

NEW GRADE I-WINNING PAIR AT THREE CHIMNEYS

Click here for our visit with incoming Three Chimneys sire Gun Pilot and his new studmate Newgate | Sara Gordon

by Katie Petrunyak

With less than three weeks remaining for stallions to make their mark on the General Sires list this year, Into Mischief and Gun Runner have the 1-2 spots solidly secured for the leading North American sires by earnings. In 2025, Three Chimneys Farm will add two sons of those top sires to their roster as Newgate and Gun Pilot become the first stallions by both Into Mischief and the farm's own Gun Runner to stand at Three Chimneys.

Gun Pilot, a homebred for Three Chimneys out of their unraced Smart Strike mare Bush Pilot, is the only son of Gun Runner to join the stallion ranks in Kentucky this coming year after three sons of the sire sensation were added in 2024.

"It's very exciting for us to have a homebred by Gun Runner joining our stallion roster," said Three Chimney's Director of Stallion Nominations Rebecca Nicholson. "Gun Pilot is a great physical. He does have a lot of the personality and physical traits of Gun Runner, but I would say he's a bit of a bigger, scopier version of him. He's also got that huge, loose walk that you see in so many of the Gun Runners."

LEMON DROP KID PASSES AWAY AGED 28 AT LANE'S END

Champion Lemon Drop Kid (Kingmambo--Charming Lassie, by Seattle Slew) has died of an undisclosed cause at the age of 28 at Lane's End, the farm said via a press release on Friday morning.

Foaled at Lane's End and bred by W. S. Farish and W. S. Kilroy, Lemon Drop Kid is out of Charming Lassie, a half-sister to Broodmare of the Year Weekend Surprise (Secretariat). The Lane's End sire was closely-related to the impactful A.P. Indy.

Lemon Drop Kid was sold for $200,000 at the 1997 Keeneland September Sale to Mr. & Mrs. M.J. Dance, Jr. and was raced by Jeanne G. Vance (Mrs. M.J. Dance, Jr.). The colt, who was trained by Flint S. "Scotty" Schulhofer, showed promise at Belmont Park after winning the GI Futurity Stakes and placing in the GI Champagne Stakes as a juvenile.

A debut-winning juvenile going seven furlongs for Steve Asmussen, Gun Pilot went on to race at three and four and he earned his first stakes win in this year's GI Churchill Downs Stakes when he drew away by 2 1/2 lengths.

That victory came on Kentucky Derby Saturday, a day when Gun Runner couldn't seem to stay out of the headlines. Just before Gun Pilot's score, Gun Runner's daughter Vahva got her first Grade I in the Derby City Distaff Stakes and later that day Sierra Leona, also by Gun Runner, was runner-up in the GI Kentucky Derby.

"It was a huge day for Gun Runner," Nicholson recalled. "Gun Pilot won the Churchill Downs Stakes going seven furlongs and that's a race that I think has proven to be such an important stallion-making race. You've had horses like Distorted Humor and Speightstown who have won that race in the past and gone on to be important stallions."

In more recent years, young sires Cody's Wish, Jackie's Warrior and Mitole claimed the Churchill Downs.

Also during his 4-year-old season, Gun Pilot was runner-up to Mullikin (Violence) in the GI Forego Stakes.

Nicholson said that Gun Pilot, who will stand for $17,500 in his debut season, has attracted a wide variety of mares and she added that A.P. Indy-line mares in particular might make for an interesting cross. GI Breeders' Cup Classic champ Sierra Leone, recent GII Cigar Mile Handicap victor and GISW Locked, and other Grade I winners Taiba and Society are all Gun Runner progeny hailing from A.P. Indy-line mares.

"Gun Pilot is out of a Smart Strike mare and he's completely free of A.P. Indy, so there's going to be a lot that suits him," she said. "We look forward to supporting both him and Newgate with our own broodmare band."

Gun Pilot will stand alongside his sire, Gun Runner | Sarah Andrew

The son of Into Mischief was an $850,000 Keeneland September yearling and at 1-2 odds, he became the 32nd 'TDN Rising Star' for his sire the following July when he won by 3 1/2 lengths at Del Mar, completing 5 1/2 furlongs in 1:03.89. Trained by Bob Baffert and campaigned by the partnership of SF Racing LLC, Starlight Racing, Madaket Stables LLC, Robert E. Masterson, Stonestreet Stables LLC, Jay A. Schoenfarber, Waves Edge Capital LLC and Catherine Donovan, the colt went on to claim the GIII Robert B. Lewis Stakes at three and the GI Santa Anita Handicap at four. He also was a head behind the winner in his third-place finish in the GI California Crown Stakes this year.

"He's a horse that had so much speed and precocity and he was able to carry it a long distance," noted Nicholson. "To win on debut as a 2-year-old and then also win a Grade I at a longer distance as a 4-year-old, it takes a lot of versatility."

A son of the graded stakes-placed Majestic Warrior mare Majestic Presence, Newgate is a full-sister to Denim and Pearls, who won this year's GII Beaumont Stakes and later sold to Spendthrift Farm for $2.8 million.

"He has a lovely female family and an absolutely tremendous physical," said Nicholson. "I think he's one of the best-looking sons of Into Mischief. He's a horse that has a ton of size, scope and substance. He's a great mover and has all the qualities physically that you look for in a stallion."

With the additions of Gun Pilot and Newgate, Three Chimneys has a roster of six stallions for 2025. Gun Runner, who was listed privately this year, will stand for $250,000. Meanwhile Volatile, who has produced 23 winners including five stakes horses from his first crop this year, will stand for $12,500.

"He's a horse that I think has a lot of upside right now because there are a lot of good horses who are pointing to stakes races next," noted Nicholson. "He will be another popular stallion here next year."

Lemon Drop Kid | Lane's End

In his sophomore season, he won the GI Belmont Stakes and captured the GI Travers Stakes at Saratoga. As a 4-year-old, he swept the GI Whitney Handicap, GI Woodward Stakes, GI Suburban Handicap and GI Brooklyn Handicap and earned Eclipse Award honors as Champion Older Horse. All told across 24 starts, Lemon Drop Kid amassed over $3.2 million in earnings over the course of his racing career.

Following his championship season, Lemon Drop Kid returned to Lane's End to begin his career at stud where he served on stallion roster from 2001 to 2020. He was retired from stud duty at age 24.

Lemon Drop Kid is responsible for 109 stakes winners both on the dirt and turf, including 10 Grade I winners and 52 graded stakes winners. He has sired two champions and his progeny earnings stand at over $115 million.

Lemon Drop Kid's top runners include Lemon Pop, the recently retired winner of the G1 Champions Cup and champion dirt horse in Japan with over $5 million in earnings; Lemons Forever, winner of the GI Kentucky Oaks; Beach Patrol, multiple Grade I stakes winner of over $2.5 million; Richard's Kid, winner of two editions of the GI Pacific Classic etc., Somali Lemonade, winner of the GI Diana Stakes; multiple GSW Da Big Hoss and multiple GSW Cosmonaut.

Daughters of Lemon Drop Kid have been responsible for 110 black-type winners all around the world, 36 of those at the graded/group level. Of that group, 16 have succeeded in Group 1/Grade I company, including Eclipse Award winner Forever Unbridled (Unbridled's Song)--a daughter of GI Kentucky Oaks heroine Lemons Forever--fellow Breeders' Cup winners Tamarkuz (Speightstown), Finest City (City Zip) and Bar of Gold (Medaglia d'Oro) and the promising European-based first-crop sire Without Parole (GB) (Frankel {GB}).

"Many of us at Lane's End were here at the farm when Lemon Drop Kid was foaled in May of 1996," said Lane's End Farm President Bill Farish. "We are profoundly blessed to have been associated with this exceptional horse for his entire life, watching him develop into a champion racehorse and then a top sire of over 100 stakes winners. He will be greatly missed, and we will forever honor his legacy."

Lemon Drop Kid will be buried in the stallion cemetery at the farm.

2017 KENTUCKY DERBY WINNER ALWAYS DREAMING DIES OF COLIC

Always Dreaming (Bodemeister--Above Perfection, by In Excess {Ire}), the 2017 Kentucky Derby winner, died of colic Tuesday, December 10 at River Oaks Farm in Oklahoma, according to Chad Schumer, who brokered the deal to send the stallion from WinStar Farm where he originally stood to River Oaks.

"The horse was sick," said Schumer. "He had a very typical colic, and they brought him to the clinic. He was there for four days. They didn't do any surgery on him. Everything was fine. He seemed to be okay. He turned the corner."

Always Dreaming | Jon Siegel

“They sent him back to the farm, and I think it was the cecum in his stomach, it just burst.”

The cecum is a large, muscular part of a horse’s large intestine that digests fiber and other food.

“It was very unexpected in the sense that they thought they were over the hurdle of him having the colic,” said Schumer. “So it was particularly devastating, because they thought, ‘oh, God, this horse is sick, they went through the whole four days of him getting better, thinking everything is going to be okay, and he just went downhill very quickly.”

“The passing of Always Dreaming is a profound loss. He was a remarkable horse--on and off the racetrack--and his absence will be deeply felt by everyone who had the privilege to work with him, including all of us here at WinStar,” said Elliott Walden.

“He will always be remembered as a brilliantly fast horse who won the Kentucky Derby (G1) and the Florida Derby (G1). Our thoughts go out to everyone at River Oaks Farm, where Always Dreaming was going to become the first Kentucky Derby winner in history to stand in the state of Oklahoma.”

Always Dreaming sired five crops with three at racing age. He claimed one graded winner, five black type winners, and four who placed in black type races. His most successful offspring has been GI Pennsylvania Derby hero Saudi Crown, who went on to run third in the G1 Saudi Cup this year. That grey also claimed the GIII Louisiana Stakes in 2024. Other Listed winners include Tocayo; Bricklayer in Canada; Brittany's Dream; and the late Grand Isle.

TDN RISING STAR (DEBUT WINNER AT 2)

SANTA ANITA HCP. (G1) WINNER

$20,000 LFSN

Off at odds of 4-1 in his unveiling for George Weaver, the chestnut was urged along by Manny Franco and chased from an inside third as the aforementioned full-brother to champion and 'TDN Rising Star' Fierceness sped off through an opening quarter in :22.37.

Climbing while racing behind horses, Colloquial was tipped out into the clear approaching the quarter pole and set his sights on the pacesetter, who kicked for home with authority.

Mentee opened a five-length advantage in the stretch and looked long gone, but Colloquial was just getting started. He leveled off beautifully from there and rocketed home in a field-best :11.31 to come up just a nose short.

Mentee, the subsequent winner of the grassy Gill Futurity Stakes, stopped the timer in :56.97, which established a new track record for five furlongs at the Big A. Both Mentee and Colloquial received matching 88 Beyer Speed Figures.

Colloquial, a $240,000 Keeneland September graduate, is campaigned in partnership by Harrell Ventures and Starlight Racing. He's posted a pair of breezes at Weaver's Palm Beach Downs base since returning to the worktab, including a three-furlong move in :38.22 (1/3) Dec. 7.

"We were pretty excited about him before he ran," Weaver said. "He was showing us some good signs in his training and acted like he had some ability. He went over there in his debut and ran huge. He was running strong through the wire and galloped out well. He got beat by a horse of some quality."

Mentee holds off Colloquial (outside) in a highly rated maiden special weight at Aqueduct back in June | Coglianese

EquiSport Photos

Weaver continued, "The horse ended up needing some time off, just typical racehorse stuff. He's on a schedule that should see him ready the second half of January if everything goes well."

Weaver added, "He's come back great and we have big expectations."

Colloquial, bred in Kentucky by Michael and J.B. Orem, hails from the first crop of the very promising Spendthrift Farm stallion and Weaver-trained Vekoma, who is already responsible for 39 individual winners and a quartet of black-type winners, led by Gill Iroquois Stakes winner and 'TDN Rising Star' Jonathan's Way. Colloquial was produced by the John Oxley-bred, two-time winner Terminology. His third dam is Oxley's GI Kentucky Oaks heroine Gal in a Ruckus.

Does Colloquial remind Weaver of his 2019 Gill Blue Grass Stakes winner and 2020 GI Met Mile winner?

"He does," Weaver replied. "He's kinda got the same facial expressions and he's a chestnut, which obviously makes him somewhat look like Vekoma. We've been delighted with him. I've had the pleasure of training quite a few of them (by Vekoma) and broken quite a few of their maidens, and gotten some stakes placings. He was a star in our barn. We don't get a lot of horses come along as good as him. We were grateful that we were able to put together a resume that he was very deserving of." Cont.

WEST SARATOGA SOLD TO RRR RACING AFTER INGLIS DIGITAL USA DECEMBER SALE

GSW West Saratoga (Exaggerator) was sold privately to Sheikh Rashid Bin Humaid Al Nuaimi's RRR Racing for $375,000 following the Inglis Digital USA December Sale, according to a Friday press release issued by the auction company.

The gray will be sent to the Dubai barn of trainer Doug Watson, where he will undergo an evaluation to determine his future racing plans.

"I'm very excited with the purchase of West Saratoga," Watson said. "He looks like a horse with a really nice future in the upcoming years in the UAE."

West Saratoga previously raced for owner Harry Veruchi and trainer Larry Demeritte. The colt broke his maiden as a juvenile in front-running fashion at Ellis Park that August, and he followed up with a score in the GIII Iroquois Stakes at Churchill Downs in his next start.

The 3-year-old posted in-the-money efforts in the Pasco Stakes, the GIII Sam F. Davis Stakes, and the GIII Jeff Ruby Steaks, leading into a start in this year's Kentucky Derby, where he finished 12th.

"This sale highlights the global reach and versatility of the Inglis Digital USA platform," said Liza Hendriks, CEO of Inglis Digital USA. "We're proud to see West Saratoga find such an exciting new chapter through our December Sale."

Entries are now open for the Inglis Digital USA February Sale, and they will be taken through Monday, Feb. 3. The catalog will be released Friday, Feb. 7, and the horses will sell Wednesday, Feb. 12.

A six-time winner of the race in its days at Hollywood Park, including with future GI Kentucky Derby hero Real Quiet (Quiet American) in 1997, trainer Bob Baffert took the first seven runnings of the GII Los Alamitos Futurity after the relocation to Ocean County in 2014 and ran his overall total to 14 when Wnystock (Solomini) caused a 13-1 upset last year.

Just five juvenile males have taken up the challenge this term, three of whom are trained by Baffert, and Gaming (Game Winner) is an all-the-way candidate at the Cypress oval.

The $40,000 Keeneland September yearling turned $250,000 OBS March breezer broke his maiden in front-running style on Del Mar debut Aug. 11, then came from a bit off the speed to take the GI Del Mar Futurity four weeks later. A 6-1 chance when making his first start around two turns in the Nov. 2 GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile, he chased stablemate Citizen Bull (Into Mischief) every step of the way, but was forced to settle for second.

Owner Mike Pegram has won the Futurity a record four times, twice on his own with Real Quiet and Captain Steve (1999) and twice in partnership with Karl Watson and Paul Weitman (Lookin At Lucky, 2009; McKinzie, 2017).

Getaway Car (Curlin) validated the debut 'TDN Rising Star' tag with a popular success in the GIII Best Pal Stakes at Del Mar Aug. 11. Beaten at short odds in the Futurity and when behind the commonly owner Citizen Bull in the GI American Pharoah Stakes, the $700,000 KEESep grad was a longshot fourth in the Juvenile. Cont.

The third of the Baffert trio, Mellencamp (Constitution), is the longest-priced of them and enters the Futurity as a two-start maiden. Just beaten on Santa Anita sprint debut Oct. 27, the $775,000 KEESEP acquisition retreated to fourth behind $825,000 Fasig-Tipton Saratoga grad Journalism (Curlin) and Rank (Honor A. P.) when tried over a mile at Del Mar Nov. 17.

TYLER GAFFALIONE NOTCHES CAREER WIN 2500 FRIDAY AT GULFSTREAM PARK

Jockey Tyler Gaffalione notched career win 2500 at Gulfstream Park in the opener at his hometown track, it was announced via press release Friday evening.

Aboard Kiss Cam (Mastery) for the milestone victory, and promptly following it up with another trip to the winner's enclosure in the second race on War Beat (War Front), Gaffalione also celebrated his 1000 and 1500 win marks at the Florida track in 2018 and 2021, respectively.

"I just feel so blessed. I'm just so thankful to be able to come out here and live out my dream every day," Gaffalione said. "It's always nice to come back to Gulfstream Park and see all the friendly faces and everyone I grew up with. It feels amazing. I'm just so thankful for the horsemen's continued support."

"They have always been good to me here and I can't thank my agent Matt Muzaikar enough."

OWNERVIEW WEBINAR COVERS CONDYLAR FRACTURES WITH DR. ALAN RUGGLES

Dr. Alan Ruggles--a partner at Rood & Riddle Equine Hospital who specializes in orthopedic surgery and lameness--made a presentation on condylar fractures, a common injury in racehorses, during the final installment of the 2024 OwnerView webinar series which was held Dec. 10, the resource said in a press release on Friday morning.

With a PowerPoint presentation, Dr. Ruggles covered how the injury occurs and its treatment through surgery. He also discussed bone bruising and the advantages of different diagnostic tools.

The presentation was followed by a video showing the specialist performing surgery on a condylar fracture. After which he explained that horses usually recover within an hour and need at least 12 to 16 weeks off from training.

The conference is hosted by The Jockey Club and the Thoroughbred Owners and Breeders Association and presented by Bessemer Trust, Stoll Keenon Ogden and The Green Group. The panel was sponsored by Daily Racing Form.

INDIANA THOROUGHBRED ALLIANCE STALLION SEASON FUNDRAISER DEBUTS ON BIDXSELL.COM

The Indiana Thoroughbred Alliance (ITA) is celebrating its Fifth Annual Stallions & Services Auction--beginning Dec. 18--by partnering with platform BidXSell, the organization said in a press release on Friday.

The auction focuses on uniting the Midwest horse racing community through the funding of scholarships, educational programs and the promotion of the industry.

Featuring over 50 stallion seasons from Indiana, Kentucky and Ohio, the event goes live on BidXSell's site at 8:00 a.m. (all times eastern) Dec. 18 and concludes at 4:00 p.m. Dec. 20.

The catalogue review is set to begin at 8:00 p.m. Dec. 13. Seasons were donated by Kentucky farms such as, Airdrie, Darby Dan, Gainesway, Spendthrift, Taylor Made and Walmac. Indiana farms like Midwest Equine and Clearview Equine Services are represented, along with Poplar Creek Farms of Ohio.

“We achieved our largest revenue gross during our 2023 auction, helping to raise more than $130,000 over the past four years for our mission,” says Christine Cagle, the auction coordinator and ITA board member. “We can’t wait to see what lies ahead for our fifth annual auction working alongside BidXSell.”

SANDMAN (c, 2, Tapit--Distorted Music, by Distorted Humor) broke his maiden second time out at Saratoga over a field that included last weekend's GII Remsen Stakes runner up Aviator Gui (Uncle Mo) and SP Innovator (Authentic) before coming in fifth in the GIII Iroquois Stakes in September. Third in the GIII Street Sense last out Oct. 27, Sandman dropped back into allowance company, cut back from 1 1/16 miles to the flat mile Friday as the 8-5 favorite and was rated back off the early speed, content to split the field through the half in :48.20. Set down under a ride while angled out at the quarter pole, Sandman kept grinding away, found enough to dispatch pacesetter Big Boat (Nyquist) and go ahead to win by 1 3/4 lengths. A $1.2m OBS March grad, Sandman is a half to She Can't Sing (Bernardini), GSW, $883,558 while dam Distorted Music sold for $375,000 at the Fasig-Tipton Winter Mixed Sale this year. This is the family of G1 Emirates Airline Dubai World Cup winner and sire Mystic Guide (Ghostzapper). Sandman's only younger sibling is a yearling half-brother by Into Mischief. 9th-Aqueduct, $92,000, Alw, 12-13, (NW1$X), 3yo/up, f/m, 7f, 1:23.32, ft, 1/2 length.

CALDWELL LUVS GOLD (f, 3, Goldcents--Snow, by Quality Road) won the New York Oaks for state breders at Finger Lakes this past summer and finished third switching to the turf in the GIII Jockey Club Oaks Invitational at the Big A Sept. 14. The filly was last seen finishing off the board over the same surface against New Yorkers in the Ticonderoga Stakes Oct. 27.

Dropping down, the 7-5 choice here was shuffled to the rear of the field up the backstretch. The bay was not content to see them all, so she started to get involved to the outside around the far turn. Spinning four wide into the lane, the filly took aim by the eighth pole at new leader Striker Has Dial (Dialed In). The 3-year-old lassoed her rival in the final jumps and cleared the condition. A half-sister to MSW Quindici Man (Came Home), the winner's dam is responsible for 2-year-old filly Saratoga Snow (Vekoma) who was in-training during the fall. Snow produced a current yearling colt by Cupid, foaled a colt by Mind Control Apr. 13 and visited Americanrevolution for 2025. Sales History: $36,000 Wlg '21 FTNMIX; $73,000 Ylg '22 SARAUG. DELORAINE (f, 2, Candy Ride {Arg}--Elaine's Cat, by Discreet Cat) broke her maiden third time out on the Tapeta at Presque Isle Downs going a mile Oct. 10. Back on the turf for the first time since her July 21 debut and trying her longest distance to date, the 5-2 third choice tracked from mid pack in fifth behind front-running l'mwishingonastar (Maximus Mischief). Tipped out for a running lane around the far turn, she kicked into gear and opened up at will on this field to lead in Rocio (Global Campaign) by 8 1/4 lengths. A half-sister to Remuda (More Than Ready), GSP, $151,583 who just sold in the Fasig-Tipton December Digital Sale for $70,000, Deloraine is out of a daughter of GI Breeders' Cup Distaff winner Unbridled Elaine. Elaine's Cat has a yearling Street Sense colt and was sent to Speaker's Corner for 2025 after taking a year off. 7th-Tampa Bay Downs, $32,500, Alw (NW1X)/Opt. Clm ($75,000), 12-13, 2yo, 1mT, 1:37.08, fm, 4 1/2 lengths. FULLY AUTHORIZED (c, 2, Authentic--Streak of Luck {SW & MGSP, $352,109}, by Old Fashioned) broke his maiden by 1 3/4 lengths at second asking over the Monmouth Park grass Sept. 7. At Aqueduct, the colt was well-beaten in both the GII Pilgrim Stakes Sept. 28 and in the Awad Stakes Oct. 19. Sent off as the 5-2 second choice here, the juvenile settled in the middle of the pack heading into the first turn. Keeping the same pace along the rail up the backstretch, the gray tipped to the three path around the far turn as favorite Dumb Money (Sea Wizard) was trying to overtake the leader. The 2-year-old uncorked a furious rally, rolled past the chalk and got to the wire with 4 1/2 lengths to spare. Aaron & Marie Jones purchased Streak of Luck for $620,000 during Keeneland November while the winner was in-utero. His dam's first registered foal, Fully Authorized has a yearling half-brother by Into Mischief and a late January weanling half-sister by Munnings. Streak of Luck was bred back to Into Mischief for next term. Sales History: $50,000 Ylg '23 KEESEP; $100,000 2yo '24 EASMAY. IN ORDER OF PURSE:

2nd-Oaklawn, $110,000, Msw, 12-13, 2yo, 1 1/16m, 1:47.53, ft, 2 lengths.

AUTHENTIC GALLOP (c, 2, Authentic--Gallop Ami {Outstanding Broodmare-Can}, by Victory Gallop) debuted for Tom Amoss at Saratoga in July and came a neck short of breaking his maiden second time out going this distance on the grass Aug. 31. Off the board in a pair of starts in Kentucky since, he can be forgiven for a sixth last time out when he missed the break at Churchill Downs back on the main track Nov. 3. Sticking to the dirt here, the 9-1 shot got off to a much better beginning to sit second several lengths back behind loose leader Stiglets (Spun to Run) into the far turn. As that rival gradually came back to the field at the top of the stretch, Authentic Gallop took over and opened up separation to the line, coming in two lengths ahead of 6-5 favorite Caldera (Liam's Map). The 20th winner for his freshman sire (by Into Mischief), Authentic Gallop is a half to several prolific runners including a Canadian champion in Amis Gizmo (Giant Gizmo), GSW, $800,022, Aragorn Ami (Aragorn {Ire}), SW, $112,535, Kopion (Omaha Beach), GSW, $134,600 and Ami's Flatter (Flatter), GSW & GISP, $536,931. Out of awarded broodmare Galloping Ami, herself a full-sister to the dam of another champion in Ami's Mesa (Sky Mesa), the winner has a yearling half-sister by Essential Quality who brought $275,000 at KEESEP. Galloping Ami is due to Curlin next term. Sales History: $300,000 Ylg '23 KEESEP. Lifetime Record: 5-1-1-0, $89,278. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

ADMIT (f, 2, Blame--Profess, by War Front) made a pair of starts at Horseshoe Indianapolis, hitting the board most recently just a half-length behind the winner Oct. 29. Trying the Tapeta for the first time Thursday, the 8-1 shot had to catch a loose leader up the backstretch, sat just off Les Is Best (Catholic Boy) who took over around the far turn and pounced with an inside move down the lane to win going away by 1 1/4 lengths. Runner up Les Is Best was disqualified for stretch interference against White Rocks (Frosted) who was promoted to second. Admit, a Claiborne homebred, is out of a half-sister to MGSW/GISP and sire Pulpit (A.P. Indy). The family also includes another stallion in Tale of the Cat (Storm Cat). Profess, who has now produced four winners from five to race, has a yearling First Samurai colt, was barren to Demarchelier (GB) this year and visited Cairo Prince for 2025. SHE'S FANCY (f, 4, Uncle Mo--Tapitry {GSP, $223,200}, by Tapit) debuted at Keeneland for Graham Motion as a 2-year-old but has not been seen in the two years since. Now with Christopher Davis and running with Lasix for the first time, the 6-1 shot was last from the gate but rushed up to contend from fourth early before advancing to sit just off pacesetter Bundchen (Gun Runner) past the half in :44.96. Shifted outside of that rival off the turn, she gradually reeled the leader in and edged away to graduate by a length. Walmac Farm purchased Tapitry for $400,000 at KEENOV in 2019 carrying She's Fancy. The dam has an unraced 2-year-old Medaglia d'Oro colt on the work tab at Turfway while her yearling Munnings filly sold for $130,000 at KEESEP earlier this year. She foaled a Jack Christopher colt this year and is due back to Pappacap. Sales History: $150,000 RNA Ylg '21 KEESEP. ACKNOWLEDGE (c, 2, Authentic--Call to Service, by To Honor and Serve) took some nibbles on his Keeneland debut Oct. 25, but weakened after showing some early speed to finish a distant eighth. The Repole galloper came running late to just miss going six furlongs against restricted competition Nov. 23 and was the 1-20 mortal to get the job done stretching out here. Away alertly from stall two, the bay eased back to force the pace from second, was allowed to stride into the lead 2 1/2 furlongs from home and, despite racing a fraction greenly in the final stages, had some 9 1/4 lengths on his overmatched rivals at the wire. Keith and Ginger Myers' Coteau Grove Farm purchased Call to Service--a half-sister to MGSW/GISP Isotherm (Lonhro {Aus}) and GSW & GISP Giant Game (Giant's Causeway)--for $350,000 with this colt in utero at the 2022 Keeneland January Sale. A half-brother to New York-bred The Wine Steward (Vino Rosso), MSW & GISP, $467,260, and from the family of the talented sprinter Skelly (Practical Joke), Acknowledge has a yearling half-sister by Curlin, a weanling half-brother by Justify and the mare was bred to Repole's Uncle Mo for her 2025 produce. Acknowledge was one of three winners for his sire (by Into Mischief) Friday--two maiden allowance and one allowance--and is the 21st winner overall for Authentic. TANTI AUGURI (f, 2, Quality Road--On My Way, by Giant's Causeway), the 3-1 second choice from the far outside gate in this scratched-down field, let Escovedo (Maclean's Music) break to the lead from the rail and settled third while kept wide in the clear. Driven up into contention off the turn, she took over inside the final furlong and was ridden out to a three-length win over 28-1 shot Tempting Eve (Alternation) who closed well to be second after missing the break. A half to King Zachary (Curlin), GSW, $366,120 and 'TDN Rising Star' Happier (Street Sense), Tanti Auguri is cataloged at the upcoming Keeneland January Sale and counts multiple Hong Kong Horse of the Year Golden Sixty (Aus) (Medaglia d'Oro) among her extended family members. On My Way has a yearling Twirling Candy colt, a weanling filly by Jackie's Warrior and is due to Elite Power for 2025. HEAR THE QUEEN (f, 2, Audible--Behold The Queen {Aus}, by Animal Kingdom), off the board in a pair of auction-restricted events at Churchill earlier this season, stayed in that company but tried the Tapeta Thursday for Brad Cox. The 6-5 favorite stalked pacesetter I'll Stop Talking (Improbable) past the half in :46.89 before taking over around the outside and drawing off to the line to graduate by 3 1/4 lengths over My Ronda (Heart to Heart) who closed up for second in a close finish for the minor awards. Hear The Queen's third dam Leslie's Lady needs no introduction as the dam of Beholder (Henny Hughes), Mendelssohn (Scat Daddy) and top sire Into Mischief (Harlan's Holiday). Behold The Queen, a full-sister to Australian MGSP and $650,000 KEENOV broodmare Victory Kingdom (Aus), had her Not This Time yearling sell for $175,000 at KEESEP this year and foaled an Uncle Mo colt in 2024. RUTH (f, 2, Uncle Mo--Peppy Rafaela, by Bernardini), bet down to 3-5 favoritism for Todd Pletcher and owner/breeder Frank Batten, was a close-up third behind early pacesetter Queen in the Deck (Cairo Prince) through the opening quarter in :24.81. Fanned out widest of the group around the far turn and relegated back several slots, Ruth responded in kind to urging from jockey Irad Ortiz, Jr. and found a high gear coming to the line, powering past the leader to win going away by 1 1/4 lengths. Ruth is a full-sister to Mopotism, GSW & MGISP, $876,090 who sold for $1,050,000 at FTKNOV in 2019 and has already produced $825,000 FTSAUG yearling Journalism (Curlin) who is entered in Saturday's Gil Los Alamitos Futurity and $1.5m FTSAUG yearling Nitro Tap (Tapit). Ruth is her dam's last reported offspring. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $24,000. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

U.S.-BRED/SIRED RUNNERS IN JAPAN

In this continuing series, Alan Carasso takes a look ahead at US-bred and/or conceived runners entered for the upcoming weekend at the tracks on the Japan Racing Association circuit, with a focus on pedigree and/or performance in the sales ring. Here are the US-sired horses of interest--each by American Pharoah--for this weekend running at Nakayama and Kyoto Racecourses:

American Pharoah | Sarah Andrew

Saturday, December 14, 2024

6th-NKY, ¥13,720,000 ($89k), Newcomers, 2yo, 1800m

ONE CARD FELLOW (JPN) (c, 2, American Pharoah--One Card too Many, by Drosselmeyer), whose dam was purchased for $160,000 with this colt in utero at the 2021 Keeneland November Sale, was foaled in Japan in March 2022 and commanded a final bid of $225,584 at the JRHA Select Foal sale about four months later. One Card too Many is a half-sister to Champagne Room (Broken Vow), the dam of three winners from as many to race in Japan; and to the Group 3-placed Fidele (Jpn) (Heart's Cry {Jpn}). Christophe Lemaire rides. B-Okada Bokujo

ROUGE MAAT (JPN) (f, 2, American Pharoah--Layla Noor, by Midnight Lute), whose Grade II-placed dam was knocked down to Shadai Farm in foal to Uncle Mo for $660,000 at the 2020 Keeneland November Sale, is a half-sister to the 3-year-old filly Jamila Noor, a maiden winner at second asking at Nakayama this past March and runner-up in allowance company when last seen Oct. 27. Layla Noor is a daughter of SW & MGSP Senada (Pulpit) and this is also the female family of recent GIII Jimmy Durante Stakes winner Will Then (War of Will). B-Shadai Farm

MIRACLE BORN (JPN) (c, 2, American Pharoah---Moon of the City {Arg}, by City Banker {Arg}) is the first foal to start from his dam, a dual group winner in her native Argentina who was sent to this country and covered by this sire prior to her export to Japan. Rouge Maat also took his spot at this year's JRHA Foal Sale, hammering for the equivalent of $261,969. Moon of the City is an own sister to three-times group winner Star of the City (Arg) and to GSW Moyvore Rose (Arg). B-Tanikawa Stud

EQUISCIENCE

Transforming Equine Sports Science

You are a trainer, a vet, a data scientist, etc. and seeking new skills and opportunities? Join the Equiscience program for its new cohort from January 20th to February 14th 2025!

What is Equiscience ?

A four-week remote training created to enable equine professionals to become experts in equine science, physiology, and data analysis. Thus, you will be able to reach better training results or improve pathology detection.

What subjects to expect ?

- Performance management throughout a racing season
- Common heart pathologies and respiratory problems: how to detect them with data
- Future performer identification and data screening techniques
- ... and much more!

« One of the reasons I applied for the course was the uniqueness of the program. It offered something that wasn't available anywhere else. »

'IT'S MY PASSION': JACK MORLAND JOINS TRAINING RANKS

Jack Morland | Equus Images

By Emma Berry

On a morning which only the Scottish word dreich could properly describe, it would be easy to opt for the indoor life, a nine-to-five salaried job in a centrally-heated office. But where's the fun in that, eh?

Instead, as the days tick by until the winter solstice, racehorse trainers around the isles are out in the slate grey mizzle which a lethargic sunrise can't hope to shake off. The veterans among them could be forgiven for dragging their wellington boots a little at this time of year, but that is not something which Jack Morland is even contemplating. The amiable 29-year-old is the newest recruit to the training ranks in Newmarket and is brimming with optimism as he embarks on the career path of which he has dreamed for half his life.

"I have wanted to train racehorses since I was about 15. It's my passion," he says simply as we follow two members of his string out to Warren Hill.

"Every year that I've been in racing, and especially since I've been back working in England, I've thought to myself how everyone says it's doom and gloom, but you only need to look at the record year at Tattersalls Book 1 and there are still plenty of people who want to have horses trained in the UK."

RACING'S STARS SUPPORT FOURTH RUNNING OF THE TREO EILE CHRISTMAS SHOW

A galaxy of racing's stars--Davy Russell, Joseph O'Brien, Kevin Manning, Nina Carberry and more--turned out to support the fourth running of the Treo Eile Christmas Show on Thursday.

It was former champion jockey Russell, who, competing alongside his son Finn, who won the HRI Thoroughbred Classic Cup. He was riding former staying chaser Our Father, who ran 17 times for trainers David Pipe and Gordon Elliott respectively.

Director of Welfare at Horse Racing Ireland, John Osborne, commented, "This event brings all equestrian industries together and shows how versatile the thoroughbred is in terms of adjusting to a different lifestyle after racing and it's wonderful to see these horses still going strong ten years later.

"Everyone commented on the high standards on show, with so many double-clears and such an exciting finale, where the last fence for the last rider was going to decide the outcome. This is partly due to the clinics, instruction and support that Anne O'Connor and the Treo Eile team has provided to this growing area." Cont. p4

The week before the Tattersalls October Yearling Sale kicked off with its jaw-dropping skirmishes throughout Books 1 and 2, Morland officially launched his training business. On the first day of October he had two horses in the 17 boxes he rents from Charlie McBride at Exeter House Stables in the heart of Newmarket. Now he has 13.

"I've been very lucky and I have been supported by some very nice clients, such as Derek [Lovatt] and Colin [Bacon], as well as Charlie Rosier and Brownsbarn Thoroughbreds and plenty more," he says. "We have some older horses to run over the winter who will hopefully get a few wins on the board and get my name noticed. I like to think of this first year of training as a period to try to prove myself, and if I can do that, hopefully we will get a few more in."

He will be going well to get close to the level of support enjoyed by his former bosses in Australia, Ciaron Maher and David Eustace. The latter is a former Newmarket boy himself who is now training independently in Hong Kong.

"I ran a barn for Ciaron and David in their training base at Caulfield, which no longer exists," he says. "It was a very good place to learn about how to train horses on a big scale – there were about 700 on the books when I left there."

Prior to that, Morland, after deciding his previous job in London was not for him, worked his way up at Manton in Brian Meehan's stable as pupil assistant prior to his departure for Australia. He has been back in the UK for five years, during which time he has been employed as assistant trainer to Ed Dunlop.

"Ed let me get involved in all aspects of the business which was a big help to me when I set up training on my own," he says.

"Ciaran was fantastic at training two-year-olds, and stayers as well, but we never trained up hills as we do in Newmarket, and every horse trialed two or three times before they ran. There it was a lot more steady work and short breezes, whereas here it's more about progressive canters and building up their fitness through conditioning work. Ed is a very classical trainer and is very patient. He always gave the horse time to progress and often his horses' best years are their four- or five-year-old season."

Having grown up in Oxfordshire, Morland has now made Britain's largest training centre his home.

"It's competitive but fun at the same time," he says of life in Newmarket. "I love the camaraderie here. James Ferguson has been phenomenally good to me. Ollie Sangster used to work in town and I've taken a lot of advice from him, the same with George Scott. [Next-door neighbour] Ben Brookhouse lent me his Champagne City as a lead horse and everyone has been so helpful. The facilities are second to none and it's fun talking to all my comrades on Warren Hill in the morning. I especially love it around springtime when everyone is talking about their two-year-olds."

Jack Morland at Exeter House Stables | Emma Berry

Angel Of Antrim (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}) became the trainer's first runner when finishing fourth at Newcastle on November 8 and he has subsequently run two more horses, with Serenity Rose (Ire) (James Garfield {Ire}) recently finishing second at Lingfield.

"Now we're just waiting for that first winner," says Morland. "I'm really excited to start running a few more horses now and seeing where it goes. Being a young trainer, people are attracted to you, so hopefully it will go well and we can grow the business from there."

He does, however, have his feet firmly on the ground.

"I know that you can be today's hero and tomorrow's zero," says Morland, who was found helping with the mucking out on TDN's arrival in his yard. "People have been very good to me in offering their advice and help. I don't want to grow too quickly as I think that is when things can get missed."

In addition to the backing of the aforementioned Brownsbarn Thoroughbreds, run by the Allen brothers Thomas, Charlie and George, Morland has also attracted Nick Bradley Racing to his yard in these initial months, and with his father Giles, a longtime racing fan and owner, has devised the syndicate Maxwell Thoroughbreds.

"I think that really is the way forward," he says. "And if we can get that right, like the Australians have, then that could be a big seller for our industry. I really want to open it up to as many people as I can."

Supporting the evening were some major industry leaders including Godolphin, the Aga Khan, Coolmore and the IEBF and Foal Levy Fund. Horse Racing Ireland were title sponsors while Weatherbys Ireland GSB, Ltd., Connolly's RED MILLS and Equip all sponsored individual classes earlier in the day.

Harry McCalmont, Director of Treo Eile commented, concluded, "Once again we are so proud to see the ex-racehorse in all their glory, this night is the perfect showcase of their talents, their versatility and their trainability. It's wonderful to see the standard of thoroughbreds improving year on year, which reflects the efforts of the Treo Eile supported initiatives. A huge thank you must go out to our wonderful show committee, all of our volunteers, riders, those who provide horses and to all our amazing sponsors."

WALK IN THE PARK PAIR DOMINATE TATTERSALLS CHELTENHAM

Heron In The Park | Tattersalls Cheltenham

Damian Tiernan signed for lot 5, Heron In The Park (Ire) (Walk In The Park {Ire}) for a sale-topping £280,000 during the Tattersalls Cheltenham December Sale on Friday.

The 4-year-old filly is a winner after breaking her maiden in a point-to-point over three miles at Borris House on Dec. 1. She is also a half-sister to Glory And Fortune (Ire) (Fame And Glory {Ire}), a listed winner of a NH Flat race, who won the G3 Betfair Handicap Hurdle and was second in Kemptons G1 Christmas Hurdle. She was consigned by Monbeg Stables.

"She has been bought as a racing and breeding prospect," said Tom Morgan, who bought Heron In The Park alongside Tiernan. "She is for The Jekyll partnership who owned Mrs Hyde, and we are going to go down the same route as her--run in a bumper and, hopefully, then get a bit of black-type."

Walk In The Park's name was back in the lights as a sire with the day's second highest-priced lot--Frankie John (Ire) (Lot 16). The gelding, consigned by Boherna Stables, was snapped up by Tom Malone for £275,000. A maiden point-to-point winner at Boulta on Nov. 23, the grey gelding is a grandson of Grade 2 hurdle winner Rose Of Inchiquin (Ire) (Roselier {Fr}). His dam is a half-sister to a pair of stakes winners over fences including Grade 1 winner Empire Of Dirt (Ire) (Westerner {GB}).

"Denis [Hogan of Boherna Stables] has been telling me about this horse for the last six months and has been banging the drums about him," said Malone. "The horse was impressive at the line at Boulta--he went past one of Donnchadh Doyle's, and to outstay one of the Donnchadh's means it was a good race. The horse didn't pull up until the far fence, and I love to see that around Boulta."

In 2024, 27 lots sold from 30 offered (90%) for a gross of £2,570,000 (-25%). The average was £95,185 (-9%) and the median was down 6% to £80,000.

Tattersalls Cheltenham's sales manager Shirley Anderson-Jolag said, "We are delighted to conclude the Tattersalls Cheltenham Sale year with such healthy trade at a December Sale marked by a strong clearance rate of 90%.

"Demand for the very best jumps prospects is as strong as ever and today's race results at Cheltenham, with impressive victories by the progressive Tattersalls Cheltenham graduates Country Mile (Ire), [AQPS] Jango Baie (Fr) and Long Draw (Ire), all of whom started out in point-to-points in Ireland and Britain, proves once again that the Tattersalls Cheltenham sales are the best source of top-quality jumping talent.

"We must extend our thanks to our vendors, purchasers and the staff at Cheltenham Racecourse, all of whom are such a pleasure to work with.

"We look forward to returning to the Home of Jump Racing for the Tattersalls Cheltenham January Sale on Festival Trials Day, January 25, entries are being taken now.

"In the meantime, we would like to wish everyone a great Christmas and all the very best for the New Year."

GOFFS SET TO REVAMP HISTORIC ARKLE SALE WITH THE ADDITION OF TWO-YEAR-OLDS

A scene from the Arkle Sale this year | Goffs

Goffs is set to offer something different to the National Hunt sphere by adding two-year-old store horses to the historic Arkle Sale in 2025.

Traditionally, the sale has been dominated by three-year-old unbroken stores-including the odd smattering of four-year-olds-but Goffs chief executive Henry Beeby says that the addition of two-year-olds is a reaction to market demands.

Beeby said, "We pride ourselves on being flexible and progressive in meeting market demands whilst taking a measured approach and the introduction of two-year-old stores to the Arkle Sale comes in response to long running discussions on the subject that has included our vendors, buyers, the Goffs National Hunt team and the wider National Hunt community.

"From pinhookers seeking a shorter turnaround to buyers looking to get horses going a year earlier, we recognise the changing market trends so believe this move to be in line with the broader industry's aspirations and initiatives such as Horse Racing Ireland's introduction of three-year-old National Hunt Academy Hurdle races next year."

He added, "Goffs is extremely ambitious for Arkle 2025 and remains committed to building on the factors that have made it the first choice for elite stores. Our inspection team, led by Gerry Hogan, Neil Walsh, Peter Molony, Kevin Ross and Harry Fowler, will start the New Year in search of the best three-year-olds available, whilst also hand picking a small but quality selection of two-year-olds to ensure that every buyer finds the horse they are looking for at Goffs.

"It should be remembered that this is not an entirely new concept as two-year-old stores have previously featured at our Doncaster Spring Store Sale including when a son of Dalakhani (Ire) topped the sale in 2014."

GROUP 1 DOUBLE A POSSIBILITY FOR TERUO ONO IN ASAHI HAI FUTURITY

by Heather Anderson

Fresh off his Arma Veloce (Jpn) (Harbinger {GB})'s tally in the G1 Hanshin Juvenile Fillies last Sunday, owner Teruo Ono has a chance to bag a Japanese juvenile Group 1 double with the undefeated Arte Veloce (Jpn) (Maurice {Jpn}) in the G1 Asahi Hai Futurity Stakes at Kyoto on Nov. 15.

A winner at Sapporo in July and again in Tokyo's G3 Saudi Arabia Royal Cup besting Taisei Current (Jpn) (Maurice {Jpn}) on Oct. 5, the colt carries the mantle of ante-post favourite. Japanese legend Yutaka Take will be perched in the irons. with the duo leaving from stall eight.

Take said, "He's moving well and seems stronger than before. The distance of a mile really seems to suit him."

Arte Veloce | Japan Racing Association

Another horse who has yet to taste defeat, Total Clarity (Jpn) already boasts a score over course and distance when unveiled in June. Kept at the same trip when switched to Niigata, the son of Bago (Fr) won the G3 Niigata Nisai Stakes on Aug. 25.

Fifth in the markets before Sunday is Panja Tower (Jpn) (Tower Of London {Jpn}). The undefeated G2 Keio Hai Nisai Stakes hero will be trying the mile distance for the first time, after putting his stamp on a newcomers' affair at Chukyo in September. The Keio Hai Nisai Stakes was accomplished over good ground on Nov. 2, with the re-opposing G3 Kokura Nisai Stakes victor A Shin Wand (Jpn) (Discreet Cat) back in eighth.

Trainer Shinsuke Hashiguchi said, "He's been as expected in his recent work. He's chased down his training partners well, and there's no change with the way he's moving. The jockey thinks a mile will suit him, and that he could have done even better in his last race if the ground had been better."

Another entry with two wins is Museum Mile (Jpn) (Leontes {Jpn}). The son of the listed-placed Museum Hill (Jpn) (Heart's Cry {Jpn}) was third on debut, before taking Kyoto contests over 1800 metres in October and stepped up to 2000 metres on Nov. 10.

"He looked a little heavy in his first piece of work since returning, but that was the same last time, and as he picks up in training, he doesn't seem heavy after being back for a while now," said trainer Daisuke Takayanagi.

Nitamonodoshi (Jpn) (Dee Majesty {Jpn}) won over six furlongs on debut at Fukushima in June, and set a new record of 1:28.60 at Sapporo in the 1500-metre Clover Sho when last seen on Aug. 18. Arlecchino (Jpn) (Bricks And Mortar), a winning half-brother to dual Group 1 winner Cervinia (Jpn) (Harbinger {GB}), will leave from gate six in the 16-horse field. He ran fifth to Arte Veloce on rain-soaked ground in October.

The second and third from the G2 Daiy Hai Nisai Stakes are also signed on in Dragon Boost (Jpn) (Screen Hero {Jpn}) and Daishin Ra (Jpn) (Satono Diamond {Jpn}).

Friday's Results:

8th-Meydan, AED210,000, Cond., 12-13, 3yo, 1900m, 1:59.21, ft. MENDELSSOHN BAY (g, 3, Mendelssohn--Reiki Baby, by Curlin) returned after his fourth-place finish to Forever Young (Jpn) (Real Steel {Jpn}) in the G2 UAE Derby in March with a narrow victory on Friday. A maiden winner last November, the gelding won the G3 UAE 2000 Guineas over Killer Collect (Collected) by 3 3/4 lengths on Jan. 26 just prior to his Derby run. Last through the early stages, Mendelssohn Bay had clawed his way up to second behind Killer Collect by the 600-metre mark. That rival appeared home free in upper stretch, but a masterful ride by Pat Cosgrave saw the eventual winner take over with 100 metres yet to travel. The pacesetter immediately boxed back, but the final margin was a nose. Killer Collect was in front again one stride after the wire. "He flew the gates," said Cosgrave. "He's a talented horse but he's not straightforward – he's not a fan of kickback but he doesn't want to lead. I had to give Killer Collect weight and he'd had a run. It's not easy to produce a horse late on the dirt, but hopefully he'll improve a bit from tonight. He's still very immature, but he's got talent and I'm sure Bhupat will get it out of him." Cont. p9

NOOGOOL, (c, 2, Tonalist--Wild Roan, by Wild Rush) was slow to begin and soon raced in last out in the centre of the course to avoid kickback in this debut. At least seven lengths behind the field on the bend, he unleashed a sustained rally to blow past all comers a few strides from the line to win by 3/4 of a length. Stablemate Golden Redemption (Medaglia d'Oro) was second.

"I was thinking, turning in, that they weren't getting any further away," said pilot Andrew Slattery. "But he picked up well – he's a nice horse. I won't say it was a complete surprise, but with a fine, big horse, you wonder if they are mentally and physically strong enough to do it." The last reported foal of Wild Roan, Noogool is a half-brother to the multiple stakes-placed Wild Louis (Louis Quatorze), and seven other winners. Shady Well Stakes heroine and GI Frizette Stakes third Appleby Gardens (A.P. Indy) is under the third dam, Very Very Happy (Dancing Court). Sales history: $35,000 Ylg '23 KEESEP. Lifetime
