Subsanador (Arg) (Fortify) had appeared headed to the Breeders' Cup as a "wiseguy" Classic contender after seizing a three-horse photo by a head in the GI California Crown S. Sept. 28. But an ankle injury two weeks later forced the South American 4-year-old to the sidelines. Trainer Richard Mandella said at the time that the Wathnan Racing-owned Subsanador would require time off and not surgery, with a potential return to racing by late spring of 2025.

Subsanador had notched seven dirt wins, including three at the Group 1 level, in his home country before debuting for owner Stud Facundito at Santa Anita last December out of Sadler's barn. He ran a subpar fourth as the 13-10 favorite in the GI San Antonio S. (a race in which he reportedly bled).

But in the Mar. 3 Santa Anita H., Subsanador nearly wired the 10-furlong Grade I stakes at 22-1 odds, finishing second, beaten only by a head.

Subsanador besting Newgate in the California Crown | Benoit

After the Big 'Cap, Stud Facundito accepted a private offer to sell Subsanador to Wathnan Racing. Starting for his new owner for the first time out of Mandella's stable, he ran fourth in the May 27 1 1/4-mile GI Hollywood Gold Cup S.

Meanwhile, with an eye on still having a major player in graded route races for older dirt horses on the Southern California circuit, Sadler filled the void left by the sale of Subsanador by scouting and acquiring Full Serrano for owner Hronis Racing. Full Serrano was not quite as accomplished as Subsanador had been in Argentina, requiring five starts to break his maiden, with just a listed stakes victory and Group 3 placing to his credit.

The betting public didn't put much stock into those credentials. Off at 9-1 odds in a first-level allowance/optional claimer going a mile at Del Mar Aug. 3, Full Serrano got hooked into an inside duel and drew away to win by 2 ¼ lengths.

Off that score, Full Serrano was slotted for an ambitious try in the Aug. 31 GI Pacific Classic over 10 furlongs at Del Mar. Mandella had penciled in that same spot for Subsanador, but he instead called an audible two weeks before the race and shipped to Monmouth Park for the 1 1/16-mile GIII Philip H. Iselin S. Aug. 17.

The cross-country journey to the Jersey Shore turned out to be a well-orchestrated confidence-builder for Subsanador, who unleashed a powerful far-turn move at 3-2 odds to mow down the Iselin frontrunners and score by 1 ½ lengths.

Back at Del Mar, Full Serrano charged into the Pacific Classic as a 7-1 outsider who still hadn't commanded the full respect of the bettors. But similar to how Subsanador had almost stolen the Big 'Cap on the front end half a year earlier, Full Serrano nearly ran away with the Pacific Classic before getting caught at the wire, finishing half a length behind the winner in second.

With the connections of both Argentinians sizing up berths in the Breeders' Cup Classic, it looked as if Subsanador and Full Serrano would meet in the Sept. 28 California Crown S. at Santa Anita.

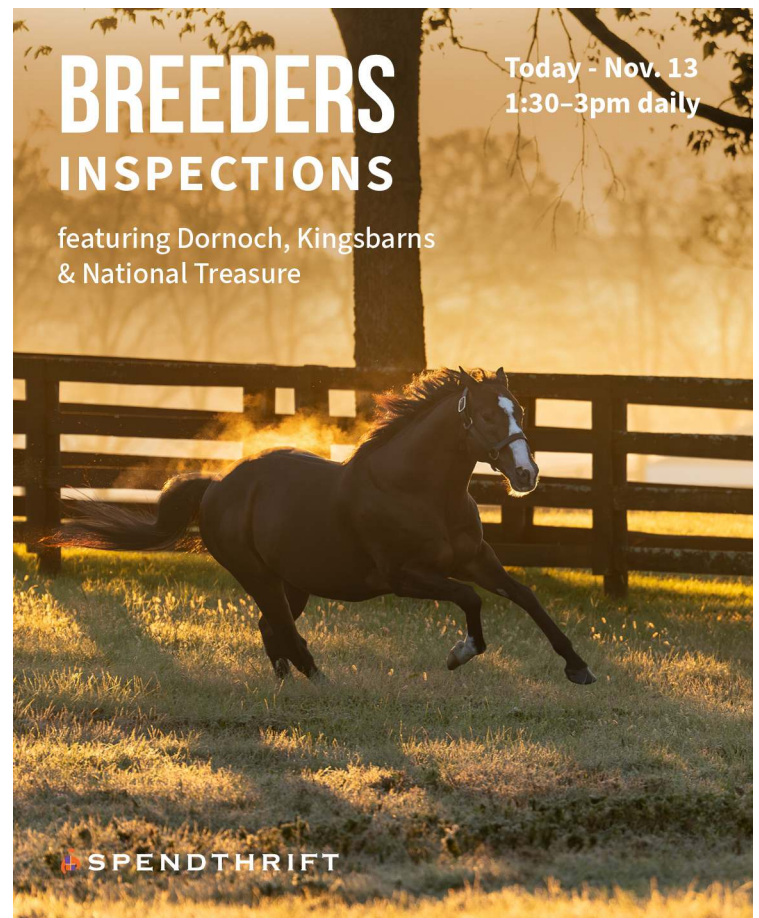

But that matchup, too, was not to be. Full Serrano spiked a fever and ended up not running in the last major West Coast prep for the Classic. Subsanador, as described above, relentlessly stalked the speed and held off a determined late closer to annex the California Crown with authority.

Yet the first Saturday in November unfolded with neither Argentinian going postward in the Classic. While Subsanador was nursing the ankle injury that kept him out of the Breeders' Cup, Full Serrano was again outrunning long odds to prevail in the Dirt Mile.

Because of the structuring of the Breeders' Cup card this year that had the Dirt Mile going off as the last of Saturday's championship races—a full four races after the centerpiece Classic—Full Serrano's win, unintentionally, had a touch of "afterthought" status attached to it.

That's too bad, because it was actually one of the more powerful performances on the program, with Full Serrano forcing a fast pace from second, then emerging from a wall of contenders stacked across the track at the top of the lane to stay on late and finish with enough torque to think that longer races against the division's best are going to be well within his scope.

"I'd like to, if it works well, run in the [G1] Pegasus [World Cup Invitational S. at Gulfstream Jan. 25] and then look possibly at the Middle East for this horse," TDN's Steve Sherack quoted

Sadler as saying after the Dirt Mile win.

In the press conference after the Dirt Mile, Sadler also underscored how he's always on the hunt for distance-centric Thoroughbreds who might fit graded stakes for older horses on the SoCal circuit—and beyond.

"We're always looking," Sadler said. "I think there's always room in this division, in California. I had a really good horse in Subsanador that [Stud Facundito] sold to Wathnan Racing. You can see there's a lot of races for these horses. We're on the eye out for them.

"He could run longer," Sadler said of Full Serrano. "Timing this year, he missed some time. I said, 'I don't really have time to prepare him properly for the Classic, so we're going to go for the Mile.' That's what we did.

"Next year he could end up possibly in the Classic," Sadler said. Here's hoping that overdue scrap with Subsanador emerges somewhere along the way.

Note: Because of a reporter's error, an earlier version of this column incorrectly stated that Hronis Racing had an ownership interest in Subsanador when he debuted in the United States. The column has been corrected to state that Stud Facundito was the owner. TDN regrets the mistake.

TAMARA SET FOR DEL MAR RETURN FRIDAY

Spendthrift's Tamara (Bolt d'Oro), injured in the Breeders' Cup last fall and unraced in 2024, is expected to make her return at Del Mar Friday. She is entered in the seventh race on the card, a six-furlong optional claiming test.

"She's doing good," Mandella said. "She's ready to race."

A daughter of Hall of Famer Beholder (Henny Hughes), the multiple champion defeated colts in the GI Pacific Classic in 2015 and annexed the GI Breeders' Cup Distaff in both 2013 and 2016.

Tamara | Benoit

The Spendthrift homebred was tabbed a TDN Rising Star following her career debut at Del Mar in August of 2023 before running off to a six-length victory in the GI Del Mar.

Entered her in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies at Santa Anita, she set the pace in the race before fading to seventh place behind winner and ultimate champion Just F Y I (Justify). Following the race, it was revealed that she had sustained a fractured splint bone in her left leg.

Tamara, given time off, returned to Mandella this spring and was tested with a couple of two-furlong drills. Everything was pointing in the right direction for a return to the races but Mandella, fearing he was moving too fast with her, backed off, keeping her in light training but skipping the Del Mar summer meet and the Santa Anita autumn meet. A spiked fever also contributed to her delayed return.

"Just see that they have their old style back," Mandella explained when asked what he was looking for her return. "The same ability. She seems to have that. A lot of good works so I think we're ready to go."

Mandella had hoped to run Tamara in an allowance race last weekend at Del Mar but it failed to fill. So, instead he put another work (five furlongs) into her last Friday and she registered a bullet in 1:01.20.

WOODBINE CANCELS SUNDAY CARD AS PRECAUTIONARY MEASURE

Woodbine Entertainment has cancelled training and the scheduled race card for Sunday, Nov. 10, as a precautionary measure to prioritize the safety and well-being of the horses and jockeys after three catastrophic breakdowns took place on Saturday, the track said in a release early on Sunday morning.

On Saturday morning during workouts at Woodbine, an unnamed horse suffered a breakdown. During the second race on the card, Social Dancer (Society's Chairman) took an awkward step at the half-mile marker, had to be eased and was then vanned off via equine ambulance. The 3-year-old filly then had to be euthanized.

In the GIII Bessarabian Stakes, which was the eighth race carded, Owen's Tour Guide (Tourist) took a wrong step at the quarter pole and fell. The 6-year-old mare was then euthanized. Jockey Jose Campos was able to walk off under his own power.

After the accident, Woodbine cancelled the remaining two races. The GII Autumn Stakes, which was scheduled as race nine, will not be re-drawn and will take place next Saturday, Nov. 16.

The Sunday morning decision was made after consulting with key industry partners, including the Horsemen's Benevolent and Protective Association (HBPA), the Jockeys' Guild, and the Alcohol and Gaming Commission of Ontario. Training was also suspended.

Woodbine is currently performing track maintenance and closely reviewing conditions which includes meeting with its consultants. These efforts will continue throughout the day, with racing and training activities set to resume only when it is deemed safe to do so.

"The safety of our horses and jockeys is always our highest priority," said Bill Ford, executive vice president of racing at Woodbine. "In consultation with our industry partners, we have decided to take these precautionary steps to ensure that the track conditions meet the highest safety standards. Woodbine has long been recognized as one of the safest racetracks in North America, and we are committed to maintaining that reputation by thoroughly assessing and addressing any issues."

Woodbine will continue to provide updates as efforts progress and decisions regarding the resumption of training and racing are made.

Despite not having visited the winner's circle in over two years, Mike Ryan's Be Your Best (Ire) (Muhaarar {GB}) benefitted from a crafty ride by champion jockey Frankie Dettori to take Sunday's GIII Long Island Stakes at Aqueduct.

Given a 9-1 chance while getting blinkers off following a flat sixth last time in the 10-furlong GII Rodeo Drive Stakes at Santa Anita Oct. 5, the 4-year-old was gained the services of Dettori for the first time after 15 prior trips to the post.

Breaking alertly from post 7, she was quickly sent to the front as favored No Show Sammy Jo (GB) (Lope de Vega {Ire}) didn't have the same turn of foot and soon found herself covered up near the back early. Clicking through reasonable splits of :24.23 and a half in :49.06, the Saffie Joseph Jr. trainee continued to cruise along up front through three quarters in 1:14.65. With longshot Whatlovelookslike (English Channel) and Group 3 winner Blush (Ire) (Kingman {GB}) in close pursuit turning for home and starting to amp up the pressure on the pacesetter, Be Your Best spurted away instantly when give the cue from Dettori at the head of the stretch. Simultaneously, the favorite was coming alive from the back of the field despite drawing out several paths wide on the home turn. Full of run late, Be Your Best was given a few reminders and kept on gamely, and while No Show Sammy Jo closed by leaps and bounds down the stretch, she was unable to peg the winner. Immensitude (Fr) (Lawman {Fr}) closed bravely to be third.

"He left it up to me, Saffie [Joseph, Jr.]. They were telling me what a great form she was. I was able to dictate. Especially on the inner track, if you are able not to get taken on, then you are always very hard to catch.

"I was going the pace that I wanted to," Dettori confirmed. "She wasn't going slow, but she wasn't going flat out. She had a good rhythm, she was pricking her ears, and like I said, no one bothered me up front and when I stole those two lengths of the stretch, I was hard to catch."

Sunday's victory represented Dettori's first winner in New York since he took the Long Island with Shaima for Luca [Cumani] in 1991.

"Flavien [Prat, aboard No. 8 No Show Sammy Jo] came off the pack and I wasn't sure."

Of the beaten favorite's performance, jockey Flavien Prat added, "She jumped well, but everyone went. Going into the first turn, I wasn't quick enough, so I find myself a little further back than I wanted to be. Then after that she made a good move, but that's it."

Earning TDN Rising stardom for trainer Horacio De Paz in her career debut at the Spa in 2022, Be Your Best added a victory in that season's PG Johnson Stakes before coming home third in the GII Miss Grillo. From seven starts at three, she failed to win but hit the board in a trio of graded stakes, including runner-up finishes in the GI Del Mar Oaks and GI American Oaks at Santa Anita. This season, she debuted with a fourth in the one-mile GII Buena Vista in March before trailing home last in the GI New York at Saratoga in June. Trying 11 furlongs for the first time in while facing optional claiming company upstate in August, the bay was an improved third. Adding blinkers while switching to the Joseph Jr. barn for her latest prior start, she tired late to finish out of the money in the 10-furlong test at Santa Anita.

MSW CHANCE IT TO STAND IN VIRGINIA IN 2025

Mary Lightner and Lisa Goodin's Shooting Star Thoroughbreds' Chance It (Currency Swap--Vagabon Diva, by Pleasantly Perfect) will stand at Sarah and Tommy Doyle's Willow Hill Equestrian in Orange, Virginia in 2025.

After standing three years in Florida at Journeyman Stud, an opportunity arose to relocate the multiple stakes winner to Virginia for stallion duties in 2025.

His fee for 2025 will be $2,000, live foal, stands and nurses. His first-crop yearlings will soon be 2-year-olds in January 2025.

"We appreciate the dedication and excellent stallion management that Brent and Crystal Fernung and their team provided Chance It at their facility," said Shooting Star General Manager Mary Lightner. "We evaluated which direction would make the most impact for Chance It as a maturing stallion moving forward and arrived at the decision that Virginia met our criteria best."

Standing in Virginia will allow Chance It to be eligible for the Virginia Thoroughbred Association (VTA) stallion and breeder benefits and incentives.

Ryan Thompson

During three seasons on the track, Chance It amassed $583,330 in career earnings winning multiple stakes from six furlongs to over a mile at two, and was named FTBOA Champion 2-year-old in 2019. At three, he won the Mucho Macho Man Stakes and at four was graded stakes placed, finishing third in the GI Forego Stakes and second in the GIII Smile Sprint Invitational Stakes.

After breaking her maiden on debut in her native France, Venencia joined the Chad Brown barn in early 2023 and has been knocking on the door with two good finishes this season but was still looking for her first win in North America. Adding the blinkers Sunday for her second try in stakes company, the 6-1 shot trailed the field after spotting them a step at the break and was content at the back while kept along the inside up the backstretch through fractions of :23.86 and :47.21. Fanned out five across the track past the quarter pole, Venencia kept grinding up the outside, got on even terms with a sixteenth left to run and just prevailed on the line.

"She always gets off slow," said winning rider Manny Franco. "But I wasn't in a hurry with her, because that is her style. So, I mean the pace helped me a lot. When I swing wide, I have so much horse, so when I hit the clear she just took off. She took a little bit to get there, because the five [Breath Away] I have to give her credit, she was running too."

A third stakes winner for Recoletos, Venencia has a trio of full-siblings: a 3-year-old gelding named Lepanto (Fr), a 2-year-old filly named Twolatebabydoll (Fr) and a yearling filly.

Big City Lights was the runner-up to MGISW The Chosen Vron (Vronsky) in the past two editions of the Cary Grant, but did not have to face the highly-regarded California speedster this time. The winner of the GIII Palos Verdes Stakes at Santa Anita earlier this year, Big City Lights was last seen running third in the GII Pat O'Brien Stakes at the seaside oval Aug. 24.

Well-supported at 90 cents on the dollar here, the Cal-bred raced in tight from the third spot up the backstretch. The hooded Richard Mandella trainee had the rail open up heading into the far turn and he took it. At the top of the lane Big City Lights began to run up the score and he easily took home the Cary Grant statue. Cont.

"He kind of surprises me," said trainer Richard Mandella. "He's not interested in the early speed like he used to but he's finishing great so I can't complain. [Kazushi] Kimura did a good thing slipping through there. This was too nice of spot for him. When they're there you gotta go."

Backed with gusto by the public at 46 cents on the dollar here, the favorite was last out of the blocks, but the filly soon got into the action by pulling into fourth as the pacesetter went :21.24 for the initial quarter up the backstretch. Nom de Plume zeroed in on the leaders around the far turn, collared both of them just after the eighth pole and pulled away to get her picture taken by 5 1/4 lengths over Miss Arlington (Mark Valeski). MASMAK (c, 3, Vino Rosso--Nite in Rome {GSP}, by Harlan's Holiday), who came over from Brad Cox's barn, turned in a runner-up finish at fourth asking upstate Sept. 1 for new trainer Rick Dutrow. Then the colt graduated by 1 1/4 lengths at the Big A Oct. 5. Looking to clear more hurdles as the 2-1 choice here, the 3-year-old was taken back towards the rear of the field up the backstretch. Masmak started to get involved to the outside with a big sweeping move around the far turn. Finding his best stride down the lane, the chestnut took the lead with a sixteenth left and sealed the deal by half a length over Emirates Road (Quality Road). JUST RUTHLESS (f, 2, Justify--Notorious R B G, by Speightstown) came up a length short in her turf debut at Keeneland Oct. 13 and was meant for the grass again Sunday but got rained off onto the main track over the same 1 1/16 miles. Favored at even money, she more than took to the slop, breaking out to the lead and taking this field gate to wire, coming home largely unchallenged for the six-length win over Something Stronger (Justify). Notorious R B G, sold with Just Ruthless in utero for $325,000 at KEENOV in 2021, is a daughter of champion female sprinter Maryfield. Adding the extra 1/16th Sunday, the even-money chalk raced in the front flight in a ground-saving spot just off pacesetter Reteiko (Outwork). Shifted out around the turn past the half in :48.99, High Beta had plenty left when ridden to the front off the far turn and held off a charging group led by Constitution Road (Constitution) to be two lengths in front on the line. AUNT MO (f, 2, Uncle Mo--Kallio {GSW, $336,095}, by Scat Daddy), placed in her first two sprints here and at Santa Anita, handled the stretch out around two turns with aplomb. In her last start on Oct. 6 in Arcadia, she finished second behind the debuting Mawu (Blame), a filly who had been jotted down that day as a 'TDN Insight' horse. Today, Aunt Mo broke well from the outside gate in a field of five under Hector Berrios. The 4-5 favorite established a clear lead early and steadily increased her advantage thereafter to prevail by nine lengths over Boujee Beach (Global Campaign). Her dam Kallio, GSW, $336,095, won the 2019 GIII Cardinal Stakes at Churchill Downs. Subsequently, she was hammered to Eaton Bloodstock for $585,000 at the 2020 Keeneland November Breeding Sale while in foal with Aunt Mo's winning full-brother Mo Caliente. Kallio has a yearling Gun Runner colt who brought $750,000 when sold to M. V. Magnier and White Birch Farm at the 2024 Keeneland September Yearling Sale. MAGNIFY (c, 3, Justify--Stellar Wind {Ch. 3-year-old Filly, MGSW, $2,903,200}, by Curlin) was never a factor in his May debut at Santa Anita but came back with an improved effort off a break to be second at Del Mar Aug. 22. Now in his third try over the distance and off another brief layoff, the 5-2 third choice flashed early speed to duel for the lead up the backstretch with Harry Houdini (Good Magic). The pair went head to head past the half in :45.44 before Magnify began to pull away, opening up while put to a drive into the final furlong to come home an easy six-length winner. Stellar Wind, who certainly needs no introduction, sold to Coolmore's M.V. Magnier for a sales-topping $6,000,000 at KEENOV in 2017. Of three to race, Magnify is her first winner. She has a 2-year-old Into Mischief filly who is unplaced in one start, a yearling Into Mischief colt and produced a Gun Runner filly this year. She went back to Gun Runner for 2025. QUEEN'S WREATH (f, 2, Jimmy Creed--Ilanthe {MSP, $138,353}, by Sky Mesa) ran a well-beaten third on debut at Laurel Sept. 13 and did not care for the mud when fifth at Delaware Park Sept. 28. Overlooked as a 15-1 shot here, the filly chased from the outside a pair of leaders up the backstretch, which included favorite Ready to Rocknroll (Bolt d'Oro). The juvenile started to wind up around the far turn and assailed the chalk with less than a furlong left. Passing her by, Queen's Wreath donned cap and gown by 3 1/2 lengths over My Grey Humor (City of Light). QUADRA (f, 2, Frosted--Quargent, by War Front) was well-beaten in her debut when she caught an off-the-turf maiden at Laurel Oct. 4. Ready for firm footing as a 14-1 shot here, the filly seized the lead shortly after the bell and continued to make every pole a winning one through the backstretch. The homebred heard the hoofbeats at her back around the far turn and she responded with an impressive burst of speed that put her across the wire 5 3/4 lengths to the good over Jenn (Justify). The winner's dam foaled a colt last year by Liam's Map and she was entered in Maclean's Music's book for next season. This Veterans Day, Hallway Feeds honors the unwavering dedication of our nation's veterans, whose sacrifices ensure our freedom and way of life. In the world of Thoroughbred racing, we are reminded of this commitment through the story of August Belmont II. In 1917, at the age of 65, Belmont volunteered to serve in World War I, demonstrating his profound love for country, with his selflessness and service leading him to sell his entire 1917 yearling crop, including a promising colt named Man O' War. This decision allowed Man O' War to become one of the greatest racehorses of all time, leaving an indelible mark on our sport. Belmont's actions exemplify the principle that, while we are dedicated to the sporting traditions of Thoroughbred racing, the spirit of service above self and our respect and gratitude for America's veterans remain paramount.

Thank You Veterans,

STOUTE, CECIL AND THE DWINDLING GOLDEN AGE OF TRAINERS

Sir Michael Stoute, centre, alongside his former great rival Sir Henry Cecil at the 2010 Breeders' Cup | Racingfotos.com

By Paul Hayward

At the start of each season the late Sir Henry Cecil would buy a large notebook and divide its final pages into squares, "like a crossword puzzle," to be filled in, one by one, when he trained a winner. Group wins were inked-in in colour.

Each victory would send him to the trainers' championship table in the Racing Post, to see whether he had moved up, or further "in front of Michael Stoute, or any nearer to John Gosden."

With Sir Michael Stoute's last turf runner, at Nottingham last week, a golden age of racehorse trainers approached its end. Stoute, Gosden and Andre Fabre in France are all septuagenarians. Cecil, who was the Seb Coe to Stoute's Steve Ovet, the Barcelona to his Real Madrid, died in June 2013.

Stoute's longevity was a thing of wonder. When he started out in 1972 Richard Nixon swept aside George McGovern in the US Presidential election--52 years before the return of Donald Trump. In the years in-between Stoute's first runner and Wanderlust trailing home last at Nottingham to bring down the curtain, he was champion trainer 10 times and won more than 4,000 races, including the Derby, six times, the Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe, Japan Cup, Dubai World Cup, eight Breeders' Cup races and the Champion Hurdle with Kribensis. ASSISTENT SWOOPS LATE FOR GROSSER PREIS VON BAYERN GLORY

By Sean Cronin

Eckhard Sauren's ultra consistent Assistent (Ger) (Sea The Moon {Ger}--Anna Kalla {Ger}, by Kallisto {Ger}), who finished in the top four in five prior Group 1 contests, gained compensation for his second in last year's G1 Grosser Allianz Preis von Bayern with a late surge for glory in this year's renewal at Munich.

The Henk Grewe trainee, who tuned up for this with a 3 1/4-length tally in last month's G3 Herbst-Trophy at Baden-Baden, employed patient tactics and was anchored in rear until well beyond halfway. Coming under pressure on the turn for home, the 62-5 chance went fifth approaching the quarter-mile marker and stayed on in relentless fashion to deny the Sir Mark Prescott-trained Tiffany (Ire) (Farhh {GB}) by a neck in the dying strides. Last year's G1 Futurity Trophy hero Ancient Wisdom (Fr) (Dubawi {Ire}), making his first start since annexing July's G3 Bahrain Trophy, held every chance inside the final quarter-mile and kept on well to finish 1 1/2 lengths adrift in third. Cont. from p1

It's a truism of watching sport that we only realise what we had when it's gone. The long Cecil-Stoute duel was cloaked in Flat racing's outward civility. Other sports would have told you to pick your side: Cecil or Stoute--'you can't be both'--in the way the great American sports columnist Rick Reilly wrote that you were either a 'Tiger [Woods] or a Phil [Mickelson] guy.'

The rivalry between Cecil and Stoute was real but mutually respectful. When I interviewed Cecil at Warren Place in 2011 for The Observer he had just been knighted, which brought him upsides Stoute (knighted in 1998) in the social stakes.

"We've always been very competitive together," Cecil said in his study. "Then he moved in front, things deteriorated for me, I didn't have the horses, he was top of the list and I was right down. I went down to 149th, I think. He hated me winning when we were fighting to see who was going to be champion trainer. We're great friends now. We get on very well. I don't know whether he likes me more because I'm not such a nuisance."

The reason for revisiting one of the great Newmarket struggles is to honour an age in which the brilliance and charisma of individual trainers helped promote the sport. It was certainly a gilded age for punters. Stoute and Cecil had legions of disciples who would support them as if they were football teams. You knew what you were getting with a bet on a Cecil or Stoute horse. It bought you not only a betting slip but entry to the ride they were on.

"At the height of their powers, Henry Cecil and he were formidable adversaries and lit up the British racing season year on year," John Gosden affirmed when Stoute retired.

There are gifted and magnetic trainers still, of course. Gosden, 73, continues to bear the torch for his generation, with son Thady. Aidan O'Brien is a mercurial genius. Each leading trainer is a 'story', simply by virtue of their success. But the corporatisation of sport, together with the ravages of social media, have obscured the human element. Flair and personality are still there, just better hidden. Sir Mark Prescott--another half-centurion--is arguably the last 'character' standing from those who set down roots in the 1970s.

Stoute hated being interviewed and had no wish to be a celebrity. The turmoil of Cecil's personal life forced him into the public eye. He was a gossip columnist's dream. For Stoute, Shergar's brilliance and subsequent kidnapping at stud by the IRA guaranteed him immortality in the annals of huge and shocking news stories. Cecil meanwhile bequeathed a late-life masterpiece in Frankel, a story that would have stretched Hollywood's imagination. 'Trainer in his last months with cancer is lent the will to endure by best-ever horse who retires undefeated.' Try pitching that one.

They are still at it, the old devils. Andre Fabre, born in the year World War II ended, sent out this year's Arc favourite, Sosie. Fabre, who has been champion trainer in France 30 times, will be 80 next month. Sosie, who finished fourth, would have been his ninth Arc winner. Gosden first took out a licence in America in 1979 and can reflect on 45 years of conquest.

Only success can buy the kind of authority these trainers accumulated. Bruce Raymond, the former jockey and racing manager to Saeed Suhail among others, says: "When my owners talk about telling Sir Michael to do something, I say 'listen, Sir Michael Stoute has trained every winner in the world twice, I'm not going to tell him anything'--and he quite rightly probably wouldn't take any notice anyway."

The top trainers manage upwards (to owners), sideways (to staff, vets, jockeys, the media and bloodstock agents) and 'downwards' to the horses, who are fragile and unpredictable. It's a maelstrom of stress few of us could deal with. Cont. p4

On my visit to Warren Place, Cecil showed me his collection of miniature knights and soldiers (pipe bands, mostly), which honoured his grandfather, who was commander in chief of the Gordon Highlanders. He recalled the late Queen marvelling at his array of knights, and him telling her: "The only one I haven't got is Michael Stoute."

Rivals outlast one another. Stoute trained for another 11 years after Cecil's death. But in so much as they need each other to define their careers, they leave the stage as one.

"This horse is so close to my heart and to win is great," said winning rider Thore Hammer-Hansen. "I am so very happy for my boss Eckard Sauren, who has invested so much into his horses over the years and now finally gets his first Group 1 winner. At first I didn't think Assistent would make it from where he came from, but he gave his all and delivered beautifully."

Owner Eckhard Sauren added, "I am lost for words, what a race and what a fight. I never thought we could win such a strongly contested race, and it was so close, but this horse has got such a big heart. He was awesome."

Retirement now beckons for the winner, according to trainer Henk Grewe, who commented. "This is so emotional. It was his last race and, now a Group 1 winner, he will retire to stud."

JEU ST ELOI COLT TOPS FIRST DAY OF THE TATTERSALLS IRELAND NOVEMBER NH SALE

Lot 156 | Tattersalls Ireland

A colt by Jeu St Eloi (Fr) from Jimmy and Eileen Furlong's Thistle town Stud topped the opening day of the Tattersalls Ireland November National Hunt Sale at €58,000.

The foal, who went through the ring as lot 156, is out of the Listed-placed chaser Molly Childers (Ire) (Stowaway {GB}) and was bought by Brian and Eoghan Murphy of Redpender Stud, who signed as Briown.

"He is a standout today," said Eoghan. "The sire has done really well and the mare has black-type, too. Hopefully, he will come back to the Derby Sale. Fair play to the Furlongs--they have done a fabulous job with this colt. He cost us more than we thought, but there was plenty of competition and sometimes you need to stretch for the one you want."

It was a good day, too, for Daniel Berney's Black Gate Farm which was responsible for two of the top five lots. Lot 183, a colt by Crystal Ocean (GB) from the family of Stage Star (Ire) (Fame And Glory {GB}), was sold to Mark Dwyer's Oaks Farm Stables for €30,000, while lot 90, a colt by Order Of St George (Ire), was bought by Mount Eaton Stud for €28,000 (Lot 90).

John Hore of Mount Eaton Stud said, "The plan is to come back to the Derby Sale--it is as simple as that! We have had luck with the sire topping the July Store Sale and this chap is a similar type. That was a little bit more than we wanted to give today, but he is the nicest foal here today."

The November National Hunt Sale continues at 10am on Monday.

Successful in low-key contests at Clairefontaine and La Teste earlier in the campaign, Grand Stars ran seventh on stakes bow when making her final start for the Gianluca Bietolini stable in ParisLongchamp's Srpt. 1 Listed Prix de Liancourt last time and stepped forward to notch a first win for trainer Gerald Mosse. Under wraps towards the rear until turning for home, she made continued headway in the straight to challenge with 350 metres remaining and was urged clear inside the final furlong for a career high.

"Of course I am moved to saddle my first winner as a trainer, but I never felt pressure in waiting for it," said Gerald Mosse. "When the owner bought this filly privately and sent her to me, we gave her time to see what she looked capable of. Every time she has worked she has shown improvement. We knew she'd love that [heavy] ground and she loves to run at other horses. Her jockey [Aurelien Lemaitre] gave her a great ride, better than I would have done myself."

Wonder Boy, who hails from the family of G1 King's Stand Stakes-winning champion Godswalk (Dancer's Image), is kin to a yearling colt by Counterattack (Aus). Sales history: €11,000 RNA Ylg '23 BBAGS. STUNNING ROSE BACK TO WINNING WAYS IN QUEEN ELIZABETH II CUP

Stunning Rose | Horsephotos

Stunning Rose (Jpn) (King Kamehameha {Jpn}) rediscovered the winning touch with an impressive success in the hands of Cristian Demuro in Sunday's G1 Queen Elizabeth II Cup at Kyoto Racecourse, her first win of any description since tasting Classic glory in the G1 Shuka Sho back in October 2022.

The Tomokazu Takano trainee was one of two runners for owners Sunday Racing, with the other, Regaleira (Jpn) (Suave Richard {Jpn}), dominating the betting in her search for a second Group 1 victory after last year's Hopeful Stakes. She was the only three-year-old in the field, with older rivals Wholeness (Ire) (Lope De Vega {Ire}), the winner of the Listed Niigata Himba Stakes on her most recent start, and Stunning Rose, last seen finishing sixth in the G3 Hokkaido Shimbun Hai Queen Stakes, heading the opposition.

The 17 runners broke in front of the stands with Conch Shell (Jpn) (Kizuna {Jpn}) taking the early lead as recent G3 Niigata Kinen winner Shinryokuka (Jpn) (Satono Diamond {Jpn}) settled among those following in close pursuit. A bit keen in the backstretch, Stunning Rose chased the leaders in fourth, before making swift headway to challenge the tiring Conch Shell on the home turn. From there she powered away to pass the post two lengths clear of one of the outsiders in Ravel (Jpn) (Kitasan Black {Jpn}), with Wholeness and Shinryokuka completing the frame ahead of Regaleira, who could manage only fifth after meeting trouble in the straight. The final time of 2:11.10 was a stakes record.

"I'm very happy to have won a Group 1 race, which I wanted to achieve here in Japan, especially after finishing second a few times," said French-based jockey Demuro, who is riding in Japan under a short-term license. "Today after the start, I chose to go behind the leader and the mare just showed a special turn of foot."

It was certainly a return to form for Stunning Rose, who won the G3 Flower Cup and G3 Shion Stakes as a three-year-old, as well as filling the runner-up spot behind Stars On Earth (Jpn) (Durementa {Jpn}) in the G1 Yushun Himba (Japanese Oaks). Sidelined by injury after finishing twelfth in last year's G1 Victoria Mile, she made her comeback when eighth in March's G1 Osaka Hai, before contesting the latest edition of the Victoria Mile, in which she was ninth, and the Queen Stakes.

Pedigree Notes

Stunning Rose is one of seven winners from eight runners out of the winning Kurofune mare Rosa Blanca (Jpn) who, in turn, is out of the Listed scorer Rosebud (Jpn) (Sunday Silence), a full-sister to the G2 Kinko Sho winner Rosenkreuz (Jpn) and a half to the Listed-placed Rose Prestige (Jpn) (Dance In The Dark {Jpn}). Rosebud is the dam of eight winners, headed by the G1 Japan Cup hero and sire Rose Kingdom (Jpn) by King Kamehameha (Jpn). Stunning Rose's third dam, Rose Colour (Jpn) (Shirley Heights {GB}), also won a Listed race and is a half-sister to a pair of Listed-winning sires, Rosado (Jpn) and Vita Rosa (Jpn), both by Sunday Silence.
