'A KID IN A CANDY STORE NIGHT': STARS COME OUT FOR FASIG-TIPTON NOVEMBER SALE

Newtown Paddocks | Fasig-Tipton

by Jessica Martini

The Fasig-Tipton November Sale--looking to keep a streak of $100 million-plus gross renewals going into a fourth year--will be held Monday at Newtown Paddocks in Lexington. Bidding on the 321 catalogued offerings begins at 2 p.m. and kicks off with an offering of 159 weanlings before continuing on with a glittering array of fillies and mares.

"My expectations for the November sale--like they are every year--are sky high," said Fasig-Tipton President Boyd Browning, Jr. "They are high because of the quality of the horses who are in the catalogue. We've got really, really quality horses, from the foals, to fillies and mares on the racetrack, to fillies and mares coming off the racetrack, to in-foal mares. I think in many ways, it is as deep a catalogue as we have had in forever. The fillies and mares and the foals are better than they have ever been, in terms of the number and quality. It's kind of like a kid in the candy store on that night."

HOT OPENING HALF YIELDS PAINT-BY-NUMBERS CLASSIC by T.D. Thornton

The number that best sums up this year's Breeders' Cup is :44.96. That's the sizzling opening half-mile split for the GI Classic, and 'TDN Rising Star' Sierra Leone (Gun Runner) utilized it to the utmost advantage on Saturday, propelling himself to the winner's circle with one of his customary, locomotive-like late kicks that had come up just shy of victory in three previous attempts at 10 furlongs.

As a relentless long-strider with a penchant for leaning in and being a magnet for trip trouble during his stretch runs, Sierra Leone was allowed to drift up to almost 7-1 in the betting for the Classic, with the public's respect for his prowess blunted by three straight beaten-fave tries that had resulted in a third, a second, and a third in the GI Belmont S., Gil Jim Dandy S. and the GI Travers S. Cont., p5

The catalogue received several timely updates during Breeders' Cup weekend, including the final supplemental additions to the catalogue. Takingtimeoff (Curlin) (hip 318) is a 6-year-old broodmare who was added to the auction Saturday, a day after her half-sister Immersive (Nyquist) capped off an unbeaten season with her third Grade I victory in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies.

Canadian Horse of the Year Moira (Ghostzapper) made her third trip to the Breeders' Cup a winning one Saturday in the GI F/M Turf and will go through the Fasig-Tipton sales ring Monday as hip 293, while Ag Bullet (Twirling Candy) was third in the GI Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint and is catalogued as hip 216.

Three additional supplements were announced Sunday morning, including the addition of the dam of Breeders' Cup champion Soul of An Angel (Atreides).

Namely, they are Uncorked (Aus) (Pierro {Aus}) (hip 319), Factor One (The Factor) (hip 320)--dam of said Breeders' Cup champion, and Susie's Baby (Giant's Causeway) (hip 321).

Factor One enjoyed a major update Saturday when her daughter, Soul of An Angel, defeated top sprinters in the GI Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Sprint to claim her third graded stakes, and first at the elite level. She is the dam's first foal. Factor One is consigned by Hill 'n' Dale as agent.

Also included is Australian-bred Uncorked, winner of this year's GIII Royal Heroine Stakes and who ran second in the GIII Goldikova Stakes on Saturday. She is being offered as a racing or broodmare prospect with Elite as agent.

The last to go through the ring, Susie's Baby is herself a half-sister to multiple Group 1 winner Caravaggio (Scat Daddy), and hails from a very active family. Her first foal is GSW & MGISP Family Way (Uncle Mo). She is offered in foal to Gun Runner, and consigned by Hill 'n' Dale as agent.

The weanlings on offer at the November sale include the first foals of superstar Flightline, as well as champions Jackie's Warrior, Corniche and Epicenter.

Breeders' Cup winners with their first foals represented in the catalogue are Aloha West, Golden Pal, and Life Is Good, as well as Grade I winners Cyberknife, Drain the Clock, Early Voting, Happy Saver, Idol, Jack Christopher and Olympiad. GI Kentucky Derby winner Mandaloun has his first weanlings in the catalogue, as do graded winner Greatest Honor and stakes-winning speedster Nashville.

During last year's November sale, 25 mares sold for seven figures, with 16 selling for $2 million or more and 10 selling for $3 million or over. The auction was topped by a pair of mares who sold for $6 million.

Mike Repole bought out his partners on champion Nest (Curlin) at that price and John Stewart bid that amount for Goodnight Olive (Ghostzapper) just days after that champion won her second GI Breeders' Cup F/M Sprint.

A total of 154 horses grossed $101,281,000 a year ago, for an average of $657,669 and a median of $295,000.

Browning is expecting to see a similar marketplace at this year's November sale.

"There is no reason for there to be any significant change from 2023," he said.

"All in all, I would say the yearling market was pretty similar to last year, maybe slightly better at the upper end and maybe slightly weaker at the lower end. And we are in a fortunate position with this one particular sale, we deal really only in terms of quality.

"I don't think anyone is coming to the November sale this year thinking it's going to be a great buyer's market," Browning continued. Cont.

Prior to those close-but-no-cigar efforts, Sierra Leone had similarly rated near the back in the GI Kentucky Derby. Advancing with authority entering the far turn, he gathered momentum weaving through the 20-horse pack, then got stalled behind a wall of rivals three-eighths out.

Eight wide off the turn while building serious late-Derby torque, this $2.3 million FTSAUG yearling was leaning all over Forever Young (Jpn) (Real Steel {Jpn}) the entire length of the stretch run, which culminated in a frenzied three-way photo with staying-on speedster Mystik Dan (Goldencents) a nose better than Sierra Leone, with Forever Young another nose back in third.

Trainer Chad Brown then spent the better part of the late spring and summer trying to figure out how to keep Sierra Leone from being his own worst enemy in the stretch, employing both a new steering bit in the colt's mouth and a new jockey on his back (from Tyler Gaffalione to Flavien Prat) from the Belmont Stakes onward.

Although those tweaks--plus some natural seasoning that comes with maturity--likely contributed to a more polished version of Sierra Leone staying straight and focused in the Breeders' Cup, the overly hot first half-mile of the Classic is what truly sealed the deal in his favor.

In eight previous races ranging from eight to 10 furlongs, Sierra Leone had compiled a respectable 3-3-2 mark. But his off-the-tailgate style had never been afforded any opening half-mile faster than :46.48, regardless of the distance. That one comparatively quick split was when Sierra Leone rallied from ninth to capture the nine-furlong GI Blue Grass S. back in April.

Sierra Leone had been winless since, and even as his races grew longer, the paces were generally slower.

In Sierra Leone's three previous attempts at 10 furlongs (Derby, Belmont, Travers), the half-mile fractions into which he tried to close ranged from :46.63 to :48.10. All three of those races were won by horses forcing the issue near the front.

The Classic yielded not only unexpectedly swift early fractions, but an unexpected pacemaker who set them.

The 42-1 Derma Sotogake (Jpn) (Mind Your Biscuits), who had finished second in last year's edition of this race by stalking from midpack, established himself at the head of affairs at Del Mar when Arthur's Ride (Tapit), a 13-1 shot who projected to be the controlling speed, got hooked wide into the first turn.

The speed-centric 'TDN Rising Star' Fierceness (City of Light), bet down late to 2.8-1 favoritism, secured a no-excuse stalking spot just to the outside and right behind Derma Sotogake, contributing pressure that helped establish an ambitious opening quarter of :22.43. Cont.

Forever Young | Sara Gordon

Behind the percolating pace, the versatile Forever Young (4-1) latched onto a coveted ground-saving position at the fence after breaking uneventfully from the inside gate. 'TDN Rising Star' Newgate (Into Mischief) set up shop widest on the backstretch and seemed very much in it to win it while tracking the action from fifth at 15-1.

Even at this early stage of the Classic, fellow 'Rising Star' and 7-2 shot City of Troy (Justify), the British-based turf titan, was already displaying signs of discomfort that indicated his first race on dirt was not going to be a productive one.

City of Troy kept edging back through the pack until he more or less shared a spot with by-design laggard Sierra Leone, whose body language suggested that he, by contrast, was well within his comfort zone three or four horses from last behind an unsustainable second quarter-mile split of :22.53.

At the 3 1/2-furlong mark, Fierceness took over in hand, although his seizure of the lead was more of a result of Derma Sotogake capitulating rather than Fierceness unleashing a decisive move.

The pack of stalkers behind the 2-year-old champ shuffled a bit, but the true eye-catching move was uncoiling from farther back, as Prat asked Sierra Leone for a higher gear that the colt willingly supplied.

A :24.48 third quarter translated into a six-furlong split of 1:09.44, and Newgate was the first to try and crack Fierceness. But his bid approaching the quarter pole never materialized into a true run at the leader.

Just behind the top two, Forever Young had vacated the rail and was executing a deft slice between the retreating Derma Sotogake and the going-nowhere Arthur's Ride.

But the most visually arresting blur on the far outside was Sierra Leone, who hit full flight and was zeroing in on Fierceness after a :25.61 fourth-quarter split that equated to 1:35.05 for the mile.

Initially it seemed as if Sierra Leone would collar Fierceness with little resistance. But when headed, Fierceness put up a decent fight between the eighth and sixteenth poles to hold second.

Forever Young was closing the gap late, but he had too much work to do to narrow the margin to anything close to what he and Sierra Leone had sparred through in the Derby, and he had to settle, yet again, for third.

The Sierra Leone-Fierceness-Forever Young trifecta marked the first time since 2014 that sophomores swept the first three spots in the Classic. (That Classic 10 years ago was ultra-impressive for 3-year-olds, who, led by Bayern, captured the first six placings.)

Sierra Leone's closing final quarter through the stretch was :25.73. He won by 1 1/2 lengths in 2:00.78--a 112 Beyer Speed Figure, the colt's career best by three points.

Still, none of that final-time numerology explains the story of the 2024 Classic as emphatically as that record :44.96 half mile.

Not only was it the fastest fraction for the first half mile in the history of the Classic, it was the fastest by more than a full half-second. The previous mark was :45.47, established in the 2022 Classic won by the pace-pressing Flightline.

Interestingly, based on opening half-mile times alone, the Classic has been consistently trending faster in its early stages.

In 40 previous editions of the race before this year, on only eight occasions has the first half-mile of the Classic been clocked below 46 seconds.

DARLEY SETS NYQUIST'S FEE AT $175,000 FOR 2025 SEASON

Nyquist will stand the 2025 season at Jonabell Farm for $175,000, Darley announced Sunday. The son of Uncle Mo, who stood last year for $85,000, sired his second GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies winner Saturday when Immersive capped an undefeated season.

"When you speak of the best stallions right now in North America, Nyquist has to be in that conversation," said Darley America Sales Manager Darren Fox. "His progeny reflect amazing versatility: short, long, dirt and turf. It really doesn't matter the surface or distance. His best books are his most recent books so all indicators point to continued success in the future."

Nyquist's four Grade I winners in 2024 puts him among North America's elite stallions, with only Into Mischief having more. In addition to Immersive, Nyquist is also the sire of GI Shoemaker Mile winner and GI Breeders' Cup Mile runner-up Johannes plus GI Ogden Phipps winner Randomized and GI Del Mar Debutante winner Tenma. Additional top runners in 2024 include unbeaten 'TDN Rising Star' and MGSW Nysos, GIII Lexington Stakes winner Encino and two-time stakes-winning juvenile Studlydoright who took Saturday's Nashua Stakes at Aqueduct. Cont.

BREEDERS' CUP FOLLOW-UPS: SIERRA LEONE WELL, FUTURE PLANS TBA

GI Breeders' Cup Classic winner 'TDN Rising Star' Sierra Leone (Gun Runner) has come out of the marquee race in good order, according to Chad Brown, and will return to Kentucky Monday morning.

"Everything's all good," said assistant trainer Baldo Hernandez Sunday morning after showing the horse to the media. "He will ship tomorrow to Kentucky and maybe Florida after that. I don't know for sure, it's up to the boss."

The connections are expected to announce future plans for the colt soon.

Sean Flanagan of Flanagan Racing confirmed that 'TDN Rising Star' MGISW Chancer McPatrick (McKinzie) will return to Florida for the winter with the long-term goal of pointing toward the GI Kentucky Derby. He finished sixth in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile.

"We'll bring him down to Payson Park and sometime in January get him back going on the Derby trail."

In the Todd Pletcher camp, 'TDN Rising Star' MGISW Fierceness (City of Light) came out of his runner-up effort in the Classic well and the expectation is that he will continue his career in 2025.

"He came out of the race very well," Pletcher said. Cont.

“Looks good this morning. He's going to go to Kentucky tomorrow and is going to get a complete physical. Currently, the plan would be for him to go on to Palm Beach Downs from there and prepare for a 4-year-old campaign.”

Pletcher couldn't point to a specific next start for Fierceness but did say the big-money early season contests for older horses at Gulfstream Park--namely the GI Pegasus World Cup Invitational--will be considered.

“It's a little premature to say exactly what we're going to point for,” he said. “We'll see how the physical goes. Then the Pegasus is in play, the Saudi Cup is in play, the Dubai World Cup is in play. A lot of options. And he's had a pretty steady campaign. Hasn't been out of training. Ran in the Breeders' Cup Juvenile last year and Breeders' Cup this year. It's premature to firm up an exact race schedule, but lot of possibilities.”

After rallying to sixth, 'TDN Rising Star' GISW Tapit Trice (Tapit) has also returned in good shape. Pletcher was impressed with the effort, and said the plan was for the horse to go to Kentucky while the ownership group made a decision on if he would be retired to stud or return for 2025.

A stable representative from third-place finisher Forever Young (Jpn) (Real Steel {Jpn})'s camp confirmed their multiple group winning star had emerged well and that they would like to return next year.

Bill Mott contends that GISW Arthur's Ride (Tapit) had landed a tough situation in the Classic when the Japanese contender, 2023 GI Breeders' Cup Classic runner-up Derma Sotogake (Jpn), (Mind Your Biscuits) blazed through early splits of :22.43, :44.96, and six furlongs in 1:09.44.

“It wasn't the scenario we visualized,” Mott said. “He [jockey Junior Alvarado] was forced to make a decision by the time he got down to the wire the first time. He either had to follow, track [Derma Sotogake] around the turn or gun him and try to go by. And, as you know, they went pretty fast.”

Trainer Doug Cowns was disappointed in the last-place performance, but not in MGSW Next (Not This Time), who will return to his marathon dirt races for 2025.

“He'll be back next year,” Cowans said. “We'll see him in the Issac Murphy at Churchill Downs during Derby week.”

The Distaff

MGISW Thorpedo Anna (Fast Anna) was on the red-eye flight out of California and back to Magdalena Farm in Lexington Sunday morning, where the 'TDN Rising Star' will get an extended layoff after capping her championship season with a 2 1/2-length win in the Distaff. Cont.

Trainer Kenny McPeek reports she's come out in great shape. She will be given a 'huge' stall on the farm, likely have her hind shoes off for a bit, and have access to the many amenities the farm provides for her vacation.

McPeek included that there is no timetable for when she might return to training and no schedule mapped out for 2025.

While Thorpedo Anna will almost certainly be the Eclipse Award winner for the 3-year-old filly category, there is a strong nod to Horse of the Year consideration as well.

"I am just really proud of her," McPeek said. "There were certainly high expectations, and she came through. It has been a fantastic year, and we are just looking forward to getting home."

Third-place finisher GISW Candied (Candy Ride {Arg}) is reportedly in fine condition after the race, and there are plans for a 2025 campaign for her as well after a freshening.

When asked how his Distaff-fourth came out of the race, Alice Verite (Jpn) (Kizuna {Jpn})'s trainer Kazuya Nakatake reponded, "She is good. We are tired in a good way!"

The Turf

The globetrotting Rebel's Romance (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) became the first horse to win the Turf in non-consecutive years Saturday, and has been given a sterling account for himself since then.

"He pulled up well this morning, ate up and the whole team ships out [Sunday] afternoon," confirmed trainer Charlie Appleby's head traveling assistant, Chris Connett.

Godolphin representatives reported that the seven-time Group/Grade I winner will point toward the G1 Longines Dubai Sheema Classic Apr. 5 in 2025, which he won this year as well, and a potential start in the G1 Longines Hong Kong Vase in the interim is thus far undecided. Cont.

Reports from the Japanese contingent state that trainer Hiroyasu Tanaka was pleased with runner-up Rousham Park (Jpn) (Harbinger {GB})'s effort and that he's come out well. A stable representative confirmed a similar prognosis for third-place finisher Shahryar (Jpn) (Deep Impact {Jpn}), just that he was 'unlucky at the final bends'.

The Sprint

MyRacehorse's GI Breeders' Cup Sprint champion Straight No Chaser (Speightster) returned to Santa Anita Sunday with no immediate plans set for him.

"I'm not sure what's next for him but I am enjoying this one," said trainer Dan Blacker, who won his first Breeders' Cup race.

The winner's share of the purse boosted jockey John Velazquez's total to $39,330,275 to surpass Mike Smith as the leading all-time earner at the Breeders' Cup.

The Dirt Mile

GI Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile victor Full Serrano (Arg) (Full Mast) has come out of his effort Saturday in fine form after pulling the 13-1 upset as the nightcap to a big Saturday of championship racing.

"Beautiful. He ate up and looks great," said owner Kosta Hronis.

"Dappled and shiny," Stephanie Hronis added. "Doesn't look exhausted."

John Sadler provided a good prognosis for his star and announced the most immediate plan was to ship the horse back up to Santa Anita Sunday morning. As for 2025 plans, Hronis says those are up to Sadler.

"We'll get him up to Santa Anita," said Sadler. "He leaves this morning. We'll check him out up there over the next week or so then we'll start to map out some plans."

A possible next stop could be the GI Pegasus World Cup Invitational in January, something on the stakes schedule at Santa Anita or a venture to the Middle East.

The Filly & Mare Sprint

GI Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Sprint winner Soul of An Angel (Atreides) is headed back to Florida Tuesday, and could have a trip to the Saudi Cup in her future should all go well.

"She will probably run once [in Florida]," said trainer Saffie Joseph Jr., who won his first Breeders' Cup event in the race. "I think all being well, she'll probably try and go to the Saudi Cup. There's no two ways about it--she's a one-turn horse. At two turns, her stamina is tested, whereas one turn she has plenty of stamina."

The Mile

Victory Racing Partners' GI Breeders' Cup Mile victor More Than Looks (More Than Ready) returns to Kentucky Monday, where the team will evaluate further plans. The Mile was trainer Cherie DeVaux's first at the World Championships, making her the ninth female trainer to do so, and it was More Than Looks's first Grade I-victory.

"He came back really well," assistant trainer Enrique Miranda said. "He doesn't even look very tired. Everyone is really excited and everything is in good order."

Runner-up GISW Johannes (Nyquist) is expected to race into 2025, according to trainer Tim Yakteen, though how they'll proceed is still undecided.

"He came out of his race in excellent shape," Yakteen said. "Our thoughts on our next race, and how we move forward off this race, is that we still haven't completely digested everything, and we'll take a week or so and figure it out."

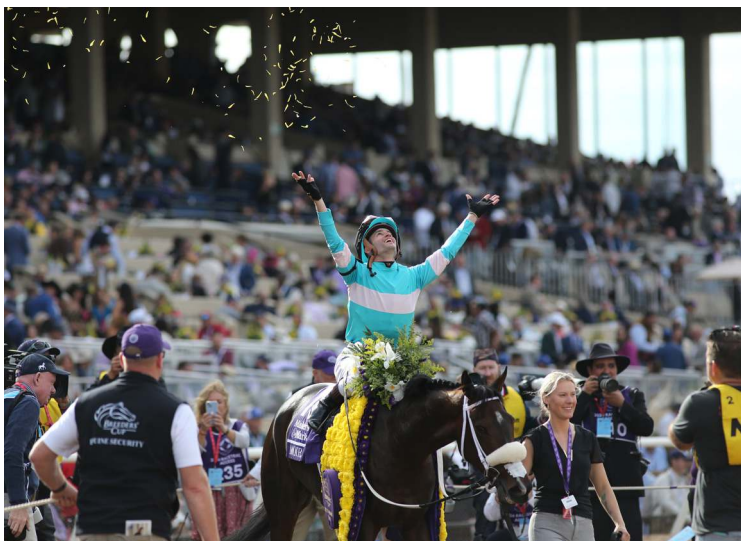

"He ran absolutely super. We're very, very proud of our horse."

The Filly & Mare Turf

Canadian Horse of the Year, and newly crowned Breeders' Cup champion, multiple Grade I-placed Moira (Ghstzapper) was on a plane Sunday heading for Lexington, where she is slated to pass through the ring at the Fasig-Tipton 'Night of the Stars' Monday. Stablemate GISW Full Count Felicia (War Front), who finished seventh, will also be sold.

"They both came out really well and ate up the feed tub last night," trainer Kevin Attard said. "They both look well. Chances are they're moving on to their next career, or maybe they'll head to a different stable."

Moira notched the elusive Grade I-victory which haunted her career--she'd been second or third five times at the elite level--

Undercard Performers

No worse for wear, too, was MSW Show Card (Into Mischief), who flipped in the paddock prior to the GIII Bayakoa Stakes Saturday on the undercard, and had to be scratched.

"She was on her toes and she went up and lost her footing and she laid down on the shavings," said trainer Bob Baffert. "Once she sat down, that was it."

HE'S NOT JOKING GETS LAST LAUGH IN GREY STAKES

He's Not Joking (Practical Joke) closed from the rear of the field to take the GIII Grey Stakes at Woodbine.

A local at this venue, he debuted Aug. 4 to a game runner-up effort and proceeded to graduate from the maiden ranks Sept. 15 by 1 1/4 lengths. Cont.

Kazushi Kimura | Benoit

Last seen Oct. 13 in the Display Stakes, he would run an even third behind Thundering (Mosler), who was the longest shot on the board then, and SW Bucaro (Bucchero).

Off at 10-1 odds here, he raced along near the back of the group as 3-2 favorite Shifty (Medaglia d'Oro) put up :23.76 and :47.01 opening splits. Shifting out wide leaving the first bend, he began his march passing the five-eighths and made steady progress from as far as five off the rail through the final turn.

Striking the lead in upper stretch, He's Not Joking poured it on from there and hit the wire four lengths best of DeWolf (Silent Name {Jpn}), who claimed second over that longtime leader.

"From the three-eighths, he had a beautiful acceleration," said winning rider Kazushi Kimura. "I felt very confident."

The victory here was owner Di Scola Boys Stable's first stakes win.

"It feels awesome," said John Di Scola. "We waited a long time to get on this side of the grass. Very proud of the way he stepped up and finished today."

"To be honest, I have to give hats off to Josie [Carroll, Canadian Horse Racing Hall of Fame trainer] on that. She was the one who thought he could get two turns, and I was kind of doubting her, but she was spot on. He showed up in a big way today to polish them all off."

Pedigree Note:

He's Not Joking is the first to the races for his dam, and her first winner. His dam also has a yearling colt by Silver State named October Wedding as well as a 2024 full-sister to the winner. Colledgeville Girl (Central Banker), who won the Listed Iroquois Stakes as a racehorse before moving on to the breeding shed, visited Instagrاند for 2025.

SOMETHINABOUTHER HOLDS THEM ALL OFF TO CLAIM MAZARINE

Game to the very end, Somethinabouther (Mendelssohn) held off a hard-charging rival to secure her first black-type victory in the Mazarine Stakes.

Third when she debuted June 14 sprinting over Churchill's main track, she broke her maiden at second asking Aug. 4 at Ellis Park going long on the turf by a neck. Her trip to Kentucky Downs to contest the Kentucky Downs Juvenile Fillies Stakes yielded a sixth-place result, and her try at the GII Jessamine Stakes at Keeneland Oct. 4 had her finishing ninth in a wild finish were the top seven came within three lengths of each other on the line.

Jumping here with first-time Lasix and at 15-1 odds, she stalked the action up front from the third flight, and was in no rush up the backstretch as :47.65 and 1:12.59 splits sailed by with 9-5 favorite Foxtastic (Speightstown) having things largely her own way.

Mendelssohn | Sarah Andrew

Urged along as runners closed ranks, Somethinabouther was circling the field via the overland route with three furlongs left to run, and was six wide with a full head of steam coming into the lane. Taking control passing the sixteenth marker, she had the favorite in her rear view mirror but had to brace herself for the fast-closing As Catch Can (Mo Town). The line came just in time and the 18-1 shot's rally came a neck short. Ready for Candy (Twirling Candy) claimed the last trifecta spot.

“That’s the setup I wanted,” said winning rider Declan Cannon, of his off-the-pace plans. “I knew I’d do my best work late and I just wanted to bide my time and let her find her rhythm. It worked out perfect.”

“We’ve always liked her. After she broke her maiden, she ran a good number, and that’s why we ran her in stakes company at Keeneland and Kentucky Downs. She is going to be a nice filly next year, I think. She’s got the frame to grow into a nice horse.”

Pedigree Note:

Out of a graded-placed daughter of GSW Quantum Miss (Smoke Glacken), Somethinabout her is the first surviving offspring to the races for Phantom Proton. The mare has since produced two fillies by Tiz the Law--a yearling and a 2024 weanling. She was bred to Epicenter for 2025. DYLAN DAVIS, CHAD BROWN, KLARAVICH CLINCH TITLES AT BELMONT BIG A MEET

Dylan Davis and Chad Brown have claimed individual meet titles for jockey and trainer, respectively, for the 2024 Belmont Big A fall meet while Klaravich Stables continued their domination of the owners' ranks, NYRA announced via release Sunday evening.

Leading all jockeys with 44 wins, it is Davis's third individual title on the NYRA circuit with a winter meet title at Aqueduct earlier this year and in 2022 under his belt. He has 177 NYRA-circuit wins in 2024 heading into Aqueduct's fall meet spanning Thursday, Nov.7 to Sunday, Dec. 29.

"[Michael Migliore] is an incredible agent and he works hard at what he does, and we work together very well," Davis said. "I also have to thank all the horses for running their 'A' game efforts every time as well as all the owners and trainers that give me these opportunities. I'm really happy to have won another title--it's a privilege and an honor and a validation of all the hard work of previous years in getting to this point today."

Kendrick Carmouche came in second with 34 wins and Manny Franco finished third with 27.

Four-time Eclipse Award-winning trainer Chad Brown won his 33rd training title at a NYRA meet, his 13th consecutive Belmont fall title, as he led all trainers with 31 wins. Linda Rice finished second with 18 while Christophe Clement and Brad Cox tied for third with 13 wins.

Seth Klarman's Klaravich Stables secured 11 wins to claim their 29th owners' title, with Michael Dubb finishing second with eight, and Sanford J. Goldfarb's seven wins bringing him home in third.

Live racing resumes Thursday at Aqueduct Racetrack for the opening day card of the fall meet which offers 26 stakes races, nine of them graded, with purses worth a total of $5.33-million. First post is 12:10p.m. ET.

Nic's Style broke her maiden at first asking by 6 1/4 lengths for trainer Ralph Nicks as a juvenile at Gulfstream Park that May, and ran up the score against Florida-breds at the optional claiming level to close at her year.

Shifting to Bill Mott's care, the filly cleared the allowance condition at Saratoga Aug. 17, but she was no match in the GII Gallant Bloom Stakes at the Big A Sept. 29 when she finished as the runner-up to GISW Ways and Means (Practical Joke).

Well-supported at 90 cents on the dollar here, the chalk shot out of the blocks, but was quickly outdueled for the top spot up the backstretch by St. Benedicts Prep (Flatter). Ranging up on the pacesetter around the far turn, the 4-year-old turned on the afterburner, grabbed the lead with a furlong left and powered home for her first black-type.

Nic's Style | Chelsea Durand

"It's been a long road," said owner Stephen Rousseau. "I want to thank Bill Mott and his team for doing a great job with her and I'd also like to thank Ralph Nicks--he persevered with her from Day One. He picked her out for me, and we really were patient with her." Cont.

"I think she's really proved herself," Rousseau said. "All throughout her career, she's had these minor issues, but Ralph always told me, 'give her some time.' She overcame everything and now we have a nice, clean 4-year-old turning five next year. Hopefully, we'll win some nice races with her."

The winner is her unraced dam's second registered foal. Sense When is responsible for a yearling colt by Higher Power and she produced a colt by Mo Town Jan. 27. She visited Mandaloun for next season. Nic's Style claims as her second dam GISP Will O Way (Broken Vow), who herself is a half-sister to the dam of MSW & million-dollar earner Paso Doble (Bold n' Flashy). Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

Breaking out of Kentucky for the first time, Generous Tipper earned his first stakes win Sunday in taking the Discovery Stakes on the closing day at Belmont's Aqueduct meet. Sent off at 9-1, the GI Claiborne Breeders' Futurity third came in off a win over the distance at Keeneland Oct. 16. Enjoying a dream set up, Generous Tipper settled fourth as Batten Down (Tapit) and Tuscan Sky locked horns early and dueled one another into the far turn. As that pair began to come back to the field past the half in :46.51, Kendrick Carmouche guided his mount inside to take over at the quarter pole and prevail to hold off a gusty Tuscan Sky who re-rallied in the final sixteenth.

"It was a perfect trip," said jockey Kendrick Carmouche. "I had

The 2-1 second choice was content to rate at the back of the five-horse field, well off the pace as Movie Moxy led the group through fractions of :24.09 and :48.70. Starting to come under a ride heading into the far turn, Evidencias picked up momentum while swinging outside of the pacesetter and gradually began to reel her in, just prevailing in the final jumps.

“Christophe told me she would stay the distance,” said winning rider Joel Rosario. “She kept getting better and better at the end and gave me a very good race. She’s a big horse and when I made my move, I stayed in the clear and kept riding from there and hoping I’d get it, and she did.”

Out of a daughter of champion grass mare Fiji (GB), the winner has just one younger sibling, 4-year-old colt Fiji Monster (Brz) (Alpha). Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

VALENTINE CANDY (c, 3, Justify--Taste Like Candy {GISP, $286,205}, by Candy Ride {Arg}), a successful multiple stakes winner who finished third in the GII Amsterdam Stakes at the Spa July 26, was last seen finishing fifth in the Harrods Creek Stakes in Louisville Sept. 21. Dropping into allowance company, the 3-year-old served as the favorite at just over even-money here. The chestnut shadowed to the outside up the backstretch of Joe Shiesty (Air Force Blue). Ready to rock around the far turn, the 3-year-old separated from the pacesetter past the eighth pole and sailed home a winner by 3 1/4 lengths over his target. Supported at the windows by the public as the 6-5 choice here, the filly dueled immediately out of the gate, but then was handed the lead into the first turn. The filly was pressed up the backstretch, but she was still in firm control around the far turn. Kicking into high gear down the lane, the juvenile dug down and found the wire by half a length over the charging Nashville Slew (Awesome Slew).

1st-Belmont The Big A, $90,000, Msw, 11-3, 2yo, 1m, 1:36.83, ft, 2 1/2 lengths.
CYCLONE STATE (c, 2, McKinzie--Chanel's Legacy {MSW & GSP, $413,144}, by Dominus) debuted off the board this summer at Aqueduct July 6, which was the first of four attempts to break his maiden. Though well-beaten twice at the Spa in August, the colt came close to graduating in an off-the-turf race at the Big A when he was the runner-up Sept. 28. Sent on his way as the 5-2 second choice here, the bay took control of the pace at the bell to the tune of :23.46 for the first quarter mile and continued to hold sway around the far turn. Blowing and going down the lane, the juvenile accelerated and got the job done with a 2 1/2-length score over Fun to Tap (Tapit). The winner's dam is responsible for a yearling filly by Blame and she foaled a colt by Volatile May 19. Chanel's Legacy was bred back to McKinzie for 2025. Cyclone State is the 16th winner for his freshman sire (Street Sense). Sales History: $70,000 Ylg '23 KEESAP. Lifetime Record: 5-1-1-0, $75,150. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV. O-Gold Square LLC, George Messina and Michael Lee; B-H. 3rd-Belmont The Big A, $75,000, (S), Msw, 11-3, 2yo, 1 1/16mT, 1:42.14, fm, 4 1/2 lengths.

REAL SAVVY (c, 2, Authentic--Savvy Sassy, by Street Sense) was well-beaten in his unveiling against New York-breds when the race was forced to the main track upstate Aug. 1. The dark bay got his chance on the turf at the Spa--once again facing state-breds-- and just missed by a head Aug. 30. Installed at 90 cents on the dollar here, the favorite used the two hole and his speed to advantage as he struck the front out of the chute. Making every pole a winning one, the colt increased his margin up the backstretch and around the far turn. The juvenile had enough in the tank to don cap and gown by 4 1/2 lengths over Sky Masterson (The Factor). The winner is a half-brother to Brattle House (Malibu Moon), SP, $260,950 and to Bourbon Bay (Bayern), MSP, $274,058. A half-sister to the dam of MGSW Plainsman (Flatter), Savvy Sassy produced a colt by Medaglia d'Oro last year and foaled a colt by Not This Time Apr. 20. She was not reported as bred for next term. Real Savvy is the 17th winner for his freshman sire (by Into Mischief). Sales History: $360,000 Ylg '23 SARAUG. Lifetime Record: 3-1-1-0, $61,950.

GEORGE BRIGGS (c, 2, Fog of War--Bamboiselle {Ire}, by Muhtathir {GB}), one of the only first-time starters in the field, had to stay wide around the first turn from his far outside draw but was able to get down closer to the inside up the backstretch run from mid pack. Fanning back out past the quarter pole, the 4-1 shot responded in kind when asked to produce a rally and closed up the crown of the track to win going away by 2 1/2 lengths over New Matthew (Flatter). The third winner for his freshman sire (by War Front), George Briggs has a weanling half-sister by Demarchelier (GB) and Bamboiselle is due back to Wicked Strong. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $41,250. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

WAR OF DESTINY (c, 2, War of Will--Lin Marie, by Curlin) made his debut on the all-weather in Toronto Oct. 13 and finished a well-beaten fifth. The 8-5 favorite here broke sharply as he trailed a pair of leaders which included stablemate War to Remember (War of Will). Game to take on his pink-clad rival, who had spurred away down the lane, the colt steadily reeled him in and triumphed in the final jump. The winner is a half-brother to Dream Marie (Graydar), MGSP, $278,420. Lin Marie foaled a filly by Charlatan and she was entered in Omaha Beach's book for 2025. War of Destiny is the 14th winner for his freshman sire (by War Front). Sales History: $135,000 Ylg '23 KEEJAN. BERNIEANDTHEROSE (f, 2, Accelerate--Berning Rose {SW, $223,800}, by Freud), third beaten just a half-length at odds of 64-1 over course and near distance Oct. 5, took considerably more money Sunday. The 4-1 shot stayed out in the clear from just off the speed up the backstretch, went three wide around the far turn past the half in :46.77 and opened up when asked to hit the front in a decisive 7 3/4-length win over Beautiful Mo (Uncle Mo). Berning Rose, also the dam of Bernietakescharge (Take Charge Indy), MSP, $221,460, has a yearling filly by Always Dreaming and a weanling colt by Central Banker. She is due to Americanrevolution next year. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-1, $50,250. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

RESOLVE (f, 2, Midnight Lute--Custody, by Broken Vow) hit the board in her second start over course at Santa Anita Oct. 4. The 9-1 shot relaxed off the pace in the back half of the field but made steady progress up the backstretch through fractions of :22.67 and :46.83. In contention off the turn, Resolve hooked pacesetter Lee's Baby Girl (Malibu Moon) and drove past to win by 1 1/4 lengths. Custody has a yearling Astern (Aus) colt, reported another colt by Blame this year and is due back to Verifying for next term. Sales History: $125,000 Ylg '23 FTSAUG; $250,000 2yo '24 OBSMAR. COMO (c, 2, Constitution--Mo' Green {GSW, $279,420}, by Uncle Mo) hit the wire first but was disqualified in his July 20 debut and could only manage third when tried over the same 7 1/2 furlongs on the grass Aug. 11. Rained off onto the Tapeta Sunday, the 9-2 third choice attended the pace from a close-up third, moved up inside of Relator (Thousand Words) past the quarter pole and dueled that rival to the line, prevailing by a neck. Mo' Green saw her yearling American Pharoah filly bring $350,000 at FTSAUG and she foaled a Twirling Candy filly this year before visiting Tapit. ## SEVEN DAYS: ROCKING ALL OVER THE WORLD

Henri Matisse, one of 10 juvenile Group winners for Wootton Bassett in 2024, lands the Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf | Horsephotos

By Emma Berry

Some of us may be attempting to look the other way but with the Breeders' Cup behind us and the November Handicap now just a matter of days away we are going to have to admit that it is well and truly jumps season.

There is some Flat excitement still in store on the international calendar with the potential appearance of Auguste Rodin (Ire) (Deep Impact {Jpn}), Goliath (Ger) (Adlerflug {Ger}) and Fantastic Moon (Ger) (Sea The Moon {Ger}) in the Japan Cup at the end of this month but if National Hunt is not your thing then it surely is never too early to start looking ahead to the next Flat season.

In that regard, one of the most interesting elements will be seeing just how well this first Irish-conceived crop of Wootton Bassett (GB) fares at the age of three. There is no denying that they have looked a pretty spectacular bunch as juveniles. There is that old saying that behind every great man there is an even greater woman (or something along those lines) and the quality of Wootton Bassett's mares, which had already been on the rise owing to the success of his early years at Haras d'Etreham, stepped up another notch or two when he arrived at Coolmore.

FANTASTIC MOON TO RETIRE TO GESTUT EBBESLOH AFTER JAPAN CUP SWANSONG

Last year's Deutsches Derby winner Fantastic Moon (Ger) will stand at Gestut Ebbesloh next season, Nadine Siepmann, co-founder of ownership syndicate Liberty Racing, announced on Sunday. The son of Sea The Moon (Ger) will retire following his appearance in the G1 Japan Cup at Tokyo on Sunday, November 24.

Fantastic Moon was bred by Philipp and Marion Stauffenberg from the Jukebox Jury (Ire) mare Frangipani (Ger). He was bought by Liberty Racing for €49,000 at the BBAG September Yearling Sale and has subsequently won seven of his 14 starts for trainer Sarah Steinberg.

Unbeaten in two starts as a two-year-old, notably winning the G3 Preis der Winterfavoriten, Fantastic Moon also won the G3 Derby Trial and G2 Prix Niel in a Classic campaign headlined by his emphatic success in the Deutsches Derby at Hamburg.

Seven Days

Wootton Bassett's Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf winner Henri Matisse (Ire)--who followed another of his sons, Unquestionable (Fr), in winning this race--is out of the brilliant racemare Immortal Verse (Ire) (Pivotal {GB}), who is also proving to be a gem of a broodmare in producing the Group 1 and Group 2 winners Tenebrism and Statuette to Caravaggio and Justify.

Henri Matisse, already the winner of the G2 Futurity Stakes, follows a rush of Group/Grade 1 winners for Wootton Bassett in the last month or so, starting with Camille Pissaro (Ire) in the Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere and followed by Tennessee Stud (Ire) and Twain (Ire) on the same day at Saint-Cloud the weekend before last.

Wootton Bassett now has a record-breaking 10 juvenile Group winners from his 2022 crop of 213 foals. Let's hope that there's a Classic winner or two among them.

It is worth noting when mentioning Wootton Bassett that he came from the same small Hertfordshire breeders as last weekend's G1 Cox Plate winner Via Sistina (Ire) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}, who is currently the top-rated horse in the world. Congratulations to Colin and Melba Bryce of Laundry Cottage Stud for having produced two such notable Thoroughbreds.

Keen on Keane

The clout of British and Irish horses around the world remains indubitably strong as underlined by this weekend's results and the action at last week's Tattersalls Horses-in-Training Sale. Five winners at the Breeders' Cup meeting between Ger Lyons, Ralph Beckett, Charlie Appleby and Aidan O'Brien was testament to that.

It was also pleasing to see a major international win beyond Europe for 24-year-old jockey Rossa Ryan, and another Breeders' Cup success, from only five rides at the meeting, for Colin Keane. For the sixth time, Keane is now Ireland's champion jockey.

Ger Lyons, for whom he rode Magnum Force (Ire) (Mehmas {Ire}) to win the Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf Sprint to get the meeting off on a great footing from a European perspective, bemoaned Keane's lack of recognition internationally. That will surely be about to change.

On Saturday, my Argentinean friend and colleague Jose Nelson arrived in the press box at Del Mar and said, "Emma, I have to tell you, I have watched that race again and again and I LOVE COLIN KEANE!"

There you go, Ger. The word is out.

The Ralph and Rossa Show

Ralph Beckett and Rossa Ryan have barely been out of the winner's enclosure this year and they can surely look forward to more big days next spring with a formidable team of two-year-olds from this year on the rise. From two to three, the Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint winner Starlust (GB) (Zoustar {Aus}) has developed into a top-class performer, and he represents the second Group/Grade 1 winner for Steve Parkin's breeding operation this season after Fallen Angel (GB) (Too Darn Hot {GB}).

Too Darn Hot has also been helping Beckett, who had stakes winners on both sides of the Atlantic on Saturday, including the Listed Montrose Fillies' Stakes scorer Smoken (GB), who remained unbeaten on her second start for Andrew Rosen, Marc Chan and Sonia Rogers.

After a season which has included the Irish Oaks winner You Got To Me (GB) (Nathaniel {Ire}), Arc heroine Bluestocking (GB) (Camelot {GB}) and seven stakes winners through October alone, Beckett was asked after Starlust's victory how he would maintain his stable's form next year.

"With difficulty," he replied with a grin.

With some gifted youngsters in the yard, and no doubt some decent yearlings on the way in, including Amo Racing's leading Book 1 Wootton Bassett colt, he may merely be being modest.

Golden Day for Haggas

And let's not forget the success of Lake Forest (Ire) (No Nay Never) in the Golden Eagle at Rosehill on Saturday for the William Haggas team, which has enjoyed notable success with runners down under.

For those of us who appreciate the excellent card on Derby day at Flemington on the Saturday before the Melbourne Cup, the introduction of the upstart Golden Eagle, with its $10 million purse, looked a bit like Racing NSW parking its tanks on Racing Victoria's lawn.

However, in six years, it has soon caught on and last year was won by the Keiji Yoshimura-trained Obamburumai (Jpn) for Japan. This time around Lake Forest and Lazzat (Fr) (Territories {Ire}) filled the first two places for England and France, though not without some controversy. Jockeys Cieren Fallon and Antonio Orani each received a month's ban and hefty fines for causing interference.

Farewell then...

The Breeders' Cup marked the end of the racing road for a number of top-class horses that we've been fortunate to be able to follow over the last few seasons.

City Of Troy is about to become the first son of Justify to stand in Europe and at least one major breeder floating around at Del Mar over the weekend already has mares lined up for him. "I'm just waiting to see who much he will cost," he said. Aren't we all.

Bradsell (GB) and Big Evs (Ire), each handed horror draws in the Turf Sprint, are bound for the National Stud and Tally-Ho Stud respectively, having earned their slots through prior sterling efforts.

We've also seen the last of Emily Upjohn (GB) (Sea The Stars {Ire}), who came so close to winning the Oaks and went on to victory in the British Champion Fillies and Mares Stakes and Coronation Cup. This season has doubtless been frustrating for her connections, not least her swansong in the Breeders' Cup Turf, in which she appeared to be full of running on the rail with nowhere to go.

Ramatuelle is due to sell at Fasig-Tipton on Monday, having been forced to miss the Breeders' Cup on vet's advice | Horsephotos

Ramatuelle (Justify) meanwhile is set to be one of the highlights of the Night of the Stars Sale at Fasig-Tipton on Monday. In theory, she could yet race on, despite her vet scratching at the Breeders' Cup. And that indeed has been a feature of the past week, this extra tension and stress for owners and trainers incurred with the heightened veterinary inspections at both the Breeders' Cup and major meetings in Australia.

It is perfectly understandable that increased scrutiny is deemed a requirement but there will nevertheless be hard-luck stories of horses being ruled out who could have or will go on to win more races while remaining sound.

The current situation will surely mean that some smaller operators who happen upon a big horse will be less inclined to take the chance of travelling to some of these international meetings for fear of being ruled out after expensive trips. Horse welfare must always come before financial considerations--that is a given--but this will almost certainly lead to a situation where only those with the deepest pockets are able to play on the international stage.

This year Fantastic Moon filled the runner-up spot in the G1 Grosser Dallmayr-Preis - Bayerisches Zuchtrennen for the second consecutive year, before doubling his tally at the top level with victory in the Grosser Preis von Baden. He was last seen finishing ninth in the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe at Longchamp.

In a statement, Siepman said, "Germany's best racehorse Fantastic Moon will retire to stud at Ebbesloh Stud following his engagement in the Japan Cup (G1). The colt will travel to Tokyo on November 13 to compete against renowned international rivals on November 24 and subsequently take up stud duty following his return.

"The four-year-old Sea The Moon son became a Derby winner and six-time Group winner for the syndicate Liberty Racing 2021. He was unbeaten as a group winner as a two-year-old and was 3YO Champion, Derby winner and Horse of the Year 2023. As a four-year-old, he documented his class and toughness with two group wins and the second G1 win in the Grosser Preis von Baden. Fantastic Moon remains the property of Liberty Racing 2021 and will be the first Sea the Moon son to stand stud in Germany."

Fantastic Moon is one of two runners from three runners out of Frangipani, a winning half-sister to G3 Sveaas Minnelop victor Fearless Hunter (Ger) (Alhaarth {Ire}) and Listed Arnfinn Lund Minnelop third Fil Rouge (Ger) (Lord Of England {Ger}). His second dam Firedance (Ger) (Lomitas {GB}) is a half-sister to G3 Rockfel Stakes victrix Germane (GB) (Distant Relative [Ire]) and the dual stakes-winning G3 Preis der Deutschen Einheit runner-up Fabriano (GB) (Shardari {Ire}). Germane, in turn, is the dam of stakes-winning GI Hollywood Derby third Lucky Chappy (Ire) (High Chaparral {Ire}) and Listed Kolner Stuten Meile runner-up Granted (Fr) (Cadeaux Genereux {GB}).

A fee for Fantastic Moon in his first season at Gestut Ebbesloh is yet to be announced.

JAMES RYAN CROWNED IRELAND'S CHAMPION APPRENTICE

James Ryan was confirmed as Ireland's champion apprentice on Sunday after his two closest pursuers in the title race, Adam Caffrey and Wayne Hassett, both drew a blank on the final day of the Flat season at the Curragh.

Ryan topped the table with 33 winners when the action got underway on Sunday, two ahead of Caffrey and Hassett on 31 winners apiece. Hassett was involved in six of the eight races on the card and Caffrey had five opportunities to add to his tally, but neither rider was able to eat into the advantage of Ryan, who took the crown despite failing to win on any of his four mounts.

Instead, it was at Dundalk on Wednesday that Ryan secured victory, putting himself in pole position with a double aboard the Ger Lyons-trained Ethical Code (Justify) and Glyde Ranger (Ire) (Belardo {Ire}) for Tom McCourt. Ryan, who is apprenticed to the McCourt yard in County Meath, recently won the G3 Mercury Stakes at Dundalk aboard the 66-1 shot Ostraka (Ire) (Profitable {Ire}), his biggest success since having his first ride under Rules back in May 2021.

Better Together followed up a July 30 debut second going six furlongs on the turf here with a breakthrough score over the same strip in August last time, and remained on an upward trajectory with a career high in this black-type bow. Tracking the tempo in a handy fourth through halfway, she was shaken up to reduce arrears with 350 metres remaining and kept on strongly under continued rousing inside the final furlong to deny Rogue Sensation by a half-length in the dying strides.

"This filly showed good promise in her first two starts," said Juddmonte representative Claude Beniada. "When she won here in August the heavy ground was against her, according to her jockey [Mickael Barzalona], but she managed to beat a good one [TDN Rising Star Rayevka]. With very soft and heavy going prevailing this autumn it was decided to wait for this race on the all-weather and she fulfilled her early promise. She should stay the one-mile trip and will now be back next year." Cont. p9
