

'STATEMENT OF INTENT' SEES AMO EQUAL 2.5 MILLION RECORD FOR CHALDEAN'S SISTER

Alex Elliott and Kia Joorabchian | Tattersalls

By Emma Berry and Brian Sheerin

NEWMARKET, UK — In an extraordinary session in which the turnover of 30,906,000gns was almost double this day of trade from 12 months ago, and included the five highest-priced foals sold in Europe this year, Amo Racing's Kia Joorabchian returned to the Tattersalls ring to once again head the buyers' list. In addition to his eye-watering outlay on yearlings in October, the football agent and increasingly prominent owner and breeder spent a total of 4,675,000gns on four weanlings. Cont. p3

GROUP WINNER GEZORA PURCHASED BY WHITE BIRCH FARM

Group winner Gezora (Fr) (Almanzor {Fr}) has been acquired privately by Peter Brant's White Birch Farm, Jour de Galop reported on Friday.

The G3 Prix des Reservoirs winner holds Classic aspirations and she will now be trained by Francis-Henri Graffard.

Bred by SARL de Chambure/Haras d'Etream, the bay made four starts for Etream and former trainer Nicolas le Roch. Fourth when unveiled at Dieppe in July, she graduated by a length there a month later.

A narrow second in the G3 Prix de Conde at Chantilly in September, the daughter of Germance (Silver Hawk) ran out a 1 3/4-length winner of the G3 Prix des Reservoirs at Deauville on Oct. 21.

A half-sister to the multiple stakes-placed Garance (Fr) (Teofilo {Ire}), Gezora is the 11th foal out of G1 Prix Saint-Alary heroine Germance, who was also second in the G1 Prix de Diane.

G1 Prix d'Ispahan hero Mekhtaal (GB) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) is under the third dam, while his Galileo (Ire) half-sister Aigue Marine (GB), a multiple Grade III winner in the U.S. and a stakes winner in France, is the dam of G2 Grand Prix de Deauville third and three-time listed winner Fenelon (Fr) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}). Another half-sibling to Mekhtaal is the dam of G1 Criterium International second and group winner Normandy Bridge (Fr) (Le Havre {Ire}).

Heading this recent spending spree was the 2,500,000gns purchase of the sister to Classic winner Chaldean (GB), which was described by bloodstock agent Alex Elliott as "a real statement of intent". Joorabchian's power-packed bidding display on Whitsbury Manor Stud's Frankel (GB) filly equalled the long-held record-high price set by Padua's Pride (Ire) (Caerleon), way back in 1997.

It was going to take something special to match a record that has stood for nearly 30 years and, like Padua's Pride, who was a full-brother to a Classic winner in dual Derby winner Generous (Ire), lot 945 boasted a pedigree to die for.

Amo Racing's Book 1 spend reached close to 23 million gns, which is all well and good, according to Elliott, who said that Friday evening's spree laid down something of a gauntlet with regard to the operation's long-term plans.

"What is there to say? We gave 4.4 million gns for a Frankel filly out of a Group 2 winner [at Book 1] and we have bought a sister to a Classic winner for 2.5 million gns there. Her sister was a good race filly and she made 2.5 million gns here last year. I knew we had to be there and I think Kia has made a good move. It's a brave statement of intent. To come to the yearling sales and blow it up is one thing but to continue it into the foals is a real statement of intent. It's a really good sign moving forward. It's a long-term thing."

While there is no denying that bidding a couple of million for a living, breathing creature is pretty serious business, Joorabchian is a man who has a lot of fun doing so. He can get pretty creative with his bidding, between phoning a friend for encouragement and deliberately late 100-grand nods, which is what he did to pry the top lot away from a similarly determined Paddy Twomey as underbidder.

"I was willing him to do it," Elliott reflected. "He had to make a phone call--a phone a friend, he said! I said, 'don't ask the audience, because they'll definitely tell you to bid!' But I was willing him along and am absolutely over the moon that we've got her. Listen, the mare is unbelievable, the farm is unbelievable and the sire is unbelievable. She is a lovely filly--great action. She put the head down, as Alastair Pim said. It's a long-term project and it's great to see. We've come a long way since early Ascot two-year-old races. The whole thing has developed and I'm delighted that Kia made that last bid."

Suelita (GB) (Dutch Art {GB}) just doesn't miss. Since she was acquired by Whitsbury Manor Stud for an inspired 21,500gns at the December Mares Sale here in 2013, not only has she produced the 2,000 Guineas winner in Chaldean (GB), but she is also responsible for the high-class Alkumait (GB) and a further three black-type performers, including Group 1-placed Get Ahead (GB) (Showcasing {GB}). That filly lit up the December Mares Sale 12 months ago when selling for 2.5 million gns to First Bloodstock (a partnership comprising Tony Bloom and Ian McAleavy). Current two-year-old Kassaya (GB) (Kingman (GB)), topped the foal sale of 2022 when bought by Juddmonte for 1,000,000gns. Cont. p4

Chris Harper, who bought Suelita 11 years ago, said, “It’s extraordinary. She was the last mare I bought. I certainly didn’t say ‘this is going to be a superstar’ when I bought her. This is just my sort, in other words, she was very pretty, not very big but a nice strong body with short legs, which I like. And the pedigree went back to an old mare I shared with Gerald Leigh – that didn’t make all the difference but it was a small factor. I suppose I bought 10 mares that year and she was one of them. When you have a band of mares like ours, you’re retiring and replacing, and she happened to be one of those. What a lucky chap I am. Unbelievable. I never ever thought that something like this would happen to someone like me.”

Harper, whose son Ed now runs Whitsbury Manor Stud, added,

“I passed all the decision-making over to Ed around 12 years ago. He makes all the decisions but is kind enough to tell me what’s going on! What he’s done with it is brilliant. I worked it up from nothing and, in football terms, I never got out of the Championship, but he’s got it into the Premiership, which I never did. And that’s a real achievement.”

The sale of Chaldean's sister cemented Amo Racing's position at the head of the buyers' sheet for Friday. Along with the top lot and the Frankel colt out of Breeders' Cup winner Audarya (Fr) for 850,000gns, Amo Racing parted with the same sum for yet another Frankel filly, this time offered by Hazelwood Bloodstock. That filly hails from Listed winner Auria (GB) (Muhaarar {GB}).

Amo Racing’s participation was doubtless significant, but Joorabchian and partners were just one of seven buying entities to spend at least a million gns at the sale so far. Cont. p5

The figures for this session are in the starkest contrast to an opening day which must have been so demoralising for a number of breeders. Not so on Friday. In what is traditionally the sale’s high point, the average soared by 66% to 159,309gns and the median climbed 41% to 87,500gns. With a clearance rate of 90%, the 194 foals sold lifted the aggregate by 72% to 30,906,000gns.

Just Like A Prayer, Madonna Blesses Swinburns Again

On Tuesday morning not many consignors were showing their Friday foals. One of the few exceptions was the Swinburn family’s Genesis Green Stud.

“I’ll show you them all,” said Michael Swinburn to pinhooker Liam Norris. “The difference is these are my foals. I want people to see them.”

It is a safe bet that those who made the trip down to the Genesis Green boxes at Highflyer Paddock K were not disappointed with what they saw. Within a matter of minutes on Friday evening the top three – on paper at least – passed through the ring as consecutive lots to sell for a total of 2,330,000gns. The first and last of that trio were from the same family, and it is one which topped this sale in 2021 when the Dubawi (Ire) colt out of Madonna Dell’Orto (GB) (Montjeu {Ire}) sold for 1,800,000gns.

This time around it was Madonna Dell’Orto’s jaunty filly by Dubawi’s son Too Darn Hot (GB) who got the ball rolling when selling to Yulong for 480,000gns. Next came the Frankel colt out of the dual Group 1 winner Audarya (Fr) (Le Havre {Ire}), bred by Alison Swinburn, and sold to Amo Racing for 850,000gns.

Finally, a cracking first foal out of Madonna Dell’Orto’s daughter Angel’s Point (GB) (Dark Angel {Ire}) was the first to reach the seven-figure mark when bringing the hammer down in favour of MV Magnier at 1,000,000gns.

Michael Swinburn wears his heart on his sleeve, and there is extra emotion tied up with the family of Madonna Dell’Orto, who was bought by his late brother, the legendary jockey, Walter, who trained the mare to race six times in the colours of his parents Wally and Doreen.

“On the way in today I just called in to the church and said, ‘Would you ever help us out today?’” said Michael. Someone was clearly listening.

Though winless on the track, Madonna Dell’Orto has been the source of much success for the Swinburns in the ring and, among her five winners, is the Group 2 winner I Can Fly (GB) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}), who has in turn produced this season’s G1 Fillies’ Mile runner-up January (Ire) (Kingman {GB}) for Coolmore.

After striding across the lower sale paddock to compose his thoughts, a tearful Swinburn returned to congratulations and said, “Ever since the day Walter bought [Madonna Dell’Orto] she’s just been unbelievable.

“Andrew Balding trained the dam [of the Sea The Stars colt] and when she ran she was a bit disappointing to say the least on her first run, and I said to Andrew, ‘Are we in trouble with Angel’s Point?’ He said, ‘She’s talented but she’s just a minx.’

“I Can Fly has a Dubawi coming along, a Frankel coming along, and she went to Justify this year. Madonna is in foal to Sea The Stars, Angel’s Point is in foal to Study Of Man, and we still own Ceriola, the Fastnet Rock filly, so hopefully she can come up and do something for us. What can you say about a family like that?”

Swinburn added of the Frankel colt, "You wouldn't have known he was on the farm. He was never in his box down there [at Tattersalls]. Everyone thought he was going to be the big horse but I always had my eye on the Sea The Stars. I said to Pat Downes, 'How about going to the foal sale?' He was a belter, but they weren't very keen on it, but I thought 'strike while the iron's hot'. You never know what next year brings."

He continued, "But to go back to the Frankel horse, he was born straight, reared straight, never sick a day in his life. When they came to film for Tatts, they had the camera up in his face but he didn't give two hoots.

"He's a horse that I think will just get better and better because, if you saw him a month ago, he was a little bit of a shell of a horse. But he's done really well in prep, strengthened up, and he's only going to go in one direction, so I think that Kia has been really lucky there.

"The nice thing is that all the ones we've sold are off the farm and that's great for my team."

MV Magnier | Tattersalls

MV Magnier, who signed for two foals on the day, said, "We've been lucky with Sea The Stars with The Lion In Winter. Unfortunately, things didn't go right with him later on in the season. But Michael Swinburn has always been very lucky with this family going back to Landseer (GB). He was a very good horse for us and I Can Fly was a special filly and has a lot of potential. I Can Fly could end up being a very important broodmare. I am very happy for the Swinburns and this is a great result for them. They have been great supporters of ours. Listen, it's a lot of money to pay for a foal but Sea The Stars is a very good stallion and Dark Angel is a very good broodmare sire. The sale has been incredible. The one thing we can take out of this is that we put our stallion fees way too low!" Cont. p8

Owner-Breeders Zero In On West Blagdon Draft

West Blagdon Stud's draft is routinely one of the highlights of the December Foal Sale and this year's consignment was no exception.

Coolmore and Godolphin signed for the top pair – a filly by Frankel (GB) and a Camelot (GB) colt at 800,000gns and 650,000gns respectively. All eight foals offered were sold, for a total of 2,080,000gns.

"She is out of a Pivotal mare who has crossed well with Frankel," said MV Magnier after outbidding Simon Mockridge of Juddmonte for lot 897, the half-sister to G3 Prix de Lieurey winner Cloudy Dawn (Ire) (Kodiak {GB}) and listed winner Iromea (Ire) (Dansili {GB}), all offspring of the Pivotal (GB) mare In The Mist (GB). Now 18, she was bought by Wigan in this same sale back in 2006 from the Britton House Stud dispersal for 110,000gns and went on to win three times in France for Wigan and George Strawbridge.

"James and Anita Wigan, they have been incredible supporters of ours for a long time," added Magnier. "They are very good breeders who have raised a lot of good horses in the past."

The family was back in the spotlight only moments later when Cloudy Dawn's second foal, a filly from the first crop of Baaeed (GB), was bought by Yulong Investments, who have been signing this week under the name of their Suffolk-based farm Willingham, for 260,000gns. From seven foals sold on the day, Baaeed's average for the sale was 240,000gns, with buyers including Katsumi Yoshida and Yeomanstown Stud.

Bidding on Godolphin's behalf Anthony Stroud signed for lot 894, the Camelot first foal of the dual winner Queenlet (Ire) (Kingman {GB}). The colt's fourth dam is the influential Cassandra Go (Ire), whose descendants include the Group 1 winners Halfway To Heaven (Ire), Magical (Ire), Rhododendron (Ire) and Auguste Rodin (Ire). Cont. p9

More Success for Hunscombe Stud and Norris Bloodstock

Pearly Fallon | Tattersalls

The Frankel half-sister to Group 3 winner Ville De Grace (GB) (Le Havre {Ire}) produced yet another good result at the December Sale for the team of consignor Norris Bloodstock and breeder Stephen Smith’s Hunscombe Stud. Sold as lot 925, the filly out of the Arch mare Archangel Gabriel brought a final bid of 700,000gns from American owner Pearly Fallon of Hampstead Holdings, sitting with agent Amanda Skiffington.

“It was love at first sight when I saw her today,” said Fallon. “She was the first horse that I looked at today and I thought she was probably the best.

“We have approximately ten horses but she’ll have to be in a special spot because she’s pretty special, but I’m not sure where that will be. We have horses with Ed Bethell and Mr Haggas will be getting one shortly, as will Mr Fanshawe and Mrs Harrington. She’s a perfect fit. I love Frankel.”

Jenny Norris, who also sold Ville De Grace for Hunscombe Stud and partner Chris Humber two years ago for 2,000,000gns, said, “The mare has this amazing ability to produce beautiful stock and they all love their job. This filly has been a pleasure to deal with and I am delighted for Hunscombe Stud.”

Wallsgrove’s Inside Track on Blackbeard Pays Dividends

Whirly Dancer (GB) (Daneshill Dancer {Ire}) has been a star for breeder Joyce Wallsgrove, who bought the half-sister to multiple Group 1 winner Poet’s Word (Ire) (Poet’s Voice {GB}) as a five-year-old at the February Sale of 2012 for 9,500gns. A few years later she produced Beckford (GB) (Bated Breath {GB}), winner of the G2 Railway Stakes and placed several times at the highest level for Newtown Anner Stud, where he now stands.

Beckford’s weanling half-brother from the first crop of Blackbeard (Ire) was one of the early standouts of the Friday session, ultimately selling for 155,000gns to Paddy Fleming as Wallsgrove’s smile grew wider with every turn of the ring he made.

Consigned by Brook Stud, where Wallsgrove keeps both Whirly Dancer and her daughter Poet’s Dance (GB) (Poet’s Voice {GB}), the colt was catalogued as lot 793 and is also from the family of Group 3 winner Malabar (GB) (Raven’s Pass) and her multiple group-winning son Tiber Flow (Ire) (Caravaggio).

Wallsgrove has a unique perspective when it comes to stallion selection as she is the stables manager at Newmarket Racecourses, meaning that she has the opportunity to see many of the potential future stars of the breeding sheds at close quarters during their racing days.

“I said to Dwayne [Woods, Brook Stud] that I am going to bite the bullet and send her to Ireland,” explained Wallsgrove of her decision to send Whirly Dancer to the G1 Middle Park Stakes winner Blackbeard. “I work for Newmarket Racecourses and I had seen him there. I really liked him then and he stuck in my mind.”

She continued, “This chap is a lot like [Beckford], they have got the same temperament, they grow up very quickly and, once they understand what you want them to do, they take to it very quickly – I suppose they are quite precocious. I thought if I could get 100,000gns I would be happy, but he sold himself.”

Talking Points

- Japanese buyers may be better associated with spending big at the Sceptre Sessions but one interesting dynamic to have developed at Tattersalls in recent years is the spending from that region in the foal section and Katsumi Yoshida was one of the more interesting names to feature on the buyers’ sheet on Friday. It was Shingo Hashimoto who landed lot 853, a Baaeed colt out of winning Galileo (Ire) mare Tranquil Star (Ire), who got the job done on behalf of the leading Japanese owner and breeder for 280,000gns. “We liked his conformation – he is a very strong and good-looking colt,” Hashimoto said. “We will take him back to Japan and we are really excited because Baaeed was such a great racehorse.” The Baaeed colt was sold by Genesis Green Stud. Cont. p10

- Speaking of Japanese buyers, Paca Paca Farm's Harry Sweeney has been noticeably strong at Tattersalls this week, signing for 14 foals for 1,680,000 gns. His Friday spend was headed by a 220,000gns Wootton Bassett (GB) colt from Ringfort Stud. Sweeney also went to 215,000gns for a Havana Grey (GB) filly from Whitsbury Manor Stud.
- Mostly bidding online, Yulong's Yuesheng Zhang spent 3,038,000gns on 12 foals, headed by Castletown Stud's Lope De Vega (Ire) filly at 650,000gns. That spend, along with the massive flex from Amo, strong spend from owner-breeders Coolmore, Juddmonte and Godolphin, reminded that end users continue to dominate at the top end of the market even at the foal sales.
- This has been something of a breakout year for young bloodstock agent Henry Lascelles, who raised the temperature of the sale in the early part of the evening when going to 580,000gns to secure Awbeg Stud's Wootton Bassett (GB) filly from the family of Group 1 performer The Summit (Fr). Lascelles, who was standing alongside Lady Bamford's stud manager Chris Lock on the stairs opposite the rostrum, commented, "We loved her. She is a beautiful mover, has a big square hip, the yearling full-brother I believe is going to Ballydoyle and the Sergei Prokofiev two-year-old finished second in an October maiden and has been sold to the US, so there is a bit happening on the page." He added, "I hope she will turn into a lovely two-year-old. It was a bit more than we were planning on spending, but there are a lot of end users buying today. She will go to the farm from here and has been bought as a racing prospect."

Henry Lascelles & Ollie Sangster | Tattersalls

- Philip Stauffenberg played a leading role as a buyer on Friday – and even opened up the top lot at 1 million gns – but also enjoyed a memorable sale with a Sea The Stars colt that was knocked down to Juddmonte for 700,000gns. Offered by The Castlebridge Consignment and bred by Stauffenberg with his wife Marion, the Sea The Stars colt is a three-parts-brother to the Classic winner Fantastic Moon (Ger) (Sea The Moon {Ger}) out of broodmare Frangipani (Ger) (Jukebox Jury {Ire}). The latter will be offered at the Sceptre Sessions next week. Stauffenberg commented, "For Juddmonte to buy this foal, it's an honour for us. He's going to a very good home and we're very happy about that. Lovely colt – really straightforward. That's the first horse they have bought from us as breeders. It's fantastic. The mare is in foal and is carrying a full-sibling to Fantastic Moon."

ADAM WEST OPENS SATELLITE YARD IN FRANCE

Adam West | Racingfotos.com

Trainer Adam West has sent 12 horses to Maisons-Laffitte in France and opened a satellite yard there, according to published reports. The 35-year-old is the trainer of G1 Nunthorpe Stakes hero Live In The Dream (Ire) (Prince Of Lir {Ire}), who has remained at Epsom, but is now housed at Gasston Stables, instead of Loretta Lodge Stables.

“I immediately really liked Maisons-Laffitte,” West told Jour de Galop from the track on Friday morning. “This centre has a lot of assets. I chose to come to France because the working conditions and the way of life are appreciable. The breeder of Metropolitan (Fr) (Zarak {Fr}), Stuart McPhee was one of the people who convinced me to take the plunge.

“The economic side are taken into account of course, but I am well aware that I will probably not become filthy rich by becoming a trainer in France. The structure and orientation of the French sector are much better. Here, medium-sized trainers have a chance of making it, unlike in England, where they are in great difficulty...I am very happy to join the Maisons-Laffitte training team.”

West will saddle his first runners under both codes beginning in 2025, and he admits that a permanent move to France is not out of the question.

“It’s looking like we’ll permanently move to France, but I’d like to find my feet first,” he told Racing Post.

TARA LEE COGAN TO TAKE OVER JOHN HANLON’S YARD WHILE HE SERVES HIS BAN

John ‘Shark’ Hanlon, who will begin his six-month ban on Dec. 1, has appointed Tara Lee Cogan as his temporary replacement, he announced on Friday.

“Tara Cogan is going to take over training,” said Hanlon, who was originally supposed to serve a 10-month ban, but had that reduced on appeal. “She’s a friend not too far from me and she’s moving into my yard. She takes over on Monday.”

The Referrals Committee of the Irish Horseracing Regulatory Board (IHRB) ruled Hanlon had acted in a manner that “caused significant prejudice to the integrity, proper conduct and good reputation of the sport of racing” in the manner he removed a deceased horse from his yard earlier this year, which resulted in his ban.

Added Hanlon, who dispersed some of his horses at Goffs in October, “We haven’t a lot of horses to run, we only have seven, eight or 10 to run, so she’s taking over and I’m delighted because she’s been a friend for years and she knows the run of the yard because she used to come down and work her own horses with mine.

“She only has three or four horses, so they’re coming down to my yard over the weekend, and she’s keeping on my staff, which is very important. Rachel [O’Neill, Hanlon’s partner] will be there to give her a hand with whatever she wants to know as well.

“I’ll take a sideline as my sister is not well in America and I’m bringing my mother to America to see her. We’ll take a sideline for the time being and the sooner this is over the better.”

As a result of Cogan taking over, stable darling Hewick (Ire) (Virtual {GB}) is still possible for the G1 Ladbrokes King George VI Chase at Kempton on Boxing Day.

“The plan the whole time was to run at Christmas somewhere,” Hanlon added of Hewick. “He’s entered in the King George and he’ll probably be entered for Leopardstown. Whatever Tara and Rachel want to do it’ll be no problem. Tara is friendly with the man that owns Hewick as well, he’d know her.

“I’m taking a holiday for a couple of months and will see if I can replace some of the horses I lost.”

in the G1 Saudi Cup in Saudi Arabia this February. Since the Saudi Cup, he returned to Japan and won the Listed Sakitama Hai in the slop at Urawa cutting back to 1400 metres in June. His warmup for this was a defeat of 2024 G1 February Stakes hero Peptide Nile (Jpn) (King Kamehameha {Jpn}) in a title defence of the Listed Mile Championship Nambu Hai at Morioka on Oct. 14.

Trainer Hiroyasu Tanaka said, "We've given him his usual training, but have also run him over a slightly longer distance. He's still physically strong, and the jockey [Ryusei Sakai] is pleased with him, saying that he's running up to his usual level. The Champions Cup will be his last race, so I'm hoping for a good run."

Since his February Stakes triumph over Gaia Force (Jpn) (Kitasan Black {Jpn}), Peptide Nile ran third in the Listed Kashiwa Kinen in May prior to his second to Lemon Pop, while trainer Hidenori Take said, "He came back from the farm in good condition. He's been running well in training now he's back at the stable, with his usual pattern of work as the race gets closer. Hopefully he'll get into a good position behind the leading horses, and he'll find a good rhythm throughout the race."

Runner-up to Lemon Pop in last year's edition of the Champions Cup, Wilson Tesoro (Jpn) (Kitasan Black {Jpn}) enters on the back of a victory in the Listed JBC Classic over 2000 metres on Nov. 4. Second in the 2023 G1 Tokyo Daishoten last December, he was unplaced in the G1 February Stakes, but was not disgraced when fourth in the G1 Dubai World Cup at Meydan. He was second in June's Listed Teio Sho and in the G3 Korea Cup in September, the latter to Crown Pride (Jpn) (Reach The Crown {Jpn}).

Said trainer Hitoshi Kotegawa, "His experience overseas has made him a stronger horse this year, both physically and mentally, and his muscles make him look like a dirt horse now. There's no tiredness about him after his last race, and we've trained him for this next one."

KEHOE BEACH MAKES THE GRADE IN THE MRS. REVERE

Kehoe Beach | Coady Media

by Alan Carasso

Sent off at just over even money to stretch her current winning streak to three, Kehoe Beach (Omaha Beach) was allowed a very soft time of things on the front end in a race which appeared to have plenty of speed on paper and made every pole a winning one in Friday's GII Mrs. Revere Stakes.

Having won allowance races at Kentucky Downs--over seven furlongs in September--and going a mile at Keeneland last month by a combined 13 1/2 lengths in her two most recent trips to the post, employing front-running tactics, the $180,000 Keeneland November weanling turned $450,000 Keeneland September yearling stepped away cleanly from gate three and made the lead with a minimum of fuss for Frankie Dettori, who kept his mount in the two path for the run around the clubhouse turn through an opening quarter-mile in :24.35.

Allowed to bowl along under her own courage with only token pressure from Pounce (Lookin At Lucky) through an even :48.57 for the half-mile, Kehoe Beach was firmly in front at the midpoint of the turn, responded when set down for the drive and was never in serious danger, as Pounce won a photo for second from Poolside With Slim (Ire) (Churchill {Ire}).

Minoushka (GB) (Starspangledbanner {Aus}) was well back through the early stages while increasingly disadvantaged by the race shape and got home well to finish an upgradeable fourth.

BREAKDOWNS CONTINUE TO PLAGUE

WOODBINE by Bill Finley

With a horse having to be euthanized Thursday at Woodbine and another one on Friday, the Toronto-area track has now had six fatalities since the Nov. 9 card in which two horses died and the remainder of the day's program was cancelled, as was the next scheduled day of racing.

Woodbine's Tapeta surface has long been considered to be one of the safest tracks in North America, which makes the rash of breakdowns particularly unusual.

"We are closely monitoring the situation and remain in continuous communication with our regulator, veterinarians, the HBPA, and the Jockeys' Guild," said Bill Ford, executive vice-president of racing at Woodbine Entertainment. "Following the catastrophic injuries sustained [Thursday] and [Friday], we are conducting a thorough review to gather more information.

“She’s strong but has pace and is very sensible,” Dettori commented. “She uses her breathing right. She knows exactly how to race which makes it a push-button ride for me. When I pushed that button she showed a great turn of foot like she did last time. Wesley was full of confidence going into the race. He even made me stay here in the cold to ride her and I wasn’t going to say no.”

Kehoe Beach won her maiden with a fair bit of authority in the Keeneland slop Apr. 12 ahead of a well-beaten fourth to 'TDN Rising Star' Munnys Gold (Munnings) in Saratoga allowance company Aug. 12. The bay was a head second after making the running when trying turf and two turns for the first time at Ellis July 7, but earned Beyers of 95 and 94 in her two most recent appearances and kept the streak alive on Friday.

Pedigree Notes:

The statement continues: "Feedback regarding track conditions over the past two weeks, following the initial concerns, has been positive, indicating that the track is in good condition. However, we are actively discussing and evaluating additional immediate measures to enhance horse safety and welfare. This is a deeply challenging and unfortunate situation. Our heartfelt thoughts and condolences go out to everyone connected to the horses affected."

On Thursday night, Speight Rasees (Qurbaan) fell and suffered a catastrophic injury. Jockey Skye Chernetz was taken off the remainder of her mounts. Less than 24 hours later, Mad Chatter (Society's Chairman) broke down in Friday's first race at Woodbine. None of the jockeys involved in the spill was injured.

The problems began when Social Dancer (Society's Chairman) broke down in the second race Nov. 9. Six races later, Owen's Tour Guide (Tourist) suffered an injury in the GIII Bessarabian Stakes and had to be euthanized. Woodbine took immediate action, canceling the remainder of the Nov. 9 card and the entire card was scratched the following day.

Racing resumed and there was another death Nov. 16 when Flawless Ruler (Honor Code) broke down. According to Woodbine's Vice President, Communications & Coordination Jamie Dykstra, it was concluded by track vets that it was unlikely that the death of Flawless Ruler was related to the surface.

On Nov. 21, Woodbine put out a press release in which it declared that "Woodbine Entertainment is confident its All-Weather [Tapeta] track is in optimal condition for safe training and racing." The same press release listed the many steps Woodbine had taken to test the track and ensure that it was still safe.

Woodbine's all-weather surface | Michael Burns

"We've worked diligently to ensure the track is in excellent condition for the final weeks of the meet," Ford said at the time.

However, the problems continued, and the next breakdown occurred Nov. 24. In that day's third race Tunechi (Outwork) took an awkward step at the five-eighths pole and was eased before being euthanized.

DOMESTIC PRODUCT FOLLOWS SIRE TO ASHFORD by Katie Petrunyak

Ashford Stud's Practical Joke has enjoyed perhaps his strongest season yet with seven graded stakes winners so far this year. Only four stallions in North America can claim more, while both Quality Road and Not This Time also have seven graded stakes winners to their credit in 2024.

Practical Joke, a three-time Grade I winner in his own right, retired to Ashford in 2018 and has produced four Grade I winners from his first four crops. In 2025, the son of Into Mischief's stud fee will increase from $45,000 to $75,000.

Coolmore's Adrian Wallace said he believes Practical Joke's upward trajectory is just getting started.

“He has always covered great books of mares in terms of numbers and in terms of quality,” he said. “He's got a huge future ahead of him. I wouldn't be surprised if he's a horse that not only maintains this level of stud fee going forward, but if it doesn't grow to $100,000 or more in the coming years.”

Practical Joke's first North American Grade I win came from Chocolate Gelato, a member of his second crop, in the 2022 GI Frizette Stakes. The next year his son Practical Move claimed the GI Santa Anita Derby. This year, Ways and Means delivered in the GI Test Stakes and a few weeks later in Saratoga, Domestic Product emulated his sire when got his Grade I score the H. Allen Jerkens Memorial Stakes.

In 2025, this latest Grade I winner for Practical Joke will join his sire at Ashford Stud. Domestic Product will stand for a fee of $30,000 in his debut season.

Product,” recalled Wallace. “He always rated him very highly and then once we saw him a few times, we were absolutely blown away by his physique. He's 16'2, almost black, a wonderful-looking horse and a great mover.”

A homebred for Klaravich Stables, Domestic Product came onto Coolmore's radar when he broke his maiden by over four lengths in October of his juvenile season. Around that same time, the fellow Chad Brown-trained Sierra Leona (Gun Runner) was getting ready to make his debut for the Coolmore partnership, Peter Brant and Brook Smith.

“We were obviously in constant contact with Chad for Sierra Leone and the other horses that we have with Chad and he was always speaking about how highly he thought of Domestic

After battling to win the GIII Tampa Bay Derby, Domestic Product lost a shoe in the Kentucky Derby and was never in contention, but he bounced back when turned back to a mile for the GIII Dwyer Stakes, dominating by over seven lengths. From there he put in his career-best performance in the Allen Jerkens, earning a 106 Beyer Speed Figure as he prevailed over fellow Grade I winners Prince of Monaco (Speighstown) and Book'em Danno (Bucchero).

“He beat a well-credentialed field in a very good time,” said Wallace. “The best thing about him was his speed. I think he was tactical in the way he could do it. He could put himself in any position in the race and he was dangerous from any position on the racetrack.”

Domestic Product retired to Ashford after finishing third in his career finale in the GI Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile.

“He should be a very easy horse to breed to because, as Practical Joke does himself, he will suit the vast majority of American bloodlines,” said Wallace. “If you look at Practical Joke's graded stakes winners, he works with pretty much every single bloodline going in America. Domestic Product himself is out of a mare by Paynter, so that's the Awesome Again line.”

Among Practical Joke's other Grade I winners, Chocolate Gelato's broodmare sire is Candy Ride (Arg), Practical Move's dam is by Afleet Alex and Ways and Means is out of a Warrior's Reward mare.

"It's always very gratifying when you stand a stallion and then you're able to bring one of his own sons to stud," said Wallace. "It's rare that happens. Domestic Product is a horse that has something for everyone. He's got the look. He's got the speed. He's got the balance. He's got a great pedigree behind him and he's one who should be very popular here on the stallion roster."

Some of the breeders who have stopped in at Ashford Stud in the weeks since the Breeders' Cup to inspect Domestic Product may have also gotten a peek at one of Domestic Product's former stablemates. Sierra Leone has spent the past few weeks at Ashford enjoying some 'R & R' after his GI Breeders' Cup Classic victory. The 'TDN Rising Star' and dual Grade I winner is scheduled to return to the racetrack in 2025 for a 4-year-old campaign.

"We are so proud of Sierra Leone," said Wallace." He's taken the ownership group on such a wonderful ride throughout this last year and a half and really put it all together on arguably the biggest day in the calendar when he took on older horses and beat a stellar field in the Breeders' Cup Classic. We're delighted to have him here for the moment and then hopefully we'll be able to take him on a world tour next year."

WEST SARATOGA HEADS 'ROBUST' CATALOGUE FOR INGLIS DIGITAL USA DECEMBER SALE

West Saratoga (Exaggerator), a Grade III winner at two in 2023 and placed in a pair of graded stakes this season, is the marquee name among 49 horses catalogued for the Inglis Digital USA December Sale. Horses will sell during the online auction on Wednesday, Dec. 4 beginning at 2 p.m. ET, with subsequent listings closing in three-minute intervals.

Trained by Larry Demeritte, the gray colt won the GIII Iroquois Stakes in his penultimate juvenile appearance last year and was second to Book'em Danno (Bucchero) in this year's Pasco Stakes at Tampa Bay Downs ahead of a sound third in the GIII Lambholm South Tampa Bay Derby.

West Saratoga | Coady

Runner-up to Endlessly (Oscar Performance) in the GIII Jeff Ruby Steaks in a lone try over a synthetic surface, West Saratoga earned enough points to take part in the GI Kentucky Derby.

"I've always felt great about this horse--he has all the attributes of a top competitor," said Demeritte of West Saratoga, who holds an entry for the G1 Saudi Cup in February. "He's laid back but gives his all when asked, is straightforward, sound, and never misses a meal. He's beaten some of the best 3-year-olds in the country and I've always geared him toward a strong 4-year-old campaign.

"Even after tough races like the Kentucky Derby, he bounced back perfectly, which is why I believe he'll be one of the top 4-year-olds in the country," Demeritte continued. "Unfortunately, due to my health, I have to let him go, but I'm confident he'll bring success and joy to his next connections."

In a season highlighted by victories in the GI Kentucky Derby, GI Kentucky Oaks and GI Breeders' Cup Distaff, the training job Ken McPeck has done with the overachieving Rattle N Roll is equally deserving of plaudits. Making his second start off a 363-day absence and having shipped to the West Coast and back when failing to draw into the GI Breeders' Cup Classic on Nov. 2, Rattle N Roll returned to something approaching his best under the Friday night lights at Churchill, rallying wide into the stretch before outfinishing Most Wanted for his sixth career victory in graded competition in the GII Clark Stakes.

Rattle N Roll | Coady Media

Most Wanted, a perfect four-from-four in his career and exiting a victory in the GIII Oklahoma Derby, won the break and led the Clark field under the line with a circuit to travel, but he was displaced on top by 67-1 Grand Aspen (Dialed In), who railed through to take up the running into the clubhouse turn. Favored Hit Show (Candy Ride {Arg}) secured a good spot just in behind the pace, a spot or two ahead of Rattle N Roll, who raced handier than is his custom given the moderate early tempo.

Racing just to the outside of Hit Show entering the second turn, Brian Hernandez, Jr. went for Rattle N Roll three furlongs out, showing superior acceleration to the favorite and enabling him to work his way into a threatening position three wide at the quarter pole. Most Wanted took over from Grand Aspen in upper stretch, but his lead was short-lived, as Rattle N Roll was bearing down. The two raced in unison for most of the final furlong, but Rattle N Roll got the better of his younger rival in the run to the line. Hit Show crossed the line third, but was deemed to have interfered with both Uno Mas Bourbon and Crupi (Curlin) and was ultimately placed sixth. Cont. p11

“Winning this race is such a testament to this horse,” the winning rider commented. “He’s such a good horse. He was able to give us a perfect trip by naturally getting in a really good position early and finished the job late. He’s such a talented horse to do what he’s done over the years and just a special individual.”

Rattle N Roll entered the Clark as the horse for the course at Churchill, with a record of 3-1-3 from eight previous appearances, including the 2023 GIII Blame Stakes ahead of a near-miss second to Gary and Mary West's West Will Power (Bernardini) in the GI Stephen Foster Stakes. Sixth as the favorite in the GI Jockey Club Gold Cup at Saratoga last September, he went missing off a fourth in this track's GIII Lukas Classic Stakes and returned with a useful third to Hit Show in the same race on Sept. 28. He was consigned to the also-eligibles in the Classic and was unable to earn a run.

Pedigree Notes:

Under the name of his St. Simon Place, Tommy Wenthe purchased the winning Jazz Tune for $20,000 in foal to Mineshaft at the 2016 Keeneland November Sale and had the mare entered carrying the foal that would become Rattle N Roll at the 2018 November Sale. Wenthe decided to retain Jazz Tune when bidding stalled out at $55,000 and Rattle N Roll's victory in the 2021 GI Claiborne Breeders' Futurity ensured that the mare would be significantly more coveted at that year's November Sale. Carrying to Liam's Map, Jazz Tune was knocked down to Hunter Valley Farm for $585,000.

Jazz Tune is also the dam of a yearling colt by Quality Road, a weanling filly by Epicenter and is due to the latter for 2025.

If you're feeling a little deja vu about the result of Friday's GII Hollywood Turf Cup Stakes at Del Mar, there's a good reason. Hot on the heels of Mrs. Astor (Lookin At Lucky)'s win Sunday in the GIII Red Carpet Stakes over a route on Del Mar's turf course, trainer Jonathan Thomas gave another leg up to rider Vincent Cheminaud on another homebred for George Strawbridge, Jr.'s Augustin Stables, again over a route of ground on the grass. This time it was Truly Quality who brought the connections to the winner's circle and made it the second Del Mar graded winner of the week for the team.

On paper, Truly Quality was a recent-form standout in the 1 1/2-mile Hollywood Turf Cup. Sure, as a Grade I winner with eight triple-digit Beyer Speed Figures, Rockemperor (Ire) (Holy Roman Emperor {Ire}) had a ton a back class, but his last win--in the GII Bowling Green Stakes at Saratoga--was more than two years ago.

It had similarly been a long time between drinks for several others, including 2022 GII San Gabriel Stakes winner Dicey Mo Chara (GB) (Adaay {Ire}) and even May's GIII Dinner Party Stakes winner Balnikhov. But while two--Fearless Soldier (City of Light) and Goldeneye (Hard Spun), each at 30-1--were both coming off allowance wins, only one horse in the entire field was exiting a stakes victory and riding a win streak. That was East Coast invader Truly Quality.

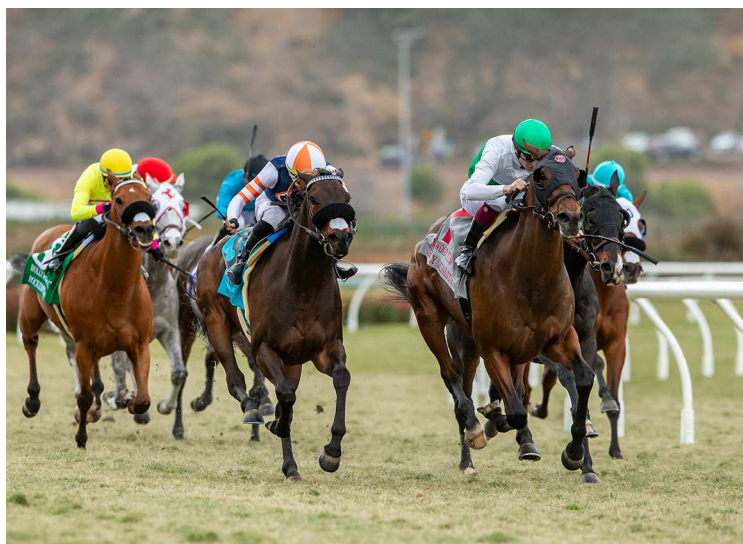

Showing a marked lack of speed, Truly Quality took the scenic route for the first mile, very content to amble along with only one horse beaten while running off the rail. As the pair of 30-1 shots set the :24.73 and :49.27 pace, Truly Quality took his time while several lengths off the lead. After the leaders passed the mile marker in 1:38.71, Cheminaud noticeably lowered his body in the saddle and began pumping in earnest. Truly Quality circled the field at the same time Balnikhov, the only horse behind him that first mile, found several more gears. Balnikhov looked every bit the winner and had the jump, but Truly Quality went with him and would not be denied, heading him late and bettering the three-time graded winner by a half-length at the wire. Cont. p13

"For whatever reason [Truly Quality is] falling off of the pace, but he comes running and I thought his stamina really came into play today," said winning conditioner Thomas. "Great ride given the circumstances with the wide post, but we were able to save ground. Had we been drawn a little closer maybe we could have been in a position or two further ahead, but it's hard to complain with the outcome."

After kicking off his 2024 campaign with a pair of one-mile optional allowances over the winter at Santa Anita, Truly Quality tried 12 furlongs for the first time at Keeneland in April and came away with a strong third. An open daylight win at 1 3/8 miles at the Belmont at Aqueduct meet followed and eventually Truly Quality tried--and conquered--stakes company, capturing the Colonial Cup Stakes in course record time at Colonial Downs in September and the GIII Singpiel Stakes at Woodbine in October. The 4-year-old entered the Hollywood Turf Cup riding a two-race black-type streak.

Truly Quality (green cap) | Benoit

Pedigree Notes:

Lane's End stalwart Quality Road is the sire of Truly Quality and another 41 graded winners, as well as 84 black-type winners. Himself the victor of four Grade I races, all on dirt, and the sire of three Eclipse champions on the main track, Quality Road has gotten his share of turf stars as well, including first-crop GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf winner Hootenanny, one of four Breeders' Cup winners to date for the Edward Evans-bred bay. Truly Quality's Hollywood Turf Cup win is Quality Road's first in the race as a sire; his Friar's Road was third in 2021 and his Avenue was third in 2022.

The late Smart Strike, who also stood at Lane's End, is among the continent's premier broodmare sires with the 197 stakes winners out of his daughters including a number of champions. When paired with Quality Road, the duo has been responsible for two graded winners in addition to Truly Quality: Heroic Move and Cowboy Culture.

Truly Quality is the second graded winner out of GSW Truly Together, whose Mouffy (Uncle Mo) won Woodbine's GIII Dance Smartly Stakes on Oct. 5, the same day Truly Quality won the Singpiel Stakes. Truly Together, a daughter of 2008 champion grass mare and GI Breeders' Cup Filly and Mare Turf winner Forever Together, has a yearling full-sister to Truly Quality and a weanling colt by Constitution. She was bred to Justify for next term.

The lesser-fancied and less-heralded of an uncoupled Godolphin-owned entry in Thursday's GIII Falls City Stakes at Churchill Downs, the beautifully bred Loved went through her gears in the final three-sixteenths of a mile to cause a mild upset. 'TDN Rising Star' Tarifa (Bernardini), the 7-4 favorite exiting a tough victory in the GII Mother Goose Stakes Oct. 26, boxed on for an alibi-free second while no match for the winner.

Settled in mid-division and off the flank of Tarifa early on as Enclosure (Arrogate) took a keen hold beneath Brian Hernandez, Jr., Loved received her cue from Tyler Gaffalione leaving the half-mile marker and rolled up three deep at the three-eighths as Musical Mischief tried to rally from between rivals. Going clearly best of the bunch as they hit the stretch, Loved quickly opened up on her rivals and was not for catching from there. Lexa spiced up the triple as the 25-1 longest price on the board.

“We were pretty confident with her coming into this race,” winning trainer Brendan Walsh said. “She’s been training at Turfway and within the last three weeks really started to put things together. She was training and moving great in the mornings. We’re glad she was able to do that when it mattered today and become a graded stakes winner.”

Loved | Coady Media

Pedigree Notes:

A half-sister to Maxfield, who won the GI Clark Stakes on this weekend three years ago, Loved is out of a winning daughter of the wonderful three-time graded winner Caress, a $3.1-million purchase by John Ferguson on behalf of Godolphin at Keeneland November in 2000 who produced future GISW and successful sire Sky Mesa (Pulpit) earlier that year and would also become the dam of MGSW/GISP Golden Velvet (Seeking the Gold), whose six winners include GSWs Lucullan (Hard Spun) and Innovative Idea (Bernardini), MSP Embossed (Medaglia d'Oro) and SP Soft Touch (Uncle Mo). Off at better than 10-1 off a 3-1 morning line, Duvet Day was 'covered' up in behind horses for the opening seven furlongs of Thursday's GIII Cardinal Stakes at Churchill, but came with a stinging rally in the final furlong and a half to leave her rivals seeing red.

An overlaid price despite the presence in the saddle of Eclipse Award candidate Flavien Prat, Duvet Day was beaten for speed from her low draw and was content to race with just a couple of rivals behind as Dreaming of Mo (Uncle Mo) set the pace from favored She's Lookin Lucky. Continuing to scrape paint down the backstretch and into the turn, Duvet Day was set down off the final corner, switched to the wide outside to deliver her challenge and swept past She's Lookin Lucky--away as the 9-5 chalk from 10-1--for a first score at the graded-stakes level.

“My plan was to be a little bit closer to the pace and not so far out of it,” Prat admitted. “But, after we broke, we ended up being towards the back of the field. I got her to relax and when I tipped her outside she really found her best run.”

Duvet Day | Coady Media

Going into the weekend, where Prat rides all seven races of the Hollywood Turf Festival, the Frenchman sits on 78 stakes wins for the season, one behind the record of 79 set by Irad Ortiz, Jr. in 2022. Prat has ridden 53 graded winners in 2024, two shy of the mark set in 2003 by Jerry Bailey and currently tied for second with Mike Smith.

In taking the Cardinal, Duvet Day was snapping a 10-race losing streak dating back to a victory in the 12-furlong Astra Stakes at Santa Anita in January 2023. Third in defense of that title earlier this season, the Keeneland April HORA graduate had since placed in an additional two stakes at listed level and was cutting back significantly in trip off a seventh in the GIII Dowager Stakes over a mile and four furlongs at Keeneland Oct. 20.

Pedigree Notes:

Duvet Day is the 34th winner at the graded/group level for her sire and is bred on the same cross over Sadler's Wells-line mares as Group 1 winners California Spangle (Ire), The Wow Signal (Ire) and Puchkine (Fr). Overall, seven of the 47 black-type winners by Starspangledbanner are out of mares by High Chaparral (Ire), Galileo (Ire) and Montjeu (Ire).

Hailing from the deeper female family of GI Gamely Stakes heroine Tuscan Evening (Ire) (Oasis Dream {GB}), Duvet Day has a 2-year-old half-sister J'Adore L'Or (Ire) (Saxon Warrior {Jpn}) who was purchased by Tina Rau on behalf of Gestut Faerhof for 38,000gns at the 2022 Tattersalls December Foal Sale, a yearling half-brother by Poet's Word (Ire) and a weanling half-brother by Blue Bresil (Fr). --@EquineITDN

SHORTLEAF HOMEBRED QUIETSIDe TO TASTE GOLDEN ROD POUR

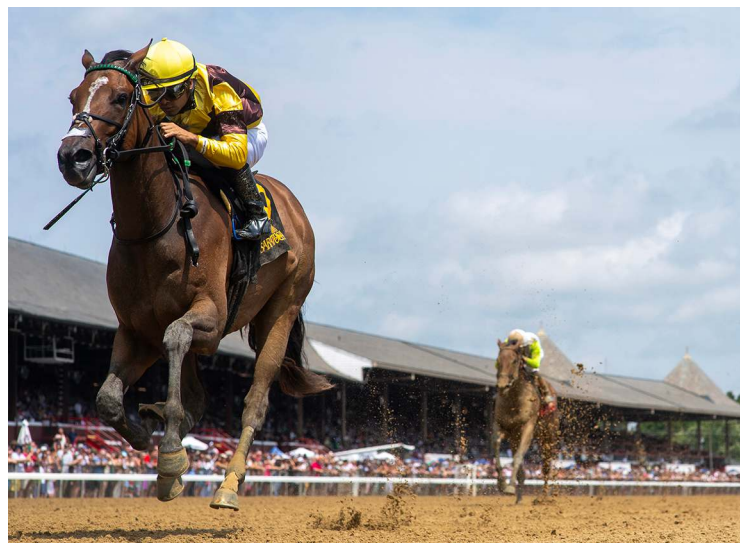

by J.N. Campbell

Horse racing and bourbon intersect in so many ways, but they really form a nexus around the themes of time and patience. Without either in the breeding shed or in the rickhouse, your chances at success will be severely hampered. There is nothing quite so powerful as a statement of age in the racing form or an age statement out of the barrel.

When it comes to Thoroughbreds and specifically placing a strong emphasis on homebreds, John Ed Anthony's Shortleaf Stable personifies what many in the industry think a great recipe should entail--breeding to race with an eye on aftercare.

To hear the Arkansas-based octogenarian tell it, there is nothing easy about flying your banner from start to finish, but ever since he lumbered through the days of Loblolly--before transitioning to Shortleaf--Anthony has understood why the homebred approach is so important.

“For us [at Shortleaf] we've seen a lot of good horses come and go,” said Anthony. “This broodmare system works, we are committed to it, we've got the aftercare farm outside of Hot Springs and we've been really fortunate to have great partners like Arthur Hancock at Stone Farm.”

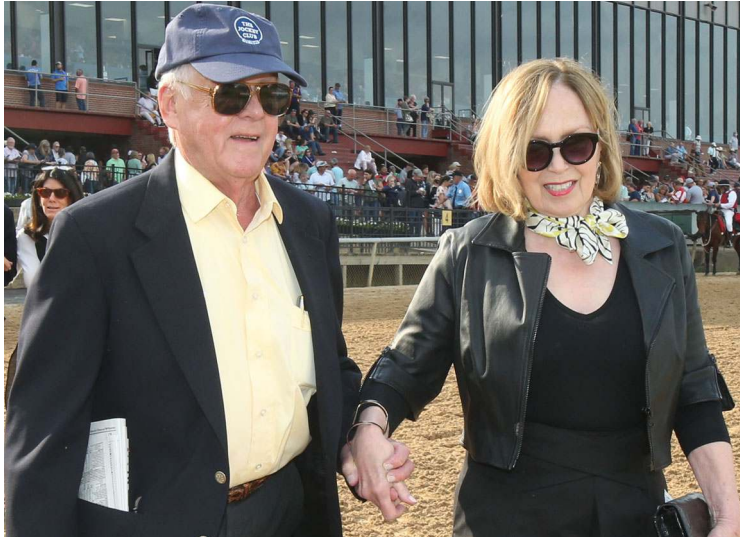

Quietside breaks her maiden at the Spa | Sarah Andrew

The all-time winningest owner in Oaklawn Park's history is like a bourbon master distiller. He stays focused, sticks to his mash bill that is tried and true, but is willing to experiment when its required. He says patience.

“Let's put it this way, over the course of any given four years when it comes to homebreds you always have to kiss a lot of frogs,” he said. “If you are lucky enough to have a 2-year-old who can eventually compete in Classic races, flash speed, showcase some talent, then you are looking at something that's worth bottling.” Cont. p16

Speaking of aging, Shortleaf has one its latest expressions ready for a flight on Saturday when 2-year-old filly Quietside (Malibu Moon) returns in the GII Golden Rod Stakes at Churchill Downs. The race is also tabbed as a GI Kentucky Oaks prep race with 10-5-3-2-1 going to the top five finishers.

The homebred heading to the post is out of Benner Island (Speightstown), who carried the colors for Anthony to victory in the GII Eight Belles Stakes under the Twin Spires in 2017. A half-sister to current Shortleaf Arkansas sire High North (Midnight Lute) and a full-sister to MGSW Victim of Love, Benner Island's foals have not had the easiest time making the races.

"She's been what we call a spotty producer," Anthony said of the mare, who was named by his wife Isabel for an island off the coast of Maine. "Her first foal by Bernardini never raced and then a colt by Constitution injured himself in one of those freak accidents and passed away. But we are optimistic [for Quietside] despite the fact that we know the Golden Rod is going to be a tough spot."

With Isabel in charge of naming the fillies for Shortleaf, Quietside's name originates from a part of Mt. Desert Island where the Anthony's family summers in Maine. The filly went through Stone Farm and this past June was sent to trainer John Ortiz, who regularly sends out Shortleaf stock.

In her unveiling at Saratoga Aug. 4, the juvenile tasted sweet success when she broke her maiden by 6 1/4 lengths. The effort earned her 'TDN Rising Star' honors and her next start pitted her against Godolphin homebred Immersive (Nyquist) over a muddy track in the GI Spinaway Stakes upstate Aug. 31. The dark bay was bested by 2 1/4 lengths.

The pair went at it again--this time trying two turns for the first time--in the GI Darley Alcibiades Stakes Oct. 4. Immersive scooped up that win too, while Quietside finished third.

Instead of sending the juvenile to Del Mar to face her rival for a third time, Ortiz opted to give her a break and point to the Golden Rod.

"It had been a hard campaign, including that incredible win in her debut, we just thought it was better to give her a break after the Keeneland race, which was her first time stretching out," said Ortiz.

Quietside is going to be up against a pair of strong homebreds from the shedrow of Brad Cox--Stonestreet's Eclatant (Into Mischief) and Godolphin morning-line favorite Good Cheer (Medaglia d'Oro). Neither have lost a race at this point.

Seemingly always of good cheer himself, the trainer said he liked how Quietside has responded over the past month when she started to drill once again.

"This is one strong cookie," he said. "Her body has really developed the way we want to see and she has been training lights out. And I think the checklist is all set for this intelligent filly."

According to Ortiz, Tyler Gaffalione is Quietside's new jockey and the top rider worked his new mount recently at Churchill in preparation for the Golden Rod.

As for Shortleaf's owner, he is equally optimistic about his filly's chances in what is shaping up to be a stiff challenge.

"We've been patient with her, we are always wanting to face the best the sport has to offer and look forward to these kinds of opportunities," he said. "Saturday's race will be a great test for her."

Distilling down John Ed Anthony's approach to his homebred program, he is nothing if not patient and that only adds to the potential for a really great pour.

GISWS CARSON'S RUN, GINA ROMANTICA HIGHLIGHT DEL MAR'S GRADE I WEEKEND

Carson's Run winning the GI Saratoga Derby | Sarah Andrew

The sole Grade I winner in Saturday's GI Hollywood Derby lineup, Carson's Run (Cupid) will try to shift his East Coast form to California for Del Mar's nine-furlong turf test.

A first-out winner at Saratoga at two, the chestnut took the one-mile GI Summer Stakes at Woodbine later in September. Demoted to fifth in his sophomore bow in the Woodhaven Stakes at Aqueduct in April, the Christophe Clement trainee rebounded to win his next two—a confident score in Monmouth's Tale of the Cat Stakes before closing to a 3/4-length score in the GI Saratoga Derby Invitational Aug 11. Runner-up in the Aug. 31 GIII Nashville Derby at Kentucky Downs, he followed up with another timely victory in the GIII Jockey Club Derby Invitational at the Big A Oct. 5.

A four-time winner on the colt, Dylan Davis gets the call.

Formidable Man (City of Light) rides a two-race win streak coming into this for trainer Michael McCarthy. Winner of the restricted Oceanside Stakes over a mile at Del Mar in July, the bay eked out a victory over the re-opposing Stay Hot (Summer Front) and Atitlan (The Factor) in the nine-panel GII Del Mar Derby Sept. 1. The latter came right back to hand Stay Hot a 1 1/2-length defeat in the Oct. 26 GII Twilight Derby.

Del Mar's Saturday undercard also features the 1 1/16-mile GII Seabiscuit Handicap. Cabo Spirit (Pioneer of the Nile), winner of the 10-furlong GII John Henry Turf Cup Sept. 28, showed some early foot in the Nov. 4 GI Breeders' Cup Turf over 12 furlongs, but folded to finish 12th. Trainer Richard Mandella offers a pair in last out Lure Stakes winner Sumpter (War Front) and Seal Team (GB) (War Front), winner of last fall's GIII Twilight Derby, who returned with a fifth behind his stablemate in the Lure in his sole start in 2024.

Juvenile graded action is also featured on the card with the one-mile GIII Jimmy Durante. Casalu (Caracaro) gets blinkers off for trainer Bob Baffert following a trailing fourth in the six panel Anoakia Stakes over the Santa Anita dirt Oct. 25. Prior to that, the $775,000 OBS April graduate was runner-up behind the talented Thought Process (Collected) in the grassy GIII Surfer Girl Stakes Oct. 6.

Supa Speed (Justify) hopes for a better trip after a challenging trip which resulted in a 12th-place finish in the Thoroughbred Aftercare Alliance Stakes at Del Mar Nov. 1. A debut winner going five panels at Del Mar in August, the John Sadler trainee finished a productive second in the one-mile Juvenile Fillies Turf Stakes on Sept. 7. Flavien Prat partners with the filly for the first time.

Churchill Highlights Juvenile Stakes over Holiday Weekend

With the juvenile titles already decided with the close of the Breeders' Cup earlier in the month, Churchill Downs offers a pair of juvenile tests that have thrown good horses that have gone on to be Grade I winning 3-year-olds including Silverbulletday (1998), Rachel Alexandra (2008) and Carina Mia (2015), all winners of the GII Golden Rod Stakes.

Offering the flashiest record to this point is undefeated Good Cheer (Medaglia d'Oro), trained by Brad Cox. Out of the Grade I-winning mare Wedding Toast (Street Sense), the Godolphin hombred romped by 8 1/4 lengths going a mile in her career bow at Indiana Aug. 5 before inhaling her competition by 17 lengths in a sloppy 1 1/16-mile allowance at Churchill Sept. 28. In her latest start, she took Churchill's Rags to Riches by 4 3/4 lengths Oct. 27.

Cox also offers up another undefeated juvenile in Eclatant (Into Mischief), who took her debut in Louisville in June before making it two straight in a six-furlong optional claiming test at Keeneland in October. A full to Grade II winner Mutasaabeg, the Stonestreet homebred will be ridden by Florent Geroux.

Quietside (Malibu Moon) finally gets a reprieve by stepping away from juvenile champion filly elect and GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies heroine Immersive (Nyquist), who defeated her in both of her last starts. Dubbed a TDN Rising Star following a Ooh, 6 1/4-length score at the Spa Aug. 4, the dark bay had to play the bridesmaid to the MGISW in a muddy renewal of the GI Spinaway Aug. 31. Stretching beyond a mile for the first time for Keeneland's GI Alcibiades Stakes on Oct. 4, the Shortleaf hombred was third.

Later on Churchill's card, Jonathan's Way (Vekoma) attempts to regain the winning thread in the GII Kentucky Jockey Club after finishing a flat seventh to Citizen Bull (Into Mischief) in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile three weeks ago.

Earning TDN Rising Star status in his debut going six furlongs at Saratoga Aug. 17, the Ohio-bred launched his Road to Kentucky Derby 151 campaign with a victory in the one-mile GIII Iroquois Stakes going 1 1/16 miles at Churchill Sept. 14.

“We were obviously pretty disappointed with how he ran in the Breeders’ Cup after what he showed us in his first two starts,” trainer Phil Bauer said. “This race will give us a good idea of how to plan his starts over the winter.”

“We got him back to Churchill after the Breeders’ Cup and he came out of the race in great shape. When we returned him to the work tab, he posted a sharp five-furlong work in :58-and-change. If he breaks like he did in the Iroquois, I’d expect him to be close to the early pace.”

The 5-2 morning line favorite will be ridden by his returning pilot Joel Rosario.

More Grade I Action at Del Mar Sunday

Grade I turf action returns to Del Mar Sunday with the GI Matriarch Stakes. Gina Romantica (Into Mischief), who was forced to miss her engagement in the GI Breeders' Cup Mile at Del Mar three weeks ago, looks to pick up where she left off when winning her latest start in the GI First Lady Stakes at Keeneland Oct. 5. Brown is also represented by GSWs Tax Implications (GB) (Mehmas {Ire}) and Prerequisite (Upstart), in addition Child of the Moon (Fr) (The Grey Gatsby {Ire}), winner of her last two including the Athenia Stakes Oct. 19.

Among those looking to square off with the Chad Brown runner are last year's GI Belmont Oaks Invitational Aspen Grove (Ire) (Justify), Ag Bullet (Twirling Candy), winner in the GII Ladies Turf Sprint at Kentucky Downs before finishing a neck back in third in the GI Breeders' Turf Sprint.

Earlier in the afternoon, juveniles face off on the turf in the GIII Cecil B. DeMille, featuring Speak easy scorer Pali Kitten (Vino Rosso) and graded placed Scipio (Caravaggio) and Clock Tower (Not This Time). The one-mile test drew nine runners.

HOW I GOT HOOKED ON RACING: BRIAN SPEARMAN

How did we get hooked on this sport? We all have stories about how our love affair developed and blossomed. The TDN will be reaching out to numerous notable people in the industry to get their stories to find out how they got hooked and stayed hooked on the sport.

Brian Spearman, Chairman, Eclipse Thoroughbred Partners

Growing up in Saratoga, it's pretty inevitable that you're going to fall in love with horse racing if you love horses and you love the whole atmosphere.

As a young adult, I went to the track quite a bit. I wound up working at the track a couple of summers as a Pinkerton. And my love for the sport and the animals just grew. Fast forward, I went to work for Pepsi for 33 years and right around maybe 14 years ago I decided I wanted to try to make this lifelong dream of horse ownership happen.

Brian Spearman | Sarah Andrew

I didn't know who to contact and I didn't know where to begin but a friend of mine said you ought to give this gentleman Cot Campbell a call. I met Cot and was a Dogwood partner for a number of years and he was fantastic. He taught me a ton and he introduced me to Aron Wellman of Eclipse Thoroughbreds, and Aron and I have been partners now for a decade.

My love of the sport just keeps growing. Keeneland is fantastic, Del Mar is fantastic. Santa Anita is a wonderful place. But, of course, Saratoga has always been special in my heart. When you're a young man and you are introduced to it up there, it's pretty hard not to have it in your blood.

Saratoga is a place where you can introduce people to racing in a venue that allows you to be up close and personal and has a family atmosphere to it. That was the key. Back then, the paddock wasn't even fenced in. You could get pretty close to the horses. The horses are just so majestic and I think the fact that the horse is really what's being displayed at Saratoga and not so much the gambling and everything else, I think that's what drew me to it. Just watching these magnificent animals. It's pretty hard not to fall in love with it.

My dad worked as a Pinkerton, too. He actually guarded Secretariat when he was in Saratoga. As a young man he took me over there to see him. There was another horse, one some people might not remember named Jaklin Klugman. Jack Klugman owned him and my dad took me to see him, too. He worked nights so he could sneak me onto the backstretch to see these famous horses.

As a young man getting to watch Affirmed and Alydar was pretty exciting, pretty amazing. In the last 10 years being associated with some of Eclipse's standard bearers, like Tapwrit, who won the Belmont, Feathered and Nest. Those things were all very special to me.

JOCKEY JULIEN LEPAROUX NOTCHES 3,000TH WIN

Coady Media

Julien Leparoux, a two-time Eclipse Award winning rider, collected his 3,000th career win aboard Pike Place (Street Boss) in the third race at Churchill Downs on Thursday, the track said in a press release that same day.

Leparoux, 41, launched his career in 2005. Raised in Chantilly, France, Leparoux's passion for horses led him to Southern California in 2003, where he began as an exercise rider for trainer Patrick Biancone. He transitioned to race riding and earned the Eclipse Award for Outstanding Apprentice Jockey in 2006. Three years later he became one of only four riders to also receive the Eclipse as Outstanding Jockey.

"I'm very thankful that my family could be here with me today for this," Leparoux said. "It took awhile to get it done but I'm very happy I was able to do it today. Churchill Downs and Kentucky have been such a big part of my career and it was great to do it at home."

Leparoux's career includes seven Breeders' Cup victories, highlighted by triumphs aboard such notable champions as Tepin, Classic Empire and Forever Together. His international acclaim soared in 2016 when he guided Tepin to victory in the G1 Queen Anne Stakes at Royal Ascot.

In addition to his Breeders' Cup accolades, Leparoux has achieved 271 graded stakes victories while amassing earnings $199 million.

DEEP MANHATTAN A THANKSGIVING

'RISING STAR' FOR JUSTIFY by Stefanie Grimm

Deep Manhattan | Hodges Photography

The outside post at Fair Grounds proved no issue for first-time starter Deep Manhattan (Justify) who put in a powerful stretch drive to become a Thanksgiving 'TDN Rising Star' for super-sire Justify.

Away smartly from post 12, the 3-1 second choice had plenty of early pace past the wire the first time but was outrun by a handful of rivals along the fence into the first turn and opted to take back to rate off longshot frontrunner Sand Cast (The Factor). Shifting down to be three, then two wide into the backstretch, Deep Manhattan finally took up a solo fifth through the opening fractions of :23.96 and :49.45. As the top four began to bunch up around the far turn, Jose Ortiz swung his mount off the rail to put in a rally from the center of the course. Up to tackle the leaders at the furlong marker, Deep Manhattan put them quickly away and came home in style to defeat Tom's Magic (Justify) by five lengths and top a Justify-sired exacta with Shadwell homebred El Muheet (War Front) a further three lengths back in third.

The 11th 'TDN Rising Star' for Coolmore's international top sire Justify, Deep Manhattan was bred by Eurowest Bloodstock Services with John Gunther, notably the breeder of Justify himself, joining in for a piece of this runner. First dam Take the Ribbon, who took the GIII Churchill Distaff Turf Mile Stakes in her own racing career, is already responsible for a trio of talented runners around the globe including fellow 'TDN Rising Star' Take These Chains (Ire) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}), SP, $201,900, Deep Satin (American Pharoah), SW, $202,700 and Bookrunner (Tiznow), G1SP-Ity, GSP-Fr, $149,856.

Additionally, daughter Pretty Paper (Ire) (Medgalia d'Oro), though unraced herself, produced GSW Love and Thunder (Ire) (Siyouni {FR}). Take the Ribbon is also a half-sister to Glinda the Good (Hard Spun) who would foal champion 2-year-old colt and leading young sire Good Magic (Curlin). Deep Manhattan was the last foal for Take the Ribbon.

Carrying a co-lightweight 128 pounds in Friday's Fall Highweight Stakes at Aqueduct, Giant Mischief settled in third behind :22.24 and :45.29 fractions. He reeled in frontrunner Super Chow (Lord Nelson) and his shadow, Runninsonofagun, from the middle of the track, kicking for home to edge clear as Runninsonofagun chased and held for second.

"[Trainer Brad Cox] said there were two horses with some speed and that he should be laying third--it ended up just like that," said Cox's assistant Dustin Dugas. "The break was really good--for really the whole field, actually--but I was happy with how he broke, and he kicked on when asked. He's been training really good in Kentucky and the guys were really high on him down there. He deserved this win."

Lightly raced over his three seasons of competition, Giant Mischief placed in the Remington Springboard Mile Stakes at two and the GI Malibu Stakes at three. Sent to the sidelines after the Malibu last December, he returned with a nice optional allowance win in front of the home crowd at Keeneland last month, setting the pace to secure a career-best 97 Beyer Speed Figure.

Having last been seen taking on Grade I company, Icona Mama relished the class relief here, and ran away to claim her first black type win in the state-bred Shamrock Rose Stakes at Penn National Wednesday night.

Having broken her maiden at Presque Isle Downs July 22, she ran second at Saratoga to SW Kimchi Cat (Twirling Candy) in the Bolton Landing Stakes in her second start Aug. 18 before coming third in the GIII Pocahontas Stakes Sept. 14 beneath the Twin Spires. She ran fifth Oct. 5 in the GI Frizette Stakes last out.

Hammered to 1-5 favoritism, she pushed the pace along from between rivals in second as Query (Great Notion) set the tempo through :22.17 and :45.43 splits. Under a confident ride, she sailed by that pacesetter entering the lane and it was a question of 'how far?' from there. It was 9 1/2 lengths back to laterally rallying Dadoo in second and Quercus claimed third. The victress became her sire (by Into Mischief)'s ninth stakes winner.

The most accomplished for her dam, a 14-time winner in her own right, Icona Mama is one of three to hit the ground for the mare and the second winner. Civetta (inside) | Ryan Thompson

Civetta overhauled the leaders late to claim the Wait A While Stakes by a neck Thursday at Gulfstream Park.

A neck winner at first asking at Ellis Park Aug. 10, the Godolphin homebred took a swing at the Untapable Stakes at Kentucky Downs Sept. 8, finishing fourth beaten only two lengths for it all. Making her first appearance at the graded level Oct. 6 in the GIII Matron Stakes, she missed victory by a neck to Abientot (Not This Time), who would go on to contest the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf in early November.

Made the 4-5 favorite here, Civetta stalked from just off the pace through :23.90 and :47.81 splits. Needing racing room as the field closed ranks passing the quarter marker, she muscled her way between rivals and was three off the fence when they swung for home. Getting first jump on Winning Streep, who was looming as the clear and present danger late, she gamely kept that one at bay by a neck on the wire. Ramsey Pond rambled home late to claim third.

A half-sister to multiple Grade I winner Santin (Distorted Humor), Civetta is the first to claim black type for their dam since that frequent-flying sibling. She has a winning 3-year-old half-sister named Novara (Speightstown). Sentiero Italia's most recent offspring is a 2024 colt by Dubawi (Ire). She went to Tapit for 2025. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

Copper Tax won the Federico Tesio Stakes at Laurel back in April, then was third in the Gill Ohio Derby at Thistledown June 22. After a break, the colt hit the board in the Discovery Stakes during the Belmont At The Big A meet Nov. 3.

Well-supported at 40 cents on the dollar here, the 3-year-old hugged the fence as he raced in the third flight heading into the first turn. Waiting for his cue up the backstretch and continuing to be patient around the far turn, Copper Tax was given the signal to move to the four path by the top of the lane. The Fasig-Tipton grad skimmed the mud to grab the lead, briefly felt a challenge from Elephants Ear and got his picture taken once again.

"He's [Copper Tax] honestly done great," said assistant trainer Tori Capuano. "He's done everything we've wanted him to do. He got out of the gate good, which is what we wanted. I was a little bit worried on the backside that he didn't have any place to go, but I knew once he got clear he was going to do his slowly but surely run."

The winner's dam is responsible for a yearling colt by Global Campaign who was sent to Saudi Arabia this year, and she was bred to both Tapiture and Copper Bullet for next term.

Shipping to Woodbine and trying the grass for the first time, Mi Bago won by a neck the Algonquin Stakes Oct. 5.

Mi Bago | Lauren King

The well-traveled juvenile then headed to Del Mar during Breeders' Cup week and finished fifth over the turf in the Thoroughbred Aftercare Alliance Stakes Nov. 1. The 9-5 choice here broke like a shot out of the blocks and he took the initiative into the first turn. Loose on the engine up the backstretch, the 2-year-old made every pole a winning one and downright stole the show.

"He's [Mi Bago] got the talent," said Nick Tomlinson, assist to Mark Casse. "Especially for a 2-year-old to go three-quarters in 1:09, that's a lot to ask of them. The performance today was extremely impressive. We'll definitely keep him on the grass. There's a lot of good 3-year-old stakes coming up. We'll just have to see how it all plays out and go from there."

The winner's is his unraced dam's last registered foal of record. A half-sister to SW Held Accountable (Exchange Rate), Wabanaki visited Highly Motivated for next season.

Tried on the turf last out in the Sensible Lady Turf Dash Sept. 14, she never factored and got back on the main track here. The 2-1 second choice in a tightly-wagered field of five wanted the lead but had to contend with a pesky Simply Stated (Warrior's Reward) to her inside. He would only managed seventh in the Gill Gotham Stakes in March and went on the shelf for a freshening after running fourth against local optional claiming company last out Apr. 12. Still able to grab the lead despite stutter-stepping at the break, she led just in front of Ultimate Authority (Practical Joke) who chased her throughout. But still comfortable up front through fractions of :22.94 and :46.57, Accuracy was able to assert her authority into the lane again and came home under an easy hand ride to win by a comfortably 7 1/4 lengths. From Arrogate's last crop and out of a GSW/MGISP first dam, Accuracy's only younger sibling is a 2-year-old half-brother by Tom's d'Etat. Sales History: $275,000 Ylg '22 KEESEP. OMAHA OMAHA (c, 2, Audible--England Swings, by Kitten's Joy) parlayed his maiden-breaking score last out Oct. 10 at Delaware Park into a stylish victory here, roaring from last to first to win in a hand ride by seven lengths over Mission Artemis (Uncle Lino). A half-brother to Canadian MSP Moon Swings (Malibu Moon), the victor is the most recent winner to the races and the last registered offspring for the dam, who did not produce a foal after going back to Omaha Beach in 2023. She has no breeding on record since then. Lifetime Record: 4-2-0-1, $67,300. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

CARD TRICK (c, 3, Liam's Map--Game Factor, by The Factor) made the barn switch from Edward Allard where he ran second against optional claimers over the grass at Delaware Oct. 12 and finished in the same spot--this time against allowance types--on the turf at Laurel Nov. 8. Backed as the 2-1 choice here, Card Trick relaxed along the rail in the third position as the field passed the grandstand for the first time. Entering the backstretch, the colt tipped to the two path and closely shadowed longshot Why Not Me (Commissioner). The 3-year-old was ready to pounce on the pacesetter around the far turn and by the top of the lane he found himself on the lead.

Why Not Me re-rallied, but it was too late as the dark bay cleared the condition by a neck. The winner's dam is responsible for unraced 2-year-old filly Got Game (Street Sense) and a yearling filly by Twirling Candy. Game Factor foaled a filly by Nyquist Mar. 8 and was entered in Practical Joke's book for next season. Under Card Trick's third dam we find Canadian champion 2-year-old filly Spring in the Air (Spring At Last). Sales History: $180,000 Ylg '22 KEESEP; $42,000 3yo '24 FTDAPR; $60,000 3yo '24 FTDAUG. IN ORDER OF PURSE:

12th-Churchill Downs, $94,092, Msw, 11-28, 2yo, f, 6f, 1:11.57, my, 2 lengths.

ITWILLBEFUN (f, 2, Constitution--Take Charge, by Hard Spun) was unlucky in all three of her attempts to break her maiden against auction restricted company--twice at Churchill Sept. 26/Nov. 13 and at Keeneland Oct. 10. Drawing in off the also-eligible list facing similar and as a 4-1 shot here, the filly broke from the extreme outside and settled midfield up the backstretch. Getting into the mix around the far turn, the bay fanned three wide and took command at the quarter pole. The juvenile was a bit green at the eighth pole, but she sealed the deal by two lengths over Lil Breezy (Tapiture). Cont.

A full-sister to current sire Reload, the winner's dam foaled a colt by Volatile Feb. 21 and was sent to Known Agenda for 2025. GEORGIA MAGIC (c, 2, Good Magic--Nightlife Baby, by Flatter) jumped right to the front as part of a coupled entry inside of stablemate Griffin's Wharf (Constitutoin) and a forwardly-placed Math Tutor (Algorithms). Setting a pressured tempo into the stretch through fractions of :22.27 and :45.86, Georgia Magic lasted along the inside ahead of Grey Ace (Mitole) who ran into contention late but came up 1 1/4 lengths short. The winner has a yearling full-brother with Nightlife Baby due back to Maclean's Music for 2025 after losing her 2024 foal by that stallion. GUNNER GLACKEN (c, 2, Gunnevera--Releasethe Glacken, by Smoke Glacken) was given 9-2 odds for this unveiling, and stepped out quickly to control the tempo through :21.75 and :45.22 contested splits. Pulling away from that first challenger on the turn, the grey drew clear of Fully Volatile (Volatile) by 2 3/4 lengths. SIGHT (c, 2, Munnings--Mylastfirstkiss {SP}, by Flatter) debuted with Lasix and as a 7-1 shot here. The colt powered out of the rail gate to run second up the backstretch behind fellow firster Zoom (Speightstown). The chestnut took aim at his target around the far turn, but was joined at the top of the lane by Chases Magic (Complexity). Putting away the pacesetter, the pair traded blows at the eighth pole, but Sight was able to gain the advantage to graduate in the final jumps by half a length. Out of an extended female family which includes MGSW Kinza (Carpe Diem), the winner was in-utero when his dam was purchased for $190,000 by Peter Wilson during Keeneland November. This is her first registered foal. Mylastfirstkiss is also responsible for a yearling filly by Liam's Map, a May weanling colt by Candy Ride (Arg) and she visited Authentic for next term. 6th-Fair Grounds, $58,000, Msw, 11-29, 3yo/up, 1 1/16mT, 1:47.15, fm, head.

SICILIAN DEFENSE (c, 3, Uncle Mo--Strombolian, by Giant's Causeway), runner-up in each of his last two with Beyers of up to 82, broke through with a second-time turf try for his first visit to the winner's circle. Following up a Nov. 3 effort at Churchill over the same distance, Sicilian Defense broke from the rail and held a narrow advantage throughout. Covering a first quarter in :24.54 and the half in :50.84, the 9-5 bay kept his head in front all the way to the wire, turning back a battling Storm Ready (City of Light) at the line. Cont.

A homebred for John Gunther, who took on Borders Racing Stable as an ownership partner, Sicilian Defense is grandson to GSW & GISP Molto Vita (Carson City), whom Gunther purchased as a weanling at Keeneland November in 2000 for $24,000. One of the mare's daughters produced two 'TDN Rising Stars': GISW Mo Town (Uncle Mo) and SW & MGSP Justique (Justify). Another of Molto Vita's daughters is Strombolian, dam of Sicilian Defense as well as 2-year-old filly Princess Claudia (Vino Rosso), an $82,000 Keeneland September purchase by Eduardo Soto, and a weanling filly by Justify. PRIMA BELLA (f, 2, Cupid--Prima Diva, by Fed Biz) was the runner-up in her first start at Delta Downs's bull ring Oct. 12. Overlooked at 26-1 here, the homebred was shuffled towards the rear of the field after the break, but the filly moved up into the third position by the backstretch. Chasing the pacemaker around the far turn, Prima Bella had the rail open up at the top of the lane and she rolled home a winner by 1 1/4 over favorite Chapel Street (Street Sense). The winner is her unraced dam's first registered foal. Prima Diva claims filly Echo Juliet (Echo Town) who is currently a yearling. She was bred to Mitole for 2025. HALONE (f, 3, Justify--Sea Gift, by A.P. Indy) came off nearly a year-long layoff last time out when second going 6 1/2 furlongs at Santa Anita Oct. 20. Trying the mile for the first time, the 3-1 second choice was forwardly placed behind pacesetter stablemate Nafisa (Quality Road). Saving ground around the far turn, she rode the rail to the front and kept finding to come home an easy 7 1/4-length winner over heavily-favored Scarlet Avenue (Street Sense). A half to both $2.2m FTKNOV broodmare Beautiful Gift (Medaglia d'Oro), GSW, $180,100 and Chitu (Henny Hughes), GSW & GISP, $597,800, Halone has a yearling Curlin half-brother who RNA'd for $375,000 at KEESEP. RELATOR (c, 2, Thousand Words--Treedom, by Forestry) just missed by a neck when nailed on the line in his debut over course going 1 mile and 70 yards Nov. 3. Shortened up here, the 2-1 favorite again went to the lead ahead of Incanto (Mehmas {Ire}) and this time would not be denied, taking this field gate to wire in a 1 1/2-length win. DEUTERONOMY (c, 3, Kitten's Joy--Hit It Rich {MGSW, $521,810}, by Smart Strike), a Stuart Janney homebred, didn't like the off-turf slop at Colonial on debut in July, but finished a game neck runner-up in his second attempt--on the grass this time--Nov. 1 at Laurel. The 1-2 choice here, the gray settled midpack while rating patiently behind :23.34 and :49.47 fractions. Advancing on the turn, Deuteronomy still had plenty to do a furlong from home but reeled in the trio in front of him with a late kick and sailed clear by three-quarters of a length. Pacesetter Sebastianthe First (Demarchelier {GB}) held for second. From the same family as MGISW Honey Ryder (Lasting Approval) and a half to Profiteer (War Front), GSP, $311,053, Deuteronomy also has a placed 2-year-old half-brother named Dettori (Munnings).
