

'EVERYBODY IS STILL HERE:' POPE BUYS ADOPTABLE FOR $600K TO TOP KEENELAND NOVEMBER BOOK 3 OPENER

Adoptable | Keeneland

by Jessica Martini

LEXINGTON, KY - The Keeneland November Breeding Stock Sale continued to produce strong results as the nine-day auction continued into its Book 3 section Friday with double-digit gains over last year's corresponding session.

During Friday's session, 244 head grossed $18,195,500 for an average of $74,572 and a median of $60,000. The average increased 20.71% and the median was up 20.00% from last year's Book 3 opener when 243 horses sold for $15,012,500 for an average of $61,780 and a median of $50,000.

With 417 head catalogued Friday, 314 went through the ring with 70 failing to meet their reserves for a buy-back rate of 22.29%. It was 24.77% a year ago.

Mandy Pope's Whisper Hill Farm, which purchased the auction's $2.4-million topper during Tuesday's opening session, made the top bid of Friday's session when paying $600,000 to acquire the 3-year-old broodmare prospect Adoptable (Curlin) from the Claiborne Farm consignment. Cont., p3

RED SMITH LEADS TURF STORIES ON GRADED STAKES SATURDAY by J.N. Campbell

If only those walls could talk. There's a room from a bygone era within the press box at Aqueduct Racetrack where members of the media congregated between races.

The space's counter is still there, but you have to use your imagination when it comes to what the scene looked like in the old days. The latches on the windows that are now worn with time would be thrown open to let in the sounds of the oval below, while the crisp white shades from the fixtures would have adequately illuminated the newly-printed forms strewn about the scattered tables.

Wimberley Bloodstock made the session's second highest bid when going to $375,000 to acquire graded-placed Unsung Melody (Maclean's Music) from the Grovendale Sales consignment.

Grovendale also sold one of eight weanlings to sell for $200,000 or over during the session, when offering a colt by Corniche who sold for $200,000 to Mouse Bloodstock.

Demand for horses continued to be strong into Book 3, according to Grovendale's Chance Timm.

"I think it's been pretty solid overall," said Timm. "For the right foals, there are plenty of buyers there. And I was pleasantly surprised by the mare market. Older, in-foal mares probably did a little better than I expected. To be honest, Book 2 was a little spotty, especially around the $100,000 to $200,000 mark, it was on or off the line. Whereas, today there were some older mares that were in foal to desirable stallions that brought what they should have brought. In the last couple of years, those have been kind of tough. The market kind of falls off a bit of a cliff for some of those 10-year or older mares. But today felt a little better, which was good."

A pair of weanlings shared Friday's top price of $250,000, with Joe Pickerrell bidding that amount for a colt by Jackie's Warrior and an internet bid from Easy Living Stables paying that figure for a colt by Twirling Candy.

Twenty five weanlings sold for six figures, with eight bringing $200,000 or over Friday.

"It's strong. Very strong," Pickerrell said of the weanling market at Keeneland this week. "Anything you follow up there, it seems like a crowd follows you. Everybody is still here. We are all still looking. The yearling guys made plenty of money last year, so everybody is still shopping and I figure it will be that way to the end."

Weanlings by first-crop sires continued to dominate the results sheets, with five of the eight to bring $200,000 or over Friday from their stallion's first crops.

"They are always popular," Pickerrell said. "Everybody is always excited about the next big thing. First-crop sires have been good to us and Jackie's Warrior was a fast one, so he fits a lot of what we are looking for."

Timm said this year's class of first-crop sires is exceptional.

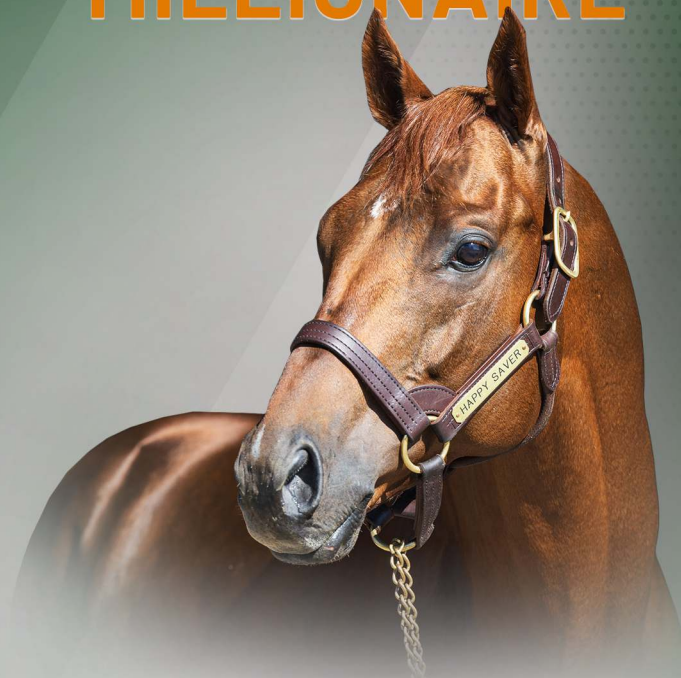

"I think the quality of the first-crop sires out here is very strong," he said. "We sold a really nice Corniche colt today that was very well-received. I think he, amongst the other first-crop stallions, have had a really good sale. It's a really strong group for sure. But overall, I think the foals are as good as they have ever been."

The Keeneland November sale continues through Wednesday, with sessions beginning at 10 a.m.

'An Outstanding Looker:' Pope Buys Adoptable for $600k

The broodmare band at Mandy Pope's Whisper Hill Farm, which already included a pair of daughters of American Story (Ghostzapper), added a third Friday when Pope went to a session-topping $600,000 to add the mare's 3-year-old daughter Adoptable (Curlin) (hip 1285) to the roster.

"I own part of the family and we have been happy with the foals and sold some good foals out of them," Pope said. "She is good looking and we are just looking to keep that family going."

Whisper Hill purchased American Gal (Concord Point) for $3 million at the 2018 Fasig-Tipton November sale and then, on the very next hip, purchased that multiple Grade I winner's unraced full-sister America's Starlet for $550,000.

American Gal's 2-year-old colt by Into Mischief sold for $1.1 million at last year's Keeneland September sale, while America's Starlet's 2-year-old colt by Curlin sold for $600,000 at that same sale.

Through four sessions of the November sale, Whisper Hill--alone or in partnership--has purchased 17 head for $9,015,000, including the auction's $2.4-million topper Roses for Debra (Liam's Map).

The unraced Adoptable was purchased by Repole Stable and St. Elias Stables for $450,000 at the 2022 Keeneland September sale. She sold Friday as a broodmare prospect and was consigned by Claiborne Farm.

"We are very happy with that result," said Claiborne Farm Manager Bradley Purcell. "She was a $450,000 yearling, so we were thinking maybe $250,000 or $300,000. So we are very happy with the outcome and very happy with the home she is going to. She must have been a standout in this book, with her pedigree and her looks. She is an outstanding looker."

'She Will Make a Top-Class Broodmare:' Jacobson Buys Unsung Melody for $375k

Brendan Jacobson of Wimberley Bloodstock, who came into the Keeneland November sale looking to add numbers to his broodmare band, made his most expensive purchase of the week when going to $375,000 to acquire stakes winner Unsung Melody (Maclean's Music) (hip 1260), a 4-year-old racing/broodmare prospect, from the Grovendale Sales consignment Friday.

"She is going to go into the broodmare band," Jacobson said after signing the ticket on the bay filly out back. "She had a lovely physical. She is a proven runner and I really, really liked her. I think she will make a top-class broodmare."

Racing for WSS Racing and trained by John Ortiz, Unsung Melody finished third in the GIII Winning Colors Stakes in May before winning the Saylorville Stakes in July.

Wimberley Bloodstock currently has a commercial broodmare band of some 15 to 20 head and Jacobson said the goal is to get that number above 30. The star of the band is Holiday Soiree (Harlan's Holiday), the dam of Grade I winner Vahva (Gun Runner), whom he purchased for $300,000 at last year's Keeneland November sale. Cont.

Vahva at the Breeders' Cup | Sara Gordon

“We breed to sell,” Jacobson said. “We will keep fillies, typically out of really good fillies, mainly mares that are producers of graded stakes winners. I own the dam of Vahva. I have a foal on the ground from her [by City of Light] and we will probably keep her and run her and then add her back to the broodmare band.”

Also at Keeneland this week, Wimberley has purchased Golden Review (Medaglia d'Oro) (hip 194) for $295,000 and Seeking Mo Jewel (Nyquist) (hip 1186) for $100,000.

Jackie's Warrior, Twirling Candy Colts Lead Weanlings Friday

A colt from the first crop of Eclipse sprint champion Jackie's Warrior (hip 1347) was the top-priced weanling for much of Friday's fourth session of the Keeneland November sale when selling for $250,000 to the bid of Ocala horseman Joe Pickerrell. That figure was matched late in the day by an internet bid from Easy Living Stables to acquire a colt by Twirling Candy (hip 1459) from the Lane's End consignment.

Pickerrell, who signed the ticket on hip 1347 as Arrowhead Farm, said the youngster was destined for resale next year.

“He just had a lot to like,” Pickerrell said. “He's by a freshman sire. He had a lot of stretch, scope and size. Jackie's Warrior was very impressive with what he did on the track. We are trying to find some big, fancy colts that look like him.”

The dark bay colt is out of Caribbean Lady (Speightstown), a half-sister to multiple graded stakes winner Halory Leigh (Halory Hunter). The weanling is a half-brother to stakes winner Let Her Inspire U (Practical Joke). He was bred by Torie Gladwell, Jordan Wycoff and Jimmy and Martha Gladwell and was consigned Friday by Scott Mallory.

A colt by Twirling Candy consigned by Lane's End matched that price when selling to an internet bidder late in the day.
- Seventeen horses sold for $200,000 or more during Friday's session, up from six at the same session a year ago.
- Through four sessions, Taylor Made Sales Agency is the auction's leading consignor with 142 horses sold for $26,080,000. Lane's End Farm is second on the list with 60 sold for $11,066,000, followed by Hill 'n' Dale at Xalapa with 39 sold for $10,194,000.

The chatter that took place still feels palpable though and it would have been something to share a coffee with legendary writers like the Daily Racing Form's Joe Hirsch and The New York Times's Walter Wellesley Smith, better known as "Red," as they took a break from their efforts to craft a pithy lead.

Smith captured best this kind of nostalgia when he said about his own craft, "I like to get where the cabbage is cooking and catch the scents." That's the stuff.

As we remember what was before returning to our screens, it is certainly appropriate that Saturday's grades stakes slate includes the annual renewal of the GII Red Smith Stakes at the Big A, which was a race that was renamed for the celebrated sportswriter in 1982.

Going the 11 furlongs on the grass this time around are an eclectic bunch of nine older males and we might wish that Smith was around to offer a piece just one last time about the field.

There are a trio of seasoned pros drawn here that have over 30 starts to their credit. As a 7-year-old, MGSW City Man (Mucho Macho Man) is coming to the end of his career, but the Christophe Clement trainee might have one last trick up his sleeve in what will be his 37th go.

The veteran will face a pair of stalwarts from Rick Dutrow's barn in SW Pioneering Spirit (American Pharoah) and the winner from last year's Red Smith, MGSW Master Piece (Chi) (Mastercraftsman {Ire}).

"He's [Master Piece] run big twice on this grass course," said Dutrow. "We can't wait to watch him run again. He's a pleasure to be around. Every barn that he's in, just all the people really like him because he's such a cool, funny horse to be around."

More lightly-raced competitors include morning-line favorite MGSW Integration (Quality Road), who was the runner-up this past summer in the GI Arlington Million at Colonial Downs, and the class climbing 4-year-old colt Rebel Red (GB) (Frankel {GB}). The latter won against allowance types for trainer Cherie DeVaux at Saratoga July 13, but sadly lost an eye following the race. Proving once again that equine athletes can adapt, the chestnut cleared the next condition in-style at Keeneland Oct. 5.

The other graded race on Saturday in Ozone Park is the nine-furlong GIII Hill Prince Stakes for 3-year-olds on the turf. This could be a throwdown between GSP Cugino (Twirling Candy) and GIII Virginia Derby champ Deterministic (Liam's Map). A Shug McGaughey trainee, Cugino certainly sparkled this summer in the Audubon Stakes at Churchill Downs when he led from the bell, but the bay was well-beaten in the GIII Nashville Derby at Kentucky Downs Aug. 31.

As for 'TDN Rising Star' Deterministic, Christophe Clement made the call to move the GIII Gotham Stakes here to the grass and it has paid dividends. If the dark bay rates like he is capable of doing, then the race could be his for the taking.

"He [Deterministic] won the Gotham nicely in the slop, but then he had two average races on the dirt, and we decided to switch him back to the turf," said Clement assistant trainer Christophe Lorieul. "He's by Liam's Map and we've had some success with Liam's Map on the turf, so that's why we tried him and now he's been showing consistent form." Cont.

Caitlinhergrtness nets the King's Plate | Michael Burns

Heading over to Louisville, Churchill Downs has the GIII River City Stakes on tap. Like the Hill Prince, this one is also set for nine furlongs on the grass. Older runners entered in the River City include MGSP Cash Equity (Fr) (Toronado {Ire}), who will battle the likes of 'TDN Rising Star' and MGSW Emmanuel (More Than Ready) and GSP Reckoning Force (Air Force Blue).

Finally, the graded stakes train heads north of the border to Canada and the folks on-track at Woodbine will have the chance to see Caitlinhergrtness (Omaha Beach) return to Toronto in the GIII Maple Leaf Stakes. Named after WNBA superstar Caitlin Clark, the last time the filly took to the all-weather surface, she beat the boys in the King's Plate Aug. 23. After finishing third in the GI Queen Elizabeth II Challenge Cup at Keeneland Oct. 12, trainer Kevin Attard sends her up against older females for the first time.

Standing in her way is stablemate Fashionably Fab (Silent Name {Jpn}), who won the GIII Ontario Matron Stakes at Woodbine Sept. 14, and the battle-tested runner-up from that same race, Elysian Field (Hard Spun).

Next, a capacity field of 14 will head to the post in the GIII Bessarabian Stakes. Longshots could be live here, like GSP Tripolina (Constitution), who was just added to the Keeneland Horses of Racing Age Sale Nov. 14, and MGSP Dolce Sopresa (Maclean's Music), who should relish the timing behind a cutback and a surface switch.

Rounding out the card at Woodbine is the GII Autumn Stakes for older males. Owner Mike Repole promised to send his stock to other trainers and he has delivered. Never Surprised (Constitution) finally cleared the optional claiming ranks over the E.P. Taylor grass course after a strong graded stakes showing earlier in his career under Todd Pletcher. Now a 6-year-old, he will tangle with Canadian champion 3-year-old colt and King's Plate victor Paramount Prince (Society's Chairman) and MSW Forever Souper (American Pharoah), who comes in riding a three-race black-type win streak.

SHAMROCKS IN THE BLUEGRASS: KEN

DONWORTH by Chris McGrath

"We bought the bar with a credit card," recalls Ken Donworth. "Forty thousand bucks, credit card debt at 20 percent. And we paid it off in three or four months." He shakes his head. "That was 1998. I don't think I'd do it now. So we did take risks, no doubt. But we didn't get caught on any of those slippery slopes."

On the contrary. In a college town like Lexington, Donworth and his partners soon figured that policing their customers' age was more trouble than it was worth. So in 2001, right after 9/11 when the confidence had gone out of everyone else, they bought a parking lot instead. After 14 years, they were able to cash out the land to the university.

"So much of it is timing," Donworth says. "Timing, and relationships. We didn't have enough at the time, for that parking lot, but we had friends help out with the downpayment."

And, with the years, those relationships have paid off to make Donworth a unique case in this occasional series on Kentucky's Irish diaspora. Yes, it was the Thoroughbred that first brought him here, and continues to capture both his imagination and his spare funds. But he has meanwhile adapted a personable and industrious nature to parallel opportunities--above all in property, whether as realtor, landlord or speculator--with remarkable success, even by the standards of a community united by endeavor.

"But you just go back to Gerry Dilger, Robbie Lyons, David Mullins, James Keogh, Pdraig Campion," Donworth says. "If they'd been couch potatoes or bums, those guys wouldn't be here in the first place. So then people back home saw what they were achieving, and next thing were up and at it themselves. Success breeds success." Cont.

"Those people definitely set the standard high. And now I feel that we all give the younger guys, coming over today, something to strive for too."

He was in their shoes once, after all. Donworth's father and uncles were small breeders in County Limerick, so when he left school at 16, in 1988, he started as a groom at Coolmore. (His barn foreman was a certain Paul Shanahan.) As soon as he was old enough, Donworth came out to Ashford. He had seen Brian O'Rourke coming home to the neighboring village every Christmas, with money to spend, just from breaking yearlings out in Kentucky. When Brian's brother Garrett was hired by Juddmonte, Dermot Ryan accepted the chance to take over at Creek View, and his young pal was soon aboard, too. For the next four years they shared digs, and Ryan is now godfather to Donworth's daughter.

"But it was still a fairly small farm we were on, 380 acres," Donworth recalls. "Everybody helped out doing everything, because we lived next to the stallion shed. El Gran Senor had to breed at night. He had a few fertility problems, so had to breed when the mare was ovulating. Storm Bird was there, too. Wonderful memories, and all those guys are still great friends."

But besides horsemanship, Donworth had another useful genetic inheritance. His grandfather had been a real entrepreneur, founding a steel company outside Cashel and later renting out Dublin property. "His example had definitely got me out of that frame of mind of being stuck in Knockainey and accepting your limits," Donworth says. "His attitude was always that the sky was the limit."

Sure enough, Donworth's brothers soon followed him to Kentucky: Richard via Australia, Barry after starting as a butcher in Limerick.

"But he soon realized he wouldn't be going too many places doing that," Donworth says. Cont.

"Now he has a horse transport company and a couple of bars, and Richard has a farm. There's no way we'd have done all this at home. Here there was opportunity."

Gradually Donworth raised his own sights. At the end of 1996, after a couple of years in night school, he declared himself done with the horse business.

"I felt there was a ceiling and you were always going to bounce off it," he explains. "I really appreciated the way I'd been treated at Coolmore. But you know what, this horse stuff is tough. It's a grind. Seven days a week, you don't earn much, and you couldn't see the light with so much competition. I just felt I needed to try and figure something out for myself."

He had already evinced a flair for enterprise, screening Gaelic football matches in a local bar.

"Nobody had the signal in the Tri-state, and the internet was new and spotty back then," Donworth recalls. "So we charged 20 bucks and people would come on a Sunday from Tennessee, Ohio, Kentucky, to see Tyrone matches especially, they had a strong team at the time."

And it was from Tyrone that he next landed a marketing job with Powerscreen, manufacturers of crushers and aggregate equipment. "Which I knew nothing about!" he says. "I'd know a little bit more now: I've been with them ever since."

Crucially his role left Donworth flexibility, at nights and weekends, to develop a real estate sideline. "I could never have done that without the Powerscreen work," he admits. "And dealing with their high-value machines gave me confidence with big numbers. So nothing fazes me now. Whether it's a hundred grand house or a $20 million farm, I can go in to both the same."

Needless to say, his first sale was on the cheaper end of that spectrum. But it set a template, his client being a compatriot working in bloodstock.

Before long Donworth was emboldened to invest in some rental properties--first for himself, then for buddies doing well in the world he had quit.

"And one thing leads to another," he says. "You do a good job for those guys and they say, 'Well, Ken sure knows what he's doing.' And I'd be managing their properties as well. So they're working on the farms and every month get a check for the houses. Everything has become a lot more expensive. But this is going back 15 years, and a lot of the guys have their houses paid off now."

In turn, when wealthy Americans came to town and needed help with real estate, the Irishmen managing their farms knew the very guy.

"So really the stars just aligned," Donworth says. "It was a good little niche that kind of happened almost by accident. Most of my work comes from horse business referrals. I don't advertise, don't do social media. But anybody of any account in the horse business will typically recommend or refer me."

The point was that Donworth had learned, in the Thoroughbred industry, that your word must be your bond; and the same was true in what he was doing now.

"This is a small community," he says of the Bluegrass. "And your reputation is your life. I've one client in the horse business who has bought five houses from me over the years." Cont.

That's a huge compliment, really. Because with real estate, things can and will go wrong. So loyalty is huge. All those things: reputation, honesty, confidentiality... you can't buy that stuff. So you just keep the head down. Like they say, loose lips sink ships."

It is no secret, however, that Donworth handled the $15 million sale of Shadwell to John Stewart. He has long been comfortable with transactions at that level, not least after hooking up with Sotheby's nearly 20 years ago. The benefits have been reciprocal: a prestigious international brand raised his profile, while he could provide a finger on the local pulse.

"Last year was incredible, and a lot of the guys were giving me stick about the money I must be making," Donworth says. "And I said, 'You know what? When people were lining up for their bloodstock license, I was in the real estate line--with nobody else in it. And there were 100 of you!'"

But Donworth never abandoned his first love. And when the commissions started coming in, he began to wheel some of it back into Thoroughbreds.

"And it's worked well, so far," he says. "Of course I've also seen the downside. I have too many horses, really. But for the last 15 years or so we've had a syndicate of Irish guys: David Cox, Richie Galway, Ben McElroy, and a buddy, Tony Dardis in New York. And we've had good success, basically pinhooking foals. And also with Des Ryan, with mares. We've had good years and bad years, but the amount of winners we've had off Ben's little farm has been pretty incredible, really."

One recent graduate was Valiant Force (Malibu Moon), winner of the G2 Norfolk Stakes at Royal Ascot last year, albeit he had proved a marginal pinhook ($75,000 foal/$100,000 yearling). And, on the face of it, things had turned out much worse, back in 2012, with a $120,000 colt from the first crop of Quality Road.

When Gatewood Bell bought him the following September, for just $75,000, Donworth found him in the bar and said: "Good job buying that horse. But there's no way you're leaving without me taking a piece!"

Hootenanny (center) | Horsephotos

So he reclaimed a leg, and then the other lads came in to split it up, and Wesley Ward bought the remaining 75 percent. They called him Hootenanny.

"And he goes and beats one of Michael Tabor's hotpots first time out at Keeneland," Donworth recalls. "He was beaten in the slop at Pimlico next time, but then Coolmore bought him to send to Ascot. So we went over and he won the Windsor Castle Stakes. An experience you'd never forget: we took the money, got a kicker, and partied. It was awesome."

In addition, Donworth has a few mares spread between his brother Richard; Rick Howard; and Des Ryan. He has the odd horse in training, too, as one of the earliest patrons of Brendan Walsh.

"Brendan was living on Archie St. George's couch at the time," Donworth recalls. "So he's another great Irish success story. And it hasn't come by accident. Like so many of the Irish guys over here, he's driven. And really that's what makes this world go round: if you have that passion, that drive, and can figure out your little niche."

THREE CHIMNEYS

Many contributors to this series, however affectionate to their homeland, have suggested that they could never have found equivalent opportunities but for crossing the water. Donworth is no different.

"When I left, in the early '90s, Ireland really wasn't booming at all," he reflects. "And if I'd stayed and been caught up in the whole Celtic Tiger thing, I would probably have ended up broke or in jail! Look, I have good friends in Ireland who have done very well for themselves. But the fact is there's more money over here, and more opportunity. And everybody wants to see you do well."

There was certainly something in the blood, anyhow, and Donworth sees a familiar appetite for work in daughter Charlotte and son Patrick--already a budding tycoon, at just 15. Of course, the dam side contributes too: Donworth emphasizes the support of his wife Lindsay and also her father Pat Sullivan, with his expertise as a real estate lawyer.

"Patrick has a vending machine business, a power-washing business, and also sells sneakers!" says Donworth. "He definitely likes making money. But, again, he has to create his reputation, show up and be honest. And he gets that. Nobody in our house sits around on their ass. And that's huge, because you can't teach work ethic. You either have it, or you don't."

"We grew up on a farm in Knockainey, with a population not even 100. And when we go back, you really can't begin to explain what it's like here to the guy in the pub that farms and struggles and barely survives. I know I just got lucky. But if you put yourself in the right spots, it can work out."

LONGSHOT NO MO CANDY MAKES IT THREE IN A ROW IN PEBBLES

Seemingly at home on both synthetic and turf courses, No Mo Candy (Uncle Mo) picked up her third win in a row and her first in stakes company in the GIII Pebbles Stakes at Aqueduct.

Unveiled going 1m70 June 27 at Gulfstream Park, she missed by diminishing neck over that synthetic track and turned her luck around in that next start when she graduated July 26 by the same margin. Last seen putting up her best Beyer number to date, an 83 when she won against optional claiming company going a 1 3/16-miles over this surface during the Belmont Big A meet Sept. 20, she was an ice-cold 18-1 on the board here as Klaravich Stables's Oversubscribed (GB) (Too Darn Hot {GB}) took the honors as 4-5 favorite.

Settling in second as the zealous frontrunner GSP Macanga (American Pharoah) stepped out to set the tempo, No Mo Candy was just off that leader for the majority of the race through :23.68, :47.61, and 1:11.57 splits. Still on hold as they swung into the lane, she was called on with three-sixteenths left to the wire and had a half-length margin leaving the eighth pole. Edging way from Oversubscribed as that favorite tried to mount a rally, No Mo Candy was 1 1/4 lengths ahead on the wire. Way to Be Marie (Not This Time) held on to third.

"She broke really good, and I know Macanga [No. 7] is a difficult horse and she's going to run off. When I tried to put [No Mo Candy] behind her, my filly got strong and I was like, 'don't get into a fight with me now.'," said winning rider John Velazquez.

"I didn't want to be head-and-head with the other horse. I hide her behind for a little bit and she got a little strong going into that first turn. I eased out on the backside and she kind of came back to me, so I was happy that she relaxed and gave me a little chance where I wouldn't be into her mouth." Cont.

No Mo Candy | Susie Raisher

“Second turn, Macanga started going and I put her right behind them. Into the stretch, she got head-and-head, and you could see she put a competitive mind up and when I asked her to go, she did it nicely. First time for me to get on her I didn’t know what to expect but she was very professional to do anything I wanted to do, other than she was a little aggressive than I wanted her to be the first part of the race.”

Pedigree Notes:

The fourth winner in a row from five to the races--the lone unplaced sibling being the 2-year-old Tongolele (Mastery)--and the first to secure black-type, No Mo Candy is her dam's most accomplished offspring. Sweet has also produced a yearling colt by Liam's Map as her most recent when she did not produce a foal off a visit to Mo Donegal for this year. She was bred to Pappacap for 2025.

The dam is a wining full-sister to GISW Fault and a half-sister to GSP Betweenhereandcool (Unbridled's Song) as well as the dam of GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies runner-up GISW Juju's Map (Liam's Map). This is the immediate female family of SW & MGSP South Bend (Alogrithms) and MGISW Bast (Uncle Mo).

OWNERVIEW WEBINAR COVERS STATE INCENTIVE PROGRAMS, ADDRESSES DECLINING FOAL CROP

The ninth installment in the 2024 OwnerView webinar series was held on Nov. 5 and discussion covered the various ways state incentive programs approach supporting the equine industry, especially when it comes to a declining foal crop, according to a Friday Jockey Club press release.

The panel consisted of Cricket Goodall, executive director of the Maryland Horse Breeders Association Inc., the Maryland Million Ltd., and the Maryland Horse Foundation; Roger Heitzmann, secretary and executive director of the Louisiana Thoroughbred Breeders Association; Steve Koch, the associate vice president of operations for the Florida Thoroughbred Breeders' & Owners' Association; Chauncey Morris, executive director of the Kentucky Thoroughbred Association and Kentucky Thoroughbred Owners & Breeders; and Najja Thompson, executive director of the New York Thoroughbred Breeders, Inc.

“To see what’s happening with the national foal crop is very worrisome for all of us,” said Goodall. “So, I think that what Maryland has tried, and we continue to try to offer different kinds of incentives and try to front load money to breeders as their horses make it to the track. We have a substantial group of people who take advantage of the commercial market in Maryland, but we really want to encourage people to breed to race.”

A Q&A, sponsored by West Point Thoroughbreds, allowed attendees to post questions, which were answered at the end of the webinar. Hosted by The Jockey Club and the Thoroughbred Owners and Breeders Association and presented by Bessemer Trust, Stoll Keenon Ogden, and The Green Group, the panel was sponsored by the New York Thoroughbred Breeders, the Florida Thoroughbred Breeders' and Owners' Association and the Kentucky Thoroughbred Association.

Earhart sells at Arqana | Zuzanna Lupa

HOMEBREDS ON DISPLAY IN SATURDAY RACING

3rd-WO, 111K, Msw, 3yo/up, f, 7f (syn), 2:19 p.m.

The fourth-highest price out of the 2022 Arqana August Yearling Sale, EARHART (FR) (Siyouni {Fr}) was a 1,400,000€ purchase for co-breeder LNJ Foxwoods who bought out their partnership with Ecurie Des Monceaux to take sole ownership of the filly. She is the first foal out of a stakes-winning first dam (also a Solis/Litt purchase herself in 2017) who is a half to MSW/MGSP Gidu (Ire) (Frankel {GB}) and GSW Marbre Rose (Ire) (Smart Strike). This is the family of several top-level winners including Zofig (Cozzene), Zo Impressive (Hard Spun) and Zaftig (Tone West). She debuts on the synthetic for trainer Josie Carroll. TJCS PPS

1st-AQU, 90K, Msw, 2yo, 6 1/2f, 11:40 p.m.

A trio of homebreds get the action going early in New York. Juddmonte's Salamis (Speightstown) is a son of GI Longines Just a Game Stakes winner Antonoe and a half to GSW/GISP Segesta (Ghostzapper). Lined up inside of him is Phipps Stable runner Peak Performer (Curlin), a colt from the family of Horse of the Year Saint Liam (Saint Ballado) and out of Fly So High, graded stakes winner purchased by Phipps for $675,000 as a yearling. To his outside, LNJ Foxwoods brings in their homebred Tux (Tapit), a son of GSW Fancy Dress Party. TJCS PPS

5th-GP, 65K, Msw, 2yo, f, 5fT, 2:18 p.m.

Tracy Farmer's Kimari (Nyquist) is a half-sister to MGISW Bowies Hero (Artie Schiller) and MGSP Radio Days (Run Runner).

First dam Remembered, purchased by Hinkle Farms who bred Kimari for $550,000 carrying Radio Days in 2018, is a half to the dams of GSW/MGISP Firing Line (Line of David), SW/GISP Sacred Wish (Not This Time) and GISW and sire Sharp Azteca (Freud).

Love Appeals | Susie Raisher

Beaten just a head over course and distance last time out in the Floral Park Stakes, Love Appeals returned Friday for another run and earned her second stakes win in the Autumn Daisy Stakes. Given only a 7-1 shot despite her performance in the Floral Park, Love Appeals rated wide and behind the speed of pacesetter Risk Threshold past the half in :45.96 before advancing with an outside bid to engage the leaders at the quarter pole. In an all-out sprint to the line, she hit the front inside the final sixteenth and lasted ahead of Golden Hostess who just edged out the early leader for second.

“I just wanted to break well,” said winning rider Dylan Davis who enjoyed a hat trick of wins on Friday's card. “There was a lot more speed than her previous run. She broke well for me, settled in nice and got into a good rhythm for me into the turn. She had a nice, clean trip onto the outside and she just really stepped up again. She really impressed me coming down the lane today. Today, they went quicker, and she was able to close into it a little bit better. She gave me a good finish. I think she finished stronger today than her last race.”

Gioia Stella, herself a $1.5m yearling buy for Moyglare Stud in 2014 and a half to SW/GISP Sea Queen (Lemon Drop Kid) and GISW Nereid (Rock Hard Ten), has already produced 'TDN Rising Star' Stellar Tap (Tapit) in her first foal to race. Her Quality Road yearling colt brought $110,000 from Colts Neck Stables at KEESEP and she foaled a Justify filly this year before visiting Not This Time for 2025. PEIGNOIR (f, 3, Mendelssohn--Beehive Hairdo, by Flat Out) broke through for the win last out at Keeneland over this distance Oct. 17 after a pair of third-place finishes on both turf and dirt in Kentucky in August and September respectively. Second choice at 2-1 to repeat the effort, she sat just off a pair of early leaders while Cat's Cave (Goldencents) put up an opening half in :48.63. Poised to strike off the turn, Peignoir took over at the top of the lane and just lasted over a charging Amber Cascade (Free Drop Billy) by a neck. Out of a half-sister to MGISW I'm a Chatterbox (Munnings), the winner has a yearling GIOCOSO (c, 2, Not This Time--Nutcracker Suite {Ire}, by Fastnet Rock {Aus}) ran a well-beaten third in the GIII Iroquois Stakes after breaking his maiden on the grass in early August. Never a factor as the favorite in the GII Bourbon Stakes at Keeneland last out Oct. 6, Friday's even-money choice dropped out of stakes company for some class relief in this spot. Slow going from his inside draw, Giocososo was content to sit mid pack while along the inside into the backstretch and saved ground past the half in :48.44. Switched outside of the leaders off the turn, he kicked past pacesetter Papiamento (Medaglia d'Oro) in the final jumps to win by three-quarters of a length. Giocososo has a yearling half-sister by Munnings who sold for $375,000 at KEESEP last month and Nutcracker Suite is due back to Up to the Mark for 2025. PARIS LILY (f, 2, City of Light--Storm Lily, by Storm Cat) was an even fourth on debut going six furlongs over the local course Sept. 29. Back Friday with the addition of blinkers and two extra furlongs to race, the even-money favorite was quickly to the front from the middle of the gate and handled the tempo shortly ahead of Mimi's Grace (Unified). In what quickly became a two-horse affair, Paris Lily seems beaten off the turn as her rival had the momentum past the furlong marker but managed to battle back along the inside and earn a gritty win by a head. The 11th winner and last reported foal for her dam from 13 to race, Paris Lily has several stakes performing half-siblings around Europe including Gold City (Ire) (Pivotal {GB}), MGSP-UAE, SP-Eng, $382,809. Second dam Crimplene (Ire) took several top level races including the G1 Entenmanns Irish One Thousand Guineas. LUCILLE BALL (f, 2, Lord Nelson--Sassy Redhead, by Henny Hughes), right on her 10-1 morning line, prompted the pace from third up the backstretch and engaged widest of the trio around the far turn. With more to offer in the final furlong than her two shorter-priced rivals, she kicked clear of the tiring pair and finished up nicely to graduate first out by 5 1/4 lengths over fellow firster More Than Grace (More Than Ready). The half-sister to Doncho (Mo Town), SW, $182,100, Lucille Ball was a $100,000 OBS March grad. BEAUTY REIGNS (f, 2, Into Mischief--Ilsa, by Tapit), the 2-1 second choice, drew outside but was quickly into stride to contest the pace set by Not the First Time (Not This Time) along the rail. Racing outside of that rival into the turn, she was joined by 9-2 favorite My Sherrona (Not This Time) and the pair went on together as the speed fell apart to their inside past the quarter pole. Dueling the favorite nearly the length of the stretch, it was only in the final sixteenth that Beauty Reigns began to get the upper hand and edged away to prevail by a half-length. From the family of champion 2-year-old filly Sweet Catomine (Storm Cat), Beauty Reigns has a yearling half-sister by Gun Runner who RNA'd for $170,000 at KEESEP last month. Ilsa went back to Gun Runner for next term. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $49,500. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

LOOK FORWARD (f, 2, Bolt d'Oro--Troublesome, by Into Mischief) broke as the 7-2 second choice from the rail and shot right to the lead inside of even-money favorite No Bad Beats (Midnight Storm) and a host of pursuers wider out. The leading pair stayed head and head through fractions of :21.96 and :44.91 and turned for home together well in front of the rest of the field. In a test of who wanted it more, Look Forward was the one to answer the call, looking more professional opposite No Bad Beats who came home on her wrong lead 1 1/4 lengths behind the winner. It was further 9 lengths back to third. The half-sister to Amidst Waves (Midshipman), MSW & GSP,

VERSATILE GALIWAY COVERS 248 MARES, BREAKS FRENCH RECORD

Galiway | Zuzanna Lupa

By Emma Berry

With the stallion fee announcements coming in thick and fast this week, it is worth reflecting on the busiest stallions in France for the 2024 covering season, following our recent round-up of the figures for Britain and Ireland.

Firstly, our thanks must go to our esteemed colleague Adrien Cugnasse of Jour de Galop for sharing the figures he painstakingly put together this summer. They show that Haras de Colleville's Galiway (GB) was the busiest boy in the country by some margin with a book of 248 mares - the largest ever recorded by a Thoroughbred stallion in France.

It is pleasing to see another son of Galileo (Ire) thriving at stud, and the Wertheimer-bred Galiway, who started out at €3,000 back in 2016 is another success story, not just for Colleville's Guy Pariente, but also for the reputation of the proper dual-purpose stallion. That's rarely really 'a thing' in Britain and Ireland these days, but such sires, like the late Poliglote (GB), who had the rare distinction of being both Champion Flat and National Hunt sire in France during his reign at Haras d'Etream, still cut the mustard in France. And so they should.

Galiway's fee, after four years at €3,000, rose steadily to €30,000 in 2022, and he remains at that price for next year.

MEHMAS HEADS TALLY-HO ROSTER FOR 2025 AT €70,000 - KODIAC DROPS TO €25,000

Mehmas (Ire) will head the Tally-Ho Stud roster for 2025 at €70,000 while Kodiac (GB), the horse Tony O'Callaghan often refers to as the stallion who helped build the County Westmeath outfit, will stand for €25,000--down from €35,000 in 2024. Mehmas has jumped by €20,000 following a memorable year on the track with his progeny.

A statement from the stud released on Friday read, "Mehmas will stand for €70,000 following another outstanding season on the track. Europe's leading 2yo sire by winners with 60--and counting--Mehmas is responsible for eight 2yo European stakes winners this year led by the Group 1 winners Scorthy Champ [National Stakes], Vertical Blue [Prix Marcel Boussac] and Magnum Force [Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf]. He is the sire of 12 stakes winners in Europe overall.

Galiway's dual Group 1-winning son Sealiway (Fr) was also in demand, covering 157 mares at Haras de Beaumont in his second season, having been the busiest of the new stallions the previous year. Beaumont is making something of a habit of this, and its unbeaten Arc winner Ace Impact (Ire), representing the same line as a son of Cracksman (GB), was the most sought after among the new stallions in France this year, covering 182 mares.

The Aga Khan Studs had two new arrivals this season and both were well supported, with Erevann (Fr) covering 168 mares, making him the third busiest of the Flat brigade in France, and Vadeni (Fr) covered 128.

Breeders will no doubt have been hoping that, as a son of Dubawi (Ire) and the Classic winner Ervedya (Fr) (Siyouni (Fr)), Erevann will follow a similar path to his fellow Haras de Bonneval resident and Dubawi stallion Zarak (Fr). The latter started out at €12,000 and will be €80,000 in 2025. He covered 144 mares earlier this year and France's leading stallion Siyouni (Fr) covered 127.

Ace Impact | Zuzanna Lupa

City Light (Fr), one of an increasing number of Siyouni's sons at stud and France's leading first-season sire of 2023, was kept busy at Haras d'Etreham with 105 mares sent his way, while his stud-mate Hello Youmzain (Fr) covered 124. Etreham also introduced Frankel's G1 Grand Prix de Paris winner Onesto (Ire) this year and he was sent 120 mares.

Among the other stallions who were new to French studs in 2024, Sumbe's Mishriff (Ire), who had his first season delayed by a year through a foot injury not long after arriving at Haras de Montfort, covered 112 mares, and his fellow multiple Group 1 winner Angel Bleu (Fr) attracted 95. Cont. p4

Next year he will have competition from another son of Dark Angel (Ire) at Sumbe when champion miler-elect Charyn (Ire) returns from his swansong in Japan.

The G1 Champion Stakes winner Bay Bridge (GB) retired to Haras du Mesnil, which has such a good track record with its dual-purpose sires, and he was duly supported with 102 mares.

It was both surprising and pleasing to see that the 2005 Derby winner Motivator (GB), sire of course of the great Treve (Fr), continues to thrive since his move two years ago from Haras du Quesnay to Haras du Hoguenet. At Anthony Baudouin's farm he covered 80 mares this year at the age of 22, which is a credit to all those who have cared for the son of Montjeu (Ire) throughout his stud career.

It continued, "Stalwart Kodiak will stand for €25,000. Kodiak hit a significant milestone this season when surpassing 100 stakes winners. On the track, he has been as prolific as ever with a new 2yo Group 1 winner in Babouche, who defeated colts to take the Phoenix Stakes, and Group 2-winning sprinter Star Of Mystery among his stakes winners.

"Already renowned as a sire of sires thanks to the likes of Ardad, Kodi Bear and Hello Youmzain, Kodiak has also made his presence felt this year as a damsire via the top-class performers Charyn, Powerful Glory and Believing among others."

Newbie Big Evs (Ire) will stand for €17,500, Cotai Glory (GB) has been set at €14,000, Good Guess (GB) at €12,500 while Starman (GB), whose first runners are set to hit the track next year, will stand for €10,000.

As was already announced on Thursday, Amo Racing's King Of Steel has been introduced at €20,000, Bucanero Fuerte (GB) at €12,500 while Persian Force (Ire) remains at €8,000.

‘ONE OF THE FAMILY’--ACCLAMATION PENSIONED AT RATHBARRY

Group 2 winner and Group 1 sire Acclamation (GB) has been pensioned from stallion duties at Rathbarry Stud. The 25-year-old son of Royal Applause (GB) stood for €25,000 at the stud this term.

Bred by Tedwood Bloodstock and partners, the son of Princess Athena (Ire) (Ahonoora {GB}) won the G2 Diadem Stakes and was placed in both the G2 King's Stand Stakes prior to it being elevated to Group 1 level and the G1 Nunthorpe Stakes for Gerald Cottrell.

The sire of 155 stakes horses internationally and 68 lifetime stakes winners, the bay got his stallion career off with a bang, with G1 Middle Park Stakes hero and future Champion Sire elect Dark Angel (Ire) and fellow top-level winner Equiano (Fr) in his first crop, good enough to be named Leading First-Season Sire in 2007. Overall, he is the sire of seven winners at the highest table led by Romantic Warrior (Ire), a Hong Kong star, with 6-million gns mare Marsha (Ire) amidst the bunch.

Acclamation is also making his mark as a sire-of-sires, with Tally-Ho Stud's Mehmas (Ire) and the aforementioned Dark Angel at stud in Ireland among numerous sire sons. His daughters have foaled 38 stakes winners to date, 19 of them at group level with G1 Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud winner Broome (Ire) (Australia (GB)) and G1 Commonwealth Cup victor Eqtidaar (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) the best of them. Rathbarry Stud’s owner Paul Cashman said, “Acclamation has been our flag bearer here at Rathbarry since 2004 and with such a brilliant temperament he has been a pleasure to deal with. His progeny came up trumps every year both on the race track and in the sales ring bringing good fortune to all his investors. We really regard him as one of the family as does our stallion man, Clive Cox, who has done an amazing job caring for him. We hope he will have a long and healthy retirement here at the stud.”

MULTIPLE GROUP 1 WINNER LUXEMBOURG TO JOIN COOLMORE'S NH ROSTER

Luxembourg | Coolmore

Four-Time Group 1 winner Luxembourg (Ire) (Camelot (GB)), whose finest hour came when landing the Irish Champion Stakes at Leopardstown in 2022, has been retired and will join Coolmore's National Hunt roster at Castlehyde Stud.

Trained by Aidan O'Brien, Luxembourg won seven times and amassed career earnings in excess of £2.7 million. He retires having earned a career-high rating of 123.

"We're delighted to have Luxembourg join our team here in Castlehyde," said Cathal Murphy. "He has a very similar profile to the much-missed Fame And Glory, in that he is a Group 1 winner at two, three, four and five and he is also from that wonderful Montjeu sire line."

Murphy added, "Physically, he ticks every box, he has all the size, scope, strength and action you could ask for and he has shown incredible soundness and resilience throughout his extraordinary career. I have no doubt that Luxembourg will be a big hit with breeders."

Luxembourg went unbeaten as a two-year-old, with his juvenile campaign culminating with victory in the G1 Futurity Trophy Stakes at Doncaster. He was also successful in the Tattersalls Gold Cup at the Curragh and the Coronation Cup at Epsom. He was last seen finishing sixth behind Rebel's Romance (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) in the Breeders' Cup Turf at Del Mar.

STRADIVARIUS AND NEWCOMER BRADSELL PRICED AT £10,000 AT THE NATIONAL STUD

Group 1 winner Bradsell (GB) (Tasleet {GB}) has arrived at The National Stud and will stand for £10,000 in 2025, the stud announced on Friday.

A winner of the King's Stand Stakes, Nunthorpe Stakes and Flying Five Stakes at the highest level, the bay, who raced for Shaikh Nasser's Victorious Racing, will stand alongside charismatic stayer Stradivarius (Ire). The son of Sea The Stars (Ire) is also set to stand for £10,000, unchanged from this year. He covered 100 mares this term.

General manager Joe Bradley said, "Bradsell has settled into his new surroundings extremely well and we are delighted to be standing him at The National Stud in partnership with Shaikh Nasser's Victorious Racing.

"For a sprinter to return year after year winning at the top level, and to do so in such a dominant manner, is a testament to his superior mental and physical capabilities, and, of course, to his trainer Archie Watson, who has prepared him impeccably throughout. He retires as a three-time Group 1 winner and undoubtedly one of the finest sprinters of his generation.

"Bradsell's fee is set at £10,000 live foal for his first season, and we will be offering a limited number of breeding rights. As European Champion Sprinter elect, he is a very exciting option for breeders and Live foal terms just help breeders that little bit more."

Lope Y Fernandez (Ire) will stand for £7,500, and has his first runners in 2025. He received 115 mares this year. Rounding out the roster is Rajasinghe (Ire), who has first 4-year-olds, at £3,000. Cont. p6

Bradley added, "Stradivarius's first foals have made a strong impression, his fee will remain at £10,000 live foal. Lope Y Fernandez, whose first yearlings were extremely well received by breeders and buyers throughout the sales season, has an exciting year ahead in 2025, with over 100 2-year-olds ready to represent him--his 2025 fee is £7,500. Rajasinghe continues to offer exceptional value at £3,000."

PRIX MARCEL BOUSSAC WINNER VERTICAL BLUE ADDED TO TATTERSALLS DECEMBER SALE

Prix Marcel Boussac winner Vertical Blue (Ire) has been added to the Sceptre Sessions at the Tattersalls December Mares Sale. Trained by Francis-Henri Graffard for owners Gemini Stud and Argella Racing, the Mehmas (Ire) filly is the highest-rated juvenile in France.

Graffard commented, "I've loved Vertical Blue since she arrived and I was delighted that she was able to show that on the track. Physically she has plenty of scope to improve and her turn of foot, as well as her great attitude, have us all excited about what she can achieve going forward."

Commenting on Vertical Blue, Tattersalls chairman Edmond Mahony said, "To be offering the winner of this year's G1 Prix Marcel Boussac in the Sceptre Sessions of the Tattersalls December Mares Sale is a genuinely exciting prospect. Vertical Blue will be the only Group 1 winning two-year-old filly to be presented for sale anywhere in the world this year and she comes to Tattersalls not only as the highest rated two-year-old in France having won an outstanding renewal of France's premier two-year-old fillies' race, but also as a filly with real Classic aspirations for next year. Vertical Blue is a credit to her trainer Francis-Henri Graffard and her owners Gemini Stud and Argella Racing and she promises to be one of the highlights of the Sceptre Sessions at Europe's premier breeding stock sale."

The Tattersalls December Mares Sale will take place Monday 2nd December to Thursday 5th December with the Sceptre Sessions on Monday 2nd December and Tuesday 3rd December. SOUTHERN HEMISPHERE-COVERED MARES HEAD TATTERSALLS ONLINE DECEMBER SALE

A trio of Southern Hemisphere-covered mares head the initial entries for the Tattersalls Online and Inglis Digital Sale. The Southern Hemisphere Session, which is scheduled to take place on Tattersalls Online on December 11 and 13, offers mares covered on Southern Hemisphere time.

The mares are confirmed in foal to Too Darn Hot (GB), sire of champion Australian two-year-old and triple Group 1 winner Broadsiding (Aus), Irish 1,000 Guineas winner Fallen Angel (GB) and the G1 Futurity Trophy winner Hotazhell (GB).

"Too Darn Hot has made an extraordinary start to his career at stud, particularly in Australia and given he is covering a limited book to Southern Hemisphere time, opportunities to acquire a mare in foal to him are very scarce," Tattersalls Online sales manager Katherine Sheridan said. "He has 11 black-type horses from his first Australian crop already and they are still just spring three-year-olds, so it's exciting to think where things might progress with him over the next 12 to 24 months."

Weatherbys has published its Bloodstock Sales Review Part 1 for 2024 which shows that dual champion sire Frankel (GB) has achieved the highest average price of any stallion at the yearling sales in Europe so far this year.

With 31 yearlings sold, his average price was 711,398gns (€859,013) from a 2022 covering fee of £200,000. Frankel is now the joint-most expensive stallion in the world, with Dubawi (Ire), at £350,000.

His most expensive yearling was the filly out of the Group 2 winner Aljazzi (GB) (Shamardal), sold by Newsells Park Stud to Amo Racing for 4,400,000gns at Book 1 of the Tattersalls October Yearling Sale. She is one of six Frankel yearlings to have fetched a seven-figure sum, including a full-sister to the Arc winner Alpinista (GB), who was also bought by Amo Racing, from Kirsten Rausing's Staffordstown for 2,500,000gns.

Dubawi has had 17 yearlings sell for the second-highest average of 646,822gns (€781,038), headed by two colts out of Group 1 winners purchased by Godolphin. Behind Frankel and Dubawi in the top five sires by yearling averages come two from the Aga Khan Studs: Sea The Stars (Ire) at 304,116gns (€367,220) and Siyouni (Fr) on 303,615gns.

With 75 yearlings sold this year, Wootton Bassett (GB) is in

ARREST RETIRES TO BOARDSMILL STUD

The multiple group winner and St Leger runner-up Arrest (Ire) (Frankel {GB}) will stand at the Flood family's Boardsmill Stud in Ireland from 2025.

A highly consistent individual who won the G3 Chester Vase and G3 Geoffrey Freer Stakes for Juddmonte, the four-year-old finished in the top three in 10 of his 13 starts, including when second to Continuous (Jpn) (Heart's Cry {Jpn}) at Doncaster in the final Classic of last season. The John and Thady Gosden-trained colt was also runner-up at two in the G1 Criterium de Saint-Cloud.

"We are delighted to have acquired Arrest from Juddmonte Farms, a farm we have had success buying from in the past," said John Flood of Boardsmill Stud. "He was a high-class racehorse and is a gorgeous-looking individual, standing 16.2hh with a wonderfully athletic walk. His good looks are borne out by the fact that he was purchased as a foal by Juddmonte for €440,000." Cont. p8

He added, "His pedigree contains a nice blend of speed and stamina on both his sire and dam's side. He is a son of the champion Frankel and his dam, who has produced three stakes performers to date, descends from the highly influential Roberto and Top Ville lines."

Arrest was bred by Mariann Klay and Des Leadon of Swordlestown Little and is a half-brother to the Hong Kong Group 3 winner Dinozzo (Ire) (Lilbourne Lad {Ire}) and the 11-time winner and Listed-placed Spring Loaded (Ire) (Zebedee {GB}). Another half-brother, the two-year-old Detain (Ire) (Wootton Bassett {GB}), was bought for €340,000 and won his first two starts in the Juddmonte silks this season.

Juddmonte's racing manager Barry Mahon said, "Arrest is a very good-looking individual with a wonderful temperament and was a very sound and clean-winded racehorse. We have retained some breeding rights in him and look forward to the career of his half-brother Detain, who was impressive winning his first two starts at two for us this year."

A fee for Arrest will be announced at a later date.

WORLDWIDE NEWS

QUEEN ELIZABETH II CUP APPEARS REGALEIRA'S FOR THE TAKING

by Heather Anderson

Heavily favoured in the Japanese ante-post markets, juvenile Group 1 winner Regaleira (Jpn) (Suave Richard {Jpn}) is the pick versus 16 members of her own sex in the G1 Queen Elizabeth II Cup at Kyoto on Sunday.

The 2023 Hopeful Stakes heroine successfully faced males last December, and that theme continued through the Japanese Classics. She was not disgraced with a sixth in the G1 Satsuki Sho (Japanese 2000 Guineas) in April, and she repeated the dose in the G1 Tokyo Yushun (Japanese Derby), running with credit to take fifth in May. Returning to her own sex in the G2 Rose Stakes at Chukyo in September, she closed with gusto to take fifth once again, after being dead last for most of the 2000-metre trip.

Jockey Christophe Lemaire said, "Her weak point is her start, so I'd like to get a better early position this time and hope things go smoothly. She has great closing speed and she should be able to win another Grade 1 race. She's been a bit unlucky, with things like the slow pace in the Derby, and the widest gate in the Rose Stakes, so I'm hoping things go her way this time."

Second choice Shinryokuka (Jpn) (Satono Diamond {Jpn}) also sports Group 1 form at two, running second to subsequent Japanese Filly Triple Crown winner Liberty Island (Jpn) (Duramente {Jpn}) in the G1 Hanshin Juvenile Fillies. She lost her way during her 3-year-old year, but showed a glimmer of her old talent when third to Conch Shell (Jpn) (Kizuna {Jpn}) in the G3 Nakayama Himba Stakes in March. Disaster struck in the G3 Fukushima Himba Stakes a month later, with the daughter of Lei Carla (Jpn) (King Kamehameha {Jpn}) falling approaching the final bend, and failing to finish. Encouragingly, she was back in the winner's circle by a nose in the G3 Niigata Kinen over 2000 metres on Sept. 1.

Trainer Masahiro Takeuchi said, "She's done some good training with other horses, and has also run solo in a relaxed manner, even when the training track hasn't been in good condition. She's a lot stronger now, and doesn't lack power like she used to. It was good to see her run much better in her last race, and her condition keeps improving. She should run well this time, even if the ground comes up softer on the day of the race."

The consistent Wholeness (Jpn) (Lope De Vega {Ire}), a winner of four of her six starts, has yet to attain the status of group-race winner, but she ran third in the G3 Mermaid Stakes in June, and added the Listed Niigata Himba over this trip on Oct. 20.

Assistant trainer Nobuyuki Tashiro said, "She's been at the stable since her last race, but she's remained in good shape, and with just a short time between runs, she's done enough. We've taken care to bring her along in the right way, and mentally and physically she's developed nicely. She's won on left-handed tracks, but has also run well right-handed, when finishing third in a graded race, and it'll be better for her this time on the outer course. She'll be up against Grade 1 opponents this time, but I'll look forward to how she runs in the race."

There is form through the 2023 Queen Elizabeth II Cup heroine Brede Weg (Jpn) (Lord Kanaloa {Jpn}), who bested Scintillation (Jpn) (Lord Kanaloa {Jpn}) last out in the Oct. 14 G2 Fuchu Himba Stakes by 1 1/4 lengths. Third in that edition of the QEII Cup was Harper (Jpn) (Heart's Cry {Jpn}). Stunning Rose (Jpn) (King Kamehameha {Jpn}) is aiming for some redemption, going winless in her last six starts since winning the 2022 G1 Shuka Sho (Japanese Fillies St Leger). She leaves from stall 11.

Alison Murphy Photography

2nd-Meydan, AED165,000, Mdn., 11-8, NH 2yo & SH 3yo, 1400m, 1:24.72, ft.

AWAB (c, 2, Street Sense--Impossible Tale, by Tale Of Ekati), making his first start, was a touch green out in the centre of the track, but soon settled in a tracking third. Still punching the breeze on the bend, the colt was set to his task by jockey Daniel Tudhope, and soon surged up into contention with 500 metres remaining. Setting sail for leader Diamond Dealer (Lord Nelson), he steamed past early in the home straight and poured it on to win by 5 1/4 lengths. Diamond Dealer was a similar margin in front of Norato (Brz) (Kentuckian) in third. He was purchased by M T Stable for $5,000 at Fasig-Tipon's Kentucky October Yearling Sale, and caught the eye of KGS for €90,000 at Arqana's May Breeze-Up Sale. The fourth foal, third runner and first winner for his dam, Awab is followed by a yearling filly by Danish Dynaformer. Dual winner Impossible Tale was bred to Perfect Timber this spring. Second dam Impossible Time (Not Impossible {Ire}) was a champion in Canada. Sales history: $5,000 Ylg '23

GABOOLL (c, 3, Liam's Map--My Day, by Uncle Mo) secured a perch in a stalking third once the gates sprung. Edging closer on the bend, he hit the top of the lane with a full head of steam and pounced on his rivals with 300 metres remaining. He quickened clear from there to win by 4 3/4 lengths. Michael Costa stablemate Alsayel (City Of Light) was the only runner to make ground on the eventual winner, closing strongly to take second, with a gap of 12 3/4 lengths back to the remainder. The first foal from his unraced dam, Gabooll is a half-brother to the placed Margarita Girl (Twirling Candy), and to fillies by Not This Time and Epicenter born in 2023 and 2024.
