'LEGEND OF A HORSE' BRADSELL HEADS EXCITING BC BRACE FOR WATSON

Bradsell | Sara Gordon

By Emma Berry

DEL MAR, USA -- Ahead of the big day on Saturday, Friday's Breeders' Cup card is all about the youngsters, and the European trainers have come mob-handed with two-year-olds.

After last year's triumphs for Big Evs (Ire) (Blue Point {Ire}) and Unquestionable (Fr) (Wootton Bassett {GB}) in the Juvenile Turf Sprint and Juvenile Turf, expectations are again high that these trophies can be smuggled out of the country.

In the former, the form of the G2 Flying Childers Stakes could well be key, as the first three home at Doncaster on September 13 - Aesterius (Ire), Big Mojo (Ire) and Magnum Force (Ire) - are all set to meet once more.

The Mehmas (Ire) colt Aesterius has been kept busy by Archie Watson since graduating from the Goffs UK Breeze-up Sale in April. A winner on debut in May he was fifth behind fellow Wathnan Racing runner Shareholder (Not This Time) in the G2 Coventry Stakes and, racing exclusively over the minimum trip, he has since picked up wins in the Listed Dragon Stakes and G3 Prix d'Arenberg as well as the Flying Childers.

His trainer Archie Watson is relishing running the colt who he says has taken to his new surroundings at Del Mar "like a duck to water". Cont. p3

'I'D AN UNLUCKY 13 SO I NEEDED ONE MORE' - BOMAN BAGS ANOTHER FOR OZ

By Brian Sheerin

The Australian buyers remained strong on what was an admittedly low-key Thursday affair at the Tattersalls Autumn Horses-In-Training Sale, with Stuart Boman securing Native King (GB) (Kingman {GB}) to join the stable of Annabel Neasham for owners Go Racing for a joint session-topping 85,000gns.

Boman has been busy at Tattersalls this week, with Native King the 14th horse he managed to secure, and the Blandford Bloodstock agent described the overall recruitment from the sale as the busiest ever for the agency.

"I had bought 13 horses before this chap so I thought it was unlucky and I had better try for another one," Boman joked. "He is a stunning horse and very well-bred. I am good friends with Rob Speers, and Ibrahim Araci bred this horse and raced him. I had a good chat with Rob yesterday and trainer Hugo Palmer and they recommended the horse, who will benefit from gelding." Cont. p6

Breeders' Cup Update Cont. from p1

He said, "It's a proper race, and the Japanese horse [Ecoro Sieg] seems fancied. Aesterius has drawn well and he's a very quick horse. The English horses are all drawn down on the rail so hopefully he can just get out and forwards and into a nice rhythm. He's very talented, a gorgeous big horse with lots of scope. He's the most laidback horse. From the moment he got here it was like taking a six-year-old gelding who had been here three times already."

So far so good then for Aesterius, who was joined on the trip by Watson's stable star Bradsell (GB) (Tasleet {GB}), who is soon to be moving on permanently to a new career at the National Stud. He has one more dance, however, in Saturday's Turf Sprint, for which he is second-favourite behind the Steve Asmussen-trained Cogburn (Not This Time).

"He's obviously had a fantastic year after his well-documented setback in the spring, and to come back and do what he's done has just been amazing," said Watson of Bradsell, who had surgery for a leg fracture earlier this year.

"It has always been the plan to end up here. For us, Royal Ascot and the Breeders' Cup are the two pinnacles. That's where we want to be. We've been fortunate enough to have runners here in the past and we haven't quite hit the winner's enclosure yet but I don't think we've brought horses with as good a chance as these two before."

He admitted that the departure of Bradsell, who has been a group winner in each of his three seasons in training, will be a bittersweet moment for his team. Cont. p4

"I'm delighted that he has secured a place at stud but it's going to be very sad for us not to have him around," Watson said. "He's just a legend of a horse and we couldn't be happier with him out there. I think he looks fantastic and he always seems to grow a couple of inches when he goes abroad. He loves life out here and thinks he's King Kong."

He added, "We gate-schooled yesterday and he jumped quick. The draw [in 12] is not ideal but the one saving grace is that the American favourite Cogburn is drawn nine and he does go forward, so we'll see. It'll just be great to see the best sprinter in America take on the best sprinter in Europe."

Big Mojo, a son of first-crop sire Mohaather (GB), also had a travelling mate from his own stable in Big Evs, who's been there, done that when it comes to the Breeders' Cup following his breakthrough win last year for Michael Appleby.

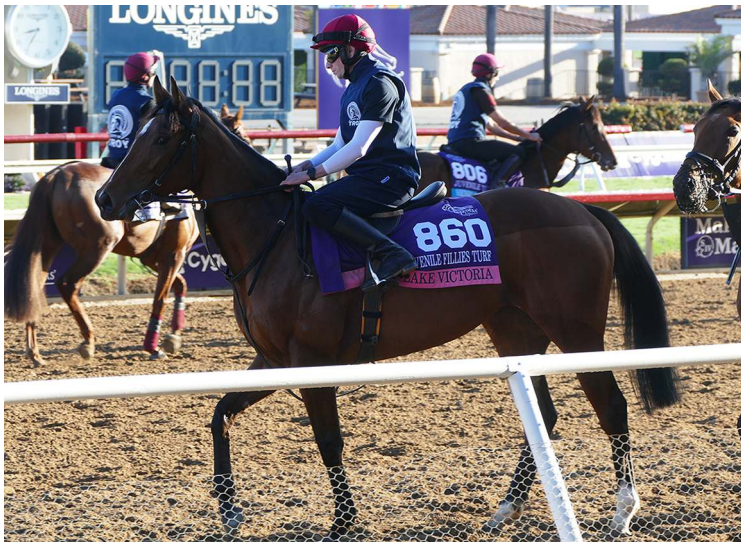

The trainer arrived at the track on Thursday morning to see Big Mojo school in the gates.

"The main concern is whether he would handle the bend because it's quite tight and he's a big two-year-old, but he's been galloping round it quite well," he said. "We went round Southwell before we came here and he handled that really well."

"He won't be quite as sharp as Big Evs - he's a bigger horse - and I think he will be really nice next year. The main concern is to get round the bend but he's got a decent draw to do that."

Ger Lyons, who has skilfully steered clear of the hubbub outside the quarantine barn this week, has returned to Del Mar, this time with Magnum Force and accompanied by wife Lynne, daughter Kerri and her partner, the Irish champion jockey Colin Keane.

Keane was aboard Magnum Force on Thursday morning as he was ponied to the gates before jumping out for a smart breeze along the stretch. Not over big, the Mehmas colt was moving very well indeed.

"I thought the first two from the Flying Childers would come to the Breeders' Cup and I felt that he had to be here as well," said Lyons, whose classy juveniles this season include the G1 Phoenix Stakes winner Babouche (GB) (Kodiac {GB}).

The Flying Childers trio will also be joined in the line-up by the G1 Prix Morny winner Whistlejacket (Ire) (No Nay Never), who is dropping back to five furlongs and has continued to look bombproof in temperament in among the 10 Ballydoyle horses on the track each morning.

Six of the 12 runners for the Juvenile Turf hail from stables in Britain or Ireland, with Andrew Balding's GI Summer Stakes winner New Century heading the market. The Qatar Racing homebred already has the distinction of being the first top-level winner for his young sire Kameko.

With Balding absent from Del Mar, David Redvers, Hannah Wall and Peter Molony were at trackwork on Thursday to see the colt and could have an exciting few days in store as the Qatar team also has the favourite for Tuesday's Melbourne Cup in Buckaroo (GB) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}).

"The horse looks great and I think he's built to go round that track," said Redvers of New Century. "We've got an amazing weekend to look forward to as we hope to have three runners in the Melbourne Cup if Saint George gets in, and there's also Valiant King. Cont. p5

"We weren't planning to go to Melbourne but there started to be chat about it at dinner last night and I think if we can do something special here on Friday then the clamour to go will be quite strong."

Certainly a Breeders' Cup winner for Tweenhills resident Kameko would provide a major boost.

Redvers added, "Kameko had another lovely first-time-out two-year-old winner last night and he's proven that he can get not just one but three or four very good horses from a relatively small first crop."

The excitement level was notably up a notch at the track on Thursday morning and a huge contingent from Coolmore was present, including MV and JP Magnier, and fellow owners Michael Tabor, Derrick and Paul Smith. They weren't the only ones eager to see the Ballydoyle horses schooling in the paddock, with work-watchers lining the rails several deep as the O'Brien team took several laps before proceeding back on to the track for a strong canter.

With all the clamour surrounding City Of Troy (Justify), it is easy to overlook horses such as Lake Victoria (Ire) (Frankel {GB}), who has been ridden each morning by Ryan Moore and heads into the Juvenile Fillies Turf a worthy favourite. Then there's lovely old Luxembourg (Ire) (Camelot {GB}) at the head of the string, who may yet have a say in the Turf in an intriguing battle of the older horses which includes the 2022 winner Rebel's Romance (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) and Emily Upjohn (GB) (Sea The Stars {Ire}), who will be renewing her partnership with Frankie Dettori.

There are only two three-year-olds in the field of 13, with the progressive Jayarebe (Ire) (Zoffany {Ire}) bidding to become Brian Meehan's third winner of the Breeders' Cup Turf after Red Rocks (Ire) and Dangerous Midge.

Meehan has been aboard the pony accompanying Jayarebe over the last few mornings, and on Thursday the G2 Prix Dollar winner was ridden by his big-race jockey Sean Levey, who described Jayarebe as feeling "surprisingly well".

He looks well, too, and Meehan certainly appears to be a happy man ahead of Saturday's contest.

"The draw [in five] couldn't be better," he said. "He's a very versatile and adaptable horse, the way he is ridden in the races, and Sean is one of our leading riders in Europe now, and he knows him so well. So we're in good shape."

Jayarebe is yet to race beyond ten and a half furlongs but the step up to a mile and a half is of no concern to Meehan. Cont. p6

"All next year as well he'll probably switch between 10 and 12 furlongs, and 12 furlongs on Saturday is certainly very comfortable," he said. "[Wednesday] was his first morning and he was certainly taking it all in. We took him out early when it was a bit quieter. It was all about him getting used to his pony and used to the track."

The trainer has had 12 previous Breeders' Cup runners and will also run the Poule d'Essai des Pouliches runner-up Kathmandu (Ire) (Showcasing {GB}) in Saturday's GIII Goldikova Stakes on the undercard.

He added, "Kathmandu is definitely Group 1 class so the Goldikova is the perfect race for her really.

"It's great to be back at the Breeders' Cup, for sure it is my favourite meeting. Any time you win a Group 1 race is such a high, but I guess to take a horse to another continent and win a championship race is huge, and that's a tremendous feeling of achievement for the whole operation."

Araci's silks are best associated with Native Khan (Fr) (Azamour {Ire}), who chased home Frankel (GB) in the 2,000 Guineas, and Native King carried those black, white and red silks to victory earlier this year at Chester. He has placed on a further three occasions and reached a rating of 88, with Boman stating the three-year-old was a natural fit to continue his career Down Under.

"He has got a big engine and a big turn of foot. At the start of the year, he came from last at Chester to win. It was not a great race but the turn of foot he showed that day is what you need in Australia. He will also get a faster pace to run at and some firmer ground in Australia, which will suit. Kingman works in Australia."

Boman added, "I have been working this sale for 15 years and this has been Blandford's best ever Autumn H-I-T Sale--the most amount of horses bought and for the biggest outlay."

In a week where the National Hunt trainers struggled to contend with the international buyers when recruiting jumps prospects, Matt Coleman managed to snap up the 89-rated Lyric (Ire) (Too Darn Hot {GB}) to join Jonjo and AJ O'Neill at 85,000gns. Lyric will chart a very different path to Native King and is set to embark on a juvenile hurdling campaign. In five starts for John and Thady Gosden, Lyric won a 1m2f Windsor maiden and wasn't beaten far in a Doncaster handicap off 88 when last seen.

Coleman explained, "He has been bought for Jonjo and AJ O'Neill, who were looking for a dual-purpose type. This horse has got some good form and he won a nice novice at Windsor in the spring. He ran quite well in the Listed Cocked Hat at Goodwood in May, only beaten a neck by stablemate Pappano, who made 200,000gns last night. Then he had a bit of a break and he ran quite well on Saturday behind Iron Lion and a few others who made a lot of money this week."

The agent continued, "His sister is black-type over jumps and the O'Neills will probably run him over hurdles this winter and then pop him back on the Flat on some soft ground in the spring. The first job, though, will probably be a gelding operation."

The number of lots offered on Thursday was down by 18% compared to last year and so too were some of the key trends. The turnover dropped 24% to 1,945,000gns, the median rose 33% to 8,000gns and the average dropped by 4% to 11,577gns. The clearance rate rested at 86%, down 2% on last year.

€55,000 yearling, he's clearly not a bad looking horse and, if he puts it all together, can provide his new connections with some fun at a low level.

Thought for the Day

It was an early finish on Thursday at Tattersalls, which begs the question, why couldn't the sales company fit the 100 or so horses that are due to go into the ring on Friday into the Thursday session given it finished at 4.30pm. Don't worry, we're not all coming back to Park Paddocks on Friday for the good of our health. Apparently the reason is down to stabling for the bigger consignments.

Buy of the Day

Ottoman (Ire) (Acclamation {GB}) showed enough form in seven starts for Eddie and Patrick Harty in Ireland to suggest there could be a day in him over in Britain. At 11,000gns, Dan Astbury and Stockton Hall may not have found themselves a star, but there is a decent chance the horse can get his front in low grade handicaps. Placed off 61 in a 1m handicap at Naas, Ottoman has since disappointed at the Curragh and at Galway. A

AUTUMN BLOOM AT THE BIG A

Night Of Thunder Filly Wins In New York

Wesley Ward trainee Scarlet Poppy (Ire) (Night Of Thunder {Ire}) raced to a 2 1/4-length victory as the crowd's pick going six furlongs as the Belmont at the Big A meeting continued on Oct. 25 (video). She races for a partnership between Stonestreet Stables, Mrs. John Magnier, Michael Tabor, Derrick Smith and Westerberg.

Ben McElroy signed the ticket during the 2022 Tattersalls October Yearling Sale Book 1 for Scarlet Poppy, paying 800,000gns on behalf of Barbara Banke's operation and MV Magnier. Bred by Al Wasmiyah Farm, the chestnut daughter of Bulrushes (GB) (Byron {GB}) is one of eight winners from nine to race for her dam. She is also a half-sister to four black-type horses, three of them stakes winners, led by G3 Prix Texanita hero Ross Castle (Ire) (Busranger {Ire}). Her Space Blues (Ire) yearling half-brother is her latest sibling. This is the extended family of multiple group winner and G1 Locking Stakes third Tariq (GB) (Kyllachy {GB}). Cont. p8

ACE IMPACT HEADS BEAUMONT ROSTER AT €40,000, PUCHKINE'S FEE SET AT €8,500

Prix Jean Prat winner Puchkine (Fr) will stand for a fee of €8,500 when he embarks on his first season at Haras de Beaumont in 2025, joining a roster headed by the Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe hero Ace Impact (Ire), who will remain at a fee of €40,000.

The Chehboub family, owners of Haras de Beaumont, purchased a 50 per cent share in Puchkine from his owner-breeder Alain Jathiere in July. Trained by Jean-Claude Rouget, the son of Starspangledbanner (Aus) was unbeaten in three races as a juvenile and retired as the winner of five of his nine starts, notably making the breakthrough at the top level when beating Havana Cigar (GB) (Havana Grey {GB}) by two and a half lengths in the Prix Jean Prat.

"After a successful 2024 season, notably with the arrival of undefeated world champion Ace Impact, we are very pleased to welcome Puchkine in 2025," said Haras de Beaumont's Mathieu Alex. "A top-class sprinter by leading sire Starspangledbanner, Puchkine was unbeaten at two and won the G1 Prix Jean Prat in impressive style, 0.20s off the race record."

Unbeaten in six starts for the Rouget stable, Arc winner Ace Impact was crowned Europe's champion three-year-old in 2023 when his victories also included the Prix du Jockey Club. The son of Cracksman (GB) covered 183 mares in his first season at Haras de Beaumont, identifying him as the busiest freshman sire in France.

Joining Ace Impact and Puchkine on the five-strong roster of stallions is the Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere and Champion Stakes winner Sealiway (Fr), who remains at a fee of €12,000 after he welcomed his first foals earlier this year. Cont. p9

The fee for Intello (Ger), the sire of last year's Hong Kong Vase winner Junko (GB) and multiple Group 3 scorer Regal Reality (GB), also remains unchanged at €8,000, while Stunning Spirit (GB) will stand at a fee of €3,000 for the fifth consecutive season, having produced two winners from seven individual runners from his first crop of juveniles in 2024.

Alex continued, "Sealiway's first foals born in 2024 are very popular with breeders. A Group 1 winner at two and three, Sealiway covered more than 150 mares in his first two seasons at stud. Proven sire Intello was popular again in 2024 with more than 100 mares covered. With 9% stakes horses/runners, he remains an important asset to the French stallion roster. Finally, Stunning Spirit's first two-year-olds have made promising debuts with 60% of his runners having won or being placed.

"Haras de Beaumont would like to thank the breeders for their support and look forward to welcoming them in the stallion yard soon!"

Irish National Stud CEO Cathal Beale said, “We remain conscious that our stallion fees must reflect an opportunity for breeders to make a profit on their stock, while giving their mares the best possible chance of producing high quality racehorses. CLASSIC RUNNER-UP SPANISH EYES ADDED TO ARQANA'S VENTE D'ELEVAGE

This year's Preis der Diana runner-up Spanish Eyes (Ger) has been added to Arqana's December Breeding Stock Sale and will be offered by Ecurie des Monceaux as lot 180 during the opening day of the sale on Saturday, December 7.

Spanish Eyes | Marc Ruehl

Trained by Andreas Wohler for owner-breeders Gestut Karlshof, Spanish Eyes made a winning debut over nine furlongs at Hoppegarten in June. That remains her sole victory in five career starts, though she was beaten just a length behind Erle (Ger) (Reliable Man {GB}) in the Preis der Diana, before running another creditable race when finishing fourth in the G1 Grosser Preis von Baden.

Spanish Eyes, who failed to find a buyer at €95,000 when offered at the Arqana October Yearling Sale, is one of five winners from as many runners out of the G1 Premio Lydia Tesio heroine Sortilege (Ire) (Tiger Hill {Ire}). The daughter of Zarak (Fr) is a full-sister to the G3 Premio Guido Berardelli winner Sirjan (Ger) and a half to Seductive (Ger) (Henrythenavigator), the dam of the dual Group 2 winner and G1 Preis von Europa runner-up Straight (Ger) (Zarak {Fr}). Sortilege is in turn out of Sahel (Ger) (Monsun {Ger})--a full-sister to the multiple Group 1 winner and sire Schiaparelli (Ger)--whose other offspring include the dam of this year's G1 Grand Prix de Paris scorer Sosie (Ire) (Sea The Stars {Ire}).

My Sisters' House Women's Centre is the beneficiary charity, with all net proceeds going to support the work they do to support women to improve their welfare and wellbeing, helping to reduce their risk of domestic abuse and support recovery, and help them reach their goals for employment, education or training.

Avril Robinson, acting CEO at My Sisters' House, said, "Being the chosen charity for the Markel Magnolia Cup has been one of the most significant opportunities for My Sisters' House since its inception ten years ago. As a small, local charity, the funds raised will enable us to continue our excellent work in providing free-of-charge, life-changing services to women.

"It has been an absolute privilege to work alongside the Goodwood and Markel teams, and, importantly, be inspired by the all-female line up of jockeys who have all demonstrated the grit to train and take part in such a prestigious event. They are role models for women everywhere--turning aspirations into realities."

The Markel Magnolia Cup will take place on Ladies' Day at the Qatar Goodwood Festival in 2025, which falls on Thursday, July 31. Applications for the race in 2025 have now closed and riders wishing to participate in 2026 can apply online here.

BREEDERS' CUP WEEKEND IS HERE!

by Steve Sherack

DEL MAR, CA -- It's showtime.

Featuring 14 Grade I races worth more than $34 million in purses, the Breeders' Cup World Championships, with an emphasis on World, return to the Del Mar Thoroughbred Club for a third time, beginning with the 'Future Stars Friday' program. Ideal conditions with sunny skies and temperatures in the upper 60s are expected.

The Breeders' Cup World Championships return to the Del Mar Thoroughbred Club for a third time this weekend | Horsephotos

A total of 179 horses were entered for the two-day Championships, including a record 67 international participants from nine different countries, as well as three previous winners.

A stacked renewal of the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile--featuring unbeaten 'TDN Rising Stars' East Avenue (Medaglia d'Oro), Chancer McPatrick (McKinzie) and Jonathan's Way (Vekoma)--will get the party started along with four other top-level events for 2-year-olds on Friday. In addition to East Avenue, Godolphin will also be very well-represented by the unbeaten MGISW Immersive (Nyquist) in the female equivalent.

The Aidan O'Brien-trained 'TDN Rising Star' Lake Victoria (Ire) (Frankel {GB}) will meet horse-for-course Thought Process (Collected) in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf. New Century (GB) (Kameko) is the 5-2 morning-line favorite in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf and the two-for-two Japanese invader Ecoro Sieg (Twirling Candy) was given the nod at 7-2 in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf Sprint.

Considered by O'Brien as the best horse that he's ever trained--now that's a scary thought, isn't it?--G1 Epsom Derby winner and 'TDN Rising Star' City of Troy (Justify) will make his highly anticipated dirt debut in Saturday's GI Breeders' Cup Classic. He'll square off versus last year's Juvenile winner and 'TDN Rising Star' Fierceness (City of Light) in the $7-million centerpiece.

There's plenty of star power before and after the Classic, too. 'TDN Rising Star' Thorpedo Anna (Fast Anna) will be heavily favored to add to a magical year for Ken McPeck in the GI Breeders' Cup Distaff. Earlier this spring, McPeck became the first trainer since Ben Jones (1952) to pull off the GI Kentucky Oaks-GI Kentucky Derby double.

The 'fastest horse in the world' Cogburn (Not This Time) will look to conclude a perfect season in the GI Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint. A stallion share in the future WinStar Farm resident brought $475,000 from Richard and Connie Snyder at Wednesday evening's inaugural Keeneland Championship Sale. The overflow field also attracted last year's Juvenile Sprint winner Big Evs (Ire) (Blue Point {Ire}).

Other Saturday headliners include: 'TDN Rising Star' Ways and Means (Practical Joke) (F/M Sprint); Federal Judge (Army Mule) and Mullikin (Violence) (Sprint); Domestic Product (Practical Joke) (Dirt Mile); Johannes (Nyquist) and Porta Fortuna (Ire) (Caravaggio) (Mile); 2022 GI Breeders' Cup Turf winner Rebel's Romance (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) (Turf); and Cinderella's Dream (GB) (Shamardal) and War Like Goddess (English Channel) (F/M Turf).

The Breeders' Cup will be televised live on NBC, Peacock, USA Network and FanDuel TV.

SELECTIONS FOR BREEDERS' CUP FRIDAY AT DEL MAR by Steve Sherack

Who do you like? TDN's Senior Racing Editor Steve Sherack makes his picks for Breeders' Cup Friday at Del Mar.

Race 7: GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies--#4 La Cara (12-1)

Pocahontas winner La Cara continues to improve with experience for trainer Mark Casse, and if her pedigree is any indicator (she's bred on the same Street Sense x Bernardini cross as Maxfield), another move forward could be coming in this two-turn debut. Her versatile running style adds to her appeal. Will also be using the maiden of two starts Snowyte, who was featured in our 'Second Chances' series. The price will be right on both.

Race 8: GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf--#7 Thought Process (5-2)

This may be my strongest opinion of the weekend. I love Thought Process here. She has the homecourt advantage over the Euros and has looked sensational in all three of her wins for trainer Phil D'Amato on grass, including a pair of victories over this same turf course. Can lead them or sit right off beneath Hector Berrios.

WILL YOU BE RED CARPET READY

2020 Oscar Performance - Wild Silk, by Street Sense

11.4.2024 ?

- ◆ Brilliant debut winner at 2 by 10+ lengths
- ◆ Stakes winner at 2
- ◆ Winner of 4 of her first 5 starts, culminating with the division leading victory in the G2 Eight Belles (7f) on KY Oaks day
 - ◆ GSW at 4
 - ◆ 11-5-1-2 $794,800
 - ◆ Just beaten in first stakes try on turf!

Race 9: GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile--#1 East Avenue (5-2)

East Avenue has looked like the real deal in his two career starts for trainer Brendan Walsh, led by a daylight win in the Breeders' Futurity, and has lived up to his reputation (and maybe more) during training hours since arriving in Del Mar. Has the rail and speed, but will be fine if someone else is more aggressive early. Can't wait to see him run.

ONE LAST BREEDERS' CUP DANCE FOR MOIRA, THEN ON TO FASIG-TIPTON

by Katie Petrunyak

Kevin Attard already knows it will be difficult, going back home to his barn at Woodbine and seeing an empty stall where stable star Moira (Ghostzapper) has been a steady presence for the past four years. The Canadian Horse of the Year and millionaire will perform in what will likely be her last dance in the GI Breeders' Cup Filly and Mare Turf on Saturday before she goes through the ring Nov. 4 at the Fasig-Tipton November Sale.

"This is probably one of the hardest things I've done in my life," Attard admitted as he looked ahead to next week. "You spend so much time with these horses that you bond with them. When I see her go through that sales ring and know chances are that she's not coming home, I mean I don't even know how to explain it. It's going to be hard."

Attard has always said that one of Moira's best qualities is her ability to put her game face on, so for now Attard plans to do the same.

While this weekend at Del Mar will be bittersweet, Attard said he is focusing on looking toward the race at hand and celebrating a horse that has shown up for just about every race of her career.

Scouted out by Donato Lanni and purchased for his X-Men Racing syndicate, Moira arrived at Attard's barn in the spring of her 2-year-old year. Right away, Attard saw promise in the daughter of Ghostzapper and was confident enough to send her to the Princess Elizabeth Stakes for her debut that fall. The Ontario-bred won by over four lengths and from there, never raced in anything other than stakes races for the duration of her career.

Click here for our visit with Moira at the Breeders' Cup | Sara Gordon

During her sophomore season, Moira reeled off back-to-back wins in the Woodbine Oaks, where she dominated by nearly 11 lengths, and then the Queen's Plate, where she defeated males and established a track record in the mile and quarter contest. On her way to earning Canadian Horse of the Year honors, she capped off the season with a fast-closing fifth in the 2022 GI Breeders' Cup Filly and Mare Turf.

Moira showed consistency throughout her campaign last year when she placed in all six of her graded stakes starts, including a win in the GII Canadian Stakes and a third-place finish back at the Breeders' Cup behind eventual Eclipse Champion Turf Female Inspiral (GB) (Frankel {GB}) and Warm Heart (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}).

"I'd have to think, quality-wise, that her best race was in last year's Breeders' Cup," said Attard. "It just speaks volumes to the quality and caliber of horse that she is. She wasn't that far behind two of the best turf fillies in the world."

Moira has again stamped herself as a leader in the division this year at five. Campaigned by Madaket Stables, SF Racing and X-Men Racing, she was second in the GI Diana Stakes behind Whitebeam (GB) (Caravaggio) and then battled Grade I victress Fed Rover (Ire) (Gutaifan {Ire}) to get the win in the GII Beverley D. Stakes.

“I thought her race in the Beverley D. was better than it looks on paper,” explained Attard. “It was a paceless race really and she had to fight a multiple Grade I winner down the stretch to prevail.”

Then in the GI E.P. Taylor Stakes, Moira had to settle for a closing second behind stablemate Full Count Felicia (War Front) when the winner opened up by nearly 20 lengths early and never looked back.

“It was basically two races in the sense that the winner just opened up on the field and she was in a race of her own and Moira was in that second pack of horses,” Attard reflected. “She tried very determinedly to catch the winner, but it just was too much ground to make up.”

Next up, Moira will return for her third appearance in the Breeders' Cup. After drawing post 10, Attard has high hopes that the third time can be the charm for his star filly.

“She's been training really well,” he said. “Everything has kind of gone according to plan this season, so we're very excited to be here at Del Mar with her this year. It's very special to see her [in the Breeders' Cup] for a third time. It speaks volumes to the quality and caliber of horse she is. Her first year she was fifth.

Last season she ran third. So hopefully history sort of repeats itself and we can do two better this year and find ourselves in the winner's circle.”

Moira's stablemate and rival Full Count Felicia, who is owned by Gold Square LLC, will join her in the starting gate for the Filly and Mare Turf and will also be selling next week at Fasig-Tipton.

On the Night of the Stars, Moira will sell as Hip 293 with Hill 'n' Dale at Xalapa.

“Moira's resume is remarkable,” said Fasig-Tipton's Boyd

Browning. “She has already accomplished everything in the world that you could ask for a horse with the things that she's been able to achieve on the racetrack to date and hopefully there's one more chapter to be written.”

“The thing about Moira that is so intriguing to me is her pedigree,” he continued. “Ghostzapper is a tremendous influence in pedigrees in the United States and around the world. He’s the broodmare sire of two remarkable horses in Justify and Up To The Mark. We’ve seen Ghostzapper’s influence as a sire, not only with a horse like Moira, but also with last year’s Breeders’ Cup heroine and co-[Fasig-Tipton November] sales topper Goodnight Olive. He continues to produce offspring at the very highest level and Moira is out of an Unbridled’s Song mare, so it’s really the best of the best.”

Moira gets the win in the 2024 Gil Beverly D. Stakes | Coady Media

Moira’s dam Devine Aida, a Grade II-placed multiple stakes winner, has had three winners from as many to race, including stakes victor Jungle Cry (Animal Kingdom).

“Moira has just been a model of consistency,” said her consignor, John Sikura of Hill 'n' Dale at Xalapa. “She has now made just under $2 million. She’s very feminine, mid-sized and looks like the kind of mare that would be an outstanding mother. She’s quality all the way. Femininity with grit, determination and ability.”

Attard said that in the barn as well as on the racetrack, Moira has been a pleasure to work with.

“In the stall, she’s pretty straightforward,” he explained. “She just kind of minds her own business. But on race day when the bridle goes on, she turns into a different animal. It’s almost like she switches gears and she knows it’s game time.”

“She’s a special horse and she definitely holds a very special place in my heart,” he continued. “She’s been such a gem of consistency--14 times in the money out of 16 starts and a multiple graded stakes winner. It takes a very special horse to show up each and every time and be as consistent as she has been. She has never let us down.”

WITH HANG THE MOON, COACH PHILLIPS & CO. PLAY TRAP GAME AT BREEDERS' CUP

by J.N. Campbell

DEL MAR, California--In Saturday's GI Maker's Mark Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Turf at Del Mar, the Europeans come to town riding a five-year win streak, having taken the hardware and the bragging rights with thanks.

Yet, lest we forget that this is horse racing on the turf and that means even the most deserving favorites can be vulnerable. To put it in sports betting terms, the Filly & Mare Turf could be deemed what we call a 'trap game' in the business. That means a seemingly stronger opponent underestimates their adversary and is not as prepared as they might think. In other words, they lose.

Dethroning this European locomotion and trapping her opponent is the goal for Hang the Moon (Uncle Mo) and her rider Kazushi Kimura, who clearly represents the home team of Southern California after putting together wins in the Gil John C. Mabee Stakes at the seaside oval Sept. 7 and last out in the Gil Rodeo Drive Stakes at Santa Anita Oct. 5, which clinched the trip to Del Mar.

Some might think that the filly trained by Phil D'Amato has her work cut out for her against a field which includes the likes of European imports like GISW Cinderella's Dream (GB) (Shamardal) and G1SW Content (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), plus one of the best North American female distance grass horses in MGISW War Like Goddess (English Channel). Perhaps Hang the Moon will float upward from her initial morning-line offering price of 10-1, which would cement her underdog status, but that does not concern D'Amato one iota.

“Hang the Moon came to us this year as a 4-year-old from Mike Stidham and he did such a great job preparing her,” said D’Amato. “She’s scopey and professional and it’s been fun watching her continue to develop. I think the owners with CJ have enjoyed the ride and we are looking forward to her competing on a course and at a distance that suits her so well. We have a ton of confidence in what she can do.”

The “CJ” mentioned by Hang the Moon’s trainer is CJ Thoroughbreds, which is a partnership group helmed by Corey Johnsen, his son CJ Johnsen and Mike Renfro. The company regularly attends the sales and each year purchases a batch of yearlings with the intent on making the races.

“We have a group of investors who regularly support CJ Thoroughbreds, but no one pays for any additional expenses until the horse reaches three years old,” said Renfro. “We have input from great bloodstock agents like Alistair Roden and Marette Farrell. Alistair is the one who picked out Hang the Moon for us at Keeneland September. Everyone in on this horse speaks the language of horse racing, loves the competition and they all have backgrounds in sports or business or both.”

Among the investors in the $200,000 Keeneland buy are Texans like Doug Scharbauer, who owns Valor Farm outside of Dallas, and Lee Lewis, who heads a construction company in the Lone Star State and also owns GSW Gun Song (Gun Runner). Louisville native Mike Schnell came on board, as did Mike Carter of Dallas, FanDuel TV’s Mike Joyce joined in and so did Kentucky State Senator

Damon Thayer, along with several others who made contributions.

The team behind Hang the Moon also includes Ben Bishop, a former NHL goaltender who is now the director of player development for the Dallas Stars, and his father.

Renfro wanted to add one more “player” to the Hang the Moon starting line-up, so he reached out to one of his old coaches from his football days.

As a native Texan, Renfro had a long career in the NFL playing for both the Houston Oilers and Dallas Cowboys. His Oiler head coach was legend Bum Phillips, whose son Wade served as the team's defensive line coach from 1977 to 1980. Wade Phillips has been around the best in the game as a defensive guru having coached the likes of Reggie White, Bruce Smith, DeMarcus Ware and J.J. Watt, just to name a few. Renfro knew having Phillips on board would be fun.

“Coach Phillips is one of my all-time favorites in the sports world,” said Renfro. “He knows what it takes to win and there is something about having someone intimately connected to a pro sport as a racehorse owner. They just come in understanding what it's like to be at this kind of level.”

Coach Wade Phillips with the Broncos | Getty/Scott Halleran

Phillips's father loved horses, especially the cutting type, and he owned a ranch in Texas. His love of the racetrack was something he imparted to his son Wade.

“My Dad loved to go down to the paddock and watch the horses. When he was the head coach of the New Orleans Saints and I was on his staff we were stuck for something like four hours before the plane was going to leave, and he took the whole team to the racetrack. Most guys had never seen the kind of athletes these Thoroughbreds were, but you could tell they got it and admired their ability. It was athletes understanding athletes.”

Just like former NFL head coach Bill Parcells, who also led the Dallas Cowboys at one point and loves Thoroughbreds, Phillips knows all too well what champions look like who are on the make. He knows what it takes to train and prepare, so in a manner of speaking it is easy for him to understand what it means to compete at the Breeders' Cup.

SELLING TUESDAY, NOV. 5 AT KEENELAND NOVEMBER

“This is the top of the sport and it’s called a world championship for a reason,” Phillips said. “I am not talking about a national title, this is bigger and it means so much to have a horse running. I’ve always been excited by opportunities to compete against the best no matter what the odds were.”

When asked about some of his favorite memories when it comes to winning trap games, the former NFL coach had all sorts to choose from.

“When I played in college at the University of Houston, we beat the number one team in the nation in Michigan State to start the season while being unranked,” he said. “And when I coached in 1975 at Kansas we went into Norman and beat a University of Oklahoma team that had won 37 games in a row. The [Denver] Bronco Super Bowl we won in 2016 was special, too, because don’t forget that Carolina [Panthers] had scored like 40 points in each of their playoff wins coming in. We beat them 24-10 and our defensive play was great.”

Hang the Moon wins the John C. Mabee at Del Mar | Benoit

Phillips said that underestimating opponents and not realizing the power of an underdog can always be a mistake. The trap games he played and coached makes him think that horse racing is no different.

“Hang the Moon loves to come late and I can’t wait to see her in-person at Del Mar,” Phillips said. “I will be making the trip and I am not going to miss this one.”

Will the Europeans repeat?

“We’ll see, you never underestimate a talented athlete,” he said. “Anything can happen.”

That kind of sports mentality that Phillips talked about when you are approaching a big race like the Filly & Mare Turf is exactly what the CJ ownership group enjoys. D’Amato is also optimistic about Hang the Moon’s chances against some top-flight turf horses.

“I love getting horses like Hang the Moon because it is like getting a free agent and signing them to a long-term deal,” D’Amato said. “Mike Renfro and CJ Thoroughbreds put together a great team and working with people connected to sports ends up being a great set of relationships because they understand the highs and lows. Competition is competition, no matter where you find it.”

To the CJ Thoroughbred owners of Hang the Moon, a trap game on Saturday at the Breeders’ Cup is one that they are ready to see kick.

RYAN CARPENTER Q&A ON PET AND CT: "TRYING TO PUT ALL INFORMATION TOGETHER" by Dan Ross

In the lead up to this year’s Breeders’ and Melbourne Cups, PET and CT units have been at the crux of dashed dreams, with several horses scratched from these contests due to unsatisfactory PET and CT scans. But how do veterinarians decide what’s satisfactory and what isn’t?

It’s in the last few years these technologies have emerged at the cutting edge of efforts to determine the root cause of subtle lameness in racehorses.

This period has proven a fast learning curve for diagnosticians--just ask Ryan Carpenter, a SoCal-based vet who has been instrumental in solidifying PET as an invaluable diagnostic tool in the region.

Here, Carpenter discusses these technologies, what they illustrate and the sorts of factors regulatory veterinarians must juggle when reading a PET or CT scan.

TDN: In a nutshell, can you explain what do PET and CT scans do and show?

RC: A PET scan is basically a more sensitive bone scan than nuclear scintigraphy. What we see with PET scans are areas of bone inflammation, of bone turnover. And we know that those areas are often associated with pre-fracture.

Basically, what we're looking for are hot spots, locations--like a hot sesamoid bone or a hot area on the fetlock--where we know that if you continue to train that horse, that'll likely lead to a condylar or a sesamoid bone fracture.

[A CT unit uses X-rays to create detailed cross-sectional images of the body]

TDN: How do they compare to some of the more established diagnostic tools, like X-ray and nuclear scintigraphy?
RC: PET and CT are obviously much newer than nuclear scintigraphy and radiographs. They're also more detailed and more sensitive--you can see smaller, more fine-tuned changes. Basically, while nuclear scintigraphy and radiography are highly useful and beneficial, they don't have the level of precision that a CT or a PET scan would have.

TDN: What are some of the things regulatory vets need to grapple with when they're looking at a PET or CT scan, and suspect they're seeing something of potential concern?

RC: You always want to use your diagnostic imaging with your clinical exam. That's what they're doing. I don't think anybody is just randomly picking things to PET scan or CT scan--there's usually a clinical suspicion or indication to do so.

For example, if you were looking at a horse and it may be a little short-strided on the right front, maybe there's a little soreness to flex in the ankle. Maybe it just looks a little different than the left. So, you want more information.

Oftentimes in that case, a radiograph isn't going to be highly useful because it's oftentimes going to be what we consider clean. We know that, in order for radiographs to be useful, there actually has to be something broken. So, you have to see a chip fracture, or you have to see a condylar fracture. You're not going to pick up the subtle changes.

That's where things like PET scan and CT can come in because they can look beyond what a radiograph can see, provide you with a lot more information.

TDN: How do factors like age, racing history play into the reading of a PET or CT scan?

RC: I think history plays an important role. We know some things--i.e. diseases or pathology or fractures--occur more commonly in some horses than in others, different ages and training styles.

If you have a 2-year-old, a 2-year-old is often going to have different diseases and problems than what a 3- or 4-year-old will have. Again, you're just trying to put all the information together so that you can make a more accurate diagnosis.

PET Scan | Dan Ross

TDN: In an ideal world, therefore, would it be helpful for a regulatory vet to have a series of these scans over a period, so they have a historical record of a horse's limbs, see what's normal bone remodeling in that horse, what's not?

Cheers to a great Breeders' Cup!

RC: Sequential imaging is extremely important because obviously [with one lone scan], you're just getting a snapshot in time. If you had the ability to monitor or track changes, then I think you would be able to make more accurate diagnoses.

We're trying to be risk-adverse. If are some things that we know just shouldn't be there--for example, if there's uptake on the sesamoid bone--it's hard to, without sequential studies, be able to predict where we're at, how close we are to breaking, how close we are for it to fracture. We can't necessarily predict that.

We often use the level of intensity on a PET scan to determine what's more severe than less. But if you had a spot that hasn't changed in the last three PET scans over the last four or five months, then I think you could have some level of confidence that, if it's not in a particular location, that might just be this horse and he's handling it fine as long as his clinical exam looks good.

But also, if you examine this horse and that spot is intensifying over the course of time and changing, then you're going to be more concerned because you're going to worry that this horse is getting closer to it fracturing.

There have been some horses that I've followed along that I've been able to stop at the right time because I have sequential imaging to know that the disease is progressing or not.

We once looked at imaging like a PET scan as good for a short period of time. But as we've done these sequential studies, if you have a clean PET scan, you can feel very confident for the next four, six, eight weeks that you're not going to have a problem.

We always have thought that some of these problems occur relatively quickly. But as we've learned and understood bone pathology more, they actually occur relatively slowly over time. They just might not be clinically apparent initially. And so, that's where it's helpful to have sequential imaging to help understand where you're at in the disease process.

HISA CALLS FOR DELAY TO START OF TURF PARADISE MEET

The Horseracing Integrity and Safety Authority has recommended a delay to the start of the racing season at Turf Paradise due to concerns about the safety of the track surface.

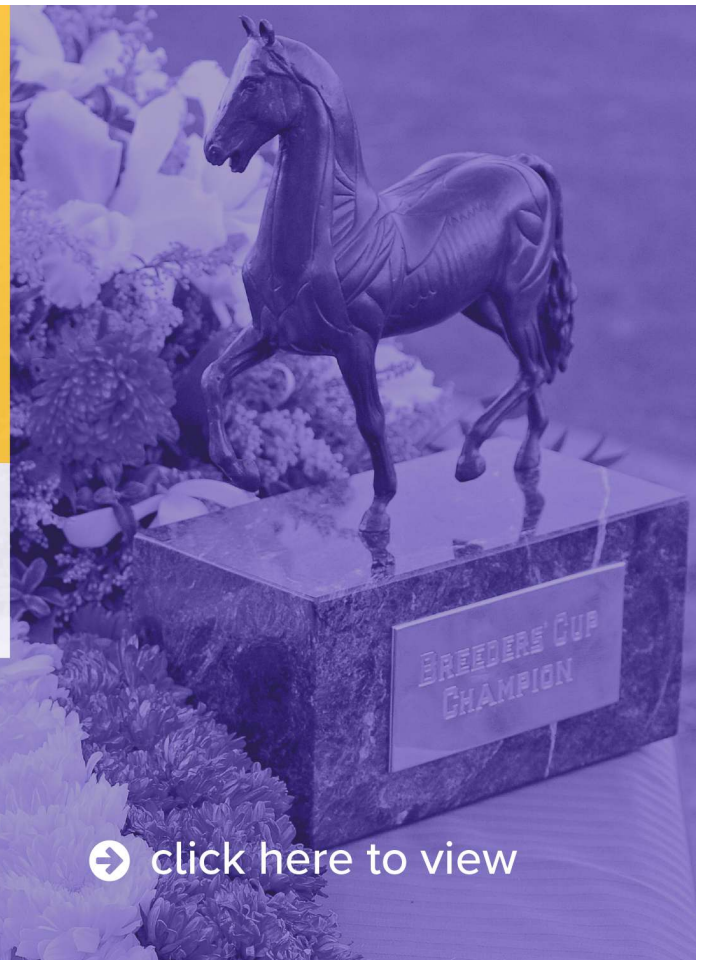

A HISA statement released Thursday evening read, "Based on recent reports and assessments from racetrack surface experts, concerns raised by on-site racing participants, and first-hand observations of HISA staff, HISA is not confident that the main track racing surface at Turf Paradise is ready for racing to begin as currently scheduled this Saturday. Therefore, out of concerns for the safety of horses and riders, HISA has communicated a recommendation to Turf Paradise and the Arizona Department of Gaming to delay the start of the upcoming meet and cease all training and racing activities on the main track racing surface until such time as adequate adjustments and preparations have been made and the track has been retested to verify conformance with industry standards. HISA will continue to monitor the situation and may initiate an enforcement action if necessary."

TAPIT LEADS 2025 GAINESWAY ROSTER AT $185,000

Tapit, North America's all-time leading sire by progeny earnings and the leading active sire by lifetime Grade I winners and graded stakes winners, will again lead the 2025 Gainesway stallion roster at a fee of $185,000, according to a press release from the farm Thursday.

The son of Pulpit is represented this year on the racetrack by GI Whitney Stakes winner Arthur's Ride, GII Woodward Stakes winner Tapit Trice, and additional graded winners May Day Ready, Scylla, and Batten Down. He continues to be in demand in the auction ring, and has seen three of his yearlings sell for seven figures this year.

The stud fee for McKinzie--currently the third-leading first-crop sire by earnings, but on top by graded stakes winners and horses, and Grade I winners and horses--will be determined after the Breeders' Cup.

The son of Street Sense is led by a pair of Grade I winners from his debut crop of runners: Chancer McPatrick, winner of the GI Hopeful and GI Champagne S., and Scottish Lassie, winner of the GI Frizette S. He is the first stallion since Mr. Prospector to sire the winners of the Champagne and Frizette in the same year.

New to the Gainesway roster for 2025 are a pair of Grade I winners who will be participating in the Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile, Muth and Seize The Grey. Stud fees for both will be announced at the end of their racing careers.

At two, Muth won the GI American Pharoah S. before running second in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile. At three, he won the GII San Vicente Stakes before prevailing in the GI Arkansas Derby, defeating future Kentucky Derby winner Mystik Dan. Muth is the only son of Good Magic to become a Grade I winner at both two and three, replicating the same accomplishment achieved by his sire.

As a juvenile, Seize The Grey broke his maiden at Saratoga, defeating future GI Belmont S. winner Dornoch. He went on to win the GII Pat Day Mile on the undercard of the Kentucky Derby, and then became a dual Grade I winner by going wire-to-wire in both the Preakness S. and the Pennsylvania Derby.

Also joining the Gainesway roster after contesting the Breeders' Cup Classic will be Grade I winner Tapit Trice. At three, Tapit Trice won the 2023 GI Toyota Blue Grass S. and GIII Tampa Bay Derby, while also placing in the GI Belmont S. and GI Travers S. At four, he won the GII Woodward S. and the GIII Monmouth Cup S., while earning a 101 Beyer Speed Figure, the third triple digit Beyer of his career. A stud fee for Tapit Trice will be determined upon retirement.

Tapit's other son joining the Gainesway roster in 2025 is Grade II-winning son Charge It, who will debut with a stud fee of $12,500. Charge It won the GIII Dwyer S. by an astounding 23 lengths, with his 111 Beyer Speed Figure being one of four occasions that he registered a triple-digit Beyer. He was also the winner of the GII Suburban S. and runner-up in the GI Florida Derby.

Following is the full list of advertised fees for Gainesway's 2025 stallion roster:

Charge It (NEW) - $12,500

LED BY FLAMEAWAY AND DIALED IN AT $15,000, DARBY DAN RELEASES 2025 STALLION FEES

Darby Dan Farm has set stud fees for its roster of 13 stallions who will stand the upcoming breeding season. The roster is led by Flameaway and Dialed In, who will both stand for $15,000 LFSN. The roster also features a trio of newcomers in Blazing Sevens, who will stand for $12,500 LFSN; and Gufo and Shiril's Speight who will both stand their first seasons at stud for $5,000 LFSN.

Flameaway, a multiple graded stakes-winning son of Scat Daddy, was a leading first-crop sire of 2023 and is the sixth-ranked second-crop sire this year. Among Flameaway's nine black-type horses this year are 2-year-old filly Ando Soltera (Chi), a Group 1 winner in her native Chile and 2-year-old filly Dreamaway, winner of the Colleen Stakes at Monmouth Park and third in the Speakeasy Stakes at Santa Anita.

Dialed In is represented by 11 stakes horses in 2024, led by Defunded, who won the 2023 edition of the Hollywood GI Gold Cup and GII Californian Stakes, and has amassed earnings of more than $2.2 million.

Blazing Sevens, winner of the GI Champagne Stakes at two and the runner-up in the GI Preakness Stakes, is a son of champion Good Magic. Blazing Sevens is produced from the winning Warrior's Reward mare Trophy Girl.

Gufo, a Grade I winner at three, four, and five, and a son of Declaration of War, has relocated to Darby Dan from Ballycroy Bloodstock in Ontario. The 7-year-old's first foals arrive next year. Gufo won or placed in 12 graded stakes, including back-to-back renewals of the GI Sword Dancer Stakes starting in 2021, and the GI Belmont Derby Invitational Stakes in 2020.

Shirl's Speight is a Grade I winner by Speightstown out of GI Maker's Mark Breeders' Cup Filly and Mare Turf winner Perfect Shirl. He won the 2022 GI Maker's Mark Mile at Keeneland and hit the board in 10 of 25 appearances for earnings of $1,497,245.

OWNERS OF HORSES KILLED, INJURED IN MARCH BLUEGRASS PKWY. ACCIDENT SUE VAN COMPANY, DRIVER FOR $3M

by T.D. Thornton

The owners of seven Thoroughbreds killed or injured in a Mar. 25, 2024, accident on the Bluegrass Parkway when a trailer driver allegedly fell asleep at the wheel and careened off the road while en route from Fair Grounds to Keeneland are suing the equine transport company and the driver in federal court, seeking "not less than" $3 million in compensatory damages and a separate amount in punitive damages that the plaintiffs want decided at a trial.

The collective owners of the three horses that perished and the four that were hurt--all from the barn of trainer Eddie Kenneally--stated in their complaint that the lawsuit "arises from the negligence, fraud and gross breaches and derelictions" of the defendants, Crech Horse Transportation, Inc. (a Missouri corporation with an office in Kentucky) and its employee driver, Guy Landmeier.

The complaint, which was filed Sept. 30 in a Kentucky state court but was removed to United States District Court (Western District of Kentucky at Louisville) Oct. 24 because it is a civil action against an interstate motor carrier involving a controversy exceeding $10,000, alleges that Landmeier had been driving for more than 11 hours at the time of the accident; that he had not taken a required 10-consecutive-hour break before his shift, and that Crech management had "impliedly and explicitly represented" that the shipping would be shared by two drivers who would be following all relevant rules and laws.

"Crech Horse Transportation knew or should have known that Landmeier had exceeded his permissible working hours [and] was fatigued and was unable to complete the trip in a safe manner," the complaint stated.

courtesy Bardstown Fire Department

In an Oct. 25 answer to the complaint, the defendants denied "any acts of deceit, oppression, malice, fraud and/or gross negligence."

Crech and Landmeier stated in their legal filing that, "the damages alleged in the complaint may be the direct and proximate result of superseding and/or intervening causes over which Defendants had no responsibility or control."

The defendants also stated in their answer that the plaintiffs "were knowledgeable shippers of Thoroughbred horses" and that they allegedly "were or should have been aware of time limits for filing claims and liability limitations for carriers," which are common equine industry contract terms for the shipping of horses.

Crech and Landmeier stated that in this instance, the plaintiffs allegedly agreed to shipping terms "limiting liability to $5,000 per horse in exchange for a reduced charge for providing transport services."

The owners of the seven horses--TSF Thoroughbred Racing, LLC; Insuraclaim, Inc.; Eddie Kenneally; Valerio Bloodstock Management, LLC; Showdown Kings II, LLC; Shaun McCarthy; Castleton Lyons, Inc.; Doug Arnold; Eric Kenneally; Kenneally Racing Stable, LLC, and Orpen Horses, LLC, (doing business as Double O Racing)--claim their damage calculations are based on losses from the equine deaths, the injuries and veterinary bills for the surviving horses, lost earnings from the inability to race, and personal pain and suffering.

The defendants, in response, stated in their answer that they want "judgment in their favor and [to] be awarded costs of suit, including attorney fees, as set forth in [the] bill of lading and terms and conditions of shipment."

According to a social media post from the Bardstown Fire Department that TDN initially reported on the day of the accident seven months ago, when rescue units arrived on the scene of the 4:49 a.m. crash, "they found a tractor trailer on an embankment. The trailer, carrying Thoroughbreds, became dislodged from the king pin and ripped the cab of the truck from the frame.

"Crews extricated the driver from the vehicle in about 30 minutes," the fire department stated. "The driver was flown to University of Louisville Hospital. Anderson County large animal rescue was dispatched to assist with the removal of the Thoroughbreds from the trailer. Removal of the Thoroughbreds took approximately four hours."

The Bardstown Police Department's report--which was not available in the immediate aftermath of the accident, but was attached to the lawsuit as an exhibit--cited "fatigue, fell asleep, inattention" under the section listing "human factors" that allegedly contributed to the crash.

JACK GILLIGAN JOINS INGLIS DIGITAL USA

Jack Gilligan has retired from race riding and has joined Inglis Digital USA as the auction company's new sales and recruitment associate. In his new role, Gilligan will focus on helping Inglis Digital USA recruit horses, with a focus on racing-age offerings, traveling to tracks across the country to build and maintain relationships and help connect sellers with potential buyers. He will be based at the company's Lexington office and will work with senior director of sales and recruitment Kyle Wilson.

A native of Newmarket, England, Gilligan has ridden in over 4,000 races on three different continents, tallying more than 440 wins. His biggest stateside success came aboard Silver Dust, who he rode to wins in the GIII Mineshaft Handicap and GIII West Virginia Governor's Stakes for trainer Bret Calhoun.

"After struggling with a shoulder injury these past few months, I have decided to hang up my boots," Gilligan said. "I have been very lucky to have had the great career I had in America and England these last 11 years, and I feel very privileged to have ridden for all of the great trainers and owners that have believed in me. I walk away from being a jockey with a lot of happy memories.

"With the end of a chapter, begins a new one," he continued. "Bloodstock and sales have been another passion of mine, and Inglis Digital USA is at the forefront of online horse sales. I am very excited to be a part of their team and look forward to help grow their brand and presence within the USA."

Inglis Digital USA CEO Liza Hendriks added, "We are thrilled to have Jack join the team as we continue to grow and expand Inglis Digital USA's reach in the racehorse market. Jack brings a unique depth of experience as a retired jockey and a network that will be invaluable as we work to offer our clients access to racehorses available across the country."

FRIDAY'S INSIGHTS: $1.4M INTO MISCHIEF COLT DEBUTS AT CHURCHILL DOWNS

by Christina Bossinakis

Mischief at Keeneland in 2023 | Keeneland

3rd-CD, $120K, Msw, 2yo, 7f, 2:02p.m.

Winchell Thoroughbreds' MISCHIEVOUS INTENT (Into Mischief) kicks off for trainer Steve Asmussen at Churchill Downs Friday. Working steadily at the Louisville oval of late, including a three-furlong move in :37 2/5 Oct. 28. The colt out of MGISW Guarana brought $1.4 million at Keeneland September in 2023. His dam, a daughter of Ghostzapper, realized $4.4 million at the Fasig-Tipton November sale in 2021 and a colt by Charlatan out of the mare brought $1.4 million at Keeneland this past September. Erik Asmussen gets the call for his father.

Also making their career bows here are Multiverse (Practical Joke), a $575,000 KESEP purchase for Pin Oak Stud and Guardian (Constitution), who brought the same amount at Keeneland last year from WinStar Farm and Twin Creeks Racing. The former is trained by Riley Mott, while the latter is conditioned by Brad Cox. TJCIS PPs Shadwell's MUHIMMA (Munnings) marks her return after an impressive 7 1/2-length winner in her debut going 6 1/2 panels over this surface Sept. 20. Earning 'TDN Rising Star' status with that victory, the daughter of SW and GISP Princesa Carolina (Tapit), is a $700,000 Keeneland September yearling purchase. The grey is rejoined by Florent Geroux here. Other first out winners to make their second starts here—Hollygrove (Complexity) returns after graduating in her debut going five furlongs here May 24 and Candy Quest (Connect) makes her first start since winning a six-furlong turf test at the Big A Oct. 3.

First out winner Liam in the Dust (Liam's Map), who followed up with a close-up second in Churchill's GIII Pocahonas Stakes Sept. 14, resumes after trailing home in the GI Alcibiades Oct. 4.

Registering a single win from six starts overseas, King of Gosford won three straight after hitting the U.S. shores, including the John Shear Stakes and the Desert Code Stakes, both at Santa Anita over 6 1/2 furlongs.

Sixth after finding himself farther back than anticipated in the one-mile Oceanside, the chestnut finished a much improved second in Del Mar's 8 1/2-furlong La Jolla Handicap in August. Facing tough company last time out, the son of Zoustar came home a credible third behind his elders in the 6 1/2-furlong Gll Eddie D Stakes Sept. 28 and was sent off the 6-5 choice facing straight 3-year-olds this time.

Breaking from the far outside in post 9, King of Gosford took off after the leaders, but was guided over to a two-wide fifth as Take Me to Church (Ire) (Churchill {Ire}) led through a :22.18 opening quarter. Still in fourth following a :47.08 half, the favorite was poised to attack the pacesetter turning for home. Spurting to the front in the stretch, he drew clear and proved 2 1/2 length better than Hard Headed with British Isles farther back in third.

DREAMING OF MO (f, 4, Uncle Mo--Dreaming of You, by Pioneerof the Nile) has been on the board in all but one of her six starts since switching to the turf for Dale Romans. Missing by a neck in her last start going 1 1/8 miles at Keeneland Oct. 4, the 8-5 second choice enjoyed an inside trip after settling just off the pace in this rained-off test. Coming through against the rail turning for home, Dreaming of Mo kicked away to come in four lengths in front of Sanctify (Audible).

TDN CRITERIA

The races covered in the TDN are as follows:

- Stakes: purses of $40,000/up
- Allowance Races: purses of $20,000/up
- Optional Claiming Races: purses of $20,000/up
- Maiden Special Weight Races: purses of $18,000/up
- Maiden Claiming Races: purses of $18,000/up & a minimum claiming price of $40,000

Dreaming of You, purchased for $500,000 with the winner in utero at KEENOV in 2019, is a half to MGSW/GISP Justwhistledixie (Dixie Union), herself the dam of GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile winner New Year's Day (Street Cry {Ire}), MGSW Mohaymen (Tapit), GSW Kingly (Tapit) and GSW/GISP Enforceable (Tapit). She has a 2-year-old Constitution colt named Freedom of Speech and foaled a Jack Christopher filly this year before going back to Volatile. Sales History: $700,000 Ylg '21 FTSAUG. MY CHARM (f, 2, Bernardini--Itsmyluckycharm {MSW, $227,891}, by Itsmyluckyday), an impressive debut winner at Delaware in early August, earned a stakes placing last out when second in the rained-off Selima Stakes over course and distance Sept. 28. The 2-1 second choice stayed just off the pace at the back of the first flight up the backstretch past the half in :47.05 and swarmed up five wide at the top of the stretch with a long stretch run ahead of her. Closing past the leaders, she hit the front at the sixteenth marker and just lasted over 45-1 longshot Rosieontheriver (Kantharos) who came up a neck short in a driving finish. My Charm, her dam's first foal, has a yearling Mendelssohn half-brother who sold for $30,000 at KEEJAN and a wealing half-brother by Goldencents. Itsmyluckycharm went to Olympiad for 2025. TOUR PLAYER (c, 3, American Pharoah--Inshannity, by Ghostzapper) failed to break his maiden in four prior efforts for his breeder/trainer Bob Baffert before switching to Rodolphe Brisset's care for this one. The 2-1 second choice needed to be straightened into stride shortly after the break but quickly had his feet under him to settle third along the outside. Just waiting for his cue at the quarter pole, Tour Player responded in kind in his first try over a sloppy surface and pulled away handily to graduate by 4 1/2 lengths over Nyquist Frequency (Nyquist). The winner has a 2-year-old Maximum Security half-sister, a yearling half-sister by Mitole and a weanling half-brother by Connect. Inshannity went to Volatile for next term. GRAND JOB (f, 3, Justify--Sure Route {GB} {MSP, $201,163}, by Ishiguru) made her first North American start Thursday and certainly seemed to take to the Aqueduct main track after four prior starts in Ireland on both grass and Tapeta as a juvenile. Off the 13-month layoff and racing with Lasix for the first time, the 5-2 second choice got away quickly and led narrowly inside of No Tricks (Into Mischief). Shaking off that pressure into the far turn, she had plenty to offer in the final furlongs, coming home under an easy hand ride to win by six lengths. Shop Lifting (Into Mischief) came from the back to be second. Sure Route, who sold carrying the winner in utero for $17,000 at KEENOV in 2021, has already produced Divine Image (Scat Daddy), Hwt.-UAE- at 7 - 9 1/2 f., GSW-UAE, $391,535. NILO'S ROSE (f, 2, Promises Fulfilled--Summer's Indy {SP, $267,037}, by Take Charge Indy), runner up in her debut going a sixteenth shorter in the slop here Sept. 28, was installed the 1-2 choice to go one better this time. Not far behind an opening quarter in :22.36, the bay caught the pacesetter Frankie Hiccups (King for a Day) from the outside at the quarter pole and while the early leader resisted briefly, it was Nilo's Rose who shook loose late to post a 2 3/4-length victory. Sent off the emphatic 1-5 favorite this time, she was rushed to the front from his inside draw and cut out an opening quarter mile in :22.87 as Zoe's Candy (Danzing Candy) tried to keep pace. Putting away Defined Boundaries (Mo Town) and Bernie the Star (Uncle Lino) off the turn, he pulled clear under a drive to roll home six lengths in front.

Buy Tom a Beer (Preservationist) closed for second. U.S.-BRED/SIRED RUNNERS IN JAPAN

US BRED WINNING HAS NO BOUNDARIES

In this continuing series, Alan Carasso takes a look ahead at US-bred and/or conceived runners entered for the upcoming weekend at the tracks on the Japan Racing Association circuit, with a focus on pedigree and/or performance in the sales ring. Here are the horses of interest for this weekend running at Fukushima and Tokyo Racecourses. Sunday's horses of interest will appear in Saturday's TDN:

Saturday, November 2, 2024

1st-FKS, ¥10,480,000 ($69k), Maiden, 2yo, 1700m
CHUWA CHIEF (c, 2, Tom's d'Etat--Figure, by Overanalyze) gave an excellent account of himself on Chukyo debut Sept. 7, outrunning odds of 10-1 to fill out the exacta, beaten 3 1/2 lengths going nine furlongs. A $60,000 Keeneland September yearling turned $190,000 OBS March juvenile, the Mar. 12 foal is out of a stakes-placed half-sister to Grade III winner Ben's Duchess (Munnings). The extended female family includes GI Hollywood Derby hero Vergennes (Dynaformer). B-WinStar Farm LLC (KY)

European champion Brave Anna fetched $3 million when offered in foal to Quality Road at Fasig-Tipton November in 2021 | Fasig-Tipton

2nd-TOK, ¥10,480,000 ($69k), Maiden, 2yo, 1600m

ERIKA MAYURI (JPN) (f, 2, Quality Road--Brave Anna, by War Front) split horses to lead inside the final furlong of her course-and-distance debut only to get tagged on the wire at a well-backed 22-5. Brave Anna, the highweight 2-year-old filly in Europe after taking out the 2016 G1 Cheveley Park Stakes, was purchased by Masahiro Miki with this filly in utero for $3 million at Fasig-Tipton November in 2021. The mare is a daughter of Irish Group 3 winner Liscanna (Ire) (Sadler's Wells), whose seven additional winners includes 2015 GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf hero Hit It a Bomb (War Front) and dual Group 1 winner Opera Singer (Justify), and the family also includes Group 2-placed dam of GISP Grafton Street (War Front). B-EM Planning LLC
