

HEADLINE HORSE: CURLIN'S JOURNALISM IMPRESSES IN LOS ALAMITOS FUTURITY

Journalism | Benoit

by Stefanie Grimm

Welcome to the Road to the Kentucky Derby, Journalism. Showcasing the same stalk-and-pounce ability that earned him a maiden win going just a 1/16 of a mile shorter last month, Journalism (Curlin) employed the same tactics Saturday night to upset a trio of Bob Baffert runners and take the GII Los Alamitos Futurity for Michael McCarthy and earn himself 10 points toward the first Saturday in May.

The least experienced runner in the field by starts made (tied with 26-1 longshot Mellencamp {Constitution} who exited the same debut race), the son of GSW and MGISP Mopotism didn't run until Oct. 27 when he placed third going six furlongs at Santa Anita. Stretched out to the mile at Del Mar, he reeled in late leader Rank (Honor A. P.) who also returned for the re-match in the Futurity Saturday still a maiden for Doug O'Neill. Supplemented into this field to run against the second and fourth-place finishes from last month's GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile, Journalism had to contend first and foremost with Gaming (Game Winner), the runner up to stablemate Citizen Bull (Into Mischief) at Del Mar and the 1-2 favorite along with 7-2 third choice in GISP Getaway Car (Curlin). Cont. ANOTHER WINNER IN JAPAN FOR OSCAR PERFORMANCE

by Bill Finley

Oscar Performance (Kitten's Joy) was an outstanding turf horse, winning four Grade I's on the grass. And he's been a quality stallion, with his progeny headlined by the likes of Grade I winner Trihari and four other graded winners.

Like most horses labeled 'turf sires,' Oscar Performance, who stands at Mill Ridge Farm, was always going to be up against it in a country where breeders and buyers aren't necessarily looking for grass horses. European buyers don't need to buy horses by American turf stallions when they have so many top sires of their own. Oscar Performance has done well enough that his stud fee has been raised to $45,000, but it was always going to take something special to happen for him to get into the upper tier of the stallion ranks. Cont. The federal court in the Western District of Kentucky Friday dismissed a class action lawsuit brought by a group of gamblers against trainer Bob Baffert over Medina Spirit's win and subsequent disqualification in the 2021 Kentucky Derby.

The top three in the wagering made all the running early as the field of five quickly sorted themselves out past the wire for the first time with Juan Hernandez letting Getaway Car go up front. From his outside post, Journalism settled back and enjoyed the view as Gaming and jockey Flavien Prat (still looking for that elusive stakes record win) stayed pinned in along the fence. Even as the quintet stayed relatively grouped together through opening fractions of :23.93 and :47.75, it was the clear the race was always going to be between the top three as Gaming stormed through a gap into the far turn to take a first crack at his stablemate. The pacesetter shook off the challenge and clung to command but now had threats on both sides as Journalism kicked on from the outside. Off the far turn three across for the lead, Getaway Car was determined in the five path but ultimately no match inside the final sixteenth for Journalism's late kick which brought him home a clear leader ahead of a strung-out field. Getaway Car turned the tables on Gaming while hanging onto second and relegating his stablemate to third.

"I thought it was great," said McCarthy. "Umberto (Rispoli) bounced out of there and put him in the game early. He found himself a little wide on the first turn, but he was always cruising up the backside. Around the three-eighths pole Umberto was asking him to pick it up and he was kind of slowly getting there. You could see it took him a bit to get his feet underneath him, but once he leveled off in the lane he was very good."

Of the decision to supplement the horse for $7,500 into the race, McCarthy added: "It was either something like this or the GII San Vicente at seven furlongs (Jan. 4 at Santa Anita). We gave this horse every opportunity not to run today, but he had two wonderful works and he was very cool and composed in the paddock. He's picking things up fast.”

Rispoli added: "He broke very well and was nice and relaxed outside the leader (Getaway Car). I started to wind him up on the turn. He's so smart and changed leads perfectly and then gave me a real nice finish”

Pedigree Note:

The Uncle Mo mare Mopotism, who sold for $1,050,000 to Don Alberto Corp out of FTKNOV in 2019 after earning nearly $900,000 on the track, has now produced a graded stakes winner from her very first foal. Journalism was a hit in the sales ring too, selling for $825,000 to Eclipse Thoroughbred Partners at FTSAUG last year though that sales number has now been eclipsed by his yearling Tapit half-brother who lit up the ring to the tune of $1.5m at the same sale to the Flying Dutchman earlier this year. The family received another timely update when Mopotism's full-sister Ruth put in an impressive winning debut effort at Gulfstream Friday for Todd Pletcher and owner/breeder Frank Batten who purchased second dam Peppy Rafaela for just $100,000 at KEEJAN in 2014. Journalism is the 64th individual graded/group winner for Hill 'n' Dale's top sire Curlin. Mopotism reported an Into Mischief filly this year and visited both Flightline and Tapit for a 2025 foal.

Oscar Performance | Sarah Andrew

Maybe that is going to happen after all. When Erika Endive won a Dec. 8 maiden race at Kyoto in Japan, she became the fourth Oscar Performance to win over there and kept her stallion's record perfect. Only four Oscar Performances have run in Japan and all four have won.

"To have Oscar Performances at 4-for-4 in a country that has some of the best turf racing in the world is beyond any sort of dream," said Mill Ridge's general manager Price Bell.

That doesn't mean that Japanese buyers are going to converge in large number at 2025 sales to buy sons or daughters of Oscar Performance, but it probably means they will at least take a second look at the catalogue page when coming across an Oscar Performance. That can only help.

"The game has become so international," Bell said. "Especially in the stallion game that we're trying to play we need as many markets as possible ready to buy up these horses. The Japanese have had tremendous success with American horses. If Oscar Performance can get known there and prosper there our commercial breeders will have a significant opportunity. We need to have as many markets and outlets as possible for them.”

The other winners by Oscar Performance in Japan are Your Destiny, a winner of five races, Oscar Brave, who also broke his maiden at first asking at Kyoto around this time last year, and Meiner Vision (Jpn), a two-time winner from 15 starts.

It’s likely that Erika Endive will be the best of the bunch. Bell’s father Headley bought her dam, Going Day (Daylami (IRE)) in 2004 for client George Strawbridge. Initially, she didn’t have a lot of success as a broodmare and Strawbridge was ready to move on. He placed her in the 2014 Keeneland November sale and Headley Bell bought her for himself for $85,000.

“Dad knew the mare, loved her as a foal and always loved the family,” Bell said. “When she became available, he wanted to take a shot. The family just blossomed but until Erika Endive came along you can’t say that Going Day was a very good investment.”

Erika Endive became the fourth winner in Japan for Oscar Performance

The Bell family, Headley, Price and Price’s mother Nancy, bred the horse and sold her at the 2023 Fasig-Tipton Saratoga sale for $235,000 . The buyer was George T. Racing. The filly is now owned by Masashiro Miki.

“We had another filly ready to go to Saratoga but she needed a little bit more time,” Bell said. “At the last minute we switched that filly with this filly and took her to Saratoga. We hoped to get $70,000 or $80,000 for her. People might ask why would you take a horse to Saratoga and just get $70,000 or $80,000?”

They got quite a bit more, but the bigger surprise was that she was bought by Japanese interests.

“The Japanese are huge supporters of Keeneland and huge supporters of OBS, but hadn’t really participated in the Saratoga sale,” Bell said. “Fasig-Tipton did a really big push to get a lot of Japanese to come. At this sale there were Japanese everywhere. Yet, this was the only horse they bought. It seems they like to experience something first and then participate more in follow-up years. I believe that will be the case.”

None of which means that the Mill Ridge team is content with Oscar Performance being labeled a turf sire. Red Carpet Ready (Oscar Performance) won three graded stakes on the dirt. Tumbarumba (Oscar Performance) was fourth in the GI Breeders’ Cup Dirt Mile and won the GIII Fred Hooper S. this year on the dirt for Wathnan Racing.

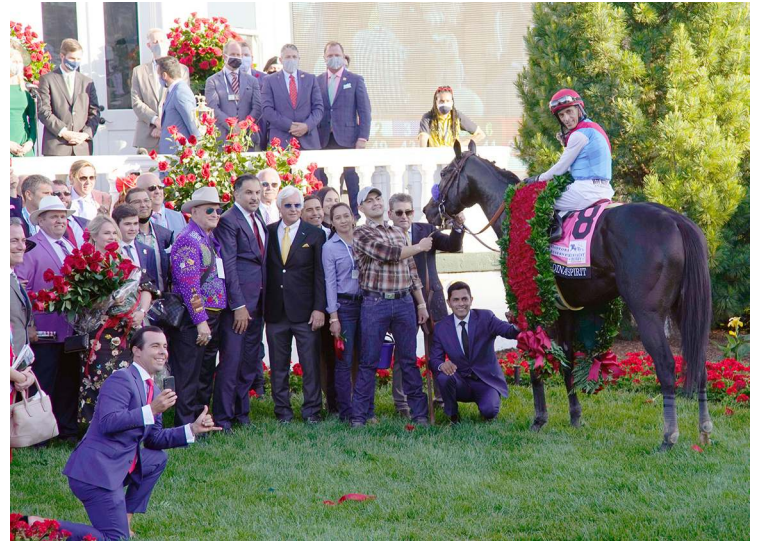

“I thought Tumbarumba’s run in the Dirt Mile was out of sight,” Bell said. “He was fourth in the Dirt Mile and not by a lot. He ran really well from an outside draw. He was bought by Wathnan Racing to win big races and I thought he justified that acquisition. If he goes on to win a big race that could be really interesting.”

They’d like nothing more than for an Oscar Performance to win a Grade I race on the dirt. In the meantime, it’s encouraging to see his horses do well on the turf. And the success in Japan has certainly raised his profile internationally.

“The American turf sire is still an underdog,” Bell said. “It’s not like Oscar Performance monopolizes the turf sire rankings because U.S. buyers have the opportunity to go buy European-sired horses and win turf races over here. But to have Oscar Performance punching in at the global turf sire level, that’s a whole new opportunity and a new market for commercial breeders breeding to Oscar Performance. To be 4-for-4 in Japan is incredible.”

FEDERAL COURT DISMISSES BAFFERT SUIT FILES BY BETTORS

Medina Spirit in the winner's circle after the 2021 Kentucky Derby
Horsephotos

by Dan Ross

The federal court in the Western District of Kentucky Friday dismissed a class action lawsuit brought by a group of gamblers against trainer Bob Baffert over Medina Spirit’s win and subsequent disqualification in the 2021 Kentucky Derby.

Paid off to the public as the race-day winner, Medina Spirit lost the Derby due to a failed post-race drug test. He tested positive for betamethasone, a controlled medication banned on race-day. Mandaloun, who had passed the post second, was promoted to first.

The plaintiffs, spearheaded by professional gambler Michael Beychok, argued that they would have won their wagers but for Medina Spirit’s “drug-induced win.” They requested relief including “ordering Defendants to pay to Plaintiffs and the Class the amount they would have won.”

On Friday, judge Claria Horn Boom dismissed the case. Baffert’s attorney, Craig Robertson, said that he was happy the court “recognized the case had no merit.”

“I’m happy that the Court correctly recognized that the claims of these disgruntled gamblers had zero merit,” he continued. “I’m most happy for Mr. Baffert and the fact that he can put this frivolous lawsuit behind him.” Cont.

A similar lawsuit filed by a group of bettors against both Baffert and Churchill Downs Inc. was dismissed earlier this year. The plaintiffs have 30 days to file an appeal in this case. Beychok said that while there's a remote possibility the plaintiffs will do so, he thought it unlikely.

"I don't regret bringing the lawsuit," said Beychok. "It was a longshot and it didn't come in for us," he said, adding that in cases like this, "the courts are always stacked against the bettors."

A Q & A WITH BILL KNAUF

by Bill Finley

Bill Knauf, a long-time executive at Monmouth Park, has been named the president and general manager of the non-profit entity the Maryland Jockey Club Inc. that is set to take control of Maryland's two major Thoroughbred tracks starting Jan. 1. The announcement of his hiring was made by the Maryland Thoroughbred Racetrack Authority (MTRA), a non-profit group modeled after the New York Racing Association, which operates racing at Aqueduct, Belmont and Saratoga. The Maryland tracks were transferred to the MTRA by The Stronach Group, which donated them to the state after years of operating at a loss.

His duties in Maryland will include overseeing the rebuild of Pimlico, made possible by a $400 million investment in the facility approved by the Maryland General Assembly and Gov. Wes Moore. Once Pimlico has been rebuilt, racing will cease at Laurel.

Knauf, 51, served as Vice President of Business Development at Monmouth Park and is a graduate of Tufts University and the University of Arizona's racetrack industry program.

Knauf sat down recently with the TDN to discuss his role at the Maryland tracks and his vision for the future.

TDN: Maryland racing has a lot of problems and challenges that need to be overcome going forward. But that also means you have the chance to be at the forefront of a renaissance in Maryland. How exciting is that?

BK: I am incredibly excited. For a racetrack operator to be able to build a racetrack or to be involved with building a new racetrack at Pimlico is incredible. It's a once-in-a-lifetime experience. Maryland racing has such great history. I grew up in upstate New York but I paid attention to Maryland racing and the Preakness was something I always paid attention to. I loved the race and I loved the history. Managing a Triple Crown race is a dream come true, as well. Everything combined made this an incredible opportunity that I could not turn down.

TDN: One of the biggest changes going forward is that the Maryland tracks will not go head-to-head with Colonial Downs when that track is running. Was it difficult to get your horsemen to agree to that?

BK: The horsemen here have been great. Some of those talks about taking off when Colonial is running started before I got here. Everybody is really on board with making the circuit work for everyone. The horsemen are completely in sync with us when it comes to reducing days and finding what the right amount of days is. Every year we are going to learn something. The horsemen are aligned with us. It's something I am familiar with from working at Monmouth because the horsemen there leased the racetrack. When we decided we had to reduce days it was natural to look at that July, August period because that's when Colonial ramps up and they wanted to run more days. The conversation between their horsemen and our horsemen was open and productive. I think this will be a great thing for the industry.

TDN: The Stronach Group cut purses going into 2024. Can you maintain the current purse levels or will further cuts take place?

BK: We will maintain them to start. Hopefully, we will turn around the wagering trend that has been happening in Maryland. We're going to do some things differently. We're going to do some marketing things differently. Stronach had three tracks and they went at it from a corporate standpoint. We will be more focused on on-site attendance. We will be trying to get people to come out to the track. We will look at what we can offer from a wagering standpoint. An example might be to focus on our 12 percent Pick 5 takeout. I think that's something that's been overshadowed but it is great for the bettors. I think our marketing plan moving forward will reflect that. Hopefully, we can turn things around and increase purses. But the purses starting the new year will be very comparable to what they were in 2024.

TDN: Clearly The Stronach Group was losing money operating these racetracks, otherwise they wouldn't have wanted to get out. Since the new entity is a non-profit there should be less pressure to turn a profit. That said, no one wants to lose money. How do make these racetracks profitable?

BK: There are a lot of changes operationally that we will look at. One, there have been two tracks and we will be going to one. That's a big plus. We will consolidate to one operation. We'll be at Laurel for the next two years and then in 2027 we will swing over to Pimlico and have just one racetrack. Albeit, we will also be adding a training center in that time frame. I think the consolidation will certainly help us to control costs. When you are losing money and you want to turn it around, that's not something that can be done immediately. You start with the little things. At Monmouth we were constantly working on new ways to generate revenue. You can only control costs so much. You have to run racing and be cognizant of track safety. That's not an area where we would ever cut corners. The answer then is to grow revenue. Whether it's sports wagering, an ADW platform, fixed odds, all these ancillary items can add up to additional revenue. That's how you do it, you claw your way back.

TDN: Next to Kentucky, Maryland might be the most passionate state in the country when it comes to its love of horses and racing. Have you sensed that, how important horse racing is to the general populous of the state?

BK: Absolutely. One of the things I will never forget is after I got the job and made my first road trip to Maryland I had to stop at one of the rest stops. As soon as I walked in I saw on the wall a huge mural of Thoroughbreds. The only other one they had was of a crab. Crabs and horses. That really hit home, that this is a horse state. Now that I have been here a couple of months I have had conversations not just with the horsemen but with the breeders. I am thoroughly impressed by how much passion there is in this state for the horse. You can feel it. There is a great history here. There is nobody in this state that doesn't want racing to succeed. It feels great because I know there aren't a lot of states out there that show the same sentiment. As we hopefully turn the racing around we hope that will spur on all the other components of the industry, including the breeding industry. We're going to have a new training center and that might attract new outfits into the state. I think the next two or three years will mark a reinvigoration of racing in this state.

TDN: You don't have slots or a casino, but at the same time the casino industry contributes to the purse account. The Stronach Group let the horsemen know they needed help and were hoping to get a slice of the casino revenue for themselves. Where do things stand with that? As the new operators, will you be looking to get some of that casino money?

BK: No. We're not going to get any of the slot money. That is earmarked just for purses. In the bill, the horseman will have certain obligations after 2027 if the non-profit cannot remain profitable. If we show a deficit the horsemen will have to assist us with that deficit.

TDN: The spacing of the Preakness has been a hot button issue for years. The Stronach Group came out publicly to express its desire to have more spacing between the Kentucky Derby and the Preakness. Fortunately or unfortunately, that never went anywhere. Will the new Maryland Jockey Club campaign for there to be more time between the Triple Crown races?

BK: I haven't had any conversations on this subject yet. When I was at Monmouth, I certainly heard a lot of chatter about the spacing of the races. We have not had any discussions concerning the spacing of the races. I am sure we will at some point. But I have no idea where that will go.

TDN: What changes can we expect when it comes to the wagering menu?

BK: Looking at their wagering menu since I've been here I think it's pretty solid. They have rolling multi-race wagers, which I think is important. I love the 12 percent Pick 5. That was one of my favorite bets at Monmouth and we made it a key focus. For me, I love those type of bets because once you've handicapped five races you are more prone to bet on the races individually. Maybe down the line and when I have a better feel for things, we might look at guaranteed pools on certain days. I mentioned fixed odds. I think we will look at implementing fixed odds wagering here. I am very familiar with it from my time at Monmouth. While it didn't really take off as of yet at Monmouth that has been because there has not been enough content as there could be in terms of tracks they can take. The players at Monmouth who were betting it loved the fact that they had the opportunity to lock in their prices and their bets weren't susceptible to any late odds drops.

Monmouth Park | Sarah Andrew

TDN: You had a long run at Monmouth, one of the nicest tracks in the country. How bittersweet was it to have to leave there?

BK: It really is. Great reflection was due because I started there at ground zero as a marketing assistant 26 years ago. I was so lucky to have such great people to learn from, starting with marketing. I worked with Bobby Kulina for a long time and also for Dennis Drazin and Bill Anderson. I had the primary responsibility of running the Breeders' Cup in 2007. A lot of memories have come flooding back. At the same time, I was extremely confident that this was the right move at the right time. As I learned more about what is going to happen here this just wasn't something I could turn down. Monmouth will always hold a special place in my heart. Now that we're not running in July and August I can hopefully get down there some next summer.

Pimlico | Horsephotos

TDN: I would imagine some people currently working at Laurel and Pimlico are nervous about their futures because a new management team is coming in. Do you anticipate a lot of personnel changes?

BK: We have actually carried over everybody from the existing Maryland Jockey Club over to 2025. We are going to roll with that. I am fortunate that the executive staff that I am working with here has many, many years of experience and are well respected around the industry. I didn't know any of them prior to getting here but I feel that since we all lived at racetracks all of our professional lives the transition has gone incredibly well. They've been unbelievable to work with. I feel right at home and I know there is a great team here. We will reshape the ideas of the new Maryland Jockey Club. Sometimes, there may have been different policies under the old administration. We will have a little more flexibility to try things out.

RUNNERS GET FINAL WORKS BEFORE PEGASUS PREVIEW DAY

Spendthrift Farm LLC's Tuscan Sky (Vino Rosso) was among several horses Saturday morning tuning up for Pegasus World Cup Preview card held next Saturday at Gulfstream Park.

Trained by Hall of Famer Todd Pletcher, the 3-year-old breezed a half-mile at Palm Beach Downs in preparation for the GIII Harlan's Holiday Stakes, a prep for the $3 million GI Pegasus World Cup Invitational Jan. 25 at Gulfstream.

Tuscan Sky, who is coming off a runner-up finish in the Discovery Stakes at Aqueduct Nov. 3, turned in the fastest clocking (:47.89) at the distance (1/24). He worked in company and finished on even terms with Spendthrift Farm LLC's Major Dude (Bolt d'Oro), an entrant for Saturday's GII Fort Lauderdale Stakes, a prep for the GI Pegasus World Cup Turf Invitational.

"Major Dude and Tuscan Sky breezed together. Both went well and both have been training well," Pletcher said.

Wathnan Racing's Tumbarumba (Oscar Performance), who is coming off a fourth-place finish in the GI Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile at Del Mar, breezed an easy five furlongs in 1:02.75 (9/12) for the Harlan's Holiday at Palm Meadows.

Others slated to run in the Harlan's Holiday include: Saffie Joseph Jr.-trained Digital Ops (Nyquist); Bill Mott-trained Rocket Can (Into Mischief), who captured the GIII Holy Bull and finished second in the GII Fountain of Youth at Gulfstream last year; and Bobby Dibona-trained Steal Sunshine (Constitution), the winner of the 2023 GII Gulfstream Park Mile.

Whisper Hill Farm's Grand Sonata (Medaglia d'Oro) also represented Pletcher on the Palm Beach Downs worktab while preparing for a scheduled start in the Fort Lauderdale. The 5-year-old, who most recently finished off the board in the GI Breeders' Cup Turf, was timed in :49.91 (8/24) for a leisurely half mile. Grand Sonata captured the GII Turf Cup Stakes at Kentucky Downs prior to the Breeders' Cup.

Fellow Hall of Famers Mark Casse and Shug McGaughey will also be involved in the Fort Lauderdale. Casse-trained Win for the Money (Mohaymen), who finished off the board in the GI Breeders' Cup Mile after capturing the GI Woodbine Mile, and McGaughey-trained Fort Washington (War Front), who captured the GIII Monmouth Stakes, are entered to start.

Pletcher was also pleased Saturday with Team Valor International's Bless My Stars (Saf) (Gimmethgreenlight {Aus}), who breezed a half mile in :49.89 (6/24) and is scheduled to make her U.S. debut in Saturday's Suwannee River Stakes, a mile turf stakes for fillies and mares that will serve as a prep for the GII Pegasus World Cup Filly & Mare Turf.

"We've been getting her acclimated and she's settled in well," Pletcher said.

GISW MIA MISCHIEF'S FIRST FOAL WARMED UP FOR UNVEILING IN HOT SPRINGS

6th-OP, $110K, Msw, 2yo, f, 6f, 3:50 p.m. ET.

AVERY'S MISCHIEF (Curlin) makes the races for Stonestreet and trainer Steve Asmussen. The homebred is the first foal for GI Humana Distaff Stakes heroine Mia Mischief (Into Mischief), who the farm made the fourth highest return--at $2.4 million--when they bid successfully during the 2019 Fasig-Tipton November Sale. Earning over $1.2 million on the racetrack, this dam certainly took to Oaklawn's course, as she netted a pair of black-types there and never finished worse than second over six attempts.

Also set for her first start is Barbie's Dream (Authentic), who was bred by H. Allen Poindexter and will carry his colors. The John Ortiz trainee is out of SP Kid Majic (Lemon Drop Kid), who is responsible for 10 foals, seven to race and four winners. Among them is dual Canadian champion Miss Mischief (Into Mischief), SP Mind Out (Tapit) and the unraced dam of MGISP Rowayton (Into Mischief). Kid Majic's half-siblings include GISW J P's Gusto (Successful Appeal) and the dam of champion older dirt female Letruska (Super Saver). Barbie's Dream claims among her extended female family members champion 3-year-old filly Proud Spell (Proud Citizen). TJCIS PPS

Sacrosanct maintained his flawless record by the closest margin of his career when winning the New York Stallion Series Great White Way Stakes.

A winner at first-asking Aug. 21 at Saratoga, he parlayed that unveiling into a 12-length tour-de-force in the Sept. 22 New York-bred restricted Bertram F. Bongard Stakes and secured his third victory in a row last out Oct. 27 at this venue in the Sleepy Hollow Stakes.

Sacrosanct (inside) | Chelsea Durand

Stalking the early pace and pressing from the outside behind :22.30 and :45.01 early splits, he made his move on the turn to take a narrow advantage nearing the quarter pole as that frontrunner threw out a white flag. Bracing for the oncoming challenge of National Identity, the pair locked horns to the wire where Sacrosanct got the best of the photo. Smilensaycheese held on to third.

“They set an honest pace. He broke maybe a step slow--waiting down there [inside] for everyone to load--but Manny [Franco] gave him a really good head's up ride to tip him to the outside of the pacesetter,” said Dustin Dugas, Brad Cox's assistant trainer. “They were setting an honest pace and when the runner-up came up to him, he really dug in. I was really happy with the horse.”

Manny Franco, who rode the horse since his debut at Saratoga, was thrilled with the progression he's seen since then, adding, “This is a nice horse, since the beginning when I got on him in Saratoga. We knew we had a great New York-bred, so he didn't disappoint.”

Sacrosanct is the most recent to the races for Vibrato, whose second foal Navit (Lord Nelson) earned black-type in Puerto Rico, and her first North American Listed winner. Their dam has two colts in the wings--a yearling Instagram and a 2024 Honest Mischief. She was bred back to the latter for 2025. Vibrato is a daughter of multiple Listed winner Cuff Me (Officer), who earned both of her stakes win on the New York circuit. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

After first-crop sire Honest Mischief took home the colt version of the New York Stallion Series Stakes on the Big A card in the race prior with Sacrosanct, it was his filly Stone Smuggler who completed the sweep in the NYRA state bred sister race on Saturday afternoon.

The 2-year-old debuted a well-beaten runner-up behind 'TDN Rising Star' With the Angels (Omaha Beach) at the Spa in late August, but took to the slop successfully in the Lady Finger Stakes at Finger Lakes Sept. 23. Stone Smuggler was last seen running third in the Key Cents Stakes in Ozone Park Nov. 17.

Backed as the 5-2 second choice here, the bay exited the outside gate with spunk, but the adept Jose Lezcano saved her strength by settling midpack up the backstretch. As the scramble ensued up on the engine, the juvenile steadily worked her way towards the front in the three path around the far turn. Stone Smuggler took the lead with a furlong left, kept to the task and got the money.

“She really ran well. I was a little concerned about the seven-eighths with her,” said Jorge Abreu. “I didn't know if she could go that far--but she did it. I was a little bit concerned [about the outside post] but the race had a lot of speed inside of her, so that worked out well. Cont.”

Coal Battle fought to the wire, but secured his points for the Kentucky Derby trail en route to winning the Listed Springboard Mile at Remington Park Friday night.

The 6-1 shot broke his maiden at first-asking but found no success in his two turf starts after it. Returning to the main track at Delta Downs last out Nov. 8 in a muddy edition of the Jean Lafitte Stakes, and claimed his first black-type by 2 1/2 lengths.

Taken back and settled near the rear of the field early, Coal Battle tracked the early pace set by Speed King as he rolled through :23.93, :47.46, and 1:12.21 splits. Beginning his rally from two off the rail before being swung out four wide in the stretch, he closed the gap relentlessly as that longtime leader gamely fought off challenges. He ultimately overhauled Speed King in the final yards to win by a half-length and it was five lengths back to Dominant Spirit in third.

With his victory here, the son of Coal Front picked up 10 qualifying points on the road to the 2025 Kentucky Derby.

“[Coal Battle] broke his maiden impressively,” said winning trainer Lonnie Briley. “He had a lot of trouble in the million dollar race at Kentucky Downs when he finished fourth. And then he won the Jean Lafitte. The owner [Norman Stables of Thomasville, Ala.] wanted to bring him here. He had run in this race before but never won it.”

Briley added that the next race on the books is the GIII Southwest Stakes at Oaklawn Park Jan. 25 followed by the GII Rebel Stakes. Should Coal Battle pass the test in those two, there could be a start in the GI Arkansas Derby in his future.

The victor is the first to the races for Wolfblade, herself Listed-placed on the West Virginia circuit. She has produced a yearling colt named Golden Mane (Goldencents) since then, and her 2024 Mo Tom foal was stillborn. The dam went to Frosted for 2025. If it's Louisiana Champions Day, that means it's Touchuponastar day and the 5-year-old did not disappoint in winning the Champions Day Classic for the third consecutive season.

Drawn widest while facing four others, the gelding poked his head in front with a circuit to travel and lobbed them along through a half-mile in :49.48 while tracked along by Benoit. Held together on the turn by Tim Thornton, he remained under a double hammerlock while opening at will into the final furlong and cruised home untouched. The paid workout--his 10th added-money success--took his career earnings past the $1-million threshold.

Touchuponastar | Hodges Photography

After making this contest his sixth victory from seven outings last season, Touchuponastar had added another pair of restricted stakes wins this season while finishing runner-up in the local GII New Orleans Classic in March and was just touched off in the GIII Steve Sexton Mile in May. In his lone try since, Touchuponastar was third in defense of his title in the Nov. 8 Delta Mile Stakes.

From the family of sires Sky Mesa and Bernstein, Touchuponastar has a yearling full-brother, a weanling half-sister by Maxfield--both foaled in Louisiana--and his dam was most recently covered by Flightline. Click for the Equibase.com chart.

The bay patiently waited for her cue along the fence up the backstretch as the leader tried to increase her margin. Around the far turn, See You Around was like a loaded pistol and entering the lane she started to find her best stride. Jockey Irad Ortiz timed the late blitz perfectly and his mount took the prize in the final jump.

See You Around | Lauren King

See You Around raced in France starting as a juvenile under the care of trainer Philippe Sogorb and capped her year as a close runner-up in the Prix Zeddaan Stakes at Deauville that November. Her 3-year-old campaign included a score in the Prix Aymeri de Mauleon Stakes at Toulouse in late April and she turned in a respectable fifth in the G1 French 1000 Guineas at ParisLongchamp in May. After running third in the G3 Prix de Lieurey Stakes at Deauville Aug. 15, the filly's U.S. debut saw her finishing sixth for Christophe Clement in the GIII Pebbles Stakes at Aqueduct Nov. 8.

"She's [See You Around] been training like a very good filly," Christophe Clement's son and assistant, Miguel Clement, said. "We were a touch disappointed with the Pebbles. The trip and the situation that day probably compromised our chances a little bit. From day one she was a very good filly in France, and the same has been true here. She was able to put it all together today."

A half-sister to French Group 1 stakes heroine Tie Black (Ire) (Machiavellian), the winner's dam is responsible for 2-year-old filly Diamantine (Ire) (Kodiac {GB}), who debuted this past summer in France. Besotted's last registered foal is a current yearling colt by Ghaiyyath (Ire). Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

Cugino, who rolled to a front-running win in the June 1 Audubon Stakes at Churchill Downs, ended a two-race drought with a dramatic win under Irad Ortiz Jr.

Most recently second behind 'TDN Rising Star' MGSW & GISP Deterministic (Liam's Map) in Aqueduct's GIII Hill Prince Stakes Nov. 9, the 8-5 second choice in the field of 11 saved ground in seventh early under a snug hold. He advanced on the far turn and was guided off of the rail turning for home. The pair found a seam and was angled four-wide to take aim at even-money favorite Silent Heart who had assumed command from the pacesetter 81-1 long shot Fidelightcayut (Leofric). Racing to the inside of the rallying Full Nelson, Cugino's turn of foot proved decisive as the pair picked up Silent Heart late and Cugino edged out Full Nelson by a neck.

Irad Ortiz Jr., who won five races on the card, said, "It feels great just to have the opportunity to ride these kinds of horses, nice horses like today and all week. I like to ride any horses, claiming horses, I don't really care. I'm just happy to ride."

Winning trainer Shug McGaughey added, "He got him in position on the first turn. I liked the way he was able to wait, and when the hole opened, he [Cugino] really kicked."

His dam Adorable Miss gained both of her stakes wins over this turf course in 2017.

when earning a Beyer Speed Figure of 92, beat a quintet of Louisiana-bred juveniles in his appearance here. Ridden by Colby Hernandez, he stalked Tdz Hint of Power and Louisiana Jess (Vekoma) to their outside before taking over at the three-sixteenths pole. Hay Jude finished strongly to grab second, two lengths behind the 7-10 favorite. Trainer Dallas Stewart reached his 1,000th career win with Smoken Wicked's effort here.

"It's a special win for special people," Stewart said. "I'm very fortunate to train for great people. I want to thank everyone who I ever trained any horse for, that they gave me a chance. That's what it's all about."

He added, "You need a lot of support in this game. I've got a great group of people behind me that have worked for me for a long time; I've got my beautiful family. You've got to work with good people that support you. You've got to get your butt up out of bed and go to work, no matter the good days, the bad days. I've done that and it's been good to me."

Smoken Wicked remains the sole winner from Bobby's Wicked One's first crop. He has a yearling full-brother named Wildly Wicked and his winning dam had a full-sister to him earlier this year. Street Smoke was bred to Carpe Diem for this term.

The clear pari-mutuel alternative to the chalk, Blue Fire hit the ground running and led a tightly bunched group down the back as Secret Faith tracked deep on the course. The latter loomed three wide approaching the quarter pole and looked like she was going to race away under tender handling from C. J. Fashionably Fab (outside) | Michael Burns

Fashionably Fab picked up her 10th lifetime win in a Lar Prevoyante Stakes thriller at Woodbine.

A winner of the GIII Ontario Matron Stakes two back Sept. 14 and opening her 2024 season a neck victorious in the GIII Belle Mahone Stakes June 1, she was last seen running fifth in the GIII Maple Leaf Stakes Nov. 9. Bet down to 1-5 favoritism, she watched the race unfold from fifth after brushing with a foe after the jump. Under a tight hold entering the first bend, and short on racing room as the field closed ranks passing the quarter pole, she loomed the clear danger as daylight emerged at the top of the stretch. Duelling with Fortyfiveventy on the grandstand side, it took a photo to separate them on the wire with Fashionably Fab getting the better of the bob.

“On paper, the outside horse [Hurricane Clair] was going to be the only fear that we had,” said winning rider David Moran. “I was hoping that he would leave the gate faster than me and get in front of me--that didn’t happen. But when you're on the best horse in the race, you ride it like the best horse in the race. Turning for home, when you have horse, them small holes become giant holes. I thought she was going to win easy, and she kind of waited on the other one.”

The victress is her dam's second runner to claim black type behind multiple Listed placed Souper Flashy. Their half-sibling Flashinthesky (Sky Mesa) is placed while the 2-year-old gelding Run Matteo Run (Instagram) has not started. Flashy's Legacy most recently produced a 2024 filly by Mendelssohn and went to Tiz the Law for 2025. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

Heavily favored Nic's Style saved her best for last, as she exploded through the final furlong to record her second straight win at stakes level in the City of Ocala Stakes.

Allowed to find her footing as the field met up with the track proper, the inexpensive OBS October yearling purchase was patiently handled by Junior Alvarado and was shuffled back to fourth, but in touch, entering the turn. Given the hurry-up about three furlongs out, she was still in behind horses at the top of the lane, but kicked into another gear with an inside rally and stretched clear.

Nic's Style made one start each at two and three, winning those two races by a combined 16 1/2 lengths before switching to this barn when her former trainer Ralph Nicks announced his retirement earlier this year.

The facile winner of a first-level Saratoga allowance Aug. 17, the bay was a good second to Ways and Means (Practical Joke) in the Sept. 29 GII Gallant Bloom Stakes and validated 1-2 favoritism when last seen in the Pumpkin Pie Stakes at Aqueduct Nov. 3.

Glee secured her second lifetime black type victory in the Toby Keith Stakes at Remington Park Friday night.

A dominating winner of the local E. L. Gaylord Memorial Stakes two back Sept. 29, she was last seen finishing fifth Oct. 25 at Keeneland in the Myrtlewood Stakes. Content to chase the leading pair from third, the overwhelming 1-5 favorite rallied at the quarter pole and took command. She drew off by 10 3/4 lengths as Tapitures Actor held on for second and La Camelia came on to claim third.

"I figured she'd be fine," Elliott said of Glee's first try around two turns. "It was as easy as when I rode her before here [winning the E.L. Gaylord Stakes by 15 lengths on Sept. 29 at 6-1/2 furlongs]."

Glee is the last registered offspring for Red Tabby, who was last bred to Tacitus in 2023 but produced no foal from that pairing. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

Miss Code West | Dustin Orona Photography

Now a nine-time winner and off the board only twice in her career, the daughter of Code West was last seen Oct. 18 at this venue winning the state-bred restricted Oklahoma Classics Distaff Handicap by four lengths. She was a well-beaten second in the Listed Remington Park Oaks two back Sept. 29 behind 9 3/4-length winner MSW & GSP Alpine Princess (Classic Empire), who most recently missed winning the GIII Comely Stakes by a head Nov. 30.

Hammered at the windows like she could not lose, she was the 1-9 dominating favorite for the betting public and did not disappoint her backers. Stalking from third after the jump, she rallied to take control through the final bend and had a clear advantage entering the stretch. From there, the question was 'how far?' as she strolled home easily by 8 1/4 lengths over Letta's Legacy and Devious Diva in third.

The victress is a half-sister to a couple Oklahoma staples in J B's Legacy and Inca Empire. She has a winning elder full-brother named Missing Code and a 2-year-old full-sister named Miss Code. The dam has had two more full-siblings, both fillies, in 2023 and 2024, but broke her five year streak when visiting Popularity for 2025. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

MY LIL PUNKY (f, 2, Outwork--Translator, by Posse) broke her maiden two back Oct. 12 sprinting at Keeneland and before that ran second to 'TDN Rising Star' GSW Muhimma (Munnings) Sept. 20 at Churchill Downs. In the allowance conditions for the first time, she'd run seventh last out Nov. 30 in the GII Golden Rod Stakes, My Lil Punky was the fastest to the lead and never looked back through :21.83 and a half in :45.03. The 5-1 shot was two lengths best over Grace On Grace (Jersey Town) at the wire. The most recent to the races for Translator, the winner has a pair of younger half-sisters in the wings--a yearling by Shancelot and a 2024 Known Agenda. Their dam went to Midshipman for 2025. SCARLET POPPY (IRE) (f, 3, Night of Thunder {Ire}--Bulrushes {GB}, by Byron {GB}), winless in her first four tries, broke through with a convincing 2 1/4-length win during The Belmont at Aqueduct meet Oct. 25. Under Junior Alvarado, the 2-1 favorite here was patiently handled in fifth while racing in the two path. She commenced her bid on the second turn before producing a decisive three-wide stretch rally to wear down Singalong Kayla (Wicked Tune) in the final sixteenth. Her unraced dam, a half-sister to English Group 1-placed Tariq (Kyllachy {GB}), has produced Snazzy Jazzy (Ire) (Red Jazz), GSW-Fr, SW & GSP-Eng, $366,886; Admiral Rous (Ire) (Henrythenavigator), GSP-Fr, $106,674; Ten Year Ticket (Ire) (Rock of Gibraltar {Ire}), SW-Ire, $782,585; and Ross Castle (Ire) (Bushranger {Ire}), GSW-Fr, $255,142. BRODEUR (c, 2, Nyquist--Tea Time {MSW, $279,966}, by Pulpit) finished sixth on debut Nov. 16 at Churchill Downs behind 'TDN Rising Star' Guns Loaded (Gun Runner). Sent away in this second jump as a 12-1 shot, he was sent forward to set a pressured pace in :22.04 and a half in :45.51 over a sealed muddy track. Turning away the first challenger, he braced for the charge from even-money favorite El Prestigio (Practical Joke) entering the final furlong but would not be denied in the end, winning by a head. Brodeur is his dam's most recent to the races after she came up barren to Charlatan in 2023 and aborted her 2024 Justify. She went to both Corniche and Good Magic for 2025. HOWLING WIND (f, 2, Solomini--Typhoon Teri, by Stormy Atlantic) finished a distant eighth of nine over a sloppy track she seemed to struggle with on seven-furlong debut Nov. 22 and was accordingly sent off as the 29-1 second-longest price on the board. Scratched down into the rail draw, Howling Wind was aggressively ridden early on by Lane Luzzi and took her six rivals into the turn. Bearing out despite her rider's best efforts entering the stretch, she never relinquished the advantage and held sway through the final eighth of a mile to best Pretty Magical (Good Magic) by a length, with odds-on Miss Tiramisu (Name Changer) a nose back in third. Howling Wind is out of a half-sister to SW & GSP A Freud of Mama (Freud) and to In Spite of Mama (Speightstown), whose three winners include this year's GII Eight Belles Stakes heroine My Mane Squeeze (Audible), MSW Rotknee (Runhappy) and the progressive Mama's Gold (Bolt d'Oro), upset winner of the Empire Classic and an impressive allowance scorer Friday at the Big A. The stakes-winning third dam Nothing Special (Tejabo) produced GI Jockey Club Gold Cup victor Haynesfield (Speightstown). POLYTHENE PAM (f, 2, Violence--Love Hurts, by Tiznow), who debuted as a 7-1 shot here, raced out wide in the middle of the field up the backstretch as the pace was set by Prime and Ready (More Than Ready). The juvenile had some work to do heading into the far turn, but the view started to look promising by the top of the lane. The hooded Polythene Pam was under a drive down the center of the course in the final furlong and briefly dueled with favorite Rio Del Sol (American Freedom). Showing her mettle, the filly dug down and found more to graduate by 1 3/4 lengths over the chalk. The winner's dam is responsible for a yearling filly by Tom's d'Etat and she foaled a filly by McKinzie Feb. 5. AIN'T NO DISCO (c, 2, Catalina Cruiser--First Tomoe, by First Samurai), who closed ground when third at Churchill Downs Nov. 16, prevailed in his fourth attempt to win a six-furlong maiden race. Racing at this venue for the first time, the 3-1 third choice was able to sit much closer to the pacesetter than he had at both Churchill Downs and Keeneland. Chasing Commendatore (Twirling Candy) through an opening quarter in :22.83, Ain't No Disco seized command on the turn while three-wide and edged clear thereafter to register an 1 3/4-lengths score over the slow-starting Gosger (Nyquist)'s late bid. VASSIMO (c, 2, Nyquist--Bsharpsonata {MGSW & MGISP, $595,010}, by Pulpit) worked four furlongs in :49 3/5 (12/25) out of the gate at Palm Beach Downs Dec. 6 and was off at odds of 2-1 in his debut run for Todd Pletcher at Gulfstream Park Saturday. Drawn widest of all in post nine going a one-turn mile, he stalked the leaders in a three-wide third through an opening quarter in :24.11. The bay hit the gas to take a narrow advantage on the far turn and was quickly joined by the slightly favored fellow firster Rapture (Uncle Mo) as they approached the top of the stretch. Rapture made a bold bid at him nearing the eighth pole, but Vassimo was still going strong, and turned that foe back to win by a length. The talented Bsharpsonata, also responsible for Vigilante (Tiznow), GSP, $218,377; and a yearling colt by Silver State, was bred to Epicenter for 2025. ‘IT HASN’T SUNK IN’ - MEET THE YOUNG BREEDER WHO TURNED 8K INTO 230K AT GOFFS

John Bourke: “Not in our wildest dreams did we think we'd get €230,000 for her.” | Syndicates Racing

By Brian Sheerin

If you don't know the name, chances are that you will recognise the face. And if all else fails, you'll definitely spot the jackets. There is no mistaking those jackets.

Through his association with marketing maestro Jack Cantillon, John Bourke has become one of the most recognisable faces on the sales circuit, be it in the illuminous yellow for Far Above (Ire) or the fluorescent green of Bouttemont (Ire).

But there's more strings to Bourke's bow than dealing with cheaper stallions, as he proved at Goffs when selling Stakes-producing mare Ambiguous (GB) in foal to Mehmas (Ire) for a cool €230,000.

That transaction, which was carried out under the banner of his family's Lackagh Spring Stud, represented a €222,000 jump from the €8,000 that the Godolphin Flying Start graduate parted with to secure Ambiguous from Godolphin at the same November Breeding Stock Sale at Goffs just three years previously. LUCKY VEGA'S WITHIN THE LAW MOVES INTO GOLDEN SLIPPER CONTENTION

Within The Law (Aus) (Lucky Vega {Ire}) gained her second stakes victory in the 1000-metre R. Listed Inglis Nursery at Randwick on Saturday. Trained by Bjorn Baker, the daughter of Contract Signed (Aus) (Dundeel {NZ}) quickened up nicely in the final stages and held off Cobra Club (Aus) (Cool Aza Beel {NZ}) by just under a half-length (video) and is now under consideration for the G1 Golden Slipper.

“It has been a good week, and a great job by Bjorn and Darby [Racing] and the team to find these races,” Baker's racing manager Luke Hilton said. Owner Darby Racing Syndications also own runner-up Cobra Club, who is trained by Gai Waterhouse and Adrian Bott. Former Darby Racing runner She Will Reign (Aus) (Manhattan Ran {Aus}) used the Inglis Nursery as a springboard to win the G1 Golden Slipper in 2017.

“We sent her to Melbourne the first time and had to travel, and she got away with it down there and did a really good job. She has done nothing but improve since she has come home. That was a really tough win today because she is not very big, but she showed a lot of heart.” Cont. p8

Unsurprisingly, a certain Mr Cantillon had a role to play in Bourke bagging what was then a barren mare with no major upside. However, the emergence of Marine Wave (Ire) (Harry Angel {Ire}) as a bona fide Listed performer in the pedigree led to Amo Racing swooping for the 12-year-old mare through Alex Elliott at Goffs last month.

Bourke, 30, reflected, "It's actually only now that, when I click on the sales result that it hits home what actually happened. Those results don't come along too often so it hasn't really sunk in. It's actually a funny story as to how I got her in the first place. I left the Flying Start in 2020 and went gung-ho buying mares with a couple of good friends but we didn't have any great luck. So the following year, I was adamant that I wouldn't buy a barren mare. I wanted a nice mare with a good cover that could help get the farm at home off the ground."

He continued, "I remember underbidding One Spirit (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) at €20,000. Her Earthlight (Ire) foal went on to make a lot of money the following year and her daughter One For Bobby (Ire) (Frankel {GB}) won a Group 3 race as well. So that was one that got away. Then we underbid another mare in foal to Blue Point (Ire) and that foal made a lot of money as well.

"It looked like we weren't going to get anything at that stage. But I can remember being familiar with Ambiguous because she was actually booked to visit Far Above. That was when she was under the Rabbah banner but, needless to say, she didn't end up going to Far Above and ended up being in the sale. I can remember Jack coming to me and telling me that I simply had to buy Ambiguous." Cont. p4

Cantillon is nothing if not persuasive. But there was another larger-than-life stallion man involved in providing Bourke with the courage to abandon his one simple criteria when it came to sourcing a mare.

"I can remember Bernard Condron was auctioneering and, because she was a barren mare, I was getting watery at around seven grand. Micheál Orlandi was sitting in front of us and Jack grabbed my iPad, ran down to him, and asked for a free nomination to Kuroshio (Aus) if I bought the mare. In fairness to Micheál, he took the iPad and wrote, 'one free nom to Kuroshio' on it so I went once more and got her bought at eight grand.

"A good friend of mine, bloodstock agent Nico Archdale, was standing beside me at the time. He'd never been involved in a mare before but, I turned to him and said, 'you're the luckiest man in the world, you may take a leg,' and he did. Meanwhile, Eoin Fives [Ballylinch Stud] came sprinting over to us from the other side of the sales complex asking could he take a leg as well so it was divided up there and then."

Contrary to how the story goes, this wasn't a case of a few guys standing at the roulette wheel hoping that lady luck would look favourably on them. There was a certain level of calculated risk involved here.

Ambiguous may have been barren but she had produced foals previously and boasted a strong pedigree being a sister to five 100-plus rated runners, including Group 1 winners Alpha Delphini (GB) (Captain Gerrard {Ire}) and Tangerine Trees (GB) (Mind Games {GB}). On top of that, her Kuroshio half-sister Jurius (GB) was not too bad, either, given she scored at Group 2 level, making that mating with the Starfield Stud resident a no-brainer at the time.

But it was the little known Harry Angel filly, that would later be known as the Listed-winning Marine Wave, who would do the most for the pedigree. And, in many ways, the Richard Fahey-trained four-year-old put Bourke and his partners in Ambiguous in a position where there was little choice but to sell.

He explained, "On the Darley notes, you could see that her Harry Angel was coming along and all of the gradings were good. That gave me a little bit more confidence. Meta Osborne was very good as well. We had a 20-minute conversation about getting the mare in foal on the day that I bought her and she gave me some brilliant advice.

"But we could never have expected Marine Wave to come out and do what she did. I actually went up to Richard Fahey at the Premier Yearling Sale at Goffs this year to track how she was getting on and he turned to me and said, 'I think you know more about this filly than I do!' I've been following Marine Wave from the very start and remember thinking that it could be potentially life-changing if she could pick up black-type." Cont. p5

Marine Wave did exactly that by placing in four Listed contests for Fahey. But it was at Pontefract in August, when she ran out a cosy winner of the Flying Fillies' Stakes over 6f, where she notched that all-important black-type success.

"The big day came at Pontefract," Bourke remembers. "That was wild. I was actually going to the day two session of a friend's wedding and we were sitting down having a warm-up pint watching the race on my phone. My whole body started shaking when she crossed the line! A few of the lads that were there didn't quite understand what was going on. I had to explain to them how big it was. Not even 30 seconds after she crossed the line, we had an offer in for Ambiguous. It really was a dream result."

Marine Wave | Racingphotos.com

He added, "I've always been told that the first money you're offered is the best money. I actually learned the hard way to always accept the first offer you get. We had a horse in training a few years ago and she finished fourth behind Love (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) in a fillies' maiden at the Curragh. The offers started to come in but we got a bit cocky and thought we could double our money if she won a maiden. What happened? We ended up getting her claimed for eight grand at Fairyhouse two years later.

"So that was always in the back of my mind but I knew how important that Listed race was in the pedigree. I also knew how hard it would be for me to find a mare like Ambiguous again. I spoke to Roger O'Callaghan one day and, for any young person in the industry, he's just a brilliant person to give advice. He actually told me not to sell the mare, that I would find it very difficult to replace her.

"But he told me that, if I really did want to sell her, I should sell her off the back of people seeing the Minzaal (Ire) colt foal out of her because he was so nice. Unfortunately, the Minzaal had a drop in his foot just a few days before the sale, but I have to say, Goffs did a wonderful job with the mare. She had 50-plus shows and all the right people looked at her. Not in our wildest dreams did we think we'd get €230,000 for her."

The sale of Ambiguous provided Bourke with something of a tonic after what he openly admits to being one of the most difficult years of his life following the death of close friends Ed Prendergast and Michael Byrne. Both men, who were deeply involved in racing and bloodstock, died separately in tragic circumstances.

Bourke said, "They were very close friends of mine so Ambiguous selling provided us all with a bit of a lift at the end of what was a very tough 2024. I had been trading away in mares with Ed since the early days and he had a big part to play in the whole thing."

Bourke is a man who wears many hats [or even jackets!]. Along with dabbling in breeze-up horses, foal pinhooks, working part-time with Syndicates. Racing and breeding from his own mares, he is studying for his Masters in Sports Management at the University College Dublin. He keeps an open mind with regards to the future but safe to say that his family-run Lackagh Spring Stud is gaining as much recognition as he is.

"After I came off the Flying Start, Covid hit. I had a few jobs lined up abroad at the time but obviously they didn't happen," he explains. "I remember saying at the time, 'do you know what, let's try and get our home place up and running.' We've gradually improved the facilities at home. My Dad has been talking about retiring for a while now but I don't think he ever truly believed that what happened at Goffs was really possible. I think the sale of Ambiguous might get him over the line to retire and, if he does, please God he can come home and help me."

IBERIAN (IRE) (c, 3, Lope De Vega {Ire}--Bella Estrella {Ire} {SW-Ire}, by High Chaparral {Ire}), last year's G2 Champagne Stakes winner who had undergone wind surgery since finishing down the field in the G1 Prix Jean Prat at Deauville in July, was shuffled to last of the quartet after the initial stages. Showing his familiar acceleration to get to We Never Stop (Ire) (Cotai Glory {GB}) with a furlong remaining, the 2-1 second favourite overcame that rival close home for a short-head success. The winner is the second foal out of the listed-winning Bella Estrella, a full-sister to the G3 St Simon Stakes scorer and G1 Oaks third High Heeled (Ire) and half to the dam of Just The Judge (Ire) (Lawman {Fr}) who captured the G1 Irish 1,000 Guineas and G1 E. P. Taylor Stakes. Her unraced 2-year-old full-brother to the winner named Bodicus (Ire) was a 1.1million gns purchase by Sumbe at the 2023 Tattersalls October Book 1, while her yearling colt by No Nay Never doubled that when fetching 2.2million gns as the second-highest-priced colt at this year's renewal of that auction after selling to Godolphin. SADDADD (IRE) (c, 2, Pinatubo {Ire}--Talmada {SW & GSP-Eng, GISP-Can, $197,094}, by Cape Cross {Ire}), sent off the 8-15 favourite, raced towards the rear throughout the early stages. Taking command approaching the furlong marker, the newcomer stretched clear to record an emphatic 2 3/4-length success from Royal Favour (GB) (Hard Spun) and become his first-crop sire's 22nd winner. Cont. p7

The dam, who captured the Listed John Musker Stakes and was second in the GI E. P. Taylor Stakes and G2 Middleton Stakes, has already produced the listed-placed sprinter Saleymm (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) and the yard's smart 3-year-old colt Almaqam (GB) (Lope De Vega {Ire}) who was successful in the Listed Heron Stakes and was placed in the G2 Prix Dollar and G2 Prix Guillaume d'Ornano. A half to the G2 Champagne Stakes winner Saamidd (GB) (Street Cry {Ire}) and the listed scorer and group-placed Masaarr (Distorted Humor) from Gerald Leigh's family of Barathea (Ire), her yearling filly is by Wootton Bassett (GB) while she also has a 2024 full-sister to Saleymm. PINHOLE (GB) (c, 2, Frankel {GB})--Nimble Thimble, by Mizzen Mast), an encouraging fifth on debut over seven furlongs at Newmarket in October, was allowed to creep forward and shadow the early leader by halfway. Staying on to gain the advantage approaching the two-furlong pole, the 8-11 favourite was clear when eased down late en route to a 2 1/4-length verdict over Dixieland Blues (GB) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}). The dam, a half to Diesis (GB)'s G1 Phoenix Stakes-winning sire Three Valleys, has produced Frankel's G1 Fillies' Mile heroine and G1 1,000 Guineas third Quadrilateral (GB) and the listed-placed Boardman (GB) (Kingman {GB}). "She is not one who stands out at home, but she has taken everything we have thrown at her."

Bred by Yulong Investments, who offered her at the Inglis
