

BARNES ROMPS IN SAN VICENTE

Barnes | Benoit

Zedan Racing Stable's Barnes (Into Mischief), a $3.2-million Fasig-Tipton Saratoga yearling, made it a perfect two-for-two for Bob Baffert with a jaw-dropping performance in Saturday's GII San Vicente Stakes at Santa Anita.

The even-money favorite was placed in a tracking second by Juan Hernandez, gained command approaching the quarter pole and leveled off beautifully in the stretch to win with authority by 5 1/2 lengths. His Baffert-trained stablemate Romanesque (Practical Joke), a debut winner over freshly minted 'TDN Rising Star' Rodriguez (Authentic), rounded out the exacta. Narrow second-choice 'TDN Rising Star' Bullard (Gun Runner), a last-out winner of the GIII Bob Hope Stakes, was third.

Barnes, named after Baffert's longtime right-hand man Jimmy Barnes, made the Hall of Famer's return to Churchill Downs a winning one with a hard-fought debut win going 5 1/2 furlongs beneath the Twin Spires Nov. 27.

Barnes was the first starter for Baffert at the Louisville track since Churchill Downs, Inc. (CDI) on July 19, 2024, announced the lifting of a corporation-imposed three-year suspension that had kept the Hall-of-Fame trainer from racing in the GI Kentucky Derby and at any of CDI's tracks nationwide.

"You just keep him healthy, when you get a good horse, you have to keep him healthy and then everything flows," Baffert said after saddling his 14th San Vicente winner.

SOPHOMORE SPOTLIGHT

In addition to impressive GII San Vicente Stakes winner Barnes (Into Mischief), three other sophomores enjoyed the spotlight in listed stakes races across the country Saturday afternoon. The Iowa-bred Cyclone State (McKinzie) collected 10 points on the road to the Kentucky Derby with a dominant wire-to-wire win for trainer Chad Summers in the Jerome Stakes at the Big A. Coal Battle (Coal Front) followed up his victory in the Remington Springboard Mile Stakes with a feel-good tally in the Smarty Jones Stakes at Oaklawn Park, good for 10 points on the road to the Kentucky Derby. He is trained by Lonnie Briley. 'TDN Rising Star' Guns Loaded (Gun Runner), meanwhile, held on to score by a neck for trainer Jose D'Angelo in Gulfstream's Mucho Macho Man Stakes.

Bob Baffert, Jimmy Barnes & Juan Hernandez | Benoit

“I’m happy for Amr (Zedan), he had to really stretch to get this horse. When you have clientele like that it is everything. This horse looked like that as a yearling, he looks like (broodmare sire) American Pharoah body wise. He has a lot of American Pharoah in him and it worked out.”

Baffert continued, “I knew he would run well. I was watching Juan, he knows the horse well and he said he was a little green. But everyone who has worked him says he has another gear in him. They were all a little green and the second out is the most important for all these horses.”

Barnes added, “They surprised me and I was honored. I was a little nervous, but it is working out well so far. I had a little bit of a knot in my stomach, but it will only get better after this.”

Pedigree Notes:

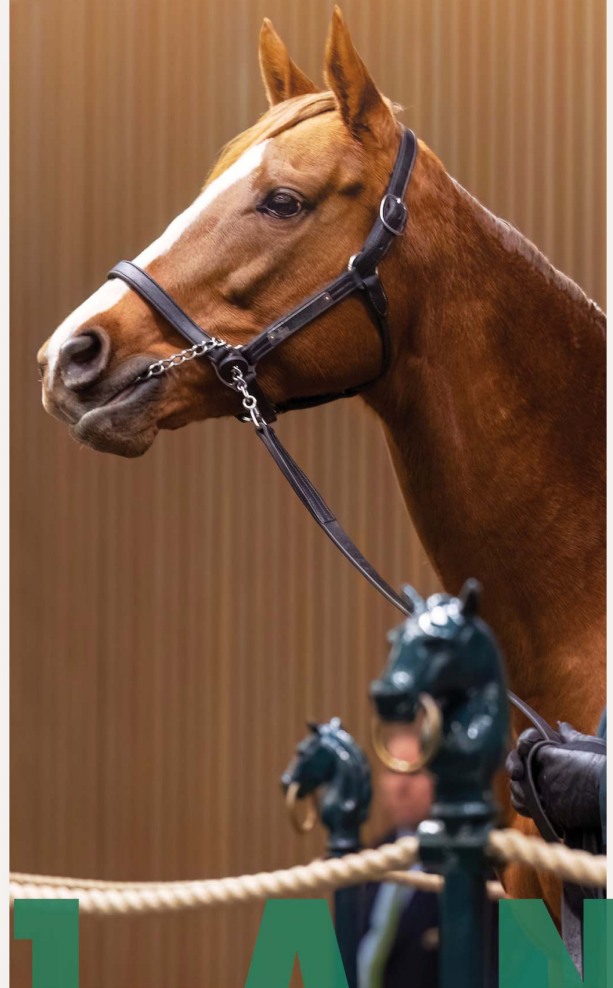

Barnes becomes the 80th graded winner worldwide for his all-conquering sire Into Mischief. The Kinsman Farm-bred All American Dream (American Pharoah), a maiden of two career starts for Jeffrey Drown and Don Rachel, is also represented by an Essential Quality colt of 2023 and a Flightline filly of 2024. She was bred back to Into Mischief. Barnes's third dam is the classy MGISW Dream Supreme (Seeking the Gold), who produced GISW Majestic Warrior (A.P. Indy). Barnes is bred similarly as promoted GI Kentucky Derby winner Mandaloun (Into Mischief) and G1 Dubai World Cup winner Laurel River (Into Mischief), who are both out of Empire Maker mares.

Richi | Benoit

Chilean import Richi (Chi) (Practical Joke), second while making her North American debut in the Desert Stormer Stakes June 2, went one better off the bench to upset 1-5 favorite and her Bob Baffert-trained stablemate Pleasant (Munnings) in Saturday's GIII Las Flores Stakes at Santa Anita.

Off at odds of 3-1 with the blinkers coming off here, Richi sat a tracking trip in an inside third, shot through an opening along the rail at the top of the stretch and blasted off from there to defeat the GI Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Sprint third-place finisher by 1 1/2 lengths.

Richi made nine starts in her native land, led by wins in the 2023 G1 Alberto Solari Magnasco and G1 Tanteo de Potrancas. She was named champion 2-year-old filly that season.

"She's completely changed since she has been here," Baffert said. "She was really light, and they ran her really long distances. Maybe that was all they had there. Since coming here, I took the blinkers off and she has filled out and changed a lot since August--since Del Mar we freshened her up. She was training really well and I think she will settle and she should be able to go long."

Practical Joke is responsible for 11 winners at the top level worldwide. Four of them, including Richi, were produced by Scat Daddy mares.

DOWNGRADED SANTA YNEZ STILL OFFERS OAKS POINTS ON SUNDAY

by J.N. Campbell

Last year, the Santa Ynez Stakes was issued a downgrade from its Grade III status and tabbed as a listed race for 3-year-old fillies in 2025. However, Kentucky Oaks points remain on the table--10 will be deposited in the winner's account--when the bell rings at Santa Anita on Sunday. The Santa Ynez is now part of 1/ST Racing's 3-Year-Old Filly Series, which is sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

Made the morning-line favorite at 5-2 is Hronis Racing's A.Z. Wildcat (Munnings). The chestnut stalked the pace nicely and ended up breaking her maiden by 1 3/4 lengths at Los Alamitos June 30. Back to work in October, the John Sadler trainee gets the services of jockey Flavien Prat, who incidently has won the Santa Ynez four times over the last six years. The top rider seems poised to take home the Eclipse Award after a banner 2024.

Standing in A.Z. Wildcat's way is Reddam Racing's Look Forward (Bolt d'Oro). Winning on debut at Del Mar Nov. 8, the filly was in trainer Ben Cecil's care before he sadly passed away. Cecil's one-time protégé Michael McCarthy took over and Look Forward was the runner-up in the Gil Starlet Stakes at Los Alamitos Dec. 7.

Hall of Fame trainer Bob Baffert brings a trio of hopefuls into the Santa Ynez, including $550,000 Keeneland September grad Howin (Gun Runner). In her first start, the Baoma Corp buy graduated by 3 3/4 lengths on debut at Santa Anita in mid-October. Howin's stablemate Mawu (Blame), who is also owned by the same outfit, is looking to get back on track as she returns to one turn.

The more accomplished Baffert horse is Silent Law (Tiz the Law). Turning in a pair of strong starts in a maiden special weight where she won by 10 lengths at Los Al in late September and in the Anoakia Stakes by 3 1/2 lengths at Santa Anita a month later, the dark bay finished as the runner-up in the Desi Arnaz Stakes at Del Mar Nov. 16.

The runner who wired the Desi Arnaz field that afternoon, Practical Dream (Practical Joke), is drawn in here for trainer Tim Yakteen after she was well-beaten in the Starlet.

$10,000 WINNER REVEALED IN SANTA ANITA'S MYSTERY MUTUEL VOUCHER PROMOTION

Manuel B. of Garden Grove, CA, who participated in Santa Anita's Mystery Mutuel Voucher promotion, won the grand prize of $10,000, Santa Anita announced Saturday.

Manuel, who has regularly attended Santa Anita for more than 15 years, said he has participated in every previous Mystery Mutuel Voucher promotion and had only cashed $2 or $5 tickets. He said he loves Santa Anita and playing the horses. Manuel added he plans to use the $10,000 toward the purchase of a new car.

All Santa Anita 1/ST REWARDS members receive direct mailers throughout Santa Anita's live race meets, which include Mystery Mutuel Vouchers. Participants win rewards of either $5, $10, $20, $100, $1,000 or in some lucky cases, $10,000.

Mystery Mutuel vouchers are mailed to 1/ST REWARDS members periodically throughout the Classic, Hollywood and Autumn Meets.

RODRIGUEZ A FIRST 'TDN RISING STAR' FOR AUTHENTIC

Rodriguez | Benoit

by Stefanie Grimm

Newly-turned second season sire Authentic was represented by his first 'TDN Rising Star' Saturday when Rodriguez (c, 3, Authentic--Cayala, by Cherokee Run) opened up on a maiden special weight field at Santa Anita to graduate at second asking.

While only second best behind stablemate Romanesque (Practical Joke) in his debut going 6 1/2 furlongs at Del Mar Nov. 23, the 1-5 favorite clearly relished the stretch out to the mile Saturday. Drawn against the rail, he was ridden for the lead by jockey Juan Hernandez and allowed to dictate terms up front with company from Rank (Honor A.P.) who never let the pacesetter get too comfortable up the backstretch.

By midway around the far turn, it was clear Rodriguez had plenty more to offer as he began to shake off that pressure and, when he swung past the quarter pole, the race was only for second. Under a hands and heels ride, he cruised home a decisive winner to graduate second time out. A strong stretch run got fellow second-time starter Baeza (McKinzie), the younger half-brother to full-siblings Mage (Good Magic) and Dornoch, up for second.

GI Kentucky Derby winner Authentic, a son of Into Mischief, had 24 winners in his first crop--led by stakes-winning Power Connection--while the $485,000 paid for Rodriguez at Keeneland September in 2023 helped elevate Authentic to leading freshman yearling sire that year. First dam Cayala, though not much of a race mare, has outdone herself in her second career--producing seven foals with all seven seeing the winner's circle led by GIII Southwest Stakes winner One Liner (Into Mischief) and MSW/GISP Provocateur (Into Mischief).

This is the family of GISW Albertus Maximus (Albert the Great) and late sire GISW Daredevil (More Than Ready). Rodriguez is his dam's youngest reported offspring as a return cover to Authentic failed to yield a live foal in 2023 and she also failed to produce when bred to both Practical Joke and Life Is Good for 2024. Hope springs eternal however as she is due back to Authentic for a 2025 full-sibling to Rodriguez.

Already a two-time stakes winner with 10 points on the Road to the Kentucky Derby in his possession, Coal Battle doubled that total Saturday and made it three in a row with a strong win in Saturday's Smarty Jones Stakes at Oaklawn Park.

Clearly a horse that can take his track with him (he's now made six starts over six different surfaces and on slop, mud, grass and fast going), the son of MGSW Coal Front jumped up last time out to upset the Remington Springboard Mile Dec. 13 at odds of 6-1 and secure himself his first 10 points towards Churchill.

Wheeled back here as the 9-2 third choice in his longest distance to date, Coal Battle broke sharply from the far outside gate and was clearly keen to go on with it outside of Mo Quality.

Coal Battle | Coady Media

That pair showed the way through moderate fractions with the opening half going in :49.03 as race favorite Kale's Angel joined the fray into the far turn. Shaken up at the quarter pole, Coal Battle responded in kind and came home nicely, padding his advantage to win going away as Mo Quality just edged Kale's Angel for the minor placings. Coal Battle now sits second on the Road the Kentucky Derby leaderboard behind only GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile winner Citizen Bull (Into Mischief).

"Today, he went to the front and was pricking his ears. When he stayed up there, I'm thinking: 'I'm going to steal it, jockey.' He ran big, big," said winning trainer Lonnie Briley. "Every time we run him, he just seems to surprise us. He's a neat little horse. I don't know if it's set in yet [having a Kentucky Derby candidate]. No, it's crazy for the little guy."

One of five stakes winners for Coal Front, Coal Battle is the first foal out of a stakes-placed first dam who has since produced a now 2-year-old Goldencents colt named Golden Mane. While she lost her 2024 Mo Tom foal, Wolfblade is due back to Frosted for this year. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

Out the fastest and never giving his rivals a chance, Cyclone State picked up an easy 10 points on the Road to the Kentucky Derby with an eye-catching gate-to-wire win in the Jerome Stakes.

Sent to the lead early under Luis Rivera, Jr. despite acting up in the gate, the 3-1 shot never seemed anything but a winner as he posted fractions of :23.43, :47.25, and 1:13.20 as he coasted into the lane with an eight-length advantage.

Cyclone State | Coglianesse

Kept to business as Omaha Omaha slowly cut into the margin, it was too much too late, and Cyclone State came in 3 1/2 lengths best. Ican got the best of the photo for third.

The victor came into this contest on a two-race win streak which started Nov. 3 over this track when he graduated from the maiden ranks in his fifth try by 2 1/2 lengths. His margin over optional claimers last out Dec. 6 was a similar margin, but with Ican claiming runner-up honors there.

“He's just a special horse. He's a horse we've always been high on,” said winning trainer Chad Summers. “He reared up a little bit at the start, but we've learned with him. Nobody goes in the gate with him--he's got a little bit of a funny mouth, he doesn't like that.”

“Luis Rivera has worked with him a lot, getting on him in the morning and in the afternoon. He just continues to get better. Obviously, a deep, tiring, heavy track today. The rail didn't look like it was that great. We wanted to get off the rail but kind of got stuck there.”

Cyclone State's connections have some discussions in their future as the Gill Withers Stakes with Kentucky Derby qualifying points runs Feb. 1, and the one-turn mile G3 Saudi Derby at King Abdulaziz Racecourse runs Feb. 22 with their horse nominated to the latter.

“He's nominated to Saudi. The '[nominations]' come out on the eighth and I think this will get us an invitation. There's a lot of things to take into consideration at this point. We're going to get him down to Florida [for now].”

“We'll re-group [at Palm Meadows] and gather ourselves and see where we're at. It's a good position to be in with 10 points, but obviously you need at least 40 to go where you want to go. We'll evaluate the options and make the best plan. Obviously, he likes Aqueduct and we're not going to be afraid to ship back up here.”

Cyclone State is the second offspring for Chanel's Legacy to gain black-type behind SP Zatarra (Audible), who was visiting the winner's circle at Oaklawn Park after the sixth race Saturday not long after his younger brother claimed Kentucky Derby points. Their dam, herself a staple at Hot Springs during her career as she contested the Kentucky Oaks trail on the circuit, has a 2-year-old filly by Blame and a yearling colt by Volatile in the wings. She is due to McKinzie for a full-sibling this year. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

The formal kick to the Florida series saw Guns Loaded hit his mark in the nick of time to take home the 14th rendition of the Mucho Macho Man Stakes at Gulfstream Park on Saturday.

As a juvenile, the colt debuted as the runner-up last August at Saratoga, but he donned cap and gown 2 1/2 months later with an eye-catching performance under the Twin Spires. For his efforts, he was administered the oath as the latest 'TDN Rising Star' in town.

Sent to trainer Jose D'Angelo's southern base at Palm Meadows, the dark bay arrived as the 6-5 choice here. Guns Loaded blazed out of the gates like it was the O.K. Corral and proceeded to make every pole a winning one. With the field in hot pursuit, the 'Rising Star' drove towards the wire. However, Treaty of Rome was looking to collect his own reward and the bay almost made high noon, but he came up short by a neck.

"I was pretty sure that he was going to be on the lead," said trainer Jose D'Angelo. "I was just afraid that he would go too fast because it was his first time going the mile and from the number one [post] you have to ask a little bit from the gate, but everything worked perfect." Cont.

Guns Loaded (right) | Ryan Thompson

“I worked a little this week at the gate with him...because you have to go in before everybody, wait, and break sharp, and that’s what happened.”

“Today he looked green again,” D’Angelo said. “He ran the first time out in Saratoga and he tried to go inside, and he did the same today. I asked Luis [Saez] about the gallop out and he said when he saw the other horse he got another gear. So that’s good, but we have to train him now going forward.”

D’Angelo added that the GIII Holy Bull Stakes at Gulfstream Feb. 1 would be the colt’s next target.

The winner’s dam is responsible for a yearling colt named Rockin N Roastin (Curlin), who went to Flying Dutchman for $535,000 at the Fasig-Tipton Saratoga Sale, and she foaled a filly by Gun Runner last year. A $450,000 OBS April 2-year-old buy for Up Up & Away Stables, Sky My Sky was entered in Flameaway’s book for this term. Guns Loaded’s second dam Dark Sky sold to Summer Wind Farm in 2011 for $1.5 million during Keeneland November and the family includes French MG1SW Nebraska Tornado (Storm Cat) and MG1SW Westover (GB) (Frankel {GB}). Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

Coming into this contest already dually placed at the highest level, Nitrogen turned on the nitrous in the stretch to run down her rivals and claim her first stakes victory.

Nitrogen | Ryan Thompson

Last seen running third Nov. 1 in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf behind European powerhouse, 'TDN Rising Star', and multiple Group/Grade I winner Lake Victoria (Ire) (Frankel {GB}), and GSW May Day Ready (Tapit), Nitrogen had earlier tried Canadian Grade I company at Woodbine. Third in the GI Johnnie Walker Natalma Stakes Sept. 14 behind GISW And One More Time (Omaha Beach) and GISP Vixen (Vekoma), the public understandably made her the 9-5 betting choice here.

Settled off the pace in fifth early, and largely able to avoid the traffic which shut off Love Cervere on the rail entering the first turn, she was patiently handled until the far bend behind :23.11, :47.51 and 1:11.65 splits. Gaining her opening nearing the eighth pole, she roared home on the outside to overhaul an extremely brave Love Cervere by a half-length as that one claimed the runner-up spot in a photo. Civetta was on the losing end.

A homebred for D. J. Stables, Nitrogen is the second to earn black-type for the dam, whose first was the accomplished runner Love to Shop. Tiffany Case came up barren in 2023 after a trip to Constitution, but she did produce a now yearling filly by Gun Runner. She was not bred for 2025. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

G W's Girl, who won her Sept. 19 turf sprint debut at Delaware Park and finished fifth in Keeneland's Oct. 6 Indian Summer Stakes on turf last season, made a smooth transition to fast dirt when rallying strongly to claim the Mockingbird Stakes.

Showing she handled the main track here with a solid four-furlong breeze in :48 3/5 on New Year's Eve day, the 5-1 third choice bided her time in fourth during the early going as 36-1 long shot Lady Crush (Liam's Map) rolled through an opening quarter in :21.60. As Lady Crush retreated, the stalking 2-5 favorite 'TDN Rising Star' Shisospicy took over with the forwardly-placed Chatter in pursuit and went three lengths clear approaching the eighth pole. The four-wide G W's Girl was full of run and gradually gaining, reeling in the daughter of Mitole in the late going to prevail by one length.

"She's a classy filly. She showed it today. Surface doesn't matter," said conditioner Greg Compton. "Hopefully, she can stretch out at the mile and a sixteenth next time."

"Actually, what was going through my mind is a just a picture-perfect scenario. We had somebody [Lady Crush] go up and pressure the 7 [Shisospicy] and we were able to sit back and get a nice trip."

Her winning dam is out of El Prado Essence, MGSW-Can, $890,281 and her dam's half-brother is the Speightstown gelding Essence Hit Man, MGSW-Can & GSP, $1,414, 689, the champion sprinter in Canada in 2011 and 2012. Essence of Audre, while in foal to Mitole, was hammered to Rancho Monarca for $10,000 at the recently-completed 2024 OBS Winter Mixed Sale. She produced a 2-year-old Basin colt who went to McMahan & Hill Bloodstock for $15,000 at the 2024 OBS Winter Mixed Sale. 6th-Oaklawn, $130,000, Alw, 1-4, (NW1$X), 4yo/up, 1m, 1:38.08, ft, 3 lengths.

ZATARA (c, 4, Audible--Chanel's Legacy {MSW & GSP, $413,144}, by Dominus) was the runner-up at Oaklawn in his first career start against maiden special weight company back in April before graduating at Prairie Meadows a month later. Just missing by a nose in the Prairie Mile Stakes in early June, his recent form has included well-beaten starts against optional claimers at Keeneland in late October and facing allowance types in Hot Springs Dec. 6. Fitted with blinkers and overlooked at 21-1 here, Zatarra saved ground along the rail in third into the first turn. The 4-year-old bided his time up the backstretch, but around the far turn he tipped to the three path. Jetting to the lead at the quarter pole, the longshot kept to the task down the lane and sealed the deal by three lengths over Big City (City of Light). Cont.

Mirahmadi | Benoit

First to the races for his dam, the winner is a half-brother to Cyclone State (McKinzie), SW, $208,250, who banked 10 points on the Road to the Kentucky Derby after winning the Jerome Stakes at the Big A on Saturday afternoon. Chanel's Legacy is responsible for a yearling filly by Blame and a weanling colt by Volatile. She was bred to McKinzie once again for this year. ENLIGHTEN (c, 4, City of Light--Legal Tender, by Giant's Causeway) just missed in a series of maiden efforts in late 2023, took nearly a year off and finally got his first win when brought back over Saturday's course and distance Nov. 30. Facing winners for the first time, the 9-2 third choice was forwardly placed in third along the inside past the half in :46.32 before shifting out to advance on pacesetter Fredo (Nyquist). Up to lead by the furlong marker, Enlighten stayed clear to lead in Mount Horeb (Hard Spun) by a length. Out of a half-sister to G3 UAE Oaks winner Nomorerichblondes (Hard Spun), Enlighten has a 2-year-old Constitution half-sister and a yearling half-brother by Hard Spun. MIRAHMADI (c, 4, Into Mischief--More Chocolate {GSW & MGISP, $373,892}, by Malibu Moon), a runner-up in the GI Del Mar Futurity as a juvenile, took the maiden mic at 'The Great Race Place' Oct. 12. Though track announcer Frank Mirahmadi's eponymous equine athlete was well-beaten in the GIII Native Diver Stakes at Del Mar Nov. 23, the colt was backed as the 2-1 second choice here behind 'TDN Rising Star' and Insight runner Eagles Flight (Curlin). Blowing and going out of the blocks, the Bob Baffert trainee wrestled the lead away from Flightline's half-brother and made the front into the first turn. The 4-year-old sailed up the backstretch as the pair separated themselves from the rest of the field. In control around the far turn, Mirahmadi clearly had plenty left in the tank and he visited the winner's circle after a 4 1/2-length score over the favorite. The winner's dam is responsible for back-to-back fillies by McKinzie starting in 2022. More Chocolate visited Good Magic for this year. Sales History: $1,050,000 Ylg '22 KEESEP. RECHARGE (f, 4, Gun Runner--Remit {MSW, $257,556}, by Tapit) started her career on a three-race win streak until she went to Oaklawn for the GII Fantasy Stakes in late March and ran headlong into Horse of the Year candidate, 'TDN Rising Star' MGISW Thorpedo Anna (Fast Anna), finishing fifth. After running eighth in the GII Black-Eyed Susan Stakes at Pimlico May 17, she went on the shelf until Dec. 4 when returning in an allowance contest at Remington Park. She took that field gate to wire by 2 3/4 lengths and did the same here. Setting a pressured pace on the rail, she gave them the slip turning for home and it was too much too late to overcome for SP Our Davina (Midshipman), who came on strongly to chase Recharge in. A half-sister to a pair of smart runners in Finite (Munnings), MGSW & GISP, $849,869 and Reride (Candy Ride {Arg}), MSW-USA, GSP-UAE, $461,010, the victress is the most recent homebred for Winchell Thoroughbreds to garner black-type out of the mare. Cont.

He picked up a 96 Beyer-worthy second two back June 29 in the Texas Turf Classic Stakes at Lone Star. Victorious on the main track and the grass, he returned to the lawn here to track the early pace from fifth and pouncing in the lane to roll home a 4 3/4-length winner over GSP Ocelot (Big Blue Kitten). Ole Crazy Bone is the only runner to garner black-type for dam Southern Gem, a course record-setter during her time on the track. CHIEF LIAM (c, 3, Violence--Liam's Lookout, by Liam's Map) was well-beaten in the mud sprinting on debut against New York-breds at Aqueduct Nov. 23. With Lasix for the first time and as a 9-1 shot here, the bay tracked just to the outside of the leader into the first turn. Heavily favored The Warden (War of Will) bullied his way into contention at the top of the backstretch and got into a speed duel with the pacesetter. Content to hold his spot through the far turn, Chief Liam got into gear in the three path, grabbed the lead confidently with a furlong left and rolled home by two lengths over Crisis Manager (Liam's Map). The chalk finished in fifth place. His dam's first foal, the winner has a yearling half-sister by Twirling Candy and a late March weanling half-sister by Nyquist. Herself a half-sister to Gil Fountain of Youth Stakes hero Itsaknockout (Lemon Drop Kid), Liam's Lookout was entered in Forte's book for this term. Souper Times | Lauren King 1st-Gulfstream, $75,000, Msw, 1-4, 3yo, 1mT, 1:34.83, fm, 1/2 length.

SOUPER TIMES (c, 3, Not This Time--Royale Paradise, by Unbridled's Song), a first-time starter debuting around two turns, broke widest of the 10-horse field but shifted down to be just two wide into the first turn while racing mid pack. Never far off the front and enjoying a clean trip past the half in :47.53, the 8-1 shot began to come under a drive while fanning out six across the top of the stretch as the group began to chip away at Global Prosperity's (Global Campaign) lead. With a strong final sixteenth, Souper Times surged past the pacesetter to hit the wire a half-length ahead of Candytown (Speightstown) to his inside. The $370,000 FTSAUG grad is a half to GIII Las Virgenes Stakes runner up Queen of Thorns (Violence) and to SP Bano Solo (Goldencents). Royale Paradise saw her 2023 Uncle Mo colt bring $550,000 to the partnership of SF Bloodstock, Starlight Racing and Madaket Stables at Keeneland September last year but lost her 2024 Not This Time foal and was barren on a Tapit cover for 2025. Sales History: $370,000 Ylg '23 FTSAUG. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $45,000. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

VERSUS (c, 3, Tiz the Law--Evita's Sister, by Candy Ride {Arg}) was unveiled at a mile over the Gulfstream grass Dec. 7 and finished off the board by only two lengths.

Versus | Lauren King

As a 7-2 shot here, the bay was in tight after the bell, but soon settled towards the rear of the pack as favorite After Taxes (Ire) (Kodiac {GB}) showed the way into the first turn. Looking the part up the backstretch, Versus started to move up with a wide sweeping move around the far turn. The 3-year-old shifted into high gear down the lane, took aim at the chalk and with a well-timed ride hit the bull's-eye by a neck at the wire. 'Insights' runner Aqueous (Omaha Beach) finished last. The winner is a half-brother to Sister Nation (Into Mischief), SW & MGSP-Can, SP-USA, $238,341 and Money Supply (Practical Joke), GSW, $738,951. A full-sister to GI La Brea Stakes heroine Evita Argentina, Evita's Sister last year foaled an April colt by Mandaloun and was sent back to that same sire for this season. MISO PHANSY (f, 3, Karakontie {Jpn})--Sandy Cheeks, by Souvenir Copy came a neck short in her five-furlong unveiling at Del Mar Nov. 22. Adding just a half furlong and Lasix Saturday, the 1-2 favorite had to race wide from an outside gate up the backstretch but was never too far off the speed from mid pack. Three wide past the quarter pole, she pulled back pacesetter Nepal (Sir Prancealot {Ire}) and surged ahead to win by two lengths over Maria Tallchief (Om). Cont.

LOVE AND POETRY (f, 3, Hard Spun--Grace and Dignity {SP}, by Animal Kingdom) faded to second last on debut Oct. 26 at Keeneland over their turf course, but produced a much-improved result here. A 5-1 chance with first-time Lasix, she was bumped at the jump and set up shop in ninth as the pacesetters stepped out in :24.08 and :50.95 early splits. Five wide heading for home, she set her sights on the leading pair at the sixteenth pole and overhauled Aterradora (Ire) (Starspangledbanner {Aus}) to win by a length. From the immediate female family of MSW & MGSP Frosted Departure (Frosted) and MGSW Rocketry (Hard Spun), the victress is the most recent to the races for her dam, who has 2-year-old Miss Maxine (Maxfield) still in the wings as well as a yearling colt by Golden Pal. FLOOD ZONE (c, 3, Frosted--Curls for Girls, by Curlin), who closed well despite a wide trip when second in his Dec. 7 six-furlong debut, showed the benefit of that experience under Reyly Gutierrez. Despite being dismissed at 16-1 in the eight-horse field, Flood Zone broke cleanly and pressured Mahovich (McKinzie)'s early pace set in :23.06 and :46.85. When given his cue by Gutierrez, he put that rival away approaching the eighth pole and pulled away from the debuting 6-5 favorite He's a Beast (The Big Beast) for a 5 1/4-length score. Flood Zone's winning dam is a half-sister to both Sue's Good News, dam of Tiz Miz Sue, GISW, $1,129,079, and Easyfromthegitgo, SW & GSP, $695,056. Curls for Girls has an unnamed 2-year-old Maclean's Music colt and an unnamed yearling Mo Donegal colt. She was bred to Arabian Lion for this term. TOM SAWYER (c, 3, Practical Joke--Jan's Perfect Star {SW, $173,808}, by Imperialism) had a very rough debut at Horseshoe last October in the sealed slop, losing his footing and forced to be taken up near the five-eighths pole to finish last. Gaining blinkers and Lasix for this jump after he was given some time to freshen up, he was quick to step forward but so was a pack for the hopeful behind and around him. Setting a pressured pace and fending off challengers entering the homestretch, he was two lengths best in the end as Dr Skyscraper (Sky Flight) was best of the scramble to finish a clear second. A half-brother to Road Bloc (Street Sense), SW-UAE, $142,927, Tom Sawyer is the most recent to the races for Jan's Perfect Star, who has a yearling colt by Volatile in the wings. She is due to Yaupon this year. Sales history: $110,000 Ylg '23 TTAYRL; $120,000 RNA 2yo '24 EASMA. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, $23,900. Click for the Equibase.com chart.

ROSS COAKLEY Q&A: '2024 WASN'T WHAT I HOPED IT WOULD BE - BUT I WILL REGROUP'

Ross Coakley | Emma Berry

By Brian Sheerin

We live in a social media era. Be it on Instagram, X or Facebook, nine times out of 10, what people put on the social media platforms is the best version of themselves. That's what made jockey Ross Coakley's post for the new year so refreshing on Facebook.

The Irishman has partnered almost 150 winners since moving to Britain in 2021. But unhappy with last year's tally of 33 wins and 328 rides, which was down from 47 wins and 375 rides in 2023, he spoke openly about how 2024 represented a disappointment on a professional front at least.

Make no mistake, Coakley is not complaining about his lot. Instead, he simply pointed out that not everything has to be perfect on social media, and his post may well have resonated with others who may not have knocked it out of the park last year.

The 30-year-old expands on his reasoning for moving to Britain in the first place, goals for 2025 and much more in this week's Q&A. Cont. p3

MAN CITY OWNER SHEIKH MANSOUR BUYS HARAS DE FRESNAY LE BUFFARD IN €28- MILLION DEAL

Manchester City owner Sheikh Mansour bin Zayed al-Nahyan, through his Al Wathba Stud, purchased Haras de Fresnay le Buffard and surrounding environs for a reported €28 million late last year. The transaction was confirmed by Mansour's lawyer Edouard Vitry on New Year's Eve.

Included in the transaction are approximately 240 hectares of land with over 200 hectares devoted to lush pastures. The primary 16-room chateau was renovated in 2015. Around 12 hectares are parkland, in addition to two more luxury residences--La Haute Cole and La Belle Etoile--also on the property. An additional 23 supplementary dwellings to accommodate staff and visiting guests are also part of the deal.

Located in the Orne region of France, the estate dates back to the 18th century. Cont. p6

BS: You were refreshingly honest on Facebook in discussing how your year went. What led to you writing that post as I am sure it resonated with plenty of people?

RC: Sometimes these things cross your mind and more times you don't bother posting. But, do you know what? I decided to post it because I thought it might resonate with some people. Being honest about these things when you can is important. I wrote that Facebook post in about three minutes because it was honest. When you are speaking the truth, you barely have to think about it. We live in an era where everyone is putting the best version of themselves on social media. I wanted to put a post up for the end of the year but, when I looked back on all of my winners, there wasn't anything that jumped out to me. That's why I decided to be honest and say that 2024 wasn't exactly what I had hoped it would be. It was one of those years where the tally of winners was disappointing but all you can do is regroup and put the head down for 2025. I am going to Dubai in a couple of weeks and the hope would be that I would pick up some rides. I am looking forward to that. When I come back from that, it will be early February and the Flat season proper will almost be upon us at that point.

You said in the post that it wasn't a great year on the track for you. Okay, your numbers took a dip on previous seasons, but 33 winners from 328 rides and over £360,000 in prize-money is not bad by any means.

There are two ways of looking at it. You could be somebody who gets a lot of rides and, while you don't get a lot of winners, you're making an income through the riding fee. But from my point of view, last year represented a drop-off and, as a jockey, you're always hoping to keep building. The fact that it dropped off was disappointing. You want it to go back in an upward curve and can't afford for it to drop again because there is a lot of sacrifice and work involved to keep the show on the road over here. There is a lot of racing and your work-life balance takes a little bit of a hit in Britain compared to Ireland so you need to be getting the results on the track to justify the sacrifices.

It might be a bit of an intrusive question but what sort of numbers would you need to be hitting in order to make a good living riding in Britain? Cont. p4

RC: There's no magic number. The truth of it is, I made quite an okay living last year. But your expenses are a lot higher in Britain as you are spending a lot of time on the road so fuel, hotels and all of that kind of stuff adds up. You have to try and cover a much greater area compared to in Ireland. A lot of Flat jockeys are based in Newmarket but I suppose, the way my contacts developed, I am split between Newmarket and Lambourn. I am covering more ground than most people would be. I don't mind that, it just means my expenses will be higher than most people. I cover my bills but, equally, for the sacrifices you make, you'd want to be rewarded to justify it. For me, that's more than 33 winners a year. If you are riding 50 winners and getting in the region of 500 rides in a season, you'll make a very good living. There's probably more of a platform at that level over here than there is in Ireland. It's also interesting that, back in Ireland, a lot of jockeys' income is split between riding out in the mornings and riding in races. Because the volume of racing is much greater over here, there isn't the same scope to ride out in a yard in the mornings, therefore it would be hard to justify earning a wage in a yard where you're required to ride out every morning. So basically, your income is more or less your riding fee and whatever prize-money you manage to earn in a season. Some jockeys get sponsorship deals as well but they are becoming a bit more difficult to secure.

On the whole, the move to Britain has been a good fit for you as the rides did seem to dry up in Ireland.

I suppose my hand was forced a little bit in that if John Oxx didn't retire I probably never would have moved over here. When John Oxx retired, I had invested the previous few years of my career there, so I was left without a base when he called time on his career. The way it is in Ireland, there are only so many seats at every table and, when you are not on the table, it's very hard to get in. That was my reasoning at the time for making the move. When I moved over initially, which was the middle of the summer in 2021, I based myself with Hugo Palmer, who at the time was based in Newmarket. Things were in full flow over here and, as a result, people were into their own rhythm as to what jockeys they were using so it took me a bit of time to get a foothold. Rod Millman was integral in giving me some early opportunities and I spent a lot of time riding at the South Western tracks. That's where I got a bit of momentum and that's where I made some connections in Lambourn as I used to break up my trips to Chepstow and places like that by going in to ride for as many people as I could. Towards the end of my first season here, I got the opportunity to go in and ride work for Simon and Ed Crisford and that gave me a solid base to kick on from. Cont. p5

BS: You're still relatively young for a Flat jockey at 30 years of age. You said that 33 winners does not necessarily reward the sacrifices that you make. So what is it that you're hoping to get out of the game?

I am sure everyone feels they are not being rewarded for their efforts at certain times in this business. Also, this is a game where, no matter what you achieve, you will always want more. I think that's just the nature of the beast. I don't like setting targets because I don't think it's something you have any great control over. Me riding 10, 40 or 80 winners is not a reflection of my ability. It's more of a reflection of what luck I got along the way, the momentum I built up or what horses I managed to get on at the right time. I'm still the same rider and I feel like I have improved every year. Having served my apprenticeship in Ireland, I have built up plenty of experience and I have plenty of confidence in my ability in that regard. I did come into last season hoping I would hit the 50-winner mark. I have had a few Listed winners since moving over here as well and the hope is that you'd get more opportunities on the Saturdays. You want to be riding at the meetings that are on terrestrial television. That didn't materialise last year but it's a competitive field and there are so many good jockeys over here, nothing is going to be handed to you. You just have to control what you can control. After that, you just hope the results will look after themselves over a period of time.

In terms of mindset, it's all very well when things are going good. But when they are not, how do you keep positive and hungry?

From my point of view, the biggest sacrifice for me is my weight, because I am tall for a Flat jockey. There are very few blank days over here so you have to be very consistent with your weight in order to keep on top of it. If you were to let it slip at all, it would be very hard to get it back because you just don't have the time. Even when you have a quiet week, you just don't know what's around the corner so it's something I try to keep on top of all the time. That's the toughest thing for me.

Three Listed winners and a Group 3 success were added to your CV since you moved to Britain. I know you were disappointed about last year's tally but, you're clearly riding a better calibre of horse since you moved to Britain, and on the whole, I'd say you have no regrets?

Absolutely, I don't regret anything about the past three years. I am 30 now and, realistically, we'll see what happens. You never know what is around the corner and you'd always be looking ahead to see what the next chapter might be. It's something I am not afraid to talk about. You should always be prepared for life after being a jockey because, at the end of the day, an injury could force your hand in the morning. There were times when I was hell-bent on not even thinking about life outside of being a jockey. But there is a certain amount of freedom in accepting that there will be life after my time being a jockey. And that's healthy.

Have you thought about what the next chapter might be?

I would love the idea of training. Whether that's realistic in the current climate is another thing as you need so much capital and it would be hard to do it without a backer. I would also be open to something in the media. There are a lot of different avenues I could go down eventually but, for the time being at least, I am fully concentrated on the riding and we are going to give this year a good crack.

BLUE POINT COLT TAKES TAMPA ROUTE

In this series, the TDN takes a look at notable successes of European-based sires in North America. This week's column is highlighted by the victory of Relative Value at Tampa Bay Downs on Friday.

It's All Relative

Klaravich Stables' Relative Value (GB) (Blue Point {Ire}) became the latest horse to join the Making Waves ranks with a half-length debut victory at Tampa Bay Downs on Jan. 3 (video). Trained by Chad Brown, the son of Blind Faith (Ire) (Zoffany {Ire}) was bred by Ickworth Stud.

Sold by Ballyphilip Stud to Mike Ryan on behalf of Seth Klarman's operation for 310,000gns out of the Tattersalls October Yearling Sale Book 1, the colt was originally an 87,000gns weanling buy for that consignor during the 2022 December Foal Sale in that same ring.

The winner is the last reported foal and third winner from three foals for his winning dam, herself a half-sister to dual stakes winner Gabriel (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}), placed in the G2 Celebration Mile, G2 Bet365 Mile and in the G3 Diomed Stakes. Darley’s Blue Point has now sired 50% winners to runners (4/8) in the U.S. with Relative Value his fourth scorer there. Leading the charge for the son of Shamardal is GI Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Turf Sprint hero Big Evs (Ire), while Raqiya (Ire) won the GIII Goldikova Stakes.

Expert Eye Filly Captures Fair Grounds Affair

Pura Vida Investments’ Out Too Late (GB) (Expert Eye {GB}) graduated at Fair Grounds on Jan. 4 (video). Trained by Michael Maker, the bay was bred by Genesis Green Stud, and sold for 120,000gns to agent Deuce Greathouse on behalf of Pura Vida 2022 out of Book 1 of the Tattersalls October Yearling Sale from the draft of her breeder.

The daughter of the stakes-placed Miss Atomic Bomb (GB) (Intikhab) is the third foal and first winner for her dam. Out Too Late is followed by a 3-year-old Sea The Moon (Ger) half-brother named Moonlight Bomb (GB) who has yet to race.

Stallion Expert Eye now resides in South Africa, and he has accounted for five winners from eight runners in America (63%). A trio of fillies have been placed at stakes level there anchored by Beautifulnavigator (Ire), Isabel Alexandra (Ire), and Violet Gibson (Ire).

Repeat Winners

The multiple stakes winner Ozara (Ire) (Lope De Vega {Ire}) first featured in Making Waves in 2023 and was back in the winner’s circle on Friday (video). Placed at Grade III level, the 4-year-old filly races for Cheyenne Stable and trainer Christophe

Clement.

Gulfstream’s Abundantia Stakes was won by Making Waves alum Just A Care (Ire) (Australia {GB}) at the end of December (video). The Brian Lynch trainee races in the silks of Victoriam Farm, LLC.

DEUTSCHES DERBY HERO SISFAHAN SETTLES IN AT HARAS DE LONGECHAUX

German Derby winner Sisfahan (Fr) (Isfahan {Ger}) will stand at Haras de Longechaux in France beginning this year. His fee has been set at €2,800. Jour de Galop first reported the news.

A rare paternal descendant of Mill Reef (GB), the Darius Racing and Michael Motschmann runner enjoyed his biggest day in the sun in the 2021 G1 Deutsches Derby and was also a Group 2 winner in Italy for Henk Grewe. Through five seasons of racing, Sisfahan was placed three more times at the highest level in Germany, and he also ran third in the 2024 G2 Dubai City Of Gold in Dubai. Sisfahan was retired after finishing unplaced in the G1 Dubai Sheema Classic behind Rebel’s Romance (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) last March. His record stands at 18-3-5-3 and $848,831 in earnings. Cont. p7
