebel (GB) (Robellino) and the triple group 1 winner Getaway (Ger) (Monsun {Ger}).

MAKE YOU SMILE WINS THE HARRIS HILL

by Tom Frary

An ability to handle testing ground was paramount at Newbury on Saturday and Lit Lung Lee's Make You Smile (Ire) (Mehmas {Ire}) had enough alacrity to overcome and register a breakthrough black-type success in the G3 Harris Hill Stakes. In rear early, the 5-1 shot who had won with authority on debut over the same course, seven-furlong trip and ground last month gave his all for Harry Davies to run down the 9-4 favourite Yarough (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) in the dying strides and prevail by a nose.

"He's never really shown a lot at home and is a very laid-back type," Davies said of the Hugo Palmer-trained winner. "He'll only do what he has to and he really motored that last furlong. He's got a lot of talent and I'm sure he'll improve again. I'm sure today, having had to chase the runner-up down, he'll have learned."

CITY LIGHT'S MIMOS STRIKES FOR PRIX

MIESQUE UPSET by Sean Cronin

Nicolas Le Roch saddled Gezora (Fr) (Almanzor {Fr}) to win last week's G3 Prix des Reservoirs at Deauville and the conditioner continued on a roll when Mimos (Fr) (City Light {Fr})--Gentle Whisper {GB}, by Lawman {Fr} defied her outsider status to prevail in Saturday's G3 Prix Miesque at Chantilly.

The 96-5 chance, who hit the board in Craon's Aug. 31 Listed Criterium de l'Ouest before running fifth in this month's Listed Criterium de Bordeaux, was steadied to stalk the pace in third after breaking to the fore from the inside stall. Scrubbed along soon after turning for home, she came under sterner urging inside the final quarter-mile and kept on relentlessly to deny Lhakpa (Ire) (Siyouni {Fr}) by a neck in the dying strides for a career high. Cont. p6

Carlos Laffon-Parias trainee and G3 Prix du Calvados third Iron Bird (GB) (Showcasing {GB}) held every chance in the closing stages and finished a short-neck adrift of the runner-up.

“The stable is in great form with two Group-winning 2-year-old fillies in one week and it is just fantastic,” said trainer Nicolas Le Roch. “I am over the moon and thanks must go to the team at home at Haras du Bois as they work so hard to make days like today happen. We knew she had the quality for this, but things didn’t go her way in her last two starts. We kept her too handy two starts back and she didn’t breathe properly at Bordeaux [last time]. We decided to employ waiting tactics today and it backed our analysis.”

Pedigree Notes

Mimos, who becomes the second stakes scorer and first pattern-race winner for her sire, is the latest of two foals out of Gentle Whisper (GB) (Lawman {Fr}), whose siblings include stakes-winning GIII Valley View Stakes third High Maintenance (GB) (Danehill) and the stakes-placed Charlotte Bronte (GB) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}). High Maintenance is the dam of two black-type performers while Charlotte Bronte’s trio is headed by Listed Prix Joubert victrix and G3 Give Thanks Stakes third Lily Hart (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}). Gentle Whisper is also kin to the dams of multiple Group-winning Australian distaffer Whispering Brook (Aus) (Hinchinbrook {Aus}) and the stakes-winning G3 Premio Sergio e Elena CUMANI runner-up Stone Tornado (GB) (Toronado {Ire}). The March-foaled bay’s stakes-winning third dam Ocean’s Answer (Northern Answer) is a three-parts sister to G1 Dewhurst Stakes-winning sire Storm Bird (Northern Dancer) and his GI Top Flight Handicap-winning full-sister Northernette.

VALUE DURABILITY SUCCESS

Mario Baratti, raced in mid division through the early fractions of this straight six-furlong test. Coaxed along to reduce arrears passing halfway, the 12-1 chance went second entering the final furlong and ran on well under continued rousting to prevail by 1 1/2 lengths from Tazara (Ire) (Blue Point {Ire}). British challenger Quinault (Ger) (Oasis Dream {GB}) was the same margin away in third.

"My instructions were to try to get her to relax," explained winning rider Stephane Pasquier. "She did just that and it was relatively easy in the finish. She has quite a high cruising speed and runs on rather than quickening."

RACE PREVIEWS

MARANOA CHARLIE HEADS SUNDAY SAINT-CLOUD CAST by Tom Frary

There are a trio of elite-level contests at Saint-Cloud on Sunday, with the Criterium International boasting arguably the most exciting protagonist in Maranoa Charlie (Fr) (Wootton Bassett {GB}) who looks to cap an unbeaten juvenile campaign. Having won his first three starts by a cumulative margin of nearly 20 lengths, including the G3 Prix Thomas Bryon over this mile trip and track earlier this month, Peter Maher, Carl Fitzgerald and John Baxter's TDN Rising Star is all substance and little hype as he faces his sternest test to date taken on exclusively by overseas raiders.

Another TDN Rising Star in the line-up is Ballydoyle's Twain (Ire) (Wootton Bassett {GB}), who is backed up eight days after his six-length debut win at Leopardstown which is a tactic that Aidan O'Brien has employed successfully at this meeting in the past. Cont. p10

Ryan Moore favours him over the stable's Arqana Series Criterium d'Automne winner Mount Kilimanjaro (Fr) (Siyouni {Fr}), while Joseph O'Brien boosts a strong Irish challenge with the Goffs Million scorer Apples And Bananas (Ire) (Wootton Bassett {GB}). Valmont, Ballylinch and Ecurie des Charmes' G3 Solario Stakes runner-up Matauri Bay (Ire) (Lope De Vega {Ire}) is another major player.

Trio Set For Criterium De Saint-Cloud...

Disappointingly, Aidan O'Brien has had to withdraw the filly Ballet Slippers (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) from the Criterium de Saint-Cloud, leaving just three to compete in an edition of the 10-furlong test which has no French-trained runners and whose cast includes Harvey (Fr) (Le Havre {Ire}) who has already been exposed when a distant third to Maranoa Charlie (Fr) (Wootton Bassett {GB}) in the G3 Prix Thomas Bryon. That leaves Coolmore and Westerberg's G2 Beresford Stakes runner-up Tennessee Stud (Ire) (Wootton Bassett {GB}) and Ahmad Al Shaikh's G3 Zetland Stakes runner-up Green Storm (Ire) (Circus Maximus {Ire}) in a probable match, with the former's form boosted on Saturday by Hotazhell (GB) (Too Darn Hot {GB}).

Grosvenor Square Takes On His Elders In The Royal Oak

Double Major | Scoop Dyga

Three-year-olds have won four of the last five renewals of the G1 Prix Royal-Oak at Saint-Cloud and Ballydoyle's Grosvenor Square (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) looks a likely candidate to add to that tally in the near-two-mile feature. In all likelihood, the liberating front-running tactics applied in The Curragh's G3 Irish St Leger Trial Stakes which he dominated by 20 lengths will be adopted again by Ryan Moore but an easy lead is probably out of the question with Nick Bradley Racing's similarly freewheeling G3 Cumberland Lodge Stakes winner Al Qareem (Ire) (Awtaad {Ire}) in attendance along with the Wertheimers' defending title-holder Double Major (Ire) (Daiwa Major {Jpn}). He led at every step as he registered a wide-margin win in this 12 months ago, but this is a deeper race and the pace pressure is much keener this time.

If there is one who could benefit from any pace collapse it is OTI Management's course-and-distance G3 Prix Gladiateur winner and Arc fifth Sevenna's Knight (Ire) (Camelot {GB}), while there is always the prospect of another day in the sun for the veteran stayer supreme Trueshan (Fr) (Planteur {Ire}).

He added, "In addition, Feed The Flame is a nice horse, being 16.1½ h.h (1m66), athletic and with a lot quality. He has the look of a good horse, and it will be a pity to restrict him to only National Hunt production only because he is standing at La Hêtraie and that his dam is a daughter of Montjeu... A horse like him, son to champion sire Kingman, has everything to produce high class Flat horses. I would like to thank Jean Louis Bouchard for trusting us and also Gérard Larrieu (Chantilly Bloodstock) for his help."

JBBA WELCOMES SOTTASS TO THE JAPANESE STALLION RANKS

Arc hero Sottass (Fr) (Siyouni {Fr}) has been sold and he will stand under the Japan Bloodhorse Breeders' Association banner at Shinzunai Stallion Station beginning in 2025. The news was confirmed by Coolmore to TDN Europe on Saturday morning.

Bred by Ecurie des Monceaux, the €340,000 Arqana August grad and Jean-Claude Rouget trainee also won the G1 Prix du Jockey Club and ran third in the Arc at three. Kept in training at four, he added the G1 Prix Ganay besides his Arc heroics for Peter Brant's White Birch Farm before retiring to Coolmore Stud in Ireland for the 2021 season. His eldest foals are juveniles of this year, and he has sired eight winners to date.

Japanese group winner Shin Emperor (Fr), a full-brother to Sottass who topped Arqana's August Sale at €2,100,000 in 2022, ran third in the G1 Tokyo Yushun (Japanese Derby) and G1 Irish Champion Stakes this term.

The duo are out of the late blue hen Starlet's Sister (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), also the dam of American champion and multiple Grade I winner Sistercharlie (Ire) (Myboycharlie {Ire}), and multiple group/graded winner My Sister Nat (Fr) (Acclamation {GB}), who placed thrice at the highest level.

Fellow Coolmore stallion Magna Grecia (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) is also on the move and will be based at March Hare Stud in 2025. A winner of the 2018 G1 Futurity Trophy and 2018 G1 2000 Guineas for Aidan O'Brien and the Coolmore partners, the 340,000gns Tattersalls December foal has his second crop racing this year. A half-brother to multiple Group 1 winner and current Coolmore stallion St Mark's Basilica (Fr) (Siyouni {Fr}), he has 44 winners so far, including French listed winner Myconian (Ire).

Fees for both stallions will be announced at a later date.

STRONG DEMAND POSITIVE THEME AS CURTAIN FALLS ON ARQANA OCTOBER

After five days of selling that saw a pair of €500,000 yearling colts by Night Of Thunder (Ire) and Kingman (GB) share topper honours, the Arqana October Yearling Sale concluded with a second day of Part III in Deauville.

The clearance rate for 604 sold from 730 offered was 83% for an aggregate of €29,413,000 (+12%). This year marked the fifth consecutive October Sale reached 80% or higher. In addition, the total average was €48,251 (+9%), nearing the elusive €50,000 mark for the first time. The median also rose 14% to €28,500. Sustained demand from all levels of the market resulted in 68 yearlings bringing €100,000 or more (60 in 2023), and the number selling for €200,000 also increased to 22 (12 in 2023).

The final day of trade featured a son of Sea The Moon (Ger) (lot 729) change hands for €50,000 to the Broadhurst Agency.

From the same family as G1 Preis der Diana heroine Palmas (Ger) (Lord Of England {Ger}), the colt is out of Panja (Ire) (Dalakhani {Ire}) and is a half-brother to the stakes-placed Diadema (Fr) (De Treville {GB}). Haras d'Ombreville offered the grandson of dual German Group 3 winner Peace Royale (Ger) (Sholokov {Ire}).

A daughter of Bated Breath (GB) (lot 775) was the highest-priced member of her sex on Saturday. She sold to Nexus Consulting for €31,000 from the consignment of Haras de Castillon. Out of the Shalaa (Ire) mare Sundaze (Fr), the bay is related to Italian group winner Trip To Rhodos (Fr) (Rail Link {GB}) and Scandinavian group winner Brownie (Fr) (Sunday Break {Jpn}).

Saturday's trade saw 120 lots sold (81%) from 149 offered for a gross of €1,340,500. The average dropped to €11,171 (-23%) and the median was €9,000 (-25%).

Leading all vendors was Ecurie des Monceaux, managed by Henri Bozo, who sold 26 yearlings for a gross of €3,140,000. Second on that table was Lucie Lamotte and Gwenael Monneraye's La Motteraye, who sold 33 yearlings for €2,561,000. Anna Sundstrom of Coulonces was third at €1,703,000 for 21 yearling sold.

Top of the buyers' sheet were the duo of Anthony Stroud and Matt Coleman of Stroud Coleman Bloodstock, who bought 10 yearlings for €1,912,000. Elliot Bloodstock Services' Alex Elliott was second at €1,330,000 for 12 head, while Meridian International's Ghislain Bozo bought a baker's dozen for €1,215,000.

The only Kingman yearling in the catalogue sold for €500,000, while Night Of Thunder, who also had a €500,000 colt, averaged €275,667 for three sold. Wootton Bassett (GB), who has been enjoyed an extremely good year with his juveniles, averaged €268,750 for four yearlings.

Arqana's post-sale statement read, "The last five days have concluded in the best possible way, and we can only be satisfied with the results. They testify to the appetite for French production, and we'd like to thank all the buyers who made the trip, as well as all our vendors for their hard work and endurance over an intense week.

"The sale saw international demand, and the French were not to be outdone. The whole of France was represented among the buyers, at all market levels. Numerous French or French-based trainers were active right from Part I, such as Yann Barberot who bought one of the sale's top prices, a son of Night Of Thunder (Ire) consigned by Haras du Mont dit Mont for French owners, and Fabrice Chappet who purchased a son of Victor Ludorum (GB) for Jean-Christophe Moran. We'd like to salute this fine French business, which contributes to the dynamism of our industry. All these yearlings are eligible for the Arqana Series next year." Cont. p12

Still a maiden when running TDN Rising Star Powerful Glory (Ire) (Cotai Glory {GB}) to a neck in Newbury's G2 Mill Reef Stakes last month, La Bellota was sent to ParisLongchamp for the G1 Prix de l'Abbaye and made no impact before finishing fourth in the G3 Cornwallis Stakes at Newmarket five days later. Thriving for the busy spell, he was able to travel comfortably to the lead after the first two furlongs in first-time blinkers and forge enough of an advantage to deny the staying-on Diego Ventura for his black-type breakthrough.

"He's been a busy horse but unfortunately for him, he keeps trying so we've got to keep going," trainer John Ryan said. "We were probably unlucky going to France, he missed the break and in a race such as that, you are not going to get away with it. He didn't run too badly last time at Newmarket when he got caught in the middle and I knew there was a decent race in him."

"He's so game. We put blinkers on today to help him concentrate as despite all his runs, he's still very green," he added. "It's nice for a small yard to have a good horse to carry us through, we're down to 10 horses now, we need horses like this."

La Bellota, who is entered in next week's Tattersalls Autumn Horses-in-Training Sale, is the second foal out of a full-sister to the G2 Ridgewood Pearl Stakes winner Beshayir (GB) whose dam is the dual listed scorer and G2 Prix Jean Romanet runner-up Bahia Breeze (GB) (Mister Baileys {GB}). From the family of the G2 Criterium de Maisons-Laffitte winner Classic Flower (GB) (Calyx {GB}), her yearling colt by Kodiak (GB) was a 50,000gns purchase by JS Bloodstock and Tom Clover Racing at the recent Tattersalls October Book 2.

Unplaced in the G3 Firth Of Clyde Stakes and Listed Redcar Two Year Old Trophy since switching from Archie Watson to Ollie Sangster, Ellaria Sand was the one who relished this heavy ground the most as she took a step forward to open her black-type account. Always travelling easily behind the leading group, she arrived alongside Saqqara Sands before edging ahead approaching the furlong pole and into the clear.

Jockey David Egan was impressed. "Ollie [Sangster] said she'd love the ground and she was comfortable on it whereas everything else was off the bridle at halfway." The trainer added, "I thought she ran well the last day and was crying out for the step up to seven and we knew she'd handle the ground."

Entered in the Tattersalls December Mares Sale, Ellaria Sand becomes the second black-type winner from the first crop of her sire who is also responsible for the dam's filly foal. A half to the G3 Istanbul International Trophy runner-up Rekdhat (Ire) (Shamardal) and to the dam of the G3 Thunder Road Stake winner Earls Rock (Ire) (Fascinating Rock {Ire}), Ellaria is also a granddaughter of the G1 Nassau Stakes heroine Zahrat Dubai (GB) (Unfuwain).

Kicking clear approaching the furlong pole, the 11-10 favourite hit the line strong for an impressive six-length success from Celestial Pearl (Ire) (Kodiac {GB}). "She impressed me in how professionally she raced and I barely had to ask her a question," jockey Hector Crouch said. "She's a good-moving filly, so I think she'll enjoy a sounder surface even though she got through that testing ground well." Ralph Beckett added, "I'd say we'll see how she is in the Spring and think about an Oaks trial and go from there. Secret Gesture came out of this race--I'm not saying she's as good as her, but if she's got some of her ability it'll be okay." The aforementioned Persica, who was eventually eighth in the Ascot feature and was successful in the Listed Doonside Cup, is the first foal out of the dam who captured the Listed Champagne Stakes. Related to Pivotal's G1 South African Cape Guineas-winning sire Noordhoek Flyer (SAf) and the G1 Prix Maurice de Gheest heroine Cherokee Rose (Ire), Rubira's yearling colt by Camelot (GB) was a 25,000gns purchase by Gaynestown Stables at this month's Tattersalls Book 1. Square D'Alboni | Scoop Dyga

Square D'Alboni backed up a July 20 debut ninth at Doncaster with a breakthrough score at Epsom in August and lined up for this black-type bow returning off a five-length conditions win at Salisbury last month. Breaking sharply for an immediate lead, he was untroubled throughout and cruised clear in hand inside the final quarter-mile to easily outclass Lord Wootton Cen, geared down, by a facile four lengths for a career high.

"He is a super horse and won as he pleased," commented winning rider Maxime Guyon. "He definitely enjoyed the [heavy] ground and quickened impressively on the bridle. He really gave me a great feel and ought to have a bright future." Cont. p16

Positioned in fourth for the most part here, he powered forward in the home straight to seize control approaching the final furlong and was pushed out in the closing stages to comfortably account for the pacesetter Any Moon for a second black-type triumph.

"He is a very good horse who didn't really have things go his way [at ParisLongchamp] last time when he quickened and sprinted much too early," explained trainer Francis Graffard. "He is not yet the finished product and, physically, there is more improvement to come. I wanted to give him an easy race, a confidence booster, before putting him away until next year. This being achieved, we can look forward to 2025."

Map Of Stars, the second of three foals, is one of two scorers produced by G1 Prix Vermeille heroine Bateel (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}), herself a half-sister to Listed Prix Charles Laffitte victrix Basemah (Fr) (Lemon Drop Kid) out of G2 Pretty Polly Stakes runner-up Attractive Crown (Chief's Crown). WORLDWIDE NEWSKIZUNA HALF-SISTER TO FOREVER YOUNG UNDEFEATED IN ARTEMIS STAKES

by Heather Anderson

Nakayama newcomers' winner Brown Ratchet (Jpn) became the 35th stakes winner (22nd group) for Shadai Stallion Station resident Kizuna (Jpn) in the G3 Artemis Stakes on Saturday.

The 3-1 third choice and half-sister to GI Breeders' Cup Classic hopeful Forever Young (Jpn) (Real Steel {Jpn}) broke alertly in a battling second as Mistress (Jpn) (Kizuna {Jpn}) led. More than a touch keen, she eventually settled as Kyoei Bonita (Jpn) (Isla Bonita {Jpn}) kept a close eye on the leader. More relaxed turning for home, Brown Ratchet saved every inch of ground against the rail until the field straightened.

Asked for her best at the 450-metre mark, she surged through a gap a furlong from home and edged past the pacesetter to win by 1 1/4 lengths. It was extremely tight for second, with five horses vying for that honour. Cont. p18

Mistress held on for place, a head to the good of second favourite Shonan Xanadu (Jpn) (Kizuna {Jpn}), who closed from midfield to be third, a neck in front of Shihorin (Jpn) (Maurice {Jpn}) in fourth. Only a nose behind was My Element (Jpn) (Epiphaneia {Jpn}), the same margin in front of race favourite Kamunyak (Jpn) (Black Tide {Jpn}) in sixth.

Pedigree Notes

Northern Racing acquired Congrats mare Forever Darling privately after her racing career. The 11-year-old, who won the GII Santa Ynez Stakes, has four winners from five to race counting Brown Ratchet and G3 Saudi Derby/G2 UAE Derby winner and GI Kentucky Derby third Forever Young. Her yearling filly is by Epiphaneia (Jpn) and her colt foal is by Rey De Oro (Jpn).

Second dam Darling My Darling (Deputy Minister) won a pair of American listed races, and was second in the GI Frizette Stakes and GI Matron Stakes. She is the dam of Heavenly Love, successful in the GI Alcibiades Stakes and herself the dam of GI Blue Grass Stakes hero and Kentucky Derby second Sierra Leone (Gun Runner), who is also pointing toward the Breeders' Cup Classic. Japanese Horse of the Year and sire Zenno Rob Roy (Jpn) (Sunday Silence) is a Sunday Silence half-brother to Darling My Darling.

VIA SISTINA DELIVERS “WINX-LIKE” PERFORMANCE IN THE COX PLATE

by Kit Gow

Via Sistina sets a new record in the Cox Plate | Bronwen Healy

There was a lot of breaths being held since Tuesday morning, where Via Sistina (Ire) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}) and James McDonald parted ways in front of the Breakfast With The Best crowd at the Valley, and all of them became a collective sigh of relief on Saturday when the 7-year-old mare stormed clear in the same home straight to secure a 8l victory over a quality G1 Cox Plate field.

Japanese raider Prognosis (Jpn) (Deep Impact {Jpn}) overtook a tiring Pride Of Jenni (Aus) (Pride Of Dubai {Aus}) on the turn, but could not make any ground on Chris Waller's star mare, with Broadsiding (Aus) (Too Darn Hot {GB}) battling gamely into third place a further 2l behind.

Rising out of the saddle with 50 metres still to go, James McDonald held his whip aloft as the mare, now a five-time Group 1 winner, sailed across the line to deliver him his third Cox Plate in a row.

“I just wanted to keep it smooth, and she loved it,” he said. “She won like Winx (Aus) (Street Cry {Ire}), she blended, and, gee, it's just a phenomenal performance. It's pretty surreal.”

He had thought that Tuesday's incident had snuffed his chances for the weekend, “I think there was a fantastic picture there when I popped myself up and looked and watched her gallop away, and I think if looks could tell a story, we were stuffed.”

But Via Sistina showed they were far from “stuffed”, bolting home to hand the Kiwi jockey his 100th career Group 1 win in the process.

Waller was understandably quite emotional following the performance. It was his fifth win in the event, following his former star Winx's four successive victories. Via Sistina's time of 2:01.07 carves nearly two seconds off the great mare's 2017 record of 2:02.94.

“It was a big week, but I've just had full support from the owners, my staff, all the team, Moonee Valley,” he said. “It's just been overwhelming. There's not been any negativity, only positive vibes. I'm proud of her, so proud of her. There's probably 10 key factors, and it's not anything else except common sense, simple as that.

“We never lost faith and just followed our instincts. We've had to do these things before. You just had to forget what happened on Tuesday, she's a good horse and it was my job to prove it.”

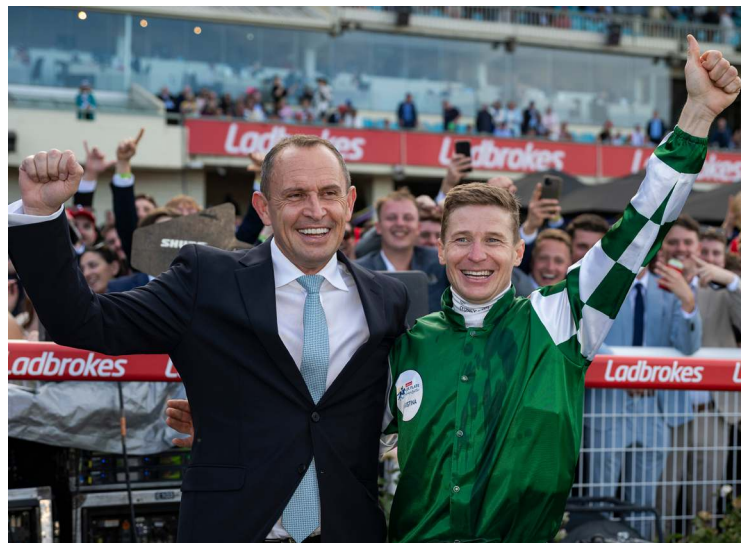

Vin Cox, general manager of the Yulong operation, was effusive with his praise for the mare.

“You don't ever expect to win a race the stature of a Cox Plate in that fashion,” he said. “Course-record time and she blew it apart. It was stunning. So happy for the boss (Mr Zhang) and his family, who put a lot into the game.

“Chris (Waller) was always very confident and horses that get to this level are pretty tough by definition, so they are going to cop setbacks. Not that it was a setback as such, but it was not the plan.”

EL CASTELLO ON SONG, RECORDS FOURTH STRAIGHT IN SPRING CHAMPION S.

by Josh Spasaro

Castelvecchio (Aus)'s reputation keeps climbing as his son, El Castello (Aus), remained undefeated by winning the G1 Spring Champion S. at Randwick, marking a first Group 1 triumph for his sire, who has now produced three Group winners in under three weeks.

It was his fourth consecutive victory, holding off a late surge from Henlein (Aus) (Dundeel {NZ}) for Anthony Cummings and Josh Parr.

Cummings turned his focus to next Saturday's G1 Victoria Derby at Flemington. "Standing here today, the decision is yes," he told 7Horse racing after the race.

"But we have to get him home, make sure he is okay and tick a fair few boxes before we do that.

"He's just a very good horse, the preparation went perfectly."

Parr has been on El Castello in three of his four wins this preparation. "Wow. That was thrilling, I tell you. The two went down the side, they took off and I just said, 'No, not just yet my man, let's just wait'. I was able to wait. We topped the hill, and I just briefly started to let him go and his ears just slightly went different directions, he was waiting for some company," he said.

El Castello | Magic Millions

Pedigree Notes

Castelvecchio, who stands at Arrowfield Stud for A$22,000 (inc GST), celebrated another victory as his filly Double Market (Aus) took out the G2 Fillies Classic at Moonee Valley earlier in the day.

Cummings purchased the Cambridge Stud-bred El Castello for A$220,000 from their draft at the 2023 Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale, and he now has A$1,625,975 from seven starts.

El Castello is the second foal and first winner for his dam Word Games (Aus) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}), a metropolitan winning half-sister to the dual Group 1 winner Fiveandahalfstar (Aus) (Hotel Grand {Aus}), who was bred and trained by Cummings to win the Victoria Derby and the G1 BMW S. Word Games foaled an Almanzor (Fr) filly in early September and a filly by that same stallion last year. Cont. p21
